That an Honorable Member having been adjudged guilty of contempt, the House could order what punishment it thought fit, 23.

That an Honorable Member was not a Minister of the Crown within the meaning of subsection 7 of section 16 of the Audit Act, 91.

That motion for adjournment which anticipated a motion of which notice had been given was out of order, 74, 119.

That name of Member for appointment on Public Accounts Committee must be submitted without delay, 76, 76.

That amendment to add words, incurring additional expenditure, to motion to refer work to Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works, could not be accepted as there was no provision in the plan submitted by the Minister in accordance with the Public Works Act, 92.

That motion for adjournment to discuss Hare System of voting at Elections was out of order, as the question could be discussed on the motion to bring in Temporary Supply Bill that day, 109.

That amendment to add words, incurring additional expenditure, to motion to refer work to Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works, could not be accepted as there was no provision in the plan submitted by the Minister in accordance with the Public Works Act, 92.

That an Honorary Minister was entitled to move the second reading of a Bill on behalf of the Secretary for Mines, 218.

That the Forestry Bill proposed to amend some and repeal other provisions of the Crown Lands Acts, without any mention of such amendment or repeal in the Title, and was, therefore, out of order, 222.

That the State Children's Bill necessitated public expenditure, and infringed the privileges of the Assembly and should have been introduced in the Assembly and preceded by a Message from the Crown, 235.

The provision for issue of mining licenses in clause 16 of the Forestry Bill (No. 2) was fully covered by the Title; it was not clear that the Bill proposed to amend the Crown Lands Act of 1885, nor did it conflict sufficiently with the Crown Lands Act Amendment Bill, passed this Session, to be ruled out of order on that ground; the Bill was, therefore, in order, 249.

That an amendment, proposed in Committee, to the resolution to introduce the Reduction of Costs Bill, which would practically reverse the leading principle of the resolution, would not be relevant, 249.

That motion for adjournment to discuss the conduct of the Captain of the s.s. "Elginshire" in leaving sailors penniless in our State was in order, as a free opportunity for discussion would not be afforded in Supply, 257.

That clause 7 of the Declaration Bill proposed to amend an Act not indicated in the order of laws, and the Bill was therefore out of order, 297.

That motion in reference to the Liquor Traffic did not anticipate debate on the 2nd of the Liquor Bill, 312.

That suspension of Standing Orders to discuss motion as a matter of urgency only cleared the way for the motion to be moved in advance of its regular order, 312.

That the terms of the motion suspending Standing and Sessional Orders to discuss motion respecting the Liquor Traffic as a matter of urgency, precluded the moving of such motion, 313.

That Bills of Sale (Amendment) Bill (Council Bill) did not involve expenditure or impose taxation, the practice, which was in accord with rulings given in the House of Commons, was, that Bills involving expenditure or imposing taxation should be introduced in the Assembly and through Committee of the whole, but Bills other than these might be introduced in the Upper House, 329.

That although a protest could not be given nor a personal explanation be made, at the time of laying papers on the Table, a member was not precluded from moving the adjournment under the 49th Standing Order to discuss the subject matter of such papers, 341.

That Public Places Advertisements Bill did not absolutely prohibit advertisements and was in order, 353.

That a motion to pass Bill through all its remaining stages in one day as a matter of urgency was in order, although the Orders of the Day had been entered upon, 359.

That amendment to add words "revenues derived from the alienation of the Public Estate" to a motion in favour of placing moneys accruing to the State under the "Braddon" clause in a sinking fund was irrelevant and beyond the scope of the original motion, 377.

That it would be wise to follow the usual course and declare it to be in order, although a pricelists could not be given nor a personal explanation be made, at the time of laying papers on the Table, a member was not precluded from moving the adjournment under the 49th Standing Order to discuss the subject matter of such papers, 341.

That motion in favour of placing moneys accruing to the State under the "Braddon" clause in a sinking fund was irrelevant and beyond the scope of the original motion, 377.

That motion for adjournment to discuss delay in constructing a tramway to Kurri Kurri, anticipated Debate on motion of which notice had been given during the same sitting, 387.

That Government Savings Bank (Amendment) Bill did not exceed the order of leave, 207.

That form of motion to be moved as a matter of urgency was in accordance with the requirements of Standing Order No. 253, 308.

That Bill to amend the Crown Lands (Amendment) Bill, originated in the Council, was out of order, 297, and the Bill was therefore out of order, 297.

That although not anticipated by the motion in considering the Bill, a motion to declare the Sugar Growing Bill to be in order, although the Orders of the Day had been entered upon, 359.

That the motion was not out of order in moving for the consideration of a subject as a matter of urgency because he had admitted having placed a notice of motion for the adjournment in the Box, which motion had not been drawn, and the House had decided that a second motion for adjournment should not be entertainable, 387.

RULINGS OF DEPUTY-SPEAKER:—

That motions suggesting provisions for New Land Bill anticipated debate on 2nd of Crown Lands Act Amendment Bill, and was therefore out of order, 122.

That the Forestry Bill (No. 2) did not propose to amend the Mining Laws, but only the Crown Lands Act of 1884, to which it referred, and was in order, 258.

DISSENT FROM RAILING:—

RESUMPTION OF PORTION OF RULINGS OF DEPUTY:—

That although the motion suspending Standing Orders to discuss motion as a matter of urgency only cleared the way for the motion to be moved in advance of its regular order, 355.

That the terms of the motion suspending Standing and Sessional Orders to discuss motion respecting the Liquor Traffic as a matter of urgency, precluded the moving of such motion, 313.

That Bills of Sale (Amendment) Bill (Council Bill) did not involve expenditure or impose taxation, the practice, which was in accord with rulings given in the House of Commons, was, that Bills involving expenditure or imposing taxation should be introduced in the Assembly and through Committee of the Whole, but Bills other than those might be introduced in the Upper House, 329.

That although a motion could not be given nor a personal explanation be made at the time of laying the papers on the Table, a Member was not precluded from moving the adjournment under the 49th Standing Order to discuss the subject matter of such papers, 341.

That Public Places Advertisements Bill did not absolutely prohibit advertisements, and was in order, 352.

That a motion to pass Bill through all its remaining stages in one day, as a matter of urgency was in order, although the Orders of the Day had been entered upon, 386.

That amendment to add words "Revenue Derived from the Alienation of the Public Estate," to motion in favour of placing moneys accruing to the State under the "Braddon" Clause, was not out of order in moving for the consideration of a subject as a matter of urgency, 373.
