ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Message to Council on Amendments: It is not competent for the Assembly to debate a message to the Council respecting amendments in a bill, 5054.

Ministerial Statements—Right of Reply: The Chair recognises only one Opposition. The right of reply to a Ministerial statement is therefore exercisable only by the leader of the direct Opposition, 7694.

Money Bills and Legislative Council: obs., Certain amendments made by the Legislative Council in the State Transport (Co-ordination) Bill infringed the privileges of the Assembly in that they altered the amount of a rate or charge; and to guard the privileges of the House. Mr. Speaker called attention to the nature of the amendments and left the matter in the hands of the House, 4801. Cognate observations in respect of Public Service Salaries Bill, 5044, and Mortgages Taxation Bill, 9457.

Motion of Adjournment—Standing Order 49: The Estimates having been laid upon the table of the House, and Supply being under consideration, a motion for adjournment under standing order 49 was out of order, 6309.

Order in Galleries: obs., 18, 252.

Order of the Day, Endurance of: If a motion moved, or bill introduced, by an hon. member whose seat afterwards becomes vacant, has become an order of the day, it is the property of the House, to be dealt with as the House resolves, 2614.

Personal Explanation: A member whose political character is asspersed by a statement in the public press is entitled to make a short explanation, 305.

Priority of Audience: An ex-Minister has no right to priority of audience, 5398.

Question, Reading of: It is in order to read a question if it is not of great length, 219. It is in order to supply as much information as will lend intelligence to a question, 1412.

Questions, prepared answers to: Prepared answers to questions should be read in the House before being handed in for record in the Parliamentary Debates, 2545.

Questions without Notice: obs., 6104.

Quorum: Comment is not permissible when calling attention to the state of the House, 471, 829.

Right of Reply: On motion of adjournment under standing order 49, question having been proposed and closure immediately moved, proposer has no right of reply, 2318.

25 November, 1930, to 12 May, 1932.

ASSEMBLY (continued) :

Scully, M.L.A., Mr. W. J.: obs., 5430.

Tellers—Ex-Ministers: An ex-Minister having refused to tell a division in Committee, and having been removed therefor on the order of the Temporary Chairman, Mr. Speaker, upon the matter being brought under his notice, said the standing orders did not exempt an ex-Minister from service as a teller. Custom did, however, and probably he would not call an ex-Minister to tell. The Temporary Chairman did not exceed his duty, 5398.

Wireless Broadcast of Proceedings: obs., 7682, 7996, 8138.

STANDING ORDERS:

New: Appointment of Acting-Speaker, 2690; Approved, 2741.
