POINTS OF ORDER —

RULING OF SPEAKER —
On Motions for Adjournment —
The Answers given to Questions respecting the Jury Panel of the Bowling trial would anticipate motions on the same subject, if which notice had been given, and motion was out of order, 69.

The necessity for the reduction of fares on the Suburban Railway System could be discussed in Committee of Supply, notice of which was on the Notice Paper, and was, therefore, out of order, 91.

The exclusion of the Clerks from the Schedule of the Industrial Disputes Act was in order, although it could have been discussed previously in Committee of Supply, 103.

The necessity for considering the advisability of amending the Invalidity Pensions Act in the direction of providing pensions for the indigent blind would anticipate motion of which notice had been given, and was out of order, 129.

That improvement leases and scrub leases be withdrawn with the object of resuming same for Closer Settlement purposes would anticipate motion of which notice had been given, and was out of order, 136.

The iniquitous system of sweating which prevails in regard to female labour, notwithstanding the Industrial Disputes Act, was out of order, not being definite, 114.

The action of certain Officials connected with Trades Unions in compromising with Employers charged with having committed breaches of awards made by Wages Boards appointed under the Industrial Disputes Act of 1908, was out of order, not being definite, 114.

RULING OF DEPUTY-SPEAKER —
That it has been the practice that the Government take their business in the order they propose without formally postponing the intervening business, the Minister in charge merely intimating what business he intended to proceed with, 45.

On Motion for Adjournment —
The action of certain Officials connected with Trades Unions in compromising with Employers charged with having committed breaches of awards made by Wages Boards appointed under the Industrial Disputes Act of 1908, was out of order, not being definite, 114.
