(EXTRACTED FROM THE MINUTES.)

TUESDAY, 26 NOVEMBER, 1951:

GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS AND TRANSPORT (AMENDMENT) BILL:

Clause 1 having been dealt with,—

Clause 2. The Government Railways Act, 1912, as amended by subsequent Amendment of Act No. 30, 1912.

(a) by inserting next after section 76A the following new section:—

76A. (1) This section shall apply only where any vacancy occurs in any branch of the railway service not open for competitive examination as hereinafter provided and the maximum salary for the vacant office at the date of the filling of such vacancy exceeds the maximum salary then applicable to a special class clerk.

(b) Where any vacancy to which this section applies occurs in any branch of the railway service it shall be filled by the appointment to the vacant office of an officer in the branch in which the vacancy occurs, regard being had to the comparative fitness and rank, position or grade of the officers in such branch; and no officer next in rank, position or grade shall be passed over unless the head of his branch, in writing, so advises the Commissioner.

Question proposed,—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr. Askin) to insert in line 18 after the word "Commissioner" the words "Where the head of the branch so advises the Commissioner he shall set out his reasons for such advice together with the name and position of seniority of any officer in his branch who in his opinion should be passed over".

Question put,—That the words proposed to be inserted be so inserted.

THURSDAY, 13 MARCH, 1958

No. 1.

FIRE BRIGADES AND BUSH FIRES (AMENDMENT) BILL:—

Clause 2. The Fire Brigades Act, 1909-1956, is amended—

(a) Amendment of Act No. 6, 1909.

(b) by omitting subsection one of section thirty-six and by inserting in lieu thereof the following subsections:

(1) (a) Every insurance company shall annually pay to the fund a sum equivalent to a percentage, to be fixed by the board, of the total amount of the premiums subject to contribution as hereinafter provided received by or due to the company during the year ended the thirty-first day of December then last past in respect of insurances against loss of or damage to any property within the State of New South Wales under the classes of policies of insurance enumerated in Column 1 of Schedule Four to this Act.

(b) by inserting next after section forty the following new sections:

40A. (1) Where in any year ending the thirty-first day of December sixty-six and two-thirds per centum or more of the total amount of all premiums subject to contribution under section thirty-six of this Act and received by or due to an insurance company were received by or are due to such company in respect of insurances against loss of or damage to any property within New South Wales outside the Sydney and Newcastle Fire Districts constituted by or in pursuance of this Act, such company may appeal against the amount of the contribution payable by it in respect of those premiums under this Act in the manner hereinafter provided.

Upon which Mr. Morton had moved that the clause be amended by inserting in line 14 after the word “property” the words “in the Sydney and Newcastle fire districts constituted by or in pursuance of this Act”.

Question put,—That the words proposed to be inserted be so inserted.

SAME BILL:—

Clause 4. Part VII of the Principal Act is amended—

(a)

(b) (i) by inserting at the end of subsection three of section two hundred and eleven the following new paragraph:—

The appointment of an auditor shall be renewed from year to year unless the Minister otherwise determines.

(ii) by inserting at the end of subsection five of the same section the following new proviso:—

Provided that in any case where he deems it necessary or expedient the Minister may fix the remuneration of an auditor and for the purposes of this Act such remuneration shall be deemed to have been fixed, and shall be payable, by the council.

[Read.]

And the clause having been amended,—

Question proposed. That the clause, as amended, stand part of the Bill,—

Motion made (Mr. Clough) to leave out all words from lines 26 to 34 inclusive with a view of inserting:—

"If the retiring Auditor having offered himself for re-election and is not re-elected, he may within 28 days appeal against his dismissal to the Public Accountants' Registration Board, who, after hearing all such evidence as it deems necessary from the appellant and the Council concerned, shall make its decision known to both parties and the Minister and such decision shall be final and conclusive, excepting on matters involving a question of law. The Council or appellant Auditor may appeal to the Supreme Court from any decision of the Board which involves a question of law."

Motion made (Mr. Morton) to leave out all words from lines 24 to 34 inclusive.

Question put (to test the Committee).—That the words "(b) (i) by inserting at the end of subsection three of section two hundred and eleven the following new paragraph;"—proposed to be left out stand part of the clause.

No. 8.

BREAD INDUSTRY, MANUFACTURE AND DELIVERY (AMENDMENT) BILL:—

Clause 1 having been dealt with,—

Clause 2. The Bread Industry Act, 1946, is amended—

Amendment of Act No. 40, 1946.

(b)
(c)
(d)
(e) by inserting next after section six the following new section:—

New sec. 6A.

6A. (1) This section applies where the times for commencing Variation work specified in the First Schedule to this Act are varied by the Minister as hereinafter provided.

Amendment of Act No. 40, 1946.
(7) A notice of the revocation of any variation under this section or of the rescission or alteration of a condition of such variation or of the imposition of additional conditions may without prejudice to any other mode of service permitted by law be served on a bread manufacturer by posting such notice to him at the address of the bakehouse in respect of which such variation applies and such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the bread manufacturer at the time when it would have been delivered at such address in the ordinary course of post.

(i) by omitting from subsection one of section ten the words Sec. 10. “authorised in that behalf by the Minister”;

(ii) by omitting from paragraph (a) of the same subsection the words “at all reasonable hours” and by inserting in lieu thereof the words “at any time”;

(j) by inserting next after section ten the following new sections:

10A. Entry under special warrant.

10B. (1) No person shall in any premises carry on the business of manufacturing, preparing or baking bread for sale, or in carrying on any business manufacture, prepare or bake in any premises bread for consumption or use in the course of that business—

(a) unless there are direct means of communication by way of ingress and egress complying with subsection two of this section, between his bakehouse and a public street;

(b) if there are any means of ingress to or egress from his bakehouse otherwise than to or from a public street.

10C. Any notice or requirement authorised by this Act or the service of regulations thereunder to be given or made, if in writing, and notice any summons to be served in respect of any offence against this requirement Act or the regulations thereunder, shall where no other express or summons provision is made and without prejudice to any other mode of Act No. service permitted by law be deemed to be duly served upon a bread manufacturer if such notice, requirement or summons be affixed to the door or some other conspicuous part of the premises of such manufacturer.

Question proposed.—That the clause, as read, stand part of the Bill.

Motion made (Mr. Willis) to insert after line 9, new subclause, as follows:—

“(8) Any bread manufacturer aggrieved by any decision of the Minister made under this section may within one month after receipt of notice thereof appeal against such decision to the Industrial Commission whose determination on the matter shall be final and binding on the Minister and such bread manufacturer. The rules of the said Commission shall mutatis mutandis apply to and govern any such appeal.”
