DEPUTY SPEAKER AND CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (GEORGE BOOTH, Esq.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Acting Clerk of Legislative Assembly: Appointment of Mr. I. P. K. Vidler, 664.

Adjournment: On the motion for the adjournment of the House an hon. member may raise a matter of urgent public importance affecting his electorate, 1445, 4559; and must be brief and refrain from provoking a general debate, 4559.

Amendments: Should be handed in writing to the clerks so that they may be readily recorded, 621; and so that their sequence will be plain, 4659.

A Minister speaking on an amendment does not close the debate on the amendment or on the motion, 840, 845.

Amendments must be disposed of, 1712, 1714.

Anticipation: No hon. member may anticipate debate on a motion on the business paper, 422, 455.

Assurances: Hon. members must accept the assurance of an hon. member, 1117, 1118.

Bills: The short title is no more than an abbreviation and has no legal significance, 621.

Spelling adopted by the Parliamentary Draftsman, 692.

Budget Debate: There is no provision for an extension of time during this debate, but an hon. member may be given two additional calls for ten minutes, 2157.

The wide scope permitted in the Budget debate may not be used for a personal attack on a Minister or a private member, 2323.

Chair: Decides who shall speak on a measure, 1772; hon. members must address, 736, 1790, 4660.

Hon. members must moderate their language and tone of voice when addressing the Chair, 2333.

Committee: In Committee an hon. member may not refer to a determination already made by the House, 3175.

Conversation: Not permitted, 721, 1606.

Audible conversation makes it impossible for hon. members to hear the speaker and difficult for Hansard to record the proceedings, 826, 1468.

Denials: An hon. member's denial must be accepted, 732, 1117, 1608.

Division: There being only one dissenting voice, question resolved in the affirmative, in accordance with S.O. 208 (c), 2674, 2675, 2676, 4521.

Estimates: In this debate an hon. member must confine his remarks to administrative matters, 2500.

Hansard: A complete set of galley proofs will be made available for the use of Opposition members as well as to the Leader of the Opposition and the Leader of the Country Party, 1817.

22nd May, 1956, to 19th June, 1957.

Hon. Member removed from Chamber: The hon. member for Hawkesbury, 2156; the hon. member was removed from the Chamber not because of any interjection about the Prime Minister but because of his persistent interjections after he had been warned by the Chair, 2322.

Interjections and Interruptions: Disorderly, 425, 450, 731, 826, 844, 889, 921, 964, 1023, 1086, 1244, 1532, 1543, 1770, 1835, 1891, 1974, 2074, 2139, 2204, 2205, 2330, 2343, 2401, 2445, 2471, 2506, 2637, 2975, 3785, 3873, 4027, 4290, 4324, 4332, 4360, 4361, 4461, 4516, 4684.

A Minister who has listened courteously and silently to the debate must be extended the same courtesy, 571, 969, 3873; otherwise the standing orders will be applied, 572, 737.

The Leader of the Opposition should restrain himself and set an example to members of his party, 1147, 1282.

An hon. member must not be provocative when another hon. member is making a speech, 2401.

An hon. member may not answer by interjection a challenge made or question asked by an hon. member addressing the House or the Committee, 736, 2443.

An hon. member should be heard in silence, 768, 889, 2006, 2343, 2445, 3838, 4802.

Misrepresentation: A Minister is entitled to show, by the production of figures, that, in his opinion, there has been misrepresentation by an hon. member, 1118.

Notice of Motions and Questions: The time for giving notice of motions and questions having passed, Mr. Deputy Speaker, with the indulgence of the House, allowed the Leader of the Opposition to give notice of two motions that he had foreshadowed, 673, 728.

Offensive Remarks: Must be withdrawn, 964. (See Words and Expressions.)

Opinions expressed in Debate: An hon. member is entitled to express his opinion, though he would be called to order if he said that another hon. member had told deliberate lies, 737.

Questions without Notice: The Premier and Ministers are entitled to give a lengthy explanation in reply to a question, 724, 2000.

If a Minister is interrupted while answering a question, the question will be disallowed, 371, 2000.

It is disorderly to suggest that if a question is placed on the Questions and Answers paper the Premier will never answer it, 775.

A hypothetical question is out of order, 1211.

Hon. members will be directed to place long questions on the Questions and Answers paper, 1741.

An hon. member must not preface his question with the words "Is it not a fact." In doing so he seeks to convey information rather than to obtain it. He must preface his question with the words "Is it a fact," 2000.

Not supplementary, 724.

Relevancy: An hon. member should relate his remarks to the matter before the Chamber, 1155, 1229, 1233, 1440, 1471, 1532, 1533, 1783, 3783, 3785, 4359, 4516, 4523, 4660; to the Budget, 2333; to the estimate under discussion, 2606, 2624, 2628, 2824.

A Minister asked by an hon. member to clarify a statement made by him is entitled to do so in reply, 1480.

An hon. member who gets the call when he might not be prepared to speak, is given a little latitude, but may not go on a roving commission, 2027.

Standing Orders: Only Mr. Speaker or the Chairman of Committees decides whether the standing orders are being observed, 1230.

Tellers: For many years it has been the practice of the Chairman of Committees to call tellers by their names, 3177.

Warnings: Hon. member for Ashfield, 1022.

Hon. member for Earlwood, 1368, 1701.

Hon. member for Orange, 1394.

Hon. member for Hawkesbury, 2155, 3732.

Hon. member for Wollondilly, 2155, 3164, 3906.

Hon. member for Burwood, 2155.

Hon. member for Barwon, 2343.

Hon. member for Gordon, 4035.

Hon. member for Armidale, 4684.

Words and Expressions Required to be Withdrawn: "The hon. member is going on with a lot of tripe", 291.

"The hon. member was asleep a while ago", 1023.

The Government brought down legislation to gerrymander electorates, 1228.

"The Government was bludging on the operators of school bus services", 2158.

"I can understand the hon. member's hypocrisy", 2333.

"The hon. member can giggle and laugh", 2507.

"I do not sell second-hand motor cars", 3354.

Volumes 16-20.

- SPEAKER, MR., ABSENCE, 367, 664, 718, 768, 794, 850, 913, 956, 1019, 1083, 1139, 1208, 1274, 1321, 1392, 1459, 1506, 1574, 1628, 1676, 1737, 1810, 1861, 1925, 1996.
- SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:
Adjournment Debate: May not be a general debate or relate to a subject that can lead to such a debate, 4166; an hon. member should confine himself to his own electorate or constituents, 663, 4489.
Aspersions: An hon. member may not cast aspersions on the speeches of other hon. members, 611.
Behan, H. C., Esq., M.S.M., Editor of Debates: Retirement, 4503, 4504.
Bibles: Presentation to the House of three Bibles to take the place of the Bible used for the past 100 years, 51.
Business of the House: Motions of urgency and for the suspension of standing orders to enable bills to be brought in and proceeded with as far as the second-reading stage in one day are not without precedent, 4125.
It is competent for a Minister, when there is no other business before the House, to move a motion of urgency, 4143, 4144; and it is the practice of Parliament that no discussion of the motion may ensue, 4144.
The House may suspend standing orders whenever it chooses, 4148.
Censure: The mover of a motion of censure has an opportunity to reply to hon. members who have spoken in the debate, 507.
Centenary of Responsible Government: Congratulatory message from House of Representatives, 52; from the House of Assembly, South Australian Parliament, 52; from the Senate, 103; from the President of the Legislative Council of Victoria, 103.
Presentation of Division Glasses, 3685.
Chair: An hon. member will not be allowed to bandy words with Mr. Speaker, 504, 3174, 4193; or to canvass a ruling of the Chair, 4154; and if he is not satisfied with a ruling his recourse is to give notice of dissent from it, 4193, 4798.

22nd May, 1956, to 19th June, 1957.

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS (continued):

An hon. member may attack Mr. Speaker in the manner provided by the forms of the House, but not by subterfuge, 2636.

Clerk of the Legislative Assembly: Retirement of H. Robbins, Esq., M.C., 627, 632.

Appointment of Allan Pickering, Esq., M.B.E., M.Ec., 632, 956.

Debate: It is not competent for Mr. Speaker to close a debate by calling the Minister in reply when another hon. member is seeking the call, 4538.

It is disorderly for an hon. member to impute wrong motives to other hon. members and to use offensive or unbecoming language, 4811.

A Minister should not be provocative and does not assist Mr. Speaker by making provocative statements, 515.

Mr. Speaker will not call an hon. member who seeks the call merely by rising in his place. It is right and proper practice that when an hon. member rises in his place he calls, "Mr. Speaker," 4541.

Estimates: A matter decided by the House may not be discussed again during the debate on the financial estimates, 2234.

Interjections and Interruptions: Disorderly, 494, 504, 507, 2560, 2661, 2662, 2799, 3007, 3638, 3604, 3697, 3834, 3935, 3987, 3988, 4014, 4022, 4023, 4120, 4143, 4144, 4150, 4152, 4154, 4188, 4193, 4286, 4320, 4353, 4384, 4401, 4808.

The Leader of the Opposition should be given a chance to reply to a ministerial statement, 644; Mr. Speaker will leave the chair if interruption continues, 644.

An hon. member who disturbs the proceedings of the House will be dealt with as the standing orders provide, 2635.

An hon. member should proceed with his speech and not enter into argument with an interjecting hon. member, 2661.

Ministerial Statements: An hon. member may reply to a statement on Government policy on behalf of the Opposition if the Leader of the Opposition wishes him to do so, 407.

If a reply to a question without notice has to do with government or ministerial policy and is lengthy, Mr. Speaker will rule that it is a ministerial statement, 4378, 4379.

Motions: Mr. Speaker will permit a Minister to amend the formal matter in a motion for leave to introduce a bill as printed on the business paper, 3790.

A motion in the style of a speech is not in order, 4118.

Parliament: Reflections upon the parliamentary institution are a wicked and contemptible fabrication, 2631, 2632, 2636, 2637.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS (continued):

New Division Glasses presented by United Kingdom Branch of Commonwealth Parliamentary Association, 3685.

Parliament House: Statements attributed to J. G. Ball, 3761, 3829.

An hon. member wanting to know the remuneration or conditions of employment of any member of the Assembly staff should go to the Speaker or Clerk of the House, 2636.

Visits to Parliament by school children are of interest and educational value, 2928.

Personal Explanations: A personal explanation affords redress to an hon. member who has been misrepresented by another, 4120; is appropriate when there is no business before the House, 2436, 4192; and may not be debated, 3951.

If an hon. member has not been misrepresented he has no ground for a personal explanation, 4192, 4635; an hon. member making a personal explanation is limited to two or three minutes in which to speak on a matter of direct, not indirect, misrepresentation, 4319.

An hon. member having made a serious imputation against a Minister, and the Minister having replied, the hon. member may not make a further personal explanation, 57.

Points of Order: Debate on a point of order must be relevant, 508.

Submissions not considered points of order, 4378, 4798.

Previous Question: An amended motion that has been put and passed can be reopened by some hon. member moving the previous question, 3952.

Private Member's Business: An hon. member may be directed to move a motion naming a date for the resumption of the debate on a motion he has moved, 4796, 4797, 4798.

Privilege: An hon. member cannot get the call on a matter of privilege when there is business before the House, 2632.

No hon. member may rise at any time he likes and, contrary to the forms and procedure of the House, address Mr. Speaker, 2635, 2670.

If a member rises to privilege, he must move a substantive motion (S.O. 158), 512, 2636.

Questions without Notice: An hon. member in asking a question should seek information, not give it, 252, 408, 2677, 2846, 3142, 4042.

An hon. member should ask his question without comments, 2054, 2677, 3741.

A Minister should be allowed to answer hon. members' questions in his own way, and in silence, 57, 637, 2127, 3138, 3417, 3496, 3742, 3936.

Volumes 16-20.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB),
RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS

Hon. members should avoid lengthy questions, 2349.

Lengthy questions involving statistics which a Minister could not be expected to answer without notice, must be placed on the Questions and Answers paper, 574, 3604.

Form of questions without notice, 2679, 2846, 3142, 3604.

Proposed revised set of rules for the asking of questions, 3604.

It is not customary for questions to be addressed to a Minister without Portfolio, 2932.

It is disorderly for an hon. member after asking a question to contradict the Minister or to interject, 2803.

There should be no argument when a Minister is answering a question, 2230.

A Minister, in replying to a question without notice, has an opportunity that otherwise would not be open to him, to answer statements made outside Parliament, 4378.

The Premier himself shall decide whether he is able to give the information an hon. member seeks in a question, 4774.

It is in a Minister's discretion to lay, or not lay, a document on the table. If a Minister, in reply to a question, wishes to read a statement, he may do so, 59.

A question ruled to be not supplementary may be asked again later if the hon. member gets the call, 2751.

Supplementary questions must relate to the original question. Shooting at clay pigeons has nothing to do with shooting at birds and animals, 2190.

A supplementary question that a Minister has already answered in his reply to the original question is out of order, 3891, 4777; and an hon. member will not be permitted to trifle with the House by asking a supplementary question that has already been answered unequivocally, 4190.

An hon. member is out of order if he casts a reflection when asking a question, 168; and a Minister is out of order if he makes an imputation when answering one, 4776.

An hon. member is not entitled to comment when he asks a question, 4041.

Reaffirmation of ruling that questions reflecting upon the characters of unnamed persons—whether members of Parliament or of the public—are not permitted unless the questioner is willing to move a substantive motion so that his allegations may be analysed, debated and replied to in the House: further, if an hon. member lays charges against an hon. member or any other person, Mr. Speaker will direct him to move a motion, place his facts before the House

and prove his charges: If an hon. member cannot prove his charges, it is competent for the House to expel him from the Parliament, 3740.

Reflections: An hon. member is not permitted to reflect upon a determination of the House, 661.

Relevancy: Considerable latitude having been extended to other speakers during a debate, an hon. member is given the same degree of indulgence, so long as he acts in a parliamentary manner, 2672.

Debate on the second-reading motion must be confined to the objects of the bill and the Minister's second-reading speech, 3211.

An hon. member should confine himself to the motion, 4273, 4860.

The debate on an urgency motion must not extend to the debating of the substantive motion, 3938.

Extreme irrelevance will not be permitted, even though wide latitude is given to the expression of views, 4153.

Repetition: An hon. member becoming tedious in repetition transgresses the standing order, 2077.

Speeches: An hon. member may use copious notes, but may not read a speech, 4808.

Sub Judice: Mr. Speaker accepts the advice of the Attorney-General on the facts when deciding whether a matter referred to in debate is sub judice, 403, 2077.

Ministerial statement ruled out of order, 404.

A statement that the Premier proposes to bring down legislation is not out of order, 405, 407.

Unless the matter referred to is the exact matter before a court or legal tribunal, it is not sub judice, 3494.

Sydney Grammar School: Centenary, 3885.

Urgency Motion: The Premier, in replying to a motion of urgency, is entitled to recite what has already been done in an area, 2385.

Warnings: Hon. member for Earlwood, 512, 4155, 4193.

The Leader of the Opposition, 2799.

Hon. member for Wollondilly, 3081.

Word not Required to be Withdrawn: "Coward", 518.

Words and Expressions Required to be Withdrawn: "Will the Minister ensure that misleading statements are not made", 2436.

"An exhibition by the Minister that is unworthy of him", 643.

"The insincerity and hypocrisy of the hon. member", 2632.

22nd May, 1956, to 19th June, 1957.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. W. H. LAMB), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS (continued):

"No-one would have expected that a person of the learning and ability of the hon. member could slip down the ladder so quickly that to-day he is the laughing stock of New South Wales", 2632.

"The Leader of the Opposition has as proteges such people as Ball", 4155.

"Ministers can get away with murder", 4193.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT, m., 659, 1660, 3668, 4049, 4856.

STEVENS, SIR BERTRAM, EX-PREMIER, address, 417.

SUTHERLAND, HON. MEMBER FOR, address, 131.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (H. T. FOWLES, ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Chair: Hon. members must address the Chair, 1936.

Interjections: Hon. members must refrain from interjecting, 1910, 1936.

Relevancy: An hon. member must confine his remarks to the matter before the Chamber, 1158, 1910, 1911, 1936, 4069.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (J. S. FREEMAN, ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Adjournment: Debate on a motion for the adjournment of the House is confined to matters of urgency and recent occurrence, 1120.

Amendments: An amendment contrary to the principles of a bill as read a second time is subversive of the measure and therefore out of order, 1732, 1746.

An amendment that would involve an expenditure in excess of that recommended by the Governor is out of order, 1002.

Budget Debate: Administrative matters may not be discussed during this debate, which should relate to the Financial Statement and the amendment. Debate on the financial aspect of policy would be in order, 2301.

Dissent: The Chairman may refuse to accept a motion of dissent from a ruling that is in accordance with the standing orders and recognised practice, 1745, 1746.

Hansard: Difficulty in hearing an hon. member, 2149.

Relevancy: An hon. member must confine his remarks to the clause or the amendment before the Committee, 937, 941, 1037, 1038, 1724, 3902, 3903.

An hon. member must confine his remarks to the matter under consideration, 1615, 1619, 3651.

In the Committee stage of a bill an hon. member may not make a second-reading speech, 3119, 3902, 3904.

Speeches: Hon. members shall "call" when they rise to speak, so that the Chair might know that they want to speak, 2867.

TEMPORARY CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (L. J. TULLY, ESQ.), RULINGS, OBSERVATIONS AND OPINIONS:

Amendments: The careful framing of an amendment is of assistance to hon. members and saves the time of the Committee, 2690.

Ruled not to be contradictory of the motion, 2690.

Estimates: Matters recently determined by the House may not be again discussed at length, 2859.

Hansard: Difficulty in recording hon. member's speech, 2779.

Interjections: The time for debate at the introductory stage is limited, and therefore an hon. member should be permitted to put his arguments in the brief time at his disposal, 1696.

Relevancy: An hon. member must confine his remarks to the amendment before the Committee, 1030, 2974.
