BILLS OF SPEAKER:

- That Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill was Government Business, and that Order of the Day was in its right place, 46.

Then Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill required a Message in the present Session, and Bill should not be proceeded with, 46.

That Public Instruction Act Amendment Bill did not require a Message from the Crown, 109.

That amendment on motion in favour of a Protective Policy, to impose poll-tax on Asians, etc. was not relevant, 133.
REFERENCES TO THE VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, VOLS. I & II—18TH PARLIAMENT—SESSION OF 1893.

In reference to authority of Chairman of Committees, in deciding points of order in Committee of the Whole, 142.

That Labour Protection Bill authorised expenditure, and should be covered by a Message from the Governor, 149.

RELICS OF DEPUTY SPEAKER.—

That amendment providing for compensation in the Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill (No. 2) was covered by the Message, 68.

That amendment, on amendment, to include duty on imported timber, to levy specific duties, to abolish ad valorem duties, and to levy poll-tax on coloured races, was relevant to the motion in reference to Protective Policy, and that the said amendment did not anticipate motion already on the Notice Paper, 65.

That amendment on motion to rescind Resolutions in reference to Australian Naval Defences was identical with the resolutions sought to be rescinded; and was virtually the same question twice offered, and therefore out of Order, 65.

Referring to ruling of Mr. Speaker Abbott on 18th April, 1893, in reference to appointment of Chairman of Committees, he would not, as Deputy Speaker, alter the invariable practice of the House since the year 1886, 69.

That Children's Protection Act Amendment Bill was beyond the Order of Leave, 77.

That Public Works Amendment Bill increased expenditure, and should be covered by a Message from the Governor, 77.

That Reduction of Cost of Legislation Bill did not affect trade and was not beyond the Order of Leave, 77.

That Right of Property in Telegraphic Messages Bill did not relate to trade, and need not, therefore, be introduced in Committee, 77.

That House had been properly constituted, and that the Deputy Speaker was legally placed in the Chair, notwithstanding that the Chair had been taken after the time appointed by the Sessional Order, 80.

RULINGS OF—

That Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill was Government Business, and that Order of the Day was in the right place on the Business Paper, 49.

That Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill required a Message in the present Session, and Bill could not be proceeded with, 46.

That motion for fixing day for consideration of Committee's Amendments in a Bill was not subject to amendment, 101.

That Public Instruction Act Amendment Bill did not require a Message from the Governor, 120.

That proposed amendment, of the amendment on motion in favour of Protective Policy, was not relevant to original motion, 139.

In reference to authority of Chairman of Committees in deciding Points of Order in Committee of the Whole, 142.

That Labour Protection Bill authorized expenditure, and should be covered by a Message from the Governor, 149.

RULINGS OF DEPUTY—

That amendment providing for compensation in the Liquor Traffic Local Option Bill (No. 2) was covered by the Message, 49.

That amendment on amendment, to include duty on imported timber, to levy specific duties, to abolish ad valorem duties, and to levy poll-tax on coloured races, was relevant to the motion in reference to Protective Policy, and that the said amendment did not anticipate motion already on the Notice Paper, 99.

That amendment on motion to reinsert Resolution in reference to Australian Naval Defence was identical with one of the Resolutions sought to be reinserted, and was virtually the same question twice offered, and therefore out of Order, 96.

Referring to ruling of Mr. Speaker Abbott on 18th April, 1893, in reference to appointment of Chairman of Committees, he would not, as Deputy Speaker, alter the invariable practice of the House since the year 1856, 93.

That Children's Protection Act Amendment Bill was beyond the Order of Leave, 77.

That Public Works Act Amendment Bill increased expenditure, and should be covered by a Message from the Governor, 77.

That Resolution of Cost of Litigation Bill did not affect trade, and was not beyond the Order of Leave, 77.

That Right of Property in Telegraphic Messages Bill did not relate to trade, and need not therefore, be introduced in Committee, 77.

That House had been properly constituted, and that the Deputy Speaker was legally placed in the Chair, notwithstanding that the Chair had been taken after the time appointed by the Sessional Order, 20.
