BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

ORDERS OF THE DAY—

1 In Camera Evidence; resumption of the adjourned debate, on the motion of Mr Moore—

That this House calls on the State Government to legislate to overturn the decision of His Honour Judge Loveday, in the case of Regina v. Saffron, that evidence given in camera to a Select Committee of the Legislative Assembly is not protected from judicial examination by the Standing Orders of the Parliament, the Statutes of the State of New South Wales or the public interest (from 10 November 1987—Mr Dowd).

JUDICIAL OFFICERS BILL:—

Clause 14 having been dealt with,—

Clause 15, as amended,—

Complaints

15. (1) Any person may complain to the Commission about a matter that concerns or may concern the ability or behaviour of a judicial officer.

10 (2) The Commission shall not deal with a complaint (otherwise than to summarily dismiss it under section 20) unless it appears to the Commission that—

(a) the matter, if substantiated, could justify parliamentary consideration of the removal of the judicial officer from office; or

15 (b) although the matter, if substantiated, might not justify parliamentary consideration of the removal of the judicial officer from office, the matter warrants further examination on the ground that the matter may affect or may have affected the performance of judicial or official duties by the officer.

20 (3) The Commission shall not deal with a complaint (otherwise than to summarily dismiss it under section 20) about—

(a) a matter arising before the appointment of the judicial officer to the judicial office then held; or

(b) a matter arising before the commencement of this Act,

25 unless it appears to the Commission that the matter, if substantiated, could justify parliamentary consideration of the removal of the officer from office.

SAME BILL:—

Clause 19 having been dealt with,—

Clause 20.

Summary dismissal of complaints

20. (1) The Commission shall summarily dismiss the complaint if it is of the opinion that—

- 10 (a) the complaint is one that is required not to deal with;
 (b) the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or not in good faith;
 (c) the subject-matter of the complaint is trivial;
 (d) the matter complained about occurred at too remote a time to justify further consideration;
 15 (e) in relation to the matter complained about, there is or was available a satisfactory means of redress or of dealing with the complaint or the subject-matter of the complaint;
 (f) without limiting paragraph (e), the complaint relates to the exercise of a judicial or other function that is or was subject to adequate appeal or review rights;
 20 (g) the person complained about is no longer a judicial officer; or
 (h) having regard to all the circumstances of the case, further consideration of the complaint would be or is unnecessary or unjustifiable.

25 (2) In deciding whether or not to summarily dismiss a complaint, the Commission may have regard to such matters as it thinks fit.

Clause 22.

Constitution of Conduct Division

22. (1) The Commission shall appoint a panel of 3 persons to be members to the Conduct Division for the purpose of exercising the functions of the Division in relation to a complaint referred to the Division.

(2) The 3 persons shall be judicial officers, but one may be a retired judicial officer.

(3) One of the judicial officers shall be appointed by the Commission as Chairperson of the Conduct Division.

(4) It does not matter that any or all of the members of the Conduct Division are not members of the Commission.

(5) More than one panel may be constituted, and sit, at any time to deal with different complaints.

(6) One panel may deal with 2 or more complaints, if the Commission considers it appropriate in the circumstances.

CONSTITUTION (LOCAL GOVERNMENT) AMENDMENT BILL:—

Clause 1 having been dealt with,—

Clause 2.

Amendment of Act No. 32, 1902

10 2. The Constitution Act 1902 is amended by inserting after Part VII the following Part:

PART VIII

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Local government

15 51. (1) There shall continue to be a system of local government for the State under which duly elected or duly appointed local government bodies are constituted with responsibilities for acting for the better government of those parts of the State that are from time to time subject to that system of local government.

20 (2) The manner in which local government bodies are constituted and the nature and extent of their powers, authorities, duties and functions shall be as determined by or in accordance with laws of the Legislature.

25 (3) The reference in subsection (2) to laws of the Legislature shall be read as a reference to laws that have been enacted by the Legislature, whether before or after the commencement of this section, and that are for the time being in force.

30 (4) For the purposes of this section, the Western Lands Commissioner, the Lord Howe Island Board, and an administrator with all or any of the functions of a local government body, shall be deemed to be local government bodies.

SAME BILL:—

Clause 33 have been dealt with,—

Clause 34.

20 Use of extrinsic material in the interpretation of Acts and statutory rules

34. (1) In the interpretation of a provision of an Act or statutory rule, if any material not forming part of the Act or statutory rule is capable of assisting in the ascertainment of the meaning of the provision, consideration may be given to that material—

- 25 (a) to confirm that the meaning of the provision is the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision (taking into account its context in the Act or statutory rule and the purpose or object underlying the Act or statutory rule and, in the case of a statutory rule, the purpose or object underlying the Act under which the rule was made); or
- 30 (b) to determine the meaning of the provision—
- (i) if the provision is ambiguous or obscure; or
- (ii) if the ordinary meaning conveyed by the text of the provision (taking into account its context in the Act or statutory rule and the purpose or object underlying the Act or statutory rule and, in the case of a statutory rule, the purpose or object underlying the Act under which the rule was made) leads to a result that
- 5 is manifestly absurd or is unreasonable. (2) and (3).

SAME BILL:—

Clause 26, as amended, having been dealt with,—

Clause 27.

10 Appeals

27. (1) The proprietor or principal teacher of a school may appeal to the Tribunal established by section 26 against a decision of the registration authority—

(a) not to register the school or a part of the school;

15 (b) not to renew the registration of the school or a part of the school;
or

(c) to cancel or vary the terms of the school's registration.

20 (2) Any such appeal shall be lodged within 30 days of the giving of notice of the decision against which the appeal is brought, and shall be heard and dealt with as prescribed.

[Read.]

Question proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr Cavalier)—page 15, clause 27, lines 18 to 20—Omit all words on those lines and insert—

(2) An applicant for registration of a school may, at any time later than 12 months after lodgment of the application, by notice in writing request the registration authority to determine the application within 30 days.

(3) A failure by the registration authority to determine an application for registration of a school or part of a school—

(a) in the case of a school to which section 16 (7) applies—within the period of 60 days following lodgment of the application; or

- (b) in any other case—within the period of 30 days following service of a notice under subsection (2), shall be regarded, for the purposes of this section, as a decision of the registration authority not to register the school or part of the school.

(4) An appeal shall be lodged—

- (a) within 30 days of the giving of notice of the decision against which the appeal is brought; or
- (b) in the case of an appeal arising from a failure referred to in subsection (3)—within 30 days of the end of the relevant period referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection.

(5) An appeal shall be heard and dealt with as prescribed.

Schedule 1.

SCHEDULE 1—AMENDMENTS TO THE PRINCIPAL ACT—

* * * * *

(3) Section 19 (Persons in whose favour adoption orders may be made)—

(a) Section 19 (1A) (a), (b), (c)—

Omit the paragraphs, insert instead:

(a) that—

- 10 (ii) except as provided by subsection (1B), the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made has been brought up, maintained and educated by the applicants as their child for a period of not less than 2 years before the date of the application; and
- 15 (iii) the welfare and interests of the child will be better served by the making of an adoption order than by the making of any other order relating to the guardianship or custody of the child;

(b) that—

- 20 (i) except as provided by subsection (1B), the man and woman have so lived together for a period of not less than 3 years before the date on which the application for the adoption order is made;
- 25 (ii) the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made is a child of a class or description prescribed for the purposes of section 68A (1); and
- 30 (iii) having regard to the disability or special needs of the child, it is not likely that the welfare and interests of the child will be better served by any other placement of the child; or

(c) that—

- 35 (i) the man and woman are Aborigines (within the meaning of the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1983) and are recognised as being married according to the traditions of an Aboriginal community or Aboriginal group to which they belong; and
- (ii) the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made is an Aboriginal (within the meaning of that Act).

(b) Section 19 (1B)—

Omit the subsection, insert instead:

5 (1B) Where the Court is of the opinion that, having regard to the circumstances of the case, the welfare and interests of the child will be better served by doing so, the Court may make an adoption order referred to in subsection (1A) even though—

- (a) the man and woman who are living together on a bona fide domestic basis although not married to each other have so lived together for a period of less than 3 years; or

- 10 (b) the child in respect of whom the application for the adoption order is made has not been brought up, maintained and educated by the applicants as their child
for a period of not less than 2 years,
- 15 before the date of the application, or where the circumstances described in paragraphs (a) and (b) both apply:
