Submission No 242

INQUIRY INTO SAME SEX MARRIAGE LAW IN NSW

Name: Mrs Lynn Davy

Date received: 7/02/2013

Dear Sir,

I would like to confirm my belief that marriage is an institution between a man and a woman, committed to each other and that the term 'marriage' cannot therefore apply to same sex couples. I understand any laws concerning marriage should be debated at a Federal level and not at State Level.

I would like noted my opposition to any change in the definition of 'marriage' and believe that the union on a man and woman should remain as the only basis for marriage.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Lynn Davy
