S

SPEAKER (continued):—

RULINGS OF:—

- That an amendment which incorporated offensive words against any statute, infringed Standing Order 149, and was therefore out of order, 36.
- That the opportunity for a Reply occurs immediately before the House votes upon an original Motion as moved, or as amended, 65.
- That the motion re Electricity Supplies in New South Wales being substantially the same as the Censure Motion of 2nd May, 1951, Standing Order 187 was infringed and the motion was therefore out of order, 160.
- That an application being before an Industrial Court, matters referred to in the application were sub judice and a motion relating thereto was out of order, 167.
- That, although the subject of a motion could be properly discussed on the Estimates (to be debated later in the same sitting), the Anticipation Rule could not apply as the motion sought a decision which could not be obtained as a result of Debate on the Estimates, 304.
- That there should be an element of urgency in a substantive motion proposed to be submitted to the House before the House should be called upon to determine Urgency under Standing Order 395, 414 (Speaker intimated to House that upon further consideration he had reversed his opinion and withdrew the ruling, 420).
