POINTS OF ORDER (continued):—
RULINGS OF SPEAKER (continued):—
That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting the incomplete nature of the Scheme now being carried out by the Railway Commissioners for relieving the congested Goods Traffic, was definite and in order, 83.
That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting Shortage of Public School Teachers in this State was in order, although the Notice was placed in an envelope, 93.
That a question of privilege being before the House a Point of Order could not be raised respecting a document that was laid upon the Table, 96
That it was in order for a Minister to lay a document upon the Table, although it did reflect generally on what some Honorable Member might do, 97.
That it was not necessary to set out in the Order of Leave all Acts proposed to be amended, and Supreme Court and Circuit Courts (Amendment) Bill was therefore in order, 101.
That although amendments moved in a Bill pro forma could not be discussed, they must be in accordance with the rules of the House and be within the Order of Leave, 101.
That the Temporary Chairman of Committees was correct in his ruling that an amendment in the Title could not be made pro forma , but must be considered at the close of the Committee stage ( referred from Committee ), 101.
That the question of Privilege with respect to Honorary Ministers could be discussed as it had suddenly arisen, 108.
That the question of Privilege with respect to Honorary Ministers was in order, as a Minister could not be implicated without implicating his acts in the House, 108.
That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting the appointment of Inspectors under the Industrial Disputes Act was not definite, and was therefore out of order, 112.
That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting the necessity for additional Bar Dredges, was definite, and in order, 116.
That Crown Lands (Declaratory) Bill was in Order, as the Order of Leave covered generally the scope of the Bill, 124.

VOTE OF CENSURE—LAND POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT :—
Sessional Orders Suspended to consider motion respecting, 129.
Motion made ( Mr. Wade ), (1). The declared policy of the Government, that, in the proposed repeal of the Conversion Act, they will not preserve in their entirety the rights of all those persons who are now entitled to convert their holdings, thereby repudiating a Statutory compact : Further, the obstacles placed in the way of intending occupants of Crown land who may be desirous of acquiring a freehold : Further, the discontinuance of resumptions of land under the Closer Settlement Acts : Further, the proposal, under the Workers' Dwellings Bill, to deprive workers of the right to acquire a freehold title to land in connection with their homes—tend to embarrass persons engaged in rural pursuits, to discourage land settlement, and are inimical to the best interests of this State. (2.) That the foregoing be conveyed by Address to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, and negatived, 129 ; amendment moved ( Mr. David Storey ) to add the following words :— Further, that the proposal to include within the provisions of the Industrial Arbitration Bill, rural workers, is against the interests of Land Settlement, negatived, 129.
