

Legislative Council

Committees—Rules,
Resolutions and Membership

First Session of the Fifty-Eighth Parliament

Current as at 21 March 2024

Introduction

Under the NSW Constitution, the Legislative Council has the power to make standing rules and orders to regulate the proceedings of the House and its committees.

New standing orders were adopted by the House in 2022, and approved by the Governor on 20 February 2023. These standing orders determine the operation of the House and committees, and are published in the Standing Rules and Orders.

The purpose of this document is to complement the Standing Rules and Orders, by collating the various resolutions establishing and dictating the operation of Legislative Council committees in the 58th Parliament. This document has the following three parts.

Part 1 includes the establishing resolutions for each of the current committees. It also includes the resolutions relating to the current Budget Estimates inquiry conducted by the Portfolio Committees.

For information relating to past select committees or completed inquiries, please refer to the list of committees.

Part 2 includes committee-related sessional orders and resolutions of continuing effect.

From time to time the House adopts rules that override, vary or supplement the standing orders. These are known as 'sessional orders' as they lapse at the end of each parliamentary session. In addition to sessional orders, the House may also make orders that have an ongoing effect until amended or rescinded by the House. These are known as 'resolutions of continuing effect'. Part 2 contains only those orders and resolutions related to committees.

For information regarding sessional orders and resolutions related to the operation of the House or the Parliament, as well as information relating to officeholders and ministerial representation, please refer to House—Rules, Resolutions, Officeholders and Ministerial representation.

Part 3 includes membership for each of the current committees of the 58th Parliament.

David Blunt AM
Clerk of the Parliaments

6. Procedural Fairness for Inquiry Participants

- (1) That the House adopts the following procedures to provide procedural fairness for inquiry participants:

A witness will normally be given reasonable notice of their hearing and will be provided with the inquiry terms of reference, a list of committee members and a copy of these procedures.
 3. Opportunity to make a submission before a hearing
A witness will normally be given the opportunity to make a submission before their hearing.
 4. Opportunity to request a private (in camera) hearing
A witness may request, before or during their hearing, that some or all of their evidence be heard in private (in camera). The committee will consider this request and if it declines, will advise the witness of the reasons why.
 5. Publication of evidence taken in private (in camera)
Prior to their private (in camera) hearing, a witness will be informed that the committee and the Legislative Council have the power to publish some or all of the evidence given. If the committee intends to publish, it will normally consult the witness, advise them of the outcome, and give reasonable notice of when the evidence will be published.
 6. Attendance with a legal adviser

A witness may request to take a question on notice and provide the answer in writing at a later date to be determined by the committee.
 12. Objections to answering questions
Where a witness objects to answering a question, they will be invited to state the grounds for their objection. If a member seeks to press the question, the committee will consider whether to insist on an answer, having regard to the grounds for the objection, the relevance of the question to the inquiry terms of reference, and the necessity to the inquiry of the information sought. If the committee decides that it requires an answer, it will inform the witness of the reasons why and may consider allowing the witness to answer the question on notice or in private (in camera).

Witness appearing by invitation

- (a) If a witness who appears by invitation continues to refuse to answer the question, the committee may consider summoning the witness to reappear later, and will advise the witness that as they will be under oath and so subject to section 11 of the Parliamentary Evidence Act 1901, they may be compelled to answer the question.

16. Inviting and ordering the production of documents

A witness will be invited to produce documents unless the committee decides that an order to produce the documents is warranted.

17. Requests for confidentiality

A person or body may request that documents provided to a committee be kept confidential in part or in full. The committee will consider the request and if it declines, will advise the person or body of the reasons why, and give reasonable notice of when the documents will be published.

18. Transcripts

A witness will be given the opportunity to correct transcription errors in their transcript of evidence. Amendments to or clarifications of evidence may be requested in writing.

19. Treatment of witnesses

Witnesses will be treated with courtesy at all times.

20. Improper treatment of inquiry participants

Where a committee has reason to believe that a person has been improperly influenced in respect of the evidence they may give to a committee, or has been penalised, injured or threatened in respect of evidence given, the committee will take all reasonable steps to ascertain the facts of the matter. If the committee is satisfied that such action may have occurred, the committee may report the matter to the Legislative Council.
