P

RELIEF OF DEPUTY SPEAKER...—
That motion to dissent from Mr. Speaker's action in adjourning House for want of Quorum before the commenceinent of business, came under operation of S.O. No. 161, and was a ruling within the meaning of that S.O., 94.
That amendment proposed in resolution to introduce Sunday Trading Bill to provide for classification of licences was beyond scope of and irrelevant to the subject of the Bill, 205.
That the objection taken to motion to introduce the Women's Franchise Bill on the ground that the Bill involved expenditure, and should have been introduced in Committee preceded by a debate, was premature, as the provisions of the Bill were not yet known, 217.
That the proposed amendment on the motion to introduce the Woman's Franchise Bill to abolish doctors' rights was not relevant to the motion, 211.

That amendment to alter hour of meeting of House on motion for precedence of business was not relevant, 198.
That motion of adjournment in reference to administration of affairs at Norfolk Island anticipated discussion on the vote in Committee of Supply, and was out of order, 217.
That the decision of the Temporary Chairman in Committee on the Distress for Rent Restriction Bill, that the omission of the word "female" extended the subject-matter of the Bill beyond its original bounds, was correct, 225.
That motion of adjournment to discuss location of Ministers in reference to Government Advances to Bettina Bill, anticipated the debate on the second reading of that Bill, and was out of order, 205.
That motion of adjournment to discuss inadequacy of accommodation at Bothwell Railway Station anticipated consideration of a Notice on Business Paper, and of the Estimate, and was out of order, 270.
That the decision of the point as to whether, on a motion for the adjournment of the House, under the 49th Standing Order, the matter was of "urgent public importance" did not rest with the Speaker, 296.

That motion for adjournment in reference to Produce Business did not anticipate Notice on Business Paper, 256.

That Member could not be interrupted in his speech by a motion of urgency, 296.

Appoints 1st meeting of Elections and Qualifications Committee, 54.
Reports issue and return of Writs, 50, 57 (2).
Deputy Speaker takes Chair during motion of dissent to ruling, 94.
RULINGS OF DEPUTY—
That Amendment moved on proposed Sessional Order in reference to Business Days to fix the hour of adjournment for 11 o'clock p.m. conflicted with the Standing Orders, 21.
That he would not depart from practice in reference to the necessity for a resolution declaring a Member's seat vacant on the resignation of such Member, 61.
That the motion for adjournment, in reference to the House for the Works while it is in Session, conflicted with a notice of motion already on the paper, and was out of order; also that such a motion could not be used for the purpose of attacking a Member, 57.
That the Midwifery Nurses Bill did not require a Message, there being no provision in the Bill to appropriate money, 72.
That the amendment on motion in reference to Plebisicite Vote on Sunday Liquor Traffic, to leave out the words "as on Sunday," was in order, 87.
That motion substituted as matter of Privilege in reference to charges made against the Minister for Works, was in order, 59.
That the Municipal Act of 1887 Annulling Bill was not in order, as it proposed to amend an Act which had been repealed, 109.
That he would not assume the responsibility of interfering or saying that an Honorable Member whose conduct was under censure should not remain in Chamber, 101.
That he would not rule motion out of Order until submitted to the House, nor would he take the responsibility of preventing the House from considering it, 104.
That the decision of the Temporary Chairman in Committee on the Distress for Rent Restriction Bill, that the omission of the word "female" extended the subject matter of the Bill was correct, 225.
That the proposed amendment on the motion to introduce the Women's Franchise Bill to abolish the Elector's right to vote was not relevant, 111.
That amendment to alter hour of meeting of House on motion for Precedence of Business was not relevant, 259.
That motion of adjournment in reference to administration of affairs at Norfolk Island anticipated discussion on the Vote in Committee of Supply, and was out of order, 217.
That the decision of the Temporary Chairman in Committee on the Discreet for Rent Restriction Bill, that the omission of the word "female" extended the subject matter of the Bill beyond its original bounds, was correct, 225.
That motion of adjournment to discuss inaction of Ministers in reference to Government Advance Bill anticipated the debate on the second reading of that Bill, and was out of order, 205.
That motion of adjournment to discuss inadequacy of accommodation at Balmain Railway Station considered on a Notice on Business Paper and of the Estimates, and was out of order, 295.
That the decision of the point as to whether, on a motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order, the matter was of "urgent public importance" did not rest with the Speaker, 296.
