POSTPONEMENTS (See "BUSINESS"; also "ORDERS OF THE DAY").

PRINTING COMMITTEE (See "COMMITTEES").

PRIVILEGE —
Nomination of Member—Electoral District of North Shore:—
Motion made (Mr. Bain) as a matter of Urgency—That the Clerk was in error in declaring that the party interest represented by Mr. A. D. Kay, late Member for North Shore, was that of the Labour Party, and that, therefore, the Honorable Member Mr. Lang is not entitled to nominate Mr. A. Tonge as the person entitled to be elected in place of Mr. Kay. Point of order—That the motion was out of order; the Clerk having made the nomination, which it was his duty to do under section 5 of the Parliamentary Elections (Casual Vacancies) Act, and Mr. Speaker having indicated the Leader of the Government's nomination to this House, section 7 of the Act automatically operated, and the person nominated automatically became a member of this House.—Mr. Speaker admitted the motion—the election of a member or matters appertaining to members were questions of privilege.—Motion negatived, 9-4.
