ASKING OF QUESTIONS, 21.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES AND DEPUTY SPEAKER (MR. G. BOOTH), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS:

Amendments: An amendment to a land resumption bill, providing full preference to returned soldiers in the allocation of land resumed under the bill, is in order, 1179.

Factories and Shops (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member may not, when the question before the Chair is that the clause as amended stand part of the bill, move an amendment to the clause, 3085.

Industrial Arbitration (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member is not in order in reading from Hansard extracts from a speech made during the current session, 1788.

An hon. member may not discuss compulsory unionism when speaking on a measure that contains no clause dealing with that subject, 1788.

An hon. member is not in order in dealing in detail with a matter that is sub judice, 1921.

The practice is that when an hon. member gives an assurance in Parliament it is honourably accepted by other hon. members, 2121.

An amendment moved by an hon. member being specifically covered by existing legislation, and being entirely outside the scope of the bill, is ruled out of order, 2141.

An hon. member must confine himself strictly to the amendment before the chair, 2155, 2165.

Public Trustee Bill: On a motion to report progress a Minister may not explain a measure, 460.

Settlement Promotion Tax Management Bill: The Chair will not countenance any insinuation by an hon. member that it is guilty of improper conduct, 2291.

An hon. member having been warned that a remark of his is a reflection on the Chair, will be appropriately dealt with under Standing Orders if he persists in repeating that remark, 2296.

The question before the Chair being whether a clause should be postponed, only that question may be debated until the matter is decided, 2296, 2297.

An hon. member may give an account of what has been printed in the press, but he is not permitted to read press cuttings, 2388.

An hon. member, when speaking to an amendment, may not express his opinion as to what he thinks of the bill itself, 2405.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

When an hon. member denies having made a statement attributed to him, his denial must be accepted by other hon. members, 2499.

Sydney Turf Club Bill: It must be accepted that when a Government introduces legislation it does so genuinely and sincerely, and no hon. member may impugn its sincerity of purpose, in bringing down a measure, 3254.

Clause 9 contains the financial provisions of the bill, but makes no reference to a guarantor or of a guarantee, and continual reference to such matters is out of order, 3319.

Detailed references to a bill, though in order on the motion for its second reading, are not permissible at the committee stage, during which members must confine themselves to the clause before the chair, 3334, 3341, 3345.

Discourteous references to another hon. member, to which exception is taken, must be withdrawn, 3336, 3339.

Unparliamentary Expressions: "A gentleman who called our soldiers 'Six-bob a day murderers,'" as applied to an hon. member, 1332.

Western Lands (Amendment) Bill: It is in order at the second-reading stage to discuss the effect of a proposed amendment, 1057.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES, TEMPORARY, 21.

CHRISTMAS AND THE WAR, adj., 1516.

EXTENSION OF SITTING, m., 675, 1062, 2472, 3416, 4059.

GOVERNOR'S SPEECH:

Address-in-Reply: First Day's Debate, 28; Second Day, 55; Third Day, 100; Fourth Day, 130; Fifth Day, 172; Sixth Day, 207; Presentation, 284.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY CHAMBER, VENTILATION, q., 1812, 1859, 2226.

Ministerial Statements: The standing orders do not permit the leader of the Country party to reply to a Ministerial statement, though the leader of the Opposition has the right to do so, 100.

Motions of Urgency: In supporting a motion of urgency, its mover must confine his remarks to the question of urgency, and may not discuss the merits of the substantive motion, 469, 1172.

A motion of urgency is in order even though the matter referred to is not directly within State jurisdiction, 1172.

23 September, 1942, to 8 September, 1943.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

When a motion of urgency is under discussion, a ruling may be given on the matter of urgency, but not on the substantive motion, 469.

Standing Order 102. A motion of urgency for the suspension of standing orders under Standing Order 395, is not subject to the provisions of Standing Order 102, whereunder notices of motion may not be moved when other business is before the House, 1126.

Party Leaders in the House: The Country party has been recognised for a considerable number of years as a political unit. Under the standing orders the leader of that party has certain privileges, 948.

Questions Without Notice: A second question relating to a certain matter may not be asked until the Minister has replied to the original question thereon, and one such supplementary question only will normally be allowed, 21.

Statements of facts and comments may not be made in the asking of questions, 91.

When a Minister's reply to a question goes beyond the question it becomes a Ministerial statement and the leader of the Opposition then has the right of reply, 96.

Questions should be in concise and simple form, 780.

Long and involved questions necessitating departmental research must be placed on the Questions and Answers paper, 78.

Questions without notice should be confined to matters of an urgent nature and important character, 780.

A newspaper article may not be made the basis of a question unless an hon. member can vouch for its accuracy, 1291.

State Coal Mines (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member is not in order in referring generally to railway matters, on a bill relating to the State Coal Mines, 1011.

Settlement Promotion Tax Management Bill: The motion that the hon. member for Corowa, should be granted an extension of time was negatived, on the voices, no call for a division being heard by the Chair. The question that the bill be read a second time was then put, and carried. Doubt as to which question was before the House, may have prevailed among members of the Opposition, but the matter was clear to the Chair. It is untrue that the question was put unfairly, 2290.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEES AND DEPUTY SPEAKER (MR. G. BOOTH), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS—(continued):

Tabling of Papers: There is no provision in the standing orders for a private member to lay papers on the table. When papers are laid on the table they become public property, but when placed on the table merely to be handed to an hon. member for perusal, there is no official cognisance of them, 1291.

Unparliamentary Expressions: Fifth Columnist, as applied to hon. members, 470.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL: Triennial Election, 1128, 1515.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL: Election of Member, 1107, 4039, 4058, 4068.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL VACANCY: Writ for Election, 897, 1129, 3976, 4055, 4064.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE:

Granted to Captain J. G. Arthur, Lieut.-Colonel E. M. Robson, Mr. H. B. Turner, Mr. W. A. Chaffey, Major G. D. Mitchell and Mr. R. N. Beale, 27; Mr. Jeff Bate and Major H. P. FitzSimons, 126; Mr. R. W. D. Weaver, 1575.

MEMBER RESIGNED, 4039.

MEMBER SWORN, 2004.

NEW MEMBER, 1062.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT, 15.

ORDER OF BUSINESS, m., 1128.

PRECEDENCE OF BUSINESS, m., 1229.

PRINTED PAPERS, 1026.

QUOTING FROM Hansard, adj., 3111.

SESSIONAL COMMITTEES, ins., 245.

SESSIONAL ORDERS: Hours of Sitting, m., 246, 1128, 1229, 1575, 2147, 2732.

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE), RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS:

Abattoirs and Homebush Saleyards Select Committee's Report: An hon. member is entitled, on the motion for the adoption of a select committee's report, to refer to the report and to evidence taken at the inquiry, 380.

Baking Industry: Hold up, m.: As this matter is before the State Industrial Commission, discussion in the House would prejudice the hearing, and probably delay a decision. The motion, therefore, is ruled out of order, 820.

An hon. member must, in compliance with the forms of the House, accept another hon. member's denial of a charge made against him, 381.

Volumes 168-171.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE),
RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS

Divisions, Recording of: Question asked by hon. member for Leichhardt, 465.

Felicitations, 1520.

Fish Marketing Bill: An hon. member is in order while debating a bill relating to the marketing of a particular commodity, in making a relevant reference to the control of other commodities in the market, 927.

Illicit Liquor Traffic, m.: The Premier in speaking to a motion of urgency, is in order in giving reasons why a matter is not one of urgency, 1822.

Industrial Arbitration (Amendment) Bill: An hon. member is entitled to criticize, but only fairly and reasonably, and he may not make attacks on the character of trade unionists or anybody else while debating the bill, 1708.

As the bill does not make provision for compulsory unionism a detailed debate on that subject would be out of order. The subject having been referred to by the Minister in charge of the bill, and by the Leader of the Opposition, it may be touched upon by hon. members, but not in such a way as would represent a major contribution to the debate, 1759.

The Country party is a political unit, represented in the House, and an hon. member is entitled to subject it to moderate criticism. If the limit of Parliamentary criticism is exceeded, Mr. Speaker will protect the Country party, 1824.

An hon. member is entitled to refer to the remarks of another hon. member, provided he couches his remarks in Parliamentary language, 1390.

An hon. member is not in order in reading a newspaper when in the Chamber, 1928.

Legal Assistance Bill: Parliamentary usage has established that, on the motion that a bill be read a third time, speeches shall be confined to the contents of the measure. Consequently, the debate is not so wide in scope as is permitted on the motion for the second reading of a bill, at which stage members are allowed to explore, compare, and deviate, so long as they confine remarks to its general principles, 2912, 2913.

Sessional Hours: Extension of Sitting: A question of urgency must be decided by the House upon motion, without notice or debate, except a statement by the mover and by the Minister, each limited to ten minutes, 2147.

ASSEMBLY (continued):

SPEAKER, MR. (THE HON. D. CLYNE),
RULINGS, OPINIONS AND OBSERVATIONS,

Settlement Promotion Tax Management Bill: An hon. member who has the floor has the right to reply to or ignore an interjection. It is the practice, if an interjection is replied to, to record it in Hansard. If the interjection is ignored, it is not incorporated in the report, 2108.

It is a violation of the traditions of Parliamentary procedure to resort to the press as a medium for attacking the action of the Speaker. The House looks to those of its members who hold high positions to uphold the treasured traditions of Parliament. Certain hon. members have so far forgotten this responsibility as to take the extraordinary and unchivalrous course of maligning the Speaker through the press, through which the Speaker is debarred from engaging in controversy. The honourable course to pursue would have been to give notice of motion under standing order 161 against the action of the Speaker, 2365.

Standing order 161 provides for a motion of dissent only from a ruling given by the Chair. Though in the case in point no ruling was given by Mr. Speaker, and the motion of dissent is technically out of order, the Chair permitted that motion to be discussed because of the special circumstances attaching to the incident that prompted it, 2451, 2457.

Sydney Turf Club Bill: An hon. member may not read from Hansard of the current session, though he may make references to it. He is in order in reading from a speech delivered in a previous session, 3098.
