Mr. Holman informed the House as to the intention of the Government, in view of the state of parties in the House, and intimated that he proposed to ask for Supply, and take no other business of any kind, but would ask the House to adjourn for a period which would be sufficient for the by-elections to be held. He proposed to give notice of a motion which would permit of the motion of adjournment being taken to-morrow, 133.

Mr. Holman informed the House that in view of the position that had arisen, his colleagues and he had determined this morning to tender to His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor certain advice, which His Excellency had not been able to see his way to accept, and he had therefore placed the resignation of the Ministry in His Excellency's hands. He also informed the House that His Excellency had asked him to communicate at once with the Premier (Mr. McGowen), and a cable would be despatched. What the advice was that had been tendered to His Excellency it was not for him at that moment to say, 137.

Points of Order

Police
- Report of Department for 1910, 37
- Paper showing the strength of the Force at Orange, 105.

Privilege
- That the question of Privilege with respect to Honorary Ministers could be discussed as it had suddenly arisen, 108.
- That the question of Privilege with respect to Honorary Ministers was in order; as a Minister could not be implicated without implicating his acts in the House, 108.
- That the Temporary Chairman of Committees was correct in his ruling that an amendment in pro forma could not be discussed, but must be considered at the close of the Committee stage (referred from Committee), 101.

References to the Votes and Proceedings, Vol. 1-22nd Parliament—Session 9

Rulings of Speaker
- That a question of privilege being before the House a Point of Order could not be raised respecting a document that was laid upon the Table, 29.
- That it was in order for a Minister to lay a document upon the Table, although it did reflect generally on what some Honourable Member might do, 97.
- That it was not necessary to set out in the Order of Leave all Acts proposed to be amended, and Supreme Court and Circuit Courts (Amendment) Bill was therefore in order, 101.
- That although amendments moved in a Bill pro forma could not be discussed, they must be in accordance with the rules of the House and be within the Order of Leave, 101.
- That the Temporary Chairman of Committees was correct in his ruling that an amendment in the Title could not be made pro forma, but must be considered at the close of the Committee stage (referred from Committee), 101.

Police
- Report of, on Overcrowding, Agricultural Ground, at Football Match, 70.

Privy Council
- That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting the appointment of Inspectors under the Industrial Disputes Act was not definite, and was therefore out of order, 112.
- That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order respecting the necessity for additional Bar Dredges, was definite, and in order, 118.
- That Crown Lands (Declaration) Bill was in Order, as the Order of Leave covered generally the scope of the Bill, 124.

- Appoints Temporary Chairman of Committees, 8.
- Lays papers on Table, 18, 81, 89, 130.
- Lays on Table Warrant appointing Elections and Qualifications Committee, 8; reports maturity, 90.
- Reports Deputy-Speaker’s Commission to administer Oath of Allegiance, 42.
- Acting Clerk informs House of unavoidable absence, and Deputy-Speaker takes Chair, 58.
- Giving Casting Vote, 134.

RULINGS OF:
- That Members could give notice of new motions and Message could be reported while a hostile amendment to the Address in Reply to the Governor’s Speech was before the House, 18.
- That Ministers could not answer questions by laying on Table a printed sheet, but should answer them verbally until the Standing Order was amended, 42.
- That questions on Notice must be put in the Order of the Business Paper as laid down in Standing Order No. 74, 69.
- That motion for the Adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order, respecting the case of William John Hiles, was out of order, as his anticipated death on the same subject, Notice of Motion was on the Business Paper for a subsequent date, 73.
- That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order, respecting the congestion of the Goods Traffic, was definite and in order, 88.
- That the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order, respecting the Shortage of School Teachers in this State, was in order, although the notice was placed in an envelope, 93.
- That a Question of Privilege being before the House, a Point of Order could not be raised respecting a document that was laid upon the Table, 96.
- That it was in order for a Minister to lay a document upon the Table, although it did reflect adversely on what some Honourable Member might do, 97.
- That it was not necessary to act out in the Order of Leave all acts proposed to be amended, and Supreme Court and Circuit Courts (Amendment) Bill was therefore in order, 101.
- That although amendments moved in a Bill not for form could not be discussed, they must be in accordance with the Rules of the House and be within the Order of Leave, 101.
- That the Temporary Chairman of Committees was correct in his ruling that an amendment in the Title could not be made pro forma, but must be considered at the close of the Committee stage [referred from Committee], 101.
- That the Question of Privileges with respect to Honorary Ministers could be discussed, as it had suddenly arisen, 103.
- That the Question of Privilege with respect to Honorary Ministers in order, as a Minister could not be implicated without implicating his acts in the House, 105.
- That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order, respecting the appointment of Inspectors under the Industrial Disputes Act, was not definite, and was therefore out of order, 112.
- That motion for the adjournment of the House under the 49th Standing Order, respecting the necessity for additional Bar Dredges, was definite, and in order, 113.
- That Crown Lands (Declaratory) Bill was in order as the Order of Leave covered generally the scope of the Bill, 124.
