CRICK, MR.:

Pers. expl. respecting misreport of speech in the Sydney Morning Herald, 6411.

CRICK, MR., EXPULSION OF:

Mr. Crick forcibly removed from the Assembly by the Serjeant-at-Arms and attendants for disobeying the Chairman of Committees, and motion by Sir Henry Parkes that the Chairman do leave the chair, and ask leave to sit again, to report to the House that an unseemly disturbance and disorder has taken place; the fact that the hon. member for West Macquarie, Mr. Crick, refused to obey the Chair, and for such refusal the Chairman called upon the Serjeant-at-Arms to remove the hon. member until he expressed his willingness to obey the Chair, and that the hon. member resisted with violence, 5165; motion debated, 5166-5184; motion agreed to, 5184; motion by Mr. Copeland that the Chairman leave the chair, report a point of order to the House, and ask leave to sit again so soon as the point of order is decided, the point of order being: that, inasmuch as the disorder had passed away by the removal of the hon. member for West Macquarie, the business having been resumed, and the Colonial Treasurer having been called upon to resume the debate on the financial statement, it is out of order to refer to the said disorder, either by reporting to Mr. Speaker or otherwise, upon which the Chair had expressed the opinion that the motion was perfectly in order, and had accepted the motion, 5175; motion debated, 5175-5184; motion negatived, 5184; House resumed and report presented by Mr. Melville, 5185; obs. by Mr. Crick, 5187; Mr. Crick forcibly removed from the Assembly by the Serjeant-at-Arms, and motion by Sir Henry Parkes that the words uttered by the hon. member for West Macquarie, Mr. Crick, on leaving the Chamber, are highly disorderly, and a gross breach of the privileges of the House; agreed to, 5188; motion by Sir Henry Parkes that the hon. member for West Macquarie, Mr. Crick, in Committee of the 29 April to 20 December, 1890.

Whole, as reported by the Chairman, having disregarded and defied the ruling of the Chair, and afterwards having violently resisted the Serjeant-at-Arms when that officer was directed to remove him, and continued such resistance until other officers rendered assistance, causing a great disorder and scandal, this House resolves that the said member be expelled from this House, 5188; debated by Mr. Dibbs, Mr. Willis, 5189; Mr. O'Sullivan, 5190; Mr. Slattery, 5891; Mr. Abigail, 5192; Mr. Copeland (who moved the adjournment of the debate), 5193; Mr. Melville, 5195; Mr. T. LAW REFORM :

Motion by Mr. Reid, that many of the methods of legal procedure in New South Wales, especially in the civil jurisdiction of the superior courts, are antiquated in form, complicated and uncertain in their operation, and unnecessarily expensive to all persons seeking justice, whether at law or in equity. That a much-needed branch of law reform is the consolidation (and, when expedient, the amendment), by one or more comprehensive measures, of much of the statute law, especially that part of it which, by virtue of a declaratory section in the imperial act 9 George IV, c. 83, embraces such English legislation from the earliest times down to the year 1828, as the judges of the colony may have occasion from time to time to decide to be applicable to this part of the empire at the present day. That this House desires earnestly to impress upon the Government the great urgency of law reform in these and other respects, and the immediate necessity for such inquiry and report by competent persons as will ensure the framing of measures conferring upon the people the advantages of a speedy and economical administration of justice, under a sound and efficient system of law—5809 ; debated by Mr. Want, 5818 ; Mr. Bruce Smith, 5819 ; Mr. Abigail, 5826 ;

Vote of Censure, adj., 4854.CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (Council):

Election of, 60.

Opinions of:

As to the relevancy or otherwise of the remarks of Mr. Heydon on clause 1 of the Divorce Amendment and Extension Bill, 632, 639, 642.

As to the relevancy or otherwise of the remarks of Mr. Salomons on clause 1 of the Divorce Amendment and Extension Bill, 645.

An hon. member has no right to move an amendment if other hon. members have indicated their intention to propose amendments in an earlier part of the clause, 1078.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Heydon to clause 1 of the Divorce Amendment and Extension Bill is not substantially the same as the one already negatived by the Committee, 1079.

Hon. members should not take notice of conversations at the table, 1080.

After an amendment has been put from the Chair it cannot be withdrawn unless by unanimous consent, 1294.

There can be no question as to the striking out of a clause submitted to the Committee, 3257.

Amendment by Mr. W. H. Suttor to clause 3 of the Board of Water Supply and Sewerage Offices Bill is out of order, 3258.

It was competent for the Committee to deal with the Australian Federation resolutions, 3748.

As to form of amendment for ballot for delegates to the National Australasian Convention, 4332.

Amendment by Mr. Simpson in clause 7 of Probate Bill was out of order, as it clearly involved the expenditure of public money, 4666.

See JACOB, Mr. A. H.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (Assembly):

Election of, 68.

Opinions of:

As to postponement of preamble of Agricultural Society Lease Bill, 1197, 1198.

It was within the province of any hon. member to direct the attention of the Chairman to the provisions of the 4th additional standing order, 1200.

The point taken by Mr. A. Brown as to the production of plans and book of reference did not invalidate the proceedings in Committee on the Kiama to Nowra Railway Bill, 1783.

An hon. member cannot move an amendment which seeks to do indirectly what the Committee has already directly negatived, 2269.

As to the enforcement of the rule relating to tedious repetition, 2609.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (Assembly):Opinions of (continued):

Under the 95th standing order any hon. member willfully or vexatiously interrupting the business is guilty of contempt, 2615.

The hon. member for Balmain, Mr. Frank Smith, must desist from tedious repetition, 2613.

Proposed amendment by Mr. J. Shepherd to clause 1 of Imprisonment for Debt Abolition Bill is in order, 2623.

It is not in order for a member to rise until the question has been fully stated, 2805.

Amendment made by select committee in Broken Hill Water Supply Bill was legitimately before the Committee, 3047.

Mr. Traill had exceeded the time usually allowed for drafting an amendment, and the Committee must proceed with the business, 3069.

Mr. Crick was not in order in discussing the question of private land held by the hon. member for Grenfell, 3146.

As to relevancy of Mr. Crick's remarks in Committee of Supply, 3885, 3886, 3887.

Unless an hon. member challenges the vote of another hon. member, on the ground of personal interest, the Chair cannot accept the challenge, 3889.

The hon. member, Mr. Traill, cannot raise the question that the Chairman is improperly in the chair, 4572.

Any matter with reference to the position of the Chairman must be discussed in the House, 4573.

If Mr. Traill again rises to interrupt the Colonial Treasurer he will be removed from the Chamber, 4574.

It is bordering on disorder for an hon. member on more than one occasion to call attention to the want of a quorum and then immediately walk out of the Chamber, 5073.

If Mr. Slattery persisted in interrupting the business of the Committee, he would have to be removed, 5073.

The hon. member for Redfern, Mr. Schey, must be careful not to bring himself under the rule with regard to tedious repetition, 5077.

The hon. member for Redfern, Mr. Schey, in consequence of tedious repetition, must, under the 4th standing order, discontinue his speech, 5078.

The Colonial Treasurer must withdraw the expression he used towards Mr. Crick, 5164.

The hon. member, Mr. Crick, must withdraw the expression addressed to the Colonial Treasurer, 5164.

The hon. member, Mr. Crick, must apologise to the Committee for having interrupted its proceedings, 5164.

The Serjeant-at-Arms ordered to remove Mr. Crick, 5164.

The action of the Chair can only be debated in the House or on some specific motion, 5167.

The point of order by Mr. Copeland, that a resolution to report disorder to the House could not be entertained because business had intervened, could not be sustained, 5172.

Volumes 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50.

The Chairman's opinion could not be discussed except upon a specific motion dissenting from it, 5174.

The hon. member for Bourke, Mr. Willis, must withdraw the expression "animated coffin from Bathurst," and apologise to the House, 5180.

The hon. member for Paddington must apologise for charging members with stonewalling, 5456.

As to relevancy of remarks of Mr. Bruce Smith on the Electoral Act Amendment Bill, 5450.

Motion to report progress cannot be received because it is obstructive in its character, 5549.

The hon. member, Mr. Waddell, must apologise for a disorderly expression, 5645.

Mr. O. O. Dangar and Mr. Schey directed to apologise for disorderly expressions, 5656.

Any motion to reduce an item in the estimates must be a motion for a substantial reduction, or it partakes of obstruction, 5703.

The hon. member for Redfern, Mr. Schey, directed to apologise for a disorderly remark, 5704, 5707.

As to whether a motion for the reduction of an item in the estimates must be withdrawn in order that a motion relating to a previous item may be moved, 5703.

The reduction of an item of £25 by one-fifth was a substantial reduction, 5710.

An hon. member is not in order in minutely discussing items preceding the one that has been dealt with, 5710.

As to the rule with regard to amendments in Committee of Supply, 5787.

It is usual to allow a general debate on the first item of military expenditure; but as soon as an amendment has been proposed the discussion must be confined to the item, 5791.

A motion by Mr. Hurley could not be accepted, because it did not relate to the estimate under discussion, 5792.

As to the standing order which relates to the manner in which the estimates should be dealt with, 5795.

The hon. member, Mr. Willis, was not in order in making reference to the private concerns of the Colonial Treasurer, 5797.

The hon. member, Mr. T. Walker, must desist from tedious repetition, 5993.

A general discussion on a department as a whole in Committee of Supply could only be allowed on the total estimate being put from the Chair, 6057.

The hon. member, Mr. Garvan, was not in order in discussing the salaries of the members of the Land Court when the items were not before the Committee, 6068.

As to the relevancy of the remarks of Mr. McRae in Committee of Supply, 6081.

The subject of water conservation could only be discussed when the item came on, and not in connection with the item of the Minister's salary, 6257.

It was disorderly for an hon. member to lie or sit in the House in a disorderly manner, 6271.

As to the relevancy of remarks by Mr. Schey, 6385, 6387, 6388, 6394, 6395.

Mr. Schey was guilty of tedious repetition under the 4th standing order, 6397.

Motion by Mr. Cass to reduce the item, "Compensation to Henry Baylis, £1,500," by £400, not in order, 6607.

PRESIDENT, The :

- Rulings and Opinions of :
 - As to the relevancy or otherwise of Mr. Heydon's remarks on the Divorce Amendment and Extension Bill, 237, 244.
 - As to Mr. W. R. Campbell's remarks on the Divorce Amendment and Extension Bill, 442.

29 April to 20 December, 1890.

- No hon. member is justified in imputing to another improper motives, 823.
- It is not desirable that an hon. member should set the example of quoting at large speeches made on a previous occasion in the present session, 964.
- It is contrary to the rules of the Imperial Parliament to quote from a speech delivered during the same session in the other branch of the legislature, 972.
- On the point of order raised as to the motion that the order of the day for the further consideration of the Divorce Amendment and Extension Bill in Committee have precedence over all other business, 1002.
- On a motion for precedence, the subject-matter of the order of the day cannot be debated, 1083.
- Amendment of Mr. Jacob for consideration of federation resolutions in Committee of the Whole should be moved at the commencement instead of the end of the resolutions, 1224.
- Motion for expunging Mr. Heydon's protest against the Divorce Bill can be put as one of privilege, 1987.
- An hon. member should not take the opportunity of making a personal attack on an absent member, 1993, 1995.
- The hon. member, Mr. Heydon, was not justified in reading his speech, but could refer to notes, 2085.
- An hon. member can only refer to a speech in a previous debate for the purpose of explanation, 2085.
- The Lismore to the Tweed Railway Bill must be considered as rightly before the House, 3420.
- It is undesirable for hon. members to allude to the presence of strangers, 4207.
- As to point of order by Dr. Bowker with regard to the Medical Bill, 5932.
- See HAY, SIR JOHN, K.C.M.G.

SPEAKER, Mr. :

- Rulings and opinions of :
 On a motion for the printing of a document, an hon. member can only debate that specific question, 140.
 The Secretary for Public Works was entitled to answer the objections of the hon. member for West Macquarie, Mr. Crick, as to the introduction in Committee of the District Government Bill, 211.
 As to the practice of smoking in the library, 307.
 An hon. member, in asking a question, cannot charge another hon. member with breaking a promise, 386.
 The House had power to pass the proposed resolutions relating to Australian federation, 404.
 As to observation by Mr. Dibbs with reference to a letter by General Edwards, 453.
 Motion by Mr. Dibbs (without notice) for the printing of extract from General Edwards' letter in order, 454.
 The last speaker in a debate having been on his left, he looked to his right for the next speaker, 502.
 Words used by Mr. Dibbs cannot be allowed,
 588.
 A letter reflecting on the character of an hon.
 member cannot be read in the House unless upon a specific motion to which it would be relevant, 904.
 An hon. member will be in order in making any quotation from a conversation outside the House so long as it does not reflect on the debate now taking place, 1022.
 There is no rule which prevents the discussion of any matter not specifically set down for a future day, 1154.
 The Agricultural Society Lease Bill is sufficiently within the order of leave to enable the House to deal with it, 1187.
 As to question by Mr. Crick which it was ordered should not appear on the business-paper, 1313.

There is nothing in the rules of Parliament to prevent an hon. member from applying the epithet "blackguards" to persons outside.

As to the course of procedure for the election of a member of the Public Works Committee, 2115, 2116, 2118.

The Chair should not be called upon to give a ruling upon hypothetical cases, 2156.

There is nothing to prevent the House from passing a bill with or without a plan, 2201.

It is laid down in "May" that various stages of a bill must be taken as one debate, 2233.

The Postmaster-General was not justified in alluding to an hon. member in the manner he was doing, 2305.

As to the reading of a petition presented by Mr. Wheeler, 2387.

The objection of Mr. Crick that the provisions of the Crown Rents Bill went beyond the title, inasmuch as they repealed existing legislation, could not be sustained, 2400.

The Crown Rents Bill was beyond the order of leave, and therefore not properly before the House, 2415.

Imprisonment for Debt Abolition Bill is within the order of leave, 2589.

As to an interjection by Mr. Copeland during Mr. Crick's speech on the Crown Rents Bill, 2680.

The statement "the hon. member is the greatest bully in the House" must be considered to be unparliamentary, 2695.

An imputation upon the Chair from Mr. Willis must be withdrawn, 2790.

The proper time for objecting to the vote of an hon. member is when the votes have been recorded, 2797.

The law as to the disallowance of votes is to be found in "May," page 420, 2797.

Leaders of the House on both sides allowed to make statements, 2799.

In speaking to a point of order an hon. member must not impute to another hon. member that he is acting as a marionette, 2827.

The adjournment of the House can be moved after a motion of adjournment to discuss a specific subject has been negatived, 2947.

Papers dealing with the action of an hon. member outside in reference to a public department may be laid on the table of the House, 3199.

It is contrary to the rule of Parliament to lay on the table papers dealing with speeches made by hon. members inside the Chamber, 3200.

A bill from the Upper House cannot be ruled out of order unless it interferes with the privileges of the House, 3203.

Intimation that Sir Henry Parkes intends to resume his duties in the House, 3230.

There is no reason why papers referring to speeches of members made outside, and to any business they might have with Government departments, should not be laid on the table of the House and be printed, 3279, 3280.

Motion by Mr. Garrard relative to article in the Maitland Mercury not in order, 4290.

Mr. O'Sullivan was exceeding the limits of a personal explanation in his remarks with regard to an article in the Maitland Mercury, 4295, 4296.

In the House of Commons a certain number of members must stand up in their places before a division is taken, 4362.

There is no adequate power on the part of the Chair to put down obstruction, 4368.

He could not rule the hon. member for The Hume, Mr. Hayes, out of order for saying that the rules of the House could be used in a way that was equivalent to obstruction, 4369.

As to amendments of Legislative Council in the Marrickville to Burwood Road Railway Bill, 4381.

An hon. member's statement that the prayer of a petition is similar to that of a petition previously presented is sufficient, 4450.

Only the member who presents a paper can move that it be printed, unless notice is given or an hon. member obtains the concurrence of the House, 4554.

Mr. Dibbs must give notice of a motion affecting the position of Mr. Speaker, 4570.

An hon. member is entitled within reasonable limits to state what took place in Committee; but he can get no decision from the House as to whether the Chairman of Committees was right or wrong, except by specific motion, 4603, 4605.

The hon. member, Mr. Willis, must address the occupant of the Chair as "Mr. Speaker," 4617.

Resignation of Mr. Speaker, 4622.

Absence of Mr. Speaker, 4633.
