DRINK CONTAINERS:
Praying that the Legislative Assembly will take the necessary steps to legislate for a compulsory deposit on drink containers, and that the manufacturers be prepared to recycle them, 39	3	101
EDUCATION COMMISSION:
Praying that the Legislative Assembly will set up an Education Commission consisting of five members chosen triennially, two of whom should be elected by members of the New South Wales Teachers' Federation, two appointed by the Government with a chairman acceptable to both. Such a Commission should be responsible for the formulation of educational policy and the administration of education within the Department of Education and the Department of Technical Education, 154	3	103
PRESERVATION OF WOOLLOOMOOLOO:
Praying that the Legislative Assembly will openly and willingly declare its support and intended co-operation in a scheme involving the utilization of land owned by the New South Wales Government and other landholders in the area whether private or governmental to bring about a co-ordinated reconstruction of a stabilized human environment integrating all persons involved and allowing effective participation at all levels, so that the name Woolloomooloo will regain the pride of place it so justly deserves, 103	3	105
TRADE UNIONS:
Praying that the Legislative Assembly will take the necessary action to ensure the rights of every citizen of New South Wales to choose whether or not they shall belong to a trade union; restrict the operations of State registered trade union organisations solely to the fields of working conditions and the economic interests of their members and stop the practice of "closed shop"; ban the trade union practice of imposing political levies on members and ensure that no trade union maintains political affiliations; require trade unions to conduct Court supervised secret ballots of its members before resorting to strike action; and ensure that the Australian Government's practice of trade union membership discrimination will not avail in the State of New South Wales, 138, 154 ⁽²⁾ , 172	3	107
