ASSEMBLY:

ATMOSPHERIC CONDITIONS, 905.
BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE, 1264.
CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (GEORGE BOOTH ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:
Auctioneers, Stock and Station and Real Estate Agents (Amendment) Bill:
When the Committee is considering amendments made in a bill by the Legislative Council, an hon. member must confine his remarks to those amendments, 2803-4.

Electricity Development Bill: When reading a letter during his speech, an hon. member should give the name of the writer and that person's reason for having written the letter, 1606.

An hon. member is not in order in moving an amendment to a clause that has not yet been debated: He may foreshadow such an amendment, 1672.

Though an hon. member may not read from Hansard of the current session, he is entitled to refer to what has been said in the debate, 1674.

The Committee having decided that the membership of the Electricity Authority shall remain at seven, it is not in order for the hon. member for Woolahra to move an amendment to increase the number of members who shall be members of a Council from two to four, 1686.

An amendment by the hon. member for Ashfield seeking to increase the number of members of Authority beyond the number agreed to by the Committee is out of order, 1690.

Estimates: The Committee having decided to take the Estimates seriatim, the vote under discussion being that for the Premier's Department, and there being no such item in that vote as the "Post-war Reconstruction Division," debate on such a matter would be out of order, 921.

An hon. member may not refer to the Budget when the Committee is dealing with the Estimates, 1029.

An hon. member, provided that he is not offensive, is entitled to express his own opinions, 1167.

An hon. member may read an extract from a pamphlet to support his argument, but it is out of order to read the complete article, 1171.

There being no provision in the Estimates of the Department of Health for a contribution to the Milk Board, it is not in order to discuss that subject, 1188.

The Chairman of Committees may, at his discretion, give his ruling at any time that he thinks fit; 1275.

An hon. member is not entitled to rise to order to refute a statement by another hon. member; merely because he believes that it is not in accordance with fact. 1285.

When speaking a second time on an estimate, an hon. member is allowed a period of ten minutes only and has no right of reply, 1336.

Fisheries and Oyster Farms (Amendment) Bill: The practice of the House is that when an hon. member denies a statement, that denial must be accepted, 249.

When making a personal explanation an hon. member is in order in referring to aspersions on his integrity, but is not if he deals with generalizations concerning other persons, 251.

The remark that the hon. member for Hawkesbury is "the big haddock from the Hawkesbury River" is unparliamentary and offensive and must be withdrawn without reservation, 425.

If an hon. member says that he possesses certain information, promises to divulge it, and then fails to do so, that does not provide adequate grounds for a ruling by the Chair that the promise must be honoured. However, another speaker is in order in challenging the hon. member to produce such information. An assumption that failure to produce the information is an admission by the hon. member that he is telling lies is not a violation of the Standing Orders, 425-6.

The Standing Orders provide that an hon. member may have recorded in Hansard only the oral statements that he makes in the Chamber. There is no objection to his quoting letters or statements, even at considerable length, 428.

On an amendment at the Committee stage, an hon. member may not reply to an attack made on him at the 2^a stage, 471.

When dealing with an amendment to a clause, it is out of order to discuss the clause itself in all its ramifications, 474.

Industrial Disputes: The Speaker may, at his discretion, give his ruling on a point of order at any time that he thinks fit. The hon. member for Armidale, having exceeded the scope of the motion before the House, must link his remarks to the question, 531-2.

Liquor (Amendment) Bill: The hon. member for Manly must confine his remarks to the amendment, and may not make a second reading speech at the Committee stage. 3431.

18 September, 1945, to 22 May, 1946.

Obscene and Indecent Publications (Amendment) Bill: It is not the procedure of the Chair to protect an hon. member's rights in respect of a foreshadowed amendment. The procedure is that if the amendment before the Committee is negatived, a proposed amendment dealing with the same clause may be proceeded with, 2749.

An amendment seeking to prohibit the printing or publication of reports in relation to divorce proceedings for dissolution of marriage, nullity of marriage, judicial separation, conjugal separation, or the restitution of conjugal rights is beyond the scope of a bill designed to amend the Obscene and Indecent Publications Act, 2753.

Service Compensation Taxation Bill: As clause two is substantially the bill itself the hon. member for Wollondilly is being allowed every latitude, but he must confine himself to the clause and not make a second reading speech, 93.

Supply Bill: The Standing Orders make no provision for an hon. member to be allowed an extension of time in Committee of Supply. They provide that, except for the relevant Minister, the leader of the Opposition and the Leader of the Country Party, hon. members may speak for a continuous period of only forty-five minutes, and for a further two periods of ten minutes each, 47.

When making a speech, it is permissible for an hon. member to make an intelligent use of notes, 28.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES, TEMPORARY, 22.

EXTENSION OF SITTING, m., 1110.

HOUSE COMMITTEE, m., 112, 2885.

SEASONAL FELICITATIONS, adj., 2199.

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. DANIEL CLYNE), RULINGS AND OBSERVATIONS:

Adjournment: An hon. member is justified in bringing before the House at the earliest opportunity, e.g., upon the motion for the adjournment of the House, a very definite and specific matter that affects the character of a constituent, 1049.

An hon. member may not debate in detail a report, though he may refer to matters of public concern, or matters affecting his electorate or the State, 3753, 3756.

An hon. member is not permitted to debate a question that has been answered or a speech that has been made, 3761, 3762.

Bread Industry Bill: The expression "Slippery Jack," when applied to the deputy-leader of the Government, is unparliamentary and must be withdrawn, 3487.

An hon. member, when dealing with the Bread Industry Bill, is not entitled to discuss the ramifications of the dairy industry, 3538.

The bill contains two main principles, one the fixing of a starting time for baking operatives and the other the prohibition of the delivery of bread outside the hours fixed for bread carting. Hon. members should confine their remarks to those matters, 3543.

Burrundong Dam Bill: An hon. member, when discussing this bill, is not permitted to refer indirectly to the Gaming and Betting Act, nor to try "to get under any other member's skin," 3124.

Commonwealth and State Housing Agreement Bill: The hon. member for Wollondilly may not discuss the expenditure of money for which the bill makes no provision, and must connect his remarks with the measure, 2674.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. DANIEL CLYNE), RULINGS AND OBSERVATIONS (continued):—

Curtin, Rt. Hon., John., Death, 22.

Dutch Ships, Delay in Loading, q.: When asking a question without notice it is out of order to make a statement of facts, 1966.

Electricity Advisory Committee's Report, q., 873.

Electricity Development Bill: An hon. member must address himself to the provisions of the bill, and not answer numerous interrogations from other hon. members, 1619.

The sessional order specifying the hour of adjournment having been suspended, the time for the adjournment of the House is not a matter for the Speaker to decide, 1623.

The point of order that the hon. member for Burwood rose but was not seen by the Chair is not well taken. The Minister rose, and as no other hon. member seemed inclined to do so, the Minister was given the call, 1664.

Industrial Disputes, m.: In moving a motion of urgency an hon. member must argue the question of urgency, and must not go into the details of the proposed substantive motion, 445.

Ministers, leaders of parties and hon. members may, when sponsoring bills or motions, make full and liberal use of notes and quote extracts, but they must not read the whole of their speech, 495.

It is not in order, on a motion for adjournment of the House, to criticise a judge of the Industrial Court or of any other court, nor is an hon. member entitled to discuss a case that has been heard, but in which judgment has not been delivered, 865.

On a motion of urgency an hon. member must confine his remarks to the matter of urgency, and may not introduce arguments that do not relate to the matter, 1511.

Any question asked of a Minister must have relation to his administration, to a matter over which he is responsible, or to proceedings in Parliament, 3728.

Legislative Assembly Members' Provident Fund: On a motion of urgency, an hon. member must not canvass the decision of the House on an earlier motion of urgency, 3728.

On a motion for the appointment of trustees an hon. member must not deal with the principles of the bill that has already been passed through the House, 3730.

Liquor (Amendment) Bill: An explanation of the administration of the U.L.V.A. is outside the scope of the Liquor (Amendment) Bill, 3250.

Though the speech of the hon. member for Ryde is discursive, the scope of the measure is very wide, and deals with the need to make further provision for the regulation of the sale of liquor. However, the hon. member must keep to the measure as much as he can, 3309.

Medical Practitioners (Amendment)

Bill: The bill makes no reference to Dr. Steiner and though the hon. member for Randwick may comment on Dr. Steiner to relate his remarks to the measure he may not do so in voluminous detail, 2086-7.

Monday Sitting: Where a motion is moved by consent under the Standing Orders, the House must accept it, 3474.

Moratorium (Amendment) Bill: As the question of the personal covenant has no relevance to the re-enactment of the Moratorium Act, a general debate on the subject is not permissible, 2028-9.

Netherlands East Indies: An hon. member is not entitled to import argument into his motion of urgency, and must deal only with the reasons for urgency, 1101.

N.S.W. Parliament:

Accommodation at Parliament House, q., 2836.

Atmospheric Conditions, Assembly Chamber and Library, q., 905.

Hon. Members, Military Designations, 2186, 2214.

House Committee, Resignation of Mr. Treatt, 2885.

Members' Speeches, Daily Telegraph report, q., 2765.

Statement by Mr. Calwell, M.H.R., q., 2710.

Ventilation of Legislative Assembly, q., 2773.

Warning Bells, q., 101.

Personal Explanation: An hon. member may not, when afforded the opportunity to make a personal explanation, make statements upon democracy and other matters, 2885.

Port Kembla Dispute: An imputation against the conduct of a judge is distinctly against Parliamentary practice, 452.

18 September, 1945, to 22 May, 1946.

ASSEMBLY: (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. DANIEL CLYNE), RULINGS AND OBSERVATIONS (continued):—

Questions Asked of Private Members:

Questions may be asked of members other than Ministers only if they deal with bills, motions, or other public matters before the House in which such members may be concerned, 450.

Questions without Notice: An hon. member, after asking a question, is not entitled to comment on the answer, 406.

An hon. member must not allude to speeches made during the current session, 2378.

Soldier Settlement: The motion for the adjournment of the House provides an opportunity for hon. members to direct attention to specific matters primarily concerning their electorates and to specific matters of urgent public importance. An hon. member is not entitled to initiate a general debate when speaking to the motion, 2267-8.

State Brickworks Bill: The measure having been before the Chamber for three days, and every hon. member having had ample opportunity of speaking during the second-reading debate, the Chair is not prepared to allow to go in Hansard unchallenged a statement that an hon. member was not permitted to speak at that stage, 2543.

At the second reading the principles of a bill are subject to general discussion, and the scope of debate is wider than on the third reading, when debate must be confined to the main provisions of the bill, 2611.

"Yoisuki," Overcrowding on: The question of urgency is one for the House itself to determine. The hon. member for Cobar may not, when making a personal explanation, renew objections raised by him on a point of order, against which the Chair has ruled, 2555, 2559.

Standing Orders provide, and it is the practice, that an hon. member shall be referred to not by name, but by the constituency that he represents, 2578.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT, m., 170, 1390, 1935, 2105, 2199, 2650, 3164, 3274, 3492, 3591, 3750.
