RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Address-in-Reply: A ruling by the Speaker may not be canvassed, 122.

Adjournment: Debate on the motion for the adjournment of the House must be confined to a matter of urgency affecting the hon. member's own electorate, 3154.

Amendments: In Committee, debate on an amendment to an amendment must be confined to the later motion, 615, 617.

An amendment that is in conflict with the principles of a bill is out of order, 778.

Volumes 185-186-187.

Amendments must be prepared in writing and submitted to the Chair, 833.

An amendment consequential to one that has been negatived, is unnecessary and should not be moved, 836.

An hon. member may speak to an amendment in Committee three times, 905, 910.

An hon. member who intended to move an amendment, but exhausted his time without having moved it, is given an opportunity to do so, 909.

An amendment is out of order if it is moved in the wrong place, 1116, 1117.

An amending bill may not be amended for the purpose of amending any section of the Principal Act other than those referred to in the bill, 1118, 1119.

The Local Government (Areas) Bill being based upon a definite expenditure, an amendment that would increase the burden on Consolidated Revenue was out of order, 3691.

Budget: In the Budget debate an hon. member is not in order in dealing with a matter that is the subject of a motion on the business paper, 1552.

In the Budget debate, an hon. member may not go extensively into details on matters not relevant to the financial statement, 1702, 1703. It is in order to refer to matters of Government policy as affecting the financial statement, 1785. The purpose of the Budget discussion is to consider the financial policy of the Government as disclosed in the Budget—not to consider at length subjects such as hospitals, schools, and road transport, 1834, 1836, 1839.

Committee: In moving dissent from the Chairman's ruling, an hon. member must confine his remarks to the motion of dissent, 778.

When debating a clause in Committee, hon. members may not deal with the bill as a whole, 780, 781, 1629, 1630; or with other matters not connected with the particular clause before the Committee, 784, 788, 842.

A second-reading speech may not be made in Committee, 884, 887, 900.

In moving that a clause be postponed, it is not in order to add to the motion the words "as a direction to the Government to provide for the holding of a referendum," 789; or "for redrafting," 838.

Hon. members must not indulge in tedious repetition, 842.

The Chairman cannot give a ruling in advance, 887.

No reflection may be cast on the Chair, 901.

Hon. members must address the Chair, 911.

The Chairman may give a ruling whenever he is prepared to do so, 1118, 1119.

An hon. member should be able to vouch for the accuracy of his statements, 1850.

Estimates, The: In the debate on the Estimates, when items are taken seriatim, discussion should be confined to matters relevant to the vote before the Committee, 1849.

In the debate on the Loan Estimates, it is out of order to refer to uniform taxation, 1939.

Interjections: An hon. member speaking should refuse to answer interjections and should address the Chair, 960, 1629, 3377.

Hon. members should not provoke or invite interjections, 2446.

Hon. members should refrain from interjecting, 960, 1577, 1592, 1847, 1939, 2436, 2440, 2445, 2446, 2474, 3225, 3700.

Ministerial Statements: Statements of assurance or denial by a Minister must be accepted by an hon. member, 749, 901.

Notice of Motion: An hon. member is not entitled to anticipate discussion on a matter concerning which notice of motion has been given, even when the notice has not actually appeared upon the business paper, 38.

It is not in order to anticipate debate on a notice of motion on the business paper, 1881.

Point of Order: "No point of order," 2618, 3700.

Quotation from Documents: An hon. member may not quote the press report of a speech unless he can vouch for the accuracy of the report, 121.

It is not in order to read from current Hansard, 1249, 1250.

An hon. member may not read from a letter unless he gives the name of the writer and vouches for its authenticity, 2720.

Relevancy of Debate: Matters referred to in debate on the second reading of a bill must be relevant to the bill, 732, 750, 1021, 1024, 1025, 1944, 2263, 2620, 2976.

-23rd September, 1947, to 18th August, 1948.

Debate must be confined to the motion, 2386, 2438, 2504, 2641, 3222, 3351.

Schedules: Schedules to a bill cannot be discussed on a clause, 779. If amendments to schedules rendered it necessary to amend certain clauses, these clauses would be recommitted, 784, 780. Debate on the schedules would not be restricted by reason of the wording of any clause, 783.

In debating Schedule I of the Local Government (Areas) Bill, containing a number of groupings of areas, hon. members must confine their remarks to that particular grouping in respect of which an amendment has been moved, until the amendment is disposed of, when debate on the schedule generally may be resumed, 877, 880.

In debate on a bill having more than one schedule, hon. members may not discuss matters dealt with under a schedule other than that before the Chair, 884, 900.

Speaker's Red Light: The red light in front of Mr. Speaker's Chair serves to indicate that an hon. member may continue speaking for a further three minutes, 2684.

Supply Bill: In debating a Supply Bill, hon. members may discuss only matters that come within the scope of the motion, 44, 954, 960.

Unparliamentary Behaviour: It is unparliamentary to say that the Chairman had treated the Committee with contempt, or that the Minister had treated the Committee with contempt, 616.

The word "humbug" is unparliamentary, 619, 2688.

The word "irresponsible" applied to an hon. member is unparliamentary, 731.

The statement that an hon. member's remarks are irrelevant, futile, and nonsensical, does not become the dignity of the Parliament, 1314.

Levity and facetious remarks are not permissible, 1702.

The term "bureaucrat" should be defined by an hon. member using it instead of its being used in a loose sense, 3474.

In stating that a report from a judge is biased an hon. member is in order, but he is not in order in making a personal attack on a judge, 3219.

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Address-in-Reply: The Governor's opening speech outlines the policy of the State Government, and therefore debate on the motion for the adoption of the Address-in-Reply should deal essentially with the policy of that Government and not with matters that do not concern the State Government as questions of policy. Reference may be made to the nationalization of trading banks only as far as it affects the legislative and administrative activities of the Government of New South Wales, 63, 65.

It is not inconsistent with the order of the House for a motion under Standing Order 113A for the disallowance of a regulation, to be dealt with before the resumption of the debate upon the motion for the adoption of the Address-in-Reply, 157.

Debate on the Address-in-Reply must be confined to matters contained in the Governor's Speech and to matters omitted from it that could properly have been included, 315.

Adjournment: An hon. member is not in order, on the motion for the adjournment of the House, in discussing the administration of the Parliamentary Establishment by Mr. President and Mr. Speaker, 2111.

A matter suitable for only general debate may not be brought before the House on a motion for adjournment, 2338, 2339, 2340, 3174, 3709.

On the motion for the adjournment of the House, hon. members may refer only to matters of urgent public importance or specific matters relating to their own electorates, 2725.

An hon. member may not quote from current Hansard, 2726.

General ruling on adjournment debate, 2830.

Amendments: Debate on amendment to a motion must be relevant to the amendment, 2428.

ASSEMBLY (continued):SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),

Chair: Reflection on: It is a reflection on the Chair for an hon. member to say that he is being prevented from finishing his remarks, 3190.

Chair, Disrespect: For hon. members to leave the Chamber, or to speak when Mr. Speaker rises to his feet, constitutes gross disrespect for the Chair, 3194, 3420.

Debate: Anticipation of: Although the Premier had announced that certain legislation would be introduced, no notice of motion had been given to the House; therefore, Mr. Speaker could not rule that discussion of that legislation on a motion for adjournment was anticipating debate on the bill, 3158.

Debate, Close of: A speech by the mover of a motion, upon an amendment to the motion, does not close the debate, 3159.

Exhibits: To display exhibits in the Chamber is a breach of privilege; it is allowable only with the indulgence of the House, 314.

Extension of Time: Extension of time, obs., 543.

Interjections: Continual interjection is contrary both to the Standing Orders and to practice, 157, 414, 437, 1378, 1433, 1600, 2617, 2713, 3412. It is the province of knowledge to speak, and of wisdom to listen, 264. An hon. member should not base his speech upon another's interjection, 1981. An hon. member is entitled to be heard in silence, 2131, 2136, 2146, 2148, 2163, 2392, 3368, 3409, 3421.

An hon. member, when speaking, must refrain from answering interjections and must address his remarks to the Chair, 361.

If an hon. member desires the protection of the Chair against interjections, he must be careful in his choice of words, 1110.

Leave to Introduce, Motion: On a motion for leave to introduce a bill, hon. members may not discuss matters that were not referred to by the Minister in moving for leave to introduce. 356, 358, 359, 363, 365, 366, 368; but must confine their remarks to the motion, 532.

Ministerial Statements: If, in replying to a question, a Minister dealt with a matter of Government policy, his utterances would become a ministerial statement, 1433.

23rd September, 1947, to 18th August, 1948.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),

The leader of the Opposition is customarily, but not always, allowed to reply briefly to a ministerial statement: the privilege is, at times, extended to the leader of the Country party, but cannot be extended to other hon. members, 711.

New South Wales Parliament: Air-conditioning: Legislative Assembly Chamber, obs., 2824.

Parliamentary Refreshment Room meal charges, obs., 2519.

Sound reinforcement system in Legislative Assembly Chamber, 3185, 3195.

Notice of Motion: Standing Orders 49 and 110A. When notice of a motion is given it is theoretically on the business paper, though the latter may not have been printed. Mr. Speaker had no reason for believing that a motion of censure would not be dealt with by the House within a reasonable time. 2125. The period between 10th March and 6th April was not "a reasonable time" in the purposes of the Standing Order. 2126.

Personal Explanation: An hon. member is not entitled to canvass a Minister's reply, or to debate it, by means of a personal explanation, 341. A personal explanation would allude to a misstatement made by the hon. member, to an omission, or to something else hinging on his original statement, 2114.

An hon. member may not supplement his speech or introduce entirely new matter by means of a personal explanation, 2390.

A personal explanation may not be made by an hon. member in respect of a discussion in the Chamber in the course of which his name was not mentioned, 440.

A personal explanation may be made to assist the interpretation of a question without notice, but not as a request for a ruling, 2578.

In a personal explanation an hon. member may not reflect upon the character of another hon. member, 2580.

An hon. member may not reply to a personal explanation except by a personal explanation; in so doing, his remarks must be confined to the statements made insofar as they are deemed to be a misrepresentation of facts, 2897, 3137.

Personal explanation allowed, 3419.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),

Point of Order: "No point of order", 1432, 1922, 2827, 3339.

A point of order may not be taken merely to correct an alleged misstatement or to answer an accusation, 1947; or to enter into dispute with another hon. member, 1951.

Point of order taken facetiously, 1378.

It is not out of order for an hon. member to say that another hon. member "came into this House accidentally," 1670.

Premier: Under the established practice of the House, the leader of the Opposition, in common with the Premier or a Minister in charge of a bill, may base his speech upon copious notes, 942.

When sessional orders provide that general business shall take precedence, no order of the day is read. The Speaker is entitled to call the Premier at any time that he deems fit, 806.

The Premier is entitled to make passing reference to imputations made by an hon. member, 818.

The Premier is entitled to answer any matter in his own way provided he observes the ordinary rules of debate, 2342, 2343.

An hon. member must accept an assurance given by the Premier that he would agree to a motion, 3677, though he may debate the motion, 3673.

Questions: The decorum of the House, and courtesy, require that hon. members should observe silence during question time, 254, 766, 1108, 1290.

A supplementary question must be on the same subject as the original question, 258. Question disallowed because it was similar to a number of previous questions, 1946.

In reply to a question about a circular, a Minister is in order in referring to matters contained in it, 305.

Unless an hon. member accepts responsibility for the authenticity of a statement in the press he may not ask a question based upon it, 2245.

The purpose of a question without notice is to elicit information—not to give it, 2246, 2303.

Hon. members should not ask lengthy questions without notice and Ministers should not make lengthy replies. Questions and answers should both be as direct and epigrammatic as possible, 439, 440, 763. Questions should not be facetious, 1895; they should be couched in moderate language and not unduly expanded, 2195.

Volumes 185-186-187.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS (continued):

In asking a question without notice, an hon. member may not make a statement to the House, 895, 1006.

A Minister's refusal to answer a question without notice is not a matter that concerns the Chair, 895.

A question may not contain an imputation such as that the Premier was prepared to allow men who are well-known to be associated with the Communist party to leave Australia as an authorised representative, 798.

In a question without notice, an hon. member may not ask a Minister to express an opinion, 522, 1464, 2672, 2891, 2971, 3135.

The word "squandered" should not be used in asking a question, 1806.

Time allowed for questions without notice, obs., 2581.

Question in regard to hon. member for South Coast and the Liberal Party, 3139.

A Minister may answer a question in any way he pleases, 1427, 2249, 3709.

If a Minister continued at length his reply to a question without notice Mr. Speaker would be compelled to rule that he was making a ministerial statement, 3189, 3190.

Questions are not in order that cast reflections upon or impute improper motives to any hon. member and thereby detract from the dignity and decency of the Chamber, 3194.

Relevancy of Debate: Debate must be relevant to the motion before the House, 1683, 1922, 1923, 2144, 2154, 2155, 2172, 2219, 2497, 2498, 2500, 2834, 3264, 3265, 3266, 3267.

An hon. member making the statement that the Commissioner of Police "was horribly shocked" should be in a position to tell the House that he had been informed by the Commissioner of Police that this was a fact, 3676.

Second-Reading Debate: In a second-reading speech the Minister may not take occasion to reply to a question without notice, but must confine his remarks to the bill itself, 444.

Details of a measure may not be discussed in a second-reading debate; hon. members may discuss them in Committee, 459, 1057, 1109.

Matters referred to in debate on the second-reading of a bill must be relevant to the bill or to the Minister's second-reading speech, 517, 612, 734, 742, 743, 1031, 1045, 1245, 1378, 1568, 1988, 2712, 2975, 3005, 3410, 3418.

In the second-reading debate on an amending bill providing for the appointment of two additional trustees to the Kosciusko State Park Trust, an hon. member was out of order in suggesting the particular persons who should be appointed, 1240.

A member must not indulge in tedious repetition, 1110.

In a second-reading speech on a repeal bill, hon. members are not entitled to traverse the history of the Act that the bill seeks to repeal, 1987.

An hon. member was out of order in referring to the Minister for Conservation as "Mr. Hamlet" or by any other title, 3291.

An hon. member should not take umbrage at facetious remarks, 3410.

The term "snide lawyer" applied to an hon. member would be unparliamentary, 3419.

Special Adjournment: On a motion for special adjournment of the House debate must be confined to the matter of the adjournment to a specific date: it is out of order, for instance, to discuss controls, 3157, 3158.

Unparliamentary Behaviour: An hon. member may not refer to any Government in the Commonwealth of Australia as a socialist government, obs., 1013.

The words "alleged outburst" in reference to a statement by the Premier, should not be used, 1005.

An hon. member may not be referred to by name, 1922.

A reference to "certain tactics that have been adopted by the Opposition" was not an imputation of improper motives, 807.

Hon. members' expulsion, 2240, 2581. Conduct of hon. member for Wollondilly, 2242, 2244.

Imputation of improper motives prohibited by Standing Order 152, obs., 1947.

Urgency, Motion: A point of order having been taken that the matter referred to in a motion of urgency was sub judice, Mr. Speaker, having no assurance from the Premier or the Attorney-General that it was not sub judice, allowed the House to determine the question of urgency; the point of order to be given further consideration if necessary when the substantive motion was before the House, 1889. Hon. members bringing such matters before Parliament should make themselves cognisant of the facts before doing so, 1891.

On a motion of urgency, debate is restricted to the matter of urgency, 807, 943, 2640, 3633, 3674, 3676.

The matter of urgency may not be debated on a motion for the suspension of Standing and Sessional Orders, 808, 809, 811. Debate must be confined to the motion, 812, 813, 2640.

An hon. member is entitled to bring before the House for discussion any matter which is submitted in accordance with the practice of the House. It is the responsibility of the House to decide whether he shall be permitted to do so as a matter of urgency, 2966.

The fact that parts of the substantive motion involved are not in order, does not necessarily require the Speaker to rule out of order a related motion of urgency, 942.

In replying to a debate, an hon. member should not introduce matters to which no reference was made during the debate, 2454.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT, m., 939, 1166, 1401, 1885, 2107, 2184, 2337, 2457, 2643, 2864, 3029, 3143, 3156, 3518, 3656, 3704.

SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS, m., 807, 1978, 2373, 2460, 2640.

SWEENEY, Mr. J. T., Ex-M.L.A., address, 273.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES
(W. J. CARLTON, Esq.), RULINGS,
OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Chairman's Ruling: An hon. member may not, in the absence of the Chairman, either directly or by innuendo, challenge any ruling given by him, 45.

Interjections: Hon. members are entitled to be heard in silence, but should be as little provocative as possible, 1874.

Relevancy: Hon. members must confine their remarks to the motion before the Chair, 3236.

Sub judice, Debate on matters: It is not in order for an hon. member to make a statement that would be prejudicial to Assurance sought from Minister as to whether matter referred to by an hon. member came within the terms of reference of a Royal Commission appointed, 3635.

Supply Bill: In debating the financial statement, an hon. member may not discuss the activities of the Communist party in New South Wales, 1846.

On the motion "That there be granted to His Majesty a sum not exceeding £4,572,500, payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund," an hon. member is not in order in discussing the application of the appellation "Fascist" by one hon. member to another, 45; or in discussing any other matter not within the scope of the motion, 46.
