Ministerial Statements by Mr. J. T. Lang, 1013, 1122, 1179, 1820, 1873, 2473, 2597, 3322.

BUSINESS OF THE SESSION:

Ministerial Statement by Mr. J. T. Lang, 3829.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES:

Mr. R. J. Greig elected, 17.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES (ROBERT JOHN GREIG, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Constitution (Amendment) Bill: A point of order that it was not competent for the House to go into Committee after a quarter to 6 o'clock except in defiance of the sessional orders should have been taken in the House and could not be sustained after the House had gone into Committee, 3875.

Forty-four Hours Week Bill: It was not necessary, in the case of amendments of which notice had been given in writing by a Minister under standing order 175B, for such amendments to be proposed by the Minister, 1176.

Industrial Arbitration (Amendment) Bill: An amendment to alter the title to the "Industrial Conscription Act" would clearly make the bill unintelligible and was out of order, 1750; with a view to effectively carrying out standing order 175B all amendments circulated by the Minister within the terms of the standing order would be put as one question; all the remaining clauses and schedules would also be put as one question. This procedure would be in accordance with the practice in the House of Representatives under a similar standing order, 1838, 1869. If an amendment was consequential upon amendments made by the Council it could be admitted when such amendments were being considered, 4390; an amendment to rectify an obvious omission and not necessarily consequential upon amendments made by the Legislative Council could be accepted under standing order, 284, 4394.

Legislative Councillors Bill: The question of conserving titles was not within the scope of the bill which conserved parliamentary privileges. Parliament could not confer a title on anyone, 4311.

Sydney Corporation Amendment (Municipality of Waterloo) Bill: An amendment to provide for a referendum of the ratopayers of Waterloo was in complete opposition to the principle of the bill and could not be entertained, 3315, 3434. It was clear under standing order 162 that any objection to a ruling of the Chairman must be taken at once and not after a number of questions had been decided, 3317, 3318.

Widows' Pensions Bill: An amendment to change the title of the bill to Mothers' Pensions Bill was moved in a spirit of mockery and could not be accepted, 2797; an amendment which would increase the area of expenditure under the bill was clearly out of order, 2807, 2907.

Workers' Compensation Bill: It did not come within the functions of the Chairman to give a ruling as to the validity of any particular clause or clauses. Once a bill was handed to the Committee, every clause was held to be in order, 2713.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES, TEMPORARY:

Mr. Speaker nominated Major Connell and Messrs. Drummond, Fitzsimons, Jackson, and O'Halloran, 52.

SPEAKER, MR. (JAMES DOOLEY, ESQUIRE), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF :

Arbitration Court Administration : Obs., 1869.
Attempt to Corrupt Labour Members : Once
the Estimates were placed on the table practically anything could be discussed on them.
The "Attempt to corrupt Labour members," which was proposed to be made the subject of a motion of adjournment, could be so discussed on the Estimates, 3038 ; a motion of privilege could not be entertained ; the question of privilege should be raised only in cases of extreme urgency or when there was no opportunity of giving notice, 3042 ;
see Questions, 3284.

Christmas Felicitations : Obs., 3904.

Constitution (Amendment) Bill : The Speaker could not say that it was out of order to refer to members of the Legislative Council as "rubber stamps" or "old humbugs," but members should endeavour to as far as possible speak respectfully of members of the Legislative Council, 3838.

Formal Business, Procedure Regarding : Obs., 412.

Government Purchase of Cornsacks : It had been customary to allow Ministers considerable latitude in replying to questions ; a reply to a question was not a Ministerial statement, and the leader of the Opposition had no right of reply to the Minister, 2257-61.

Hansard, Publication of : Obs., 3581.

Juvenile Migrants Apprenticeship (Repeal) Bill : The bill as sent to the Legislative Council was for the purpose of repealing the Act. The bill as returned did not repeal the Act, but provided that the system of juvenile migration should remain in force.
The Council had exceeded its powers and the bill should be withdrawn and the order of the day discharged, 3287.

Legislative Council, Appointments to : Obs., 3881, 3904.

Local Government (Amendment) Bill : The voting being equal on division on motion
"That the question be now put" according to precedent, Mr. Speaker would vote with the "Noes," 1002.

Local Government (Amendment) Bill (No. 2) :
Although the bill would evidently contain a good deal of what was in the previous bill, a very important alteration had been made in the foundation and substance of the bill by including provision for the annulment of an election which had taken place since the previous bill was before the House, and therefore standing order 187 did not operate to make the bill out of order, 4026.

Volumes 101, 102, 103, 104, 105.

ASSEMBLY (continued) :

SPEAKER MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Members, Writing Accommodation for : Obs., 464.

Move Common : Once a motion has been moved it has to remain on the business-paper until disposed of, 808.

Motor Accidents : A motion of adjournment to discuss "The serious and increasing number of motor accidents occurring in the State" was not specific but general and could not be entertained. After a motion of adjournment had been ruled out of order, a second motion could be taken only on motion to that effect, 716.

New Member : The question as to whether the provisions of the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act applied to any Parliament beyond the one in which it was passed and would permit of the filling of a vacancy by the nomination of a new member by the leader of the party to which the former member belonged was clearly a point of law. The appointment might be challenged at law but the Speaker had no hesitation in following the example of his predecessor, 15.

Parliament Buildings, Private Entrance : Obs., 971.

Parliamentary Allowances and Salaries Bill : A member might under standing order 253 move to add to a motion for the second reading, the words "This day three months" or "six months," but an amendment that the second reading be postponed until after the Treasurer had delivered his financial statement could not be accepted as sufficiently definite under the standing order referred to, 1271.

Parliamentary Letter-paper, Use of : Obs., 3818.

Parliamentary Messengers : Obs., 2425.

Parramatta Electricity Supply : Under a strict interpretation of standing order 113A, a motion to disallow an agreement would hardly be allowable, but Mr. Speaker believed it was the intention of the framer of the standing order to allow of such a motion, 599.

Questions : Questions must be briefly stated. Questions which involved an attack upon other members, or which were intended to convey information, would not be allowed, 142. It was optional with Ministers how they answered questions, 537; preference in asking questions would not be given to ex-Ministers, but the privilege would be restricted to Ministers and party leaders, 586; members must refrain from reading or asking long questions, giving information instead of seeking it, 1026. Many questions which were not urgent were asked by members, and it was proposed to establish a proper basis upon which to decide what were urgent questions, 3234; obs., 3333.

SPEAKER, MR., RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF (ctd.):

Questions, Printed Answers to : Obs., 462, 709.

Railway Locomotives : A motion for the suspension of the standing orders having been carried to allow of the discussion of a certain motion standing in the name of a private member, a motion coming under standing order 113A could not have precedence, 3426.

Railway Strike, 1917, Seniority : Any member could place in the box a motion of adjournment for another member, 915. A motion of adjournment to discuss the recent action of the Railway Commissioners in regressing certain railway and tramway officials was in order, 916.

Sessional Order : A sessional order providing for the automatic adjournment of the House would fix the procedure for the session only, and the fact that it would vary the practice provided for in the standing orders did not make it out of order, 452.

Short, A. E., Case of : Under the standing orders the question "That the question be now put" covered the putting of the original question and the fact that the time for private members' business fixed by sessional order had expired while the former question was being decided on division would not prevent the putting of the main question, 1486.

Shortage of Houses : The "shortage of houses" was not a definite matter within the meaning of standing order 49. The House would do well to consider the desirability of empowering the Speaker to decide the question of urgency in relation to motions of adjournment under standing order 49, 914.

Speaker, Election of : Obs., 9.

Speaker's, Mr., Staff : Obs., 99.

Strangers in House : Members must not speak or interject while the Speaker was on his feet, 363; obs., 1469.

Supply (Executive and Legislative) : Obs., 3667.

Closure : adopted, 464; approved by His Excellency, 536.

An amendment providing that the cost of carrying the bill into effect should be debited to moneys appropriated by Parliament was out of order, because the Constitution clearly provided that all provision for the appropriation of public money must originate with the Legislative Assembly, 3794.

PRESIDENT, THE (HON. FREDERICK FLOWERS), RULINGS AND OPINIONS OF:

Constitution (Amendment) Bill: The point that the powers conferred by the Constitution were limited to the alteration of the law regarding the constitution of the Legislative Council, and did not extend to the power to abolish, was one for legal judgment rather than for a ruling from the Chair. There might be some legal doubt, but the President's opinion was that the provision did not carry the limitation suggested, and he therefore ruled that the bill was in order, 4260.
