EDMUND BARTON, Speaker.
The House met at half-past Four o'clock p.m.: Mr. Speaker took the Chair.

INTENDED RETIREMENT OF MR. SPEAKER:—Mr. Speaker (The Honorable Edmund Barton, Esquire) addressed the House as follows:

I have an announcement to make which is probably not unexpected. When the question of Supply has been disposed of, and the Seats of Ministers have been declared vacant, this House may think it right to adjourn during the time which will be occupied by Ministers in obtaining the opinion of their constituents on their assumption of office. In view of this contingency, I think it only consistent with my respect for this House to give due and sufficient intimation of my intention to retire from its Chair. I desire, therefore, to state that when His Excellency shall have declared the causes of the convention of Parliament for the present Session, the election of my successor will become the business demanding immediate attention. During the few sittings which may take place in the meantime, I shall, of course, continue to discharge the duties, the final relinquishment of which will cost me so much regret.

Four years have now passed since I was first chosen to preside over the deliberations of this House. The Assembly to which owe that election having been dissolved, the present House met on the 17th November, 1885, and on that day unanimously called me to the Chair. The choice was thus confirmed which had first committed to my hands the trust of a great and difficult office. I should be ungrateful indeed if I failed now to express my deep sense of the distinguished honour thus twice conferred on me, and my thankfulness for the forbearance and consideration which have often encouraged me in my humble efforts to discharge to the honour of this House the most delicate and onerous duties. In the intensity of party feeling and the clash of conflict which have marked political controversy for some years, it would be passing strange if there were not from time to time some at least who believed the decisions of the Chair to be erroneous. Occasional errors were of course inevitable; but, while admitting my defects, I have the solace of feeling that my errors have been those only of judgment, and that I have honestly endeavoured to master the practice of Parliament, and to guide our proceedings according to the spirit which animates representative bodies of free men. True legislators set equal value on the two rights which are the essentials of political freedom—liberty of speech, and liberty to decide by vote. Where either of these is abused—where the assertion of either so oversteps the bounds of reason as to displace and to wrest from a representative body the fair exercise of the other, liberty is for the tune cast out, and gives place to the licentious domination of a majority in the one event, or of a minority in the other. Is it not then the duty of a Speaker to conserve, to the best of his judgment and authority, the equal operation of both these rights, and to be no party to the perversion of either in derogation of the other? This at least is the principle which I have done my utmost to keep in steady view as the guide of my action in the service of this House.

But the time draws near when this great trust should pass to other, and I hope to abler hands. My surrender of it will be chiefly in the interest of those to whom I owe protection and due provision. It is not presuming too much to believe humbly that four years of vigilant service in this Chair, in a time of exceptional difficulty, establish a sufficient title in its occupant to turn from it, in view of equal duty to be done elsewhere. But this consideration does not stand alone. Several ailments of the eyes, mainly induced, as I am advised, by want of rest, have warned me against continuing to incur the risk which arises from frequent sleepless nights. The duties of the Speaker have of late years become increasingly arduous and difficult. Both Sessions and sittings are longer than they used to be, and grave constitutional questions and novel points of procedure have multiplied exceedingly. If the rules Rules and Orders of this House be not amended, so that the business of the day and of the Session may be transacted within reasonable time, every precaution being taken to guard against the restriction of relevant debate; then not only may the country call in vain for legislation, but the lot of my successor and of his officers will be burdensome indeed.

I desire now to express my obligation to the clerks at the Table, and to the officers of the House generally for their very able assistance, rendered, as it has been, with unfailing and generous readiness. To part from them will add much to the natural regret which must attend my retirement from the Chair.

I desire again to thank my Table Members for all the support and kindness which I have enjoyed, and to express my deep sorrow if, in the performance of duty, I have in any instance been so unfortunate as to cause unnecessary pain. In conclusion, I take leave to adopt some words uttered on a similar occasion by the high-minded and honoured gentleman who now presides in another place, "that my earnest wish and prayer is that, in spite of every difficulty and discouragement, representative institutions, the noblest inheritance of our British race, may be successful in securing for this country all the blessings of good Government."

Sir Henry Parkes and Sir Patrick Jennings then complimented Mr. Speaker on his past services, and expressed their great regret at his retirement; and Mr. Speaker made his acknowledgments.

2. MEETING OF THE HOUSE.—Mr. A. G. Taylor submitted, as a Point of Order, that the House having yesterday adjourned without naming a day or time for its next meeting, and there being no Standing or Sessional Orders in force to prescribe the day and hour of meeting, the sitting of the House to-day was illegal.

Mr. Speaker said that if the point taken were tenable, the effect of the adjournment would have been equivalent to that of a prorogation, and that the convention, prorogation, and dissolution of Parliament were prerogatives of the Crown. The House, clearly, was still in Session, and as the strict meaning of an adjournment was a continuation of the Session from day to day, it was obvious that the resolution carried meant that the House was to meet this day. As to the time of meeting, the only guide was the practice of the House. It being his duty to take the Chair to-day, he had deemed it right to do so at the time sanctioned by that practice for years past.

3. APPOINTMENT OF MEMBERS OF NEW MINISTRY.—Mr. Speaker announced to the House the receipt by the Acting Clerk of the following letter, addressed to that Officer by the Principal Under Secretary of the Colonial Secretary's Department:—

"Sir,

'I am directed to transmit herewith, for the information of the Honorable the 4.

4. MINISTERIAL STATEMENT.—Sir Henry Parkes proceeding to make a Statement in reference to the steps taken by him in the formation of the new Government.—

Point of Order.—Mr. A. G. Taylor requested the ruling of the Chair on the question as to whether Sir Henry Parkes, a Member of the new Administration, has the right to sit in this House without re-election.

Mr. Speaker stated that the propriety of the position held by Sir Henry Parkes was a question for the decision of the House rather than of the Chair; but, as that honorable gentleman had not resigned his Seat, or accepted an Office of profit under the Crown, he could not rule that the Honorable Member had not the right to address this House.

Mr. Melville requiring that the letter from the Principal Under Secretary, dated 20th January instant, should be read by the Acting Clerk,—

Letter read accordingly, by direction of Mr. Speaker, as follows:—

"Colonial Secretary's Office, Sydney, 20 January, 1887.

"I have the honor to be,

"Your most obedient servant,

"CRITCHETT WALKER,

"The Acting Clerk of the Legislative Assembly."

Mr. Melville then had upon the Table a copy of a Supplement to the Government Gazette, dated 20th January, 1887, and required that it be read by the Acting Clerk,—

"SUPPLEMENT TO THE NEW SOUTH WALES GOVERNMENT GAZETTE, PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY,

"Trinumty,

"20 JANUARY, 1887.

"No. 83.

"Executive Council Chamber, Sydney, 20 January, 1887.

"His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in His Majesty's name, summoned

"The Honorable Thomas Garrett, Esquire,

"to the Legislative Council, by Writ of Summons under the Great Seal of the Colony.

"By His Excellency's Command,

"HENRY PARKES."

Point of Order.—Mr. Melville submitted that, inasmuch as the notification in the Gazette just read had been signed by Sir Henry Parkes, and the Great Seal used to give it validity, that Honorable Member has been proved to have acted in an office of profit under the Crown, and should therefore vacate his Seat.

Mr. Speaker said that the matter could not be decided as a Point of Order, but, as one affecting the validity of a Member's Seat, should be submitted for the decision of the House on a specific motion.

5. PRIVILEGE—SEAT OF SIR HENRY PARKES, K.C.M.G.—Mr. A. G. Taylor moved, That it be referred to the Committee of Elections and Qualifications (to be hereafter appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Electoral Act) to determine whether Sir Henry Parkes, K.C.M.G., having acted de facto as Colonial Secretary by affixing the Great Seal of the Colony to a Gazette Proclamation read by the Clerk of the House, has not thereby forfeited his Seat under the Constitution Act.

And Sir Henry Parkes having been heard in his place, withdrew.

Debate ensued.

Question put and negatived.

6. MINISTERIAL STATEMENT—ADJOURNMENT.—Sir Henry Parkes made a statement relative to the formation of the new Administration, and moved, That this House do now adjourn until tomorrow at four o'clock.

Debate ensued.

Question put and passed.

The House adjourned accordingly at seven minutes before Twelve o'clock, until to-morrow at Four o'clock.

EDMUND BARTON,

Speaker.
VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

FRIDAY, 21 JANUARY, 1887.

1. The House met pursuant to adjournment: Mr. Speaker took the Chair.

COMMITTEE OF ELECTIONS AND QUALIFICATIONS:—Mr. Speaker, pursuant to the requirement of the Electoral Act of 1880, laid upon the Table his Warrant appointing the Committee of Elections and Qualifications for the present Session, of which the following is a copy:

"By the Honorable the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales.

"Pursuant to the power in that behalf vested in me, as Speaker of the Legislative Assembly of New South Wales, by the Electoral Act of 1880, I do hereby appoint

"Septimus Alfred Stephen, Esquire,
"William Joseph Trickett, Esquire,
"Francis Bathurst Suttor, Esquire,
"Edmund Barton, Speaker.
"Henry Clarke, Esquire,
"John Mitchell Purves, Esquire,
"George Houston Reid, Esquire,
"Frederick Thomas Humphery, Esquire,

"being Members of the said Assembly, to be Members of the Committee of Elections and Qualifications in the said Act referred to, during the present Session of the Assembly aforesaid.

"Given under my hand, at the Legislative Assembly Chamber, Macquarie-street, Sydney, this twenty-first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

"EDMUND BARTON, Speaker."

2. VACANT SEATS:—Sir Henry Parkes moved,—

(1) "That" the Seat of Sohn Fitzgerald Burns, Esquire, hath become and is now vacant, by reason of his acceptance of the office of Colonial Treasurer since his Election and Return to serve in this House as Member for the Electoral District of The Hunter.

Point of Order:—Mr. A. G. Taylor submitted that the motion was out of order as unnecessary, the 3rd section of the Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1884 declaring that if any Member shall accept any office of profit his Election shall be declared void, and requiring that a writ shall forthwith issue for a new Election.

Mr. Speaker ruled that the motion was quite in order, being the proper authority for the issue of the writ under the 17th section of the Electoral Act.

Mr. A. G. Taylor moved, That the question be amended by the omission of all the words after the word "That," with a view to the insertion in their place of the words "the Seat of the Honorable Member for The Hunter, Mr. Burns, is vacant, under the 3rd section of the Constitution Act Amendment Act of 1884."

Mr. Speaker ruled that the two propositions were identical, and that the proposed amendment could not be put.

Mr. A. G. Taylor moved, That this House dissents from the ruling of the Chair.

Debate ensued.

Question put.
The House divided.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!
BUSINESS UNDISPOSED OF AT THE CLOSE OF THE SESSION 1887.

(PROLOGUED TUESDAY, 25 JANUARY, 1897.)

QUESTIONS:—

1. Mr. Garland to ask The Colonial Treasurer,—
   (1.) Whether he has received any communication from the Colonial Office relative to a proposed Conference on Imperial Federation; if so, what is the nature of such correspondence?
   (2.) Has he, without the consent of Parliament, pledged the country to the despatch of a representative to England to take part in such proposed Conference?

2. Mr. Hammond to ask The Minister of Justice,—
   (1.) If it is true that he has received a sworn statement, since the execution of Duffy, Read, Boyce, and Martin, from William Brown, one of the Crown witnesses in the Mount Rennie outrage, seriously reflecting on the veracity of some of the principal evidence against the prisoners?
   (2.) If so, will he cause the same to be laid upon the Table of the House without delay, together with any other like statement from any other person before or since the execution?
   (3.) Is it true that three or four of the principal Crown witnesses in the Mount Rennie case have, since the trial, been committed to gaol for improper conduct in public places?

3. Mr. Hammond to ask The Colonial Secretary,—
   (1.) Is it a fact that men engaged on the tender-boat plying between Quarantine Station and the Circular Quay or other landing places, during an outbreak of small-pox, are permitted to mix with the general public; if not, what precaution is there taken against such taking place?
   (2.) What are the means adopted for disinfecting the various kinds of clothing, especially black cloth and other like material?

NOTICES OF MOTIONS:—

1. Mr. Trickett to move, That this House will, on Friday next, resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole to consider an Address to the Governor, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to cause the necessary steps to be taken to make provision for the payment of a sum of money not exceeding £3,000, to compensate Captain Armstrong for all the consequences of his dismissal from his position of Resident Magistrate at Lord Howe Island.

2. Mr. Melville to move, That, in the opinion of this House, the best interests of the Colony require such an extension of the principle of Local Option that the right to decide whether they will have any licensed public-houses or not be conceded to the people.

3. Mr. A. G. Taylor to move,—
   (1.) That, in the opinion of this House, the action of the late Secretary for Public Works in dismissing Mr. Mosely from the Works Department because he refused to resign his position as an Alderman of the Petersham Municipality was tyrannical and unjust, and calls for the severe reprobation of the Legislative Assembly.
   (2.) That this House is further of opinion that it is the duty of the present Secretary for Public Works to reinstate Mr. Mosely in the Civil Service, and to compensate him for the unwarrantable and despotic treatment he has received.

4. Mr. A. G. Taylor to move,—
   (1.) That, in the opinion of this House, His Excellency Baron Carrington would have exhibited a more satisfactory exercise of his prerogative, had he permitted the equal division of opinion in the Executive Council to influence him to defer the execution of the Mount Rennie criminals, with the object of fuller inquiry and further deliberation.
   (2.) That this House further expresses its opinion that His Excellency should not receive deputations of citizens to urge the execution of men under sentence of death.
   (3.) That the above Resolutions be transmitted by Address to His Excellency the Governor.
5. Mr. O'SULLIVAN to move, That there be laid upon the Table of this House, copies of all documents, maps, telegrams, and correspondence referring to the proposed road from Bungendore to Hoskington, across Molonglo Plains.

6. Mr. O'CONNOR to move, That, in the opinion of this House, a free pass upon the Government Railways should be issued to any child to travel to and from any school, in the same manner as it is now issued to a child attending a public school.

7. Mr. DAVIES to move, That, in the opinion of this House, all differential railway rates should be abolished, and that a uniform mileage rate at per ton be substituted in lieu thereof for the carriage of all goods on the Government Railways.

8. Mr. DAVIES to move, That a Bill be brought in to make provision for the imposition of export duties on all goods leaving the Colony across the Border or by river.

9. Mr. DAVIES to move, That there be laid upon the Table of this House, copies of all letters, minutes, papers, and correspondence, having reference to the appointment of the late Sir Alexander Stuart as the Executive Commissioner to the Indian and Colonial Exhibition in London, and copies of all letters and papers having reference to the appointments of Mr. Kenneth Stuart and Captain Loftus as Secretaries to the Commission.
