REFERENCE TO THE VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, VOL.—18TH PARLIAMENT—THIRD SESSION, 1859.

P

That motion in respect to expenditure from Revenue and Loan Account was irregular in form and substance, and, as some of the Resolutions were inconsistent with each other, 242.

That Motion of Adjournment in reference to payment of legal expenses of Sergeant Moir without the consent of Parliament, should not be discussed, as the Item could be discussed in Supply, 193.

That Hon. Member was in Order in Committee of the Whole in discussing proposed reports of a committee in past session, provided they were relevant to subject under discussion, 250.

That the matter of referring the Central Railway Station, Derwent-street, to the Public Works Committee, instead of submitting to Parliament the Hyde Park scheme recommended, was in Order; also, that the explanation of the Minister as to the probable revenue to be derived from the work was clearly that no revenue would result, 265.

That motion for Adjournment in reference to prosecution of Kate Burns, at Bourke, was not in Order, as matter could be discussed in Committee of Supply. (Mr. Speaker also referred to previous rulings), 282.

That Member was not in Order in discussing any particular item in Committee on the Appropriation Bill which had been passed by Committee of Supply, 297.

That Member was not in Order in moving in Committee the omission of an item in the Appropriation Bill, 297.

That the proposed amendment on the Motion to refer the matter of the Extension of the Railway into the City was in accordance with the terms of the Public Works Act, 315.

That motion in respect to expenditure from Revenue and Loan Account was irregular in form as submitted, as some of the Resolutions were inconsistent with each other, 163.

That a motion to adjourn to the time of public notice was the only means of securing the adjournment to the time to which the House was to rise, 123.

That Hon. Member was in Order in Committee in discussing the resolutions on the motion to carry out the Extension of the Railway into the City, as recommended by the Public Works Committee, was an evasion of the Public Works Act, 315.

That motion for adjournment in reference to prosecution of Kate Burns, at Bourke, was not in Order, as matter could be discussed in Committee of Supply (Mr. Speaker also referred to previous rulings), 223.

That Member was not in Order in discussing any particular item in Committee on the Appropriation Bill which had been passed by Committee of Supply, 307.

That Member was not in Order in moving in Committee the omission of an item in the Appropriation Bill, 397.

That the proposed amendment on the motion to refer the matter of the Extension of the Railway into the City was in accordance with the terms of the Public Works Act, 315.

That an amendment to alter the route on the motion to carry out the Extension of the Railway into the City, as recommended by the Public Works Committee, was an evasion of the Public Works Act, 315.
