That the Committee of the Whole (Customs Duties Bill) was properly sitting,—The House, through that Committee being in continuous sitting, and that it was not proper nor incumbent on him to interrupt the still existent sitting by taking the Chair at 4 o'clock p.m., 380.
That, a clause of the Customs Duties Bill referring to Schedule A being under consideration, the items of that Schedule could not be discussed in anticipation, nor until the Schedule itself was under consideration, 380.
Upholds opinion of Chairman, that words proposed to be inserted in clause 4 of the Stamp Duties Act Amendment Bill (No. 3) were properly before the Committee, as not imposing a tax or duty but being rather of the nature of a penalty, 457.
That the Regulation of Factories and Workshops Bill having been brought in by an unofficial Member, and proceeded with by such Member as a Responsible Minister without being accepted as a Government measure, was rather a matter of constitutional propriety than of Order, 502.
Upholds the opinion of the Chairman as to the inadmissibility, on the ground of inconsistency, of a proposed amendment to clause 6 of the Income Tax Bill, 511(2).
That the 1st and 3rd Sessional Orders do not come into operation in cases where the House is already sitting at 4 o'clock p.m., and engaged in the despatch of Business, but have reference only to fresh meetings of the House, and not to sittings extending over twenty-four hours, and that it was therefore not right for him to call on the business for the new day, and thus begin a fresh sitting, 533.
Upholds the opinion of the Chairman that a question (Centennial Exhibition) already decided by the House, during the present Session, cannot be submitted as an amendment upon a resolution before the Committee of the Whole, 567.
That the Chairman had taken the usual and proper course in proposing the question in Committee of Supply without the Minister in charge moving the resolution, 583.
That it is incompetent for an Honorable Member, who had already spoken to the main question, to propose an amendment, 593.

The issue of Debentures under various Loan Acts, in 1870, to the extent of £450,000, has adjusted the amounts short and over raised under these Acts.

† Transferred to the credit of the Consolidated Revenue Fund. § Of this sum £2,050,000 were issued in Debentures. † The amount short raised under this Act, viz., £17,833 15s. 1d. has been made good from the Consolidated Revenue Fund. The £2,000,000 loan of 1832 was issued in Debentures also, but they have since been authorized to be exchanged for Inscribed Stock at the option of the holders; a privilege which has been availed of to the extent of £1,186,300, according to latest advices from England. The balance was in the form of Inscribed Stock. a. Issued as Inscribed Stock. The further Loan of £5,500,000 negotiated in London in October, 1885, not yet brought into this statement.

The Agent-General to The Governor and Company of the Bank of England.
New South Wales Stock, £5,500,000.

Gentlemen,

5, Westminster Chambers, 3rd December, 1884.

Referring to my previous communication, and to the documents which have been furnished to you, and to your letter to me of the 8th June, 1883, I have now formally to request that you will be good enough to undertake the inscription of the loan of £5,500,000, which has been raised by the New South Wales Government through you.

For this purpose I and Mr. Donald Larnach, in exercise of the powers conferred upon us, have created stock to be called "New South Wales Stock 3½ per cents," and have determined that an amount of £5,500,000 of such stock should be issued at the rate of £100 for every nominal amount of £100 represented by the scrip certificates or letters of allotment respectively issued to subscribers for any part of the said loan of £5,500,000; and I send a copy of the deed poll (in duplicate), under date of the 6th October last, executed by us, in evidence thereof, which has been duly enrolled.

To enable you to carry out the inscription and management of this further amount of stock under the Colonial Stock Act, I have duly made and lodged with the Inland Revenue Board the necessary declaration to bring the stock under the provisions of that Act, a print of which declaration I send herewith (in duplicate).

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the letters patent of the 14th April, 1883, with which you are acquainted, I beg to adopt and confirm, with reference to this new issue of New South Wales stock so created as aforesaid, the terms and conditions for the inscription and management of the same by you, set out in your letter above referred to, to me, of the 8th June, 1883.

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue will receive payment from you of the composition for stamp duty, so as to enable the stock, after it shall be inscribed in your books, to be transferred free of duty; and the Commissioners will receive the duty from you under a similar arrangement to that made with reference to the previous issues of New South Wales stock.

On behalf of the New South Wales Government, I have to request that you will be good enough to carry out this arrangement, and to pay to the Commissioners the amount of composition payable for stamp duty in respect of the stock as inscribed in your books.

On behalf of such Government I authorize you, on the terms of your letter to me of the 8th June, 1883, above referred to, to issue to the holders of inscribed stock who may desire the same, from time to time, stock certificates to bearer, in pursuance of the provisions of the Colonial Stock Act 1877; and I further authorize you to transmit the dividend warrants by post, in the same manner and upon the same conditions as the warrants for dividends on the Government funds are sent.

I have, &c.,
SAUL SAMUEL.

Dated 6th October, 1884.

NEW SOUTH WALES STOCK, £3½ per cents, £5,500,000.

DEED POLL declaring the creation of £5,500,000 New South Wales Stock, £3½ per cents, and the terms and conditions on which the same shall be issued and redeemed.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Sir Saul Samuel, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Agent-General resident in London of the Colony of New South Wales, Sir Daniel Cooper, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Donald Larnach, Esquire, Frederick Holkham Dangar, Esquire, and the Honorable Edward Knox, a Member of the Legislative Council of the Colony of New South Wales, send greeting.

WHEREAS in pursuance of an Act passed by the Legislature of the Colony of New South Wales, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1879," the Governor of the said Colony, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Colony, in the month of June, 1882, raised the sum of £2,000,000 sterling, by the issue of debentures secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, payable on the 1st July, 1910: And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," it was amongst other things enacted that whenever, by any Act then or thereafter in force, power should be given to the Governor (in the said Act defined to mean the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council) to raise any sum or sums of money by way of loan for the public service of the Colony, it should be lawful for the Governor to raise the whole or any portion of such sum or sums in the form of inscribed stock hereinafter termed "stock," that all such stock should be styled "New South Wales Stock," and, subject to the provisions of the now reciting Act, should be issued in such amounts, in such manner, at such times, bearing interest at such rate not exceeding 4 per centum per annum, and should be redeemable at such times and upon such conditions, and should be subject to such terms and conditions as the Governor before exercising the aforesaid power should from time to time determine and appoint: And it was further enacted that the Governor should have and might exercise the following powers and authorities or any of them, that was to say:—He might from time to time declare all or any of the debentures issued under the authority of any Act of Parliament to be convertible into stock redeemable at such times and subject to such terms and conditions as he might before the creation thereof determine and appoint; he might authorize the issue of an equivalent amount of such stock in exchange for debentures, and he might, on such conditions as he might determine, authorize the creation and issue of any stock for the purpose of converting any outstanding debentures into stock, and to pay any expenses in connection with such conversions or in carrying out the provisions of the Act: And it was further enacted that the Governor might appoint two or more agents in London for the purposes of the Act, of whom one should be the Agent-General of the said Colony for the time being, and might empower such agents or any one or more of them to exercise the powers of the Act exercisable by the Governor or as the Governor might authorize or direct: And whereas Sir Augustus William Frederick Spencer Loftus (commonly called Lord Augustus Loftus), Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the said Colony and its Dependencies, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Colony and bearing date the 14th day of April, 1883, in virtue of the powers conferred by "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did

appoint the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, Agents in London for the purposes of the same Act, and did thereby empower them or any one or more of them to exercise such powers as are by the Governor exercisable under the same Act, and the said Sir Saul Samuel was thereby appointed to be the Chairman of such Commission: And whereas by a deed poll under the hands and seals of two of them, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, dated the 26th day of June, 1883, they did declare that they had created a stock to be called "New South Wales Stock," and had determined that an amount not exceeding two million pounds of such stock should be issued at the rate of one hundred pounds for every one hundred pounds represented by a debenture issued as aforesaid in respect of the loan of two million pounds raised as aforesaid under "The Public Works Loan Act of 1879," to any holder or holders of such debenture who should desire to convert and exchange such debenture into such stock at any time between the dates therein mentioned, and that the interest or dividend to be paid on the said stock so created by them as aforesaid, or on so much thereof as should be so issued, should be at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum, and be payable as therein mentioned, and that the capital of the same stock should be repaid as therein mentioned:

And whereas by a deed poll under the hands and seals of two of them, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, dated the 16th day of July, 1883, after reciting as is hereinbefore recited and reciting that the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Colony was about to borrow and raise in Great Britain under the authority of and for the purposes in the said firstly recited Act mentioned, a further sum of money in four per cent. inscribed stock, it is witnessed that they, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said Letters Patent, and by virtue of "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did declare that they had created a further amount of three million pounds sterling of capital stock to be called "New South Wales Stock" in addition to and to rank pari passu with the said amount of two million pounds of New South Wales Stock theretofore created as aforesaid, or so much thereof as should be issued as aforesaid, and they had determined that such stock should be issued as therein mentioned, and that the interest or dividend to be paid thereon should be at the rate of four pounds per centum per annum, and should be payable as therein mentioned: And that the capital of the same stock should be repaid as therein mentioned:

And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1880," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to raise by the sale of debentures secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £1,262,000, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned:

And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1881," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to raise by the sale of debentures secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £7,807,500, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned:

And whereas by a deed poll under the hands and seals of two of them, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, dated the 13th day of December, 1883, after reciting as is hereinbefore recited, and reciting that the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Colony, was about to borrow and raise in Great Britain, under the authority of the said recited Acts, for the purpose in the said firstly and two lastly recited Loan Acts respectively mentioned, a further sum of money in four per cent. inscribed stock, it is witnessed that they, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said Letters Patent, and by virtue of the "Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did declare that they had created a further amount of £3,000,000 sterling of capital stock, to be called "New South Wales Stock," in addition to and to rank pari passu with the said amount of £2,000,000 of New South Wales Stock theretofore created as aforesaid, or so much thereof as should have been or should be issued as aforesaid, and also to and with the said amount of £3,000,000 of New South Wales Stock so created and issued or to be issued as aforesaid, and they had determined that such stock should be issued at the rate and on the terms therein mentioned, and that the interest or dividend to be paid thereon should be at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum, and should be payable on the days therein mentioned, and that the capital of the said stock should be repaid as therein mentioned:

And whereas the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council of the said Colony, is about to borrow and raise in Great Britain, under the authority of "The Public Works Loan Act of 1881," a further sum of money by the issue of £3 10s. per cent. Inscribed Stock, for which purpose the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox have determined to create and issue an amount of not exceeding five million five hundred thousand pounds sterling of "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents," and have determined and appointed the time at which the same shall be redeemable, and the terms and conditions on which the same shall be issued:

And whereas it is expedient that such determination and appointment should be declared and manifested under the hand and seals of two or more of them:

Now, therefore, these presents witness that they, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said Letters Patent, and by virtue of "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," do by these presents declare that they have created an amount of five millions five hundred thousand pounds sterling of capital stock, to be called "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents," and they have determined that such capital stock shall be issued at the rate of one hundred pounds of stock for every nominal amount of one hundred pounds which shall be represented by the scrip certificates or letters of allotment respectively to be issued to subscribers for any part of the said sum or sums intended to be and about to be borrowed and raised by the Government of the Colony as aforesaid, when the instalments payable thereon shall have been fully paid, and that the interest or dividend to be paid on the said amount of five millions five hundred thousand pounds sterling of stock so lastly created by them as aforesaid, or any lesser amount which shall be issued, shall be at the rate of three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum, and shall be payable half-yearly at the Bank of England, on the first day of April and first day of

of October in each year until and including the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and that the first half of a year's interest or dividend shall be payable on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five: And further, that on the said first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four the capital shall be repaid at par at the same place.

And they do further declare that the revenues of the Colony of New South Wales alone are liable in respect of the stock hereinbefore described and the dividends thereon, and that the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are not directly or indirectly liable or responsible for the payment of the stock, or of the dividends thereon, or for any matter relating thereto.

In witness whereof, two of them, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, have hereunto set their hands and seals, the sixth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

New South Wales Stock, 3½ per cents. (second issue), £5,500,000.

Gentlemen, 5, Westminster Chambers, Westminster, S.W., 30th November, 1885.

Referring to my previous communication, and to the documents which have been furnished to you, and to your letter to me of the 8th June, 1883, I have now formally to request that you will be good enough to undertake the inscription of the loan of £5,500,000 which has been raised by the New South Wales Government through you.

For this purpose I and Mr. William Richmond Mewburn, in exercise of the powers conferred upon us, have created a further amount of stock called "New South Wales Stock 3½ per cents., and have determined that an amount of £5,500,000 of such stock should be issued at the rate of £100 for every nominal amount of £100 represented by the scrip certificates or letters of allotment respectively issued to subscribers for any part of the said loan of £5,500,000; and I send a copy of the deed poll, under date the 6th October last, executed by us in evidence thereof, which has been duly enrolled.

To enable you to carry out the inscription and management of this further amount of stock under the Colonial Stock Act, I have duly made and lodged with the Inland Revenue Board the necessary declaration to bring the stock under the provisions of that Act, a print of which declaration I send herewith.

In exercise of the powers conferred upon me by the Letters Patent of the 14th April, 1883, with which you are acquainted, I beg to adopt and confirm, with reference to this new issue of New South Wales Stock so created as aforesaid, the terms and conditions for the inscription and management of the same by you set out in your letter, above referred to, to me of the 8th June, 1883.

I am making arrangements with the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to receive payment from you of the composition for stamp duty, so as to enable the stock after it shall be inscribed in your books to be transferred free of duty; and the Commissioners will no doubt receive the duty from you under a similar arrangement to that made with reference to the previous issues of New South Wales Stock.

On behalf of the New South Wales Government, I have to request that you will be good enough to carry out this arrangement, and to pay to the Commissioners the amount of composition payable for stamp duty in respect of the stock as inscribed in your books.

On behalf of such Government I authorize you, on the terms of your letter to me of the 8th June, 1883, above referred to, to issue to the holders of inscribed stock who may desire the same from time to time stock certificates to bearer, in pursuance of the provisions of the Colonial Stock Act, 1877. And I further authorize you to transmit the dividend warrants by post, in the same manner and upon the same conditions as the warrants for dividends on the Government funds are sent.

I have, &c.,
SAUL SAMUEL.

Section 14. The word "Governor" in this Act means "Governor with the advice of the Executive Council."

And it is hereby further declared that The Right Honorable Sir Augustus William Frederick Spencer Loftus (commonly called Lord Augustus Loftus), Knight Grand Cross of The Most Honorable Order of the Bath, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the said Colony, and bearing date the 14th day of April, 1883, in virtue of the powers conferred by "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did appoint Sir Saul Samuel, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Agent-General Resident in London of the said Colony of New South Wales, Sir Daniel Cooper, Baronet, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Donald Larnach, Esq., Frederick Holkham Dangar, Esq., and the Honorable Edward Knox, a Member of the Legislative Council of the said Colony of New South Wales, Agents in London for the purposes of the same Act, and did thereby empower them, or any one or more of them, to exercise such powers as are by the Governor exercisable under the same Act, and the said Sir Saul Samuel was thereby appointed to be the Chairman of such Commission.

And it is hereby further declared that the said Sir Augustus William Frederick Spencer Loftus, as such Governor as aforesaid, with such advice as aforesaid, did, on or about the 24th day of September, 1885, revoke the said appointment of the said Edward Knox, and by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Colony, bearing date on or about the same 24th day of September, 1885, in virtue of the powers conferred by "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did appoint William Richmond Mewburn, Esq., and Nathaniel Cork, Esq., as additional agents in London for the purposes of the same Act, and did thereby empower the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach and Frederick Holkham Dangar, and the said William Richmond Mewburn and Nathaniel Cork, or any one or more of them, to exercise such powers as are by the Governor exercisable under the same Act.

And it is hereby further declared that, by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1881," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to raise by the sale of debentures, secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding four per centum per annum, such several sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of £7,807,500 as might be required for the purposes in the said Act mentioned, and that the loan so authorized might be negotiated in the form of funded stock in London, at such times and for such amounts as might be directed by the Governor with such advice as aforesaid.

And it is hereby further declared that, by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1881, No. 2," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, to raise by the sale of debentures secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £1,000,000, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned, and that the loan so authorized might be negotiated in the form of funded stock in London, at such times and for such amounts as might be directed by the Governor with such advice as aforesaid.

And

And it is hereby further declared that, by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1883," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, to raise by the sale of debentures or the issue of inscribed stock secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £2,000,000, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned.

And it is hereby further declared that, by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1884," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, to raise by the sale of debentures or the issue of inscribed stock secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of £14,388,303 as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned.

And it is hereby further declared that, by a deed poll under the hands and seals of the said Sir Saul Samuel and Donald Larnach, dated the 6th day of October, 1884, after reciting as therein was recited, and that the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, was about to borrow and raise in Great Britain, under the authority of the said "Public Works Loan Act of 1881," a further sum of money by the issue of £3 10s. per cent. inscribed stock, they did declare that, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them and the said Sir Daniel Cooper, Frederick Holkham Dangar and Edward Knox, by the said Letters Patent, and by virtue of "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," they had created an amount of £5,500,000 sterling of capital stock, to be called "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents.," and had determined that the same should be issued at the rate and on the terms therein mentioned, and that the interest or dividend to be paid thereon should be at the rate of £3 10s. per centum per annum, and should be payable half-yearly at the Bank of England on the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October in each year, until and including the 1st day of October, 1924, on which day the capital should be repaid at par at the same place.

And it is hereby further declared that the whole of the said amount of £5,500,000 of capital stock has been issued, and is now inscribed in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the names of the several persons entitled thereto.

And it is hereby further declared that, by a deed poll under the hands and seals of two of them, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, William Richmond Mewburn, and Nathaniel Cork, dated the 6th day of October, 1885, after reciting that the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, was about to borrow and raise in Great Britain, under the authority of the said "Public Works Loan Act of 1881," "Public Works Loan Act of 1881, No. 2," "Public Works Loan Act of 1883," and "Public Works Loan Act of 1884," a further sum of money, by the issue of £3 10s. per cent. inscribed stock, they did declare that, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them, and the said Sir Daniel Cooper, Frederick Holkham Dangar, William Richmond Mewburn, and Nathaniel Cork, by the said Letters Patent, and by virtue of "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," they had created an amount of £5,500,000 sterling of capital stock, to be called "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents.," to be in addition to and to rank pari passu with the said amount of "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents." theretofore created and issued as aforesaid, and had determined that the same should be issued at the rate and on the terms therein mentioned, and that the interest or dividend to be paid thereon should be at the rate of £3 10s. per cent. per annum, and should be payable half-yearly at the Bank of England, on the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October in each year, until and including the 1st day of October, 1924, on which day the capital should be repaid at par at the same place.

And it is hereby further declared that, in further pursuance of the said "Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," and by virtue of the said Letters Patent, two of them, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, William Richmond Mewburn, and Nathaniel Cork, have entered into an agreement with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, providing, amongst other things, for the inscription in a register kept in England by the said Bank of the said stock mentioned in the said last-mentioned deed poll to have been created, and for the transfer of such stock.

And it is hereby further declared that the stock to be inscribed and transferred in conformity with such provision is "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents.," mentioned in the said last-mentioned deed poll.

And it is hereby further declared that the revenues of the Colony of New South Wales alone are liable in respect of the stock hereinbefore described, and the dividends thereon, and that the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are not directly or indirectly liable or responsible for the payment of the stock or of the dividends thereon, or for any matter relating thereto.

And it is hereby further declared that His Excellency the said Sir Augustus William Frederick Spencer Loftus, as the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of New South Wales and its Dependencies, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Colony, and dated the 11th day of August, 1880, appointed the said Sir Saul Samuel, then Saul Samuel, Esq., to be Agent-General for the said Colony, resident in London, to act under such instructions as he should from time to time receive from the Government of the said Colony, to transact such business of the Government as might be specially entrusted to him, or such as might necessarily arise in the absence of such instructions, and in all things whatsoever to serve the Colony to the best of his judgment and ability.

In witness whereof, the said Sir Saul Samuel, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said Letters Patent of the 11th day of August, 1880, under the Great Seal of the said Colony, hath hereunto set his hand, this twenty-second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

WHEREAS by an Act passed by the Legislature of the Colony of New South Wales, entitled "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," it was amongst other things enacted that whenever by any Act then or thereafter in force power should be given to the Governor (in the said Act defined to mean the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council) to raise any sum or sums of money by way of loan for the public service of the Colony, it should be lawful for the Governor to raise the whole or any portion of such sum or sums in the form of inscribed stock, thereafter termed "stock," and that all such stock should be styled "New South Wales Stock," and, subject to the provisions of the now reciting Act, should be issued in such amounts, in such manner, at such times, bearing interest at such rate not exceeding 4 per centum per annum, and should be redeemable at such times and upon such conditions, and should be subject to such terms and conditions as the Governor before exercising the aforesaid power should from time to time determine and appoint: And it was further enacted that the Governor might appoint two or more agents in London for the purposes of the Act, of whom one should be the Agent-General of the said Colony for the time being, and might empower such agents or any one or more of them, to exercise the powers of the Act exercisable by the Governor, or as the Governor might authorize or direct: And whereas the Right Honorable Sir Augustus William Frederick Spencer Loftus (commonly called Lord Augustus Loftus) Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the said Colony and its Dependencies, with the advice of the Executive Council, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Colony, and bearing date the 14th day of April, 1883, in virtue of the powers conferred by "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did appoint the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach and Frederick Holkham Dangar, and Edward Knox, a Member of the Legislative Council of the Colony, Agents in London for the purposes of the same Act, and did thereby empower them or any one or more of them to exercise such powers as are by the Governor exercisable under the same Act, and the said Sir Saul Samuel was thereby appointed to be the Chairman of such Commission: And whereas the said Sir Augustus William Frederick Spencer Loftus, as such Governor as aforesaid, with such advice as aforesaid, did, on or about the 24th day of September, 1885, revoke the said appointment of the said Edward Knox, and by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Colony bearing date on or about the same 24th day of September, 1885, in virtue of the powers conferred by "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," did appoint the said William Richmond Mewburn and the said Nathaniel Cork as additional Agents in London, for the purposes of the same Act, and did thereby empower the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach and Frederick Holkham Dangar, and the said William Richmond Mewburn and Nathaniel Cork, or any one or more of them, to exercise such powers as are by the Governor exercisable under the same Act:

And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1881," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to raise by the sale of debentures secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £7,807,500, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned, and that the loan so authorized might be negotiated in the form of funded stock in London, at such times and for such amounts as might be directed by the Governor with such advice as aforesaid:

And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1881, No. 2," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor with such advice as aforesaid to raise by the sale of debentures secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of £1,000,000 as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned, and that the loan so authorized might be negotiated in the form of funded stock in London, at such times and for such amounts as might be directed by the Governor with such advice as aforesaid:

And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1883," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, to raise by the sale of debentures or the issue of inscribed stock secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £2,000,000, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned:

And whereas by another Act of the said Legislature, entitled "The Public Works Loan Act of 1884," it was enacted that it should be lawful for the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, to raise by the sale of debentures or the issue of inscribed stock secured upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Colony, and bearing interest at a rate not exceeding 4 per cent. per annum, such several sums of money, not exceeding in the whole the sum of £14,388,303, as might be required for the purposes in the same Act mentioned:

And whereas by a deed poll under the hands and seals of the said Sir Saul Samuel and Donald Larnach, dated the 6th day of October, 1884, after reciting as therein is recited, and that the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, was about to borrow and raise in Great Britain, under the authority of the said "Public Works Loan Act of 1881," a sum of money by the issue of £3 10s. per cent. inscribed stock, they did declare that, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them and the said Sir Daniel Cooper, Frederick Holkham Dangar and Edward Knox, by the said Letters Patent, and by virtue of "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," they had created an amount of £5,500,000 sterling of capital stock, to be called "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents.," and had determined that the same should be issued at the rate and on the terms therein mentioned, and that the interest or dividend to be paid thereon should be at the rate of £3 10s. per cent. per annum, and should be payable half-yearly at the Bank of England, on the first day of April and the first day of October in each year, until and including the first day of October, 1924, on which day the capital should be repaid at par at the same place :

And whereas the whole of the said amount of £5,500,000 of capital stock has been issued, and is now inscribed in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, in the names of the several persons entitled thereto :

And whereas the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, is about to borrow and raise in Great Britain, under the authority of the said "Public Works Loan Act of 1881," "Public Works Loan Act of 1881, No. 2," "Public Works Loan Act of 1883" and "Public Works Loan Act of 1884," a further sum of money, by the issue of £3 10s. per cent. inscribed stock, for which purpose the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, William Richmond Mewburn, and Nathaniel Cork have determined to create and issue an amount of not exceeding five million five hundred thousand pounds sterling of "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents." in addition to and to rank pari passu with the said amount of "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents." so created and issued as aforesaid, and have determined and appointed the time at which the same shall be redeemable and the terms and conditions on which the same shall be issued :

And whereas it is expedient that such determination and appointment should be declared and manifested under the hands and seals of two or more of them :

Now therefore these presents witness that they, the said Sir Saul Samuel, Sir Daniel Cooper, Donald Larnach, Frederick Holkham Dangar, William Richmond Mewburn and Nathaniel Cork, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by the said Letters Patent respectively, and by virtue of "The Inscribed Stock Act of 1883," do by these presents declare that they have created an amount of five million five hundred thousand pounds sterling of capital stock, to be called "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents.," to be in addition to and to rank pari passu with the said amount of five million five hundred thousand pounds "New South Wales Stock" "Three and a half per cents." heretofore created and issued as aforesaid, and they have determined that such capital stock shall be issued at the rate of one hundred pounds of stock for every nominal amount of one hundred pounds which shall be represented by the scrip certificates or letters of allotment respectively to be issued to subscribers for any part of the said sum or sums intended to be and about to be borrowed and raised by the Government of the Colony as aforesaid, when the instalments payable thereon shall have been fully paid, and that the interest or dividend to be paid on the said amount of five million five hundred thousand pounds sterling of stock so lastly created by them as aforesaid, or any lesser amount which shall be issued, shall be at the rate of three pounds ten shillings per centum per annum, and shall be payable half-yearly at the Bank of England, on the first day of April and first day of October in each year until and including the first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and that the first half of a year's interest or dividend shall be payable on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six : And further, that on the said first day of October, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, the capital shall be repaid at par at the same place.

And they do further declare that the revenues of the Colony of New South Wales alone are liable in respect of the stock hereinbefore described and the dividends thereon, and that the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are not directly or indirectly liable or responsible for the payment of the stock or of the dividends thereon, or for any matter relating thereto.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

AUDITOR-GENERAL

ON

THE TREASURER'S STATEMENTS OF THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURE OF THE CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND, AND OTHER MONEYS, FOR THE YEAR 1885.

(Under Act 33 Victoria No. 18.)

1. IN accordance with the directions of section 38 of the "Audit Act of 1870," I have the honor to lay before the Legislative Assembly the Treasurer's Statements of his Receipts and Disbursements of Public Moneys within the year 1885, together with the following Report and Explanatory Statements. The Abstracts were received for audit on the 29th of March; were returned to the Treasury for necessary corrections and suggested emendations on the 31st of May; and were received back, amended in the particulars required, on the 5th instant.

2. The same method of analysis as that employed for the past two years will afford a ready means of comparing the results of the year's transactions with those of 1883 and 1884 as a whole, and as distributed under the three principal Divisions of the Public Account.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

7. It thus appears that although the liabilities stated in last Report have only been reduced by £272,188 10s. 4d., yet it is most likely that the greater part of the balance still retained will be written off; but under the system of Appropriation recommended for adoption in my Report on the Accounts of 1883, the Finance Accounts would not be embarrassed in this way by Appropriation Liabilities to an undefined extent for past years.

8. The above figures show a nominal deficiency in Ways and Means of £1,553,829 19s. 5d., or an increase of £725,386 8s. 6d. over the corresponding deficiency at the close of 1884, but the extent to which the nominal may become real liabilities is so uncertain as to render it next to impossible to arrive at results which can be considered satisfactory. While the Statements of Liabilities are based upon the sums actually appropriated or sanctioned by Act of Parliament, many of those sums are found to be either very insufficient to meet the expense of the Services for which they have been set apart or to be much in excess of actual requirements. This is doubtless due in a great measure to a want of sufficient care and foresight in preparing the Estimates of Expenditure. But, however that may be, and whether the actual expenses of the Public Service be covered or not by Parliamentary Appropriation, the actual Revenue of the year forms the limit of its liability. Whatever payments therefore have to be made for the Services of a year over and above its Revenue must necessarily become a liability upon the growing Revenue of the following year, and such liability can only begin to accrue upon the occurrence of an actual overdraft.

9. According to the Account Current at page 16, there is shown a balance at the credit of the Revenue Account of £2,900 3s. This balance is exclusive on the one hand of the whole of the advances to the Trust Fund for the Treasurer's Advance Account to the 31st December, £500,000, and of some smaller issues on account to the amount of £4,624 4s. 1d., which may be taken as likely to become permanent charges, and on the other hand excludes all payments in London subsequently to the 30th September, which fall to be adjusted in the current year. The amount of the unadjusted London payments chargeable to the Revenue Account is found to be £190,763 6s. 11d., and Receipts to be credited, £776 7s. There was therefore at the 31st December upon the joint Revenue Account in Sydney and London a cash overdraft of £187,086 16s. 11d. which represents a realized deficiency at that date in the Consolidated Revenue Fund, and which can only be met out of the current Revenue from whatever source arising.

10. All other subsequent payments required to be made for services actually performed or contracted for to 31st December, 1885, must of course be considered as an addition to the overdraft, and with it to constitute the real deficiency in the Revenue at that date. There is, however, one exception, namely, that all votes to which the condition "irrespective of date of claims" is attached are liable only for payments to 31st December, and hence all outstanding payments under such votes are payable after that date out of the corresponding votes of the succeeding year to which the same condition is attached. If this were strictly attended to a considerable difference would appear in the number and amounts of balances retained for expenditure and probably in the Supplementary Estimates.

11. The excessive balances at the credit of the Revenue which have since the close of 1878 been treated as a surplus Revenue Account being now practically exhausted, a fitting opportunity is afforded of showing, in an abstract form, the operations by which those balances have been arrived at and disposed of. A Return is accordingly appended (Appendix B) which shows that there was in favour of the Revenue Proper a gross credit balance at 31st December, 1878... £3,872,783 19 6

--	----------------

12. The expenses under the Rabbit Nuisance Act having exceeded the assessment, collected under section 19, a portion of the vote taken under item No. 518 of the "Appropriation Act of 1885," £58,072, and the whole of item No. 523, £30,000, have been transferred to the credit of the Rabbit Account, under which, as one of the Special Deposit Accounts, the actual expenditure is recorded. By that arrangement the cost of the Rabbit extermination service appears twice in these Statements to the extent of £88,072. A similar double charge appears in the Statements of 1884 to the amount of £40,000. These two transfers from the Consolidated Revenue Fund show that the Rabbit Account has become indebted to the Revenue Account in a sum of £128,072. In addition to this the Treasurer's Advance Account was drawn upon to the extent of £8,188 18s. 10d. at 31st December, but why this was done is not clear, seeing that there still remained a balance of £46,260 on the vote No. 518 above quoted, besides an apparent cash balance in the Trust Fund of £1,298 17s. 2d. (Vide page 93.)

The Account for the three years since the Rabbit Nuisance Act was passed stands as follows, viz. :—

13. The Annual Amount for 1885 of £3,500 provided for Pensions to Superannuation Officers, under Schedule B to the Constitution Act, appears charged in full to the Revenue Account at page 39. It is, however, a transfer only to the Civil Service Superannuation Account where the actual Pensions heretofore paid direct from the Schedule B Fund have since been charged. This procedure was initiated by a temporary issue on the 31st January, 1885, of £3,500 from the Treasurer's Advance Account.

14. Upon application being made subsequently for my certificate that the sum was legally available for recoup from the Revenue to the Advance Account, I had considerable doubt as to complying with it for it did not appear to me that it could have been intended to make a transfer of more than the unappropriated balance of the Account in question, and then of course only when it could be ascertained at the end of each year. I did not therefore feel justified in certifying the necessary instrument for the purpose. It seemed unreasonable while the greater portion of the Schedule B Fund was under liability to pay old outstanding Pensions that it should be transferred at once and in globo, thus involving the charge upon the Revenue of 4 per cent. upon the daily balance unexpended of the same and compound interest at every half-year in addition.

15. A reference was made accordingly to the Attorney-General for his opinion as to the interpretation of the 53rd section of the Civil Service Act, so far as relates to the point raised. Almost at the same time the Treasury made a similar reference, suggesting that the reason for the transfer was the intention of the Act to make one Pension Account. The opinion of the Attorney-General, given in identical terms upon both references, having overruled my objections, I had no alternative but to give the required certificate. The correspondence is given in Appendix C No. 1, to which special attention is invited.

16. A transfer was also made in January of the whole amount of £20,000 granted for 1885 (being the first of five annual grants of a like amount) as an endowment out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the "Civil Service Superannuation Account," for the express purpose of securing to it a whole year's interest at 4 per cent. as apparently provided by section 51 of the Civil Service Act. The effect effect of this procedure was to saddle the Revenue Account not only with interest at 4 per cent. for the whole year, but no portion of the endowment having been required for expenditure, with interest at 31st December upon the interest credited to the Fund at 30th June, and with compound interest so on at every half-year until drawn upon. Whether or not it was really contemplated that the Revenue should pay interest upon its own endowment and upon the Schedule B Fund, it appeared to me an improvident arrangement to issue the whole amount at the commencement of the year, and that unless actually required for the purposes it was supposed to provide, the claim of the Superannuation Account to the endowment would have been sufficiently met by a transfer being made at the close instead of the commencement of each year, thus saving to the Revenue upwards of £800. At any rate there would appear no sufficient reason why the payment of the endowment should not be made, as in other cases, in periodical instalments, distributed over the year; and a letter was addressed to the Treasury in December, 1885, suggesting the adoption of that course in future, on the ground that grants of this nature are authorised out of the Revenue of each year as a whole, and not therefore properly due until the accruing Revenue has provided the means in whole or in part for meeting them, and that the Public Account suffers in the way of interest whenever a payment is made in anticipation of a date when it becomes fairly due.

17. The Treasury submitted the matter for the opinion of the Attorney-General, who advised that the words "every year," in section 53 of the Civil Service Act, should be construed as "at the commencement of every year," and accordingly the second issue of £20,000 was made on the 4th March, 1886. The correspondence is given in Appendix C, No. 2. It will be observed that the objection indicated in the preceding paragraph has not been met, and that, notwithstanding the interpretation put upon the clause by Mr. Attorney-General Simpson, I consider it was open to the Treasurer, as a matter of Finance, to have dealt with the issue of the endowment in such a manner as not to give the Superannuation Account an apparently undue advantage as against the Revenue.

18. The additions for 1885 to the salaries of classified Officers, under section 3 of the Civil Service Act, so far as actually paid to the 31st December, are included under the respective Services where they occur, as they could not conveniently be stated separately. The amount placed to the credit of the Departmental Votes for the purpose was in all £56,123, for which a formal Minute was passed by the Governor in Council in the month of August. The distribution of that sum to the various Services is given in Appendix A, and more in detail with the Supplementary Estimates for 1885.

19. At page 51 will be found an item of £1,418 11s. 8d. as expenses under the Civil Service Act, 48 Victoria, No. 24. This sum consists of £499 9s. 2d., fees to the Board, and for salaries and contingencies, £919 2s. 6d. Finding no appropriation in the Act for any "expenses"—except the fees to the Civil Service Board, which are fixed by section 14 at £500 annually, and payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund—the salaries and contingencies paid therefrom were disallowed. The expenditure was, it appears, assumed to have been covered by an entry of £1,500 as estimated expenses of the Civil Service Act in the general abstract of the Estimates of Expenditure for 1885, but no such sum is included in any Act of Appropriation. The payment of the salaries and other expenses was, however, continued out of the Treasurer's Advance Account to the amount of £928 8s. 11d., making a total sum paid of £1,847 11s. 5d. without Parliamentary sanction.

20. It seems to me, however, that these expenses of management over and above the fees to the Board may not improperly be made a charge on the Superannuation Account, the opening words of section 53, "for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act" seeming to imply as much.

The annual expense incurred so far is estimated at £1,875, which is virtually a further endowment of the Pension Fund, if it is to be ultimately paid by the revenue, a course inconsistent with the limitation of the specific endowment to £20,000 for five years. It may be right also to call attention to the income derived by the Pension Fund from the half-yearly addition to it of 4 per cent. interest, which already exceeds in amount the expense of management.

21. The sums of £100 each, which appear under Schedule C for the service of 1882 and 1883, and corresponding payments included in the same account as for 1884 and 1885, represent an allowance for those years to the Bishop of Goulburn, which had been previously paid from the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue—the charge arising out of the death in 1882 of the late Bishop of Sydney. The admission of these claims on the Public Funds was strongly contested, the issue turning mainly on the point whether upon the Act, 26 Victoria No. 19, coming into force, the allowance of £100 per annum was at that date a liability under it. The correspondence was at length submitted by the Treasury to the Attorney-General, whose opinion was given in favour of the claim being recognised, but on grounds different from those on which it had been resisted. The Papers given in Appendix C, No. 3, fully explain this peculiar case.

22. The votes out of the Surplus Revenue Account, No. 575, 1881, and No. 900, 1883, for £100,000 each, for the purchase of lands set apart as places for public recreation, having now been all but expended, Schedules showing the particulars of the expenditure, as required by the terms of the votes, are now given in Appendix D Nos. 1 and 2.

23. In the same Appendix D No. 3 will be found an abstract of the payments made in connection with the Soudan Expedition, so far as they can be readily classified, and explanatory of the item £121,630 9s. 7d. under that head, at page 41.

24. The Treasurer's Advance Votes for 1883 and 1884 (together £250,000) should, in terms of the Appropriation, have been replaced to the Revenue Account not later than the 31st December, 1884, and the 31st December, 1885, respectively. The great bulk of the payments made from these Advance Votes require to be covered by Supplementary Votes, and the non-adjustment of them within the proper time is doubtless to be accounted for by the absence of any General Parliamentary Appropriation since the Act of 1885, passed in November, 1884. The Advance Vote for 1885, £100,000, and the unauthorized additions to it of £150,000 in November and December, raised the total advance to be accounted for by the Colonial Treasurer to the amount of £500,000 at the close of the year. Further remarks upon this anomalous condition of the Treasurer's Advance Votes will be found under Trust Funds, where the transactions are placed.

25. Against the vote of £10,000, "Towards buildings for the residence of His Excellency the Governor," taken in the Surplus Revenue Estimates for 1883, item No. 924, there will be found charged in 1884 £1,000, and in 1885 £1,942 18s. 4d. (page 54). These sums were for "alterations" to the residence purchased at Sutton Forest in 1882, £2,112 11s. 10d.; and for "furniture" for the same, £830 6s. 6d.

The

The papers seem to show that the "alterations" carried out would render unnecessary the immediate erection of new buildings, but, if so, a vote should have been obtained for the cost, and the vote 924 cancelled.

26. The expense of furniture is however quite outside the terms of that vote, and has been disallowed as a charge against it. A special tender was accepted in 1884 for the supply of certain furniture to the amount of £1,008 8s. The first instalment under that contract—£500—was paid from the "Advance Vote" in 1884, showing that it was understood to be an improper charge against the Building Vote, and is now included in the Supplementary Estimates yet to be voted. The second instalment of £508 8s., with a further payment of £321 18s. 6d. for "extras," makes up the £830 6s. 6d. referred to above, and which requires to be covered by the sanction of a further Supplementary Vote.

THE TRUST FUNDS ACCOUNT.

27. The Trust Funds again show a small expansion in the balances at their joint credit of £88,571 11s. 9d. upon receipts, or rather receipts and credits, during the year, to the amount of £3,964,049 18s.—payments and transfers having been made of £3,875,478 6s. 3d. for the same period.

The total credits at the 31st of December were £2,246,153 15s. 5d., of which £1,441,394 2s. 1d. belonged to the Government Savings' Bank.

28. The united accounts of the Police Reward and Police Superannuation Funds show an improved credit cash balance of £5,553 13s. 3d. on the year's operations, due however to the Police Reward Fund alone. The annual pension charge at 31st December, 1884, was £9,902. Twelve new pensions having been granted to the amount of £1,358 6s. and fourteen pensions at the total annual rate of £1,029 13s. 4d. having fallen in, the year closed with an authorised pension rate payable from both funds of £10,230 12s. 8d., showing an increased annual rate of £328 12s. 8d.

29. The Civil Service Superannuation Account (page 81) shows a credit cash balance of £70,455 10s. 8d., but the statement being merely a cash account requires a supplement to show the financial results of the fund for the year, which on this occasion it may be useful to give. In the first place the 4 per cent. deductions from salaries for 1885 have to this date amounted to £58,854 15s. 1d., of which £8,360 14s. 11d. were credited after the close of the year, and the addition of 4 per cent. to the credit balance on 31st December, under section 54 of the Civil Service Act, namely, £1,142 9s. 11d., was deferred till January.

30. On the disbursement side of the account there requires to be added the balance of pensions due under Schedule B, £172 7s. 8d., and under the Act £52 4s. 5d. With these supplementary items and a surcharge recovered of £7, the credit balance will be increased from £70,455 10s. 8d. to £79,441 3s. 5d. Only four pensions were sanctioned during 1885, constituting an annual rate charge of £626 14s. 5d., and eleven gratuities to the aggregate amount of £1,415 13s. 4d. Deducting these two sums from the contributions by officers of the Civil Service, there remains a balance on their contributions alone of £56,812 7s. 4d., a sum nearly equal to six times the annual average contributions of 4 per cent. under the repealed Act 27 Victoria No. 11 from 1864 to 1873, and with the remainder of the balance, arising from the endowment by the Consolidated Revenue Fund and interest, considerably more than equal to the whole amount of pensions and gratuities paid under the old Act for the first five years of its life.

As already suggested under paragraph 19, it seems to me this fund ought to be charged with the expense of its administration, and further, that the accumulating balance should be invested towards meeting the half-yearly additions of 4 per cent. under section 54.

THE TREASURER'S ADVANCE ACCOUNT.

31. The Account of the Treasurer's Advance Votes (page 93) is shown to have had on the 1st January, 1885, a balance at its credit of £103,004 18s. 5d. The whole of that sum was, however, then due for repayment to the Consolidated Revenue Fund, together with £146,995 1s. 7d. expended under the Advance Votes of 1883 and 1884, but not then adjusted either by cash or votes, making a total sum of £250,000 really at the debit of this Account at the commencement of the year.

32. The vote for 1885 of £100,000 was transferred to the Trust Fund on the 15th January, raising the Treasurer's liability to £350,000. The Supplementary Estimates laid before the Legislative Assembly on the 11th December not having become appropriations by the end of that month, the ordinary means were unfortunately wanting for fulfilling, at that date, the terms on which the advance votes were granted.

33. The whole of the money which had been legitimately placed at the Treasurer's disposal for emergencies had become exhausted by the end of October, and the pressure for the settlement of claims then unpaid, but unprovided for, appears to have become so great that no less than £150,000 were withdrawn from the Revenue to supplement the Treasurer's Special Advance without Parliamentary sanction, and of course without the warrant of the Governor. By this means further drafts were made on the Public Account by the end of the year in anticipation of Supplementary Appropriations to the amount of £112,685 16s. 7d., and a balance shewn as at the credit of the advance vote of £37,622 6s. 7d. This money, however, from the nature of the case legitimately belonged to the Revenue although by the Treasury Accounts standing technically as Trust Money.

34. These illegal drafts upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund, together with two further sums of £50,000 and £75,000 similarly drawn in January, 1886, have already been brought under the notice of the Legislative Assembly by my letter of 27th January last, but this report would hardly be complete without the correspondence being attached to it, including additional Minutes of the Proceedings of the Governor in Council explanatory of the draft of £50,000 on the 30th December, 1885, and also of the last draft quoted of £75,000.

35. On receipt of the Executive Council Minutes Nos. 85/41, 85/48, 85/56, 86/1, and 86/2, the Colonial Treasurer was informed that the transactions being outside of any appropriation of Parliament must necessarily be disallowed in his Accounts, and further, that all payments made out of such illegal transfers or out of any recoups of such payments that might not at the time be covered by a statutory appropriation would, as a matter of course, be likewise disallowed.

36. In regard to the transfer of £75,000 on the 11th January it will be seen that it was made exclusively for meeting the wages of the Railway and Tramway employes. At the date of the receipt of the Executive Council minute referring to it, namely, the 4th February, the Temporary Supply Act for the Services of January had been passed, and in intimating to the Treasurer, as before, that the transactions transactions must be disallowed, it was pointed out that the irregularity should so far be corrected as to at once replace the £75,000 to the credit of the Revenue out of the Supply Act. Only £59,253 6s. 1d. were actually paid for Railway Service, and that sum was in March charged to the Supply Act of January, but made a "credit" to Treasurer's Advance Account 1886; thus, instead of replacing to the Revenue the whole amount of £75,000 as suggested, the indebtedness of the Advance Vote Account was actually increased by £59,253 6s. 1d. This credit, however, is not legitimately available for reissue except to the Revenue.

37. It may be as well at this point to explain that hitherto the Annual Advance Vote has been transferred to a Trust Account to be operated upon as a cash credit for such time as it was not due for adjustment with the Revenue. The terms of the votes giving a full year after the year of appropriation as the extreme date for adjustment, to afford time for obtaining Supplementary Votes and other means of liquidation, all sums that were recovered after next year's vote had become available were placed to the credit of the Trust Fund as a whole instead of the year's vote out of which the recovered payments had been made. This practically gave the Treasurer always two years' votes to operate upon and rendered adjustment difficult, if not impossible, at the proper time. Considering that on the granting of a new vote the previous one should cease to be treated as an open Cash Credit Account, I have declined to allow any credit by way of recoveries on account of previous votes, except to the Revenue, and consequently have disallowed them as available for reissue in continuance of the cash credit.

38. The fact of there appearing a credit balance on this Account when it was admittedly overdrawn shows that the unauthorised drafts should have more properly been placed to an Account apart from the legitimate transactions under the Treasurer's Advance Account proper, and should have included only such sums as had actually been irregularly paid.

39. A Statement has been prepared in abstract showing the unadjusted drafts upon the advance votes, and the drafts improperly made upon the Revenue, under the various heads of Service to the end of the year, and has been placed as Appendix F. A further Statement has been prepared, and included in the same Appendix, of similar drafts during the current year, in anticipation of the Accounts of 1886, as they formed part of the same series of irregularities, and may conveniently be brought under notice now, in view of any action which the Legislative Assembly may take in the matter. A glance at this latter Statement, and at the outer column of the former one, will serve to indicate the nature and amount of the claims which were considered to have been of such an urgent character as to justify the violation of law in drawing upon the Revenue to meet them, without Parliamentary sanction.

40. The total credits being shown as £607,476 14s. 2d., and the disbursements as £569,854 7s. 7d. in lump sums, the Account affords no information as to the nature of the transactions which, from their peculiar character, as well as from their considerable amount, ought more properly to be shown in the form of a detailed Account Current.

41. In my Report on the Accounts of 1884 (page 119) I ventured to submit that the advance vote should be put on a different footing, and I would now very respectfully again invite the attention of the Legislative Assembly to the suggestions therein made.

42. It may be proper here to remark that a loyal observance of the sections 10 to 15 of the "Audit Act of 1870," especially of section 13, would effectually prevent, as was intended, any such unauthorised dealings with the Public Account, as the unprecedented transactions already referred to in connection with the advance votes. But so long as the Colonial Treasurer is in a position to exercise sole control over the Public Account, and command the obedience of the Banks keeping the same, there is no effectual check against its being employed for purposes beyond the sanction of Parliament. Any change, therefore, that may be made in the mode of providing for unforeseen expenditure, should be accompanied by definitions and restrictions such as to limit the provision to cases of a really emergent character.

43. The advance vote has been regarded as a Reserve Fund, to be drawn upon at pleasure for additions to the staff of existing establishments, excesses of contracts over sums voted for Public Works, deficiencies in votes for ordinary services, which are already largely provided for by the 18th section of the Audit Act, and a great variety of other matters (foreign to the original purposes of the votes) many of which involve a permanent addition to the Annual Expenditure of the Colony, and very many of which it is believed might readily wait for the proper sanction before the expense was incurred or paid. It may not be too much to say that the too facile use which has been made of the Treasurer's Advance Vote is largely responsible for the present state of the Finance Accounts.

GENERAL LOANS ACCOUNT.

44. The new or fifth Loan of £5,500,000, negotiated in October, 1885, is ascertained to have realized in gross £5,042,041 3s., or at a rate of £91 13s. 5¼d. per cent., but deducting the Bank commission, brokerage, and miscellaneous charges, £60,326 19s. 8d., and £34,375, commutation of stamp duty, the net proceeds available for expenditure under appropriations were £4,947,339 3s. 4d., or at a net realized rate of £89 19s. 0½d. per cent., which gives an interest rate of £3 17s. 10d. instead of the nominal one of £3 10s.

The proceedings connected with the inscription of this fifth Loan as well as of the previous (fourth) Loan in October, 1884, are explained in the third Report presented to Parliament in January last, under the Inscribed Stock Act of 1883, 46 Victoria No. 12.

45. The particulars of the results of the fourth Loan are given in paragraph 39 of my Report on the Accounts of 1884, and at page 96 of the present Accounts.

The credit of the proceeds of the fourth Loan, negotiated in October, 1884, £5,066,648 13s. 6d., and of £1,250,000 on account of the fifth Loan, negotiated in October, 1885, making together a sum of £6,316,648 13s. 6d., extinguished the overdraft of £3,664,704 0s. 3d. on the General Loans Account at 31st December, 1884; but the further payments charged as for authorised Loan Services during 1885 having been £3,883,822 5s. 8d., the year closed with a balance still to the nominal debit of this account of £1,231,877 11s. 10d.

If, however, the transactions in London up to the 31st December, 1885, which had not at that date been adjusted in the Sydney Accounts, be now added, the balance will stand thus, namely,—

46. Among the payments out of this Account will be observed the following items, which were in excess of appropriations from Loan Funds and ought not therefore to have been included in it, viz. :—

Railway, Tamworth to Tenterfield ... ..	£67,298 3 5
Do Wallerawang to Mudgee ... ..	14,848 4 11
Doubling the Railway Line, Parramatta to Penrith ... ..	14,986 13 11
Railway, Albury to the Murray ... ..	42 9 2
Trial Surveys ... ..	18 10 9
Temporary Water Supply (Hudson's contract)	45,000 0 0

These sums are in addition to those referred to as disallowed in the Accounts of 1884, viz. :—Railway Wallerawang to Mudgee, £16,737 9s.; Albury to the Murray, £816 17s. 7d.

47. The Treasurer's Advance Account has also been utilized to the extent of £38,658 0s. 9d. for sundry Loan Services in anticipation of future provision. (Vide Appendix F.) This sum, however, includes a moiety of the cost of the Railway Bridge at Albury, which has to be recovered from the Government of Victoria, and amounts to £16,259 19s. 6d.

48. By the addition of the Loan of October, 1884, £5,500,000, brought to credit in 1885, and a further reduction in the Million Loan of 1867, £37,700, the Public Debt has been raised to £30,064,259 9s. 2d. To complete the amount appropriated for Loan Services there is still to be raised exclusively of the Loan of last October, which has been credited this year, a sum of £14,266,135 1s. 11d. The unexpended balances of Appropriations at 31st December amounted to £16,731,596 13s. 5d. together with a debt to the Public Account of £1,231,877 11s. 10d.

49. The total annual charge for interest has been raised correspondingly to £1,261,681 1s. 8d., or a net increase of £190,615. The new interest, however, commenced to run from 1st October, 1884, but being payable half-yearly on the 1st April and 1st October a year's interest only is chargeable to the year's Revenue. The same being the case with the following Loan of October, 1885, the interest on it will fall to be added to the liability of the current year.

50. It should be remarked here that as the Accounts are presented, and since the recent Loans have been taken in the form of Inscribed Stock at the Bank of England, the interest on the new Loans appears as always placed in full in the hands of the Bank of England before the close of the half-year for which it falls due. The Public Account is thus always charged, as it ought to be, with this primary liability to the public creditor at the time when it matures, but the same provision is not made to meet the interest on the old Debenture Loans, hence there is always more or less of an outstanding liability in regard to it, the coupons for interest being only

only paid as they are presented. This difference in procedure unnecessarily complicates the interest Account which ought certainly to be dealt with uniformly by an actual transfer of the whole amount of interest, known to be due for each half-year, on or before the 30th June and 31st December, as is now done with the interest on the Inscribed Stock Debt only.

51. The distribution of the Public Debt at 31st December, 1885, among the Services for which it has been incurred, together with the interest accruing thereupon from 1st January, 1886, so far as can be readily computed is as follows, viz.:—

	Debt.			Interest from 1st January, 1886.

52. Interest for moneys other than the Fixed Loans were charged as paid within the year, viz.:—

Interest at 5 per cent. on Overdraft Bank of New South Wales, 1884 ... ..	9,145	19	10

As a set-off against this charge there was received as interest on Deposits with the Banks a sum of £26,395 10s. 9d., which consists of interest on the daily credit balances £17,383 9s. 4d., and interest on Special Fixed Deposits £9,012 1s. 5d. This latter source of income has, however, now ceased, the Special Deposits of Surplus Loans and Revenue which commenced to be made in 1875 having now been all withdrawn, the balance of £2,277 remaining at 31st December last having been retransferred from the Australian Joint Stock Bank to the Public Account on the 6th January of this year.

THE RAILWAY RECEIPTS.

53. The cash receipts at the Treasury from Railway and Tramway Traffic in 1885 are stated at page 18 to be £2,492,690 14s. 1d.; of this amount the sum of £19,585 3s. 7d. was received on account of traffic beyond Albury, and has been repaid to the Government of Victoria. The balance, £2,473,105 10s. 6d., shows an increase on the corresponding receipts of 1884 of £186,826 18s. 4d.

54. The contributions towards the receipts from funds at the disposal of the Government were in all £177,125 1s., as detailed in Appendix G, and the amounts are here set in comparison with the like figures for the two previous years.

55. It may be as well to state again here that the figures given represent only the cash actually credited at the Treasury within the year, either by direct remittance, or by transfers from funds chargeable with the expense of services rendered on their behalf by the Railway Department. While these credits constitute the realized earnings and ought in strictness to be made the only basis of calculations respecting the relations between the income and expenditure, the nominal earnings as recorded in the Commissioner's Accounts for any one year never agree with the Treasury credits within the same period. The only check upon these latter credits consists in the monthly attested Accounts of Receipts furnished by the Commissioner for Railways under the Audit Act, the detailed audit of the daily remittances to the Treasury making up the declared monthly totals being still carried on by the Commissioner's own Auditors.

56. The special review audit by the Department has, as formerly explained, become limited to a local inspection of the accounts of the station-masters. This has been and is still being carried out along the whole of the lines of railway opened for traffic, and appears to be very well worth the time and money expended upon it.

57. The principal points which have given rise to queries and correspondence are the following, namely:—

Rates of tolls fixed without previous sanction of the Governor and Executive Council.

Rebates and other concessions not provided for by published rates.

Variations in rates from those stated in the rate books.

Ledger or credit accounts opened with and without bonds.

Outstanding accounts of earnings.

Cash balances and stock of tickets at date of inspection.

58. In a number of cases the authority of the Governor and Executive Council has been obtained upon its being shown to be required by the terms of the 100th section of the Railways Act. In others this has not yet been supplied, as for instance, for the issue of season tickets to Railway employes at half rates. The authority was asked for by query in October, 1884, a copy of which, together with the correspondence arising out of it, has been placed as Appendix H, to which special attention is invited, as it will serve to show exactly the position in which the question of authority stands respecting interference in any way with the rates of tolls established by the Governor and Council under the provisions of the 100th section of the Railway Act.

In

In the same Appendix will be found some further information, consisting of extracts from a report recently furnished to me by the Inspecting Officer-in-Charge as to the nature and position of the audit so far as applied by this Department to the Railway Receipts.

59. The importance of an effective audit of this branch of the Revenue, derived as it is through so many channels and under so many varying circumstances, cannot be too highly estimated. It is of greater importance that efficient arrangements be made for the due collection and registration of the receipts. If those arrangements be devised to provide so far as possible for checks and counter checks within the collecting and recording offices of the Railway Department, an effective basis is provided for an external and independent audit by whomsoever such an audit may be applied. It has already been urged that an audit forming virtually a part of the collecting and recording work of the Commissioner for Railways, and thus necessarily under his own control, cannot be deemed to be an audit at all in the ordinary acceptation of the term, nor as being equivalent to or rendering unnecessary an examination ab extra on the part of the public into transactions in which they are so largely interested as the Railway Revenue.

60. If any change be made in the administration of the Railway Department, as appears to be contemplated, it is most desirable that the opportunity should be taken advantage of for the establishment upon a satisfactory basis of an effective and independent audit of the Railway receipts.

THE PUBLIC BANK ACCOUNT.

61. The agreement with the Bank of New South Wales for the conduct of the Government Banking Business was brought to a termination on the 5th January, 1885, and a new arrangement made, by which the Public Account was distributed among nine of the Banking Companies carrying on business in the Colony and through Branches or Agencies in London. A copy of the Minute of the Executive Council authorising the change has already appeared in the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly, under date 11th September, 1885, together with a copy of the Agreement between the Government and the nine Associated Banks, showing the terms and conditions on which the Government Business was to be conducted by them, commencing from the 6th January, 1885.

62. The new arrangement involves a considerable multiplication of the Bank-sheets required to be supplied daily by the Banks, under section 19 of the Audit Act; and the daily transactions and general balance for audit purposes have now to be gathered from nine separate Accounts, instead of from one Account, as formerly. The London Bank-sheets are forwarded monthly only, but they show the daily transactions, as in the Sydney Accounts.

63. In addition to the nine Banks or Agencies in London representing the Associated Banks in the Colony, the London and Westminster Bank acts as General Banker in London for all, and furnishes a separate Account Current, showing the intromissions with the nine Banking Institutions which supply the funds for carrying on the Account.

64. The Bank of England of course keeps the Account of the proceeds of Loans negotiated and of the moneys placed in its hands for meeting the interest payable half-yearly on the Inscribed Stock Loans; but the Accounts Current are received in a very abstract form, and do not admit of check in detail.

65. At the date of the new Banking Agreement the Public Account with the Bank of New South Wales was considerably overdrawn, and a settlement of the balances

balances then due with other claims by the Bank against the Government have only so far been partially arranged for pursuant to an action in the Supreme Court, it being understood that there is still a balance claimed by the Bank, with of course interest accruing thereupon.

MISCELLANEOUS.

66. The Certificates of Discharge to the Treasurer have this year been accompanied by an unusually large amount of disallowances, to which reference has in some items already been made, but an abstract of the particulars is given in Appendix I.

67. The Mint Bullion Accounts and the Savings' Bank Accounts have been subjected to the usual review, and have been certified to correspond with the books and documents on which they were framed.

68. The following Statements and Returns in continuation of those given in former years are herewith submitted, namely,—

Statements of Advances to Public Officers and Trustees of Roads, &c., awaiting adjustment. (Appendix J.)

Statement of Surcharges raised and recovered upon the Expenditure and Revenue Accounts. (Appendix K.)

Statement of authorities granted by the Governor and Executive Council under the 18th section of the Audit Act. (Appendix L.)

Statement of Authorities granted by the Governor and Executive Council in relief of Public Accountants under sections 30 and 31 of the Audit Act. (Appendix M.)

Statements of Receipts and Disbursements in connection with the Registration of Brands and the Public Abattoirs Funds. (Appendix N.)

69. The following cases of default have come under notice during the year, viz. :—

Mr. J. H. Price, Mining Registrar, Windeyer, was convicted of embezzlement of a sum of £2, with a sentence of imprisonment for twelve months. It is understood that the defalcations in this case were considerably more, but the exact amount has not been ascertained.

Mr. J. Y. Smedley, Warden's Clerk and Mining Registrar, Ironbarks (Stuart Town), was convicted of embezzlement, with a sentence of imprisonment for twelve months. The Treasury reports that the amount of the defalcations cannot be exactly stated.

Constable Walsh, Acting Clerk of Petty Sessions at Dandaloo, was ascertained to be in default £5 10s., but as he absconded no prosecution was possible.

70. Subject to the foregoing observations, and to any further corrections of classification that may be necessary on the final adjustment of advances to Public Departments still outstanding, I consider that the Statements of Accounts now submitted correctly represent the Treasurer's Receipts and Disbursements within the year 1885.

EDWARD A. RENNIE,
Auditor-General.

APPENDIX C.—Opinions of Attorney-General.

(No. 1.)

Transference of portion of Schedule B Fund for Superannuated Officers to Civil Service Superannuation Account.

Memorandum from Auditor-General to Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Department of Audit, Sydney, 3 February, 1885.

SCHEDULE B—£3,278 4s. 3d. Explanation is requested of this item,  $\frac{1}{2}$  of £3,500 having been already certified for viz., £291 13s. 4d. under instrument No. 16.

If it is intended to transfer this sum to the Civil Service Superannuation Account (as is surmised) the Auditor-General has considerable doubts as to whether any more than the balance unappropriated of the £3,500 should be at once transferred to that account, as it seems to him that the existing pensions chargeable to Schedule B should be paid as heretofore direct from the Schedule B Fund.

E. A. RENNIE.

This matter is for the consideration of the Under Secretary.—J.P., 9, The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Memorandum from Auditor-General to Under-Secretary for Finance and Trade.

No reply is given to objection to certify this instrument.

The Auditor-General is clearly of opinion that the transfer as appears to be contemplated should not be made while existing pensions authorized to be paid are being paid from Schedule B. See concluding words of section 53 of Civil Service Act.

Reference should be made to the Attorney-General.

Subject :—Civil Service Superannuation Fund.

The Treasury, N.S.W., Sydney, 16 February, 1885.

UNDER the 53rd section of the Civil Service Act the sum £3,500 was transferred from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Superannuation Account, that being the amount annually appropriated under 52nd section of the Imperial Act, 18 and 19 Victoria, cap. 54, for Pensions to Superannuated Officers. This sum is subject, however, to the claims of such officers as are, or may become, entitled to be paid pensions therefrom.

The Auditor-General declines to sign the warrant submitted to him for the purpose of this transfer, as he has considerable doubts as to whether any more than the balance unappropriated of the £3,500 should be transferred to the Superannuation Account, as it seems to him that the existing pensions chargeable to Schedule B should be paid, as heretofore, direct from Schedule B Fund.

The view taken of the matter by the Treasury Officers is, that the intention of Parliament was to have but one Superannuation Account, and that the mere transference of the £3,500 to the new account in no way lessened the legal claims against that sum.

Perhaps the opinion of the Hon. the Attorney-General might be sought on the question at issue.

[Urgent.]

The Auditor-General to The Crown Solicitor.

Sir,

Department of Audit, Sydney, 28 February, 1885.

I have the honor to enclose a case for the opinion of the Attorney-General as to the interpretation of part of section 53 of the "Civil Service Act of 1884."

It seems to me that the words "hereafter" and "subject to the claims of such officers as are * * * paid pensions out of such sum, and in the absence of any direction to pay the pensions referred to out of the Civil Service Superannuation Account," militate strongly against the transfer of the whole sum of £3,500 at once to an account unknown to the Constitution Act.

It seems to me also that it could never have been intended to saddle the Revenue with interest at 4 per cent. upon the unexpended balance of the £3,500, after transfer waiting the discharge of the liabilities proper to it, and already absorbing the greater portion of it.

I shall feel obliged by an early reply, as I am asked to certify a warrant for a transfer of the schedule B money in globo, which I do not feel justified in doing.

I have, &c.,
EDWARD A. RENNIE,

CASE for the Opinion of the Attorney-General.

Section 53 of the "Civil Service Act, 1884."

THE pensions to Superannuated Officers, hitherto authorized to be paid from the £3,500 portion of Schedule B to the Constitution Act, are held by the Auditor-General to be still payable direct from the Schedule B Fund, section 53 of the "Civil Service Act of 1884" giving no authority apparently for the payment of such pensions from the Civil Service Superannuation Account, and the words "shall hereafter be payable," applied applied to the annual sum of £3,500, are held to refer to the whole sum only when free from existing liabilities, or only in proportion as those liabilities cease, that is to say, only to such portion of the Schedule B Fund payable to Her Majesty under section 49 of the Constitution Act, as may annually "revert to the Consolidated Revenue Fund" in terms of the Schedule.

The Treasury ask a warrant for the transfer of the whole sum of £3,500, provided by Schedule B to the Civil Service Superannuation Account. The opinion of the Attorney-General is requested as to whether the Auditor-General would be justified in certifying that the sum quoted is legally available and applicable to that purpose.

Department of Audit, 28 February, 1885.

EDWARD A. RENNIE,
Auditor-General.

Copy Opinion.

I THINK it is clear from section 53 of 48 Vic. No. 24, that the Civil Service Superannuation Account should be credited with the whole amount of £3,500 payable from the Consolidated Revenue Fund under section 52, 18 and 19 Vic. c. 54. This was manifestly intended by Parliament in order, I presume, to secure the object that there should be but a single fund for superannuation. The latter part of the section abundantly provides for the protection of all officers who have any title to be paid pensions out of the £3,500, so that no diminution of that sum to their prejudice could be made.

Transfer of £20,000 annual endowment to the Civil Service Superannuation Account.

The Auditor-General to The Principal Under Secretary.

Sir,

Department of Audit, Sydney, 8 February, 1886.

Referring to my letter of 6th ultimo, enclosing a copy of a letter addressed to the Treasury on 21st December last, respecting the transference of the annual endowment of £20,000 (for five years) to the Civil Service Superannuation Account, I have the honor to request that you will have the goodness to obtain the instructions of the Colonial Secretary on the subject with the least possible delay, as notwithstanding my objection to the issue of the whole amount at this early period of the year, I have been requested to certify the enclosed instrument for the purpose of the issue of the amount during this month.

It seems to me that if my view of the matter be not assented to it will be proper to submit the case for the consideration of the Attorney-General, by whose opinion, under the Audit Act, I must of course be guided.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD A. RENNIE,

The Auditor-General to The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Sir,

21 December, 1885.

Referring to the transfer of £20,000 made on the 5th February last from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Superannuation Account under the Civil Service Act, I desire to state, for the information of the Colonial Treasurer, that I consider the transfer at that date to have been premature, and to have involved an excessive charge for interest at 4 per cent. upon the revenue in favour of the Superannuation Account.

It appears to me that payments of this nature are authorized out of the revenue of each year as a whole, and are not therefore properly due until the accruing revenue has provided the means in whole or in part for meeting them, or, in other words, that they should be distributed over the year in proper proportions. This seems all the more reasonable, inasmuch as the Public Account suffers in the way of interest whenever a payment is made in anticipation of a date when it becomes fairly due.

The expression "every year" in reference to the transfer from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Superannuation Account, as provided by section 53 of the Civil Service Act, seems to me very strongly to support the view of a distribution over the whole year of the endowment of £20,000 (for five years), and could only be held as justifying a payment in full at the commencement of the year in case of claims under the Act becoming due to a larger amount than the balance available at the credit of the Superannuation Account. I have therefore the honor to suggest, for the consideration of the Colonial Treasurer, that the endowment of the Civil Service Superannuation Account for 1886 and future years be issued in equal quarterly proportions, commencing at the 31st March next, and I make this suggestion thus early to obviate an objection which I shall feel bound to take to a transfer of the whole amount being made as before immediately after the commencement of the year.

Subject.—Transfer of the second instalment of £20,000 to the Civil Service Superannuation Fund under the Act 48 Vic. No. 24.

The Treasury, 7 January, 1886.

THE 53rd section of the "Civil Service Act of 1884" authorizes the payment of £20,000 annually for five years as an endowment of the Civil Service Superannuation Fund. On the 13th January, 1885, I made a memorandum, suggesting the transfer of the endowment for that year, which the then Treasurer (Mr. Dibbs) approved. The transfer was duly made on the 5th February following. I attach for the Treasurer's information the papers connected with that transaction, from which it will be seen that the Auditor-General considered that the transfer ought to have been authorized by the Colonial Secretary, who is the officer charged with the administration of the Act. That authority was subsequently obtained. From a letter received from the Auditor-General, dated 21st December, 1885, herewith, it will be observed that he considers that the payment of these annual endowments of £20,000 should be made by quarterly instalments only. Why he takes this view it is difficult to understand, as the wording of the clause would lead rather to the supposition that it was the intention of the Legislature that a lump sum of £20,000 should be paid at the beginning of each year. By this means the Superannuation Fund would get the benefit of 4 per cent. on the amount for nearly a whole year.

The matter might be referred to the Hon. the Colonial Secretary, whose authority for the transfer seems necessary.

(See Auditor-General's letter to Treasury, 21/12/85.)

I AM of opinion without doubt that section 53 of the Civil Service Act should be construed as if the words "at the commencement of every year were in the section instead of merely the words 'every year.'"

It follows that the Auditor-General has—according to my view—fallen into an error in supposing that the payment of the £20,000 should be distributed over the year in proper proportions.

The provisions of section 54 almost conclusively show that my construction of the 53rd section is correct. G.B.S., 3/2/86.

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 13 January, 1885.

THE 53rd section of the "Civil Service Act of 1884" states that "for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act there shall be transferred to the credit of an account to be called the Civil Service Superannuation Account from the Consolidated Revenue Fund every year for a period of five years a sum of £20,000."

Perhaps the Treasurer will be good enough to authorize this transfer to be made at once for the year 1885, in order that the account may be started and accruing interest become payable thereon as provided for in the 54th section.

Allowance of £100 per annum to the Bishop of Goulburn from Public Funds.

The Under Secretary to The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Sir,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney, 6 May, 1862.

I am directed to transmit, for the information of the Colonial Treasurer, the enclosed copy of a letter addressed to the Bishop of Sydney, sanctioning the appropriation of £100 per annum from the revenue of Bishopthorpe Estate in aid of the stipend to be attached to the proposed new Bishopric of Goulburn from the date of the consecration of the Bishop of the proposed See, provided the funds from the Bishopthorpe Estate, which may from time to time be paid into the Treasury, are equal to the amount required to meet this claim, as well as other charges authorized to be defrayed by the Government in consequence of such payment.

I have, &c.,
W. ELYARD.

[Enclosure.]

The Under Secretary to The Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Sydney.

My Lord,

Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney, 22 March, 1862.

I am directed by the Colonial Secretary to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's letter, of the 14th instant, requesting the appropriation of £100 per annum from the revenue of Bishopthorpe Estate in aid of the stipend to be attached to the proposed new Bishopric of Goulburn from the date of the consecration of the Bishop of the proposed See. 2. In reply I am desired to inform your Lordship that your communication having been submitted to the Executive Council, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Council, has approved of the appropriation proposed, subject to the condition that the funds from the Bishopthorpe Estate, which may from time to time be paid into the Treasury, are equal to the amount required to meet this claim, as well as other charges authorized to be defrayed by the Government in consequence of such payment.

I have, &c.,
W. ELYARD.

Treasury Minute.

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 27 September, 1882.

Subject:—Payment of £100 per annum to the Bishop of Goulburn from Schedule C, in lieu of Church and School Estate.

In terms of a recent communication from the Audit Office the stipends heretofore paid to the Revs. Messrs. Ewing and King, of £200 each, from the Church and School Estate, are now paid from Schedule C, which (by reason of the death of the late Bishop of Sydney) is now largely in funds. The Colonial Treasurer would be glad to have the opinion of the Auditor-General whether the annual allowance to the Bishop of Goulburn—also a charge on the Church and School Estate—might not in like manner be paid from Schedule C.

G.E.

The Auditor-General.

Treasury Minute, 82-67—Payment of £100 to the Bishop of Goulburn from Schedule C.

THE payment of the annual allowance of £100 to the Bishop of Goulburn is in a different position to the payment of the stipends of the Revs. Messrs. Ewing and King. These clergymen had fulfilled the necessary conditions, and were entitled to stipends under the provisions of the Church Act, and were paid from the Bishopthorpe Estate Fund by a circuitous process through the Clergy and School Estates Revenue Fund, under an arrangement proposed by the late Bishop of Sydney about the year 1859, and agreed to by the Government of the day. Their stipends were thus virtually paid from the Schedule C Fund, to the credit of which the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue, over and above £500 a year, was always payable in reduction of the charge upon Schedule C for the Bishop of Sydney's stipend.

Strictly speaking, the stipend of the Bishop of Sydney was (as intended by the grant) payable direct from the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue, and any balance short of £2,000 a year was the only amount really payable at the Treasury from the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

The accompanying copy of authority shows that the allowance of £100 per annum was to be paid direct from the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue from the date of consecration of the Bishop of Goulburn, on condition of its being in funds sufficient for that purpose.

The authority is dated 6th May, 1862, and the date of consecration was certified to be 25th March, 1863; and an Abstract of Allowance from that date to 30th June, 1864, = £126 17s. 7d., was paid at the Treasury on 29th July, 1864, from the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue Fund Account, to which an equal sum—viz., £126 17s. 7d.—was immediately afterwards credited—viz., on 3rd August, 1864.

The annual allowance to the Bishop of Goulburn has since been paid direct from the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue (Trust) Account, and equal sums have been paid to the credit of that account by the Bishop of Sydney from time to time as required.

These facts appear to show that the annual aid of £100 to the Bishop of Goulburn's stipend, paid all through from the Trust Account Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue, has no claim to be paid from Schedule C, and if claimed under the Act 26 Vic. No. 19, there are two grounds on which such claim is open to question. The first is that at the date of passing said Act the Bishop of Goulburn was not actually in receipt of a stipend, no payment having been due to him until 25th March, 1863, and no payment made until July, 1864, while the Act was gazetted on 20th December, 1862; and the second is that the Bishopthorpe Estate Revenue does not appear to come under the description of public funds or moneys involving a liability, to a continuance of a stipend paid therefrom.

C. ROLLESTON,
A.G., 28 Sept, 1882.

The Under Secretary Finance and Trade.

Mr.

Mr. R. Atkins to The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Sir, Sydney Diocesan Registry, Phillip-street, Sydney, 13 February, 1883.
I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 7th December last, requesting me to lodge a sum of money sufficient to permit of payment being made to the Bishop of Goulburn on account of stipend due to him.

In reply, I beg to say that I have no fund from which this amount can be paid; and, further, that I was given to understand that the payment of stipend to the late Bishop of Sydney from Schedule C ceased on the 31st December, 1881, and from that date the stipend of the Bishop of Goulburn would be paid out of the saving thus effected in the Church of England's share of that fund.

I have, &c.,

ROBERT ATKINS.

Mr. R. Atkins to The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Sir, Sydney Diocesan Registry, 169, Phillip-street, Sydney, 8 March, 1883.
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 17th ultimo (S. 129,799 misc.), together with copy of the minute of the Auditor-General (28th September, 1882), upon the subject of the payment of £100 per annum to the Bishop of Goulburn from Schedule C.

In this minute the Auditor-General states that the payment of the annual allowance of £100 to the Bishop of Goulburn is in a different position to the payment of the stipends of the Reverend Messrs. Ewing and King, inasmuch as these gentlemen had fulfilled the necessary conditions, and were entitled to stipends under the provisions of the Church Act. With reference to this I beg to draw your attention to the following extract, from the proceedings of the Executive Council, of the 12th January, 1853, with respect to the distribution of the Public Worship Fund:—

“(5.) The result of this distribution is shown in the table annexed, but it is understood that the sum allotted to each communion is liable to be charged with special salaries to the superior clergy—in any case in which the Government and the head of the particular communion may concur in thinking the allowance of such special salary advisable.”

The provisions of the Church Act relate to the granting of stipends to the parochial clergy, but do not apply to stipends granted to the superior clergy.

The head of the denomination and the Governor and Executive Council having concurred in the granting of this stipend to the Bishop of Goulburn, in accordance with the terms of the minute above quoted, it does not appear that the Bishop's stipend is in a different position from that of any other duly authorized stipend.

The Auditor-General goes on to say that the stipends of the Reverend Messrs. Ewing and King were virtually paid from the Schedule C fund, to the credit of which the Bishopthorpe Estate revenue, over and above £500 a year, was always payable in reduction of the charge upon Schedule C for the Bishop of Sydney's stipend.

The Auditor-General admits that the Bishopthorpe Estate revenue paid to the Treasury was “in reduction of the charge upon Schedule C,” and that the stipends of Messrs. Ewing and King were virtually paid from Schedule C. This view has been adopted by the Treasurer, who has recognized the claims of these gentlemen to a continuance of their stipends.

The Bishop of Goulburn's stipend was not paid direct from Bishopthorpe, but in precisely the same manner and from the same source as the stipends of Messrs. Ewing and King; and there does not appear to be any reason why the Bishop's stipend should be treated in a different manner to the stipends of the clergymen above referred to.

The money paid in from Bishopthorpe, being in reduction of the charge upon Schedule C, became public money, and the stipends paid therefrom have been treated by the Government as payments from public funds. In support of this statement I beg to bring under your notice—

- (1.) A return, ordered to be printed by the Legislative Assembly on the 15th September, 1870, in which it is stated that the Bishop of Goulburn is in receipt of £100 per annum, payable from Schedule C. A foot-note states that it is “contributed from Bishopthorpe Estate.”
- (2.) The Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly, 27th September, 1870, in which the then Premier is reported to have stated, in reply to a question by the late Mr. W. Forster, in reference to the stipends paid to the Bishop of Goulburn and Messrs. Ewing and King, that “the Schedule Fund for public worship having been relieved of the payment of a portion of the Bishop's stipend, these allowances were sanctioned in the usual way as a charge upon it.”

The Auditor-General further expresses his opinion that if the stipend be claimed under the Act 26 Victoria No. 19 there are two grounds on which such claim is open to question.

With reference to the first objection, that the Bishop of Goulburn was not in receipt of a stipend at the date of the passing of the Act, I would observe that the Bishop became entitled to his stipend from the date of his consecration—25th March, 1863; and that the Act 26 Vic. No. 19 was reserved for the Queen's assent, and did not come into force until the 21st July, 1863.

The second objection, that the fund from which the Bishop's stipend has been paid does not appear to come under the description of public funds, has been dealt with in my remarks upon the former part of the Auditor-General's minute.

I venture to submit that the facts above stated show that the Bishop of Goulburn was in receipt of a stipend of £100 per annum from public funds at the date of the Act 26 Vic. No. 19, and that he is entitled to such stipend so long as he officiates within the Colony.

I have, &c.,

ROBERT ATKINS.

*Subject:—*Treasury 83-1273. Payment of £100 per annum to the Bishop of Goulburn from Schedule C. In further explanation of this matter it will be proper to quote the authorities and state the action under them.

The Colonial Secretary's letter of 3rd September, 1856, guarantees the Bishop of Sydney a stipend of £2,000 per annum, to be charged in the first instance to the Church of England's share of the Public Worship Fund, but the net income derived from Bishopthorpe to go in diminution of the said guaranteed stipend, and that any saving thus effected on the Church of England's share of the Public Worship Fund should should be appropriated annually, as was the practice at that date, the arrangement to commence from the 1st January, 1857. At that date there were a number of stipends sanctioned under the Church Act, but could not be issued as the funds available were fully appropriated, the whole amount of £14,634 6s. 5d., forming the Church of England's share of the Public Worship Fund, being fully distributed, and including the stipend of £1,500 hitherto paid from Schedule C.

In the year 1857 the Bishop paid in £966 13s. 4d. from Bishopthorpe, and that amount was distributed as follows:—Additions to the Bishop's stipend, £200 (the remaining £300 being then paid from a temporary increase vote); Rev. H. S. King, £200; Rev. T. C. Ewing, from 1st September, £66 13s. 4d.; Rev. J. Barnier, £200; Rev. T. Hayden, £100; Rev. G. F. McArthur, £50; Rev. J. S. Hassall, £50; Rev. A. H. Stephen, £50; Rev. J. Gunther, £50.

The stipends of the Reverends Messrs. King and Ewing were distinctly authorised by the Colonial Secretary's letters of 24th December, 1857, and 12th January, 1858, "out of the saving of the Church of England's share of the Public Worship Fund arising from the revenue of the Bishopthorpe Estate."

Those stipends are therefore held to have been paid and payable from the Schedule C Fund up to the date of the Act 26 Victoria No. 19, 21st July, 1863, and from that date onward in terms of that law.

At that same date the whole amount of the Church of England's share of the Schedule C Fund, £14,634 6s. 5d., was being issued in payment of stipends previously authorised therefrom, but it did not include any sum for the Bishop of Goulburn, and consequently no authority could have been given for it under the minute of 1853, quoted in the Registrar's memorandum. For the year 1863 the Bishop paid to the Treasury £900 from Bishopthorpe, which were applied to the payment of the Bishop's own extra stipend of £500 per annum, and of £400 for the stipends of Messrs. Ewing and King, as already explained.

The authority for the issue of £100 to the Bishop of Goulburn, as addressed to the Bishop of Sydney, is dated 22nd March, 1862, and was communicated by the Colonial Secretary to the Treasury under date 6th May, 1862. The terms of it are "from the date of consecration of the Bishop of the proposed See, subject to the condition that the funds from the Bishopthorpe Estate, which may from time to time be paid into the Treasury, are equal to the amount required to meet this claim, as well as other charges authorized to be defrayed by the Government in consequence of such payments."

The Bishop of Goulburn was, it would appear, consecrated on 25th March, 1863, but no payment was made to him until 29th July, 1864, and then, in accordance with the authority, out of the Bishopthorpe Estate revenue. At that date no addition could be made to the charges on Schedule C, and as a matter of fact no payments have ever been made to the Bishop of Goulburn from the Schedule C Fund.

The Return quoted, of 15th September, 1870, prepared at the Treasury, is erroneous in showing the stipend of the Bishop of Goulburn as paid from Schedule C, and of the Reverend Messrs. Ewing and King as from Bishopthorpe, and consequently the replies of Mr. Cowper to questions upon said return are incorrect.

It should be added that since the death of the late Bishop, on 6th April, 1882, the Bishopthorpe revenue is no longer payable to the Treasury.

The question appears to resolve itself into one of law, namely, whether the payment of £126 17s. 7d. to the Bishop of Goulburn on the 29th July, 1864, as stipend from the 25th March, 1863, to 30th June, 1864, from the Bishopthorpe Estate revenue of 1864, constitutes a claim to a payment from the Public Funds in terms of the Act 26 Vic. No. 19.

The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

C. ROLLESTON,
Auditor-General.

The Secretary to The Attorney-General to The Auditor-General.

Sir, Attorney-General's Department, Sydney, 14 August, 1885.

I am instructed to forward you herewith a copy of an opinion given by the Honorable the Attorney-General, respecting the payment of £100 per annum to the Bishop of Goulburn, from Schedule C on Estimates, by which it will be perceived that in the opinion of the Attorney-General the Treasury Department was not justified in ceasing to pay, from the 1st January, 1882, the stipend in question, on the ground that, on the 31st December, 1881, it was found that the income of Bishopthorpe had reached the sum of £2,000.

I have, &c.,
W. W. STEPHEN.

[Enclosure.]

Re payment of stipend—£100 per annum—to Bishop of Goulburn.

THERE is no doubt this is an extremely complicated case, and its difficulties are very much increased by the arrangement made in connection with the revenues of the Bishopthorpe Estate. I have come to the conclusion that the condition on which the stipend of the Bishop of Sydney ceased to be paid out of public funds, that is when the revenues of Bishopthorpe reached the sum of £2,000, did not and ought not to affect the title of the Bishop of Goulburn to his £100. As far as the Bishop of Sydney was concerned his financial relations with the Government were to be regulated by the Bishopthorpe income, and the Treasury was to be relieved of contributions for his maintenance when the Bishopthorpe Estate gave him the sum which he was entitled to receive out of the public funds, to which, until that period arrived, the income of Bishopthorpe contributed. This being so, I cannot see how the Government, who were compelled to pay the Bishop of Goulburn his £100 a year while the Bishop of Sydney's income was partially defrayed from the public Treasury, could be relieved from paying the former when no longer under any liability to pay the latter. It seems to me clear that the case of the Bishop of Goulburn precisely corresponds with those of the Revd. Messrs. King & Ewing, whose stipends are derived from the same source as that which contributed, and ought now to contribute the stipend of the Bishop of Goulburn. Holding these views I am of opinion that the Colonial Treasurer was not justified in ceasing to pay from the 1st January, 1882, the stipend of the Bishop of Goulburn on the grounds that on the 31st of December, 1881, it was found the income of Bishopthorpe had reached £2,000.

APPENDIX E.

Unauthorized Supplements to the Treasurer's Advance Vote by Drafts upon the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

The Auditor-General to The Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Sir,

Sydney, 27 January, 1886.

I have the honor to report specially, for the information of the Legislative Assembly, that sums to the amount of £275,000 have been withdrawn from the Consolidated Revenue Fund and placed to the credit of the Treasurer's Advance Account, in anticipation of the sanction of Parliament.

The transfers were made on the following dates, viz. :—

On the 3rd November, 1885	... ..	£50,000
„ 2nd December, „	... ..	50,000
„ 30th „ „	... ..	50,000
„ 8th January, 1886	... ..	50,000
„ 11th „ „	... ..	75,000
		£275,000

A copy of the minute of the proceedings of the Governor in Council on the 3rd November, 1885, is enclosed, together with the Treasury minutes of even date, which set forth the circumstances under which the first sum of £50,000 was withdrawn from the Revenue, admittedly without legal sanction. Similar minutes have been forwarded to me respecting the withdrawals already specified, on the 2nd December and on the 8th instant, copies of which are also enclosed for the information of the Legislative Assembly.

It is presumed that minutes of a like tenor have been passed for the remaining sums quoted, but they have not yet been received here. Those minutes, however, can give no authority for the transfers made by the Treasury, inasmuch as these transfers do not come within the terms of the 18th section of the "Audit Act of 1870." They have, besides, been made contrary to the provisions of the same Act, in sections 10 to 15, which were expressly framed to protect the Public Account from being operated upon for purposes outside the sanction of Parliament.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD A. RENNIE,
Auditor-General.

Minute Paper for the Executive Council.

Subject :—Transfer of £50,000 from Consolidated Revenue to Advance Account, pending Parliamentary authority.

No. 130.

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 3 November, 1885.

THE Colonial Treasurer submits, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, a Treasury minute, dated this day, setting forth the desirability of transferring a sum of £50,000 (fifty thousand pounds) from the Consolidated Revenue to the Treasurer's Advance Account, so as to provide funds in the last-named account (which is now nearly exhausted) for the purpose of paying urgent claims of contractors and others, for work done or services rendered.

In view of the urgency of the case the Treasurer requests the approval of His Excellency in Council for the course herein indicated.

GEORGE R. DIBBS.

The

The Executive Council advise that authority be granted for the transfer of the sum of £50,000 from Consolidated Revenue to Advance Account, pending Parliamentary sanction.—ALEX. C. BUDGE, Clerk of the Council. Approved.—A.L., 3/11/85. Min. 85/41, 3/11/85. Confirmed, 12/11/85.

Treasury Minute.

Payment of claims on account of Services the Votes for which have run out.

3 November, 1885.

IN consequence of the prorogation and subsequent dissolution of Parliament before any provision had been made for the supplementary expenditure of 1885, it now becomes necessary to make some arrangement for the payment of claims on account of Services (principally Public Works), the votes for which have been found insufficient, pending Parliamentary authority being obtained.

The Treasurer's Advance Account being nearly exhausted by previous charges of a similar nature to those above alluded to, I would suggest, as a convenient way of meeting the present difficulty, that a sum of £50,000 be transferred from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Trust Fund, as a temporary advance on account of the Treasurer's Advance Account. When this transfer is made, then the claims referred to can be paid, as they arise out of that Account. This arrangement will obviate the necessity of asking the nine associated Banks to make advances on the personal guarantee of the Government, for which nine separate accounts would have to be opened.

As the Auditor-General could not grant a warrant for the transfer of the sum mentioned it would be advisable to have it made under the special approval of the Executive Council, whose minute should be forwarded to that officer for his information.

JAMES THOMSON, C.A.

I concur in Mr. Thomson's suggestion.—G.E., 3/11/85. Submitted, 3/11/85. Approved.—GEORGE R. DIBBS.

Minute Paper for the Executive Council.

Subject:—Transfer of £75,000 from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Treasurer's Advance Account, to meet Railway and Tramway wages, 1886.

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 11 January, 1886.

THE Colonial Treasurer submits herewith an application from the Commissioner for Railways for a sum of £75,000, to enable him to pay railway and tramway wages.

As there is at present no appropriation for 1886, and as the wages will become due before a Supply Bill can be obtained, the Treasurer (in view of the urgency of the case) recommends that a transfer of £75,000 be made from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Treasurer's Advance Account, for the purpose in question.
J. F. BURNS.

The Executive Council advise, as herein recommended, that authority be granted for the transfer of a further sum of £75,000 from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Treasurer's Advance Account.—ALEX. C. BUDGE, Clerk of the Council. Approved.—CARRINGTON, 12/1/86. Min. 86/2, 12/1/86. Confirmed, 19/1/86.

Sir,

Department of Railways, Sydney, 7 January, 1886.

I have the honor to inform you that this Department will shortly require funds for the payment of wages, Railways and Tramways. As there is at present no appropriation for 1886, and a Supply Bill cannot be obtained in time—Parliament not meeting till the 27th instant—I shall be glad if you will arrange to charge temporarily, wages, &c., due in 1886, to the vote for working expenses, 1885, on which there is a large balance, the latter vote to be recouped immediately the Supply for 1886 is available. The amount that will be required will be at least £75,000 for present month.

I have, &c.,

C. A. GOODCHAP,
Commissioner for Railways.

Mr. Ross,—Acknowledge and inform that provision to the required extent will be made from "Advance Account," pending vote in first Bill of Supply, but that it cannot be done from last year's vote. Then Ex. minute.—G.F., 11/1/86. Let a minute be prepared for the Executive as before.—J.F.B., 11/1/86. Cabinet.—J.F.B., 11/1/86.

(The foregoing minute was received on the 4th February, 1886.)

Sir,

26 November, 1885.

In returning to you the Minute of the Governor and Executive Council, No. 85/41, sanctioning the transfer of £50,000 from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Treasurer's Advance Account, I have the honor to state, that this transaction being outside of any appropriation of Parliament known to me, and consequently uncovered by the prescribed warrant of the Governor, it will, of course, have to be disallowed in the Treasurer's Accounts. I desire also to inform you that as a necessary consequence all payments made out of the sum so transferred, or out of any recoups of such payments that may not at the time be covered by an appropriation of Parliament, will, as a matter of course, be likewise disallowed.

I have, &c.,

EDWARD A. RENNIE,
Auditor-General.

Railway Revenue Branch, Department of Audit, 6 October, 1884.

THIS concession appearing partial in its nature as regards Railway employées, it is considered that, under the 100th section of the Railway Act the sanction of the Governor and the Executive Council is necessary, and it is requested that the same may be obtained and furnished to this Department.

WILL the Commissioner have the goodness to furnish the authority for allowing persons employed in the Railway Department a reduction of one-half the rate charged to the public when renewing season tickets.

E. A. RENNIE.

Sir,

Department of Audit, 3 January, 1885.

Audit Query 383
(Comr. 84-220B)
and all
enclosures.

With reference to the enclosed papers relating to season tickets granted to Railway employées at half rates, on the authority of the Minister for Works I have the honor to request that, as under the provisions of the 100th section of the Act 22 Vic., No. 19, the sanction of the Governor and the Executive Council is necessary for any departure from the published rates, you will be good enough to obtain and furnish to this Department such authority in the case now under question.

I have, &amp;c.,

E. A. RENNIE,
Auditor-General.

Sir,

Railway Department, 27 June, 1885.

Referring to your letter of the 3rd January last, enclosing papers relating to season tickets granted to Railway employées at half rates, on the authority of the Minister for Works, and requesting that as, under the provisions of the 100th section of the Act 22 Vic., No. 19, the sanction of the Governor and the Executive Council is necessary for any departure from the published rates, I will obtain and furnish to your Department such authority in the case now under question, I have the honor to inform you that you are so far right that all rates and fares require the approval of the Governor and Executive Council, but as you put it in the Audit query (No. 383) of the 6th October last, this approval was to remedy a suggested departure from the provisions of the 100th section of the Railway Act in respect of partiality. If it were really a breach of the 100th section of the Act there is no power, not even the power of the Governor and Executive Council, which could heal the breach, or legalize the action.

I need, however, hardly say, that there has been in this respect no departure from the provisions of the Act, and it is straining the Act, and placing a wrong construction upon its intent and meaning to contend otherwise.

There is nothing exceptional as regards the railways of this Colony in the provisions of this 100th section. The British Parliament has not conferred the right to charge tolls upon any Company in England without surrounding the concession with this condition; and if any Railway Company attempts any real breach of the provisions there are opportunities which are eagerly availed of to obtain a remedy; but making concessions to certain classes of people is not, as you and some other persons suppose, a departure from the terms of the section. The condition is governed by the words "under the same circumstances," and it would be only a breach of the provisions if a concession made to one section of a class were denied to another section of the class the conditions governing which were precisely the same. If, for instance, two theatrical parties were travelling (say), one to Bathurst and the other to Goulburn, and one was allowed a rebate of 20 per cent. on the fares, and the other was refused, that would be a breach of the provisions, although, to grant both Companies a rebate would not be a breach, notwithstanding the ordinary passenger is not allowed a rebate.

If the two Companies were travelling, one to Melbourne, and the other to Nyngan, and were treated differently, that would not be a breach, because the circumstances would not be the same.

If the theatrical company going to Melbourne did not get the rebate they might travel by sea at a cheaper rate; not so with the Company going to Nyngan—the railway must necessarily be their cheapest mode of transit, and they could not claim the concession merely because the Company going to Melbourne obtained it.

I quote the case of theatrical companies, because you have, on other papers, taken exception to our practice on the ground of its being a departure from the terms of the 100th section.

I have, &amp;c.,

CHAS. A. GOODCHAP.

Sir,

Department of Audit, 8 July, 1884.

With reference to the discount of 50 per cent. allowed to cricketing and other teams, I have the honor to request that, as the concessions appear to conflict with the 100th section of the Railway Act, you will be good enough to furnish me with a copy of the Minute of the Governor and the Executive Council under which the concessions referred to in the enclosed papers have been allowed.

I have, &amp;c.,

E. A. RENNIE.

Sir,

Comr. 84-8,798
&c

Sir,

Railway Department, 4 October, 1884.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 8th July last, stating that in your opinion, the concession of 50 per cent. granted to cricketing teams and others is in conflict with clause 100 of the Railway Act, and to inform you that a clause similar to that quoted is contained in every English Railway Act, and yet the practice of the English companies is to carry theatrical companies, commercial travellers, and huntsmen and their horses, etc., at cheaper rates than those charged to ordinary passengers.

I have, &amp;c.,

CHAS. A. GOODCHAP.

P.S.—I would draw the Auditor-General's attention to the words "under like circumstances," which govern the conditions of the 100th section referred to, and has been held by the Railway Commissioners of England to give a latitude to the English Companies in this respect which the clause, without these words, would not give.—C.A.G.

Sir,

Department of Audit, 11 October, 1884.

In reply to your letter of 4th instant, referring me to the English practice of carrying theatrical companies and others at lower rates than those charged to ordinary passengers, for answer to my request for a copy of the Minute of the Governor and Executive Council, allowing 50 per cent. discount on fares of cricketing and other teams, I have the honor to point out that whatever discretion may have been allowed to be exercised in varying authorised fixed rates under the interpretation quoted by you of the clause "under the (like) same circumstances" in English private Companies, it does not appear to me that it is open to you, as Commissioner for Railways, to exercise the like discretion, except under the express authority of the Governor and Executive Council, by whom the law directs the rates to be fixed.

The proviso in the 100th section of the Railway Act, 22 Victoria No. 19, appears to me to be very explicit. The tolls, "all such tolls," are those specifically "determined upon by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council"; and "no reduction or advance in any such tolls shall be made either directly or indirectly in favor of or against any particular company or person travelling upon or using the railway."

Except, therefore, differential rates be specifically included among those determined upon by the Governor and Executive Council, no such rates of tolls, so far as I am at present informed, can be recognised under any less authority, and I must therefore again ask you to furnish it in the cases under question.

I have, &amp;c.,

E. A. RENNIE.

Sir,

Department of Audit, 24 July, 1885.

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 27th ultimo having special reference to season tickets granted to Railway employes at half rates, and in which you agree with me that the authority of the Governor and the Executive Council is required for all rates and fares. I conclude, therefore, that the requisite authority will be furnished to me in due time in satisfaction of my request for it.

I desire to explain, however, that it was never my idea to ask for Executive sanction for any differential rate, which appeared to me to be a breach of the provisions of the 100th section of the Act as being a partial rate in favor of certain parties using the line under the same conditions, while others were debarred the advantage of such rate, because I am fully aware that the Governor and Executive Council could not grant such authority; and, so far as regards all questions bearing upon this 100th section which have formed the subject of communication to you, it will, I think, be seen that I have confined myself to a request for the sanction of the Executive for differential rates only, which authority you admit to be necessary and, when supplied, will of course be sufficient for my purpose.

In regard to the wording of the query which has given rise to your remarks, I fear that it has misled you. The use of the word "partial" had no reference to a discriminative rate among the parties to whom the concession was made, but that the granting of it to certain employes of the Department and not to all, appeared to me to be tantamount to an increase of pay to those who lived along the line, and that there seemed no reason why all the Railway employes should not have the privilege of travelling at half rates, nor why the same privilege should not be extended to all employes of the Government of a similar class. It was not my intention, however, to raise that question, but the word "partial" occurred in my minute on the subject, and was inadvertently introduced into the query.

I regret that I cannot see my way to accept the extremely wide interpretation you place upon the words "under the same circumstances," as such an interpretation ignores entirely all the words after those quoted to the end of the section, and extends their application beyond their immediate, and, it appears to me, exclusive reference to the words immediately preceding, commencing with "and conveyed."

In the example offered by you of theatrical companies proceeding to Melbourne, I could better appreciate the force of your arguments were they used as a contention for a general reduction of the fares to Melbourne for every one, seeing that the sea route is open to all alike, but I fail to see why this should be advanced as a reason for a special allowance to a theatrical company, or to any two or more individuals who might band themselves together and ask for a similar indulgence.

I do not wish it to be understood that I object to concessions in any case, as it would certainly not be to the interest of the public that the charges for railway traffic should be regulated in such a manner as to limit the usefulness of the railway lines, and consequently to reduce the legitimate profit which, considered as a private commercial enterprise, they might be expected to afford. My only contention is that, as Commissioner for Railways, you have no power of yourself to extend or reduce the rates of tolls notified to the public as established by the Governor and Executive Council, and that whenever any variation shall appear in such rates of tolls, or that the full rates have not for any reason been fully collected, you are bound to show that such variation has been made by you under their orders, directions, or regulations, or that you have been relieved from your responsibility for such short collection by the same authority.

Extracts from Report of the Inspecting Officer-in-charge of the Review Audit of the Railway Receipts for the year 1885-6.

I STATED in my last yearly report, submitted to the Auditor-General on the 29th July, 1885, that in consequence of the action of the Commissioner for Railways in declining to send us any more papers our work of reviewing the Railway Revenue Accounts was limited to a local inspection of the accounts at the railway stations.

Upon this point I have now only to add that as regards the supply of papers we are still in precisely the same position, and I have no figures to submit as a check on, or verification of, the statements published by the Commissioner in his Annual Report to Parliament.

The only means of examination open to the Auditor-General is therefore through the system of local and necessarily occasional inspections of the stations on the lines; and the utmost advantage has been taken of these inspections to obtain an insight into the revenue earnings of the department other than the cash account of collections attested monthly by the Commissioner.

By means of these inspections we are enabled to:—

1. Obtain information of all rates and charges made for the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and see that such charges are in accordance with the rates approved of by the Governor and Executive Council.
2. To test the state of each station's cash account down to date of visit, taking the outstandings at the close of the previous month as the basis of the balance.
3. To test the genuineness of the stations outstanding accounts, and to see that all credit given is either under proper bonds or security, or that the discretionary credit given by station-masters with the knowledge and consent of the Commissioner (vide Commissioner's letter to Auditor-General, of 7 January, 1884) is not unduly exceeded.
4. To obtain a record of and reference to all refunds of revenue earnings written off, &c., by whatever authority, and then to demand those papers from the Commissioner in support of the writing off of the sums.
5. To check, take stock of, and count periodically the large stock of tickets held at the various stations and to compel the accounting for all missing ones.

Of course the insight gained in the manner indicated by these five paragraphs is considerable, and enables a very salutary check to be exercised, and a restraining influence placed upon the actions of the department.

Where our audit is defective or incomplete is that we do not, under present arrangements, get from the Traffic Auditor in a concentrated form any record of the earnings as a whole, including the station's outstandings, which we can make use of as a check against the Commissioner's attested accounts of cash collected.

With reference to the great inattention to queries from this office on the part of the Commissioner, so noticeable in my former reports, I ought here to say that this source of complaint no longer exists, and although there are a few old queries on important points (as hereafter shown) still unsatisfied the attention paid to recent queries is satisfactory.

I should not omit to state also that the review of the refund and special credit papers for the past twelve months shows that much greater care is now exercised than formerly in granting concessions without obtaining, as prescribed by the 100th section of the Railway Act, the previous sanction of the Governor and Executive Council.

With reference to the whole of the refunds of revenue and concessions granted by the Commissioner and certain of his officers it is broadly contended by the Auditor-General that they have technically no power to grant them, and, as will be seen elsewhere, the Commissioner has been requested to show under what authority this is done. No reply has yet been received to that enquiry, but in the meantime all concessions are being passed on their merits, as there is no allegation so far as this question is concerned that the Commissioner is acting improperly in an equitable sense, but simply beyond his legal powers.* *

These remarks apply only to the ordinary refunds and special credits made in the department, and do not touch the more serious question of departures from the rates fixed by the Governor with the advice of the Executive Council, under the Act 22 Vic. No. 19.

These points have given rise to much correspondence between this department and the Commissioner, who contended that the view taken by the Auditor-General was incorrect, that differential rates were allowed under the Act, and granted them on his own or the Minister's authority, or on that of both combined.

The latter practice however was admitted by the Commissioner to be wrong in his letter of 27th June, 1885, and Executive authority has been obtained since then without demur. It was still held however that differential rates were allowable under certain circumstances, and examples as to theatrical companies were offered to support this view.

The Auditor-General in replying showed that he could not accept the very wide interpretation placed by the Commissioner, upon the wording of the 100th section of the Act, but as it was not intended at present to question any rates or concessions, provided they bore the approval of the Governor and Executive Council, and as the Commissioner had admitted that such approval was necessary, the contention as to the differential rates has virtually ended.

STATION INSPECTIONS.

During the year the inspections of the accounts of stations has been proceeded with, and although the work was to some extent interrupted full advantage has been taken of these visits to obtain a knowledge of the working of the line as hereinbefore indicated.

Times to-day says members of Syndicate who are large holders of last issue have been getting up protest against loan, and says, on the other hand, leading dealers are sending document to me, saying issue of new loan at 92 per cent. will in no way injure credit of Colony, and they protest against attempts being made by interested parties on Stock Exchange to frustrate issue of loan. Both these documents have reached me; the former is an impertinent attempt at dictation. Times also says the Government will estimate both documents at their true value. The premature announcement by "Reuter" of loan coming was unfortunate.

Cablegram from Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

London, 15 July, 1885.

Times to-day says the policy of issuing another loan before more of the last loan has been absorbed by investors seems rather doubtful; on the other hand, the desire of the Government to take advantage of the unusually favourable state of the money market is easily understood, and may very likely override the opposing considerations. We believe that the Government will have little difficulty in getting the money, large as is the sum to be asked for, even if the Syndicate sulks, though it may possibly not obtain quite as high a rate as on the last occasion. Quotation to-day, 92.

GOVERNMENT indignant at reported dictation of stock-broking Syndicate, and their attempt to question our discretion in issue of loan. You should meet any such action with immediate and unqualified opposition; and, in order to prevent any public misapprehension involving injury to the loan occasioned by their conduct, you should at once write to the Times, pointing out that every shilling of these loans and all loans forming the public debt of this country have been borrowed and used for railway construction and reproductive public works; that our railways, at rates as low as any part of the world, are paying an interest of 5 per cent.; that their receipts are two and a half millions annually; that their collective value more than equals our total liabilities; that our estimated revenue for this year is eight and a half millions, of which two and a quarter millions is derived from taxation; that it is our conviction that our securities are as valuable as those of any portion of the Empire; and that it is our determination to do nothing which may cause them to be regarded as in any way inferior; that the progress of this Colony during the past few years has been unprecedented, and is daily manifest and increasing. These facts you will put, without a moment's delay, before the public, through the Times. Inform me when this has been done. The minimum and date for commencement of accrued interest will not, under any circumstances, be changed.

THE advice you have received should not have affected our specific instructions as to its being essential to point out, through the Times, in a forcible letter the value of our public securities. The Times itself thought it necessary to protest against the action of the Syndicate. The universal opinion of the Press of this country is that an instant exposure of this attempt should have been made by you. The delay in making it is unfortunate; but such a letter should be at once written, and announce that the loan is withdrawn for the present, owing to the uncertainty of preservation of peace.

CONFIDENTIAL. We are unable to perceive the difference in value between guaranteed Egyptian and our own loan, and we take exception to statement that Bank of England objects to bring out our loan before October. It is our own discretion, and on our own responsibility exclusively, that loans are to be issued, and although as to terms of issue we should of course be guided by advice of Bank of England, we should never permit their objection to prevail against our own conclusion. This I mention for your future instruction. Advise me earliest day in October at which you think the loan should be floated. As the year will be so far advanced, it is most desirable that the issue should not be later than the first week in October.

If loan issued early in October, present prospects indicate either 90 minimum or 92 fixed price. Latter course involves the risk of insufficient subscription; if adopted, loan would be kept open not exceeding two days; either method usual discount allowance. ## No. 42.

The Agent-General to The Colonial Treasurer.

Sir,

5, Westminster Chambers, Westminster, S.W., 24 July, 1885.

Adverting to my letter of the 10th instant, I will endeavour, as concisely as I can, to continue the narrative of what has since taken place in connection with the contemplated loan of £5,500,000; and I trust that I shall be able to show that, if the loan has not been floated in accordance with your wishes, it is due to no fault on my part.

Nothing was known here by the public of the contemplated issue of the loan, until the announcement was made by "Reuter's" telegram from Sydney on the 10th instant, stating that "the New South Wales Government is about to issue, in London, a new loan of five and a half millions, bearing interest at the rate of three and a half per cent."

It is not the practice of the Bank of England to make known the issue of a loan before the prospectus is ready for distribution. The Governors consider it prejudicial to announce it beforehand, if it can be avoided.

The result of the publication of "Reuter's" telegram was that, on the 13th instant, a number of leading brokers and bankers signed a protest complaining of the issue of another New South Wales loan for five millions and a half so soon after the former one of the same amount.

This protest is not addressed to any person in particular, and was, I believe, presented in the first instance, to the Bank of England, who declined to receive it, and subsequently to Messrs. Mullens, Marshall, & Co., the brokers to the Bank, and was by them handed to me during the time I was engaged with the Governors in the Bank.

The Bank authorities advised that no notice should be taken of the protest, as the memorialists did not in any way question the value of our securities, but only the time for placing the loan on the market.

You will have learned also from my telegrams that the Governors themselves, and the brokers to the Bank, held a strong opinion that we were coming out too soon with a very large loan, and that eleven millions was an extraordinary amount for the Colony to place on the market within nine months.

On

On the following day, the 14th instant, articles appeared in the newspapers condemning the action of the Syndicate in their attempt to dictate to the Government when they should place their loans on the market; but these articles at the same time questioned the policy of the issue of the loan at this particular time. In consequence of their publication I again waited upon the Governors, and solicited their advice as to whether I should write to the newspapers in reply to the Syndicate's remonstrance, and they strongly urged me not to do so, but to leave the remarks thereon in the Times and other newspapers, condemning the action of the Syndicate, to have their effect, as they considered these rejoinders (which were evidently inspired by friends of the loan) were quite sufficient answer to the objections raised.

On the following day (the 15th) I received your telegram, instructing me that I should at once write to the Times, in order to prevent any public misapprehension involving injury to the loan; and your message also further informed me that you could not agree to the minimum suggested by the Bank of England, and that it must be ninety-two, with interest from the 1st July, and not with accrued interest from 1st April, as advised by the Bank of England. Immediately on the receipt of this telegram I again proceeded to the Bank to make it known to the Governors, who, with the brokers, again strongly advised that I should not write to the Press, as they feared it might lead to irritation and controversy, and so prejudice the loan. They at the same time expressed surprise that, with their great experience and knowledge of the market here, you should not have accepted their well-considered suggestion with regard to the minimum, as, by giving in the interest from 1st April to date of issue of loan, it would make the new loan run with the last one (a matter of some importance), and that the amount of interest given in would be made up in the price. They advised me to again communicate with you before either writing to the Press or issuing the loan. This I accordingly did in my two messages of the 16th instant.

On the 16th instant I received your telegram instructing me that, in consequence of a reported panic on the Stock Exchange, to use my discretion to withdraw the loan. In exercise of this discretion, I at once postponed the issue of the loan.

On the 17th instant I received your telegram, expressing your opinion "that the advice I had received should not have affected your specific instructions, as to its being essential to point out, through the Times, in a forcible letter, the value of our public securities," &c. In accordance, therefore, with your express directions in this respect, I wrote to the Times, and I send herewith a copy of my letter.

In consulting with the Bank of England, I did so in accordance with the instructions contained in your telegram of the 26th June. It is absolutely necessary, if this institution is to continue to have the issue of our loans, to consult with the Bank authorities and to inform them of all our proceedings in connection therewith, as, unless they are so consulted and kept well informed, there is a danger of their declining to issue them, as they did, I understand, in the case of one of the other Colonies not long since.

The telegrams which I have sent to you in connection with this matter have been decided upon after consultation with the Governors of the Bank; they are therefore their communications to you as well as mine.

To attempt to issue the loan during this period of the year, when everybody is leaving London for the holidays, would be extremely hazardous, and I have little doubt that in the course of a short time the large amount of the last loan now in first hands will become absorbed, and that if there is no war our 3½ per cents, like our 4 per cents have done, will rise considerably in the market, and that a new loan may then be advantageously placed.

Our securities now stand higher in this market than those of any of the other Colonies, and it is particularly desirable that we should so manage as not to lessen their value.

It is a fact which we must not ignore, that the Syndicates and brokers do much to keep up the value of colonial stocks, and that the high price maintained is largely due to their influence; and if the present system of tendering is to be continued, they are always likely to get a large portion of the loans offered, as they tender at a high price.

I annex copies of telegrams that have passed between us on this subject.

I have, &c.,
SAUL SAMUEL.

P.S.—Since writing the foregoing I have received your telegram of this day, as follows—"If the present a good time to float the Egyptian, why not equally suitable for ours? As the news appears more pacific, what is there to prevent our loan being floated at once?" Upon its receipt, I immediately waited upon the Governors of the Bank of England and had a long interview with them. They strongly objected to issue the loan before October, not only because the holidays had commenced and that so many persons were leaving London, but their views remained unchanged with regard to the desirability of putting our loan on the market at the present time; more particularly as its postponement had been announced, and that this postponement was not considered as deferring its issue for a few days only.

With regard to the Egyptian loan—as I convey to you in my telegram, copy of which is annexed—there is no analogy between this loan and ours. The money required is of great pressing necessity, and is guaranteed by the great European Powers. It is to be issued by Rothschilds, who will offer it in the great centres of the guaranteeing Powers. This loan is known as a "Bankers' loan," and will be taken up by the large Banking Institutions here and on the Continent, with whom arrangements have doubtless been made already to secure its success, whilst colonial loans are dealt in by an entirely different class of people and investors.

SAUL SAMUEL.

Times to-day says:—"Members of Syndicate, who are large holders of last issue, have been getting up protest against loan, and says, on the other hand, leading dealers are sending document to me, saying issue of new loan at 92 per cent. will in no way injure credit of Colony, and they protest against attempts being made by interested parties on Stock Exchange to frustrate issue of loan." Both these documents have reached me. The former is an impertinent attempt at dictation. Times also says the Government will estimate both documents at their true value. The premature announcement by Reuter of loan coming was unfortunate.

MINIMUM ninety-two, with accrued interest from 1st July. Instalments to be spread over five months from date fixed for receiving tenders, in same proportion as to time and amount and same rate of discount as last loan. Issue at once. The criticism of the Standard should be met by a counter statement that the loan is for the rapid construction of railways and other reproductive works.

BANK considers variation from the well-considered terms before suggested likely to militate against the success of the loan, and strongly recommends dividend from 1st April. Present market price about 93, including dividend from 1st April. Time presses. Reply quickly.

Times to-day says the policy of issuing another loan before more of the last one has been absorbed by investors seems rather doubtful. On the other hand, the desire of the Government to take advantage of the unusually favourable state of the money market is easily understood, and may very likely over-ride the opposing considerations. We believe that the Government will have little difficulty in getting the money, large as is the sum to be asked for, even if the Syndicate sulks, though it may possibly not obtain quite as high a rate as on the last occasion. GOVERNMENT indignant at reported dictation of stock-broking Syndicate, and their attempt to question our discretion in issue of loan; you should meet any such action with immediate and unqualified opposition; and, in order to prevent any public misapprehension involving injury to the loan occasioned by their conduct, you should at once write to the Times, pointing out that every shilling of these loans, and all loans forming the public debt of this country, have been borrowed and used for railway construction and reproductive public works; that our railways, at rates as low as any part of the world, are paying an interest of 5 per cent.; that their receipts are two and a half millions annually; that their collective value more than equals our total liabilities; that our estimated revenue for this year is eight and a half millions, of which two and a quarter millions is derived from taxation; that it is our conviction that our securities are as valuable as those of any portion of the Empire; and that it is our determination to do nothing which may cause them to be regarded as in any way inferior; that the progress of this Colony during the past few years has been unprecedented, and is daily manifest and increasing. These facts you will put without a moment's delay before the public through the Times. Inform me when this has been done. The minimum and date for commencement of accrued interest will not under any circumstances be changed.

NOTHING done by Syndicate has caused, or is likely to cause, any public misapprehension involving injury to loan; and being strongly advised that it might prejudice loan if I assumed this and wrote to the Times, I await further instructions before doing so. Success of loan is solely dependent on the state of the market and terms of issue, the security of our stock being unquestioned.

THE advice you have received should not have affected our specific instructions as to its being essential to point out through the Times, in a forcible letter, the value of our public securities. The Times itself thought it necessary to protest against the action of the Syndicate. The universal opinion of the Press of this country is that an instant exposure of this attempt should have been made by you; the delay in making it is unfortunate, but such a letter should be at once written, and announce that the loan is withdrawn for the present, owing to the uncertainty of preservation of peace.

No analogy between Egyptian international guaranteed loan and ours. Former will be issued by Rothschilds, and probably be offered at centres of guaranteed Powers. ## No. 45.

The Agent-General to The Colonial Secretary.

Sir, 5, Westminster Chambers, Westminster, S.W., 7 August, 1885.

On the 30th ultimo I received your coded telegram, which I interpreted as follows:—

“Sending by post minutes of Council expressing displeasure your action respecting loan, which will cause much embarrassment. Public expressing opinions that your advice and action was favouring speculators more than Government here.”

I felt pained and surprised at the receipt of such a communication, as I cannot conceive that any action of mine respecting the proposed loan of five million five hundred thousand pounds (£5,500,000) could have caused embarrassment in any way, or draw forth any public expression of opinion that my advice and action was favouring speculators here more than the Government of the Colony which I have the honor to represent.

I respectfully submit that I have taken no action not directed by the Government, and I have offered no advice other than that fully concurred in by the great financial institution of this country, viz., the Bank of England, with whom I was, by express direction of the Government of the Colony, instructed to consult. Of this concurrence I have the fullest proofs, as explained in my correspondence, which will have reached you in due course.

The imputation conveyed in your telegram, now under notice, applies therefore with more force to that institution than to myself, and I should have conceived that its high character and importance would have placed it beyond such a serious charge.

I trust, therefore, that on a review of the circumstances, the request conveyed in my telegram of the 30th July may have received the favourable consideration of the Government, and that the minute of the Council may have been recalled, pending the receipt of my explanatory letters, which, I am sure, will fully justify my own actions.

24th July, 1885.

I annex a copy of a letter which I had the honor of sending to the Colonial Treasurer on the 24th ultimo (prior to the receipt of your message under acknowledgment), which will fully explain my course of action in the matter of the proposed loan.

From it, and an examination of the telegraphic correspondence preceding, it must be seen that I am in no way at fault for the loan not having been issued at the time desired by the Colonial Treasurer.

The communications which passed between that gentleman and myself, on the subject of the “minimum” suggested by the Bank of England, establish that the Colonial Treasurer declined to approve of the advice so offered, and under his direction the issue of the loan was subsequently deferred.

Vide telegrams,
16th and 17th
July, 1885.

This fact was thereupon publicly announced, as instructed, and from that time no other instructions have reached me; but I have been asked by the Government why, if the Egyptian loan could be issued, that of our Colony could not also be issued, as the Treasurer was unable to see the difference in value between the two.

I accepted this as an expression of regret, on his part, that the loan could not be offered as originally projected, and I again conferred with the Governors of the Bank and their broker, Mr. Daniel, on the subject, submitting the purport of the Treasurer's telegram. Surprise was at once expressed that the difference of the two securities should not have been valued, and it was pronounced that the time was passed for the issue of the New South Wales loan, and that, in view of the public announcement that the issue was deferred for the present, no offer of it ought to be made until October next, as otherwise there would be a risk of injurious consequences. The Bank, as a fact, objected to an earlier issue than that date, out of regard to what they considered the financial interests of the Colony, and because a great institution like theirs could not run the risk of being associated with failure. The Bank was strengthened in this advice by the sudden scare of war between England and Russia, and which scare led the Colonial Treasurer to instruct me to defer the issue of the loan.

Under

Under these anxious circumstances I had no alternative but to communicate the Bank's decision to the Government, to whom it was then open to instruct me to further urge the Bank to proceed with the issue.

Instead of this (as a reference to the Government telegram of the 27th July will disclose), the Bank's advice was accepted that the issue should be deferred until October.

Following this message immediately was your telegram now under notice and acknowledgment.

I am painfully aware of the disadvantages under which I labour in answering charges such as those made in your telegram, in the restricted scope afforded by a letter; but, I respectfully submit, there, in effect is no action of mine in the matter except that which I had been instructed to take, and that there is no advice for the public to comment upon other than that which obtained the concurrence and adoption of the greatest financial institution of the world, and to whose counsel I was requested to resort.

I forward copies of telegrams that have passed between the Government and myself since my letter of the 24th ultimo, and also a copy of a letter from the Governor of the Bank of England justifying the advice they gave to your Government.

Trusting that my explanation may be satisfactory to the Government,—

I have, &c.,

SAUL SAMUEL.

[Confidential.]

27 July, 1885.

We are unable to perceive the difference in value between guaranteed Egyptian and our own loan, and we take exception to statement that Bank of England objects to bring out our loan before October; it is in our own discretion, and on our own responsibility exclusively, that loans are to be issued; and although, as to terms of issue, we should of course be guided by advice of Bank of England, we should never permit their objection to prevail against our own conclusion; this I mention for your future instruction. Advise me earliest day in October at which you think the loan should be floated; as the year will be so far advanced, it is most desirable that the issue should not be later than the first week in October.

The Bank of England to Sir Saul Samuel.

My dear Sir Saul Samuel,

Bank of England, 6 August, 1885.

I regret to hear that the Government of New South Wales hold you to blame for not having issued the £5,500,000 loan before this. I shall be prepared at any time to justify the advice that the Deputy-Governor and I urged upon you in the interest of the Colony of New South Wales, at the repeated interviews you had with us when you consulted us upon the issue of the loan; and I may also add that nothing has occurred since to induce us in any degree to alter the opinion we then expressed, viz., that in the interest of the Colony it was most desirable that the issue of the loan should be postponed.

I remain, &c.,

JAMES P. CURRIE.

No. 46.

The Colonial Secretary to The Agent-General.

My dear Samuel,

Colonial Secretary's Office, 6 August, 1885.

I sent you a telegram the other day and received your reply. (Copies enclosed.)

Of course I would not make in any way public the communications until we received your reply, nor even then unless some circumstances called it forth; but I think it is only fair to you that no time should be lost in placing you in a position to reply to the strictures of the Colonial Treasurer, as submitted to the Cabinet, under his minute of July 21st.

The Cabinet have the impression that on each occasion of bringing out a loan the difficulties have rather been magnified by you, and, in this last proposal, that your sympathies, and consequently your advice, have been rather with the speculators or holders of our last loan than with the Colony. As long as those persons still held in first hands a considerable amount of our previous loan it was quite natural that they should decry any attempt to put a fresh loan upon the market, but the very fact of their doing so should, in the opinion of the Cabinet, have been your opportunity for stepping forward boldly and showing that although, without explanation, the charge of over-borrowing might with some show of reason have been laid against the Colony, yet, with the explanation which you were able to furnish, the charge was entirely unfounded. For with just as much reason might the capital and debt of all the leading Railway Companies be put forward as showing that the indebtedness of England was attaining undue proportions. Had you done this on the day after the Stock Exchange objectors put forward their statement—the very day on which the Times, actuated solely by the love of fair play, found fault with their attempt to crush the loan—the Cabinet feels that the result would have been that the objectors would have at once withdrawn, and the loan floated successfully. It was no doubt unfortunate that within two or three days a panic ensued, but that panic was very short-lived, and before the day upon which our loan should have been floated had entirely passed away.

It would be a grievous mistake to permit those speculators to be the dictators to us of our policy in regard to loans. We quite admit the necessity of carrying their good feelings with us as far as we can, and we recognize the value of the services which it is in their power to confer by cordial co-operation; but we fear that the giving way to them by postponing the issue of our loan after it had been publicly announced will have the dangerous effect of causing them to assume a position to which they are not entitled, and to which no Colonial Ministry could submit.

It may be quite true that October is generally a better time to float a loan than July, but at the present time who can foretell the course of events between this and October. Some injudicious actions or words may kindle the torch of war and cause a monetary panic throughout the world, and thus render it impossible to float a loan at any price. Should such an untoward event unhappily occur, the blame and responsibility would fall not on those irresponsible speculators but upon us and upon you, who permitted yourself, in the advice you tendered to us, to be led, as the Cabinet thinks, by the interested views of those gentlemen who had their own interests rather than those of the Colony to look after.

I am, &c.,

ALEX. STUART.

[Enclosure.]

[Enclosure.]

Treasurer's Minute for Cabinet.

21 July, 1885.

The withdrawal of the Loan for £5,500,000 sterling.

I SUBMIT, for the consideration of the Cabinet, copies of the cable correspondence which has passed between the Agent-General in London and this Office, in reference to the floating of a new loan for £5,500,000, as authorized by the Governor and Executive, and I desire to offer a few remarks for the information of my hon. colleagues.

It will be observed that the first communication from this Office was dated 26th June, and the last from the Agent-General, advising the Government that he had stopped the issue of the loan, 16th July.

It will be seen that in all the Agent-General's cablegrams there has been a strong tendency to advise delay in issuing the loan. In his reply of 27th June to our message of 26th idem he says—"If you can wait until end of year and I could make known that no loan coming out at present, would have good effect." In his message of 1st July he states—"but so large amount following so quickly on last loan considered prejudicial." On the 2nd July, after meeting with Governors of Bank of England and brokers, the following was sent by the Agent-General:—"Money market favourable, but colonial stocks depressed; in consequence large amount of recent loans not yet placed. This likely to prejudice fresh loan. If deferred for some months, surplus stock probably be absorbed and delay prove beneficial. I can arrange for advance, &c."

On 9th July instructions to issue loan were sent in our message of that date, with request to cable suggested minimum for our approval before advertising.

Further delay occurred in fixing the minimum, the Agent-General (on the Bank of England's advice evidently) suggesting 92, with accrued interest from 1st April, tantamount to a present minimum of 91.

Finally, on 14th July, our minimum was fixed at 92, with interest from 1st July, and orders sent to issue at once. The Agent-General was instructed to meet the criticisms of the Standard by a counter statement "that the loan was for the rapid construction of railways and other reproductive works."

This was met by further argumentary cables, urging the minimum of 92, and interest from 1st April. A further cablegram of 14th July from the Agent-General informed us of the Times' comments of 14th, on action of stock-brokers, interested parties, &c.

To this a cable was promptly despatched, instructing the Agent-General how to act, and to write to the Times in answer to adverse criticisms, and specific orders for this action to be promptly taken. This cable was despatched because no action appeared to have been taken to refute the position assumed by the Standard.

To this cable a reply was received dated 16th July, that the Agent-General was strongly advised not to write to the Times, as it might be prejudicial to the loan if he assumed the action of the syndicate had caused any misapprehension involving injury to the loan. On the same day (16th July) I received a further cable—"That the Bank was ready to issue loan although contrary to their own judgment, but hesitate to do so under greatly altered conditions of market without giving you (the Government) the opportunity of reconsidering instructions, which, if carried out, may result in failure, which would be serious."

Late in the evening of the 16th a private message was shown me, which interpreted to some extent the message above given, and saying that the Russian complication had caused a panic on the London Stock Exchange and Paris Bourse, and at 10.30 p.m. (Sydney time) of the 16th July I wired as follows:—

"Reported panic on Stock Exchange. We will not attempt our loan in face of this news. Advise fully, but in your discretion to withdraw."

This message apparently reached London about noon on the 16th (London time), and was answered at 5 p.m. of the same day:—

"Glad to receive your telegram; delay most fortunate. Had tenders been opened to-day as originally contemplated failure certain. If no war, October will probably be good time. Nothing can be done until then; holidays."

The further cablegrams of 17th and 18th July refer to publishing in the Times a refuting letter, as ordered by our cable of 15th July.

The old issue of 3½ per cent. stock, which had been quoted on the London Stock Exchange at 94.10 prior to commencement of our negotiations for the new loan, appears to have fallen with marvellous rapidity, whether from the action of the stock-brokers or as the result of European complications I do not know, to 91; but to have recovered itself to 94 immediately the announcement was made by the Agent-General of the temporary suspending of the issue of the new loan, and I am now led to the belief that the Agent-General has permitted himself to be influenced in the tone of his cables to this Government by the stock-broking protesters.

In my cable of the 16th, advising the Agent-General of the reported panic of the Stock Exchange, &c., and giving him a discretion to withdraw the loan, it was clearly on the understanding that such panic really existed. Of this the Agent-General says not one word, but immediately announced the withdrawal of the loan. The panic, if it existed at all, and it was upon such existence the loan was countermanded, seems to have improved colonial 3½ per cent. stocks, which have since risen from 91 to 94.

I cannot help feeling that the Agent-General has seized upon the report of 16th July as an excuse for following out his foregone conclusion, namely,—to delay floating the loan.

In conclusion, I think that the Government has reason to complain, and if the Cabinet agrees with me, the Agent-General should be informed that his tardiness in not meeting criticisms in leading London papers on our loans, by prompt replies in the Times, from material always within his reach, is deemed by the Cabinet to be strongly prejudicial to the best interests of the Colony. And I take exception to his allowing himself to be influenced by outside advice, from whomsoever tendered, when it is in opposition to positive instructions such as those contained in the peremptory terms of our cable of 15th July, and in hesitating to insert such a letter as he was requested to publish, until further instructed.

And I complain further of the brevity of his messages, as to information in reference to the state of the money market, and the causes for its disturbance on the Stock Exchange, while his anxiety to withdraw the loan almost leads me to the opinion that it was a foregone conclusion in his mind that it would be a failure unless postponed.

In submitting this paper to the Cabinet, I accept the whole responsibility for withdrawing the loan in the face of a reported panic and with the information before me, but I suggest that the Agent-General be instructed in future to take a firmer stand than he appears to have taken in financial matters, and that he be informed that specific instructions in future must be promptly obeyed.

GEORGE R. DIBBS.

Sir,

5, Westminster Chambers, Westminster, S.W., 9 October, 1885.

In continuation of my letter of the 2nd instant, I have now the honor to report the successful issue of the loan of five and a half million pounds (£5,500,000), three and a half per cent. inscribed stock, on the 7th instant.

My two telegrams of that date, of which copies are annexed, will have informed you approximately of the result of the tenders, and my message of the morning of the 8th idem will have given you more detailed particulars.

I may mention, for your information, that a Syndicate tendered for a very large proportion of the loan at ninety-one pounds eleven shillings and sixpence (£91 11s. 6d.), and, it is estimated, will receive about twenty-six per cent. of the amount applied for. The average price obtained for the loan is ninety-one pounds thirteen shillings and fivepence (£91 13s. 5d.)

The number of tenders was about thirteen hundred, making application for twelve million three hundred and eighty thousand seven hundred pounds (£12,380,700); and I have no doubt that this large number

number of tenders was to a great extent due to the fact that I had taken measures to widely advertise the loan throughout the country.

The Agent-General to The Colonial Secretary.

Sir, 5, Westminster Chambers, Westminster, S.W., 9 October, 1885.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated the 6th August, No. 85/8,522, in which you inform me that you had sent me a telegram on the 29th July last, and received my reply of the 30th idem, copies of which you enclose. I observe that my telegram, to which you refer, is not correctly interpreted, as you will see by the copy annexed.

You state further, that of course you would not make in any way public the communication addressed to me until you received my reply, nor even then unless some circumstance called it forth; but yet, strange to say, the same mail that brought me your letter brought newspapers from South Australia, dated only six days later, in which appeared a telegraphic communication from Sydney stating that a strongly-worded minute had been sent to Sir Saul Samuel, censuring him for having withdrawn the loan.

Although you desire your communications should be considered "confidential"—as intimated to me in your telegraphic message of 7th August, sent to me through the Government of Victoria—after the publications which I have since seen in the various Sydney newspapers, the treating of these letters as "confidential" can of course have no force; and so far as I am concerned, I have no desire that there should be any confidence or secrecy either in the communications you have made to me or in mine to you. On the contrary, I court the fullest inquiry and publicity with regard to my own action in reference to the issue of the proposed loan in July last, and in relation to all matters connected with my administration of this Department. The reply in my letter of August the 7th should be a complete answer both to your letter and the Colonial Treasurer's Minute, but there are some points referred to which, in justice to myself and the interests of the Colony, I wish to comment upon; but before proceeding to do so, I desire to say, the sending to me the so-called censure, and its publication in the newspapers, before I had been afforded an opportunity of making any explanation, is without precedent, and most unfair to me; and this you admit by the statement to which I have already referred, namely, that of course you would not make in any way public the communications addressed to me until you received my reply, nor even then unless some circumstance called it forth, more particularly as I requested you by telegram of the 30th July "in all fairness to withhold minute of Council pending receipt of letter from me. Action justified by circumstances under advice of and approval of Bank of England, following instructions from Treasurer." Instead of this telegram being published, I find a semi-official notice in the Sydney papers stating that I had asked the Government to postpone any decision until they received my explanatory letters—which I am sure you will admit is not a correct interpretation of my telegram.

Before proceeding to deal with the Colonial Treasurer's minute, I will reply to your letter, which, although addressed to me privately, is of an official character, and bears the office No. 85/8522. In this letter you say that the Cabinet have the impression that, on each occasion of bringing out a loan, the difficulties have rather been magnified by me, and that in my last proposal my sympathies, and consequently my advice, have been rather with the speculators or holders of our last loan than with the Colony.

To the first charge I may say that I am at a loss to know whence the Cabinet has derived its information, as most certainly I have never magnified the difficulties of any loans that have been issued since I have been here, during which time six loans have been placed on the market, including the one of this month, amounting altogether to £21,000,000, in a period under five years. All of these loans have been wonderfully successful, realizing higher prices than any previous ones, or those of any other Colonies. I will refer to these loans seriatim. The first two, of £2,000,000 each, were issued during the time Mr. Watson was Colonial Treasurer, and I received the thanks of that gentleman for the success which had attended their issue. The next loan, of £3,000,000, was raised and issued under circumstances of the greatest difficulty—difficulty which it was impossible to magnify. It was contemplated by the Financial Agents of the Government, the Bank of New South Wales, that the loan would not float, and in financial circles its failure was predicted, and up to within half an hour of the opening of the tenders very few tenders had been sent in. It then became a matter of great anxiety to Mr. Larnach and myself lest the loan should fail. A conference was then held with the brokers of the Bank, who stated that unless the financial agents of the Government and myself would pledge ourselves that the whole of the loan would be taken, the brokers would not tender; but said, if they received an assurance that it would be all taken they would then tender for a considerable amount. In this emergency I proposed to the Bank that if they would tender through the brokers for £500,000 of the loan, I would incur the responsibility of guaranteeing them against loss. After some hesitation the Bank of New South Wales agreed to act upon my proposal, and the loan was floated at £100 0s. 8d. The amount of tenders when opened was found to be only £140,000 over the sum required, and the average being only 8d. in excess of the minimum. This success was achieved only by my having incurred the great responsibility of guaranteeing the Bank of New South Wales against loss. Had the Government refused to ratify my act, and any loss had been sustained, the result to me might have been positive ruin.

With regard to the second £3,000,000 loan, which followed only five months after its predecessor, the feeling of opposition to the loan was so strong on the Stock Exchange that the members gathered together all the prospectuses they could obtain, with a view to making a bonfire of them, and it was only through the influence of one broker that this was prevented. At the same time the Governor of the Bank of England (Mr. Gilliat) sent for Mr. Larnach and myself, and complained of the issue of another loan so soon after the last, and said it was calculated to damage the credit of the Colony. There is no doubt that Mr. Larnach and myself felt great anxiety lest this loan should fail, but fortunately a favourable change in the money market, and other circumstances combined which were not foreseen, made the loan an unexpected success.

In these two instances I think you will admit, from what I have stated, and which can be confirmed by reference to the correspondence, that the difficulties could not under any circumstances have been magnified.

Of the last £5,500,000 loan, it is not necessary that I should say more than that I was assisted with the advice of Mr. Knox, Mr. Larnach, Sir D. Cooper, and the Governors and brokers of the Bank of England,

England, and that I received the congratulations of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer upon the splendid success of the first 3½ per cent. loan, and his thanks for the admirable way in which the operation had been conducted. See Treasury letter, 22nd Oct. 1884. L120.

In spite, therefore, of what may have been said to the contrary, I feel I am justified in asserting most emphatically that every loan which has been raised since I have been here has been a great success, when the special circumstances under each issue are taken into consideration.

With regard to the statement that my sympathies, and consequently my advice, were rather with speculators or holders of our last loan than with the Colony, I give the statement a most positive denial; and I respectfully submit that it is most unjust that this charge should be made against me, when I acted under the advice of the Bank of England, by the express instruction of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer.

In relation to the Honorable Treasurer's minute, which I am glad to find is not a Minute of the Cabinet or Executive Council, as I was led to believe from your telegram of the 29th July last that it would be, I can only say that I feel convinced that had all the correspondence and telegrams that have passed between the Honorable Treasurer and myself on this subject been fully set forth in that document, it would have been seen that I am not open to any of the imputations conveyed therein. These telegrams have all been furnished to you; and I cannot help feeling that Mr. Dibbs would not have signed such a minute had he well considered all the circumstances attaching to the responsibility and difficulties of the issue of a large loan here, and realized the fact which is clearly shown in the correspondence, that under his instructions I consulted with and acted under the advice of the authorities of the Bank of England, and that every telegram sent relating to the issue of the loan was prepared and sent with the concurrence and approval of the Bank authorities.

I have refrained from going very fully into details in reply to the Honorable Treasurer's minute, as you have now all the correspondence before you, and the Government will be able to form their opinion thereon; but I would point out that the telegraphic correspondence will show that I was instructed by the Colonial Treasurer to consult with the Bank of England authorities, and that I did so, and that he, the Colonial Treasurer, was fully informed to this effect, and I took advice from no other source than that I was instructed to seek.

The Colonial Treasurer complains of the brevity of my messages as to information in reference to the state of the money market, and the causes for its disturbance on the Stock Exchange. It will be found that my telegrams were very full, and conveyed all the information necessary. At all events, I was not asked for more, and no complaint was ever made to me at the time that further particulars were expected. So far from my evincing any anxiety to withdraw the loan, it will be seen on reference to the telegraphic correspondence, that I frequently urged the necessity of prompt action, and if there were delay, it was occasioned by the Colonial Treasurer declining to accept the Bank of England's advice with regard to the minimum. Had the Colonial Treasurer accepted this advice the loan would have been issued, although contrary to the judgment of the Bank of England authorities.

The Colonial Treasurer states that I did not refer to the reported panic on the Stock Exchange of which he was advised by a private telegram on the 16th July. Although I had an interview late on the evening of the 15th July with the Bank of England authorities, I was not informed of any panic; but there was a scare existing, and this I reported in my telegram of that day, as follows:—

15 July, 1885.

RECEIVED telegram late this afternoon. Communicated to Bank. Shall have their decision to-morrow. Consols down one. Supposed unfavourable Russian news. Markets unsettled and sensitive. Quotations, 92, 93.

This is all that the Bank of England authorities thought it necessary that I should send, and on the following day I telegraphed—

16 July, 1885.

BANK ready to issue loan, although contrary to their own judgment, but hesitate to do so under greatly altered condition of market without giving you the opportunity for reconsidering instructions, which if carried out may result in failure, which would be serious.

The Colonial Treasurer states that he takes exception to my allowing myself to be influenced by outside advice, from whomsoever tendered, when it is in opposition to positive instructions. I respectfully submit that if this is to be a hard and fast rule, and that the Agent-General, in financial matters which are of such vast importance to the interests of the Colony, is not to be permitted to take the advice of those fully competent to advise him, but is to act upon the instructions, given perhaps under a want of knowledge of all the circumstances surrounding such a grave matter as the issue of a large loan, then serious injury to the Colony may ensue.

I do not feel that I am open to the charge of not meeting the criticism of the Press, but there may be, and indeed have been occasions when silence has been more advantageous than a newspaper controversy, in delicate financial transactions.

I have, &c.,
SAUL SAMUEL.

LOAN OF £5,500,000.

ISSUED ON 16TH INSTANT—CORRESPONDENCE AND CABLEGRAMS IN CONNECTION WITH.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be printed, 20 July, 1886.

No. 1.

The Under Secretary for Finance and Trade to The Agent-General for New South Wales, London.

[Confidential.]

Sir,

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 13 May, 1886.

I have the honor, by direction of the Colonial Treasurer, to inform you that it is the desire of the Government to place a fresh Loan on the London money market towards the end of the current year, or at an earlier date, should it be considered necessary to do so.

The unused Loan Acts up to this date, and now available for use, amount to the aggregate sum of £13,175,003. Against this amount the proposed borrowing would probably be 5½ millions, in the shape of "Inscribed Stock."

You would doubtless have been fully informed from time to time through the press, and more particularly by means of the Financial Statement made by the Colonial Treasurer on the 6th ultimo, of our present financial position, and of the Government proposals to meet the deficiency.

These proposals are now being urged by the Government through the Assembly, and the Treasurer anticipates that the whole, or the larger portion of them, will be carried, thus securing a probable large addition to the existing revenue.

Preparatory to any movement in the matter of the Loan, the Treasurer is desirous that you should give the subject your best consideration, and, after consultation with the Bank of England (such consultation being regarded as strictly private and confidential), he requests you will have the goodness to advise upon the following points, namely:—

- (1.) The practicability of floating 5½ millions of Inscribed Stock within the current year.
- (2.) The best time at which to announce the Loan.
- (3.) Whether it is desirable to raise the interest from 3½ to 4 per cent.
- (4.) Whether the Bank of England would be willing to advance upon the new Loan, and to what extent.

The Treasurer would be glad to have your reply at the earliest date—by letter, not by cable. In past Loan operations it appeared to be impossible, from some cause or other, to avoid premature publicity, a state of things which, it is considered, operated adversely to the Loan. On the present occasion, to avoid undue publicity, this early communication is made to you in writing; and it is expected that, by ordinary course of post, your reply will be received by the Government in sufficient time to influence its action.

I have, &c.,
G. EAGAR.

CABLEGRAMS.

No. 1.

Colonial Treasurer to Agent-General.

23 June, 1886.

REPLY fully by coded cablegram to Treasury letter, 13th May. Urgent. Issue of fresh Loan should be early in the month of October.

No. 2.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

23 June, 1886.

HAD consultation with Bank of England. Am to see them again. I gather the present time favourable, with exception of issue of fresh Loan. Would you authorize assurance not to issue fresh Loan within eighteen months of the time selected? No reason to think October unfavourable. Adhere to same interest as last time. Have no doubt that Bank of England will grant fair advances. Market price this day, 96½. Require immediate reply.

No. 3.

Colonial Treasurer to Agent-General.

24 June, 1886.

YOUR cablegram of 23rd received. Material point—can we place on the market our requirement of 5½ millions in one Loan, now or October? If so we might, in either case, consider as to the length of time between this and future Loans. Final answer, when advised result of further consultation with Bank of England.

No. 4.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

25 June, 1886.

AFTER further consultation with Bank of England, consider the present time favourable, if you will give assurance not to issue a fresh Loan for eighteen months. If you prefer October, Bank would make advance to a reasonable amount. This, subject to approval of Court [of Directors], as before. Elections may have disturbing effect.

No. 5.

Colonial Treasurer to Agent-General.

29 June, 1886.

DESIRE to be strengthened by the recommendation of Bank of England and yourself whether to operate just now or in October. No difficulty as to eighteen months assurance. If you jointly recommend present time, will authorize immediate action.

No. 6.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

30 June, 1886.

BANK of England and I consider the present time as preferable to October, and are willing to issue Loan immediately on guaranteeing eighteen months. Time to fix minimum. Payment of interest from 1st April. Cable message Government authority, and give directions for detailed particulars of Acts. May we give directions for assurance that Loan about to be issued will be expended on reproductive public works? Important, should be kept secret.

No. 7.

Colonial Treasurer to Agent-General.

1 July, 1886.

YOURS of the 30th received. What should be the "minimum"? Should it appear in prospectus? Terms of payment might be same as usual. Instructions will be forwarded early in the week.

No. 8.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

3 July, 1886.

"MINIMUM" will probably be 94. Must be in prospectus. Payment to be made same as usual. Immediate action of great importance. Time presses. Must have assurance for eighteen months, and for reproductive works.

No. 9.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

7 July, 1886.

No telegram yet. If Loan to be issued, prospectus should be brought out not later than Friday. Send full particulars and proper authority, if immediate action intended, as best time is slipping away. Holidays at hand.

No. 10.

Colonial Treasurer to Agent-General.

8 July, 1886.

GOVERNOR and Council have passed Order in Council, authorizing Bank of England, under your instructions, to place on the market immediately Loan of equal amount; same rate of interest and term as last Loan; payment of Loan spreading over same time as last Loan. Payment complete within five months. Minimum 94. Inform Bank that question of assurance has been reconsidered. Government policy regulates expenditure on reproductive public works within five millions per annum. Prospective expenditure principally for Railways. Can be regulated to make proceeds last until towards close of next year. On this explanation assurance for a definite time considered inexpedient and unnecessary. Loan under Act 48 Vic. No. 26. Necessary official documents by an early mail. Yours of 7th received.

No. 11.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

8 July, 1886.

LOAN will be announced to-morrow, in accordance with your instructions received to-day. The refusal of the assurance will undoubtedly militate against prices. Assurance required, not so much by Bank of England as by subscribers, for fear of further early issues. Explanation given too indefinite for publication. Urgently advise you give assurance eighteen months. How much of Act raised? Reply at once.

No. 12.

Agent-General to Colonial Treasurer.

CONFIDENTIAL—for your information. Measures now before Parliament, in various stages of progress—Stamps, Customs, Land and Income Tax—estimated to give addition of £590,000 to this year's revenue, and provide future additional annual income of very nearly one million. Net return on railway capital for 1885 reduced from 4.20 to 3.37 per cent., owing to late droughts, now at an end by copious rainfall, and to recent railway extensions into the interior, at present but partially productive.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND.
(SPECIAL REPORT OF AUDITOR-GENERAL ON WITHDRAWAL OF CERTAIN SUMS FROM.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be printed, 27 January, 1886.

The Auditor-General to The Speaker of the Legislative Assembly.

Sir,

Sydney, 27 January, 1886.

I have the honor to report specially, for the information of the Legislative Assembly, that sums to the amount of £275,000 have been withdrawn from the Consolidated Revenue Fund and placed to the credit of the Treasurer's Advance Account, in anticipation of the sanction of Parliament.

The transfers were made on the following dates, viz:—

On the 3rd November, 1885	...	...	...	...	£50,000
„ 2nd December, „	...	...	...	..	50,000
„ 30th „	...	...	...	..	50,000
„ 8th January, 1886 ...	...	...	...	..	50,000
„ 11th „ „ ...	...	...	...	..	75,000
					£275,000

A copy of the minute of the proceedings of the Governor in Council on the 3rd November, 1885, is enclosed, together with the Treasury minutes of even date, which set forth the circumstances under which the first sum of £50,000 was withdrawn from the Revenue, admittedly without legal sanction. Similar minutes have been forwarded to me respecting the withdrawals already specified, on the 2nd December and on the 8th instant, copies of which are also enclosed for the information of the Legislative Assembly.

It is presumed that minutes of a like tenor have been passed for the remaining sums quoted, but they have not yet been received here. Those minutes, however, can give no authority for the transfers made by the Treasury, inasmuch as those transfers do not come within the terms of the 18th section of the Audit Act of 1870. They have, besides, been made contrary to the provisions of the same Act, in sections 10 to 15, which were expressly framed to protect the Public Account from being operated upon for purposes outside the sanction of Parliament.

I have, &amp;c.,

EDWARD A. RENNIE,
Auditor-General.

Minute Paper for the Executive Council.

Subject—Transfer of £50,000 from Consolidated Revenue to Advance Account pending Parliamentary authority.

No. 130.

The Treasury, New South Wales, Sydney, 3 November, 1885.

THE Colonial Treasurer submits, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, a Treasury minute, dated this day, setting forth the desirability of transferring a sum of £50,000 (fifty thousand pounds) from the Consolidated Revenue to the Treasurer's Advance Account, so as to provide funds in the last-named account (which is now nearly exhausted) for the purpose of paying urgent claims of contractors and others, for work done or services rendered.

In view of the urgency of the case, the Treasurer requests the approval of His Excellency in Council for the course herein indicated.

GEORGE R. DIBBS.

The Executive Council advise that authority be granted for the transfer of the sum of £50,000 from Consolidated Revenue to Advance Account, pending Parliamentary sanction.—ALEX. C. BUDGE, Clerk of the Council. Approved.—A.L., 3/11/85. Min. 85/41, 3/11/85.—Con. rmed, 12/11/85.

Treasury Minute.

Payments of claims on account of Services the Votes for which have run out.

3 November, 1885.

IN consequence of the prorogation and subsequent dissolution of Parliament before any provision had been made for the supplementary expenditure of 1885, it now becomes necessary to make some arrangement for the payment of claims on account of Services (principally Public Works) the votes for which have been found insufficient, pending Parliamentary authority being obtained.

The Treasurer's Advance Account being nearly exhausted by previous charges of a similar nature to those above alluded to, I would suggest, as a convenient way of meeting the present difficulty, that a sum of £50,000 be transferred from the Consolidated Revenue Fund to the Trust Fund, as a temporary advance on account of the Treasurer's Advance Account. When this transfer is made, then the claims referred to can be paid, as they arise out of that Account. This arrangement will obviate the necessity of asking the nine Associated Banks to make advances on the personal guarantee of the Government, for which nine separate accounts would have to be opened.

As the Auditor-General could not grant a warrant for the transfer of the sum mentioned, it would be advisable to have it made under the special approval of the Executive Council, whose minute should be forwarded to that officer for his information.

JAMES THOMSON, C.A.

I concur in Mr. Thomson's suggestion.—G.E., 3/11/85. Submitted, 3/11/85. Approved.—
GEORGE R. DIBBS.

In view of the urgency of the case, the Treasurer recommends that the proposed transfer be approved.

3. You will place the large copy of the printed Regulations in some conspicuous position in your office, where the public can read it conveniently. You will retain the small copy for your own guidance, and study it carefully; and if there be any part of the Regulations, or of these instructions, which you do not understand, you will at once apply for further information to the Controller, Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, Sydney.

A deposit of one shilling or any number of shillings, or pounds and shillings, may be received. Copper coin need not be refused if of the value of one shilling.

4. You will learn from clause 2 of the Regulations that you may receive deposits of one shilling, or of any number of shillings or of pounds and shillings, from any depositor. You are not to understand from this clause that deposits of copper coin may not be made, but that every deposit must be of the value of one shilling, or of some number of shillings.

Deposits how to be received.—Declaration to be made and witnessed.—Money to be next taken.—Entry in depositor's book.—Entry in daily Savings Bank account.—No. of book and name of office to be entered on declaration.—Depositor to be informed that he is to expect the Postmaster-General's acknowledgment, and if necessary to report its non-receipt.

5. When a person applies to you to receive his first deposit for transmission to the Government Savings Bank, furnish him with the form of declaration required by clause 3 of the Regulations (Form S.B., No. 8), and direct him to read it. If he cannot read, you must read it to him. He must sign it, and his signature must be witnessed by yourself, or by some person known to you, or by a clergyman, or by a Justice of the Peace. If he cannot write he must affix his mark, and his mark must be witnessed. Next obtain the money intended to be deposited. Next take one of the numbered depositors' books referred to in clause 5 of the Regulations. Next enter in the book the Christian name, surname, address, and occupation of the depositor, the date of the receipt of the deposit, and its amount, sign your name against the entry, and affix an impression of your dated stamp in the place prepared for the same in the depositor's book. You will next enter the whole of the particulars of the deposit in the form of daily account supplied to you for that purpose (Form S.B., No. 2), and after satisfying yourself that you have made correct entries of every item, namely, the number of the depositor's book, the amount deposited, the Christian name, surname, address, and occupation of the depositor, you will insert on the form of declaration in the place indicated thereon the name of your office, and the number of the depositor's book, which you will copy from the book itself, and then deliver the book to the depositor, whom you must inform that in a few days he will receive an acknowledgment from the Postmaster General that the deposit has been entered in the books of the Government Savings Bank, and that if he does not receive that acknowledgment within ten days he must write to the Postmaster General and state that he has not received it. This course is enjoined in clause 5 of the Regulations.

Second and subsequent deposits.

6. On making every deposit after the first the depositor must bring his book with him, and you must enter in that book the correct amount of such deposit, with the date on which it is made, affix your signature against the entry, and affix in the proper place an impression of your dated stamp.

Entry in daily Savings Bank account.

7. You will enter the particulars of every deposit, as it is made, in your daily Savings Bank account as before; and in any case in which the previous deposits entered in the depositor's book were made at another post office, you will be careful to enter the name of that office, as well as the number of the book, in the proper column of the account.

Deposits may be received from trustees on joint account.—From minors under twenty-one years of age.—From women, whether married or single. Refer such depositors to clause 9 of Regulations.—From trustees of Friendly, Charitable, or Provident Societies legally established.—After reference to the Postmaster General who will give you the necessary instructions.

8. You may receive deposits—

- A.—From a trustee on behalf of another person, in the joint names of that person and the trustees. (See clause 7 of Regulations.) In such cases the declaration must be made by the trustee on the form specially provided; but the names of both parties must be entered in the depositor's book and in your daily Savings Bank account.
- B.—From persons under twenty-one years of age. (See clause 8 of Regulations.)
- C.—From women, whether married or single. (See clause 9 of Regulations, which clause you must recommend female depositors to read carefully.)
- D.—From the trustees of any Friendly, Charitable, or Provident Society, the rules of which have been duly certified. (See clause 10 of Regulations.) As it will not be in your power to ascertain whether the rules of any of these institutions have been duly certified, you must, upon a first application from the trustees of any one of them to be permitted to deposit, refer the applicants to the Postmaster General, from whom you will receive the necessary instruction and form of declaration.

Withdrawals.—If depositor cannot write he is to be identified.

9. Any depositor wishing to withdraw the whole or any part of his deposits, and applying to you for information as to the proper mode of effecting his object, must be supplied with one of the forms of notice of withdrawal (Form S.B., No. 4; see clause 16 of Regulations); but before supplying the form you will of course satisfy yourself, by inspection of the depositor's book, or otherwise, that the party applying is a depositor. You will instruct the depositor how to fill up the form, and impress on him the necessity of stating accurately on the form the name of the place where the first deposit entered in his book was made, and the number of that book. A few days after the receipt of the notice in Sydney a warrant for the amount to be withdrawn will be issued, and sent to the post office named thereon for payment. When payment is applied for by the depositor, you must compare it with the advice, and require the depositor to sign his name to the receipt at the foot of the warrant. You must then ask him for his depositor's book, and if you are satisfied that he is the party entitled to receive the amount, and the signature corresponds with that in the application previously made, you must pay the amount accordingly. If the depositor cannot write this comparison cannot be made, and you must then require him to bring some person known to you who can identify him as the person named in the warrant. In such a case the depositor's mark must be affixed to the receipt at the foot of the warrant, and must be witnessed by the person identifying him. If you have reason to think that the person applying is not entitled to receive the amount, you must refuse payment, and report the same to the Controller, Savings Bank Branch, General Post Office, Sydney,

Payment of warrants when depositor cannot attend in person.

10. Warrants can only be paid to the depositor in person, or to a person authorized by him in the Form S.B., No. 7, a copy of which you must supply if applied for. The order must be signed in the manner prescribed in class 17 of the Regulations, and when the warrant has been duly paid you must attach the order to it.

Warrant

Warrant to be stamped with the date of payment and entered in depositor's book.—Entry of paid warrants in daily Savings Bank account.

11. When you have paid the amount, stamp the warrant with your office stamp, enter the particulars in that portion of the depositor's book appropriated to withdrawals, giving the date of payment and the amount withdrawn; sign your name, and affix an impression of your dated office stamp in the proper place in the depositor's book. When this has been done, enter the warrant on the credit side of your daily Savings Bank account, giving in each column of that account the information required by the respective headings of those columns.

Transfer of deposit from Penny Savings Bank to the Post Office Savings Bank.

12. If any depositor in any Penny Savings Bank shall present to you his deposit book and claim repayment, you must supply him with a notice of withdrawal (Form S. B., No. 4*a*), and direct him to fill it up and forward it with his book (in a cover which will be supplied to you for the purpose), to the Postmaster General, Sydney, and inform him that he will obtain payment and a new Government Savings Bank deposit book if required, within ten days. If any depositor of a Penny Savings Bank wishes to make further deposits at your office, he must also be requested to forward his Penny Savings Bank deposit book to the Postmaster General, Sydney, and a new Government Savings Bank deposit book will be supplied to him within ten days. The necessary instructions will be forwarded to you, to enable you to enter the amount due to the above-described depositors in a Government Savings Bank deposit book, to be issued from your office.

Savings Bank account to be added up, and totals to be entered in daily money order account.—Paid warrants and declarations to be enclosed in Savings Bank account.—All to be sent up with daily money order account.

13. At the close of business you must carefully add up both sides of your Savings Bank account, and enter the respective totals in the places indicated on the account. You must then enter on your money order account, in the places marked for the purpose, in the form of money order daily account, the total number and total amount of Savings Bank deposits received by you during the day, and the total number and total amount of Savings Bank payments made by you during the day. You must add the total amount of Savings Bank deposits to the total amount of orders issued, and the total amount of Savings Bank payments to the total amount of orders paid, and these totals must also be entered in your money order cash book. You must then tie up the paid warrants and the declarations made by new depositors, and enclose them in the Savings Bank account, which must then be placed inside the daily money order account, and sent up with it in the ordinary envelope to the Money Order Office.

Surplus money to be remitted.

14. The balance of the moneys received and paid by you on Savings Bank account will thus have become part of the balance due from you on the money order account, and you must remit, as at present, any sums which may be in your possession in excess of your money order reserve.

Notice of no Savings Bank transactions.

15. Should no Savings Bank transactions take place at your office on any day, you will not be required to send up a form of account, but you will be required to enter in each of the places set apart for Savings Bank totals in the daily money order account the word nil.

When Savings Bank transactions occur, and no money order business.

16. Should any Savings Bank transactions have taken place during the day on which no money order transactions have taken place, you will be required to send up a money order account with the word nil written across that part of it which refers to money orders, and the totals of the Savings Bank transactions inserted in the part which refers to them.

17. The daily totals of the Savings Bank transactions are to be entered in places prepared in the new money order cash book now supplied to you.

Secrecy.

18. You are forbidden by the Government Savings Bank Act to give any information, except to the Postmaster General and the proper officers of the Post Office, as to the name of any depositor, or the sum deposited or withdrawn by him, and disobedience to this rule will incur the severe displeasure of the Postmaster General. You will also be liable to forfeit a penalty not exceeding £100 for an offence against, or a wilful neglect or omission to comply with, this or any other of the Regulations.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

FINANCIAL POSITION OF THE COLONY.

(PETITION FROM THOMAS WEARNE, CHAIRMAN OF PUBLIC MEETING, SYDNEY.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 5 February, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned, as Chairman of a Public Meeting, held at the Protestant Hall, on Tuesday, the 2nd February, 1886,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

That at a Public Meeting of the citizens, convened by the Chamber of Manufacturers, to consider the financial position of the Colony and the depressed state of trade and manufacturing industries, the following resolutions were unanimously agreed to :—

1st. That, in the opinion of this Meeting, the financial requirements of the Government, the claims of the industrial classes to continued employment, and the duty of the State to use its best efforts to open channels of employment to the rising generation, can be best met by the Legislative Assembly supporting only such Government as will adopt the policy of collecting a large portion of the fresh revenue required from a 10 per cent. ad valorem duty on such staple articles as can be in part produced here, so as to afford continued employment to men having families to support, and offer openings for admitting the rising generation into the ranks of industry.

2nd. That, in the opinion of this Meeting, the financial and industrial circumstances of New South Wales at this juncture imperatively demand that the Legislative Assembly should restrain any Government that may be in power from continuing the late extravagant expenditure of borrowed money; and, on the other hand, should induce such Government to borrow only sufficient funds to carry out the most necessary public works of a really productive character only.

3rd. That the foregoing resolutions be embodied in a Petition to the Legislative Assembly, and signed by the Chairman on behalf of the Meeting.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that your Honorable House will give the foregoing resolutions your favourable consideration.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

THOMAS WEARNE,
Chairman.

LAND TAX BILL (No. 2.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 12 August, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the landholders and others in the Hume Electorate.

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That a proposal is now before your Honorable House providing for the imposition of a tax upon the unimproved value of all lands in New South Wales to the extent of one half-penny in the pound on estates of over £1,000 in value per annum.

Your Petitioners desire to point out that this proposal will operate as a tax upon the energy, industry, and perseverance of the inhabitants of the Colony.

That landholders are already specially taxed as such under "The Diseases in Sheep Act," "The Rabbit Act," and "The Pastures Act," while the Local Government Bill, which will doubtless ere long become law, will be an additional tax upon landholders exclusively.

That the imposition of this tax will necessitate the appointment of a large number of officers, causing its collection to absorb a large percentage of the income from this source, and the Civil Service is already too large; and the annual expenditure in this way is capable of being very materially reduced.

That, as it is acknowledged that the taxation now sought to be imposed for the reduction of the deficit will only be required for a limited period, we would suggest the imposition of taxation through the Custom-house, as entailing no extra expense in collecting, and being more acceptable to the inhabitants of the Colony generally.

Your Petitioners therefore respectfully pray your Honorable House not to pass the proposed Land tax into law, and we, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be printed, 15 June, 1886.

FRIDAY, 21 MAY, 1886.

- (6.) Ad valorem Duty:—Mr. James Henry Young asked the Colonial Treasurer,—Has he any objection to lay upon the Table of this House a Return showing,—
- (1.) The declared value of imports on which ad valorem duty was collected during each year from 1865 to 1872 inclusive?
  - (2.) The amount of drawback claimed and paid on goods subject to such duty?
  - (3.) The declared value of goods, not produced in the Colony, which were exported during each year from 1860 to 1885 inclusive?—

Sir Patrick Jennings answered,—I have no objection to lay the Return upon the Table. It will, however, take some time to prepare it.

PETITION FROM THOMAS CADDY IN FAVOUR OF DUTY ON BOOT AND SADDLERY MATERIALS.

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 30 March, 1886.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned for and on behalf of fellow Citizens following the occupation of bootmakers and saddlers, who, in public meeting assembled, and held in the City Town Hall, Sydney, on the twenty-second day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH,—

That your Petitioners pray your Honorable House to take into consideration and recognise our just claims for continued employment for ourselves and the rising generation, whereby we may be enabled by our industry honestly to support our homes and those dependent on our labours, and usefully to devote our lives to the welfare and interests of our country.

Your Petitioners very earnestly and seriously submit that, in their opinion, the depression now existing in the boot and saddlery trades, which is due to the unjust practices of the importers, requires the immediate attention of the Government, and can best be remedied by the imposition of a twenty per cent. duty on all goods imported into this Colony of our said industries.

Your Petitioners, therefore, pray your Honorable House to take the foregoing into your consideration, and take such steps as will give permanent relief and prosperity to the trades of your Petitioners.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

THOS. CADDY,
Chairman.

(PETITION IN FAVOUR OF PROPOSED ALTERATIONS IN—ELECTORS OF THE HUME.)

---

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 23 June, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned Electors of the Hume Electorate,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

That various modes of taxation have been placed before you by the Honorable the Treasurer, having for their object an increased revenue, and while we heartily agree with the proposal to impose ad valorem duties and to increase the number of articles subject to specific duty, we would respectfully suggest the following as sources of revenue with comparatively little expense in collecting, and their imposition, we feel assured, would be more acceptable to the majority of the electors than direct taxation :—

1. That, in order to reach the wealthy classes and those who live in affluence, a special list of ad valorem duties be imposed of 25 per cent., to include musical instruments, jewellery, silks, satins, and other articles of luxury.
2. That a special Income Tax be imposed of at least 6d. in the pound upon all incomes received by absentees from Colonial investments of whatever nature. We would respectfully point out that non-residents whose income may be derived from bank shares, debentures, and securities, virtually escape taxation, while they share in the benefits of Government, contributing nothing in return.
3. That an excise duty of 6d. per gallon be imposed on all beer and other malt liquors brewed in the Colony. We desire respectfully to urge that as imported beer is subject to duty, the absence of a tax on beer brewed in the Colony is virtually protection to the brewers, which is undesirable.
4. That the duty on spirits be increased to 15s. per gallon. We would urge regarding this proposal that as additional revenue is required and taxation generally is increased, that consumers of spirits should contribute increasingly in common with others.
5. That agricultural products and live stock be added to the list of articles liable to fixed duties. Your Petitioners feel that they are under great disadvantage owing to the Victorian import duty on grain and live stock, which are introduced to this Colony free. We are thus unable to trade with them on equal terms. The great distance from Sydney of the grain-producing land in the Colony encourages the importation of wheat and flour from California and other places, which they can land in our ports as cheaply as we can by road or rail.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that you will consider the foregoing suggestions worthy of your consideration, and trust that you will in your wisdom see fit to include them in the tariff proposals now before your Honorable House ; and your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 10 August, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and the Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the Residents of Leichhardt and Petersham,—

SHOWETH:—

That your Petitioners did assemble in public meeting at the Albert Hall, Parramatta Road, on the 4th day of August, 1886, and did pass the following resolutions, viz.:—

1. That this meeting is of opinion that a Protective Policy would be conducive to the general welfare and development of this Colony.
2. That taking into consideration the depressed condition of the manufacturing industries of this Colony it is desirable, in order to promote and encourage native industries, that a duty of 10 to 15 per cent. should be imposed upon all imported goods that can be manufactured in the Colony.
3. That the foregoing resolution be signed by the Chairman, and placed in the hands of S. H. Hyam, Esquire, M.L.A., for presentation to Parliament.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable Assembly will take such measures in the premises as in your wisdom shall seem meet.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 7 July, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Colony of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

We, your Petitioners, residents of Moama and district, desire to bring under your notice the undermentioned resolutions, unanimously carried by a public assemblage,—

Resolved, on the motion of Mr. John Lewis, seconded by Mr. D. M'Laren,—“That the principle affirmed in the proposals of the Government, to impose ad valorem duties of 5 per centum is a just and equitable one, and necessitated by the special circumstances of the Colony.”

Resolved, on the motion of Mr. J. Carlyon, seconded by Mr. G. Dorward,—“That the Members for the Murray Electorate be requested to assist the Government in passing a Bill for the imposition of a 5 per centum ad valorem duty.”

Resolved, on the motion of Mr. E. Homan, seconded by Mr. J. Laurence,—“That the foregoing resolutions be signed by the Chairman, and transmitted to the Members for the District, for presentation to the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales.”

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House will take the several matters herein referred to into your serious consideration, and grant relief as therein expressed.

And your Petitioners will, as in duty bound, for ever pray, &c.

Signed on behalf of Petitioners, this 28th day of June, 1886.

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 25 May, 1886.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the undersigned Merchants, Traders, Artisans, and others. .

Your Petitioners have perused with feelings of apprehension and alarm the alterations and amendments proposed by the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer in the Tariff, more especially that portion relating to the imposition of ad valorem duties.

Your Petitioners submit to your Honorable House that the measures proposed will tend not only to fetter and hamper commerce, but also to obstruct and destroy the large intercolonial trade of this Colony.

Your Petitioners would also point out—

1. That imposing duties on a large number of minor articles hitherto on the free list, and which can only be productive of a very small amount of revenue, is opposed to, and is destructive of, the hitherto free fiscal policy of the country.
2. That a large number of the proposed increased specific duties being protective in their incidence, are opposed to the avowed free trade policy of the Government, as indicated by the Honorable Treasurer in his Financial Statement, and are not likely to produce the amount of revenue estimated to be derived therefrom.

Your Petitioners therefore respectfully entreat your Honorable House to devise some other scheme for meeting the present deficit in the Public Accounts.

And your Petitioners will ever pray.

The Petition of the undersigned producers, traders, artisans, and others,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

1. That for some years past the public expenditure has largely and continually increased; and that in many instances, as your Petitioners believe, improvident appropriations of revenue have been sanctioned which the circumstances of the country did not justify.

2. That your Petitioners respectfully urge that material reductions in the present excessive expenditure should be made before new burdens of taxation are imposed upon the people.

3. That if new burdens of taxation are absolutely necessary to meet the just exigencies of the State, your Petitioners respectfully submit that additional revenue should be obtained by a well-considered system of direct taxation upon property.

4. That, in any case, the imposition of new Customs duties which would reverse the fiscal policy under which this country has prospered for many years past would be a public misfortune, and could not fail to disturb the welfare of all classes of the community.

5. HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

1. That for many years past the public expenditure has been largely and continually increased ; and that in many instances, as your Petitioners believe, improvident appropriations of revenue have been sanctioned which the circumstances of the country did not justify.

2. That your Petitioners respectfully urge that material reductions in the present excessive expenditure should be made before any new burdens of taxation are imposed upon the people.

3. That if new burdens of taxation are absolutely necessary to meet the just exigencies of the State, your Petitioners respectfully submit that additional revenue should be obtained by a well-considered system of direct taxation upon property.

4. That, in any case, the imposition of new Customs duties which would reverse the fiscal policy under which the country has prospered for many years past would be a public misfortune, and could not fail to disturb the welfare of all classes of the community.

5. Your Petitioners therefore pray that your Honorable House will take the foregoing premises into favourable consideration, and grant such relief as in your wisdom may seem expedient and just ; and especially your Petitioners pray that your Honorable House will not pass any Bill extending the present Customs Tariff of the Colony.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(PETITION FROM GEORGE DAVIES, HONORARY GENERAL SECRETARY OF THE NEW SOUTH WALES FARMERS' UNION.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 13 April, 1886.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Farmers and Producers of New South Wales,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH:—

That your Petitioners are crippled in their industry, owing to other Colonies and Countries placing a heavy impost on our productions, which, to all intents and purposes, shuts them out from a market for their surplus products, whilst everything of the class that they produce is admitted into this Colony free of duty.

That your Petitioners view the financial policy of your Government with alarm, inasmuch that whilst agriculturalists are called upon to contribute their quota to the general taxation, it offers them nothing in return. Other industries, are conserved, theirs is neglected; and notwithstanding that nearly everything they use is subject to taxation, all that they produce is placed on the free list.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House will take these premises into your earnest consideration, and, with the view of assisting your Petitioners, that you request your Government to impose a duty upon all agricultural products imported into New South Wales, from any country or Colony which taxes ours.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

(PETITION AGAINST PROPOSED ALTERATIONS IN—BATHURST FARMERS' UNION AND OTHERS.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 29 July, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The Petition of the Members of the Bathurst Farmers' Union and others directly and indirectly interested in the agricultural industry,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

1. That your Petitioners comprise a very large proportion of the settled population of the Bathurst district, and have invested a large amount of capital and labour in the development of the agricultural industry in the district.

2. That for some years past, owing to continued droughts and the want of systematic irrigation, the agricultural industry has suffered most severely, and this coupled with the fact that agricultural produce from foreign ports, and having the advantage of water carriage, is permitted to compete duty free with Colonial produce sent by rail to Sydney, has reduced the industry to the verge of ruin.

3. That your Petitioners find with increased alarm that the present Ministry are endeavouring to pass through your Honorable House a series of taxes which will press most unfairly on the agricultural industry,—(a) by imposing ad valorem duties on all articles largely consumed by agriculturists, as tools of trade and household necessities; (b) by income tax; (c) by land tax,—while the produce of their own industry is left to compete with the untaxed surplus produce of other countries, such countries offering no reciprocal advantage to the agricultural producers of New South Wales.

4. That unless relief is afforded to the agriculturists of New South Wales by the imposition of duties on all imported farm produce a considerable area of agricultural land will be thrown out of tillage, and very many agricultural laborers will be thrown out of employment.

5. That by the proposed scheme of Government taxation those following the industry of agriculture are doubly taxed by having to pay increased taxation on all they consume, and being compelled to compete with their own produce with the untaxed sea-borne surplus produce of all other countries.

6. That the impost of moderate duties will very slightly affect the general public of this Colony as consumers, while on the other hand it will afford great advantages to the Colony generally by encouraging increased area of tillage, and thereby give employment for much increased labour to many now unemployed or engaged on Government relief works.

That for the reasons above stated your Petitioners pray that your Honorable House will not consent to any ad valorem duties on imports of any kind unless imported farm produce be included.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c.

1. That, in the judgment of your Petitioners, the time has fully arrived for the levying an “import tax” on agricultural produce, and the protection of native industries in general.

2. Your humble Petitioners see with alarm the neighbouring Colonies and other countries daily glutting our market with their produce and manufactures.

3. Your humble Petitioners believe that, with our vast natural resources, we should in a short time, had we fair protection, not only be self-supporting but a great export Colony.

4. That with this view, your humble Petitioners are strongly of opinion it would be proper and prudent to include agricultural produce as articles for taxation.

The Honorable the Speaker and the Honorable Members of the House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled:—

The Petition of undersigned Fruit-growers in the Colony of New South Wales,—

HUMBLY SHOWETH:—

1. That your Petitioners cultivate large quantities of peaches, apples, quinces, and plums, as a means of livelihood.

2. That the outlet for this fruit is dependent to a large extent upon the jam factories established in this Colony, it happening at particular seasons that without this outlet very large quantities of fruit would be absolutely wasted.

3. That your Petitioners, on account of the climate of New South Wales, cannot cultivate such fruits as raspberries, black currants, &c., in large or payable quantities.

4. That your Petitioners are aware that, to obtain the requisite assortment of jams, the manufacturers have to import into New South Wales the kinds above mentioned not grown by your Petitioners.

5. That your Petitioners view with alarm the proposal to levy a duty of one penny per pound upon pulp fruit, which duty only affecting the importation of raspberries, black currants, &c., by the jam manufacturers in this Colony, will, by preventing the carrying on profitably of this industry, materially injure the interests of your Petitioners, by depriving them to a very large extent of the market for their goods.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House will refrain from levying the proposed duty of one penny per pound upon pulp fruit.

HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

That at a Public Meeting, convened to consider the Tariff proposed by the Government, the following resolutions were, by large majorities, agreed to :—

1. That the Customs proposals of the Government, are inimical to the best interests of the Colony, and should not be proceeded with.
2. That a well regulated system of retrenchment should be carried out in the whole Government

3. That the above propositions be included in a Petition, and signed by the Chairman, on behalf of

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 20 April, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales.
The Petition of the residents of Orange, in public meeting assembled, on the 17th day of April, 1886.

Whereas it is their opinion that the tariff proposals now before your Honorable House are ruinous to the agriculturists of this Colony, inasmuch as that farmers by them are additionally taxed, whilst other colonies and countries are allowed to flood our markets with agricultural produce admitted duty free, they humbly request that an equitable tariff duty be imposed on such imported agricultural produce.

And further, that the said tariff proposals are injurious and detrimental to the vital interests of the industrial classes of New South Wales, because duties are to be imposed upon raw materials and articles that cannot be produced in the Colony, whilst manufactures and goods the like of which can be locally made are admitted duty free, to the detriment of colonial labour and industry. Therefore no tariff which does not stimulate colonial industry by a protective tendency is acceptable to the people.

Your memorialists most respectfully pray the acceptance of these propositions by your Honorable House, and feel in duty bound to pray.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly.

The Petition of the undersigned, Chairman of a Public Meeting of the Citizens of Sydney,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

1. That your Petitioners, while willing to bear any new burdens of taxation which the exigencies of the State may justly require, at the same time entertain serious apprehensions that much injury will be done to the commerce of the country, and that all classes of the community will suffer, if the alterations and extensions of the Customs Tariff submitted to your Honorable House should be passed into law.

2. That, in justice to the taxpayers, the public expenditure should be reduced to the strictest limits of economy before new taxes are imposed upon either income or property, though in the judgment of your Petitioners any new taxes unavoidably necessary should be of a direct character.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House will take the foregoing premises into favourable consideration, and grant such relief as may seem to your wisdom fit and adequate; and especially, your Petitioners humbly pray that your Honorable House will not pass any Act extending the Customs Tariff of the Colony.

To the Honorable the Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled:—

The Petition of the undersigned, John Black, Mayor, and Chairman of Public Meeting held at Molong,—

SHOWETH:—

That the following resolutions were duly proposed, seconded, and carried unanimously, at a Public Meeting, convened by advertisement, and held in the School of Arts, at Molong, on Saturday, the eighth day of May instant, viz. :—

First.—That this meeting is of opinion that the ill-arranged tariff is detrimental to the best interests of the agricultural and industrial classes in the Colony, inasmuch as it permits and affords facilities for the flooding of our markets with foreign produce and crushes our industries, by taxing raw material while it admits manufactured articles free.

Second.—That this meeting is of opinion that a judiciously arranged system of protection is the only remedy for the present general depression of the Colony.

Third.—That the foregoing resolutions be embodied in a Petition for presentation to Parliament, and signed by the Chairman on behalf of this Meeting.

That, in accordance with the foregoing resolutions, your Petitioner has the honor to submit such resolutions to the favourable consideration of your Honorable House, and to pray that such steps may be taken as may be deemed most advisable in the wisdom of your Honorable House to meet the premises of the case.

To the Honorable the Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of the undersigned Residents in the Murrumbidgee Electorate,—

Believing that the taxation in this Colony falls unduly on the poor man, we most respectfully solicit your Honorable House to remove the burden from his shoulders and place it where it will be least felt, that is, upon the shoulders of the rich. Past legislation has permitted a few individuals to appropriate to themselves the chief source of all wealth—the best lands of the Colony. These land-owners are maintained in peaceful possession of their enormous acquisitions by a Government to whose support they do not contribute their fair share. We would therefore humbly pray your Honorable House to tax all city, suburban, and country lands according to their respective rent values, by which means an ample revenue for all State purposes can easily be procured, while tea, coffee, sugar, rice, and other necessaries of life could be admitted duty free, and all necessity for further alienation of land for revenue purposes would be avoided.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of the Colony of New South Wales, this Petition—

HUMBLY SHOWETH :—

That your Petitioners are engaged in the publishing, printing, lithographing, bookbinding, engraving, and other kindred trades.

That the present Tariff is inimical to their interests, and presses heavily upon them.

That the following duties your Petitioners would desire to have removed and placed upon the free list, as the items mentioned are largely used by them and give employment to a number of workmen together with costly plant :—

Writing paper, flat and uncut.

Printing paper.

Pasteboard, cardboard, strawboard, and millboard.

That your Petitioners would desire the following items removed from the 1d. per lb. rate, and placed upon the ad valorem list :—

Account books, advertising matter, labels of all kinds, cards, circulars, posters, almanacs, and notices ;

Printed or lithographed matter of all kinds, excepting books or newspapers intended for reading.

That the neighbouring Colonies recognize the foregoing principle in their Tariffs, and, by placing the raw material on the free list, and the manufactured lines, as specified, on the ad valorem, we are in the position of equality with them for the purposes of trade.

That otherwise we will suffer considerable loss, as costly plant has been imported, relying on the reading of the Tariff as interpreted for the last fourteen years.

That the operation of the present Tariff will cripple profitable working, and cause work and workmen to be removed to a more favourable locality.

That what is wanted by your Petitioners would not interfere with present ruling prices or injure any known interest.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Honorable House will take the premises into your favourable consideration, and grant such relief as may seem best to your Honorable House.

That your Petitioners represent 13,000 members of the Manchester Unity, resident in New contributes to a very material extent towards placing (in the hour of need) a large number of persons above the demands of either individual or State charity.That your Petitioners view with feelings of alarm the proposal of the present Government of New South Wales to impose an enormous duty on medicines imported into the Colony (which have hitherto been exempt from Customs levies) inasmuch as should such proposal become law it will entail a very serious increase in the expenditure of the said Manchester Unity, necessitating an entire reconstruction

(PETITION FROM GEORGE PEACOCK.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 13 May, 1886.

To the Honorable the Speaker and to the Honorable the Members of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament assembled.

The humble Petition of George Peacock, of Hobart, in the Colony of Tasmania, and of Sydney, in the Colony of New South Wales, jam and preserve manufacturer and importer,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH :—

1. That your Petitioner carries on a large business as a jam and preserve manufacturer in the city of Sydney, in this Colony, and has there fitted up extensive manufacturing premises with costly machinery, and all usual and necessary appliances.

2. That the said business has been in operation in this city since the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

3. That owing principally to the fact that the quantity and variety of native-grown fruits in this Colony is insufficient and unsuitable for the particular business carried on by your Petitioner, he has been accustomed since the establishment of his said business in this Colony to import such fruits as gooseberries, strawberries, raspberries, black and red currants, and occasionally plums, from the neighbouring Colony of Tasmania, for the purpose of converting same into jams.

4. That in or about the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, your Petitioner, having returned to Tasmania from a voyage to England, then for the first time in these Colonies introduced a system largely used on the continent and in England, for the conveyance of green fruit intended for jam-making over long distances, and for lessening the bulk of same whilst in transit, and affording greater protection against the immediate decay to which whole fruits loosely packed in heaps or large quantities are liable.

5. That the system so used consists of taking the green fruit plucked from the tree and placing same in "boiling-pans" at once without the addition of water (except occasionally with hard fruits, and then only in a very small quantity—sufficient to prevent the pan from burning and for no other purpose) or sugar, or any other article or preserving substance. The fruit is then brought to the boiling point, and at once removed from the pans and placed in large tins or casks and closed against contact with the air. In this state the boiled fruit is technically known as "pulp fruit," and in that condition is not fit, nor is it used for, any purpose or for any commercial use other than that of being made into jam. The pulp fruit is then shipped from Tasmania and landed at Sydney, where the tins and casks are opened on arrival at the manufactory, and thereupon manufactured into jam. The process employed in so manufacturing the "pulp fruit" into jam is in every respect the same, and in no way different, from the process employed in converting the green fruit plucked from the tree into jam. The same boiling is necessary and the same quantity of sugar is used as in the case of fruit fresh plucked from the tree.

6. Upon the first introduction into this Colony of pulp fruit for the purpose of manufacturing it into jam, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and for some time afterwards, the article was admitted free of import duty at the Customs until representations were made by other jam manufacturers in Hobart to the then Colonial Treasurer of this Colony, that the pulp was a dutiable article, and was being admitted free, when an import duty of one penny per pound was levied upon a shipment of the pulp fruit under the one hundred and thirty-third clause of the Customs Regulation Act, 42 Victoria, No. 19. Your Petitioner paid the duty thereon under protest, and upon appealing to the then Colonial Treasurer, the Honorable James Watson, and after a searching investigation into the nature of the article, including an analytical examination which proved the absence of any preserving substance, the duty was refunded, and on the thirty-first day of July, 1882, a Treasury order was issued in respect of the said article in the following terms :—"Fruits green, raspberry, black and red currant, and strawberry pulp, boiled without the addition of water, sugar, or any other article, and packed in tins containing not less than 8 gallons, free, T.O., 9019—31/7/82."

7. That from that time until the third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, the said article was admitted free of duty to this Colony ; but that on the fourth day of October the present Collector of Customs, by order of the then Colonial Treasurer, issued a notice rescinding the Treasury Order above mentioned from and after the third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

8. That on the seventeenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, your Petitioner received a shipment of fourteen thousand pounds of raspberry pulp, valued at one hundred and twenty pounds sterling, in tins containing not less than eight gallons, on which a duty of one penny per pound was levied, amounting to fifty-eight pounds six shillings and eight pence; and also two thousand one hundred and thirty-nine pounds of gooseberry pulp, contained in seven casks, and valued at twenty-three pounds sterling, on which a duty of one penny per pound was levied, amounting to eight pounds eighteen shillings and three pence.

9. That your Petitioner applied to the Treasury to be informed under what head the duty was demanded, and was informed by letter from the Treasury that the duty was so levied under the head of preserves.

10. That your Petitioner paid the said duty under protest, and appealed to the Commissioners of Customs by whom an inquiry was held, at which the Collector of Customs attended and evidence taken and a decision given that the article was not jam or preserve and was not liable to duty under the tariff.

11. That immediately after the decision of the Commissioners of Customs had been given a notice or order was issued by the Hon. the Colonial Treasurer imposing a duty of one penny per pound on pulp fruit under section one hundred and thirty-three of the Customs Regulation Act.

12. On the twenty-eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, after the issuing of the above notice, your Petitioner received a shipment of pulp fruit at Sydney, packed in tins and casks, containing not less than eight gallons and consisting of seven thousand two hundred and eighty-five pounds of pulp, of the value of sixty pounds sterling, on which a duty of one penny per pound was levied, amounting to thirty pounds seven shillings and one penny; and on the first day of December following your Petitioner received a further shipment of eleven thousand eight hundred and thirty-six pounds of pulp, of the value of one hundred pounds sterling, on which a duty of one penny per pound was levied, amounting to forty-nine pounds six shillings and four pence, and your Petitioner paid the duty in each case under protest.

13. That your Petitioner thereupon in accordance with the provisions of the Customs Regulation Act commenced proceedings in the Supreme Court of this Colony against the Collector of Customs for the recovery of the respective amounts so paid under protest.

14. That the said action was tried on the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, before his Honor Mr. Justice Innes, and a jury of four persons, at Sydney, and a verdict returned in your Petitioner's favor, the jury finding specially, in answer to a question put by his Honor, that the article on which the duty had been levied was not jam or preserve, but was the raw material.

15. That green fruits which are the raw material in jam-making have always, as far as your Petitioner is aware, been admitted into this Colony free of duty according to the tariff, yet about the twentieth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, the then Colonial Treasurer, the Honorable George Richard Dibbs, inspected at the Grafton Wharf some samples of fresh raspberries in their natural state belonging respectively to Messrs. Floyd, Turner, and your Petitioner, imported from Tasmania, and thereupon issued instructions to levy a duty upon them of one penny per pound, which was accordingly done, and the duty so imposed was paid by your Petitioner under protest, upon the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, amounting to twenty-eight pounds seven shillings, and the fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, amounting to twenty-one pounds and ten pence, which duty has not been refunded your Petitioner.

16. That your Petitioner now views with alarm the fact that the fiscal proposals of the present Government include a definite duty of one penny per pound on all pulp fruit imported into this Colony, inasmuch as such a proposal if carried into effect will have the effect of practically closing the large and important industry carried on by your Petitioner in this Colony, and sacrificing his manufactory, machinery, and appliances, and throwing a large number of workmen out of employment.

17. That the relative cost of jam manufactured in this Colony under such a tariff, compared with jam manufactured in Tasmania, is shown in the following table:—

Jam manufactured in New South Wales.						£	s.	d.	£	s.	d.
One ton of pulp at 1d.	...	...	...	...	...	9	6	8
One ton sugar, at 100/	...	...	...	...	...	5	0	0
25 per cent. lost during evaporation in manufacture	...	...				3	11	8
									£17	18	4
Jam manufactured in Tasmania.
Two tons of jam cost in duty	...	...	...	...	...	18	13	4
Less drawback allowed on sugar duty by Tasmanian Government	...	...	...	...	...	6	0	0
									£12	13	4
Thus leaving a difference in favor of the Tasmanian article of...									£5	5	0

18. That your Petitioner is already a large contributor to the revenue of this Colony in the shape of duty at the rate of five pounds sterling per ton on sugar, on which no drawback is allowed as in Tasmania, and of which article one ton is required to every ton of fruit pulp in the process of jam manufacture.

Your Petitioner humbly submits that pulp fruit is really only green fruit, which is now on the free list, and on which no duty is proposed to be levied.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that your honorable House will not consent to the imposition of a duty thereon; and further that he, or Counsel learned in the law, on his behalf, should be heard at the Bar of your Honorable House, as to the true character of this article, and to represent the circumstances under which the proposed duty will be levied, and the mischief which will be caused thereby to your Petitioner and others, and generally on behalf of your Petitioner's case.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever humbly pray, &c.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

TARIFF.

(PETITION FROM WILLIAM PEACOCK.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 14 September, 1886.

The Honorable the Speaker and the Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly.

The Petition of the undersigned, a manufacturer in the Colony of New South Wales,—

RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That in February, 1885, under the Customs' Tariff Act of New South Wales, green fruit was allowed to be imported into this Colony, free of duty.

That in February, 1885, the Honorable G. R. Dibbs, as Colonial Treasurer, being head of the Customs' Department, visited the Grafton wharf with the Collector of Customs and having ascertained from the landing-waiter, in charge of that wharf, that certain fruit, then landing from the steamship "Flora" from Hobart, was green fruit, ordered the said landing-waiter to allow none to leave the wharf till duty at the rate of one penny per lb. had been paid.

That certain casks of green fruit imported respectively by Messrs. Griffiths, Floyd, Turner, and Peacock, solely for use for manufacturing into jam in Sydney (being raspberries, strawberries, and currants) were so levied upon at the rate of one penny per lb. duty.

That entries were received at the Customs' House from your Petitioner paying duty under protest for twenty casks green fruit (raspberries), amounting to £28 7s., upon 21st February, 1885, and upon fifteen casks of green fruit (raspberries), amounting to £21 0s. 10d., upon 5th March, 1885, and such moneys have never been refunded to your Petitioner.

That in February, 1885, your Petitioner's agent, Henry John Pryde, waited upon the Honorable G. R. Dibbs, at the Treasury, in company with William Floyd, to protest against the illegal levy upon green fruit above referred to.

That the Honorable G. R. Dibbs then offered to these importers if they would not contest such levy upon green fruit that he (the Honorable G. R. Dibbs) would order a refund of one half of the duty levied.

That if the importers did contest such levy of duty upon green fruit he (the Honorable G. R. Dibbs) would send the Inspector of Nuisances to the wharf to condemn the shipment.

That under instructions from the Honorable G. R. Dibbs, as Treasurer, the Customs' Department, in September, 1884, levied duty upon pulp fruit as being a preserve.

That such levy was declared illegal by the Commissioners of Customs upon 17th November, 1884.

That the day following the decision given by the Commissioners of Customs a Government proclamation was issued, signed by the Honorable G. R. Dibbs, ordering levy upon pulp fruit on the grounds of its approximation to jam and preserves, under the authority of 133rd clause of Customs' Act, while at this date such clause was ultra vires by decision of the full Court of this Colony.

That upon 3rd June, 1885, the Supreme Court, presided over by Mr. Justice Innes, decided that pulp fruit did not approximate to jam or preserve.

That upon 10th May, 1886, an appeal by the Collector of Customs from the verdict of Supreme Court was upheld by the full Court upon the grounds that the Privy Council had decided that the Law Courts could not go behind the Collector of Customs' "opinion," no matter how absurd such opinion might be.

That your Petitioner humbly believes that no part of the 133rd clause of Customs Act was ever intended by your Honorable House to confer upon the Collector of Customs the power to levy duty upon any article that does not as a matter of fact approximate to some other and dutiable article.

That under Schedule B of the Customs' Tariff Bill, recently before your Honorable House, green fruit is again admitted free into this Colony.

That under Schedule A of the same Bill all soft green fruits (raspberries, strawberries, and currants) are subject to duty at the rate of one penny per lb.

That your Petitioner has, in consequence of unjust charges brought against him by the Honorable G. R. Dibbs, as Colonial Secretary, suffered much in fortune and reputation.

That your Petitioner has been informed that an agent for the sale of Tasmanian jams in Sydney has publicly stated that Mr. A. Hilder and himself induced the Honorable G. R. Dibbs to levy duty upon pulp fruit.

That the Mr. A. Hilder referred to has acted as chairman of an election committee formed to secure the election of the Honorable G. R. Dibbs to your Honorable House.

That as your Honorable House is the only tribunal that can take cognizance of the matters referred to in this petition, your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that your Honorable House will in such manner, as in your wisdom seems proper, cause full inquiry to be made into the matter herein referred to; as also of the nature and character of pulp fruit and the various actions taken by the Customs' Department in reference to pulp fruit since its first introduction into New South Wales.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound, will ever humbly pray, &c.

TOBACCO DUTIES.

(PETITION FROM CIGAR-MANUFACTURERS AND OTHERS.)

Received by the Legislative Assembly, 20 May, 1886.

To the Honorable the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, in Parliament.

The humble Petition of the undersigned Cigar-manufacturers and others interested in the cigar trade,—

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:—

That for some time prior to the first day of March, A.D. 1884, your Petitioners were following their business of Cigar-manufacturers in the city of Sydney and elsewhere in the Colony of New South Wales, obtaining therefrom a respectable livelihood for themselves and families.

That the business up to the date mentioned was a growing industry and afforded lucrative employment to many operatives, and additional manufactories were from time to time being opened.

That in the early part of the year A.D. 1884, the then Government of New South Wales passed a Bill through your Honorable House levying an excise of two shillings and sixpence per pound upon all cigars manufactured in this Colony, which said measure is so restrictive and prohibitory as to render it impossible for your Petitioners to follow their business except at a loss, and they have in consequence abandoned it.

That your Petitioners having been bred to the said business of cigar-manufacturing, which is of so light nature, requiring delicacy of touch rather than muscular exertion, have much difficulty in adapting themselves to other pursuits, especially in these times of commercial depression, and therefore pray that your Honorable House will be pleased to take the premises into consideration, and repeal such portions of the measure mentioned in the foregoing paragraph as press in a prohibitory manner upon their business.

Your Petitioners respectfully submit that, if the excise regulations were amended by your Honorable House so that the duty or excise chargeable on cigars manufactured in the Colony were assimilated to and made identical with that chargeable upon tobacco so manufactured, they would be relieved and be enabled to resume their business.

Your Petitioners therefore pray that your Honorable House in its wisdom will, in the manner suggested above, or in such other way as you in the exercise of your judgment may deem expedient, afford them the relief prayed for by the removal of the present prohibitive excise.

And your Petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray, &c., &c., &c.

Signed at Sydney, this twentieth day of April, A.D. 1886.
