POINTS OF ORDER :— RULINGS OF SPEAKER :— That Industrial Arbitration (Temporary Court) Bill was well within the Order of Leave, and was in Order, 27. That the motion for adjournment, "The Cry of the Workless," was not in Order, not being of a definite character, 35. That he was not called upon to decide the correct name of Magistrate referred to in motion for adjournment under 49th Standing Order, 74. That motion for adjournment under 49th Standing Order was sufficiently definite, 74. That the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Bill did not interfere with trade, 110. That an amendment having been moved to insert certain words, the only question before the Committee was such amendment as it affected the resolution, and that an Honorable Member could not speak to the original resolution until the amendment was decided, 121. That a Member was within his rights in demanding a ballot before the Question had been fully put from the Chair, 182. That in an Order of Leave of a Bill the scope and general purposes should be defined, 193. That the Order of Leave of the Local Government (Extension) Bill covered the general scope and purport of the matters comprised in the Bill, 198. That taking all the circumstances into consideration, he did not think the House was taken by surprise, and therefore ruled the measure in Order, 244. That adjournment motion respecting prize fighting was out of Order on the ground that the subject could be fully discussed on the Colonial Secretary's Estimates, or when the Police Estimates were under discussion, 249.

POINTS OF ORDER (continued):—
That the practice of this House, based on decisions given for years past, had been to prevent double discussions, and any question in regard to the management or mismanagement by the Government of public affairs could be discussed in the Financial Debate, which was set down for consideration, and the necessity for the Government placing a sum of money upon the Estimates to assist the Exhibition promoted by the Australian Natives' Association, could then be fully discussed, or when the Estimates were under consideration, 254.
That as clause 2 of the Workmen's Compensation Bill included the Crown in the definition of an employer, and, as the Crown was a large employer of labour, considerable sums would be chargeable to the public revenue; the Bill should therefore have been preceded by a Message, or have been introduced by the Government, 294.
That the motion for adjournment would anticipate the Debate on the Lotteries Bill which was among the Orders of the Day set down for consideration to-day, and was therefore out of Order, 343.
That the object in sending a Bill to a Select Committee was that amendments might be suggested which the Committee thought desirable. The amendments made were within the scope of the Bill, and he therefore ruled the Bill in Order, 345.
RULINGS OF DEPUTY-SPEAKER:—
That amendment to refer case to Public Service Board, to motion for appointment of Select Committee, was relevant, 125.
That the House had power to control its own actions as to whether it would entertain the motion for privilege respecting newspaper article, and he was not prepared to rule the motion out of Order, 142.
POISONS BILL:—
Message from Lieutenant-Governor, 41; motion made ( Mr. Dick ) for Committee of the Whole, 47; House in Committee, Resolution agreed to, presented and read 1 <sup>o</sup> , 53; Motion made for 2 <sup>o</sup> , and amendment moved ( Mr. Bennett ) to read "this day six months" negatived , read 2 <sup>o</sup> , committed, 265-6.

"SOBRAON," NAUTICAL SCHOOL-SHIP ("See "EDUCATION").
SPEAKER (See also "POINTS OF ORDER") :—
Reports issue and return of Writ, 1.
Lays on Table Warrant appointing Elections and Qualifications Committee, 11; Reports maturity, 27.
Lays paper on Table, 15, 37, 43, 59, 157.
Reports Deputy-Speaker's Commission to Administer Oath of Allegiance, 33.
Clerk informs House of unavoidable absence of, and Deputy-Speaker took Chair, 123, 127, 133, 139, 143, 149.
RULINGS OF :—
That the Industrial Arbitration (Temporary Court) Bill was well within the Order of Leave, and was in Order, 27.
That the motion for adjournment, the "Cry of the Workless," was not in Order, not being of a definite character, 35.
That he was not called upon to decide the correct name of Magistrate referred to in motion for adjournment under 49th Standing Order, 74.
That motion for adjournment under 49th Standing Order was sufficiently definite, 74.
That the Landlord and Tenant (Amendment) Bill did not interfere with trade, 110.
That an amendment having been moved to insert certain words, the only question before the Committee was such amendment, as it affected the Resolution, and that an Honorable Member could not speak to the original resolution until the amendment was decided, 121.
That a Member was within his rights in demanding a ballot before the Question had been fully put from the Chair, 182.
That in an Order of Leave of a Bill the scope and general purposes should be defined, 193.
The Order of Leave covered the general scope and purport of the matters comprised in the Bill, 198.
That taking all the circumstances into consideration, he did not think the House was taken by surprise, and, therefore, he ruled the measure in Order, 244.
That adjournment motion respecting prize fighting, was out of Order, on the ground that the subject could be fully discussed on the Colonial Secretary's Estimates, or when the Police Estimates were under discussion, 249.
That the practice of this House, based on decisions given for years past, had been to prevent double discussions, and any question in regard to the management or mismanagement by the Government of public affairs could be discussed in the Financial Debate, which was set down for consideration, and the necessity for the Government placing a sum of money upon the Estimates to assist the exhibition promoted by the Australian Natives' Association could then be fully discussed, or when the Estimates were under consideration, 254.
That as clause 2 of the Workmen's Compensation Bill included the Crown in the definition of an Employer, and, as the Crown was a large employer of labour, considerable sums would be chargeable to the Public Revenue; the Bill should, therefore, have been preceded by a Message, or have been introduced by the Government, 294.
That the Motion for Adjournment would anticipate the Debate on the Lotteries Bill, which was among the Orders of the Day set down for consideration to-day, and was, therefore, out of order, 343.
That the object in sending a Bill to a Select Committee was that amendments might be suggested which the Committee thought desirable, the amendments made were within the scope of the Bill, and he therefore ruled the Bill in order, 345.
RULINGS OF DEPUTY-SPEAKER :—
That amendment to refer cases to Public Service Board, to motion for appointment of Select Committee, was relevant, 125.
That the House had power to control its own actions as to whether it would entertain the motion for privilege respecting newspaper article, and he was not prepared to rule the motion out of Order, 142.
SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT :—
Motion made for, and passed, 226.
