ASSEMBLY:

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE, 1713, 1841.

CHAIRMEN OF COMMITTEES, TEMPORARY, 47.

CHRISTMAS FELICITATIONS, adj., 1885.

COMMITTEES OF SUPPLY AND WAYS AND MEANS, m., 406.

DEPUTY SPEAKER AND CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (GEORGE BOOTH, ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Amendments: After an amendment has been moved, a prior amendment cannot be moved unless the amendment before the Committee is, in the good grace of the mover, deferred, 1613.

There is no need to withdraw an amendment that has not been moved, 1863.

Assurances: An hon. member must accept the statement of a Minister that he has received no advice from his department, 1010.

Courtesy: Appeal to hon. members on both sides of the Chamber to show the same courtesy to all contributors to the debate on the Supply Bill, 469, 470.

Hon. members who wish to converse should do so outside the Chamber, 838.

Chatter in the Chamber makes it almost impossible for the Chair to hear what an hon. member is saying, and impossible for the Hansard staff to hear him, 1868.

Request to hon. members to extend to the Leader of the Opposition the courtesy of listening without interjecting to his first budget speech as the occupant of that position, 647.

Debate at Introductory Stages: An hon. member may not speak at length on the motion for leave to introduce a bill because its contents are not then known; 1727.

Decisions of Committee: A decision of the Committee that a proposed vote be put cannot be questioned afterwards; 932.

Distinguished Visitor: Presence in Committee of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Home, Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations in the Government of the United Kingdom; 594.

Duplication of Debate: The subject of a motion of censure, in this instance increased hospital fees, on which a decision was reached, cannot be referred to again in the debate on the estimates. To permit this would be to permit duplication of a debate that has already been resolved, and duplication is out of order, 957; the decisions of previous Speakers confirm this ruling, 958.

An hon. member may not debate a matter that has already been decided by a vote, but may refer to it briefly. He cannot be permitted to repeat an earlier speech on a motion that has been decided, 959.

Hansard Quotations: An hon. member may quote what he wishes; a subsequent speaker may correct him if he is thought wrong. No hon. member may tell another who has the call how much of a statement shall be quoted, 1623.

Interjections: Hon. members must listen in silence to the hon. member who is addressing the Chair, 123, 264, 276, 470, 575, 840, 851, 1619.

Hon. members who have spoken two or three times on a measure should allow the Minister to reply to their arguments and are called to order for interjecting, 1623.

Repeatedly made are disorderly; 123, 471, 554, 575; 579, 595, 836, 983, 1621; and will lead to the rigid application of the standing orders, 181, 1108, 1621; hon. member warned for the last time, 1620, 1629.

Persistent interjections prevent an hon. member from putting his case before his time is exhausted; 1623.

An hon. member, though he is named repeatedly by the hon. member who is addressing the Chair, must not continually interject, 140.

Interjection is disorderly and the hon. member who is addressing the Chair should ignore it and continue his speech, 983.

An hon. member's conduct is upsetting to both the Minister who is addressing the Chair and the Chairman and might well cause the hon. member to be ashamed of himself, 598.

Common courtesy demands that when the red light is showing the hon. member speaking shall be allowed to conclude his remarks without continuous interruption. Interjections at this stage will not be tolerated; 244; they are offensive, 304.

The Leader of the Opposition enjoys no greater privilege than any other hon. member, 123.

No hon. member has a special licence to interject during the speech of every member on the Government side of the Chamber and will be removed from the Chamber if he interjects after he has been warned for the last time, 834, 838.

Opinions Expressed in Debate: The remark "the hon. member . . . does not like the truth" is an expression of the opinion of the hon. member who makes it and when it is not meant offensively need not be withdrawn, 551:

24th August, 1955, to 6th February, 1956.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

Personal Explanation: Under the standing orders and the rules of debate, if an hon. member says that he has been misquoted his statement must be accepted, 851.

Points of Order: Ruled to be frivolous, 1154.

Not upheld, 148.

Press Quotations: So as to give, as far as possible, complete freedom of debate, when all hon. members who have contributed to a debate have quoted from the press, subsequent contributors will not be restricted, 140.

It is assumed that an hon. member who quotes from a newspaper vouches for its accuracy when he gives the name and date of the newspaper, 304.

Procedure in Debate: Hon. members must address the Chair, 276, 1100.

An hon. member may not ask the Chairman a question on a ruling. If he wishes to take a point of order he may do so or he may dissent from the ruling that has been given, 958.

The only person in the Committee who can decide whether an hon. member may take a point of order is the Chairman of Committees, 851.

The Chairman of Committees, or whoever is acting in that office, will decide what shall happen when a bill goes into Committee, 1587.

When the Chairman rises to speak the hon. member who was addressing the Chair must resume his seat at once, 921.

If an hon. member continues to disregard the Chairman when he is on his feet, drastic action will be taken; a Temporary Chairman of Committees should know the standing orders, 1612.

Public Accounts Committee: An hon. member is not permitted to refer to the contents of the report of the Public Accounts Committee until that document has been tabled in the House, unless he can vouch for the accuracy of his quotation, 573.

Relevancy: An hon. member should not trespass on the Chair's generosity in relation to the scope of debate on the motion for the adoption of the Address-in-Reply; he must confine his remarks to the motion, 275.

An hon. member should confine his remarks to the Address-in-Reply to the Governor's speech, 131; to the bill that is being considered, 509; to the resolution before the Committee, 514, 522; to the budget, 706; to the particular estimate under discussion, 919, 921, 932, 1010; to the Loan Estimates, 1251, 1282.

In discussing the estimates, debate is confined to administrative acts and reference to departmental policy is precluded, 1010.

Unless an hon. member can show the Chairman the item of the estimate to which he refers, he is out of order. The estimate for The Legislature makes no provision for a new Parliament House and an hon. member is out of order in discussing it on the vote for The Legislature, 922.

In the debate on the estimates an hon. member will not be allowed to discuss a matter that relates to the Loan Estimates, 970, 973, 982, 983; nor will the Minister be permitted to reply to such a matter, 970.

An hon. member may not make a budget speech on a particular estimate in Committee of Supply, 981, 1010.

In the debate on the estimate of the Minister for Mines an hon. member may not reply to what the Acting Minister for Mines said outside the Chamber, 1010.

Hon. members may not introduce irrelevant matters into the debate on a Supply Bill, 459.

Discussion of fruit barrows in the debate on the Local Government, Motor Traffic and Transport (Amendment) Bill is out of order, 1848.

An hon. member is out of order in imputing motives against the Government when the matter to which he refers is not before the House and has not been mentioned in debate, 1104.

Remarks Required to be Withdrawn: "I thought I might be 'gagged' and I wanted to get it in now", 970.

"He is an ex-Minister for Lands; he might have a guilty conscience too", 1612.

Had any objection been taken to an insulting remark made by an hon. member during a division, he would have been compelled to withdraw and apologise to the Committee; the word used was distinctly unbecoming and disorderly, 1637.

Repetition: Tedious repetition is not allowed, 981.

Time: In the debate on the estimates every hon. member is allowed forty-five minutes and no provision is made for an extension of time, 919, 921, 932.

When a Minister replies on behalf of the Colonial Treasurer to the debate on the Supply Bill, he has unlimited time, 476.

- SESSIONAL ORDERS, m., 535, 1034.
- SPEAKER, MR., ABSENCE, 145.
- SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:
Auditor-General's Report: Tabled by Mr. Speaker, 717.
Christmas Felicitations: Mr. Speaker's response to good wishes of hon. members, 1886.
Debate: When an hon. member has spoken on the motion for leave to introduce a bill he must wait for the second-reading debate before making another speech on the measure, 1473.
An hon. member will not be permitted to bring into a debate matters of graft and corruption, ancient history and serious allegations made without any support, unrelated to the bill before the House, 1858.
Denial: A denial by an hon. member that he is an aspirant for the leadership of the Liberal Party might be accepted, 989.
Dignity and Decorum: The State Parliament is not the Federal Parliament and is noted for dignity and decorum, 1411, 1412.
An hon. member should not be insolent and inane, 1828.
Disorderly Conduct: Hon. members who engage in an altercation across the Chamber are conducting themselves in a disorderly fashion, 1164.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

- SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS
Exception is not taken to relevant interjections but when everyone shouts at once the House is disorderly, 1062.
The Leader of the Opposition may not be disorderly, 989; and if the Leader of the Opposition argues whether he is disorderly he may be dealt with by Mr. Speaker, 990.
Disorderly Remarks: "It is just as well" in response to the statement, "I did not hear what the hon. member . . . said", 989.
Governor's Speech: Copy laid on table of the House and ordered to be recorded in the Votes and Proceedings, 63.
Hansard: Answers to questions about daily production of Hansard and distribution of galley proofs, 336.
House Committee: Report of resignation of Mr. Morton from membership of the committee, 802.
Impertinence: "Answer his question anyway" is a most impertinent remark, 1650.
Interjections: An hon. member must be heard in silence, 78, 280, 305, 313, 940, 1834.
Consistent interjections, which interrupt a Minister unnecessarily, are not permitted, 1463.
Hon. members who do not keep quiet may be removed from the Chamber, 1463, 1651, 1828.
An hon. member who does not like a reply to his interjection is not therefore entitled to interject further, 1500.
An hon. member is entitled to be heard without interruption, 1174.
Irritating tactics to obstruct the debate will not be countenanced, 1768, 1812, 1813, 1828.
It is not necessary to answer interjectors, 1825; an hon. member should ignore them, 1834.
An hon. member should not interject, 1249, 1250, 1858.
Impudent, forceful, impertinent and irrelevant, 1056, 1650, 1764.
Offensive and ridiculous, 945, 1768, 1812, 1813.
Disorderly, 332, 1650, 1718.
Ungentlemanly, 941.
An hon. member who continues with insolent interjections will be dealt with, 672.
Stern action will be taken against any hon. member who interjects after an appeal has been made to him to behave himself, 1764.

24th August, 1955, to 6th February, 1956.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),

Irrelevant and disorderly interjections might lead a Minister inadvertently to begin to debate a question, 279.

An hon. member's effective time for reply to a ministerial statement is shortened if he replies to interjections, some of them inane, 280; or is constantly interrupted, 1411.

No hon. member should attempt to dictate the speech that should be made by another hon. member, 1056.

When a Minister is answering a question he needs no assistance from any hon. member, 1717.

Interruptions: Will lead Mr. Speaker to exercise his authority over hon. members on both sides of the House, 1411.

An hon. member who continues to interrupt the debate may be dealt with, 1150.

Too much conversation in the Chamber prevents an hon. member from being heard, 1833.

A degree of ignorance is exhibited when hon. members continue a conversation across the Chamber while Mr. Speaker is on his feet, 1834.

Ministerial Statements: It is fairer to hon. members if a lengthy ministerial statement is made, not during, but at the end of, question time, 98.

Whether an answer to a question without notice constitutes a ministerial statement shall be decided in accordance with practice, 278; in view of its subject-matter, 279. The decision lies with Mr. Speaker, 279.

Offensive Remark: "I am endeavouring to ascertain what the hon. member is talking about", 1828.

Parliamentary Privilege: Statement of position in New South Wales, 93.

Personal Explanation: This procedure is available to an hon. member to show that what another hon. member says of him is a deliberate untruth, 315.

If a Minister misrepresents an hon. member when answering a question, that hon. member may immediately seek to make a personal explanation, 1459; but he may not make a personal explanation in relation to the question itself, 1460.

By way of personal explanation an hon. member is entitled to say that he has been misrepresented; he is not entitled to say that motives have been imputed to him of which he is entirely ignorant, 1096.

On a personal explanation, an hon. member may say that he has been misrepresented in some particular and may speak to that, but he

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),

cannot correct inaccuracies. The purpose of a personal explanation is to correct a misrepresentation and when an hon. member narrates his qualifications as a teacher and speaks of people approaching him he is not making a personal explanation, 1467.

Photograph of House in Division: For publication in the United States of America, in book on political science and related matters, 1836.

Points of Order: When one hon. member is already speaking to a point of order, another hon. member is not entitled to seek the call, 992.

An hon. member given the call on a point of order may not resort to abuse, 940.

An hon. member should keep his eyes and ears open, 1150.

To take a trivial point of order is only trifling with the House, 1150, 1151.

A quibble about words that have a similar import cannot be permitted, 1459.

An hon. member who claims that another hon. member has misrepresented him may deal with that situation by way of personal explanation, but not on a point of order, 1249.

An hon. member who is misrepresented in a question without notice has the right to make a personal explanation, but misrepresentation does not constitute a ground for a point of order, 1457.

Privilege: There is no such thing as a point of privilege; an hon. member who rises to privilege must be prepared to move a motion, 672.

Procedure: An hon. member unable to ask a supplementary question as the time for questions had expired, sought the call for a personal explanation, but there was business before the House, 1464.

An hon. member must address the Chair, not the gallery; give no impudence and not bandy words with Mr. Speaker, 1530.

Questions without Notice: A genuine search for information of interest to hon. members makes a question permissible even though there could be circumstances in which a point of order on the ground that the question seeks an expression of opinion might well be upheld, 532.

An hon. member has no right to advise a Minister how to answer a question, 1718.

An answer to a question without notice obviates the need for a reply to a printed question which is substantially the same, 1820.

Volumes, 13, (14).

ASSEMBLY (continued):

(SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
continued.

"The purpose of questions without notice is not to give information but to elicit it, 484.

The object of a question is to elicit information—not only for the hon. member who asks it, who might already have that information, but also for the House and the State, 334.

Direct quotation from a newspaper is permissible and does not constitute giving information, 60.

The practice of the New South Wales Legislative Assembly and of other Houses of Parliament is for a Minister to answer a question in any manner he thinks fit, 279, 1718, 1819; however, the standing orders do not permit him or any other hon. member to be offensive or to impute motives, 1086, 1819.

Standing Orders No. 77 and No. 78 are closely related, one being consequential upon the other, and it might well be a matter of opinion whether a Minister in answering a question enters into debate, 1718; or uses argument: the Speaker does not know what is in the mind of the Minister and whether the information is vital to the House or to the country until the Minister has given it, and he cannot read the Minister's mind before he speaks, 859.

The question, "has this gentleman been using that information for his political benefit?" may be answered "yes" or "no", or the answer might not be known to the Minister. Such a question does not seek an expression of the Minister's opinion, 534.

When an hon. member asks whether something is a fact, he is not seeking an opinion, 60.

A request for particulars and statistics does not seek an opinion, 366.

It may be a matter of opinion whether an opinion is being sought in a question without notice; it may be that the Minister answering knows as a fact that something is likely to happen. Serious consideration would have to be given to a point of order on the ground that certain portions of a question were purely hypothetical matters, 1459.

A question supplementary to one about Keepit dam would relate to that dam and not to any other, 284.

The answer to a supplementary question was contained in the answer to the original question, 362.

Not supplementary, 1091.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

(SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
continued.

A supplementary question may not be asked after the time for questions has expired, 1464.

If every question that contained propaganda were disallowed on that ground, the purpose of question time would be stultified and a precedent would be set to which every hon. member would object, 334.

Questions are not disallowed unless they flagrantly transgress the standing orders or the practice of the House, 1459.

The words "this class of extortion" used in relation to applications for increased rents and eviction orders might well be a deliberate reflection upon the courts and must be omitted from a question before it may be answered, 366.

The words "is it a fact" must preface a question; the addition of the words "in view of" imports comment, 857.

The statement by an hon. member that he has been informed that three motor-dealing firms are engaged in a practice to which he has referred should be rephrased to ask the question whether it is a fact that they are engaged in the practice, 720.

Based upon current debate, rejection of point of order, 672; motion of dissent, 813; question put in accordance with Standing Order No. 161, 817.

An hon. member referring to a statement by another hon. member may not attribute to him a motive, 891.

A question that imputes motives and casts reflections on another hon. member, and is offensive, is disallowed, 988.

Quotations: When an hon. member quotes a letter from a firm of solicitors he must supply the name, 1767.

Relevancy: An hon. member must confine himself to the objects of the bill and the Minister's second-reading speech, 1176.

An hon. member should not depart from discussion of the bill before the House, 1416, 1419; and wastes the time of the House by referring to something entirely irrelevant to the bill, 1421.

When the purpose of a bill is to ratify an agreement, the matter for debate is whether the House will ratify it, 1177, 1178.

In the second-reading debate on the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Amendment Bill, other pensions provided by the State may not be discussed, 637.

24th August, 1955, to 6th February, 1956.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
continued.

Questions doubting the relevancy of an hon. member's remarks should be addressed to the Speaker, 78.

Remarks Held to be Unparliamentary:
"The Marrickville cow", 1825.

Remarks Personally Offensive to an Hon. Member: If an hon. member takes exception to a remark by another hon. member and claims that it is offensive to him personally, it has been the practice of the House for the hon. member who used the term to withdraw it, 940, 952.

When an hon. member objects to the application of the word "marionette" to himself by another hon. member, it is proper for that hon. member to point out that he referred to members of the Opposition and said that they had behaved or acted "like marionettes"; he did not say that they were marionettes. It is one thing to say "like marionettes" and another to refer to an hon. member as a marionette, 941.

If a statement is lying and misleading, and a Minister or any other hon. member says deliberately that it is so, and can prove that it is a lying and misleading statement, he should be allowed to do so. But if "lying" is a word offensive to an hon. member, a Minister who uses it would not wish to hurt that hon. member's feelings and will use some other word, 1473.

Remarks Required to be Withdrawn: "I say that the hon. member is telling a deliberate untruth", 315.

"Don't talk rot", 940.

"I should like to say this before Mr. Speaker knocks me out", 637.

"Squibbing the issue", 1384.

Remarks Ruled to be Unobjectionable:
"Frenzied" as applied to efforts of the Opposition and "masters" as used in the phrase "the Opposition, or its masters", 1428.

Remarks Sought to be Withdrawn: An hon. member is entitled to speak to a point of order seeking the withdrawal of some remarks he has made, before he is asked to withdraw them, 992.

Remarks that Impute Motives or Contain Innuendoes: "If they are game to do this or game to do that", 1824.

Reply to Debate: Hon. members should not make an attack upon a Minister's nationality and faith. When there is heat in a speech a warm reply is understandable, and a Minister has every right to defend himself, 1150, 1156.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
continued.

Reprimands: A reprimand delivered in a kindly manner should be accepted in the spirit in which it is given, 992.

Royal Visit: Composite group photograph to commemorate the Royal Opening of Parliament on 4th February, 1954, hung in corridor, 56.

Rulings: Answer to question without notice about compilation and publication of Speakers' and Chairmen's rulings for the guidance of hon. members, 623.

A ruling by Mr. Speaker on a point of order settles the argument unless the forms of the House are put into operation and notice is given of a motion of dissent from the ruling. The Speaker cannot anticipate a dissent motion or anything else that might happen and has to be guided by the prevailing situation, 860.

Speeches: An hon. member is out of order in telling a Minister what sort of speech he should make or what information he should give. An hon. member may ask for information but he may not be impudent, 628.

Sub Judice: Mr. Speaker is bound to accept the assurance of the Attorney-General or the Minister who represents him that a question without notice covers an exact matter before a court and has no option but to rule such a question out of order, 410.

On the assurance of the Minister acting on behalf of the Attorney-General that a matter is not sub judice, a point of order on that ground is dismissed, 1766.

Time: Time wasted through constant interruptions to a Minister's reply and lost by the taking of points of order is noted and added to the time to which the Minister is limited, 1151.

Urgency: A Minister has the right to show, if he can, that a matter is not urgent and to refer to incidents to support his contention, 951.

No debate may take place on a motion of urgency that has been put to the House, 1722.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT, 1436, 1884.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (L. J. TULLY, ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Interjections: An hon. member who is addressing the Chair shall be heard without interruption, 565.

Persistent interjections are disorderly, 1130.

Volumes 13, 14.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (H. T. FOWLES, ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Interjections: When an hon. member is speaking he must address the Chair, 1880; and must not engage in crossfire with other hon. members, 663.

An hon. member shall be heard without interruption, 665, 1146.

Request to hon. members of the Opposition not to be provocative, 1146.

Procedure: If an hon. member wanted the question stated again he should have requested it, 1884.

Relevancy: An hon. member must confine his remarks to the clause before the Committee, 1880.

Time for Debate: When an extension of time is not permissible, a motion for that purpose is out of order, 867.

PRESIDENT, THE (THE HON. W. E. DICKSON),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:
Adjournment under Standing Order 13
(Urgency): 1197.

Christmas Felicitations: Mr. President's response to good wishes of hon. members, 1811.

Deaths: Announcements by Mr. President—
Armstrong, the Hon. Thomas, M.L.C., 11;
Horne, the Hon. H. E., M.L.C., 14; Mc-Namara, the Hon. A. W., M.L.C., 7; Padgen,
the Hon. W. T., M.L.C., 10.

Duplication of Debate: An hon. member cannot debate a matter that the House has already determined, 1233.

Governor's Speech: When the President reported the receipt of a copy of the speech delivered by His Excellency the Governor on the opening of the Fifth Session of the Thirty-seventh Parliament, with the consent of the House he did not ask the Clerk to read it, as hon. members had already heard it, 18.

Presentation of Address-in-Reply, 46.

Hansard: When an hon. member speaks on the adjournment motion and wishes to have an alteration made in the Hansard report of a speech he delivered twenty days before, and after a galley-pull of the speech had been forwarded to him for revision, he raises the matter at a rather late stage, but what the hon. member says on the adjournment of the House is reported in Hansard and this will clear the matter up, 1455.

Questions without Notice: Hon. members are entitled to ask questions without notice, 1537.

Relevancy: An hon. member should discuss the bill before the House, 1339, 1370.

Remarks Ordered to be Withdrawn: "A tissue of lies", 38.
