MOTIONS (continued):

UNITED NATIONS WORLD CONFERENCE ON HUMAN RIGHTS:

Ms Machin moved (formal business),

(1) (a) That this House notes:

- (i) The protection of human rights is the responsibility of governments and the international community;
- (ii) Human rights are universal and that economic, social, cultural and civil and political rights are indivisible;
- (iii) Violations of human rights remain widespread in many regions of the world;
- (iv) The United Nations World Conference on Human Rights will take place in Vienna in June 1993;
- (v) The United Nations has been provided with inadequate resources to tackle human rights violations; and

(b) Therefore maintains that:

- (i) The United Nations World Conference on Human Rights should reaffirm the universality and interdependence of all human rights;
  - (ii) Governments attending the United Nations World Conference on Human Rights should commit themselves to signing and respecting existing international agreements on human rights;
  - (iii) The United Nations World Conference on Human Rights should consider Amnesty International's proposals for reform and strengthening of the United Nations human rights machinery;
  - (iv) The Australian Government should support the proposal to create a United Nations Special Commissioner on Human Rights as a practical step towards increasing human rights protection.
- (2) That the Speaker convey to the Minister for Foreign Affairs and Trade, Senator the Honourable Gareth Evans, the views expressed above and seeks his support for the creation of a new high level post of United Nations Special Commissioner on Human Rights and for an increase in the Overseas Development Aid Budget devoted to the promotion and protection of human rights.

Agreed to, 243.

SMOKE FREE AREAS AT PARLIAMENT HOUSE:

Mr Phillips moved, pursuant to notice, That from 1 January 1994 the enclosed areas of the precincts of the Parliament shall be a smoke-free "environment", other than areas designated by the Presiding Officers, "having regard" to the provisions of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 1983 and any relevant regulations and codes of practice made under that Act.

Agreed to, 487.

VOTE OF CENSURE:

Mr Hatton moved, pursuant to notice, That this House censures the Minister for Health for:

- (a) Failure to provide the Public Accounts Committee with adequate detail on the Port Macquarie Hospital contract.
