Question proposed,—That the Schedule, as read, stand part of the Bill.

(2B) The landlord of a site on which a home or dwelling referred to in subsection (2A) is situated who gives notice under this section in respect of the tenancy of the site is liable to compensate the tenant for the costs of and incidental to the relocation of the home or dwelling as a consequence of the termination of the tenancy. The Tribunal may, on the application of either party, assess any such costs.

(2C) If, in circumstances of the kind described in subsection (2B), the landlord offers another site for occupation by the tenant, the landlord must ensure that the amenity of the site to which it is moved is broadly comparable, or superior, to that of the site on which it was previously situated.
