SPEAKER (continued):—

THE HONORABLE HENRY WILLIS:—

Motion (Mr. Levy), with reference to Agreement between the Government and, ruled out of order, 12.

Writ issued against, by the Honorable John Parry, 15.

Please, etc., in case Perry v., 219

DISSENT FROM RULING:—

Decisions to leave the Chair, without Question put, after returning from hearing the Lieutenant-Governor's Speech delivered, and negatived (Mr. Cohen), 9.

That he can on his own authority postpone a private Member's motion duly set down on the Business Paper, and negatived (Mr. Cohen), 15.

That the motion of urgency which the Honorable Member for Darlinghurst was proceeding to move in reference to Notice of Motion No. 32 on the Notice Paper for that day, in reference to an agreement between the Government and the Honorable Henry Willis in reference to the office of Speaker, was out of order, and negatived (Mr. Levy), 17.

That a Question asked by the Honorable Member for Darlinghurst, that certain remarks alleged to have been made at Lithgow, as reported in the newspapers of that day, was out of order, because the Honorable Member would not vouch for the correctness of the said reports, and negatived (Mr. Levy), 30.

That the motion "That the Speaker's words accusing the Honorable Member for Gordon of prevarication be taken down," was out of order, and negatived (Dr. Archer), 27.

"That it was not in order to discuss a motion dealing with the conduct of the Speaker," and negatived (Mr. Wood), 48.

"The Honorable Member is very much out of order in intercepting the Premier in the delivery of his speech; it must not continue to do so," and negatived (Mr. Greenway Holli), 58.

The refusal to place on Business Paper, of 28th September, a notice of motion of dissent from an action not a ruling, duly given by the Honorable Member for Darlinghurst, on 27th September, and negatived (Mr. Levy), 60.

That a motion moved as a matter of Privilege, referring to the action of Mr. Speaker in refusing the Honorable Member for Bega, to address the House, depriving him of his right of free speech, was out of order, not being a matter of Privilege, but one of order, and negatived (Mr. Wood), 60.

That he can postpone a question of Privilege and allow other business to intervene in accordance with Standing Order No. 12—and House counted out (Mr. Price), 61.

That the debate on the motion of Mr. Levien should terminate by calling Mr. Darien in reply. 226.

That the motion "That the Speaker's words be taken down" was obsolete, and therefore out of order, 12.

That a motion under Privilege referring to the action of Mr. Speaker in refusing to allow the Honorable Member for Bega, to address the House, depriving him of his right of free speech, was out of order, not being a matter of Privilege, but one of order, and negatived (Mr. Wood), 60.

That the debate on the motion of Mr. Levien should terminate by calling Mr. Levien in reply, although Honorable Members rose and wished to address the House, and negatived (Mr. Wade), 225.

DISSENT FROM RULING:—

Removal of the Honorable Member for Darling Harbour from the Chamber when in the act of addressing the House, (Mr. Wood) "Point of Order,—That the motion proposed to dissent from an action not a ruling, Further Points of Order.—That the conduct of Mr. Speaker had recently been under review, and that his action could not be again discussed,—ruled against, motion negatived, 231.

RULING OF:—

That when there was no Standing Order, resort was had to the Custom and Proceedings of the House of Commons, 8, 13.

That a matter of Privilege should take precedence over the notice for Dissent from Speaker's Ruling, 8, 12.

That a motion to discuss the agreement between the Government and The Honorable Henry Willis, in reference to the office of Speaker, was out of order as no agreement had been entered into, 12.

That the motion given notice of by the Honorable Member for Darlinghurst (Mr. Levy), which had been ruled out of order, was still out of order, for the reasons previously given, 17.

That the notice of motion of the Honorable Member for Bega (Mr. Wood), which referred to the continued intimation of the law of Parliament, was out of order; a course was provided for dissenting from the rulings of Mr. Speaker, 17.

That a motion "That the Speaker's words be taken down" was obsolete and therefore out of order, 19.

That the House had no cognizance of what appeared in the Press, and therefore a motion respecting certain statements by Mr. Speaker respecting the Honorable Member for Gordon was not one of Privilege, and was out of order, 19.

That motion (Mr. Levy) in reference to expunging notices of motions from Business Paper was out of order, 29.

That it was not in order to discuss a motion dealing with the conduct of the Speaker, and motion was therefore out of order, 41.

That a motion under Privilege referring to the action of Mr. Speaker in refusing the Honorable Member for Bega (Mr. Wood) the right to address the House on a motion then before the House, depriving him of his right of free speech, was out of order, not being a matter of Privilege, 47-9.

That the Totalizator Bill did not constitute a tax on the revenue, and therefore did not require the vote of the House, and was in order, 53.

That a motion which appeared on the Business Paper, and had lapsed, could not be moved on the same day as an amendment on the reading of Order of the Day for Committee of Ways and Means, as it had been dealt with, 121.

That it was for the House to determine whether a paragraph which appeared in the Press should be read, 123.

That if the Honorable Member for Gordon (Mr. Wade) had denied the statement made in the Daily Telegraph, headed "Mr. Speaker's Ruling—Mr. Wade's Complaint," the editor of paper might then have been summoned, but the Honorable Member had owned up to having used the words and was making his defence, 124.
That the Public Works and Closer Settlement Funds (Amendment) Bill was properly before the House, although referring to the Sinking Fund, was not tenable, 277.

That the Public Works Bill was in order, and the point raised might be continued of bringing in a Public Works Bill on the same day as the Resolution that the work be carried out was passed, 222.

That the Housing Bill was not at variance with the Public Works Act, and the Public Service Act, and was not out of order, 236.

That the action of the Speaker could not be questioned at any time except by specific motion, but any Honorable Member might move to dissent from the Speaker's ruling, 231.

That the Parliamentary Representatives Allowance Bill was in order, and the point raised was out of order, 226.

That the State Coal mines Bill did not amend or contravene the Public Works Act, and was not out of order, 226.

That the Parliamentary Privilege Bill was an exercise of the powers conferred by Clause 5 of the Constitution Acts and was in order, 296.

That motion respecting the necessity for providing more rolling-stock on the Railways, and any motion in reference to the same, was in order, 174.

That motion respecting the necessity for protecting witnesses before Royal Commission on shortage of railway trucks, was in order, 239.

That the Minister accused having unreservedly withdrawn the allegation complained of, and the motion to censure the Minister, was out of order, 239.

That no motion being in the box no division could be had on motion that second motion be withdrawn, 201.

That the stamp duties (Amendment) Bill was strictly in accordance with the Message, and was properly before the House, although referring to the Sinking Fund, was not tenable, 107.

That the resolution respecting the urgency of a motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order did not rest on the Speaker, 237.

That the State Coal mines Bill was not inconsistent with the Government Railways Act, was within the Order of Leave, and in order, 246.

That the State Coal mines Bill did not amend or contravene the Public Works Act, and was properly before the House, 246.

That the Parliamentary Representatives Allowance Bill was in order, and the point raised was out of order, 226.

That the State Coal mines Bill did not amend or contravene the Public Works Act, and was properly before the House, 245.

That the motion for adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order did not rest on the Speaker, 237.

That the Government in connection with the operation of the Old Age and Invalid Pensions Act, was not one of urgent public importance, and could not be entertained, 239.

That motion to discuss the further extension of the Botanic Gardens by the widening of Macquarie-street was in order, 112.

That motion in reference to the necessity of making representation to the Federal Government in connection with the operation of the Old Age and Invalid Pensions Act, was not one of urgent public importance, and could not be entertained; the matter could be dealt with in Ways and Means, 174.

That motion regarding the closing of country refreshment shops on Sundays, was definite and in order, 174.

That Friday being a day on which Government Business only could be taken, a motion was out of order, 212.

That the motion regarding congestion of traffic in Sydney streets anticipated discussion on a motion of which notice had been given, and was out of order, 220.

That motion to discuss the electrification of the Illawarra Tramway system was indefinite and out of order, 223.

That the Minister accused having unreservedly withdrawn the allegation complained of, was out of order, 228.

That motion regarding the closing of country refreshment shops on Sundays, was definite and in order, 174.

That the Stamp Duties (Amendment) Bill was strictly in accordance with the Message, and was properly before the House, although referring to the Sinking Fund, was not tenable, 107.
