D. R. S. on CHAIR.

By His Excellency's Command,

JOHN T. LANG.

The President then said,—

Honorable Members of the Legislative Council and Members of the Legislative Assembly,—We have it in command from His Excellency the Governor to acquaint you that His Excellency desires that you take into your grave consideration such matters as may be submitted to you.

Honorable Members of the Legislative Assembly,—We are further commanded to acquaint you that His Excellency desires that such measures may be taken by you as may be deemed expedient to meet the exigencies of the Public Services.

And the House having returned,—

5. NOMINATION OF MEMBER.—Elecrion, the debate on this subject interrupted by the proceedings recorded in Entry 4 above,—resumed.

Mr. Baddeley moved, That, in the opinion of this House, the Clerk was in error in declaring that the party interest represented by Mr. A. D. Kay, late Member for North Shore, was that of the Labour Party, and that, therefore, the Honorable Mr. Lang is not entitled to nominate Mr. A. Tonge, as the person entitled to be elected in place of Mr. Kay.

Point of Order,—Dr. Evatt pointed out that Mr. Speaker had already acted under section 7 of the Parliament-Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act. Only one nomination had been handed to him, and section 7 provided that upon receipt of any such nomination the Speaker should communicate to the Assembly the name of the person so nominated; this has been done, and the section further provided that such person should thereupon be deemed to be elected as a member for the constituency for which the nomination had been made in the place of the late member. He submitted that it was perfectly clear that the motion was of order; the Clerk having made the nomination, which it was his duty to do under section 6, and Mr. Speaker having indicated the Leader of the Government's nomination to the House, section 7 automatically operated, and the person nominated automatically became a member of this House.

Mr. Speaker said that Privilege was expressly limited, but it had been held that the election of a member or matters appertaining to members of this House were questions of privilege, consequently he had no option but to admit the motion.

Debate ensued.

Mr. Baddeley moved, That the Question be now put.

Question put,—"That the Question be now put."

The House divided.
And it appearing by the Tellers’ Lists that the number in favour of the motion, being a majority, consisted of “at least thirty members.”

Original question put.

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

FOURTH SESSION OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH PARLIAMENT.

THURSDAY, 23 SEPTEMBER, 1926.

1. The House met pursuant to adjournment. Mr. Speaker took the Chair.

Suspension of Standing Orders (Supply Bill):—Mr. Lang proceeding to move Notice of Motion No. 5.

Point of Order:—Mr. Levy pointed out that under Standing Order No. 39, taken in conjunction with Standing Order No. 32, it was incompetent for this House to deal with any business other than formal business until an Address in Reply to the Governor's Opening Speech had been adopted. It might be said that no Governor's Speech had been submitted, and therefore there could not be an Address in Reply, but Standing Order 39, which was clear and specific, provided that no business except of a formal nature should be entered upon before an Address in Reply to the Governor's Speech had been adopted.

The Speaker administered the law of Parliament, and the Standing Orders had the same effect as an Act of Parliament, and Standing Order 32 said that when the reasons for calling Parliament together were announced by the Commissioners appointed by the Governor, the same forms should be observed by the Assembly as when the Governor opened Parliament in person. That clearly contemplated that there were two methods by which the Governor's Speech could be made, namely, one in person, where the Governor himself came down to the House and made his speech, and the other indirectly in the way it was done yesterday, and which was referred to in the Standing Order as the announcement by the Commissioners of the reasons for assembling Parliament.

The Standing Orders were duly carried out up to a certain stage, by the Assembly attending that meeting in another place to hear the speech in the sense of an address or message by the Governor to both Houses, stating the reasons for Parliament being summoned, and by the Speaker formally reporting the same to this House. On one or two occasions in recent years the Address in Reply has not been framed by the House when the Governor did not think fit to come and open the House in person. But the fact that this provision was omitted on two or three occasions in recent years did not justify the ignoring of the Standing Orders by the Speaker when attention was properly called to them. He asked Mr. Speaker's ruling whether it was competent for the House to go on with the ordinary business of the House before something in the nature of an Address in Reply to the communication which had been made to it by the Governor and formally reported to this House had been adopted.

Mr. Speaker said: That he was ready to rule because when he saw that the House was to be opened by Commission he anticipated that a Point of this description might be raised. It was important, and one which was worthy of a decision. The real essence of the whole point was whether the word "Speech," meant "Message," or whether "Message," meant "Speech," as contained in Standing Order 39 taken in conjunction with Standing Order 32.

He must rule that the message which was received was not a Speech in accordance with established precedent in this House by his predecessors in this Chair, and he thought that before altering the decision of a previous Speaker very strong and substantial reasons must exist for doing so.

2. ADJOURNMENT:—

(1.) Mr. Speaker stated that he had received from Mr. William Davies, one of the Honorable Members for Wollondilly, a Notice under the 49th Standing Order, that he desired to move the adjournment of the House, to discuss a definite matter of urgent public importance, viz.:—"The vital necessity for the prevention of the destruction of Australian Native Flora in the National Parks of the State."

And the Motion for the adjournment of the House being supported by five other Honorable Members,—

Mr. Davies moved, That this House do now adjourn.

Point of Order:—Mr. J. C. L. Fitzpatrick pointed out that there was already on the business-paper a bill dealing with the subject referred to in the motion for adjournment, and the matter which it was now proposed to discuss could be dealt with when that bill was under consideration. Further, it had been decided by previous Speakers that a motion which was clearly intended to forestall another motion of colour was not tenable and should not prevent a further motion being taken.

Mr. Speaker said there was no doubt that the point of order was fatal, and that the question set out in the motion could be discussed in connection with an order of the day now on the business-paper. With regard to the second point, he thought a radical alteration in the present system in regard to adjournment motions should be made, but as the motion had already been moved he thought it best to leave the matter to the House, and some Member might move that a second motion of adjournment be entertained.
