RULINGS OF MR. SPEAKER :—
That as General Business was given precedence on Tuesdays, it was out of order to proceed with Government Business (Address-in-Reply to the Governor's Opening Speech); overruled by Mr. Speaker, 20.
That as Royal Commission had not yet been appointed by the Governor to inquire into the Rookwood-Bankstown Railway, a motion for the adjournment of the House under 49th Standing Order to discuss altering scope of same was out of order, upheld by Mr. Speaker, 41.
That a motion in reference to the values of Crown lands anticipated debate on motion of which notice had been given; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 45.
That an amendment to a motion respecting Subsidies to Hospitals, to provide that they conform to the provisions of the Hospitals Act, was a direct negative and out of order; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 66.
That a motion, That the article in the Sydney Morning Herald , of Friday, 30th August, as read by the Clerk, is a breach of the privileges of this House, was not one of privilege and was out of order; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 80.
That a motion for adoption of additional Standing Order dealing with accommodation for the representatives of the Press reaffirmed powers already possessed, and was out of order; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 84.
That an amendment to refer a motion for the adoption of an additional standing order to the Standing Orders Committee was out of order, not being relevant; upheld by Mr. Speaker, 85.
That the Legal Practitioners Amendment Bill was a private Bill, as it dealt with the interests of an individual rather than the general public; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 97.
That motion concerning the amendment of the Pastures Protection Act was out of order, as anticipating debate on an Order of the Day; upheld by Mr. Speaker, 108.

That the Legal Practitioners Amendment Bill was not in accord with the Order of Leave, as it did not amend the Acts mentioned therein, and as a private Bill it was contrary to the Standing Orders and the practice of the House of Commons; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 120.
That debate on Parliamentary Representation for Rural Districts would anticipate debate on a motion covering the redistribution of the State into Electoral Districts; Mr. Speaker ruled the motion in order, 127-8.
That the Local Government (Amending) Bill exceeded the provisions of the Order of Leave, and was not in accordance with the Title; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 135.
That Order of Day "Application of Charles Lancelot Garland for special gold leases" was out of order, as on previous Tuesday it appeared as a motion, was interrupted by Government Business, and now appeared as an Order of the Day instead of a notice of motion; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 138.
That a motion for modifying residence conditions on Crown lands and substituting of improvement conditions was out of order, as it could be discussed under the Estimates of the Lands Department; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 156.
That an Honorable Member ( Mr. Perry ) who had been "named" had had no opportunity of making an explanation before a motion of censure was moved on him by the Hon. The Premier; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 219.
That a motion for the suspension of the Standing Orders as a matter of urgency respecting the Theatres and Public Halls Act was out of order, as the subject could be discussed in Committee of Supply, which was the next business; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 220.
That the Standing Orders having been suspended to consider a question as a matter of urgency, the debate on the motion could not be adjourned; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 229.
That there being no copies of a Bill on the Table, motion for 3 rd could not be proceeded with; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 254.
ON MOTIONS FOR ADJOURNMENT OF HOUSE UNDER 40TH STANDING ORDER :—
That motion to discuss the overcrowding of trams in the Metropolitan area, anticipated debate on motions of which notice had been given; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 48 (2).
That motion to discuss the scarcity of houses and the construction of Daceyville, anticipated debate on motion of which notice had been given; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 51.
That motion respecting delay in inquiring into and advancing money to applicants under the Advances to Settlers Board, anticipated debate on an Order of the Day, and motion was therefore out of order; upheld by Mr. Speaker, 107.
That motion concerning delay in issuing daily Hansard did not relate to public business, but to the methods of a Government official; upheld by Mr. Speaker, 116.
That motion respecting the opening of North Coast Railway for traffic between Dungog and Taree was not an urgent matter, as it could be discussed under the Financial Statement, which was pending; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 148.
That motion respecting opening of North Coast Railway for traffic was not one of urgency, as the line was not yet complete; overruled by Mr. Speaker, 149.
That the question of subsidies to Local Governing Bodies for road-making purposes had been already discussed on the Local Government (Main Roads) Bill, and a motion to discuss the subject was out of order; upheld by Mr. Speaker, 260.
RULINGS OF MR. DEPUTY-SPEAKER :—
That the Gas Bill, as a General Bill, could not take away specific rights, covenants, and contracts granted by a special statute; overruled by Mr. Deputy-Speaker, 86.
That it was not in order to move to introduce the Teachers' College Building Bill until after the Resolution declaring the expediency of carrying out the work had been gazetted; overruled by Mr. Deputy-Speaker as following a precedent laid down by Mr. Speaker, 106.
That as Mr. Speaker had not obtained permission to leave the Chair, the Committee of the Whole on the Shearers and Agricultural Labourers Accommodation Bill was not properly constituted, and therefore could not report progress; overruled by Mr. Deputy-Speaker, 116.
That the State Iron Works Bill was beyond the Order of Leave; overruled by Mr. Deputy-Speaker, 139.
That clauses 29, 30, and 31 of the Sydney Corporation (Amendment) Bill were outside the Order of Leave of the Bill, and Bill therefore out of order; upheld by Mr. Deputy-Speaker, 177.
That Mr. Speaker having ruled that a motion for the rescission of a resolution could only be taken after seven days notice, it was not in order to move the suspension of Standing Orders to do so; overruled by Mr. Deputy-Speaker, 250.
That the Sydney Corporation (Amendment) Bill (No. 2) proposed to amend certain Acts for purposes which were not indicated in the Title, and Bill was, therefore, out of order; upheld by Mr. Deputy-Speaker, 257-8.

REFRESHMENT ROOM :—
Statement by, respecting papers laid upon Table by Mr. Levien, Hon. Member for Tamworth, with regard to, 75.
HONORABLE MEMBER FOR ARMIDALE :—
Attention being called to conduct of and to use of insulting words to Deputy-Speaker, Mr. Speaker said he would have a discovery made of Hansard , and report to the House, 146.
Statement concerning, and procedure to be adopted in future, 147-8.
RULINGS OF :—
That he would not hear Questions put to Ministers on day of opening of Session, 2.
That it is the time-honored custom to dispose of the Address-in-Reply to the Governor's Opening Speech before General Business is proceeded with, 20.
That the motion of Hon. Member for the Clarence, respecting the values of Crown Lands, was not out of order as anticipating debate on motion of Hon. Minister for Works, as notice of this motion was given before that of the Hon. Minister, 45.
That it was in order to propose an amendment to a motion respecting Subsidies to Hospitals which would provide that they conform to the provisions of the Hospital Act, 66.
That a motion,—That the article in the Sydney Morning Herald , of Friday, 30th August, as read by the Clerk, is a breach of the privileges of this House, was a matter of privilege, and in order, 80.
That it was in order to pass a Standing Order dealing with the accommodation of representatives of the Press, 84.
That an amendment to refer a proposed Standing Order to the Standing Orders Committee was out of order, as being already passed by the House it might not be approved by the Committee, 85.
That it was difficult to decide whether the Legal Practitioners Amendment Bill was a public or a private Bill; he ruled the Bill in order, 97.
That a motion respecting amendment of the Pastures Protection Act anticipated debate on an Order of the Day, and was out of order, 108.
That the House having decided not to hear Counsel at the Bar of the House on the Legal Practitioners Amendment Bill, he assumed that the interests of other persons were in no way injured, and Bill was in order, 120.
That a motion to discuss Parliamentary Representation to Rural Districts was in order, as seeking to discuss representation on a different basis to the existing law, 128.
That Local Government (Amending) Bill did not exceed the Order of Leave, and was properly before the House, 135.
That "Applications of Mr. Charles Lancelot Garland for Special Gold Leases" was properly constituted as an Order of the Day, although it had not been set down as such by the House, the Debate having been interrupted by Government Business taking precedence, 138.
That motion regarding substitution of improvement conditions for residence on Crown Lands was in order, though it did anticipate debate on the Lands Department estimates, 156.
That an Honorable Member ( Mr. Perry ) had had ample opportunity to make an explanation or to retire when a motion for his suspension was moved by the Honorable the Premier, 219.
