RULES:
Outside Scope of Motion:
That amendment, covering whole field of administration of Lunacy Laws, proposed to a motion concerning a specific case, was outside scope of motion, and therefore out of order, 77-8.

Sub judice:
That portion of a motion was sub judice insomuch as initial legal proceedings had been taken in the matter, and therefore it could only be debated if that portion were omitted, 59.

Amendment to Censure Motion:
That it was competent for the House to amend a motion of censure, and a proposed amendment was in order, 91.

Anticipation of Debate:
That, as a notice of motion on the Business Paper would not be noticed within a reasonable time, an amendment proposed to a motion then before the House, was in order, 91.

Direct Negative:
That an amendment was relevant and in order as it only sought to vary the motion in respect to the aspect of the subject-matter, 91.

Reversing Previous Decision:
That a further amendment which sought to reverse a previous decision of the House omitting certain words, was out of order, 92.

Resumption of Debate:
That under Standing Order No. 248 it was not necessary to specify in the order of leave every Act proposed to be amended, and therefore the Bill was in order, 115.
