That the Order of Leave of the Women's Legal Status Bill did not mention what Bills it sought to amend, and was therefore out of Order, 71.

That the Local Government (Amending) Bill was prepared in accordance with the Order of Leave and was in order; Mr. Speaker said the tendency of recent years in the Imperial Parliament was not to strictly construe the clauses of a Bill with the Order of Leave, but to allow as much latitude as possible, 75.

That the Early Closing Bill was introduced on 27th August, 1915, and its Order of Leave did not mention the amendment of the Liquor Referendum Act passed into law since that date; Where vital principles were involved the Order of Leave must certainly state what Acts were proposed to be amended; the Bill was therefore out of order, 91-2.

That the motion respecting the necessity for limiting further the number of horse or pony Race Meetings during the continuance of the War, was not anticipating discussion, as the Estimates had already been passed, 128.

DIMENSIONS FROM RULERS:—

Respecting decision given in connection with Liquor (Amendment) Bill (No. 2) whereby the Attorney-General was allowed to withdraw a motion for the adoption of the Report on the Legislative Council's amendments, after the Division bells had been rung and the Bar closed, Motion negatived (Mr. McGirr), 183-4.

DEPUTY SPEAKER:—

Reports Deputy-Speaker's Commission to administer Oath to Members, 45.

Appointment of Ernest Durack, Esquire, to act temporarily, on account of illness of T. H. Thrower, Esquire, 62.

RULINGS OF DEPUTY (Mr. Thrower) :—

That the action of the Railway Commissioners, respecting payments to employees on the tramways at Broken Hill, could be discussed on the Financial Statement, which was still under consideration, 140.

That the motion respecting the failure of the Government to act promptly in the public interest with a view to immediately ending the present disastrous state of the coaling industry, was in order, as it would be seen that Industrial Laws were of a composite character, State and Federal. Mr. Speaker McCourt had held that where a matter could be dealt with by both State and Federal Parliaments, it might be discussed on a motion for adjournment, 179.

That the motion respecting the necessity for limiting further the number of horse or pony Race Meetings during the continuance of the War, was not anticipating discussion, as the Estimates had already been passed, 128.
