RULES OF:—

PREAMBLE STATEMENT OF MEMBERS' QUESTIONS BEFORE THE HOUSE:—
In Division—Vote Challenged,—that it was not competent for him to decide whether a Member had a pecuniary interest, a substantive motion disallowing votes might be moved at a later stage, 56.

PETITION IN REFERENCE TO SPEECH:—
That a petition praying to be heard in person at the Bar of the House in reference to a speech delivered in the House could not be entertained, 40.

Petition in Reference to Speech:—
That a petition praying to be heard in person at the Bar of the House in reference to a speech delivered in the House could not be entertained, 40.

PETITION IN REFERENCE TO SPEECH:—
That a petition praying to be heard in person at the Bar of the House in reference to a speech delivered in the House could not be entertained, 40.

POTENTIAL INTEREST OF MEMBERS IN QUESTION BEFORE THE HOUSE:—
In Division—Vote Challenged,—That the motion drawn from the Box after 6:30, at which hour Government Business took precedence of General Business, could not be entertained, 126, 179.

That motion respecting sentences inflicted on persons addressing meetings in streets was the subject of an appeal or a pending appeal, and could not be discussed, 45.

That the motion respecting failure of the Government to adopt a progressive policy to alleviate distress due to unemployment was not definite and did not embrace a single specific matter of recent occurrence and was therefore out of order, 53.

That he would not rule out of order the motion, "Urgent necessity for financial assistance to necessitous farmers" on the ground that the matter had been dealt with on the Estimates—the question of urgency he could not decide, 186.
S

1. That the Chairman was correct in ruling that no amendment could be made to the Agreement which constituted the Schedule to the Income-tax (Commonwealth) Collection Bill, 194.

2. That the Chairman was correct in ruling that the proposed new clause in the Child Welfare Bill was out of order, inasmuch as it would so widen the scope of the Bill as to embrace cases of relief to people not contemplated, and for that reason went beyond the scope of the Bill, and would also impose an additional burden on the Crown, 195.

REFERENCES TO:

1. On Amendments to Motion remitting a Work to Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works for Further Consideration:
   - That the amendments proposed, providing (a) for the construction of the work forthwith; and (b) for an instruction to the Government to bring in a Bill at once for the construction of the work—were contrary to the Provisions of the Public Works Act, and could not be accepted, 216.

2. On Motions for Adjournment of the House under 411th Standing Order:
   - That the motion respecting the killing of Percy Carratt by Puddifoot, sexual pervert, was not sub judice as an appeal had not been lodged, and was in order, 64.
