- (c) a homestead selection or an additional homestead selection ; or,
- (d) a settlement lease or an additional settlement lease ; or,
- (e) a conditional lease.

(2) Provided that—

- (a) a conversion shall not be allowed of land on any proclaimed gold-field or mineral field except with the approval of the Secretary for Mines ;
- (b) a person shall not be allowed to convert an area which together with all land held by him under any tenure other than annual tenure would in the opinion of the Board exceed a home maintenance area ;
- (c) conversion into an additional holding shall not be allowed unless such additional holding is adjoining or adjacent to the holding in virtue of which it is applied for.

Limitations to conversion.

Application.

(3) Each application shall be made as prescribed, accompanied by a provisional deposit as prescribed to be applied towards the cost of dealing therewith, and shall be referred to the Board for inquiry and report.

If the Board deems it expedient to recommend the granting of the application it shall proceed to appraise the capital value or price or rent of the land, subject to the provisions of section six of the Crown Lands Act of 1889.

After receipt of such report the Minister may grant the application if the Board so recommends, or he may at his discretion refuse it. Any areas required for roadways or other public purposes may be excluded or the boundaries may be otherwise modified at the Minister's discretion.

Deposit to be paid.

- (a) the term of residence, which shall commence within three months after the date of the Minister's approval of the conversion, shall be reduced by the period during which continuous residence immediately prior to the application for conversion has been performed by the applicant upon the special lease, or upon the church and school lands lease, or upon the holding in virtue of which the special lease or church and school lands lease has been converted into an additional holding or conditional lease ;
- (b) the purchase money of any conditional purchase shall be paid by annual instalments of five per centum thereof, commencing at the end of the first year from the date of application or within three months thereafter until the balance of purchase money together with interest at the rate of two and a half per centum per annum has been paid.

Clause 27. Subject to regulations to be made hereunder, the holder of any homestead selection "or settlement lease" who desires to transfer a part of his selection or lease, as the case may be, may make application to the Minister upon the prescribed form for the subdivision of his selection or lease into two or more portions. The application shall be accompanied by the prescribed fees, to be available for the payment of the costs of any survey or reports which may be required. The applicant shall surrender such land as may be necessary for providing roads of access to the subdivided portions, which land shall thereupon become Crown land, free from any claim of the homestead selector or settlement lessee thereto.

The Minister shall settle the lines of subdivision so as to conform to any regulations made in that behalf, and may modify or refuse any application under this section.

After subdivision, the homestead selector or settlement lessee shall surrender the grant (if issued) or the lease for the homestead selection or the settlement lease, as the case may be, and separate grants or leases shall be issued for each of the parts, which shall contain such covenants and conditions as may be approved of by the Minister.

Each part shall be capable of separate transfer to any qualified person, and, subject to the right of conversion under this Act, shall continue to be held for the balance of the term or period at the same rental per acre as before subdivision, and shall be subject to the same conditions as if each were a separate homestead selection or settlement lease: Provided that the holder of any such part shall not be entitled to apply for an additional homestead selection or an additional settlement lease in virtue thereof, and the person obtaining the subdivision shall be debarred from applying for additional land in virtue of the homestead selection or settlement lease unless he has previously obtained the Minister's permission in writing. And postponed Clause 5 having been agreed to,—

Limitation of transfer of conditional purchase leases and settlement leases, and subdivisions of same.

No. 18.

SAME BILL.

Postponed clause 25. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Principal Acts, an original conditional purchase or conditional purchase lease or homestead selection or settlement lease applied for after the commencement of this Act, or any additional holding held in virtue thereof (including any original or additional holding into which a homestead selection or settlement lease or special lease or church and school lands lease has been converted under this Act), or any part of a conditional purchase, homestead selection, or settlement lease, being a subdivision made under this Act, shall not be transferable, except by way of mortgage only,—

- (a) to a person who, at the date of the proposed transfer, already holds under any tenure (other than annual tenure) an area which, when added to the area proposed to be acquired by transfer, will, in the opinion of the Minister, exceed a home maintenance area; or
- (b) to a married woman who is not living apart from her husband under an order for judicial separation made by a court of competent jurisdiction, unless the Minister is satisfied that the area already held by such married woman and by her husband under any tenure (other than annual tenure), together with the area proposed to be acquired by transfer, will not, in the opinion of the Minister, exceed in the aggregate a home maintenance area.

(2.) Application for permission to transfer except by way of mortgage, by way of sale, mortgage, lease, or otherwise, any such holding as aforesaid shall be made to the Minister in the prescribed form, and such transfer shall not be effected, or if effected shall not be valid, unless the Minister's consent thereto has been obtained. The Minister shall have discretion to give or refuse such consent, and shall not refuse consent unless he has referred the matter to the Board, and the Board or the Land Appeal Court recommends that such consent should not be given. Regulations may be made prescribing under what circumstances and conditions the Minister may consent to a mortgage to a person who comes within paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of the last preceding subsection.

(3) When any such conditional purchase or conditional purchase lease, or any additional holding held in virtue thereof, is transferred (except by way of mortgage), the transferee "shall, within three months after the Minister's consent to the transfer has been obtained, commence, and thereafter continue to reside for two years on the land included in the purchase, lease, or holding; and the fact that residence by any former holder or transferee had been previously performed in respect of the said land shall not relieve the transferee from the fulfilment of the two years' residence as herein provided".

Provided that the Board may, on sufficient reason being shown, waive such condition of residence in any case where it is satisfied that the land is held and used bona fide as the chief source of maintenance of the holder and his family.

Nothing herein contained shall operate to reduce the term of residence to be performed by any transferee in any case where a conditional purchase or conditional purchase lease is transferred before the completion of the ten years' residence attaching thereto.

(4) If any such purchase, lease, selection or holding is mortgaged, and the mortgagee enters into possession of the same under his mortgage, he may hold the same for a period of three years after the date of his entering into possession as aforesaid, or for such further period as the Minister may permit.

But the mortgagee shall not, notwithstanding the terms of his mortgage, re-enter into possession of the mortgaged land more than once, except by permission of the Minister.

Such mortgagee shall not foreclose the mortgage "except with the consent of the Minister." Such consent shall be applied for and may be given or refused, as in the case of a sale; and the provisions of subsection two of this section shall apply thereto.

Such mortgagee shall not transfer the land except in accordance with this section.

If within such period the mortgagee does not obtain the certificate of the Minister to a foreclosure, or does not transfer the purchase, lease, selection, or holding in accordance with this section, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and, on notification by the Minister in the Gazette, may be forfeited, and, therefore, shall revert to the Crown.

A foreclosure or transfer in contravention of this section shall be void.

The fact that the mortgagee, or some person by his authority, occupies or uses any part of the mortgaged land shall be prima facie evidence that the mortgagee has entered into possession of the land under the mortgage.

(4) (5) If any such purchase, lease, selection, or holding devolves under a will or on intestacy upon a person who is not qualified under this section to be a transferee thereof, such person may nevertheless hold such purchase, lease, selection, or holding for a period of three years after the death of the testator or intestate, or for such further period as the Minister may permit.

Within any such period such person may, on application to the Minister, and on showing that he is then qualified under this section to be a transferee as aforesaid, receive from the Minister a certificate to that effect, which shall entitle him to hold such purchase, lease, selection, or holding; or such person may, subject to this section and notwithstanding the provisions, express or implied, of any will under which he claims, sell and transfer the purchase, lease, selection, or holding:

Provided that where such person is a trustee not solely entitled beneficially to the said purchase, lease, selection, or holding, he shall, before effecting any sale or any transfer in pursuance of this section, obtain the directions of the Chief Judge in Equity as to the manner of such sale, and as to the disposal of the proceeds thereof. Such directions may be obtained on petition or on originating summons.

If such person does not within any such period obtain the certificate of the Minister as aforesaid, nor transfer the purchase, lease, selection, or holding as aforesaid, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and on notification by the Minister in the Gazette may be forfeited, and shall thereupon revert to the Crown.

(5) (6)—No transfer or conveyance or assignment in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be valid for any purposes whatsoever.

(6) (7)—The provisions of this section are extended so as to apply to any such original or additional conditional purchase or original or additional homestead selection, whether a grant in respect of the same has or has not issued.

[Read.]

And the clause having been amended, as indicated,—

Motion made (Mr. McFarlane) to leave out from subclause (3) the words "within three months after the Minister's consent to the transfer has been obtained, commence, and thereafter continue to reside for two years on the land included in the purchase, lease, or holding; and the fact that residence by any former holder or transferee had been previously performed in respect of the said land shall not relieve the transferee from the fulfilment of the two "years' residence as herein provided" and insert the words "to the satisfaction of the Local Land Board use the land included in the purchase, lease or holding, for the purpose it is adapted for, failing which the land will be liable to forfeiture" instead thereof.

Question put,—“That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the clause.”

Such mortgagee shall not foreclose the mortgage “except with the consent of the Minister.” Such consent shall be applied for and may be given or refused, as in the case of a sale; and the provisions of subsection two of this section shall apply thereto.

Such mortgagee shall not transfer the land except in accordance with this section.

If within such period the mortgagee does not obtain the certificate of the Minister to a foreclosure, or does not transfer the purchase lease, selection, or holding in accordance with this section, the same shall be liable to forfeiture, and, on notification by the Minister in the Gazette, may be forfeited, and, therefore, shall revert to the Crown.

A foreclosure or transfer in contravention of this section shall be void.

The fact that the mortgagee, or some person by his authority, occupies or uses any part of the mortgaged land shall be prima facie evidence that the mortgagee has entered into possession of the land under the mortgage.

Question proposed,—That the words proposed to be inserted, be so inserted.

Motion made (Mr. Holman) to amend the proposed amendment, by leaving out from lines 7 and 8 the words “except with the consent of the Minister.”

Question put,—That the words proposed to be left out stand part of the proposed amendment.

No. 1.

POLICE OFFENCES (AMENDMENT) BILL (Further considered):—

Clauses 3 and 4 having been agreed to, and clause 5 postponed,—

Clause 6. The following sections are inserted next after section eight:—

8A. Every person who, in or near any public street, thoroughfare, or place, or within the view or hearing of any person passing therein—

- (a) behaves in a riotous, indecent, offensive, threatening, or insulting manner; or
(b) uses any threatening, abusive, or insulting words, shall be liable on conviction to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and may, in addition thereto or in substitution therefor, be required by the adjudicating justice to enter into a recognizance, with or without sureties, to be of good behaviour for a term not exceeding twelve months, and, in default of its being entered into forthwith, the defendant may be imprisoned for any period not exceeding six months, unless such recognizance is sooner entered into.

8B. If any person, being the owner or occupier of any house, room, or place, or being a manager or assistant in the management thereof, ~~having reasonable cause to believe~~ knowing any female to be a common prostitute, ~~or to be affected with a contagious disease,~~ induces or suffers her to be in that house, room, or place for the purpose of prostitution, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, or, in the discretion of the justices, to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months.

~~For the purposes of this section, "contagious disease" means venereal disease, including gonorrhoea.~~

If any owner of a house, room, or other place has reasonable grounds to suspect that the same is used in contravention of this section, he may serve on the occupier a notice to quit.

The serving of such notice shall determine as from the seventh day after the date of such service any tenancy under which the occupier may hold as if the same had expired by effluxion of time. The owner may thereupon, without any authority other than this Act, take legal proceedings to evict, and may evict such occupier.

Such notice shall be served personally on the occupier; but if he cannot be found, service may be effected by posting a copy of the notice on some conspicuous part of the said house, room, or place.

Any such notice to quit may be cancelled by the court before whom the proceedings are heard, subject to such terms as it thinks fit, either on the hearing or on summons taken out by the occupier, on proof that the occupier has not at any time allowed the house, room, or place to be used in contravention of this section.

No conviction under this section shall exempt the offender from any penalty or other punishment to which he may be liable for keeping or being concerned in keeping a brothel or disorderly house, or for the nuisance thereby occasioned.

"8c. Where any person is accused of being an idle or disorderly person on the ground that he has no visible lawful means of support, or that he has insufficient lawful means of support, proof that he possesses money or property shall not be a defence unless it is also proved by the defendant that such money or property was by him honestly and in a bona fide manner obtained." Clause 26. Section one hundred and forty-four of the Principal Act is amended by omitting subsection six and substituting the following therefor:—

(6) Provided that where a lessee of ratable land in an area has agreed with the owner, or with the mesne lessee from whom he immediately holds, to pay municipal or local government taxes, and in the case of land within a municipality, such agreement was made before the commencement of this Act, and in the case of land within a shire, was made before the commencement of the Shires Act, the owner and all the lessees, including mesne lessees, shall, notwithstanding such agreement and during the currency of such agreement, be respectively liable, as between themselves, for so much of the local government rate under this Act as is equal to the amount of the land tax, or tax in lieu of land tax, on the land which they respectively would have been liable to pay under the Acts mentioned in Schedule Three if the operation of the said Acts had not been suspended, based on the valuation of the unimproved capital value under this Act. The adjustment of the Commissioners of Taxation under the fourth section of the Land Tax (Leases) Act, 1902, shall be made on the basis of such valuation, and of a land tax or tax in lieu of land tax, without exemptions, and after the first adjustment, there shall be a readjustment by the Commissioners at every subsequent period of valuation. Such adjustment shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal in any court.

~~The amount which a lessee is liable to pay under this subsection and the terms of such agreement as aforesaid shall be notified to him by the owner, or in the case of a sub-lessee by the mesne lessee from whom he immediately holds, and the payment of such amount shall for the purpose of any such agreement as aforesaid be deemed to be a payment by such lessee or sub-lessee of the municipal or shire rates in respect of the land. This provision shall apply and shall be deemed to have applied to all rates made under this Act after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight.~~ lessor who has made any such agreement as aforesaid shall notify the council of the terms of such lease. Where such notification has been received by the council, such council shall (notwithstanding the provisions of subsection one of this section) first proceed for the recovery of the whole of any rates due under this Act from the lessee who is in possession of the land rated as the last lessee within the knowledge of the council bound by any such agreement. Unless such lessor notifies the council as aforesaid before the making of any rates, the council may recover the whole of such rates from such lessor.

Failing in any legal proceedings against any person as aforesaid, the council shall next so proceed against the lessor from whom such person immediately holds; and, failing in any such proceedings against a lessor who is a mesne lessee, the council shall next so proceed against the lessor from whom he immediately holds; and so on.

Any lessee who has paid, or any mesne lessee who has paid or suffered the deduction as hereinafter provided of any such rates may recover as a debt from, or deduct from any moneys due to, the lessor from whom he immediately holds, the proportionate amount of rates determined as aforesaid by the said commissioners to be the portion payable in respect of the land rated by all the persons under whom he derives title; and any lessor who has made any payment to the council in respect of such rates may recover as a debt from any lessee under him such portion thereof as such lessee is liable for under his agreement and the terms of this subsection.

The council, the commissioners aforesaid, and any authorised servant of either of them, may, under the prescribed penalty, demand the production within a reasonable time of any agreement as aforesaid from any owner, lessee, or person having the custody of such agreement, or require any person in occupation of land, or in receipt of the rent of land, to answer any question for the purposes of this subsection. A certificate of such adjustment aforesaid purporting to be signed by the said commissioners, or their secretary, or registrar, shall be prima facie evidence of such adjustment.

This subsection shall apply and shall be deemed to have applied to all rates made under this Act after the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and eight. [Read.]

COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Colonial Secretary.

Question proposed,—That there be granted to His Majesty a sum not exceeding £7,548 for Colonial Secretary, for the year 1908-1909.

And the Honorable Member for Darlinghurst, Mr. Levy, desiring to discuss the duty of the Police in connection with the taking of samples of liquor for analysis,—

Point of Order,—Mr. Wood submitted that Hon. Members would have ample opportunity to discuss this matter when the Estimates of the Department of the Attorney-General and Justice were under consideration. The Chairman upheld the point taken.

† 36801 359—A

Whereupon

Whereupon Mr. Levy moved, That the Chairman leave the Chair to report a point of Order, and ask leave to sit again so soon as the Point of Order has been decided by the House.

The Point of Order is:—

That under the Colonial Secretary's Estimates, the Honorable Member for Darlinghurst, Mr. Levy, desired to discuss the duty of the police in connection with the taking of samples of liquor for analysis. The Chairman ruled that Mr. Levy could not discuss this matter, because the administration of the Liquor Act was a matter for the Attorney-General's Department, and could be discussed under the Estimates of the Attorney-General and Justice.
