RULINGS OF—

That Message to Legislative Council, requesting that the Meningie Irrigation Bill be proceeded with, was authorised under Standing Orders, 16.

That motion for appointment of Chairman of Committees for the day only was in Order, 18.

That any irregularity which occurred in the initiation of the proceedings in reference to Privilege, Newspaper Article, was cured by the advice of the summons by Order of the House, 46.

That Children’s Protection Act Amendment Bill did not affect trade and did not require to be introduced in Committee of the Whole, 89.

That motion that Speaker reprimand Member could not be put without Notice, 96.

States opinion that Member suspended by Chairman of Committees of Supply for rest of Sitting could only be extended to the close of the proceedings of the Committee in which the suspension occurred, 101.

At request of Chairman of Committees, gave his opinion that Temporary Chairman of Committees should relinquish the Chair when Chairman desired to resume it; also that, in the absence of Chairman, one Temporary Chairman could request another to sit in his place but if the Chairman was within the building he should relieve the Temporary Chairman, and then request another of the panel to act, 119.

That motion in reference to Land Laws applying to Western Division was out of Order, as subject had already been discussed during present Session, 123.

That subject of motion in reference to Immigration of Inferior Races had been already debated this Session, and could not be again brought forward, 121.

That it was in the power of the Crown to submit the Military and Naval Estimates in one sum, and that the House could have referred them back to the Government, but as they had been referred to the Committee of Supply the Committee must deal with them, 158.

That Standing Orders could be suspended so as to allow a Money Bill to be passed through all its stages in one day, 158.

That amendment substituting Supply Bill for Appropriation Bill, in motion to suspend Standing Orders, did not conflict with 54th section of Constitution Act, as a Message was not required at this stage, 158.

That amendment—on motion to suspend Standing Orders in order to pass Appropriation Bill through all stages in one day—to substitute words to cover a Supply Bill only, was not relevant, 158.

That, according to new practice, amendment could not be made in Committee of the Whole to reduce item in Appropriation Bill, but he would suggest the continuance of the existing practice for the present, 158.

That motion to refer railway from Frome to Wagga to Public Works Committee did not require to be proceeded by a Message from the Governor, 158.

That no Member may allude to any Debate in the Legislative Council, 176.

That referring to the ruling of 4 April, he had consulted later authorities, and found that the rule was not strictly enforced, and that he would not attempt to stop references to Debates in the Council except those of the current Session, but he would endeavour to prevent recrimination or bad feeling, 186.

That clause 3 of the Immigration Restriction Bill was outside Order of Leave, 222.

That amendment moved on carry out Railway from Narrand to Moree, in favour of the Albert River, was not in Order, 215.

That the Mining on Private Lands Bill (No. 2) was in order, notwithstanding a Bill on the same subject, and that the House could have referred them back to the Government, but as they had been referred to the Committee of Supply the Committee must deal with them, 158.

That amendment proposed in the Public Works Betterment Bill to extend the principle to all works already authorised was beyond scope of Bill, 290.

That debate on motion of adjournment in reference to Right of Petition should be confined to matters that had transpired since the previous sitting, 292.

That amendment proposed in the Table on Bondwick and Coogee Roads Abolition Bill, to prevent municipality of Bondwick levying any toll on roads other than those referred to in the clause, was beyond the scope of the Bill, 292.

That amendment proposed in the Public Works Betterment Bill to extend the principle to all works already authorised was beyond scope of Bill, 292.

That amendment proposed in the Table on Bondwick and Coogee Roads Abolition Bill, to prevent municipality of Bondwick levying any toll on roads other than those referred to in the clause, was beyond the scope of the Bill, 292.

That amendment proposed to be moved by Sir George Gibbs to give precedence to certain Notices of Motion and Orders of the Day of general business, was in contravention of a Sessional Order, and could not be moved without first suspending that Order, 293.

SPECIAL ADJOURNMENT.—That a temporary Chairman of Committees could not request another temporary Chairman to relieve him in the Chair, but that the Chairman of Committees could assume the Chair and request another of the panel to act, 111.
