That the "Urgency motion to consider a motion dissenting from Mr. Speaker's Ruling" was in order notwithstanding the Sessional Order provided Government business only should be dealt with; and he could not uphold the contention that unless the Sessional, as well as the Standing Orders were suspended, no private members could bring business before the House, 108.

URGENCY MOTION—ACTION OF THE GOVERNMENT IN RELATION TO THE FAMILY ENDOWMENT BILL:

That the point that this motion was moved in defiance of a Sessional Order prescribing that Government business only should be dealt with, was not a good one, but that as the Motion of Urgency had been moved in terms not exactly the same but to a similar effect—he considered the motion was ringing with the House, and he ruled it out of order, 109.
