Adjournment: An hon. member, on the motion for the adjournment of the House, may refer only to matters of concern to his constituency, 1160, 1716, 1720, 2738, 2739, 2740, 2741; may not refer to matters that would provoke a general debate, 2934.

An hon. member who moves a motion for the adjournment of a debate is precluded, if the motion is defeated, from participating in the debate on the substantive motion (Standing Order 173), 39.

The debate closes when the Minister who moves the motion has replied, 5772.

Debate on a motion moved under Standing Order 49 is confined to the specific matter referred to, 5172, 5173.

A motion for the adjournment of the House, moved under Standing Order 49, may not be proceeded with unless it has the support of at least five members, 1576.

When speaking to the motion for the adjournment an hon. member may not anticipate debate on the Supply Bill, 3041.

Address-in-Reply: An amendment to the motion for the adoption of the Address-in-Reply that could be construed as a criticism of His Majesty's representative may, with the consent of the House, be amended, 188.

The speech of His Excellency having been laid on the table an address-in-reply thereto may be immediately moved and seconded, 225, 228.

When a motion for the Previous Question, "That that question be now put" has been negatived and another motion for the adoption of the Address-in-reply is before the House, hon. members who spoke on the original motion may speak to the second one, but may not debate amendments to the original motion that were negatived (Standing Order 146), 241, 242, 243, 257.

On a motion for the adoption of the Address-in-Reply an hon. member may not move an amendment that reflects upon a previous vote of the Chamber. The appropriate course is to move a rescission motion (Standing Order 149), 451.

Behaviour of Hon. Members: Hon. members must behave with decorum and observe the decencies of parliamentary procedure, 4270, 5195.

Chifley, The Rt. Hon. J. B., P.C.: Death, 2833, 2937.

Closure: A debate initiated by a Minister should be closed, if that is the wish of the Government, by the application of Standing Order 175; not, when other members wish to speak, by the Minister's seeking the call to reply to the debate, 681, 2834.

Dairy Industry (Amendment) Bill: It is competent, on a measure designed to increase the quota of margarine that may be manufactured, for an hon. member to discuss the effect of the bill on the dairy industry, 5041.

Decorum of hon. members, 4270, 5195.

Divisions: A division called for by the Government cannot be called off by the Opposition, 3886.

An hon. member may not impute improper motives to another hon. member, 2352; or to the Government, 5710.

An hon. member may criticise Government appointments to a Trust but may not make imputations against Trustees, 3580.

Motion of Urgency: The substantive motion may not be discussed on a motion of urgency, 2352, 2353, 2895, 2948, 2949, 5499; the Premier, however, may reply to statements made by the leader of the Opposition, 5501, 5672, 5673.

The motion must be concerned with a question of urgency, 5578, 5669.

After a motion of urgency has been agreed to, it is necessary for the mover of the motion to move for the suspension of Standing and Sessional Orders before proceeding with the substantive motion, 2684.

A motion of urgency may be moved during question time, 3910.

The fact that a matter may be discussed on the Estimates does not preclude an hon. member from moving a motion of urgency so that the House may record its vote on the specific question, 4215.

Motions: An hon. member may not discuss a motion that has already been determined, 39, 2135, 2136, 2137.

An hon. member must be personally concerned in the incident, 5578.

When making a personal explanation an hon. member may not indulge in argument, 3256.

Personal Reflection: An hon. member may not cast unwarranted reflections or persons outside the House, 186, 5528; upon the hon. member, 1950, 4877.

The Premier, when replying to a question containing a veiled implication, does not seriously reflect personally on an hon. member by his use of the words: "If the information that the hon. member has conveyed to the dairy farmers in his electorate is as truthful as his question . . .", 3256.

Petitions: It is not usual for an hon. member, when presenting a petition, to read it in full, 5492.

A question may be asked "Is it a fact that the hon. member failed in his duty," but it is out of order to use the phrase "in view of the fact that the hon. member failed in his duty," 5426, 5427.

Ministers are quite in order in asking that questions be placed on the Questions and Answers Paper, 4716.

Ministers must be allowed to reply without interruption and in their own way, 26, 279, 432, 559, 854, 2248, 2249, 2998, 3147, 3256, 3454, 3761, 4469, 4877, 5162, 5167, 5574.

Must not be in the form of statements, 3958, 4384.

Must not contain comment, 1846.

Must not cast a personal reflection on an hon. member or be couched in offensive terms, 1948, 5492; discretion lies with Mr. Speaker, however, to permit a member to use the term "vicious," 5422.

Must not impart information, 431, 470, 995, 4471.

Must relate to the administration of a Minister, 4385.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

Offensive political questions not permitted, 3964.

Replies may not be treated with levity, 438, 1459.

Reflections: No hon. member may reflect upon the Chair, 1161, 5734.

No hon. member may reflect upon the judiciary, 2155.

Constitution Amendment (Legislative Assembly) Bill: It is irrelevant on debate on this measure to discuss the acquisition of property on just terms, 532; or to discuss the granting of pairs, 532.

Debate on a Motion of Censure is confined to the terms of the motion, 5243; the Premier, however, may reply to argument adduced in support of the motion, 5258, 5672, 5673.

Royal Commissions: After a Royal Commission has exonerated an hon. member from charges made against him, it is futile to argue whether statements made by another hon. member, in seeking the appointment of the Royal Commission, were unfounded, 1771.

Standing Orders: Must be interpreted with intelligence, 1001.

Stranger behind Mr. Speaker's dais, 4124.

Sub-judice: Any discussion on the exact matter before a court is out of order, 1158, 1161, 2254, 2350; legislation, however, may be introduced affecting litigious matters, 5399.

A motion calling upon the Government to provide emergency transport during an industrial dispute that is before the court is in order, 991.
