RELATIONS:—

That the Testators' Family Maintenance Bill did not impose a charge on the Consolidated Revenue Fund, nor interfere with Trade, the House could not have been taken by surprise, as it must have understood that the Bill proposed to amend the Wills, Probate, and Administration Act, our Standing Orders did provide for Hybrid Bills, the Bill was therefore in Order, 76.

That the Constitution Act had been consolidated with the Constitution Act Amendment Act, the Constitution Act, but only to act under the power given in that proviso. He ruled the Bill in Order, 76.

He ruled the Bill in Order, 76.

On Motions for Adjournment:—

That following the practice of the House, he must rule the motion for Adjournment to discuss amendment of the Government Savings Bank on the Credit Foncier System out of Order, because it dealt with a measure of new legislation that could be fully discussed on the Financial Statement, 89.

That the Servants Registry Bill did not come within the scope of Standing Orders No. 246, and was therefore in Order, 104.

That the motion for the Adjournment of the House in reference to suspending the Law of Libel Bill, and it could not be discussed on a motion for Adjournment, 67.
