LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.
NEW SOUTH WALES.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPLAIN, DARLINGHURST GAOL.

(CORRESPONDENCE RESPECTING REMOVAL OF REV. M. J. DWYER.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be Printed, 13 October, 1868.

THE UNDER SECRETARY to THE SHERIFF.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 29 April, 1868.

SIR,

The report of the evidence given before you by the Rev. M. J. Dwyer, on the 25th instant, concludes with the following words:—"I question if I am bound by the terms of the Regulations, No. 4, clause 12, attached (C), requiring officers to report any breach of the Regulations, or other irregularity that may occur. I will address a communication to you on the subject."

2. I am directed to inquire whether any communication, such as Mr. Dwyer expressed his intention of addressing to you, has been received from that gentleman. If no such communication has been received, you will ascertain from Mr. Dwyer whether he still intends to state anything further in explanation of the course he has pursued, and the example of insubordination which his conduct has exhibited to the other officers of the Gaol.

3. The Colonial Secretary regrets that it is quite impossible for the Government to overlook the extraordinary views which Mr. Dwyer takes of his duties and obligations as Chaplain, and the language employed by him in the document, dated the 24th instant; but Mr. Parkes is desirous of hearing any explanation which Mr. Dwyer may wish to make, before any step is taken in the matter.

I have, &c.,
HENRY HALLORAN.

THE SHERIFF AND ACTING INSPECTOR OF PRISONS to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

Sheriff's Office,
Prison Branch,
Sydney, 30 April, 1868.

SIR,

In acknowledging the receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, I do myself the honor to report that I have received no further letter from the Rev. Father Dwyer, and that I have forwarded to him a copy of your letter, and invited him to furnish the explanation therein indicated.

I have, &c.,
HAROLD MACLEAN,
Acting Inspector of Prisons.

THE SHERIFF AND ACTING INSPECTOR OF PRISONS to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

Sheriff's Office,
Prison Branch,
Sydney, 2 May, 1868.

SIR,

1 May, 1868.

Referring to my letter of the 30th ultimo, I do myself the honor to forward a letter addressed to myself by the Roman Catholic Chaplain of Darlinghurst Gaol, in further reference to the evidence given by that gentleman, at the inquiry concerning the statement of the late prisoner O'Farrell.

I have &c.,
HAROLD M'LEAN,
A.I.P.

[Enclosure.]

The Rev. M. J. Dwyer to The Sheriff and Acting Inspector of Prisons.

St. Mary's Cathedral,
1 May, 1868.

Sir,

In reply to your communication of the 30th ultimo, and its enclosure of the 29th, I do myself the honor to say, briefly, that on consideration, I am satisfied of the correctness of the view which I expressed relative to the application of the terms of the Regulations, No. 4, clause 12, to a Chaplain. A Chaplain is not, and never could be, an officer of the Gaol, in such sense as are the other officers, whose whole day, and duties, and responsibilities, belong to the institution. The Chaplain's duties are simply spiritual, and it is an essential condition of his usefulness to the prisoners that he should not be viewed by them in any way as a penal or detective agent.

Perhaps it would have been enough that I should say so much, but the letter of the Under Secretary seems to me so extraordinary in its terms that, before I say any more, I must respectfully beg to be informed what are the specific charges of insubordination and evil example which are brought, or to be brought, against me.

I have, &c.,
M. J. DWYER.

THE UNDER SECRETARY to THE SHERIFF AND ACTING INSPECTOR OF PRISONS.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 4 May, 1868.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge your letter of the 2nd instant, enclosing a letter dated the 1st, from the Roman Catholic Chaplain of Darlinghurst Gaol, in which that gentleman gives some explanation of the views he holds of the duties pertaining to his office. The Colonial Secretary infers, from the substance of this communication, that Mr. Dwyer has no intention of making any statement in writing, as supplemental to his evidence given before you on the 25th April; and there is no reason for further delay in stating, in precise terms, the grounds of complaint against the reverend gentleman.

2. In a paper signed by Mr. Dwyer, and handed to you as his "protest," on the occasion of your conducting an official inquiry into the irregularities relating to the so-called statement of the late prisoner O'Farrell, the terms "gross misstatement of facts," "a direct falsehood," and "gross perversion of facts," are applied to the proceedings of the Government. It is unnecessary, as it would at this time be improper, to enter upon any discussion as to whether the letter addressed to Mr. Dwyer by yourself, as head of the Gaol Department, was couched in exceptionable terms or not, as no terms in such a document would justify the intemperate language deliberately used by him; nor can this language be tolerated in any person, clerical or non-clerical, holding an appointment under the Government.

3. I am to observe, however, that the inquiry conducted by you sufficiently proves that the terms of your letter of the 23rd April were substantially accurate; not in justification of any step taken by the authorities, but as illustrative of the course pursued by Mr. Dwyer in the case of the late prisoner O'Farrell. It is shewn by the inquiry, that the written statement forwarded by the prisoner to the Colonial Secretary was not, and could not have been copied after it was written, while, at the same time a similar written statement was secretly in the hands of Mr. Dwyer. And it is further shewn that Mr. Dwyer was cognizant of all that was done in the preparation of these different statements, and that he refuses to inform the Government of what he knows on the subject. It cannot be denied that either Mr. Dwyer himself conveyed, or was privy to others conveying, the clandestinely prepared statement outside the Gaol, in direct violation of the Regulations.

4. The Colonial Secretary notices that, in his letter of the 1st instant, Mr. Dwyer describes his duties as "simply spiritual;" but Mr. Parkes is at a loss to understand in what way the conduct here complained of can be considered "spiritual," or "essential" to a Chaplain's usefulness. During his attendance upon the unhappy man O'Farrell, every request that Mr. Dwyer made to the Government was complied with; and the existence of a pretext for the course he has pursued in relation to what are said to be the dying words of the prisoner, is irreconcilable with the facts of the whole case. That the purpose should have been formed to prepare a "duplicate" of the prisoner's statement, to be held in secret for after use, evinces, on the part of the Chaplain, a hostile feeling feeling towards the authorities, and a disposition, as the event proved, to compel the Government to adopt a course which, in a special manner, was desired by his ecclesiastical superiors.

5. Nor can the circumstance be overlooked, that this clandestine writing was conveyed out of the Gaol, and into the hands of a Member of Parliament remarkable for his hostility to the existing Government. The Colonial Secretary readily admits, in the language of Mr. Dwyer, that a prison Chaplain ought not to be "a penal or detective agent"; neither ought he to be an agent or a client of a Parliamentary Opposition. It is not his province to call the Government to account, but so long as he holds his appointment he is clearly bound to support it in promoting the ends of law and discipline.

6. I am to add, that it cannot for a moment be admitted that the prison regulations, so far as they apply to Chaplains, are not equally binding upon them as upon other officers. If any regulation is found to interfere with the efficient discharge of their sacred duties, and a representation is made to that effect, it will be considered with a desire to remove the impediment.

7. In view of the circumstances stated above, the Colonial Secretary directs you to suspend the Rev. M. J. Dwyer from his office of Chaplain, pending the decision of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council on his case. You will supply Mr. Dwyer with a copy of this letter.

Sydney, 8 May, 1868.

SIR,

Having communicated to the Rev. M. J. Dwyer, the notification of suspension from his office, conveyed in your letter of the 4th instant, I have received from that gentleman a further letter, which I do myself the honor to enclose.

7 May, 1868.

I have, &c.,

Sheriff.

[Enclosure.]

The Rev. M. J. Dwyer to The Sheriff and Acting Inspector of Prisons.

St. Mary's Cathedral,
7 May, 1868.

Sir,

In reference to your letter transmitting to me a copy of the Colonial Secretary's letter to you of the 4th instant, by the Under Secretary, in which letter it is stated that the "Colonial Secretary infers, from the substance of 'my' communication of the 1st instant, that I had no intention of making any statement in writing as supplemental to 'my' evidence given before you,"—I beg to say that I am totally at a loss to comprehend the grounds upon which the Colonial Secretary has arrived at such an inference. I am the more at a loss in this respect when I read again the terms of the very letter to which the Colonial Secretary refers; for in that letter I stated that "before I say any more, I respectfully beg to be informed what are the specific charges of insubordination and evil example to be brought against me." This statement, so far from justifying the Colonial Secretary's inference, I submit, admits of only one inference, and that inference is precisely the contrary to that which the Colonial Secretary has thought proper to draw from my letter.

It is quite clear, from my letter above mentioned, that I did intend to answer any charges preferred against me. I still intend to do so. I still intend to answer more particularly the charges of the Colonial Secretary, contained in the letter of the Principal Under Secretary to you of the 4th instant. The pressure of clerical duties has, however, prevented me since your letter was received yesterday. For the next three days I shall be unavoidably engaged with my duties, but on Monday or Tuesday, at the furthest, I shall send an answer.

I have, &c.,
M. J. DWYER.

THE UNDER SECRETARY to THE VERY REV. S. J. A. SHEEHY.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 8 May, 1868.

VERY REVEREND SIR,

I am directed to acquaint you, for the information of His Grace Archbishop Polding, that the Colonial Secretary has considered it his duty to suspend the Reverend M. J. Dwyer from the performance of duty as Chaplain of Darlinghurst Gaol, and that in consequence, it will be necessary to make some special provision for religious service for the Roman Catholic prisoners in that Gaol next Sunday.

2. The Sheriff will be instructed to give the necessary directions for the admission of any clergyman that may be sent for the occasion.

I have, &c.,
HENRY HALLORAN.

THE UNDER SHERIFF to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

Sheriff's Office,
Prison Branch,
Sydney, 12 May, 1868.

SIR,

Referring to the letter from the Reverend M. J. Dwyer enclosed in mine of the 2nd instant, I do myself the honor to submit a further communication received this morning from the reverend gentleman.

I have, &amp;c.,

HAROLD MACLEAN,
Sheriff.
(BY JOHN PHELAN, Under Sheriff.)

[Enclosure.]

The Reverend M. J. Dwyer to The Sheriff.

St. Mary's Cathedral,
11 May, 1868.

Sir,

Referring to a copy of a letter addressed to you by the Principal Under Secretary, and of which you have by direction supplied me with a copy; and, adverting to my brief communication of the 7th instant, I take leave now to consider the most material portions of the copy letter referred to.

The second paragraph of that document contains the following passage:—"It is unnecessary, as it would at this time be improper, to enter upon any discussion as to whether the letter addressed to Mr. Dwyer by yourself, as head of the gaol department, was couched in exceptionable terms or not, as no terms, in such a document, would justify the intemperate language deliberately used by him; nor can the language be tolerated in any person, clerical or non-clerical, holding an appointment under the Government."

That it is unnecessary, and would be improper to enter upon any discussion as to whether the language referred to as used by me can be "tolerated," is a proposition which I readily admit, for such "toleration" is, I conceive, entirely discretionary with the Government for the time being, and may or may not be consistent with the justice of the case. But that it is either unnecessary or improper to enter upon any discussion as to whether the letter addressed to me, and which elicited from me the language complained of, was couched in exceptionable terms or not, on the ground that no terms in such a document would justify the intemperate language deliberately used by me;—this is a proposition which I take leave respectfully to deny. So far from this discussion being unnecessary or improper, I beg to be permitted to say that I consider it to be precisely necessary, proper, and even fundamental to an impartial and just understanding or decision of the question at issue. So far from its being unnecessary or improper, the assumption of its being unnecessary or improper amounts to a foregone conclusion, which would take away my grounds of defence and practically condemn me without being heard. The assumption that it is unnecessary or improper to discuss the terms in which the letter to me was couched, is something more than begging the whole question; it is burking the substantial merits of the case.

Let me, sir, before entering upon the discussion of that document, do an act of simple justice to yourself by bearing cheerful testimony to your personal courtesy upon all occasions.

I did not for a moment suppose that the "exceptionable terms in which that document was couched" originated with you. I supposed that they originated with the Hon. the Colonial Secretary, and they were all the more grievous as coming from so high a functionary.

In this supposition I find I was quite correct, for it appears by the correspondence since produced before the Legislative Assembly, that the "exceptionable terms" in your letter to me are a verbatim copy of portion of an antecedent letter of instructions to you from the Honorable the Colonial Secretary.

Let me, in the next place, in justice to myself, make the fact plain, that those expressions were manifestly applied to myself as Chaplain of the Gaol. They had relation to a document alleged to have been "furnished clandestinely" to O'Farrell,—to a document alleged to have been "clandestinely copied" by him,—to a document which was in the nature of a dying declaration, and purposed to make atonement for a previous false statement—an atonement which would consequently be a matter, in the ordinary course of things, within the privity of the spiritual director of the criminal who was about to die. Having respect to these and several other circumstances, I think it cannot reasonably be doubted, that I, the spiritual director of the unfortunate man, was the object of that inquiry, and of the language addressed to you in directing you to hold that inquiry.

The letter which, by the authority of the Colonial Secretary, you addressed to me meant it. It meant the prejudging of the case. It meant that a statement had been palmed off as the dying declaration of O'Farrell, which statement in reality was not his own. This being so, the meaning was, that by my privity and by my contrivance, I was ushering into the presence of its Creator an immortal soul, for all eternity, with the guilt on that soul of unspeakable fraud, and this with the further diabolical intention, upon my part, as the man's spiritual adviser, of uttering that fraud after his death. This was the meaning which your letter conveyed, and that this was the meaning the Honorable the Colonial Secretary intended to convey, this one fact bears sufficient testimony—namely, that writing on the 4th instant through his Principal Secretary, he repeats those imputations by describing O'Farrell's dying declaration as "the so called statement of the prisoner O'Farrell."

I admit that I protested in strong terms against such imputations. I was angry, and I was amazed. Even at this distance of time I am still amazed, like one standing over an abyss, that such imputations should ever have been made. My language may or may not be deemed excusable or befitting, by the Government, but at least it was provoked. I, sir, fully admit on my part the rule of official as well as of habitual life, which requires 'respectful language from subordinates to superiors,' and I humbly venture to hope that my life and character will bear testimony to the sincerity of this admission; but I submit that the rule ceases to operate when the superior so far forgets his reciprocal obligations as to wound and injure me, as a man and as a Christian clergyman, in those feelings and aims which are sacred to me for time and for eternity.

There is only one other subject important enough to require particular notice. In the third paragraph of the letter to which I am referring, there occurs the following statement:—"It cannot be denied that either Mr. Dwyer himself conveyed or was privy to others conveying the clandestinely prepared statement outside the gaol, in direct violation of the regulations."

I believe, sir, it would have saved some time and some inquiry to have questioned me directly as to the fact. I have never denied that O'Farrell's statement was conveyed outside the gaol by me; I admit that such was the fact. The assumed mystery of the transaction is easily dispelled. O'Farrell preferred

this mode of atonement to a verbal declaration on the scaffold; and I, as his spiritual adviser, preferred it also, deeming it advisable that so excitable a nature as his should not be disturbed at the final moment of existence, by making a dying speech and declaration.

It was in accordance with O'Farrell's wish, and with a wish on my part to ensure the publication of that small measure of atonement, that a copy or duplicate of his statement was written by him and entrusted to me.

This act the Colonial Secretary asserts is in direct violation of the regulations. He means, I suppose, a violation of the 12th regulation, which says "It is the duty of each officer to report any breach of the regulations or other irregularity that may occur"; and of the 64th regulation, which says "No prisoner in any gaol, unless confined for debt, or for contempt under civil process, shall be permitted to send or receive any letter or parcel of any description whatever, excepting through the hands of the Gaoler." I am not aware of any other regulations applicable to the case, and I submit that I have not violated either of these regulations. Not the first, because I hold it to have been intended for the officials in the Gaol itself, who are entrusted with the bringing of the regulations into effect, and with the supervision of irregularities. This construction is borne out by the context, which requires each official to make report "through his immediate superior." May I be permitted to inquire in what grade in the rank of warders I was supposed to stand, so that I should have known or discovered who my "immediate superior" was? I deny the applicability of the rule; but, at the same time, I do not pretend to deny that I am amenable to the constituted authorities, if I have been a party to the infraction of a regulation by a prisoner. It appears to me that I have not done so. It appears to me that the 64th regulation never contemplated the case of a statement intended to take effect after a prisoner's death; that "sending or receiving" are reciprocal terms, each contemplating the continued existence and safe custody of the sender or of the receiver; and, at all events, the act of making me an executor of a sort of last will and testament is not either a sending or a receiving within the meaning of the rule. I may be mistaken in this view of those regulations—I may possibly have offended against the letter of the law. If the fact be so, my offence amounts to an infraction, unconsciously, by me of rules of dubious construction and equally dubious application. My offence in an official signification of the term only! Morally, I am guilty of none. I have been faithful to the behest of a dying criminal, and, at the same time, as I humbly hope, of a dying penitent. My faithfulness in this respect I believed coincided with my duty as a citizen. These were the reasons for procuring the publication of the statement. I did so only when the Colonial Secretary refused the publication of the duplicate statement entrusted to him for publication. His reasons for so refusing seemed, I presume, sufficient to himself.

I am not sufficiently conversant, either by knowledge or by experience, with political subjects, to enable me to determine whether I have subverted any fundamental rule or principle of responsible government, in conveying for publication the statement of O'Farrell "into the hands of a Member of Parliament remarkable for his hostility to the existing Government." It did not, I confess, occur to me that my purpose of procuring publication would be securely served by committing the same matter into the hands of a prominent supporter of the existing Government; nor do I even now profess to know whether or not an official may be permitted to entertain in his own person, conscientiously, hostility to the existing Government, or even to give effect to such hostility by recording his vote as an elector against even the Honorable the Colonial Secretary.

I confess my inability to understand the following passage in the Colonial Secretary's letter to which I am referring, "that the purpose should have been formed to prepare a duplicate of the prisoner's statement to be held in secret for after use, evinces on the part of the Chaplain a hostile feeling towards the authorities, and a disposition, as the event proved, to compel the Government to adopt a course which in a special manner was desired by his ecclesiastical superiors." I cannot comprehend the meaning of this passage, except vaguely that the Colonial Secretary seeks in some way or other to implicate my ecclesiastical superiors in the affairs of O'Farrell. I can only say that I am entirely unaware of any desire, special or otherwise, or of any circumstance, which warranted the Colonial Secretary in allowing himself to take the liberty which he does take, in the passage which I have quoted, with my ecclesiastical superiors. The reference made by the Hon. the Colonial Secretary to my ecclesiastical superiors, I consider unjustifiable. Were they capable of such conduct, I should be ashamed of living under their authority; and near unto such a state of feeling is that of the shame which comes over me when I find that the Hon. the Colonial Secretary of the New South Wales Government—the Colonial Secretary of this my native land,—that he should deem them capable of it. No, sir. My ecclesiastical superiors were no party to such a miserable political subterfuge. And since the Hon. the Colonial Secretary has opened the question, I will tell you the course I pursued.

There was one lay gentleman in the community in whom the unhappy criminal had expressed his confidence. In the hands of that gentleman the document was placed, no directions given as to the mode of publication, or even time, save that as the allegations of O'Farrell might be productive of injury in the old country, it was deemed advisable that his statement should be made public before the departure of the mail. In every other respect the document was placed unreservedly in the hands of the gentleman referred to.

Perhaps I may give to the Honorable the Colonial Secretary the key, if I may use the expression, to my conduct in this matter, by stating that I consider and have considered: First, the declaration on the part of O'Farrell; secondly, the publication thereof; and thirdly, the publication at the very earliest period after his decease, as essentially part of his conscientious obligations. He had been taught from early childhood that, as in the case of fraud or other pecuniary injury, restitution must be made or the sin would not be forgiven by God; so in the case of injury to good name—of false allegations against individuals, separate or aggregate—satisfaction must be made—the good name as far as possible be restored.

In this view the declaration was made, to be published after his death without unnecessary delay. It was a sacramental act; and when the obligation of making restitution of property or of character, as in this case, devolves on another by reason of commission or of trust, any neglect or unnecessary delay on the part of such person would be equally criminal with similar neglect on the part of the principal. It would have been criminal in me if, through any neglect on my part, it did not receive its entire completion by being communicated to the parties injured without unnecessary delay.

The letter of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary further states that, "during his attendance on the unhappy man O'Farrell, every request that the Rev. M. J. Dwyer made to the Government was complied with." I willingly acknowledge the correctness of this statement. But I should be reticent of the truth if I did not add that, from the day of O'Farrell's imprisonment up to the day of his being sentenced to death, I was, by the express order of the Colonial Secretary, precluded from visiting him in the ordinary discharge of my duties as Chaplain of the Gaol. Even the morning after his sentence I was refused permission to see him. I believe a fact of this kind has occurred for the first time in this Colony, under the administration of the present Colonial Secretary—a fact which seemed to me to be reasonably attributable to a distrust of me in his mind—namely, that I was capable of becoming an ex post facto accomplice of the prisoner by reason of my being a Roman Catholic priest.

I have written to a much greater length than I intended. My answer may be reduced briefly to this: the intemperate language complained of was the result of grievous provocation; and I submit that I have not broken any of the regulations of the gaol, but that if I have, it has been an unconscious infraction on my part of rules of very dubious application.

I have, &c.,
M. J. DWYER.

MINUTE

MINUTE PAPER FOR THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 19 May, 1868.

ON the evening before the execution of Henry James O'Farrell for the attempted assassination of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, a sealed paper containing a statement by O'Farrell was placed in my hands, to be opened the following day; and on the following day it was so opened by me, in the presence of two officers of the Government. From statements made in the Legislative Assembly on the day of O'Farrell's execution, it appeared that a Member of that body was aware of the particulars of O'Farrell's statement, although such particulars had not at that time been communicated by me to any one. On the following day, a Member of the Legislative Assembly read to that body a statement almost identical in its terms with the statement in my possession, which statement had not, down to that time, been shown by me to any one but my colleagues in the Government and His Excellency the Governor. As I had reason to know that no copy could have been made of the paper placed in my hands after it was signed by O'Farrell, it seemed to me that a draft or duplicate of that paper must have existed before that paper was written, and that such draft or duplicate must have been secretly and improperly taken from the gaol and communicated to persons unconnected with the Government. Under these circumstances, I directed an inquiry to be made for the purpose of ascertaining the authorship of the paper copied by O'Farrell, and also the means by which the original of this statement was communicated to persons outside the prison. In the letter of the Under Secretary so directing the inquiry, it is stated that "It is apparent that the statement written by O'Farrell and sent to the Government, was a copy of some other document clandestinely furnished to him for the purpose, through the instrumentality of some officers of the Gaol, or one of the few visitors." On that inquiry a considerable amount of evidence was given, and among other persons the Rev. M. J. Dwyer, the Roman Catholic Chaplain of the Darlinghurst Gaol, was examined. The Sheriff, by whom the inquiry was conducted, reported at its close that the following deductions were clearly warranted, viz. :—

"That either a duplicate, or a copy in effect, of O'Farrell's statement, written by authority for presentation to the Colonial Secretary, came, contrary to the distinct provisions of Gaol Regulation, No. 64, into the hands of persons not authorized to possess the same; that, taking into view the statements of the Roman Catholic Chaplain of the Gaol with the evidence, there is no reason to doubt the faithful discharge of their duty by the officers who had the custody of the prisoner, and that consequently the regulation has been violated through the instrumentality of one or more of the persons who visited him; that, after the completion of the statement furnished to the Colonial Secretary, the prisoner wrote nothing further, and that therefore such statement could not be the original, in the sense of having been first written."

The Sheriff further adds the following statements :—

"The Chaplain has shown to me the statement mentioned by His Grace the Archbishop as the duplicate. It is in O'Farrell's handwriting, signed by himself, and written upon a sheet of blue note-paper, such as would not have been supplied in the Gaol for the purpose of making a statement. The writing has the appearance of being more hurried than that in the statement furnished to the Colonial Secretary. The conclusion to which I am led is, that this 'duplicate' was written in the Sacristy, to serve the purposes both of a draft for and a copy of the statement itself.

"It is obvious that the paper in question was written, if not through the instrumentality, certainly within the cognizance of the Chaplain, who must be regarded as being officially responsible for its existence; and it is further manifest that the chaplain, an officer of the prison, withholds from the Government information upon the subject avowedly in his possession. The question raised by the Chaplain as to the obligation upon him to bring under notice breaches of the regulations coming to his knowledge outside the Confessional, cannot, I conceive, be entertained."

In these opinions I entirely coincided; and I directed that the Rev. Mr. Dwyer should be requested to state whether he desired to say anything further in explanation of the course pursued by him as proved during the inquiry. The Rev. Mr. Dwyer has made a lengthened statement, and from that statement and the evidence taken in the inquiry, it appears to me that no doubt can be entertained :—

1. That the Rev. Mr. Dwyer was cognizant of the writing by O'Farrell, on paper surreptitiously supplied to him, of a statement from which the statement sent to me by O'Farrell was copied.
2. That the statement so written by O'Farrell, was surreptitiously taken out of the Gaol by the Rev. Mr. Dwyer, without the knowledge of the Gaoler or any of the other officials in the Gaol.
3. That such statement was communicated by the Rev. Mr. Dwyer, to a Member of the Legislative Assembly, for the purpose of being there read, in the event of the statement transmitted to me not being made public at such time as he might approve.
4. That the Rev. Mr. Dwyer took this course, because it appeared to him probable that my colleagues and I would not make public the statement which had been transmitted to me in such a way as he might consider to be correct, and that he obtained and held the statement in his possession as a check upon the Government.

I consider that conduct such as this on the part of a public officer, and more especially of an officer, who, by the nature of his duties, must be more largely trusted than others in his communications with prisoners, imperatively calls for the removal of the Rev. Mr. Dwyer from his office of Chaplain to Darlinghurst Gaol, which removal I accordingly recommend. This recommendation is made without reference to the statement in the Under Secretary's letter of the 23rd April, that O'Farrell's letter "was a copy of some other document clandestinely furnished to him for the purpose." The meaning of these words was, that the statement sent to the Government was copied from some other document which had been suggested, advised, and in fact concocted in a manner that would not have occurred to the prisoner if he had been left to act upon his own thoughts and convictions, from a document which in this sense had been "furnished to him." That such a draft or duplicate document existed before the statement sent to the Government was written, and that it was clandestinely held, is undeniable.

Mr. Dwyer declines to say whether the statement that he called the original was the first written, but it has been proved that the statement sent as the "original" to the Government was written last. While this statement was addressed and delivered to me, with the observance of official forms, and ostensibly under seal, not to be opened before a particular time, Mr. Dwyer had its contents in his possession and at his disposal. Still, as I understand Mr. Dwyer in his letter of the 11th instant to deny any share in its authorship, I am quite willing to accept such denial.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

EXTRACT from Return of Prisoners convicted before His Honor Judge Macfarland, at the Court of Quarter Sessions holden at Sydney in the month of July, 1865:—

Name of Prisoner—Paul Armand.
Offence—Larceny.
Date of Conviction—17th July, 1865.
Sentence—12 months' labour, Maitland Gaol.

A correct extract,—

The Gaoler, Maitland.

HAROLD MACLEAN,
Sheriff.

EXTRACTS from Principal Gaoler's Journal, under date, 18th December, 1865.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner, who is undergoing solitary confinement, was very violent yesterday; he made so much noise that the warders tried to gag him to prevent him disturbing the Catholic congregation, but that being ineffectual he was removed to another wing during the service.

To be brought under notice of Visiting Magistrate.

Under date, 3rd January, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner was again confined in the cells yesterday, for disobedience of orders, and refusing to get out of bed, and feigning idiocy (the opinion of the Visiting Surgeon).

To be brought before the Visiting Magistrate.

He is reported to be in a very weak state, and the attention of the doctor has been called to him.

Under date, 8th January, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner, who is undergoing solitary confinement, seems to be in a very weakly state, and refuses food. The doctor's attention has been frequently called to him; and last evening he was visited by Drs. West and Alleyne, who do not see any cause to change his mode of treatment.

Under date, 9th January, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner still continues to refuse food in solitary confinement. Reported to the Visiting Surgeon.

Under

Under date, 11th January, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner, who is under sentence to the cells, was this day removed to hospital, on the recommendation of the Visiting Surgeon. See previous memo. respecting his refusing food.

26th February, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner still persists in feigning insanity. The Visiting Surgeon is confident that there is nothing the matter with him but wickedness. He was again punished by the Visiting Magistrate on 22nd.

2nd March, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner was locked up at 7 a.m., on the report of the overseer, for neglect of work. To be decided by the Visiting Magistrate, as I have strong doubts as to the state of his mind, which I have communicated to the Doctor and the Visiting Magistrate.

7th March, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner, who is undergoing solitary confinement in the cells, is looking very badly and wild. The doctors report him a "malingerer." I have given orders that every circumstance connected with him should be reported to the Surgeon, and that he should be requested to visit him again.

The Principal Gaoler, Darlinghurst, to The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
12 March, 1866.

Paul Armand
Sir,

I do myself the honor to annex a copy "Remark" made in the punishment book by the Visiting Magistrate; and I beg further to state that the prisoner alluded to has also been seen by Dr. Alleyne, who appears to agree with the opinion of Dr. West as to Armand's state of mind.

Whatever may be the cause of prisoner's conduct, I beg to submit that he should be transferred to some other establishment, as his filthy habits in the crowded state of the prison render his detention here both dangerous and disagreeable.

I think he should be sent to some place where there is more room and better means of dealing with such class of persons than there are at this Gaol.

I have, &c.,
J. C. READ,
Principal Gaoler.

(Remark above referred to.)

PAUL ARMAND has been brought before me eight times since the 13th December last for feigning insanity and refusing to work. I have referred this man's case more than once to the consideration of the medical officers of the Gaol. Dr. West gives it as his opinion that Armand is only feigning. I cannot, with any sense of humanity, continue the punishment of solitary confinement, as the prisoner is evidently suffering from the effects of punishment already inflicted. I should therefore suggest, that the attention of the Sheriff be called to Paul Armand, and that a special medical inquiry be held in his case.

W. CHATFIELD, V.M.

12th March, 1866.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons to The Principal Under Secretary.

Sheriff's Office,
Prison Branch,
Sydney, 13 March, 1868.

Paul Armand.
Sir,

In forwarding the enclosed copy of a Memorandum made by the Visiting Justice of Darlinghurst Gaol, respecting the case of the prisoner named in the margin, which is embarrassing and may be serious, I do myself the honor to recommend that, as Drs. West and Alleyne adhere to their opinion, and the Visiting Magistrate declines to continue to act upon it, a medical board be appointed, as suggested by Mr. Chatfield, to report upon the case.

I have, &c.,
HAROLD MACLEAN.

EXTRACTS from Principal Gaoler's Journal.

31st March, 1866.

Paul Armand.—Warder Carroll reports:—This prisoner continues apparently insane and an idiot. Several beds have been destroyed by his committing nuisance in them. He seems quite helpless. Drs. West and Alleyne have his case under their consideration. I have ordered a prisoner to attend him in the meantime.

4th April, 1866.

Paul Armand.—This prisoner seems still to be in an imbecile state. The doctor refuses to give any order respecting him, so I have directed the treatment pursued to be continued. A prisoner has special charge of him in the confine yard. He has to be washed, fed, and attended like a child. Warder Carroll has reported that he has destroyed several beds by committing nuisance in them at night.

11th April, 1866.

Paul Armand.—Mons. Sentis, Consul of France, called to-day respecting a paragraph in the newspapers, to the effect that a French prisoner, an idiot, had been cruelly ill-treated and punished improperly in Gaol. The prisoner referred to I believe to be the man named in the margin, and of whom I have made frequent entries in this journal. I permitted the Acting Consul to see the prisoner, who was in the confine yard. I afterwards removed Armand to the lunatic ward, as I find it impossible to get any definite instructions from the Visiting Surgeon as to what course should be adopted, or as to his disease or proper treatment. I wrote to Dr. West twice in one day to know what ought to be done with this prisoner, or what was his disease; but in answer my question was palpably evaded, so to-day I have forwarded both notes on the subject to the Inspector of Prisons. I recommended the Consul to call on Mr. Maclean on the subject, and on the Visiting Magistrate who has presided and punished Armand.

The

The Principal Gaoler to The Inspector of Prisons.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
11 April, 1866.

Paul Armand.

MEMO.—The French Consul was here to-day, in consequence of a newspaper paragraph relating to the above prisoner. I referred the Consul to you, and to the Visiting Magistrate, as the prisoner's case is under his consideration for punishment.

On my own responsibility, I have placed this man in the confine yard, and directed another prisoner to attend specially to him, and to be watched constantly by a warder. He continues to commit nuisances in his bed and cell, his feet smell, and altogether he appears to be in a deplorable plight. To-day I have ordered him into the insane ward. You will see by Doctor's memos, on my notes, attached, that I cannot get an answer to my questions respecting him. The Doctor evades my questions, and will give no order himself, and has not seen Armand now for more than a week.

I very much regret having to trouble you with this matter, but I feel most awkwardly situated. I am in total ignorance of Armand's state, and can only judge by appearance.—J. C. R.

The Principal Gaoler to The Visiting Surgeon.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
3 April, 1866.

MEMO.—Will the Visiting Surgeon be good enough to inform me if any decision has been come to in the case of Paul Armand—if he is to go into the insane ward for observation? He has destroyed several beds, and he is daily reported to me as a nuisance. The stench of his cell is most disagreeable to the whole wing in which he is confined. What steps does Dr. West propose towards him?

JNO. C. READ,
Principal Gaoler.

3 April, 1866.

A report concerning this case has been forwarded to Colonial Secretary's Office, according to his instructions.

GEO. WEST,
Visiting Surgeon.

MEMO.—Would Dr. West let me know the nature of his report so far? Is Paul Armand to be treated as a lunatic, and to be removed to the ward for such class?

3/4/66.

Sir,

In reference to the questions conveyed in your minute on Mr. Read's memo. of the 11th of April, referring to the case of Paul Armand, I do myself the honor to state, for your information, in reply to the first—"as to my not having seen Armand for more than a week"—he had for some time past been removed from the class of prisoners under medical treatment. That, on the 3rd day of April, when Dr. Alleyne and myself made our final examination of him in reference to his state of mind, we also particularly examined him as to his bodily health, and came to the conclusion that there was then no symptom of bodily ailment, and that his strength and general health was much improved. Since Mr. Read had him removed to the lunatic wing, he has been frequently brought before me, and on no occasion did I consider it necessary to put him under medical treatment. I have seen him this day, and can see no reason to alter my opinion. Second, That having been directed by a letter from the Colonial Secretary's Office to constitute myself into a board in conjunction with Dr. Alleyne, for the purpose of making a special report in the case of "Paul Armand," I did, as will be seen by my minute on Mr. Read's memo. on the 3rd of April, referring to the case, and asking "if any decision had been come to in this case," inform Mr. Read that a report concerning this case had been forwarded to the Colonial Secretary's Office according to his instructions. This memo. from Mr. Read was received and replied to as above, on the very day on which we had agreed to, and written the report to the Colonial Secretary.

I had, and have not now any reason or desire to withhold from Mr. Read any information that he may ask for either as to this or any other case, and it will be seen by my minute on a second memo. from Mr. Read, of the 3rd April, that I did inform him what course we have recommended to be taken with regard to Armand; and with reference to the question as to the course of treatment to be adopted by Mr. Read towards the prisoner as a lunatic, I beg to state that he had never been considered as insane as had been previously reported to the authorities at Darlinghurst Gaol, and therefore it did not occur to me to report again my frequently expressed opinion that there had been nothing observed in the conduct of the prisoner that would justify me in giving an opinion that he was insane.

I beg further to observe on the case generally, that I neglected no opportunity that my medical knowledge could suggest to arrive at a right conclusion.

I kept him under observation whilst in the cell. I took him into hospital in order to have him more immediately under my notice. I placed him under the joint observation of a countryman of his own (who I placed in the bed beside him), and the most intelligent person at my service; and, independent of the many official consultations with Dr. Alleyne on the case, I had him examined by medical friends for the benefit of their opinion.

I have, &c.,

Paul Armand. UNDER date 19th April, 1866, the Principal Under Secretary requests a report respecting an article in Empire, about Paul Armand.
Referred for report of the Principal Gaoler.—19 April, 1866.
Report annexed.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
20 April, 1866.

Paul Armand.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to report, for the information of the Honorable Principal Secretary, that the prisoner named in the margin who is the subject of the newspaper paragraph accompanying Principal Under Secretary's letter of yesterday, and upon which you are requested to report, was received into Gaol on the 24th June last, and on 17th July, was convicted of stealing, and sentenced at the Quarter Sessions to twelve months labour in H. M. Gaol, Maitland, but his detention in this Gaol was afterwards authorized.

In reply to the queries in the newspaper paragraph, I beg to state,—

1st. It is true that Armand has been eight times punished for breaking the prison rules, but as to his madness there is a difference of opinion. The medical officers say he is not mad—from my own observation, and from the reports of the warders, I believe the man to be an idiot, and I have told the Visiting Magistrate so; and when the prisoner was again brought before Mr. Chatfield, he declined to punish him further, giving his reason in the "Punishment Book," an extract from which I annex. A copy of this extract was brought under your notice in my letter of the 12th instant.

2nd. It is true that Armand was sentenced to twenty-eight days cells on bread and water, but he became so ill that before the expiration of the term it was found necessary to remove him to the hospital.

3rd. He has continued since the above punishment to break the prison rules and to be most filthy in his habits.

4th. The fourth query is fully answered by the Visiting Magistrates remark in the "Punishment Book."

5th. I cannot say how far the recommendation of the Visiting Magistrate has been acted upon. I have merely heard that Drs. West and Alleyne have recommended Armand's removal to the asylum at Parramatta.

6th. Armand is now confined in a cell set apart for lunatics.

7th. He is confined by my orders, as I found it impossible to obtain a definite recommendation from the Visiting Surgeon, and therefore acted upon my own opinion as to prisoners idiotcy.

I have, &c.,
J. C. READ,
Principal Gaoler.

P.S.—I forward herewith the depositions on which the prisoner was sentenced to twenty-eight days cells.—J.C.R., P.G.

Paul Armand.

Sir,

In accordance with the instructions conveyed in your communication of yesterday's date, I do myself the honor to enclose the following replies to the queries respecting the prisoner named in the margin.

1st. Armand has been punished eight times (8) for breaking the prison rules, but he was not considered by the Visiting Surgeon to be insane.

2nd. He was sentenced to twenty-eight days cells on bread and water, but becoming ill was removed to hospital before the expiration of the term.

3rd. He has continued since the last punishment to break the prison regulations, being most filthy in his habits.

4th. The minute of the Visiting Justice, a copy of which was forwarded to the Government, is herewith sent with reply to these queries.

5th. The matter is with the Government.

6th. Armand is at present confined in a cell set apart for lunatic prisoners.

7th. By the authority of the Principal Gaoler.

22nd May, 1866.

Paul Armand.

On the 18th instant, a letter was received from Principal Under Secretary, addressed to the Sheriff, dated 14th instant, respecting the prisoner named in the margin, and stating that from a report in the case by Drs. Alloway and Cox, it would appear that nothing further is necessary than the release of Armand from the lunatic cells and his treatment as an ordinary prisoner.

In the afternoon the Acting Visiting Surgeon gave a certificate that the prisoner is insane; Dr. Aaron intends having advice and assistance in the case from other medical men, when a further report will be sent in.

EXTRACTS from Principal Gaoler's Journal, under date, 16th August, 1865.

George Birmingham.—This prisoner, whose case stood over from the 3rd instant, having been sent back to the cells by order of the Visiting Magistrate—then, having refused to plead when brought up on a charge of refractory behaviour—since then has been in the cells, where he assumed insanity and remained several days without food. On frequent examination, Drs. West and Alleyne have pronounced him a malingerer. Yesterday, the Visiting Magistrate discharged him from the cells, considering that he had been sufficiently punished.

George Birmingham.—The prisoner has again been sent to the insane ward for observation, in consequence of his eccentric behaviour.

The Visiting Magistrate to The Principal Under Secretary.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
14 September, 1865.

Sir,

The prisoner named in the margin has been brought before me on a charge of malingering by feigning insanity. He has been examined by Drs. West and Alleyne, who do not see any grounds to pronounce an opinion that he is of unsound mind; but, in my opinion, the prisoner is in a state of incipient if not confirmed insanity, and I have therefore declined punishing him, and think the proper place for his detention is the Asylum for Criminal Lunatics at Parramatta. But, as I have no power to cause the prisoner's removal, I wish to bring the case under the notice of the Honorable the Principal Secretary for his instructions.

Sir,

I do myself the honor to report that the case of the prisoner named in the margin is still undecided; and, as the warders state he is getting daily weaker, I beg leave to be advised as to his treatment.

George
Birmingham.

The

The particulars of his case are simply that, he having shewn symptoms of insanity, I had him brought before the Medical Officer, and both Drs. West and Alleyne have certified that they could perceive no symptoms of insanity about him,—whereupon he was charged before the Visiting Magistrate, Dr. Douglass, with attempting to impose on the Medical Officer by feigning insanity; but Dr. Douglass declined to punish him, believing, I presume, that he is not in a sound state of mind. Some correspondence has taken place about Birmingham; but, as he seems to be in a very emaciated state, and a probability of his getting worse, I deem it prudent to bring the case under your notice.

Sir,

In forwarding this application for a warrant to remove the lunatic, Jim Sing Chung, to the Criminal Lunatic Asylum, I beg to remark that, in this case, as in many others where the individuals are now confirmed lunatics in the asylum, Ching has been frequently punished as a malingerer, even though myself and other officers of the prison were convinced that he was insane. We did not hesitate to express our conviction, and thereby induced the Visiting Magistrate to make some remarks in the Punishment Book. I state the fact, without wishing to intrude my opinion, with the hope that such a state of things may be altered. Jim Sing Chung.

James Feeley. Sir,
Prisoner named in margin, for whom you have forwarded a transmission warrant for Darlinghurst, has for the last two or three days been shewing symptoms of insanity (real or affected, I am not in a position to state). I have placed him under Dr. Pringle, who is watching the case. Under these circumstances, I delay sending him to Darlinghurst until I receive further instructions from you.
If Dr. Pringle pronounces him only shamming, would you be good enough to inform me what I am to do—whether he is to be brought before the Visiting Justice for punishment, or at once sent to Darlinghurst?
If, on the contrary, he is pronounced insane, I presume he must be kept here till a warrant is received for sending him to a lunatic asylum.

I have, &c.,

I have communicated on the subject with Dr. Pringle. After he shall have determined the question of insanity, further instructions concerning Feeley will be given.—H.M.L.

Sir,
Referring to the case of the prisoner Feeley, brought forward in your letter of the 26th instant, I have the honor to observe that your proper course appears to be to follow your own professional opinion, irrespectively of any that may be held by the Acting Superintendent of the Asylum.
If, after sufficient observation of Feeley, who will remain for the present under your care, you come to the conclusion that a second medical man should be called in, and communicate that conclusion to me, I will be prepared under the special circumstances of the case to apply to the Chief Secretary to authorize the employment of the Visiting Surgeon of Darlinghurst Gaol, or Dr. Alleyne, to join you in the examination.

James Feeley. Sir,
Referring to your letter of the 12th ultimo, authorizing the return of the prisoner named in the margin from the Lunatic Asylum at Parramatta to the Gaol, as convalescent, I do myself the honor to state that the Visiting Surgeon at Parramatta has reported, after a careful watching of Feeley since his return, his opinion that the man is dangerously insane.
It does not seem to be desirable that this prisoner, having been so recently discharged from the Asylum, should so soon again be returned under the certificate of the same medical gentleman who gave that under which he was first sent there, and I therefore do myself the honor to suggest that Dr. Alleyne, who is in the habit of acting with the Visiting Surgeon of Darlinghurst, be requested to proceed to Parramatta Gaol to act in this case with Dr. Pringle.
I beg to say that the mode of dealing with this prisoner is of more than ordinary importance, as, whether sane or insane, he is of a most dangerous character.

I have, &c.,
HAROLD MACLEAN.

The Gaoler, Parramatta, to The Inspector of Prisons.

H. M. Gaol, Parramatta,
15 May, 1867.

Sir,
On Sunday night last, about 7 o'clock, prisoner James Feely set a light to his bed, bedding, &c., but fortunately did no injury to his person.
I considered in the first instance that the officers who searched his cell were very much to blame; but after a careful inquiry into the matter, I must acquit them, as it appears there never were any instructions given on this point.
It appears that the rule about tobacco, matches, &c., has only been applied to prisoners undergoing punishment, which Feely was not, being there for medical treatment.
To prevent a repetition of this, I have issued an order that lunatics are to be searched also, and not allowed tobacco or matches.

I have, &c.,
J. GARDA HUSSEY,
Gaoler.

UNDER the circumstances stated, I will not hold the officers accountable; but I think that a proper foresight and care would have led to this prisoner having been searched for matches and tobacco, either by the direction of the superior officer, or (by the exercise of their own discretion) by the searching warders. Although, to meet it, officers' duty is not provided for by regulations and instructions, I look for forethought and good judgment in the officers.—H.M.L.—B.C.—16 May, 1867.

[Medical Treatment Recommended.]

Memo. for The Inspector of Prisons.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
29 November, 1867.

THE prisoner named in the margin was received into Gaol yesterday, charged on warrant with John Horton. being of unsound mind, and medical treatment recommended. He had to be lifted out of the police van: he was so completely prostrate that I at first thought he was paralyzed. I had him carried on to the hospital immediately, where the Visiting Surgeon was, at the time, with Dr. Alleyne. Dr. Aaron, in the passage of the hospital, saw the man; and a warder (Duval) attempted to give him what is termed "D. T. Tea"—a concoction generally administered to drunkards; the man was too far gone, and could not swallow. A warm bath was prescribed, which he had; he was then carried to an insane cell, where he was found this morning, still insensible, rigid in his limbs, and apparently in a dying state, having partaken of nothing but a drink of water put to his lips by the prisoner keepers during the night. Between 6 and 7 o'clock this morning the Surgeon was sent for, attended promptly. Horton was then taken into hospital, and properly treated; he is still insensible, and will probably die, although there is a marked improvement since he received restoratives, &c.

Sydney, 29 November, 1867.

Sir,
John Horton. I have to report that the prisoner named in the margin, the same referred to in my Memorandum this morning, died in the Gaol hospital at 3.30 p.m. this day.

The Coroner has been requested to hold an inquest at his earliest convenience.

I have, &c.,
J. C. READ,
Principal Gaoler.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons to The Principal Gaoler, Darlinghurst.

3 December, 1867.

I HAVE seen the Visiting Surgeon upon this case. The prisoner's disposal at the Gaol was entirely a medical question, the responsibility resting with the Surgeon, who informs me that the result was unconnected either with his having been placed in the insane ward or in the hospital in the first instance, explaining the medical reasons. I understand from the Surgeon that it is usual to send all such cases to the insane ward at first as the ordinary destination, but he has signified his intention in the more exaggerated cases to take them at once into the hospital for the future.—H.M.L.

The Principal Gaoler, Darlinghurst, to The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

6 December, 1867.

John Horton. WITH reference to that portion of the Minute, "that it is usual to send all such cases to the insane ward first"—for the credit of the establishment, I must give this assertion a most respectful but emphatic denial. Neither in my experience nor that of the oldest officer of the Gaol, has there been a case similarly dealt with as that of the late John Horton's—where a man received utterly prostrate and insensible was ever put in the insane cell—where he was kept for about sixteen hours without sustenance or medicines of any description except the drunkard's mixture and water, which he was too far gone to swallow.—J. C. R., P.G.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons to The Principal Gaoler, Darlinghurst.

6 December, 1867.

John Horton. THE further minute of this date by the Principal Gaoler clearly amounts to a charge of serious maladministration against the Visiting Surgeon, and the matter cannot therefore be permitted to rest where it is. The Visiting Surgeon stated to me that in the present instance the treatment of Horton in the cell or in the hospital could not in any way have effected the result, and that the insane ward was the ordinary destination for prisoners received in a similar condition, adding, that many apparently worse cases had been first taken into the insane ward. This latter portion of the Surgeon's statement is strongly denied by the Principal Gaoler, who takes the responsibility, in effect, of ascribing the death of Horton to his having been kept for sixteen hours without sustenance, or at the least of asserting that the man was so kept without sustenance under circumstances when it was obviously necessary. I therefore think it necessary to send the correspondence for the report of the Visiting Surgeon, who will be good enough to return this minute with its enclosures.—H.M.L.

To Visiting Surgeon—J.C.R., P.G.—8 December, 1867.

The Visiting Surgeon to The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
16 December, 1867.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Minute of the 6th instant, enclosing further Minute of the Principal Gaoler in reference to the case of John Horton. The delay in replying has arisen from causes over which I had no control, as, amongst others, severe bodily indisposition and inability to understand precisely what I am expected to do in this matter. Am I expected to reply to the Minute of the Principal Gaoler, who so presumptuously takes upon himself to say what, in a medical case, is, or is not, proper treatment?—whose minute is made up, not of matters coming within his own knowledge, but of scraps of statements made by ignorant warders? This is an indignity to which, I am confident, you would not put me.

As two instances of the utter absurdity and presumption of the Principal Gaoler—(1) I am charged with neglecting to order sustenance to a man who, as he states at the outset, was "too far gone to swallow," and—(2) That after the man was taken into hospital and "properly treated" with "restoratives," there "was a marked improvement." I can only say that the "marked improvement" so confidently asserted by the Principal Gaoler, had no existence, save in the imagination of his informant, whoever he was. The man never rallied.

At the inquest, the Principal Gaoler volunteered his evidence (a course I have never known him take before) and was examined, but nothing of all these after-statements came out then. The man's sister was examined, and stated that he had been an habitual drunkard for years, and Warder Fowler recognized him as having been sent to Gaol more than once before as such.

Dr. Alleyne was in the surgery when Horton was brought up, consulting with me on Johnstone's case, and saw him. He concurs with me in the propriety of the treatment adopted, and says that if that did not do good nothing else would.

I

I have since been informed that Horton was received into the infirmary on that same day, but immediately afterwards given in charge to the police as being an unfit case for treatment there, then taken to the watchhouse and the court, and then sent to Gaol. There can be no doubt that the serous effusion on the brain (the proximate cause of death) had its origin in the treatment he received before his arrival at Darlinghurst, and that nothing that might have been done there could (as I have before said, and now repeat,) have in the slightest degree influenced the result.

As to the use of the insane ward, I have the authority of Dr. Alleyne for stating that it was fitted up on the recommendation of my predecessor, the late Dr. West, for the express purpose of receiving such cases, he having experienced the danger of taking them into hospital, as, if they recovered from the immediate effects of the drink, they not unfrequently became violent.

I acknowledge this, in face of the bitter undisguised hostility evinced towards me by the Principal Gaoler ever since he was made aware that I am "not amenable to his censure." I should have saved myself some annoyance by taking this man into hospital at once, but as I have already stated, Dr. Alleyne was with me in consultation on Johnstone's case, and the idea did not occur to me.

I have, &c.,
ISAAC AARON,
Surgeon.

The Principal Gaoler, Darlinghurst, to The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
27 December, 1867.

MEMO.—With reference to my conversation with you on the 24th instant, respecting treatment of the late John Horton, I understood you to say that you had been informed by the Visiting Surgeon, that Dr. Alleyne had seen the patient and concurred in the treatment he received. I am informed that Dr. Alleyne did not see Horton on that occasion; and, as I felt surprised when you told me, I made inquiry since, and have been further assured that the official did not misinform me in the first instance.

It is very painful to have to refer to this matter again, and to have to contradict so many assertions as have been put forth.

J. C. READ,
Principal Gaoler.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons, to The Principal Gaoler.

Sheriff's Office,
Prison Branch,
Sydney, 6 January, 1868.

Sir,

Referring to the correspondence in the case of the prisoner named in the margin, I have now to inform you that I have been in communication with the Visiting Surgeon, and also with Dr. Alleyne (who says that he did casually see the man when first brought in), upon the subject.

It may be that Horton should have been in the first instance taken into the hospital instead of the insane ward, but Dr. Alleyne informs me that he would probably have placed him in the latter.

From your reports and especially that of the 6th ultimo, I inferred a charge of serious maladministration against the Visiting Surgeon. You have, however, verbally informed me that you did not intend so large an inference to be drawn; I then explained to you that, in my view, neither you as the head of the establishment, nor myself as that of the department, are justified in taking exception to the professional course followed by the Visiting Surgeon in any given case—unless the circumstances surrounding it justify a charge of serious maladministration amounting to incapacity for his office, against the latter—nor, as it were, in setting a non-professional opinion against that of the medical officer, I do not see that the circumstances of the present case afford grounds for any such charge.

I have taken some pains in the recent controversies, to explain the relative positions of the Surgeon and the executive officers of the prison, and I therefore trust that I may not again have occasion to interfere between officers whose harmonious action is most necessary to the good working of the establishment.

Sir,

Referring to the warrant forwarded to you on the 26th April last, for the removal of the prisoner named in the margin, from Darlinghurst Gaol to the Parramatta Lunatic Asylum, I am directed by the Colonial Secretary to inform you, that the Board of Medical Visitors to the Lunatic Asylums have reported that Johnstone is now of sane mind, and that a warrant has therefore been issued for his discharge to Darlinghurst Gaol.

EXTRACT from Principal Gaoler's Journal, under date, 20 September, 1865.

Robert Johnstone.—This prisoner, who was returned from Parramatta Lunatic Asylum as cured, became very violent, and has been again certified insane by the Medical Officers of this Establishment.

13 October, 1865.

On the recommendation of the Visiting Surgeon, the strait waistcoat was put on this prisoner, who is under sentence to the roads, but has been certified to be insane. He being extremely violent, he has been placed in the padded cell by night; but he succeeded, during intervals since they were recommended, to destroy no less than four strait waistcoats.

This has been regularly reported to the doctors.

Sent to Parramatta Lunatic Asylum—20 October, 1865.

MEMO.—I feel it necessary to call the attention of the Sheriff to the case of the prisoner named in the margin. Robt. Johnstone

Ever since he was returned to the Gaol from the Lunatic Asylum he has been kept in separate confinement.

He is now becoming sullen and morose, refuses his food, and his health is suffering in consequence. I cannot answer for the results of the course pursued with him, and must urge his immediate removal, in accordance with the last order.

ISAAC AARON,
Surgeon.

THIS man has been several times in the Lunatic Asylum; he is kept in "separate treatment," as he threatened to murder a warder and an overseer the first opportunity, (and it is probable that he would). The Inspector of Prisons told me that he would send Johnstone to Maitland Gaol.

EXTRACTS from Principal Gaoler's Journal, under date, 22 November, 1867.

Robert Johnstone.—This prisoner was received yesterday from Parramatta Lunatic Asylum, in transit to Maitland Gaol. The Medical Board declare him sane. If not mad, he is a most consummate malingerer; and, from what I know of his antecedents, is likely to do some serious injury.

Robt. Johnstone.

25 November, 1867.

The prisoner named in the margin (see Memo. of the 22nd instant with reference thereto) was brought before the Visiting Magistrate to-day, charged with making use of threatening and abusive language to Warder Carroll, and also with assaulting and striking a fellow-prisoner on the 23rd instant. When I requested the Surgeon, through the Chief Warder, to examine Johnstone, he positively refused to do so, saying that the prisoner had been pronounced sane by the Medical Board at the Asylum. The appearance of the man, when before the Magistrate, was so palpably insane, that Mr. Chatfield made a remark in the Punishment Book. (See extract.) The remark was immediately shewn to Dr. Aaron, but he persists in his refusal to have anything to do with the prisoner. Johnstone refuses food, and has all the indications of a person subject to fits and insanity. I can only account for the Medical Board pronouncing him sane, on the ground of his having lucid intervals. I fear that he will expire in a fit during the night, being kept in a bare cell. I have written to the Inspector of Prisons for instructions. (See Memo., 25th Nov., /67.)

In consequence of his state of mind, Johnstone was detained in Darlinghurst Gaol instead of being forwarded to Maitland under this warrant.

Memo. for Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Robert Johnstone.—In consequence of the violent and apparently insane behaviour of the prisoner Robert Johnstone, now here en route from Parramatta Asylum to Maitland Gaol, I directed that he should be taken before the Visiting Surgeon on Saturday; but Dr. Aaron declined to interfere in the case, telling the Chief Warder that Johnstone was but feigning, and should be punished. This morning Johnstone was brought under the notice of the Visiting Magistrate, who made the following remark in the Punishment Book:—"Remanded for medical report. From this man's antecedents and appearance, I think there ought to be a further medical examination before removal to Maitland Gaol."

Memo. for the Sheriff's information.

This remark has been shewn to Dr. Aaron, but he still declines to interfere in the case. I have, therefore, to request instructions in the matter, and also to know how far I am justified in demanding that the Visiting Surgeon shall see a prisoner, as in this instance Dr. Aaron positively refused to see the prisoner when requested by myself, through the Chief Warder, to do so. The charge against Johnstone in the Punishment Book is making use of threatening and abusive language to a warder; also, assaulting and striking a fellow prisoner.

Memo. of The Sheriff.

I HAVE myself seen this prisoner Johnstone. By his former prison and lunatic asylum history, there can be no question but that he is a very dangerous man ; he appears to me to be quite unfit to be among prisoners, or even to be in a prison at all. I would be glad if the Visiting Surgeon would give his case a special attention, with a view, if needful, of a renewed examination, and to save the risk of sending him to Maitland in the probability of his early return from there to the Asylum.

If the Surgeon should not see occasion to have an examination, I would like to have his report upon the case before sending the prisoner on.—H.M.L.—B.C., 26 November, 1867.

Memo. of The Visiting Surgeon,

Darlinghurst Gaol,
26 November, 1867.

MEMO.—In reference to the prisoner, Robert Johnstone, I beg to state, that he has been so often sent to Parramatta Lunatic Asylum and returned as not insane, that I am at a loss what to do with him, as although he is so quiet and orderly there, he no sooner returns to this Gaol than he begins his tricks again.

The following is a copy of a letter received from Dr. Brown, the last time :—

“ Lunatic Asylum,
“ Parramatta, 14 Aug., /66.

“ Dear Sir,

“ There is a criminal lunatic (?) named Robert Johnstone returned to day to Darlinghurst ; he says he will be back again in a fortnight, as he does not like Darlinghurst and would rather go to Maitland where he would have a better chance of escape.

“ The late Dr. Greenup always considered him a schemer, and he has not shewn any sign of insanity since he has been here.

“ You will find that he will make himself very troublesome to the Gaoler, to try and get removed back again. His case is well known to the Visiting Board here, and also to the Colonial Secretary ; and I write to put you on your guard in examining him, as from your recent appointment you are not likely to be acquainted with him. Perhaps cells and low diet may cure his insanity when it comes on.

“ Believe me, &c.,
“ WALTER BROWN,
“ Acting Superintendent.”

Under these circumstances, I felt justified in refusing to have anything to do with the matter. I was not called before the Visiting Magistrate or I would have produced Dr. Brown's letter. If anything more is to be done, the only mode of procedure appears to me to apply to the Colonial Secretary for a separate commission to be appointed, as was done in the case of Paul Armand.

Surgeon.

The Sheriff to The Visiting Surgeon, Darlinghurst Gaol.

Sheriff's Office,
Prison Branch,
Sydney, 27 November, 1867.

Sir,

In reference to the case of the prisoner Robert Johnstone, I have the honor to apprise you Robt. Johnstone. that I have received a report from the Principal Gaoler (subsequent to your communication of yesterday) of the prisoner since I saw him, and which seems to leave no question as to the correctness of the opinion of the officer in charge of him, as to his being in a condition of dangerous insanity.

However he may conduct himself at the Asylum, there can be no doubt but that, at the Gaol, either the effect of the necessarily special treatment therein, or other cause, excites him to a condition of insanity dangerous to himself and others, and quite unsuited for prison treatment.

I have been in communication upon the subject with the Honorable Chief Secretary, who desires that an immediate examination and special report on the case be made by yourself and Dr. Alleyne, I therefore do myself the honor to request that you will arrange with Dr. Alleyne for making the examination and report as early as possible.

Sheriff's Office,

Sydney, 27 November, 1867.

Sir,

I do myself the honor to inform you, that it is the desire of the Honorable the Chief Robt. Johnstone Secretary that an immediate examination should be made by the Visiting Surgeon of Darlinghurst Gaol and yourself, of the prisoner Robert Johnstone, now in that Gaol, and that a special report of the case be furnished.

Dr. Aaron has therefore been requested to make the necessary arrangements with you accordingly.

I have, &c.,
HAROLD MACLEAN.

EXTRACTS from Principal Gaoler's Journal, under date, 26th November, 1867.

Robt. Johnstone.—With reference to entry in Journal yesterday respecting the prisoner Johnstone, the Inspector of Prisons came to-day, examined the wretched lunatic, and wrote a memo. for the Surgeon to the effect,—that he was satisfied that the man was insane. Warder Mason was sent with Mr. Maclean's memo. to the Visiting Surgeon, and the Warder brought back word that if the Inspector of Prisons had seen his (Dr. Aaron's) report, sent in at 11 o'clock to-day, that he (Mr. Maclean) would not have written such a minute as the one now referred to. I know nothing of the report sent in by Dr. Aaron, as it did not pass through my hands.

27th November, 1867.

Robt. Johnstone.—The sight of this prisoner was most sickening and revolting this morning. At 7½ p.m. yesterday, the Warder on duty discovered that Johnstone was in a violent fit in his cell, and was, I understand from the Chief Warder, nearly dead, having been left without any attendance, the Surgeon having persisted that the wretched man was only malingering. However, the man was so bad last night that his head had to be shaved, blistered, and croton oil given to resuscitate him, it is really sickening to behold him. I have written to that effect to the Inspector of Prisons.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
28 November, 1867.

MEMO.—Dr. Alleyne and the Visiting Surgeon of the Gaol, having, in accordance with the instructions received from the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, instituted a long and careful examination of the case of the prisoner Robert Johnstone, beg to recommend that the final report may be deferred for a few days, in order that they may have a full opportunity for forming an opinion on so difficult a case. In the meantime they think that he should be kept apart from other prisoners.

They will see him again in two day's time and will then report.

ISAAC AARON,
Surgeon.
H. G. ALLEYNE, M.D.

The urgency of the matter is entirely in relation to the prisoner himself, and the report cannot be expected until the medical gentlemen are prepared to make it. In the meantime the prisoner will be considered in the hands of the Visiting Surgeon and Dr. Alleyne, and will be treated in all respects as directed by them.

Dr. Aaron will please give directions as to the care and treatment of prisoner Robert Johnstone, to enable me to comply with the order of the Inspector of Prisons herewith.

Robt. Johnstone.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter of the 6th ultimo, notifying the fitness of the prisoner named in the margin for discharge from the Lunatic Asylum at Parramatta, I do myself the honor to report that the indications of violent insanity displayed by Johnstone while at Darlinghurst, on his way to Maitland Gaol, rendered it necessary to detain him at the former establishment, pending a further examination into his condition.

In accordance with the desire of the Honorable the Chief Secretary, I arranged for an examination by the Visiting Surgeon and Dr. Alleyne, with a view to a special report upon the case, which I have the honor to enclose.

In calling attention to the circumstances of this case, I take the opportunity to bring under the serious consideration of the Honorable the Chief Secretary the existing practice in respect to the re-transfer of criminal lunatics from the asylums to the prisons.

The prisoner Johnstone was first sent to the asylum on the 26th April, 1865.

Sent to the asylum, 3 June, 1867.

Discharged to gaol, 6 November, 1867.

And now, on the 2nd December, 1867, again certified as insane, and recommended to be returned to the asylum. While in the gaol upon the present occasion Johnstone made a violent attack upon a fellow prisoner and also upon a warder, and had to be confined in a separate cell.

The terms of the report of Messrs. Aaron and Alleyne are in a lesser degree applicable to a large proportion of the cases of prisoners returned from the asylum.

Having regard to the number of times that Johnstone has been sent backwards and forwards, on some occasions at very short intervals, it is evident that there is a difference in the views of the medical authorities at the respective establishments, as to the conditions under which a prisoner ought to be in an asylum or in a prison.

It appears to me that there are two most important considerations to be kept in view in cases of proposed retransfer to a prison—the fair security of the prison officers and of the other prisoners, and the effect upon the man himself of the prison treatment as compared with that at the asylum.

In the ordinary course of treatment after the return of the man to prison, he is put to work with others, and it is out of the question to prevent his having access to tools that may be made use of as deadly weapons. Frequently, however, it is so obvious that the man cannot with common prudence be kept among the other prisoners, or in reach of tools, that he has to be kept separate and exercised by himself. In the former case the lives both of officers and fellow-prisoners are endangered by the means of injury being in the hands of a man of a least doubtful sanity, of probably violent passions, and sense enough to be aware that his having been in the asylum will practically render him irresponsible for whatever deed he may commit; and in the latter, the man resents his special treatment, exciting himself in a manner highly prejudicial to his own condition of mind. I think that it will be admitted, that whatever chance a man may have of thoroughly recovering his sanity in an asylum, there is but little chance of his doing so in a gaol cell, under the irritating conditions above described.

My object in bringing forward this question so fully, is the hope that the authorities of the asylum may be led to setting up a different standard than has hitherto been thought necessary to make a fitting subject for retransfer to a prison.

I have, &c.,
HAROLD MACLEAN,
Sheriff.

Robert

Robert Johnstone.—The case of this prisoner has been dealt with by the special inquiry sanctioned by the Hon. the Chief Secretary. The Visiting Surgeon has, however, been informed that, in my opinion, the letter of Dr. Brown should not have prevented him from seeing the prisoner when first applied to; and, further, that the proper rule is that he should see any prisoner that the officer in charge of the prison may desire to bring before him—the responsibility for the future medical treatment of any such prisoner then to rest with the Surgeon.—H.M.L.

Sydney, 9 December, 1867.

Sir,

Referring to your report of 26th ultimo, upon that of the Principal Gaoler, dated the 25th, respecting the case of the prisoner Robert Johnstone (which has been since disposed of), I do myself the honor to remark that in my opinion the letter of Dr. Brown, however valuable it might be in assisting your dealing with the prisoner, should not have prevented you from seeing him when first applied to.

It may save future misconception, if it be understood as the rule, that the Surgeon should see any prisoner that the officer in charge of the Gaol may desire to bring before him—the responsibility for the future medical treatment of any such prisoner then to rest with the Surgeon.

I have, &c.,

HAROLD MACLEAN.

The Visiting Surgeon, Darlinghurst Gaol, to The Sheriff.

Darlinghurst Gaol,
10 December, 1867.

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 9th instant, in reference to the case of the prisoner Robert Johnstone, and to state that he was brought before me immediately on his return from Parramatta—that I saw no change in his appearance or otherwise since he left this Gaol last—that he asked for tea, sugar, and tobacco, saying he had been allowed them there, and that he either could not or would not work unless he had them. I did not allow them.

When it was reported to me that he had assaulted a fellow prisoner, I did not think it necessary to see him, having determined, in consequence of his having been so often returned on our hands as sane, to let him go before the Magistrate before taking any further steps in the matter.

After he had a fit, and his head had been blistered, and strong aperients given him, he was very weak, and on his representation that he had brandy at Parramatta, I allowed him two ounces of rum; but as he had another fit in three or four days afterwards I again stopped it. The only indulgence he now has is 1 lb. of mutton daily; and as he will, I hope, be sent away very soon, I have not interfered with that.

I beg further to say that I have not refused to see prisoners when required, but that it was only the exceptional character of this case that induced me to do so.

I have, &c.,

J. AARON,
Surgeon.

The Principal Under Secretary to The Acting Inspector of Prisons.—2 January, 1868.

I HAVE not yet received any certificate in Johnstone's case.

I believe the prisoner has undergone medical examination, and report has been made; but the nature thereof I am not acquainted with, as it did not pass through my hands, the Medical Officers communicating direct with the Government or yourself.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring under your notice the following remark made by the Visiting Magistrate in the Punishment Book, as regards the conduct of the prisoner named in the margin:—"This is a most dangerous man, and will probably commit some serious crime if allowed to remain with other prisoners."

This is the prisoner who was lately returned from Cockatoo Island on account of his violent temper, and has been several times locked up for assaulting and quarrelling with his fellow prisoners, and once for violently threatening a warder. He is at present serving a sentence of seven days cells, passed upon him on 31st ultimo, for a similar offence. Lately he has been kept separate from the other prisoners for protection.

Awaiting your instructions—

EXTRACT from Principal Gaoler's Journal, under date, 30 December, 1867.

THE prisoner named in the margin is undergoing punishment in the cells, since the 24th instant. Since Thos. Sullivan. he has been in confinement, and in fact for some time previously, his conduct has been so strange and incoherent as to leave no doubt that he is either insane or feigning insanity. He has persistently refused food the last four or five days, until the Surgeon recommended him a little beef-tea yesterday. Dr. Aaron's attention has been called daily to the prisoner's state, but he declines to recommend anything further in the manner of his treatment. The prisoner is so weak that he is unable to stand, and yet, with the little strength he possesses, he has wilfully broken his bed-trestles; he makes use of the most abominable language, and threatens the lives of the warders.

As the Surgeon seems to be in a state of perplexity about him, and gives no decisive instructions, I have entered the charges in the Punishment Book for the Visiting Magistrate's decision; but he refuses to have the prisoner brought before him for punishment, as he thinks it probable Sullivan may be insane. The matter is therefore referred to the Acting Inspector of Prisons, who decides that the Surgeon shall take the prisoner into the insane ward on expiration of his cell sentence, for the purpose of careful medical examination; or that, if the Surgeon should think fit, the man should be sooner removed from the punishment cell, where he only gets bread and water unless specially recommended by the Surgeon.

Certified to be insane on 10th January, and sent to Asylum, 16th January, 1868.

About 8 o'clock, p.m., the prisoner named in the margin attempted to commit suicide by hanging, in his cell. He had torn up his blankets of which he made a rope, but the noise was discovered by the warder on duty. I had him removed to the insane ward in an exhausted state, and the Surgeon sent for.

The prisoner was undergoing solitary confinement in accordance with a sentence of the Visiting Magistrate. In consequence of his evincing strong symptoms of insanity the attention of the Surgeon was particularly called to the prisoner.

Dr. Aaron visited Vaughan in the early part of the day and pronounced him a malingerer, or words to that effect.

THE POLICE MAGISTRATE, DENILIQVIN, to THE SHERIFF, SYDNEY.

Deniliquin, 6 December, 1867.

SIR,

I herewith transmit depositions taken by me in the case of Rankin (Gaoler) v. Sullivan (a prisoner sentenced to hard labour in Deniliquin Gaol), with a view to bring under your notice the conduct of Warder John M'Grath.

From a perusal of his deposition, you will doubtless perceive that a spirit of favouritism towards the prisoner pervades his evidence to an extent which renders him, in my opinion, utterly unfit to be continued in his present office.

I was astounded at the conduct of M'Grath in this matter, as I felt how unreliable was his assertion that he could not say to whom the language complained of was addressed.

The prisoner, Jeremiah Sullivan, was a licensed publican in Deniliquin, when convicted before me for an assault upon his wife, and was an acquaintance of M'Grath, who has now betrayed the trust reposed in him, either from a feeling of friendship for Sullivan, or, possibly, from religious sympathy, both being Roman Catholics.

Whatever may have been his motive, I consider it imperatively necessary to remove him from his present office in the Deniliquin Gaol.

I am also informed by the Gaoler, that he was lately compelled to reprimand M'Grath for an attempt to traffic with a prisoner respecting a pistol, which alone is a sufficient irregularity to induce me to suggest, at all events, his removal to some other gaol.

I have, &amp;c.,

Thomas Rankin, Gaoler, v. Jeremiah Sullivan:—Insubordinate conduct and indecent language towards the Gaoler, Mr. Thomas Rankin.

Thomas Rankin, being duly sworn, maketh oath and saith:—I am Gaoler of Her Majesty's Gaol in Deniliquin. I was Gaoler on the 21st instant; on the morning of that day the prisoner Sullivan was being placed in a solitary cell; he addressed me, saying, "Rankin, I'll be upsides with you; I'll see you outside for this;" also, "that he could tell pretty tales about this gaol when he got out;" I told him to go to his cell, and not to give me any insolence; he went to the cell, and when there called me "a bloody white-livered dog."

Cross-examined by prisoner:—You never addressed me as "Mr. Rankin," at that time; the language used by you was directed to me; you did not mention my name, but the words spoken were in conjunction with former expressions used by you.

Sir,

In acknowledging the receipt of your communication of the 6th instant, Jeremiah Sullivan. respecting the prisoner named in the margin, and the conduct of Warder M'Grath, I have the honor to inform you that the conduct of that officer in the matter, as disclosed by his mode of giving evidence, shews him to have evinced favouritism; and I concur with you that he is unfit to be intrusted with the duties of a warder.

The reasons for his removal from Deniliquin Goal are equally strong against his employment in any other, I therefore feel bound to direct his dismissal.

A successor will be sent without delay, until whose arrival a temporary warder may, if necessary, be employed.

I have to request that you will direct the Gaoler to send M'Grath's defaulter sheet, which he should have asked you to forward with your letter.

PETITION.

WE, the undersigned residents of and in the Town and District of Deniliquin, do hereby willingly testify to the general good character of John M'Grath, ex-Warder of Deniliquin Gaol. We believe him to be a man utterly incapable of telling an untruth; and, during the period of years we have severally known him, we have never heard of any one case of complaint against him, either in his official or private capacity. We are of opinion that the Government have, by the discharge of the said John M'Grath from his appointment of Warder at the Deniliquin Gaol, parted with a good and zealous officer. And we are of opinion that a public inquiry as to the real cause of his discharge, as prayed for by him, would not be without some good results following such inquiry.

GEO. A. JEFFREY, Solicitor, Deniliquin, N.S.W.

I, John M'Grath, of Deniliquin, in the Colony of New South Wales, ex-Warder of Deniliquin Gaol, do hereby solemnly and sincerely declare, that I was on duty at the aforesaid gaol on the morning of about the twenty-first day of November last; that about the hour of seven o'clock on the morning in question, I was escorting a prisoner named Jeremiah Sullivan from the north yard to his cell in the north corridor in the said gaol, he being sentenced to seven days' solitary confinement; as the said prisoner was passing in from the yard, he, together with myself, met the Gaoler, Mr. Rankin; the prisoner said, "Well, Rankin, I shall not be always here"; I then took the prisoner to his cell; Sullivan kept talking to himself and grumbling, but I took no heed of it; I stayed in front of the cell-door which was open for about half a minute whilst another prisoner who acted as another warder was sweeping out the said cell; I walked backwards and forwards along the said corridor whilst the said prisoner Dunbar, who acted as warder, continued to clean out the cell; I heard the prisoner Sullivan say, whilst I was away from the said cell-door, and he being out of my sight, "A bloody white-livered dog;" I afterwards locked him in his cell; the Gaoler sometime afterwards ordered me to search Sullivan; I did so, and upon his person I found a knife, pipe, and piece of tobacco, which I gave to the Gaoler; after prisoner had completed his solitary confinement, I was called in to give evidence against him upon what I believe was a charge against him for making use of the said language towards the said Gaoler; upon being asked during the inquiry by the Police Magistrate, James Giles, Esq., if I thought the words were addressed to the Gaoler, I replied that I could not swear they were; and the reason for my giving that reply was because the said prisoner was out of my sight, and was and had been grumbling to himself as before mentioned; and I say that the words might have been addressed to the Warder Callinan; moreover, I well knew that the prisoner Sullivan had a spite against another warder named Callinan, from whose charge I had just previously taken him in the north yard of the said gaol; the Gaoler, at the time that the prisoner Sullivan made use of the words I have mentioned, was in the lower south corridor in the said gaol; that where the Gaoler deposed to as the place where I was standing at the time the said words were used is untrue and false: And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the more effectual abolition of Oaths and Affirmations taken and made in various departments of the Government of New South Wales to substitute Declarations in lieu thereof and for the suppression of voluntary and extra-judicial Oaths and Affidavits."

seventh day of January, 1868,— }

STATEMENT OF JOHN M'GRATH.

ON the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, I was doing duty as warder in the south yard of Deniliquin Gaol; I then held the keys of the male prison, and, about half-past 6 a.m., I unlocked the male prison cells, and let out the male prisoners, as usual, into the north yard to wash and exercise themselves, under the charge of Warder Callinan, who was then on duty there. On the same morning, there was a male prisoner, Jeremiah Sullivan, who was to undergo solitary confinement, in the north yard with the other prisoners; and at about 7 o'clock I called upon this man to come back to his cell, who came immediately, but seemed to be much excited about something, as he was muttering and talking to himself in an angry manner, which I thought had been caused by some one of the male prisoners in the north yard having a dispute with him, or that he, Sullivan, had found out that one of them had been saying something about him; this was only conjecture of mine, as the prisoners often quarrel with each other. As Sullivan, and another prisoner named Dunbar, wardsman, and myself, were passing in a line behind each other through the lower corridor, Sullivan, who was first, meets the Gaoler near the foot of the stairs leading to the upper corridor, addressed him as follows:—"Well, Rankins, I will not be always here;" and, as he was ascending the stairs, he still continued talking, but in a muttering and subdued tone so that I could not possibly distinguish what he said; I placed the prisoner Sullivan in his cell, at the corner cell on the north side of the upper corridor, and stood for about a half-a-minute in front of the door of his cell; he continued muttering still in a very low tone to the wardsman, prisoner Dunbar, who was cleaning out the cell; and, while this was being done, I paraded the landing in the upper corridor; and when I had passed about three times backwards and forwards, I overheard prisoner Sullivan say, in conversation with the prisoner. Wardsman Dunbar, who was with him some distance back inside the cell, "A bloody white-livered dog," in somewhat of a growling tone; and the cell being now ready, the wardsman Dunbar went down stairs, and I locked prisoner Sullivan up; the whole of the above occupied about four or five minutes, and, being in a hurry to attend to many other duties pressing upon me at the time, I came down stairs at once, and, at the foot of the stairs, where the Gaoler had been standing all the time, he, Mr. Rankin, gave me directions to search the prisoner, meaning by his tone of voice, as I understood him, that this could be done when more convenient; at about 9 o'clock the same morning I returned to prisoner Sullivan's cell; I unlocked the door, went in, and searched him, and found on his person a pipe, knife, and some tobacco, which he voluntarily gave up to me; I then locked him up again, and gave what I found upon him to the Gaoler, who said nothing about the prisoner's conduct, although before giving orders to search him, he said "he would have that fellow up," meaning prisoner Sullivan, and referring, as I supposed, to his language in the cell. A few days after Sullivan had completed his seven days' solitary confinement, Mr. Rankin, the Gaoler, called upon me to give evidence against the prisoner, relative to what he had said in his cell on the morning that I had first locked him up to undergo solitary confinement; I was sworn before Mr. Giles, Police Magistrate, in the Gaoler's office, and said, "I was in the gaol on duty, on 21st of November, 1867, in the south yard, about 7 o'clock in the morning; when I was putting Sullivan into his cell he appeared a little excited." By Mr. Giles: "Did you hear any words in the cell?" I said "I did; that as I was walking backwards and forwards in the corridor I overheard Sullivan say 'A bloody white-livered dog.'" By Mr. Giles: "Whom do you think the words were to?" I said "I did not know." By Mr. Giles: "Would you swear that the words were to the Gaoler?" I said "I could not."

By

By Mr. Giles: "Would you swear the words were to yourself?" I said "I would swear that the words were not to myself; on the ground that I never had any falling out with Sullivan, in the gaol or out of the gaol." (This question was put in such an angry manner, that I got a little excited.) Another question was put by Mr. Giles, in the same angry tone: "Was there any one else there besides you and the prisoner Sullivan?" I said, "Yes; the wardsmen Dunbar." Then the Magistrate became more angry, and asked, turning his head towards me, "Were there any words passed between them?"—meaning, as I supposed, the prisoner Sullivan and the Gaoler. I said, "Yes; words did pass between them"—meaning that Sullivan had spoken to the Gaoler, at the foot of the stairs, before going to the cell in the upper corridor, when he said, "Well, Rankins, I will not be always here." The Magistrate took me very short on this reply; for no words passed between the Gaoler and Sullivan when the latter was upstairs in his cell, for the Gaoler was below out of sight of the prisoner, and I had my back partly to the prisoner, and was at the far end of the corridor, so that the only person present with the prisoner, and therefore the only man who could give positive evidence on the question put to me, was the wardsmen Dunbar. By Mr. Giles: "How long have you been in Deniliquin." I said, "Nine or ten years." By Mr. Giles: "How long have you known——?" I said, "I did not know how long I had known him."

The following day, I was called in in the afternoon by the Gaoler's orders to his office at the gaol, and on entering I saw the Police Magistrate, Mr. Giles, busy writing on a sheet of paper. The sheet was nearly full, as I could see, having taken up a position just behind his (Mr. Giles') chair. This writing appeared to me to be evidence taken from the Gaoler in my absence, and against me, by which it was seen that I was being now tried for some unknown crime to me, without a charge being made known, as the last question Mr. Giles put to the Gaoler, just as I entered in the office, Mr. Giles turning his head towards the Gaoler, and says, "He was standing there all the time?"—the Gaoler answering him, and says, "He was standing there all the time, in the corridor, and could not but hear all what Sullivan said." I was not standing there all the time, nor the tenth part of a minute; and all that could be heard by a man reasonably doing his duty I did hear; but, turning the prosecution upon me, for the purpose of extorting or forcing from me a false oath against a prisoner, merely to please or serve my superiors, I never have done, nor ever will I. At this stage of the proceedings I became very much excited, as I could plainly see that foul work had been done against me, before I came in. By Mr. Giles (to M'Grath): "Have you any questions to put to the Gaoler?" I then asked Mr. Giles, "Is this man sworn, your Worship?" By the Magistrate: "Silence, sir; it is the Magistrate's business to know that, not yours." I then asked the Gaoler, "Do you accuse me of perjury?" He answered, "No, I don't"—rapidly followed by Mr. Giles—"No, he don't." Mr. Giles then began to read the paper he had written in my absence, telling me that if the statement he had taken down went to the Sheriff, I would either be removed from Deniliquin or removed from the service. The paper contained an affidavit by the Gaoler, "That I was standing there all the time and heard all that Sullivan said"—just what I suspected, from the question I heard when I entered the office—and, because I would not make a false oath to suit their passion of my superiors, the result of the inquiry, now plainly and unvarnished laid down, was, that the prisoner Sullivan was discharged; and I, with nineteen years good service in the Army, and Police Force of New South Wales, and Penal Department, was summarily dismissed the service, and denied the rights of all British subjects, seeing that justice was denied me, and that a very disgraceful state of things existed as regarded my own cause, as it had been denied in the office of the gaol. I left the Police Magistrate and the Gaoler in the office after me. I heard of no more until the morning of the 19th of December, 1867, when I entered the gaol; the Gaoler called me and told me he had received a letter last night from the Sheriff stating that I was removed from the service. I further state, that if the Gaoler was sworn to what he stated against me the second day before Mr. Giles, that he has stated a falsehood, and that I am able to prove perjury against him, and that I was no way lenient to prisoner Sullivan during his time in Deniliquin Gaol.

JOHN M'GRATH.

MINUTE OF THE SHERIFF.

I MADE the dismissal of M'Grath under the following circumstances:—

The Visiting Justice, in his investigation of the case referred to in M'Grath's petition, was struck with the untruthfulness of his evidence; and Mr. Giles, in forwarding the proceedings, expressed himself in these terms, from a perusal of his (M'Grath's) deposition: "You will doubtless perceive that a spirit of favouritism towards the prisoner pervades his evidence to an extent which renders him, in my opinion, utterly unfit to be continued in his present office." Mr. Giles further attributed this conduct of M'Grath's to personal friendship for the prisoner or sectarian sympathy.

The case against the prisoner was for most insubordinate conduct and abuse of the Gaoler.

Having carefully perused the proceedings, I had no doubt as to the correctness of the conclusions of the Visiting Justice, and, regarding M'Grath as a man unfit to be entrusted with duties in a prison, I directed his dismissal. This decision I notified in a letter to the Visiting Justice, dated the 14th December last, assigning the grounds therefor, and which I intended to be communicated to M'Grath.

I make no doubt that it would have been so communicated had M'Grath applied to the Visiting Justice.

The papers in the case are herewith.—P.C. Under Secretary.—B. C., 13 Feb., 1868.—H. M'L.

JOHN M'GRATH to HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

Deniliquin, 18 March, 1868.

MY LORD,

I humbly trust you will pardon the liberty I am taking in addressing you upon a subject which only concerns myself. Some six or seven weeks ago I did myself the honor to forward to your Excellency, through my attorney, Mr. Jeffrey, documents relative to my dismissal as warder of the Gaol at Deniliquin, praying your Excellency to cause a public inquiry to be made in regard thereto, as I am out of permanent employment, and as my character is at stake. I trust your Excellency will forgive my humbly asking your Excellency to cause the inquiry to be made as early as may be consistent with the pressure of matters which may have been brought under your Excellency's notice.

I have, &c.,

JOHN M'GRATH to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Deniliquin, 1 May, 1868.

Sir,

I take the liberty of writing to your Honor in regard of my sudden dismissal as gaol warder from the Deniliquin Gaol, last December, 1867. I have sent a Memorial to His Excellency the Earl of Belmore, the Governor of New South Wales, together with other documents, if His Excellency would cause to have public inquiry in regard of my dismissal to be held, and which I believe that His Excellency has forwarded them back to the Sheriff's Department. I further wish to state to your Honor that I am wrongfully dismissed by the Gaoler stating a falsehood against me. I am now, your Honor, going into the fifth month out of employment; and that I am a married man having a wife and three children in family; serving under Her Majesty's Service upwards of eighteen years, and never a complaint against me; and which I now throw myself before your Honor, as a British subject, for justice and protection, hoping that your Honor will favour me by letting me know by telegram if your Honor intends to hold a public inquiry. I further wish to mention to your Honor, that, since I have been dismissed, I have received a certificate of character from T. B. Carnes, Deniliquin, another of the same from Mr. Jennings, M. L. C. Hoping that your Honor will take it into your kind favourable consideration.

JOHN M'GRATH to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Deniliquin, 20 June, 1868.

SIR,

Referring to my letter to you of the 3rd May last, having reference to the papers in connection with my dismissal as warder from the Deniliquin Gaol, I have the honor to again remind you thereof, and humbly request you will be so good as to let me know if the Executive have yet arrived at any decision in the matter.

I would also respectfully remind your Honor that I am a man with a large family, and having spent the whole of my time in the service of the Government—first as a soldier, then a constable, and lastly in the Penal Department—I am not suited for any other employment. This fact, together with my being almost idle since the period of my dismissal (December last), has brought me at present into very needy circumstances; and, unless a favourable decision should be arrived at in my case, I have great fears of the consequences in future to myself and family.

Trusting in an early reply from your Honor.

I remain, &amp;c.,

SIR,

I would wish to remind your Honor again of my sudden dismissal from warder of Deniliquin Gaol, hoping that your Honor will kindly let me know of what steps your Honor is to take in regard of my affair. I cannot stop much longer in Deniliquin, through the means of my wife and family that I am forced to leave for a living for myself and themselves. Hoping that your Honor will kindly let me know by return of post.

HONORABLE SIR,

I beg further most respectfully to draw your Honor's attention to my Memorial, which I believe, of the month of February, relative to my dismissal as warder from Her Majesty's Gaol at Deniliquin, to which I have not as yet received your Honor's reply—having a wife and a large family to support, and still in suspense awaiting for your Honor's, which I hope a favorable one. May I claim, at your Honor's ever marked humane disposition, that which is due to a man who has fought for his country in Her Majesty's Service as I have done—that is, your Honor's reply.

SIR,

I have received from a gentleman at Deniliquin a communication respecting the case of Mr. John M'Grath, who has been dismissed from his situation as warder of the gaol at that place, which induces me to request that you will be good enough to cause me to be furnished with copies of the information, depositions, and other proceedings in the case. If the papers are as brief as I am informed they are, they could soon be copied, and all that I require might be supplied this week.

I have, &c.,

It would be an irregularity to supply copies of official papers on private application. The circumstance of being a Member of Parliament does not appear to me to affect the rule; and a departure from it would lead to inconvenience to which no limit could be fixed. I have informed Mr. Burns to this effect by private note; I do not think any official reply necessary.

SIR,

Referring to the papers respecting the dismissal of Warder John M'Grath from the Deniliquin Gaol, which were laid before the Legislative Assembly on the 23rd ultimo, I do myself the honor to forward a further letter upon the subject from the Visiting Justice, with its enclosures, and upon which is a minute made by myself for the purposes of record, as no action appeared to be necessary.

I may mention that M'Grath was not in Deniliquin on the occasion of my visit to that place.

THE VISITING JUSTICE, DENILQUIN, to THE ACTING INSPECTOR OF PRISONS.

Police Magistrate's Office,
Deniliquin, 28 October, 1868.

SIR,

The desire expressed by you, at our interview yesterday, to make certain inquiries into the case of the late Warder M'Grath, induces me to forward the enclosed communication from the Gaoler, which I received subsequent to M'Grath's dismissal from the public service, and consequently did not deem it necessary to send it to you before.

Although I consider prisoners' statement should, as a rule, be received with great caution, especially when made in form of complaints against gaol officers, still I am strongly of opinion that prisoner Jeremiah Sullivan must have received certain indulgences while in solitary confinement, as he appeared to improve in appearance while undergoing the same.

I have, &c.,
JAMES GILES.

THE GAOLER, DENILQUIN, to THE VISITING JUSTICE, DENILQUIN.

H. M. Gaol, Deniliquin,
12 August, 1868.

SIR,

At your request I have the honor most respectfully to furnish you with a statement which Prisoner George Holt made to me previous to his discharge from this gaol, with reference to the late Warder M'Grath. This prisoner told me voluntarily, that during the time Prisoner Jeremiah Sullivan was undergoing solitary confinement in this gaol, that he (Sullivan) was better fed in solitary than out of it. I asked Prisoner Holt how that could be; he said that the late Warder M'Grath told him on several occasions to cook chops for Sullivan, and that he also got tea in solitary, and on one occasion a small meat-pie that M'Grath brought from his own home was passed in to Sullivan through the grating of the cell window. Prisoner Holt stated he passed it in himself, and was assisted by another prisoner, and while doing so M'Grath kept watch lest I might come from my own quarters while these prisoners were engaged doing this; when they had done, M'Grath gave them half a stick of tobacco between them. I have, sir, already informed you of M'Grath getting an order from a prisoner awaiting trial to get a revolver of this prisoners which was in the hands of the police, and which the prisoner desired to be handed over to M'Grath; I asked M'Grath did he not know he was acting wrong in having any transactions of this kind with a prisoner; he pleaded ignorance of knowing it to be wrong. I told him I did not wish to take any steps in this matter, and referred him to his book of regulations; he thanked me for my advice and caution, for informing him of his doing wrong. I have the honor respectfully to state that I have already informed you of this matter, and also of Sullivan being fed in solitary. I submit with very great respect, that a prison officer acting in this way, if the prisoner Holt's statement be true and which I have no reason to doubt, and also the conduct of M'Grath in the case of Sullivan—such conduct of unfaithfulness on the part of a public officer is unworthy of any confidence.

As requested by you on your visit to the gaol on yesterday, I have the honor respectfully to furnish you with a return of punishments, taken from punishment book, inflicted on prisoner Jeremiah Sullivan, during the time he was undergoing sentence in this gaol.

MINUTE OF THE SHERIFF.

THESE reports, although not quite conclusive, taken in conjunction with the circumstances of the case, bring me to the opinion that M'Grath did, in the manner stated, favour Sullivan before the occasion which led to his dismissal, and are therefore strongly confirmatory of his guilt upon that occasion. Having personally examined the positions of the respective persons concerned upon that occasion, and searchingly interrogated the officers, I have no doubt as to the decision dismissing M'Grath having been arrived at on grounds fully sufficient.—H.M'L.—26 Novr.—May be put away.

RECEPTION OF H. R. H. THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH.

(APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL CONSTABLES FOR MAINTENANCE OF ORDER AT.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be Printed, 15 December, 1868.

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

Police Department,
Inspector General's Office,
Sydney, 14 January, 1868.

SIR,

It being indispensably necessary to appoint a sufficient number of special constables for the maintenance of order at the approaching reception of H. R. H. the Duke of Edinburgh, I do myself the honor to inform you that I have arranged with the different public bodies who purpose joining in the procession to welcome the arrival of His Royal Highness, to provide 500 men for the purpose above named; and I beg to recommend that each person so appointed be paid five shillings for his day's work, and request that the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer may be moved to place the necessary funds (£125), one hundred and twenty-five pounds sterling, at my disposal for the payment of the same at once.

I have, &c.,

JNO. McCLERIE,
Inspector General of Police.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

RECEPTION OF H. R. H. THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH.

(SPECIAL EXPENSES INCURRED BY POLICE DEPARTMENT, DURING.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be Printed, 15 December, 1868.

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

Police Department,
Inspector General's Office,
Sydney, 28 January, 1868.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to submit the accompanying accounts for special expenses incurred by this department, in connection with the reception of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh, for the consideration of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary.

Patrick Cain, stabling, £3.
Messrs. Robert-son, signal flags, &c., £3 18s.

2. The charges as specified in the vouchers themselves will, I believe, satisfactorily explain the necessity for the expenditure. At the last moment, I found a general disinclination on the part of persons connected with the Friendly Societies taking part in the procession to act as special constables, and the event proved, fortunately, as I anticipated, that their services were not required. Some of the Corporation workmen only were sworn in to assist at the various street barriers, and the expense will be only £22, instead of £125 as represented in my letter of the 14th instant.

Inspector General of Police, special constables, £22.
Alex. Baikies' cab hire, &c., £5 10s. 9d.
Inspector General of Police, military refreshments, £5.

3. As regards the police, I believe it is superfluous for me to say that they performed their duty in a most praiseworthy manner—day and night—in most unfavourable weather; many of them came from homes at a distance, and all had to provide themselves with white trousers, gloves, new capcovers, &c., at their own expense, besides the extra personal expenses they were put to.

P. S. Weekes, 500 silk badges, £56 5s., already authorized by letter of 28th January, No. 68-323.

4. I am informed that in Melbourne (where the force was nearly three times as great as that at my disposal), the police were allowed double pay when actually engaged on special duty during the Duke's visit; I therefore submit for the favourable consideration of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, that all the men actually on special duty in Sydney on public days, such as the arrival, reception, illumination, &c., be allowed double pay, and the ordinary police allowance of 3s. per night for other days necessarily absent from home. Even this will not fully reimburse them the expenses out of pocket. As already reported, I arranged with the police authorities in Melbourne to supply the services of two detective officers to assist during the festivities in that Colony, as many members of the criminal class travel from one Colony to another during such gatherings. Two Melbourne detectives were similarly detailed for duty in this Colony. As our men were at considerable personal expense, I recommend that they be allowed double pay during the period of their absence.

5. These charges should, I think, be borne from the funds provided for the reception of His Royal Highness. As regards the officers of police, who have rendered me the most active and willing assistance, and of course incurred heavy expenses for uniform, which has been much injured by the bad weather, I merely ask the consideration of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary whether any and what allowance should be paid to them.

I have, &c.,
JNO. McLERIE,
Inspector General of Police.

P O L I C E .

No. 1.

MR. McMAHON to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Berrima, 2 January, 1869.

HONORABLE SIR,

Upon the 16th July last, I wrote a letter to the Inspector General of Police, comprising charges against Senior-sergeant Healey, of the Berrima Station. On the 16th September, I sent another and more specific series; and since that time, a third. But although they were all of a very serious nature, and that I prayed an investigation, and the opportunity of proving my allegations, no notice whatever has been taken of my application.

I therefore do myself the honor of soliciting you, as the supreme head of the Police Department, to investigate my complaints when you can make it convenient to do so, or at least learn why an inquiry was not instituted. I assume such could not fairly have taken place without reference to me. As you will perceive, by the absence of formal etiquette in my communications, that I have had little practice in a correspondence of this nature, I trust you will not construe my blunt manner of diction into any want of respect for you, or offence to the Inspector General.

I am, it is true, a poor man, but I challenge any one to say they ever knew a single dishonest or untruthful act of my life. I therefore respectfully submit that, if the charges contained in my correspondence to the Inspector General were worth examining, I ought to have an opportunity of proving their truth, or failing, of incurring the odium a false accuser merits.

If you will do me the honor of acceding to my prayer, by perusing the papers, I think you will come to the conclusion that I should have been heard, or that the Police Department is not a responsible one of the Public Service, if such liberties can be claimed and irregularities condoned.

I have, &amp;c.,

BRYAN PATRICK McMAHON.

THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

Police Department,
Inspector General's Office,
Sydney, 13 January, 1869.

THE writer of the attached letter has written a series of complaints against Senior-sergeant Healey, stationed at Berrima, which I believe to be without foundation, and occasioned by the man having been twice punished under the Vagrant Act, within nine months, through Sergeant Healey's instrumentality.

McMahon charged Healey with lending a police horse to a private friend, when I happened to know that the latter was a detective sent up by me on some business connected with the Post Office.

His other charges were also of a frivolous nature. I do not think his letter is deserving of any further notice.

[Enclosures in No. 6.]

Mr. McMahon to The Inspector General of Police, Sydney.

Berrima, 15 July, 1868.

Sir,

I beg respectfully to submit the following series of charges against Senior-sergeant Healey, of the Berrima Division of Police, for your investigation. I have adopted the form of question, as I am ignorant as to what extent (if any) he has infringed the Police Regulations, and inserted my own comments without intending impertinence. His position and office grants him such control over the interests, and even the liberties of many (a power he does not hesitate to exercise against those to whom he bears an antipathy), that few would have the temerity to give evidence voluntarily. I have, therefore, referred in some cases to gentlemen who will not deny the facts, and in others to existing proofs in corroboration of my allegations:—

1st. Are police officers permitted by "the Police Act" to occupy the hours they are presumed to be on duty, in drinking in public-houses, playing cricket, bagatelle, and quoits, in the streets, even whilst the business of the Court is proceeding? If not, I can adduce uncontrovertible evidence that Mr. Healey is indulging in those pastimes. Not only does he publicly, but on at least one occasion (at Hatfield's Hotel, at Berrima) occupied the bagatelle-board from early on Saturday till 2 a.m. on Sunday morning.

2nd. Are they allowed to ride and make use of their troop horse to the racecourse for the purpose of "touting," i.e., watching the "break of day" trials of racehorses, with a view of estimating the chances and merits of the different horses, and taking advantage of the experience thus gained, in successfully securing the sporting investment of money? That Mr. Healey distinguished himself in this is so patent to all, that he will scarcely gainsay the charge. In case he should, I will, without permission, refer you to J. Morrice, Esq., M.L.A., with whom he left the course one morning.

3rd. Are they allowed to keep and maintain cows and poultry? If so, the public should not complain that Mr. Healey can feed cows and rear poultry cheaper than they, or express jealousy in his traffic of the like, or in disposing of his poultry to Dr. Brereton and Mr. Huntley. He also alternates his amusements by dealing in horses. He has some running between Mr. Butler's place and the town; and there is one he has let, on trial, to Constable Fitzgerald (stationed at Sutton Forest). Of course the constable must accept, "if he be discreet," moreover, his fine condition.

4th. Are they allowed to accommodate their private friends with the troop horses? Now, I can affirm positively that I saw a gentleman, in private clothes, riding out with Sergeant Healey, upon one of the troop horses, on or about the 8th instant.

5th

5th and last. Are they allowed to join secret societies? Since Mr. Healey's arrival in Berrima, he has had the policy of securing his invitation in the Order of "Freemasons." Now, with the Order, or his election, I have nothing to do; but it was shrewdly suspected, at the time of his entrance, that it was not from any sympathy with the Society that he sued for admission, but to secure the protection of a powerful and influential class, and in this his expectations were fully realized. No one would complain, as they knew any attempt to injure him would give umbrage to others. Besides, many of those "others" presumed to look for more indulgence at his hands than the outer herd dare expect. As an illustration, Constable Sutherland, of Berrima, arrested a man for "carrying fire-arms" through the streets on the Sabbath. He was taken to the "lockup," and, on the sergeant's arrival, it is alleged that he told the man in custody that "he had committed a serious breach of the law," but rebuked the constable!!! For what? For taking cognizance of a serious breach of law? Be that as it may, the man was liberated; and the public became inquisitive for a reason to assign the release of a prisoner, without a magisterial inquiry. The problem was solved by the answer—"He was a brother Mason."

It may be urged why I did not make those charges, or some of them, before this. Besides the reasons before alluded to—on the principle, let every one mind his own business, and not interfere until interfered with—he is so well fortified by his position, that it is not an easy matter for a poor and unimportant man to reach him; so that I should not now have incurred the danger of a defeat, but that I have felt his tyrannical oppression to be no longer endurable, which is extended to all excepting those who are known to have friends in the Bank, or "Brother Masons," and to those he becomes sycophantically gracious. I have no fear of substantiating all or singular the above charges. I only pray for a fair and impartial inquiry.

I have, &c.,

BRYAN PATRICK McMAHON.

Police Station,
Berrima, 19 July, 1868.

Senr.-sergt. Healey begs to report, with reference to the annexed complaint:—

1. It is not true that he is in the habit of drinking in public-houses nor playing at bagetelle. The latter he understands but very little of, not having played half a dozen games in his life, nor has he played a game of cricket since he joined the service. On one occasion last summer there were some lads playing at quoits near the Court House, and S. S. Healey and Mr. Small had a game during the adjournment of the Court for half an hour, merely for pastime. Mr. Hatfield, whose house M'Mahon refers to, left the district about eighteen months, and the house has not been licensed since. At that time S. S. Healey was acquainted with but very few in Berrima, he being a comparative stranger there then.
2. It is not true that he rides the troop horses to the racecourse for the purpose of "touting." He was passing there one morning last March, and met Mr. Morrice, and accompanied him home to Berrima.
3. S. S. Healey keeps a cow and some poultry, but never sold a fowl to the late Mr. Huntley, Dr. Brereton, or to any other in his life. Constable Fitzgerald borrowed a horse one time from S. S. Healey to go a journey, and he fancied the horse so that he asked S. S. Healey to sell it, which he did, having no use for him at the time; that was the first and only time S. S. Healey sold in Berrima. His boys have two ponies running in the bush outside the town.
4. It is not true that S. S. Healey accommodates his private friends with troop horses. On the day mentioned in the complaint, he accompanied Detective Bowden to Nattai on troop horses; he may be the friend complained of.
5. S. S. Healey has joined a Masonic Lodge in Berrima. Constable Sutherland never apprehended a man in Berrima for carrying fire-arms on Sunday.

In reference to the writer of the report (McMahon), on the 10th instant S. S. Healey and the two constables confined him for being drunk and indecently exposing his person in a public place; that was the second time S. S. Healey had him punished for breaches of the Vagrant Act in nine months. On the 14th instant, S. S. Healey again cautioned McMahon that if he did not keep out of town at night he would be apprehended for loitering; he is well-known to be the greatest spunging crawler in the district; his sister, also, has reason of complaining of S. S. Healey's tyrannical oppression, he having put a stop to her keeping a den for all the tramps and prostitutes on the road, and the brother employed occasionally as tout, two of whom were sent to gaol for fourteen and seven days, at the instance of S. S. Healey; he at the same time cautioned the sister. No doubt that is tyrannical, in McMahon's idea.

Forwarded for the information of the Inspector General.—JAS. RYELAND, S.C.—20/7/68.

The practice of members of the police force owning horses and trafficking in them is becoming too prevalent, and must be stopped. I consider it was very improper for S. S. Healey to sell a horse to a subordinate member of the force in his sub-district. The other charges require no further notice.—20/7/68.—JNO. McLERIE, I.G.P.

Noted. S. S. HEALEY.

Mr. McMahon to The Inspector General of Police, Sydney.

Berrima, 16 September, 1868.

Sir,

I took the liberty of addressing a letter to you, on the 16th of July last, containing a series of charges against Senior-sergeant Healey, of the Berrima Police, and praying an investigation, if you thought them of sufficient importance, but I have not since heard what it is your pleasure to resolve on.

As my former complaints may not have been sufficiently specific, I will, with your permission, supplement them with the following, that have come under my casual observation since the date of my last:—

July the 25th—Gross partiality and neglect of duty, by permitting a man in a state of intoxication to disturb the peace in a public place, to wit, opposite the Crown Inn, Argyle-street, in the town of Berrima, by throwing off his coat and challenging others, who were assaulted at a land and property sale, to fight, at the same time making use of profane and blasphemous language, and this in the presence and hearing of the Sergeant.

July 26th (Sunday)—Drinking in the Crown Inn during the hours of divine service.

August 12th—Riding a race on his troop horse along the high road (macadamized), against another.

August 13th—Allowing a gentleman unconnected with the police force the use of his troop horse.

Allow me, in conclusion, to observe on charge the first, that it confirms the context of my former communication. The person alluded to, belonging to the magic circle of Mr. Healey's private friends, was of course exempt from the pains and penalties attached to those who have not the honor of that gentleman's distinguished friendship and protection.

I remain, &c.,

BRYAN PATRICK McMAHON.

Senior-sergeant Healey to Sub-inspector Ryeland.

Police Station,
Berrima, 20 September, 1868.

SENIOR-SERGEANT Healey begs to report, with reference to annexed, the contents of which is a gross tissue of falsehoods, he expected to hear something of the sort before this, as "Briny," a name the writer is best known by in Berrima, makes a pot-house boast that he won't let the Inspector General rest until S. S. Healey is shifted from Berrima. But Briny is getting a little rope at present, and if he is not very careful he will get something to report about before S. S. Healey leaves Berrima. If Mr. Ryeland will be good enough to inquire of young Mr. Rowley, who is now in Sydney, a candidate for employment in the police, he no doubt can satisfy him as to the character of Briny.

JNO. HEALEY,
Senior-sergeant.

Forwarded for the information of the Inspector General of Police.—JAS. RYELAND. 21/9/68.

This is scarcely a proper report. A Senior-sergeant has no business to convey or imply a threat. S. S. Healey was informed that I attached no importance to McMahon's previous complaint. Indeed, I did not reply to it; but any direct statements he makes affecting the police should be reported upon.—JNO. McLERIE, I.G.P.—21/9/68.

Senior-sergeant Healey to Sub-inspector Ryeland.

Police Station,
Berrima, 26 September, 1868.SENIOR-SERGEANT Healey begs to reply seriatim to the charges mentioned in annexed:—

1. On the 25th of July last, there was an auction sale at the Crown Inn, Berrima, and there was some dispute between three brothers (Breens) inside the house, but not of such a nature that the police would be justified in confining either of them; the dispute having been settled by one of the Magistrates of the district.

2. S. S. Healey never drank in the Crown Inn during prohibited hours; it is not very likely he would do so, he having the landlord fined three times within the last twelve months, for breaches of the Licensing Act.

3. He never rode a race with his troop horse on any road in the district, nor never allowed any person unconnected with the police the use of a troop horse.

JNO. HEALEY,
Senior-sergeant.

Forwarded for the information of the Inspector General.—JAS. RYELAND, S.I.—29/8/68.

Mr. McMahon to The Inspector General of Police.

Berrima, 11 November, 1868.

Sir,

This is the third letter I have presumed to dictate to you, comprising charges against Senior-sergeant Healey; and, as you have not condescended to honor my former communications with any notice, I do not anticipate a more favourable issue to this my last effort to attract your attention to Mr. Healey's derelictions of police regulations.

Constables Wells and Thompson have been from their usual duties for the last month. Not only were they missing from the Police Office on the ordinary Court days, but at the last sittings of the District Court there was only Constable Sutherland (the Lockup-keeper) to perform the police duties of the Court. What have they been doing? Splitting slabs, procuring building materials and building a house for Mr. Healey! The truth of this charge needs no inquiry. There is the house. By whom was it built? I neglected to say, when I first undertook the task of exposing the irregularities of this division of the police, that Mr. Healey's dairy, kept at the police barracks, comprises three cows, the surplus milk of which he supplies to his customers.

I remain, &amp;c.,

BRYAN PATRICK McMAHON.

Senior-sergeant Healey to Sub-inspector Ryeland.

Police Station,
Berrima, 15 November, 1868.

SENIOR-SERGEANT Healey begs to report, with reference to annexed:—

1. Constables Wells and Thompson are occasionally employed putting up a kitchen at the police quarters, when not otherwise employed on police duty.

2. Senior-sergeant Healey never kept three cows in the police paddock; in fact, there is not sufficient grass in the paddock to keep one cow, were it not for some green barley he grew in the garden; and until very lately, there was not a cow in the paddock all the winter.

3. He does not keep a dairy, nor has he ever disposed of a drop of milk in his life.

JNO. HEALEY,
S. Sergt.

Forwarded for the information of the Inspector General of Police.—JAS. RYELAND, Sub-insp.—16/11/68.

S. S. Healey does not say he has not three cows. How many does he keep?—E. F.

S. S. Healey has two cows, which he purchased at different times since he has been in the district; they had been running in the bush until recently, and both calved at the same time. Fearing the Inspector General would again be troubled with a report that Senior-sergeant Healey had been dealing in cattle, he felt timid of disposing of one of them, and they run principally on the reserve near the town and the paddocks.—JNO. HEALEY, S. Sergt.—18/11/68.

Had S. S. Healey permission to keep one or more cows?—E. F.

The Inspector General gave permission for Senior-sergeant Healey to keep one cow.—J. RYELAND, S.I.

If S. S. Healey would keep within the terms of the permission granted to him, he would give no grounds for such reports. No more than one cow can be allowed.—E. F.—19/11/68.

Senior-sergeant Healey will comply with the above order of the Inspector General, and inform me when he has done so; returning all papers.—J. RYELAND, Sub-insp.—20/11/68.

S. S. Healey has complied with the Inspector General's order, and disposed of one of the cows.—J. HEALEY, S.S.—22/11/68.

All papers herewith.—JAS. RYELAND, Sub-insp.—23/11/68.

Sub-inspector Ryeland to The Inspector General of Police.

Police Depot,
Sydney, 18 January, 1869.

Sir,

I beg to report for your information, that on several occasions, a man named McMahon, of Berrima, has made complaints against Senior-sergeant Healey; some of which, after inquiry, have proved very frivolous, and others without foundation whatever.

It appears that an ill feeling has arisen on the part of McMahon, from his having been locked up by Senior-sergeant Healey, charged with drunkenness and indecent behaviour, for which he was convicted.

From information I have received, and from what has been brought under my notice, with reference to McMahon, I am of opinion that very little reliance can be placed upon any complaint he has made against Senior-sergeant Healey, particularly without corroboration.

On visiting Berrima Station, I have invariably found it in good order, and the Senior-sergeant attentive to his duties. I have several times spoken with some of the principal inhabitants of Berrima respecting the police, who made very favourable replies; and on my recent visit, I called on the Police Magistrate, who stated that he had every reason to be well satisfied with the conduct of the police at Berrima.

I have, &c.,

Berrima, 25 January, 1869.

SIR,

We have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th instant, enclosing copy of one from a Bryan Patrick McMahon, relative to certain complaints made by him, on three several occasions, to the Inspector General of Police, against Senior-sergeant Healey, in charge of the police force here.

For the information of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, we desire to state as follows:—

On inquiry, we find that these so-called charges have, on each occasion of their being made, been promptly inquired into by the Inspector General, who was pleased to signify his approval of the Senior-sergeant's conduct. This man McMahon is a well-known person in the district; and on two of the occasions out of the three he alleges he had made complaint to the Inspector General, he had been all night in the lock-up, placed there by the police, under the provisions of the Vagrant Act.

Should the Chief Secretary be pleased to desire the Bench to push the matter any further, and they become possessed of the written charges to the Inspector General, as made by McMahon, it will be their duty promptly to comply with his request.

REMOVAL OF W. A. DUNCAN, ESQ.

No. 1.

MINUTE FOR THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

The Treasury, Sydney,
15th August, 1868.

THE Treasurer reports, for the information of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, that he has been under the necessity of suspending William A. Duncan, Esq., from the performance of the duties of his office as Collector of Customs, until the pleasure of His Excellency and the Council be known; and the Treasurer further submits a statement of the facts which have led to this result.

On the 2nd July last, Mr. Duncan reported the seizure of a case of goods landed from the Panama mail steamer "Rakaia," which goods he declared to be forfeited under the 86th section of the Act 9 Vict., No. 15. In the seizing note the owner is stated to be "unknown." The fraud actually complained of, and by reason of which the forfeiture is declared to be incurred, consists in the owner having entered this case as "fancy goods"; and, under that designation, liable to an ad valorem duty of 5 per cent.;—whereas the case contained, in addition to such fancy goods, 5½ dozen small bottles of scent, of the value of £3 5s. 10d., and liable to a duty of 10s. per proof gallon, as "perfumed spirits." These scents are in quantity, 12/32ds. of a gallon,—and the duty thereon is, 3s. 9d. The case was seized by Mr. Duncan personally.

Appendix A,
No. 1.

On this report of 2nd July the Treasurer minuted, on 6th July, "let the usual course be taken."

Do. No. 2. On the 8th July, the owner of the goods, Mr. Ebenezer Way, a respectable shop-keeper in Pitt-street, waited upon the Treasurer, and explained how it was that the mistake had occurred; and his statement being reduced to writing on the same day, was referred on the 10th July, to Mr. Duncan, with the following minute:—

"Collector of Customs, for report. G.E.—10/7/68."

Do. No. 3. On the 13th July, the Collector furnished his report; and the Treasurer's decision, after a careful consideration of all the circumstances, was conveyed to Mr. Duncan, on the 14th ultimo, by means of the following minute, endorsed on Mr. Way's letter of 8th July, viz.:—

"I do not arrive at the same conclusion as the Collector of Customs, in this matter. It is by no means clear to me, that a case of fraud is made out. Mr. Way is evidently new to business, and I am satisfied with the explanations, verbal and in writing, which he has made to me. I now direct, that the case be given up on payment of duty on the drapery goods, at value of £50, and 10 per cent. added, and the usual duty on the perfumed spirits. G. E.—14/7/68."

On the morning of the 15th July, the Treasurer left town, and returned on the evening of the 17th idem. But, at an interview which Mr. Way had had with him on the afternoon of the 14th, Mr. Eagar was made aware of the fact that Mr. Duncan had refused to obey the minute of the 14th ulto., above referred to, and the Treasurer then requested Mr. Way to put his statement in writing, addressed to the Under Secretary, who would give it his immediate attention.

On the morning of the 20th July, the Under Secretary placed before the Treasurer the letter which Mr. Way had written at his request, dated 16th July, upon which Mr. Lane had minuted—

Do. No. 5.

"The Collector of Customs will please report on this representation of Mr. Way's. H.L.—17/7/68.
Urgent.—To be returned."

To this minute Mr. Duncan had replied, on the 17th ulto., as follows:—

"My report is, that it is a string of senseless misrepresentations, from beginning to end, and is its own refutation. I had reasons for delaying the delivery, which I think will be found cogent, when submitted to the proper authority. W.A.D.—17."

On perusal of these documents, and under the impression that the goods seized had not been delivered to the owner up to that time (the 20th July) the Treasurer sent a verbal message to Mr. Duncan, for the several papers, Nos. 1 to 4 inclusive, which had been transmitted to him on the 14th July, and which the Treasurer desired to see, before taking further action.

Mr.

Mr. Duncan sent a verbal reply to this message, which was not considered satisfactory, and the Treasurer accordingly minuted, on the same day (20th July) as follows :— Appendix A,
No. 6.

“ Having sent to the Collector of Customs, for certain Treasury papers, in the matter of a case of goods imported by Mr. Ebenezer Way, and now under seizure—and being informed that ‘ Mr. Duncan had not the papers now, but would get them in the course of the day, and send them up’—I desire to know from Mr. Duncan, whether he has parted with the possession and custody of those papers, and if so—to whom? G.E.—20/7/68.”

To this Mr. Duncan replied,—

“ The papers are perfectly safe, and will be returned to the Treasury as soon as possible. W.A.D.—20/7/68.”

The Treasurer again minuted, on the same day, as follows,—

“ Unless Mr. Duncan give a plain and straightforward answer to the questions contained in the foregoing minute, I shall treat his failure to do so as an act of disobedience to my lawful demand—and take the needful steps to have my authority respected. G.E.—20/7/68.”

Mr. Duncan’s answering minute is as follows :—

“ As the Honorable Treasurer’s question clearly implied an accusation, the most direct answer would have been a plea of ‘ not guilty.’ I, therefore, conveyed that answer in the most respectful terms I could find. But I have nothing to conceal, and as he desires the details, they are as follows :—The goods were seized for a clear and indisputable fraud—the most indisputable of the kind I have ever known. On the first impulse, and on grounds which remain untouched by evidence, and cannot be shaken, the Treasurer himself confirmed the seizure. The law therefore left only one way in which the importer could claim its restoration; namely, an appeal to the Supreme Court. The act of the Treasurer in ordering the goods to be given up is ultra vires and illegal, as I understand the matter. That it is most demoralizing to the officers, and disastrous to the Revenue, to give up seizures in the way the present Treasurer has generally done, I am as certain as I am of my own existence. I have moreover a personal interest in this seizure, which gives me a special right to defend it, till it [be] recovered by due course of law, or at least by an express order of the Governor and Executive Council.

In the absence, therefore, of the Prime Minister (whose authority I have, to consult him in all needful cases), I placed the papers immediately in the hands of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, with a view to his advice and protection, till the Attorney General’s return. So far as I know, no one else has seen them. W.A.D.—20/7/68.”

On the 21st July, the Treasurer sent a peremptory order to Mr. Duncan, to receive the duty on the goods, and deliver the same to the owner, in terms of the previous minute of 14th July—which order was obeyed—Mr. Duncan appending the following minute at the foot of the order,— Do., No. 7.

“ In the absence of the Honorable the Attorney General, I have no alternative but to submit to this peremptory order. W.A.D.—21/7/68.”

At this stage of the occurrences, the Treasurer desires to mention that the original papers, Nos. 1 to 4 inclusive (as well as the seizing note), which had been sent by Mr. Duncan to the Colonial Secretary, have been mislaid, and after careful search by Mr. Parkes, cannot be found—and that the documents, Nos. 1 to 4, submitted herewith, where official, are extracted from the records of the department, and that Mr. Way supplied a copy of his letter of the 8th July. No copy of the Collector’s seizing note, so far as can be ascertained, is on record.

In view of the preceding facts, the Treasurer, perceiving that his authority as a responsible Minister of the Crown, charged with the administration of the Financial Department of the Government, had been entirely set aside by the insubordinate conduct of the Collector of Customs, requested that a meeting of the Cabinet might be convened, for the purpose of considering the case;—at which meeting, held at the Colonial Secretary’s Office, on the 27th July, there being then present, besides the Treasurer, the Colonial Secretary, the Minister for Lands, the Minister for Works, and the Postmaster General,—the following Resolution was agreed to :— Do., No. 8.

“ The Treasurer having submitted the within Memorandum respecting the conduct of the Collector of Customs and the various documents referred to in it, the Cabinet were unanimously of opinion that Mr. Duncan ought to be suspended from duty, and called upon to shew cause why he should not be dismissed from his office. H.P.—27/7/68.”

On the afternoon of the same day (27th July) the Treasurer transmitted the following documents to Mr. Duncan :— Do., No. 9.

1st. An order suspending him from the duties of his office, until the pleasure of His Excellency the Governor and Executive Council be known, and setting forth the several acts of misconduct charged against him.

2nd. An order directing him to hand over the temporary charge of his department to Mr. Augustus Berney, first Landing Surveyor.

These

These documents were placed in the hands respectively, of Mr. Thomson, Accountant of the Treasury, and Mr. Berney, for delivery to Mr. Duncan, who refused to obey either order, in terms which are shewn in the following reports of what took place, from the gentlemen above named :—

“The Treasury, 27th July, 1868.

“Sir,

“In compliance with your verbal instructions, I proceeded to the Custom House, accompanied by Mr. Berney, first Landing Surveyor, and, in his presence, handed to Mr. Duncan the envelope containing his suspension from office, and your instructions to hand over the charge of the department to Mr. Berney. He at once said the Treasurer had no power to suspend him—that he refused to be suspended under any authority but that of the Governor and Executive Council—and that he would not hand over, as instructed by you, the department to Mr. Berney.

I have, &c.,

JAMES THOMSON.

The Honorable
The Colonial Treasurer.

Custom House, Sydney, 27th July, 1868.

Sir,

I do myself the honor to inform you that I accompanied Mr. Thomson into the presence of the Collector of Customs, when Mr. Thomson delivered the documents of which he was the bearer, informing Mr. Duncan of the nature of their contents. Mr. Duncan received them, saying, “Mr. Eagar has not the power to suspend me—he knows that as well as I do.” After perusing the papers, he said, “He tried that before, and it was decided by the Government that he could not—that no power but the Governor and Executive Council could suspend me.” On my presenting the minute appointing me as Acting Collector, he said, “Mr. Eagar has no power to appoint any person to my office any more than he has to make an Archbishop.” On being requested to state if such was the answer he wished to return to the Treasurer, he replied, “Say that I am not suspended, and that I will not give up anything until dismissed by the Governor and Executive Council.”

I have, &c.,

A. BERNEY.

The Honorable the Treasurer.

Consequent on this further act of insubordination, a second meeting of the Cabinet was held, at 11 a.m. on the 28th July, there being then present the same Members of the Government, as on the former occasion, and the Treasurer having reported the circumstances, and applied for further advice and assistance from his Colleagues—it was resolved as follows :—

Appendix A,
No. 10.

“In the difficulty in which the Treasurer was placed by Mr. Duncan’s refusal to obey his order, it was unanimously resolved, that he should inform Mr. Duncan that unless he handed over charge to Mr. Berney by 1:30 p.m., the necessary steps would be adopted to enforce obedience; and that in the event of continued disobedience, the assistance of the Police be resorted to. It was further unanimously resolved, that the officers of the Customs be officially informed of Mr. Duncan’s suspension, and directed to transact all business with Mr. Berney, as Acting Collector. H. P.—28/7/68.”

In accordance with this decision of the Cabinet, the Treasurer addressed the same Do., No. 11, day a minute to Mr. Duncan, in the following terms :—

The Treasury, 28 July, 1868.

“I hereby inform the Collector of Customs, that unless he hand over charge of his department to Mr. Augustus Berney, by 1:30 p.m. this day, the needful steps will be adopted to enforce obedience to my order.

G. EAGAR.

W. A. Duncan, Esq.,
Collector of Customs.”

This minute was sent to Mr. Duncan by Mr. Thomson, whose report is as follows :—

“The Treasury, 28th July, 1868.

“Sir,

“Having, as instructed by you, placed in Mr. Duncan’s hands your instructions to him to hand the charge of the Customs’ department over to Mr. Berney, at half-past one o’clock to-day, I awaited his reply thereto.

“After some little consideration, he requested me to inform you that he would be prepared to do so at the hour mentioned.

“I have, &c.,

“JAMES THOMSON.”

“The Honorable
The Colonial Treasurer.”

On

On presenting himself at the Custom House, at 1:30 p.m., on the 28th July, Mr. Berney found that Mr. Duncan had retired—whereupon he took charge of the Department, under the Treasurer's temporary appointment, as Acting Collector.

Upon the whole statement of facts, the Treasurer is compelled to the conclusion, that it is impossible to overlook the insubordinate proceedings of an officer of the Government, whose acts, in his high position, should rather present to the whole Public Service an example of cheerful and ready obedience to the directions of an official superior. Were this the only instance of insubordination of which the Treasurer had to complain, he would hesitate (having regard to Mr. Duncan's age and length of service) in the performance of the painful duty which is now imposed upon him; but he is constrained to say, that as Finance Minister, in a former as well as in the present Administration, he has never received from Mr. Duncan that co-operation and due acknowledgment of his authority as a responsible Minister of the Crown, which attach to his position, and which he has received from every other officer of his Department. The Treasurer regards the conduct now complained of, as the culminating point of insubordination, which, if submitted to, would render responsible Government a mere dead letter; and he therefore, recommends that the suspension of Mr. Duncan, as Collector of Customs, be now confirmed, and that he be called upon to shew cause why he should not be removed from his office, for, and by reason of the following acts of misconduct, namely:—

First. In having disobeyed the Treasurer's order of the 14th ultimo, by which Mr. Duncan was directed to release from seizure, and deliver up, on payment of duty, a case of merchandize imported per "Rakaia" from London via "Panama," the property of Mr. E. Way.

Second. In having addressed to the Treasurer on the 17th ultimo, an improper and insubordinate minute, under pretence of reporting upon a letter of Mr. Way's of the 16th July, which letter had been referred to Mr. Duncan, by the Under Secretary, for a report thereon.

Third. In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 20th July, an insulting and insubordinate minute, under pretence of replying to certain queries which had been put by the Treasurer to Mr. Duncan,—and in particular, for having imputed to the Treasurer in said minute, mal-administration in the duties of his responsible office, as a Minister of the Crown.

Fourth. In having disobeyed the Treasurer's orders of the 27th July,—by one of which Mr. Duncan was suspended from the duties of his office,—and by the other of which, he was directed to hand over the temporary charge of his department to Mr. Augustus Berney.

Fifth. And, generally, for offensive and insubordinate conduct towards the Treasurer, as Ministerial head of the department.

The Treasurer also submits a letter which he received from Mr. Duncan, on the 7th instant. Appendix A,

MINUTE OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

AFTER mature deliberation, and having before them the correspondence and other papers relating to the case, the Executive Council approve of the course adopted by the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer on the 27th ultimo, in suspending Mr. W. A. Duncan, Collector of Customs, from the performance of the duties of his office, and advise that the suspension be confirmed accordingly.

The Council also advise that Mr. Duncan be now called upon to shew cause within (14) fourteen days from this date, why he should not be removed from office, for the misconduct and insubordination complained of, as set forth in the accompanying minute paper.

Sir,

Referring to the correspondence that has taken place between the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer and yourself, in connection with a case of merchandize, imported per "Rakaia," from London, via Panama, the property of Mr. E. Way, which you caused to be seized, and subsequently refused to release from seizure, and deliver to the owner, on payment of the duty, as directed by the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, on the 14th

14th ultimo, and for which you were suspended from the performance of your duties as Collector of Customs, I have now the honor, by direction of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, to inform you that, at a meeting held yesterday, your suspension from office was confirmed.

I am also directed by His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council to call upon you to shew cause, within fourteen days from this date, why you should not be removed from your office as Collector of Customs, for and by reason of the following acts of misconduct and insubordination, viz. :—

First. In having disobeyed the Treasurer's order of the 14th ultimo, by which you were directed to release from seizure, and deliver up, on payment of duty, a case of merchandize, imported per "Rakaia," from London, via Panama, the property of Mr. E. Way.

Second. In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 17th ultimo, an improper and insubordinate minute, under pretence of reporting upon a letter of Mr. Way's, of the 16th July, which letter had been referred to you, by the Under Secretary, for a report thereon.

Third. In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 20th July, an insulting and insubordinate minute, under pretence of replying to certain queries which had been put by the Treasurer to you, and in particular, for having imputed to the Treasurer, in said minute, mal-administration in the duties of his responsible office, as a Minister of the Crown.

Fourth. In having disobeyed the Treasurer's orders of the 27th July—by one of which, you were suspended from the duties of your office, and by the other, of which you were directed to hand over the temporary charge of your department to Mr. Augustus Berney.

Fifth. And generally, for offensive and insubordinate conduct towards the Treasurer, as Ministerial Head of the Department.

TO HIS EXCELLENCY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE EARL OF BELMORE AND THE HONORABLE THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Colebrooke, Double Bay,
25th August, 1868.

MY LORD AND GENTLEMEN,

I do myself the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a letter from the Clerk of the Executive Council, dated the 18th instant, calling upon me, by your direction, to shew cause why I should not be removed from my office of Collector of Customs, for the reasons therein stated.

Referring to the grounds of complaint against me, in that communication, excepting that which is fourthly enumerated, I beg leave to state that, on the 6th instant, I addressed to the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer a letter of explanation and apology, which I hoped would be accepted.

To all the charges which I am called upon to answer, I beg respectfully to say that I have never been intentionally disrespectful or insubordinate to the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer. I admit that I contended for a view of my official position at variance with that of the Minister of my department, but I did so in the belief that I was right. I have now sufficient reason to admit that I was in error, and I unreservedly apologize for any act or expression of mine which may have been, in any manner, either disrespectful or insubordinate.

I have been upwards of twenty-two years in the public service as a Collector of Revenue, without the relaxation of a single week's leave of absence. During all this time I have endeavoured to discharge the important and onerous duties of my office with fidelity and zeal for the public interests. I have now arrived at that time of life when (my sight and general health being impaired by incessant application), I should very shortly be entitled to retire on a pension.

Under these circumstances, I respectfully submit my case to the favorable consideration of Your Excellency and the Executive Council.

I have, &c.,
My Lord and Gentlemen,
Your most obedient servant,
W. A. DUNCAN.

Laid before the Executive Council on the 31st August, 1868, and now referred, by direction of His Excellency and the Executive Council, to the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, as Ministerial Head of the Customs' Department.—ALEX. C. BUDGE, Clerk of the Council.—B.C., 31 Aug., 1868.

TREASURY MINUTE.

The Treasury, Sydney,
5th September, 1868.

THE Treasurer has had under consideration, the letter addressed by W. A. Duncan, Esq., to His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, under date the 25th ultimo, being Mr. Duncan's answer to their communication of the 18th ultimo, calling upon him to shew cause why he should not be removed from his office of Collector of Customs, for the reasons therein stated.

The Treasurer finds this letter to be, to some extent, of an apologetic character. It is, however, distinctly admitted therein, that an improper position has been assumed by Mr. Duncan, in relation to the Minister—but it is also alleged that there has never been "intentional disrespect or insubordination":—an allegation, which—as to Mr. Duncan's conduct in the particular matter at issue—is at variance with the facts disclosed in the papers connected with the case, and is difficult to reconcile with Mr. Duncan's general conduct towards the Treasurer, as Finance Minister in the present, and a previous Administration.

Under these circumstances, it is impossible that the Treasurer can regard the letter referred to, as constituting a sufficient answer to the grave charges which have been brought against Mr. Duncan, and particularly to that which relates to his comment on the mode in which the Treasurer has discharged the duties of his office; and having in view the imperative necessity of enforcing due subordination in the public service, and maintaining the authority of the Government over its own officers,—the Treasurer recommends that Mr. Duncan be forthwith removed from his office of Collector of Customs.

The Treasurer is not unmindful of the fact, that Mr. Duncan has been twenty-two years in the public service—and that his further continuance therein for a comparatively short time, would entitle him to retire upon a liberal superannuation allowance, of the right to which allowance, his removal from office will deprive him. While the Treasurer's duty to himself, and to the position which he occupies, compels him to recommend such removal, he, at the same time, further recommends that it may not be regarded either, as disqualifying Mr. Duncan from employment in some other public department, or, from applying to the Government for some allowance, in consideration of his length of service.

G. EAGAR.

MINUTE OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

AFTER mature deliberation, the Council concur in the opinions expressed by the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, in the minute paper herewith submitted; and having in view the imperative necessity of enforcing due subordination in the public service, and maintaining the authority of the Government over its officers, they advise that Mr. Duncan be removed from the office of Collector of Customs.

The Council also desire to place on record, that, in consequence of Mr. Duncan's length of service, which in a few years would entitle him to a liberal retiring allowance, his removal from the office of Collector of Customs is not to be regarded either as disqualifying him for employment in some other public department, or from applying to the Government, for some allowance, in consideration of his length of service.

Executive Council Office,
Sydney, 18th September, 1868.

SIR,

Referring to my communication of the 18th ultimo, informing you that His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, had confirmed your suspension by the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, from the performance of the duties of the office of Collector of Customs, and had also advised, that you should be called upon to shew cause why you should not be removed from the said office, for and by reason of certain acts of misconduct and insubordination therein fully set forth,—I am now directed by His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, to inform you, you, that your letter of the 25th ultimo, in answer to mine above referred to, having been maturely considered, they are of opinion that you have failed to shew sufficient cause why you should not be removed from your office of Collector of Customs; and having regard to the imperative necessity of enforcing due subordination in the public service, and maintaining the authority of the Government over its officers, they advise that you be removed from your said office accordingly.

I am further directed to inform you, that the Council, having in view your length of service, which, in a few years, would entitle you to a liberal retiring allowance, do not intend, by their removal of you from the office in question, to debar you from employment in some other public department, or from applying to the Government for some allowance, in consideration of your length of service.

I shall be glad to be favored with an acknowledgment of the receipt of this communication.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to enclose herewith, for the information of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, a seizing note for a case of goods which was detained by me, in the first instance, for suspected undervaluation, my suspicion being more than confirmed by the result. For not only were the goods found to be entered at about half the London cost price, but the case contains a considerable quantity of perfumed spirits concealed therein, and not described in the entry. The case and contents are, therefore, forfeited under the 86th section of the Act 9 Vict., No. 15.

MR. EBENEZER WAY to THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL TREASURER.
(Copy.) 263, Pitt-street, Sydney,
8th July, 1868.

SIR,

Will you permit me to trespass on your valuable time, by relating to you the following unfortunate circumstance:—

About four months since, I wrote to a house in London that I was acquainted with before coming to this Colony, for (£30) thirty pounds worth of goods, namely,— (£20) twenty pounds of millinery, and (£10) ten pounds worth of fancy goods, suitable for a millinery business. I received a reply to my letter on the 30th ultimo, when the goods and invoice arrived, ex "Rakaia," via Panama, and to my surprise contained (£50) fifty pounds' value on the invoice, drawing on me for the balance through the Bank of New South Wales.

I was very busy at the time, and being anxious to get my case with the least possible delay, and believing the goods only to be worth (£30) to me, I very inconsiderately took the bill of lading down to a Custom House Agent without examining the invoice minutely. Shortly after the agent sent for me and said the Custom House authority wanted to see the amount on the invoice, which I immediately gave to him, and being asked my reason for passing the goods at (£30), I informed Mr. Duncan that I did not think they were worth it, and pointed out articles that were selling less than the invoice.

The worst circumstance of the case is, the firm in England included a few half dozens of perfume with the fancy goods, which I did not order, or expect or see in the invoice, until told of the same by Mr. Duncan that there was a duty on the perfume, which my not having seen, the goods were confiscated.

I have taken the liberty of submitting my case to your kind consideration; whilst fully admitting the strict justice of the penalty, which my undue haste has incurred, I hope you will kindly overlook what has happened entirely through mistake, as I cannot afford the loss which must otherwise ensue. Of course I shall be most happy to pay the extra duty and any expense which my blunder has involved.

I am, &c.,
E. WAY.

REPORT.

THERE is in my opinion nothing in Mr. Way's letter which ought for a moment to interrupt the ordinary action of the law in this case. There are some instances of seizures in which, though the law has been broken, some doubt may exist as to the fraudulent intention of the parties, and in such cases the Executive authority may sometimes fairly step in between them and the punishment intended by the law. But in a case like this, where a double fraud of a wholesale character has been knowingly and deliberately perpetrated, it would surely be an abuse of the prerogative of mercy to reward the perpetrator by such impunity, thereby encouraging him and others to repeat the attempt, and at the same time depressing the vigilance of officers who cannot be expected to incur, and at all events will not generally incur, the odium of detaining goods, if they are deprived of the recompense which the law expressly awards them in such cases.

At the time Mr. Way instructed his agent, Mr. Bayley, to enter his goods at £30, he had in his hands an invoice which shewed that they cost, in London, £59 1s. Od., and that, with 10 per cent. added to this, he ought to have entered them at £64 19s. Od. He knew perfectly, also, from the invoice and the bill of lading, that they had been insured, at his cost, for £70, which is still nearer the proper value. He had paid about one half the value when he sent the order, and the other half he had paid to the Bank here, to which the goods were hypothecated. With all these facts plainly before him, to state, as he now does, that he believed the goods only to be worth £30, is surely to insult the understanding of his reader.

With the same utter disregard of probability, he states that he did not see the spirits in the invoice, although they occupy therein not less than seven lines, giving the number of bottles of each kind " $\frac{1}{2}$  doz.,  $2\frac{1}{2}$  doz.," and so on. It is impossible to believe that these seven entries could have escaped his attention, or that he could be ignorant that spirits were subject to a high specific duty. His untruthfulness in declaring the value, deprives him of all claim to credence in a thing so improbable in itself.

There is no doubt whatever in my mind that Mr. Way was fully determined to commit a fraud, and that he failed only because he somewhat overdid the thing, and thereby excited suspicion. He has gambled in fraud and falsehood, and I am sure there is no honest man in the community who will be sorry that he has lost his game.

W. A. DUNCAN.

TREASURER'S FURTHER MINUTE.

I do not arrive at the same conclusion as the Collector of Customs in this matter. It is by no means clear to me that a case of fraud is made out. Mr. Way is evidently new to business, and I am satisfied with the explanations—verbal and in writing—which he has made to me. I now direct that the case be given up on payment of duty on the drapery goods at value of £50, and 10 per cent. added, and the usual duty on the perfumed spirits. G.E.—14/7/68.

No. 5.

MR. E. WAY to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

263, Pitt-street, Sydney,
16th July, 1868.

SIR,

On Tuesday, the 14th instant, with instructions received from the Honorable G. Eagar, Esq., I went to the office of Mr. Duncan, at the Customs, and told him that I had called to pay the duty on the case of goods that was confiscated, as the Honorable G. Eagar, Esq., had given orders for the same to be delivered to me on payment of duty. His answer was that he should not act according to these orders; I shall see a lawyer and try what I can do with it, and if possible prosecute me; that it was doubtful my getting the case of goods, and if I did, it would be some considerable time yet, as I have made up my mind to give you as much trouble and delay as I can possibly do.

Sir,

Sir, I have this morning instructed my agent to pay the duties on the said case of goods, who waited on Mr. Duncan for the purpose ;—Mr. Duncan's answer to the agent was, "I shall not receive it, I have given him my answer, and I shall not give it up." I then called on Mr. Duncan at his office myself, and said, "I have called to pay the duty for fifty-five pounds, and the duty on the perfumery contained in the case that was confiscated, and that the Honorable G. Eagar, Esquire, had ordered to be restored to me." His answer was, "I shall not accept it—I have given you my answer—I shall not give it to you, and I shall give you more trouble than you are aware of." I then said, "Mr. Duncan, you will not let me have the case on payment of the duties," his answer, "No, I wont."

Sir, I now wait your instructions, for the above case of goods, assuring you, Sir, that they become daily of less value to me through this delay.

I have, &c.,
E. WAY.

The Collector of Customs will please report on this representation of Mr. Way's. H.L.—17/7/68. Urgent.—To be returned.

My report is, that it is a string of senseless misrepresentations, from beginning to end, and is its own refutation. I had reasons for delaying the delivery, which I think will be found cogent, when submitted to the proper authority. W.A.D.—17.

TREASURY MINUTE.

HAVING sent to the Collector of Customs for certain Treasury papers, in the matter of a case of goods imported by Mr. Ebenezer Way, and now under seizure, and being informed, that "Mr. Duncan had not the papers now, but would get them in the course of the day, and send them up,"—I desire to know from Mr. Duncan, whether he has parted with the possession and custody of those papers, and if so—to whom? G.E.—20/7/68.

The papers are perfectly safe, and will be returned to the Treasury as soon as possible. W.A.D.—20/7/68.

Unless Mr. Duncan give a plain and straightforward answer to the questions contained in the foregoing minute, I shall treat his failure to do so as an act of disobedience to my lawful demand, and take the needful steps to have my authority respected. G.E.—20/7/68.

As the Honorable Treasurer's question clearly implied an accusation, the most direct answer would have been a plea of "not guilty." I therefore conveyed that answer in the most respectful terms I could find. But I have nothing to conceal, and as he desires the details, they are as follows :—

The goods were seized for a clear and indisputable fraud—the most indisputable of the kind I have ever known. On the first impulse, and on grounds which remain untouched by evidence, and cannot be shaken, the Treasurer himself confirmed the seizure. The law, therefore, left only one way in which the importer could claim its restoration; namely, an appeal to the Supreme Court. The act of the Treasurer, in ordering the goods to be given up, is ultra vires and illegal, as I understand the matter. That it is most demoralizing to the officers and disastrous to the Revenue to give up seizures, in the way the present Treasurer has generally done, I am as certain as I am of my own existence. I have, moreover, a personal interest in this seizure, which gives me a special right to defend it, till it [be] recovered by due course of law, or at least by an express order of the Governor and Executive Council.

In the absence, therefore, of the Prime Minister (whose authority I have to consult him in all needful cases), I placed the papers immediately in the hands of the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, with a view to his advice and protection, till the Attorney General's return. So far as I know, no one else has seen them.

Sydney.

I HEREBY order and direct that, you, at once, receive from Mr. Ebenezer Way, the importer of the above case of merchandize, the duty payable thereon, in terms of, and as already directed by my minute of the 14th instant—that is to say—valuing the drapery goods contained therein at £50, and charging the usual duty on the perfumed spirits,—and I further order and direct that, on receipt of such duty, you immediately release such case from seizure, and deliver the same to Mr. Way.

G. EAGAR.

In the absence of the Honorable the Attorney General, I have no alternative but to submit to this peremptory order. W.A.D.—21/7/68.

TREASURY MINUTE.

The Treasury, Sydney,
27th July, 1868.

THE Treasurer reports, for the information and consideration of the Cabinet, the following acts of misconduct, on the part of the Collector of Customs, with the view, that Mr. Duncan be suspended from office, and called upon to shew cause why he should not be dismissed from the Public Service.

The misconduct charged against Mr. Duncan, consists—

First.—In having disobeyed the Treasurer's order of the 14th instant, by which Mr. Duncan was directed to release from seizure, and deliver up, on payment of duty, a case of merchandize imported per "Rakaia," from London via Panama, the property of Mr. E. Way.

Second.—In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 17th instant, an improper and insubordinate minute, under pretence of reporting upon a letter of Mr. Way's, of the 16th instant, which letter had been referred to Mr. Duncan by the Under Secretary for a report thereon.

Third.—In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 20th instant, an insulting and insubordinate minute, under pretence of replying to certain queries which had been put by the Treasurer to Mr. Duncan,—and, in particular, for having imputed to the Treasurer, in said minute, mal-administration in the duties of his responsible office, as a Minister of the Crown.

Fourth.—And, generally, for offensive and insubordinate conduct towards the Treasurer, as Ministerial Head of the Department.

Documents in corroboration of these charges, are herewith laid before the Cabinet.

G. EAGAR.

MINUTE OF THE CABINET.

The Treasurer having submitted the within memorandum, respecting the conduct of the Collector of Customs, and the various documents referred to in it, the Cabinet were unanimously of opinion, that Mr. Duncan ought to be suspended from duty, and called upon to shew cause why he should not be dismissed from his office. W. A. Duncan, Esq., Collector of Customs.

I HEREBY suspend you from the duties of your office (until the pleasure of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council be known), for, and by reason of your having committed the following acts of misconduct:—

First.—In having disobeyed the Treasurer's order of the 14th inst., by which you were directed to release from seizure, and deliver up, on payment of duty, a case of merchandize, imported per "Rakaia," from London, via Panama, the property of Mr. E. Way.

Second.—In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 17th instant, an improper and insubordinate minute, under pretence of reporting upon a letter of Mr. Way's, of the 16th instant, which letter had been referred to you by the Under Secretary, for a report thereon.

Third.—In having addressed to the Treasurer, on the 20th instant, an insulting and insubordinate minute, under pretence of replying to certain queries which had been put by the Treasurer to you; and, in particular, for having imputed to the Treasurer, in said minute, mal-administration in the duties of his responsible office, as Minister of the Crown.

Fourth.—And generally, for offensive and insubordinate conduct towards the Treasurer, as Ministerial Head of the Department.

And I hereby call upon you to shew cause why you should not be dismissed from your said office.

G. EAGAR.

The Treasury, Sydney,
27th July, 1868.

I HEREBY order and direct that, you immediately hand over the charge of your department to Augustus Berney, Esq., first Landing Surveyor, who is appointed acting Collector of Customs, during your suspension from office.

G. EAGAR.

W. A. Duncan, Esq.,
Collector of Customs.

The Treasury, Sydney,
27th July, 1868.

I HEREBY appoint Augustus Berney, Esq., First Landing Surveyor, to be acting-Collector of Customs, during the suspension of W. A. Duncan, Esq., from the duties of that office.

G. EAGAR.

The Treasury, 27th July, 1868.

SIR,

In compliance with your verbal instructions, I proceeded to the Custom House, accompanied by Mr. Berney, First Landing Surveyor, and in his presence handed to Mr. Duncan the envelope containing his suspension from office, and your instructions to hand over the charge of the department to Mr. Berney. He at once said the Treasurer had no power to suspend him—that he refused to be suspended under any authority but that of the Governor and Executive Council—and that he would not hand over, as instructed by you, the department to Mr. Berney.

I have, &c.,
JAMES THOMSON.

The Honorable
The Colonial Treasurer.

Custom House,
Sydney, 27th July, 1868.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to inform you, that I accompanied Mr. Thomson into the presence of the Collector of Customs, when Mr. Thomson delivered the documents, of which he was the bearer, informing Mr. Duncan of the nature of their contents. Mr. Duncan received them, saying,—“Mr. Eagar has not the power to suspend me; he knows that as well as I do.” After perusing the papers, he said,—“He tried that before, and it was decided by the Government that he could not—that no power but the Governor and Executive Council could suspend me.” On my presenting the minute, appointing me as Acting-Collector, he said,—“Mr. Eagar has no power to appoint any person to my office, any more than he has to make an Archbishop.” On being requested to state if such was the answer he wished to return to the Treasurer, he replied,—“Say that I am not suspended, and that I will not give up anything until dismissed by the Governor and Executive Council.”

I have, &c.,
A. BERNEY.

The Honorable
The Treasurer.

TREASURY MINUTE.

The Treasury, Sydney,
28th July, 1868.

IN accordance with the decision of the Cabinet, yesterday, the 27th instant, the Treasurer addressed a minute to the Collector of Customs, specifying the several charges of misconduct made against him, suspending him from the duties of his office (until the pleasure of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, be known) and calling upon him to shew cause why he should not be dismissed from the said office.

The Treasurer addressed a second minute to the Collector, directing him to hand over the charge of his department to Mr. Augustus Berney (first Landing Surveyor), as acting Collector of Customs, during Mr. Duncan's suspension.

The Treasurer also addressed a minute to Mr. Berney, appointing him as such acting Collector.

He delivered the first two of these minutes to Mr. Thomson, Accountant of this department, and the third to Mr. Berney, for the purpose of being presented by these gentlemen to the Collector of Customs.

The Treasurer now reports to his Colleagues, that the Collector declines to acknowledge his (the Treasurer's) power to suspend him, and refuses to hand over the charge of the department, unless suspended by His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council. (Messrs. Thomson's and Berney's letters herewith.)

Under these circumstances, the Treasurer again applies to the Cabinet for further advice and assistance.

G. EAGAR.

MINUTE OF THE CABINET.

At a Meeting, this morning, held in the Office of the Colonial Secretary:

PRESENT:—

The Colonial Treasurer,
The Colonial Secretary,
The Secretary for Lands,
The Secretary for Public Works,
The Postmaster General.

THE foregoing minute and reports were submitted. In the difficulty in which the Treasurer was placed by Mr. Duncan's refusal to obey his order, it was unanimously resolved that he should inform Mr. Duncan that unless he handed over charge to Mr. Berney by 1:30 p.m., the necessary steps would be adopted to enforce obedience; and that in the event of continued disobedience, the assistance of the police be resorted to. It was further unanimously resolved, that the officers of the Customs be officially informed of Mr. Duncan's suspension, and directed to transact all business with Mr. Berney, as acting Collector. H.P.—28/7/68.

THE Inspector General of Police will place at the service of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, one or two intelligent officers to act, if necessary, in enforcing the Minister's orders at the Custom House.

HENRY PARKES.

28/7/68.

IN pursuance of the above authority, I request the Inspector General of Police to send me Inspector Read, as before, to enforce my order. He should come to the Treasury at once, to be prepared for any emergency. G.E.—28/7/68.

Inspector Read has been directed to report himself at the Treasury.

SIR,

Having, as instructed by you, placed in Mr. Duncan's hands your instructions to him to hand the charge of the Customs' Department over to Mr. Berney, at half-past one o'clock to day, I awaited his reply thereto. *No. 13.*THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS to THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL TREASURER.

Colebrooke, Double Bay,
7th August, 1868.

SIR,

Referring to your minute of the 27th ultimo, in which you suspend me from my functions on the grounds therein stated, it seems to me that it is due to the high office which you hold, as well as to your honorable colleagues, that I should shew that the grounds referred to are mainly the result of a misunderstanding.

1. Although a delay in the delivery of the goods occurred in consequence of your absence in the country, it never was my intention to disobey your order. I desired to have the matter reconsidered, and to have the law ascertained, but the moment I saw that this was not practicable, I immediately obeyed your order. It had been my frequent practice to delay carrying out the orders of Ministers for similar objects; and with former Ministers this practice was not only admitted, and sanctioned, but I have even been thanked for preventing them from falling into errors.

2. With reference to what is termed an "impertinent minute," written by me to you, on the 17th ultimo, this is clearly a misunderstanding. You had gone, as I was informed, to the country, immediately after issuing your order for the delivery of the goods. In your absence, the importer, Way, threatened me with some action on the part of the Under Secretary, in your absence; and in accordance with this threat, I received from the Under Secretary, not in your name or by your order, but in his own name, a request that I should report on a letter addressed by Way to him. My minute, which you complain of as impertinent, was an answer to this apparently unauthorized communication of the Under Secretary; and I declare, upon my honor, that it was not addressed to you, nor intended for you, in any sense.

3. With respect to the alleged "insulting and insubordinate minute" of the 20th ultimo, in which I am said to accuse you of "maladministration in the duties of your responsible office," I cannot call to mind anything written by me which could fairly bear that construction. I am certain nothing of the kind was intended. To point out an error of judgment, and to accuse a Minister of maladministration are, in my opinion, widely different acts—the former praiseworthy, the latter highly culpable. Whatever words may have been used, my object was to point out to you that the giving up of seizures, when fraud has evidently been committed, except by the due action of law, is fraught with numerous evil consequences. I have no doubt this was badly expressed in the minute. It was written while I was in a state of great irritation, the causes of which I restrain myself from stating here. If, therefore, the paper contain any word or phrase which should not have been addressed to a Minister of the Crown, I withdraw such word or phrase, and I have no hesitation in apologizing for it.

4. The fourth ground on which my suspension is based, is a charge of general insubordination. As no fact is stated, I can only say that, whilst discharging my onerous duties to the best of my ability, I never was intentionally insubordinate to any Minister, and I am not aware of any such conduct as is herein attributed to me.

I trust that the foregoing explanations may be deemed satisfactory, and have the effect of causing my suspension to be withdrawn.

I have, &c.,
W. A. DUNCAN.

Acknowledge, and inform Mr. Duncan that his letter will be laid before the Cabinet. G.E.—7/8/68.

No. 15.

The Treasury, New South Wales,
Sydney, 15th August, 1868.

TREASURY MINUTE.

I desire to place on record my reasons for the decision in the matter of Mr. Way's goods.

By the Customs' Law of this Colony, the under-valuation of goods for purposes of ad-valorem duty, is not constituted an offence punishable either by fine or forfeiture; and goods so undervalued are not seizable. In cases of disputed value, two competent valuers are appointed by the Governor, and upon their re-valuation, the duty is paid, and the matter is, in this way, finally disposed of. (See 9 Vic., No. 15, sec. 22.)

I had not, therefore, to consider Mr. Way's offence, so far as the under-valuation of the goods is concerned. I had simply to deal with the alleged concealment of less than half a gallon of perfumed spirits, value £3 5s. 10d., and liable to a duty of 3s. 9d. (three shillings and nine pence), in a case otherwise filled with drapery goods, value, per invoice, £46 12s. 11d.

On this matter, as the present state of the law allows of no intermediate course between forfeiture on the one hand, and restoration of the goods on the other,—and having regard to the circumstances under which the goods were directed to be entered for duty, as well as to the peculiar mode in which the seizure was effected, I had no hesitation in deciding that so large a value of goods should not be forfeited by reason of the 3s. 9d. (three shillings and nine-pence) duty, which might otherwise be lost to the Revenue.

With respect to the doubt which Mr. Duncan endeavours to cast upon the veracity and bona fides of Mr. Way, it is well known that under-valuations of goods for duty are matters of occasional occurrence; and immediately preceding, as well as at the time of this seizure, Mr. Duncan permitted several Importers, who had made declaration, passed entry, and paid duty, below the value of their goods, to make an amendment of those entries, and a supplementary payment of duty. And I saw no reason to visit specially, upon Mr. Way, as an immoral practice, that which Mr. Duncan had himself tolerated on the part of larger Importers.

No. 1.

THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.
 Custom House, Sydney,
 9th October, 1868.

Sir,

Mr. Willis has made a statement respecting the circumstances attending the seizure of Mr. Way's case of Millinery, which it appeared to me ought to be brought under the notice of the Honorable the Minister; I therefore caused him to make it in writing.

I have also inquired of Mr. Bayley (Custom House Agent) as to the truth of this statement, and finding it fully confirmed, I do myself the honor to submit it herewith, together with Mr. Bayley's Report, and a Memo. from Mr. Landing-waiter Spinks, explaining his examination of the goods.

I have, &c.,
 A. BERNEY,
 Collector of Customs.

No. 2.

MR. ARTHUR WILLIS, CLERK AND COMPUTER, to THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

MEMO.

EW ‡ 4. One case Millinery, ex "Rakaia," consigned to order.

In connection with the refusal of the entries tendered for, and the seizure of the above case of goods, I beg to state as follows:—

At about eleven o'clock on the morning of Tuesday, the 30th June, entries were tendered to me for checking, for EW ‡ 4, one case of Millinery, value £30, duty £1 10s., in the name of E. Way, by Mr. M. Bayley, Custom House Agent.

The declaration on the warrant was filled up and signed in anticipation, by Mr. Bayley.

His clerk, Mr. Molesworth, presented the entry.

I requested to look at the bill of lading which he had with him; after examining this I remarked, that from the size of the case and the amount of freight thereon, the value seemed to me small, and that I could not pass the entry without first consulting the Collector.

I did so, and was ordered by him to apply for the production of the invoice.

In the meantime, I kept possession of the forms of entry.

In about half an hour, Mr. Bayley's clerk produced the invoice, which had been brought to the Custom House by Mr. Way. On examination, I found that the value in the entries was deficient, also, that the case contained scented spirits, not mentioned in the entries.

I then took the entries and invoice, and laid them before the Collector, calling his attention to the spirits. He at once requested to see Mr. Way, who, together with Mr. Molesworth, was shewn into his room, and after some conversation, the Collector declared his intention of seizing the case, and I then retired, leaving the forms of entry and invoice in his possession.

The entry at this time was not passed for the payment of duty to the Cashier the declaration not having been made, nor the warrant signed by me, nor the amount of duty checked as correct.

I was again with the Collector, shortly after this, for a few minutes, but we simply conversed on the circumstances of the case.

About an hour and a half afterwards, that is, about half-past one o'clock, the Collector came out to my desk in the Long Room, and laying the entry before me, said, "You hav'nt signed the declaration—sign it"; and I at once obeyed the order, not having time to consider of the rectitude of doing so, also attaching my initials for the duty, thus making it appear that the usual forms had been complied with, to admit of the cashier's accepting the duty.

In the course of the afternoon I was speaking to Mr. Bayley's clerk, Mr. Molesworth, and he said that the Collector could not seize the case, as the declaration was not accepted, and I then said, "The declaration is signed now." He replied, "Well, it was'nt signed by you when laid before the Collector," and I again said, "It is signed now, however."

Some few days after, I was again speaking to him, and I then told him that, after the seizure, the Collector had desired me to sign the declaration as taken.

*No. 3.*THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS to MR. BAYLEY, CUSTOM HOUSE AGENT.Custom House, Sydney, 8th October, 1868.

Dear Sir,

Mr. Willis informs me that the declaration of the value of Mr. Way's case of Millinery, on the 30th June, at £30, was never made; and that he did not, at the time the entry was tendered, sign it as having received the declaration, nor indeed until after the production of the invoice, and consequent seizure of the goods.

I shall feel obliged by your informing me whether such was the fact.

Yours truly,
A. BERNEY.

*No. 4.*MR. BAYLEY to THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

MEMO.

I have handed this to my clerk, Mr. Molesworth, who prepared the entry, and subjoined beg to submit his explanation.

M. BAYLEY.

In reply to the within query, I beg to state, that at the time of presenting Mr. Way's entry for one case of Millinery, valued at £30, the declaration was not signed, as accepted, by Mr. Willis; but, upon second or third interview with Mr. Duncan, it was signed, and I remarked that it had only recently been done, insisting, in duty to Mr. Way, that the case was not liable to seizure, on account of the declaration not being accepted. Mr. Duncan, however, said the case was liable to be seized, independent of the short entry of value, through perfumery being packed in said case. He then either seized, or gave instructions for said case to be seized, forwarding the seizing note to the Treasury, which he told me was confirmed.

A. MOLESWORTH.

*No. 5.*MR. SPINKS, LANDING WAITER, to THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

MEMO.—

I was sent for by Mr. Duncan, on the afternoon of the 21st July, and on going to his office he gave me an invoice, and told me to go at once to the Queen's Warehouse and examine a case belonging to a Mr. Way (who I found with him in the office), and see what it contained, at the same time remarking that it had been under seizure, but that the Treasurer had given it up.

On examining the case I found it to contain Millinery and a few small cardboard boxes of perfumed spirits, measuring altogether 12/32 of a gallon.

On reporting the contents of the case to Mr. Duncan, he remarked the quantity was very small, and made me explain to him how I had measured it.

REMOVAL OF W. A. DUNCAN, ESQ., FROM THE OFFICE OF COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

No. 1.

MINUTE PAPER.

(Reinstatement of Mr. Duncan.)

The Treasury, New South Wales,
Sydney, 6th November, 1868.

HAVING carefully considered the correspondence recently laid before the Legislative Assembly, by my Predecessor, relative to the removal of Mr. W. A. Duncan from the office of Collector of Customs,—I am of opinion that such removal was not justifiable, under the circumstances detailed in that correspondence, and that the act should be reversed by the present Government.

The seizure, out of which the case arose, appears to me to have been fully warranted by the facts, and, that the act of the late Treasurer, in ordering the goods to be returned, was illegal.

I am the more disposed to this view, because I find that Mr. Way, on a former occasion, entered a package of goods, at a declared valuation of £30, which valuation was objected to as insufficient, and was afterwards increased to £50, for duty; he was, therefore, well acquainted with the requirements of the Customs' Laws and Regulations.

I shall not attempt to defend the use of disrespectful language by Mr. Duncan to his official Superior; but I think my Colleagues will agree with me, that Mr. Duncan's apology ought to have been accepted—not only in consideration of his long services, but of his having been right in law, and upon the merits of the case. To dismiss an old and faithful public Servant for a hasty expression, after such an apology, seems to me indefensible.

Mr. Duncan is in his 58th year; he has been over 22 years in the public service; he has contributed £36 a year to the Superannuation Fund, since it existed; and, would, consequently, in little more than two years, have been entitled to a pension of £750 per annum—all of which is lost to him in his present position.

I, moreover, disapprove of the mode in which the vacancy created by Mr. Duncan's removal has been filled.

Having regard to the interest of justice, the better efficiency of the public service, and the claims of an old and meritorious public Servant, I recommend that Mr. Duncan be forthwith reinstated in his office of Collector of Customs, his reappointment to take effect from the date at which his previous service was discontinued, in order that his right to a pension may not suffer by his removal. I have the less difficulty in making this recommendation, that the officers (Mr. Augustus Berney and Mr. Edmund Jones) who have received promotion by Mr. Duncan's removal, can, without injustice, return to their former positions of first and second Landing Surveyors.

SAUL SAMUEL.

MINUTE PAPER FOR THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

(Reinstatement of Mr. Duncan to office of Collector of Customs, &amp;c.)

The Treasury, New South Wales,
24th November, 1868.

THE Colonial Treasurer, having examined the papers recently laid before the Legislative Assembly, by his Predecessor, relative to the removal of Mr. W. A. Duncan from the office of Collector of Customs, is of opinion that the matter ought to be reconsidered; and, having regard to the circumstances of the case, the better efficiency of the public service, and the claims of an old and meritorious public Servant, recommends that Mr. Duncan's apology should be accepted,—Mr. Duncan himself fully restored,—and that the other officers, affected by his removal, should revert to their original positions. Before the adoption of this course, Mr. Berney and Mr. Jones should be asked, in accordance with the Crown Law Officers' opinion, if they have any cause to shew against it.

SAUL SAMUEL.

[Enclosure to No. 2.]

OPINION as to power to remove Officers promoted, on recent dismissal of Mr. Duncan from office of Collector of Customs, with a view to that Gentleman's reinstatement.

THE Honorable the Colonial Treasurer having requested our advice as to the power of the Governor to remove the Officers who were promoted, on the recent dismissal of Mr. Duncan from the office of Collector of Customs, with a view to his reinstatement, we submit our advice as follows:—

The

REMOVAL OF W. A. DUNCAN, ESQ., FROM THE OFFICE OF COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS. 3

The Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has, in our opinion, full power to remove these Officers, if he shall think fit, and thereupon to reinstate Mr. Duncan.

This power of removal is derived from the joint effect of the 37th section of the Constitution Act, and the 9th section of the Acts Shortening Act, which had been previously passed, (in 1852), and is not dependent on, or controlled by the Royal Commission or Instructions to the Governor.

The powers, it will be observed, is vested in the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council; and, as its exercise in any case constitutes an executive act of a judicial character, and involving the most serious consequences to the Individual concerned, we submit that the question of removal ought to be substantially, as well as in form, brought under the decision of His Excellency, in full Council; and, on the same ground, as well as, on those principles of "fundamental justice" which are held applicable to all such cases, we submit that the Officer whose removal is proposed, should be informed of the causes on which his removal is so proposed, and allowed an opportunity to shew cause against it.

This course is more appropriate to cases of proposed dismissal for misconduct or incompetency, than of removal on grounds not personally affecting the Officers concerned; but we venture to submit that, although the present case falls within the latter class, it should nevertheless be pursued in reference to Mr. Berney and the other Gentlemen concerned.

W. M. MANNING,
Attorney General.

J. F. JOSEPHSON,
Solicitor General.

MINUTE OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

THE Executive Council, having maturely considered the circumstances of the case herein set forth, concur in the opinion of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, as expressed in the Minute dated the 6th instant, herewith submitted, and accordingly advise that Messrs. Berney and Jones be called upon to shew cause, within seven days from the date of confirmation hereof, why Mr. Duncan should not be restored to the office of Collector of Customs, and they revert to their former positions of first and second Landing Surveyors.

ALEX. C. BUDGE,
Clerk of the Council.

THE CLERK OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL to A. BERNEY, ESQ., COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

Executive Council Office,
Sydney, 2nd December, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you, by direction of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, that the subject of the removal of Mr. W. A. Duncan from the office of Collector of Customs, having been under consideration, they are of opinion that the course pursued by the late Government, in removing that gentleman from office, was not justifiable under the circumstances detailed in the correspondence as recently laid before Parliament.

I am further directed to forward, for your information, a copy of a Minute of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, setting forth his reasons for recommending the reinstatement of Mr. Duncan; also, copy of an opinion of the Crown Law Officers on the subject; and to ask you to shew cause, within seven days from this date, why Mr. Duncan should not be restored to office, and you revert to your former position of first Landing Surveyor.

I shall be glad to be favoured with an acknowledgment of the receipt of this communication.

I have, &c.,

ALEX. C. BUDGE,
Clerk of the Council.

4 REMOVAL OF W. A. DUNCAN, ESQ., FROM THE OFFICE OF COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

No. 5.

THE CLERK OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL to E. JONES, ESQ., LANDING SURVEYOR.

Executive Council Office,
Sydney, 2nd December, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you, by direction of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, that the subject of the removal of Mr. W. A. Duncan from the office of Collector of Customs, having been under consideration, they are of opinion that the course pursued by the late Government, in removing that gentleman from office, was not justifiable under the circumstances detailed in the correspondence as recently laid before Parliament.

I am further directed to forward, for your information, copy of a Minute of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, setting forth his reasons for recommending the reinstatement of Mr. Duncan; also, copy of an opinion of the Crown Law Officers on the subject; and to ask you to shew cause, within seven days from this date, why Mr. Duncan should not be restored to office, and you revert to your former position of second Landing Surveyor.

I shall be glad to be favoured with an acknowledgment of the receipt of this communication.

No. 8.

THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS to THE CLERK OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Custom House, Sydney,
8th December, 1868.

SIR,

Referring to your communication dated the 2nd instant, in which you enclose copy of a Minute of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, as well as a copy of an opinion of the Honorable the Attorney and Solicitor General, and in which you are directed to ask me to shew cause, within seven days, why Mr. Duncan should not be restored to office, and I revert to my former position of First Landing Surveyor, I have the honor to request that you will lay before His Excellency the Governor and the Honorable the Executive Council the following statement, which I respectfully submit, in answer to your communication.

By the Constitution Act, His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council are empowered to appoint and remove the Civil Servants of the Crown in this Colony.

Mr. Duncan was removed from the office of Collector of Customs by His Excellency, with the advice of the Executive Council—advice which, His Lordship was subsequently pleased to say, "was technically proper and in accordance with law."

With

With Mr. Duncan's removal I had nothing to do. It was the act of the only authorities who by law could cause it to take place; and these authorities having directed such removal, I respectfully submit that the office of Collector of Customs was as completely vacant as though it had never been filled.

To the vacancy thus legally created, I was appointed by His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council—the only Authorities who could make such appointment—without application on my part, I being the Officer next in rank to the Collector, and, from long and faithful service, proven to be qualified for the office. The appointment was further confirmed to me by His Lordship, in the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, issuing to me a Commission under the Great Seal of the Colony, approved by his Sign Manual.

I was aware, before I had the honor of perusing the opinion of the Honorable the Attorney and Solicitor General, which you were directed to enclose to me, that His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, can, at any moment, even without cause, remove any public servant who holds office during pleasure as I do, in common with all the Civil Servants of the Crown, their Honors the Judges excepted; but I submit that it has not been the practice to take such a course, and I respectfully urge that there is nothing to justify the creation of such a precedent in my case.

I may repeat that I had no part, direct or indirect, in Mr. Duncan's removal; the vacancy to which I was appointed was not in any way, directly or indirectly, brought about by any act of mine. I was absent in the country when the difficulty arose between Mr. Duncan and his superior, and after my return I was unacquainted with the matter till sent for by the Honorable the Minister for Finance and Trade, and informed of the circumstance, and that I must take charge of the department during the suspension of the Collector. My appointment has been made in the usual way by the authorities of the Colony, duly empowered to make it; and, under these circumstances, I respectfully submit that unless on grounds of incapacity or misconduct, I ought not to be deprived of the important and honorable office which has been lawfully conferred upon me.

I have, &c.,

A. BERNEY,

Collector of Customs.

No. 9.

THE LANDING SURVEYOR AND INSPECTOR OF WAREHOUSES to THE CLERK OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Custom House, Sydney,
8th December, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of the 2nd instant, informing me that the subject of the removal of Mr. W. A. Duncan from the office of Collector of Customs, has been under the consideration of His Excellency the Governor and Executive Council, and calling upon me to shew cause why Mr. Duncan should not be restored to office, and I revert to my former position of second Landing Surveyor.

In reply, I beg to state,—

1st. That being a subordinate officer of the Civil Service, it would ill become me to offer any opinion on the proceedings of the Executive which led to the removal of Mr. Duncan from office, and respectfully submit, for the consideration of His Excellency and the Executive Council, that I may be relieved therefrom.

2nd. That by a communication addressed to me by the Under Secretary for Finance and Trade, dated 24th September, I am informed that His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to appoint me Landing Surveyor and Inspector of Warehouses; and that, by a subsequent communication dated 30th September, I received, at the hands of His Excellency, a Commission under the Great Seal of the Colony for that office. That, I am competent to perform the duties appertaining to the office of Landing Surveyor and Inspector of Warehouses with advantage to the public. That, during a period of nearly nineteen years that I have been in the Public Service of the Colony, I have succeeded in performing the duties of the several offices I have had the honor of being appointed to, zealously, and faithfully; and that my character and conduct in the discharge of them are irreproachable. And as no charge of incompetency or misconduct has, as far as I am aware, been alleged against me,—I humbly pray that the Executive will not do me the injustice of degrading me in the service, or reducing me from the position I now occupy.

I have, &c.,

EDMUND JONES,

Landing Surveyor and Inspector of Warehouses.

MINUTE PAPER—REINSTATEMENT OF MR. DUNCAN.

THE Cabinet having considered the statements of Messrs. Berney and Jones, purporting to shew cause why Mr. Duncan should not be reinstated in his former office, and the other parties concerned revert to their former positions, are of opinion that no sufficient cause has been shewn why such course should not be taken, and that any rights alleged to have been acquired by Messrs. They accordingly advise that Mr. Berney be removed from the office of Collector of Customs, to that of First Landing Surveyor, &c., and that Mr. Jones be removed from the office of First Landing Surveyor, to that of Second Landing Surveyor, and that Mr. Duncan be appointed Collector of Customs, in the place of Mr. Berney.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication (No. 1,471) of the 2nd instant, in which you inform me that you are instructed by the Colonial Treasurer to convey to me the decision of the Executive Council, that I be removed from the office of Collector of Customs, to that of First Landing Surveyor and Inspector of Warehouses, and that Mr. Duncan be restored to his former position of Collector of Customs.

I beg respectfully to express my regret that this step should have been adopted, against which I had hoped that the reasons in my letter of the 8th November, 1868, would have been deemed sufficient; but however unprecedented it may be, and however great the hardship such decision of the Honorable Executive Council may inflict, the only course open to me as a public servant is, to submit with a humble remonstrance.

In reply, I beg to say that I had hoped that my statement of the 8th of December, in which I shewed cause why I should not revert to my former position in the department, would have been considered satisfactory; but as the Honorable the Executive Council have decided otherwise, I respectfully submit to their decision.

I cannot, however, refrain from recording my humble remonstrance at my removal from an office to which I had been legally and constitutionally appointed.

(No. 2.)

Downing-street,
7 January, 1868.

SIR,

Her Majesty's Government have had under their consideration Sir John Young's Despatch, No. 87, of 21st December, 1866, enclosing a Minute of the Executive Council of New South Wales, in which they recommend that the Imperial Parliament should be invited to pass a measure for the purpose of repealing the provisions of the Constitution Acts of the Australian Colonies which prohibit the imposition of discriminating duties so far as to allow the importation by land or otherwise of the produce of any one of them duty free.

By acceding to this request, Her Majesty's Government would recognize the principle that any group of neighbouring Colonies, or perhaps that any number of Colonies not neighbouring, might make arrangements for the admission, duty free, of each other's produce, and thus constitute differential duties as against Foreign Nations, or even against this country.

Her Majesty's Government would gladly aid in the establishment of a Customs Union, comprising all the adjacent Australian Colonies, and providing for the free importation of goods from Colony to Colony, for an equitable division of the Customs Duties, and for a Uniform Tariff as between Australia and other countries or places, and they are not unwilling to take into consideration any particular relaxation of the existing rule which might be justified or necessitated by particular circumstances; but they cannot propose to Parliament a measure which could not well stop short of the virtual repeal, in favour of the Colonies, of that clause in the Australian Government Act which prohibits the imposition of differential duties, and might seriously embarrass the action of this Government in their commercial relations with other countries. The Act which has been passed by the New South Wales Legislature, to give effect to the agreement with Victoria for the free importation of goods across the river Murray, is under the consideration of Her Majesty's Government.

EMIGRATION TO SAN FRANCISCO.

(CORRESPONDENCE RESPECTING.)

Presented to both Houses of Parliament, by Command.

No. 1.

THE HON. W. L. BOOKER to GOVERNOR THE EARL OF BELMORE.

British Consulate,
San Francisco, 4 April, 1868.

My Lord,

I have the honor to enclose, for the information of your Lordship, copies of letters from Mr. Crocker, Superintendent of the Central Pacific Railroad, in reply to a communication from myself, in reference to a large number of mechanics and labourers who have lately arrived here from Sydney, many of them with their families, bringing a document from the United States Consul, of which the following is a copy:—

" United States Consulate,
Sydney, 186To E. B. Crocker,
General Agent, Central Pacific R. R. Co.,
Sacramento, California

THE BEARER, as a (carpenter, labourer, &c., &c.) is entitled to employment for the term of twelve months, at the going rate of wages, from date of arrival.

(Seal of office.)

H. H. HALL,
U. S. Consul.

I see by the Sydney papers, that Mr. Hall advertises a ship for San Francisco, and accompanies it by the following notice:—"Intending passengers can obtain a guarantee of twelve months' employment on the Pacific Railroad, by booking through this office.

H. H. HALL."

The position taken by Mr. Crocker in the first instance, left many persons and families in a destitute condition, as they could not raise sufficient funds to get to the working point, at the eastern end of the line; but the subsequent letter, offering to give them a passage on the road from Sacramento to Cisco, relieved their position, as those without the means of getting to Sacramento are provided with a passage by the British Benevolent Society. Those persons I have seen, state that Mr. Hall positively assured them that the employment was immediate on landing in San Francisco, that therefore, there would be at once provision for their families; further, that labourers could earn four pounds per week, and mechanics much more.

I have, &c.,
WM. LANE BOOKER,
Consul.

[Enclosures.]

Mr. E. B. Crocker to The Hon. W. L. Booker.

Sacramento, 17 March, 1868.

Sir,

Yours of yesterday is received. Mr. Hall has no authority whatever for issuing the papers he is giving to the labourers from Sydney. I enclose herewith copy of my letter to him on the subject, which states fully all that can be construed into authority. I am much surprised at the course taken by Mr. Hall, and cannot imagine his motive.

EMIGRATION TO SAN FRANCISCO.

I will say, however, that we are still employing all the able-bodied men who wish work, in grading our railroad on the Truckee River, at $30 per month and board, but they must apply to the superintendent on the ground. We cannot pay their expense from San Francisco there, for the same reason that we declined to pay their passage from Sydney. Our experience has proved that such men, after having got so much out of the Company, go elsewhere for work—at least nine out of ten do so.

I understand that a company of these men started for the Truckee, got as far as Cisco, the end of the railroad, and then started to come back. The superintendent offered to give them work right there, shovelling snow off the track, but they refused. I fear that the unfortunate attachment of this class to city life is one cause of the difficulty. We have no work for them here, but plenty over the mountains. There they can all get employment, so long as they are industrious and peaceable, until the work is completed. We have room there for as many as are likely to come.

Yours truly,

E. B. CROCKER,
Gen. Agent, C. P. R. R.

Mr. E. B. Crocker to Mr. H. H. Hall.

Office of the Central Pacific R. R. Co.,
Sacramento, California,
26 June, 1867.

Dear Sir,

Your favour of April 30th, enclosing petition of labourers desiring work on our R.R., is just received. We are in great need of working men, and would be glad to set 5,000 more men at work immediately. We pay $30 per month, in gold coin, and board. Those capable of acting as foremen get from $40 to $75 per month, according to skill and ability. At no time have we been able to obtain as many labourers as we have needed. But we cannot enter into contracts, as proposed, to advance the passage money from Sydney here, though we would be glad to have thousands come here. The reasons that a contract for personal labour cannot legally be specifically enforced in this State. If the party refuses to work as provided in the contract, our only remedy would be a judgment for damages in money, and the defendant would have no property from which we could collect it. Such are the temptations to work at mining with the hope of getting suddenly rich, that probably nine out of ten would leave the R. R. work in a week after getting here, and we would be practically without remedy. The true way for these men is to raise the means to pay their own passage here, being sure of getting work on the R. R. as soon as they arrive, and being then perfectly independent, and at liberty to go elsewhere if they could do better.

Respectfully yours,

E. B. CROCKER,
Gen. Agent, C. P. R. R. Co.

---

Mr. E. B. Crocker to The Hon. W. L. Booker.

Sacramento, 24 March, 1868.

Sir,

I see by the papers that the labourers from Sydney are a charge upon the British Benevolent Society. This ought not, and need not be. We have plenty of work for them all upon the Pacific Railroad, at $1 per day and board, in gold coin. We will depart from our established rules in their case, and will furnish them free railroad transportation from this place. We will give them work at Cisco, shovelling snow, or on the Truckee, at grading and laying track; and in the latter case they would have to walk from Cisco to Coburn's, 20 miles. They will need a pair of blankets. We furnish them tools. Although Mr. Hall was not authorized to issue the papers he did, yet there can be no real hardship, so long as the men get work and good wages. If they are faithful, steady men, they will be retained until the work is completed.

Respectfully yours,

E. B. CROCKER.

---

Mr.

Mr. E. B. Crocker to The Hon. W. L. Booker.

Sacramento, 28 March, 1868.

Dear Sir,

Yours of the 26th instant is received. We employ a great many mechanics on the road, but just now only a few are needed. As soon as the snow goes off, so that we can get at work putting up wood sheds and snow covering, we shall need a large number of plain carpenters to do rough work. At this time we could give employment to several blacksmiths. We desire to do all in our power to correct the evils likely to flow from Mr. Hall's course, and I am confident that the men who came here on his representations will ultimately have no just cause to regret it, though disappointed in some respects. All over the country there is a great demand for labour, at good wages; but the labourers, instead of going into the country where they are wanted, crowd into the cities, where there is already a surplus. Still, wages for mechanics are high in the cities, and all your countrymen who are mechanics could undoubtedly obtain quick employment if willing to work a little under the present high rates.

Yours truly,
E. B. CROCKER.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to GOVERNOR THE EARL OF BELMORE.

(No. 36.)

Downing-street,
22 May, 1868.

MY LORD,

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has communicated to me copies of two despatches, which he had received from Her Majesty's Consul at San Francisco, respecting a number of British subjects who had arrived at that place from New South Wales, having been induced to go there in consequence of an advertisement which had been inserted in a local paper by the American Consul, of the departure of a ship for San Francisco, with a notice that passengers could obtain a guarantee of twelve months' employment on the Central Pacific Railroad.

The American Consul was not authorized to issue any such notice; and accordingly, when the people arrived, the Agent of the Railway repudiated the promise made to them.

The British Consul states that he has communicated on the subject with Her Majesty's Minister at Washington, and with yourself. Your Lordship will, no doubt, therefore, have taken the necessary steps to caution emigrants against going to San Francisco in expectation of employment on the railroad.

MY LORD DUKE,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Grace's despatch, No. 36, of the 22nd May, 1868, informing me that the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs had received two despatches from the British Consul at San Francisco, respecting a number of British subjects who had been induced to go there by an advertisement published in a local paper, by the American Consul in this Colony, of the departure of a ship for that port; with a notice that passengers could obtain a guarantee of twelve months' employment on the Central Pacific Railroad, and that the American Consul had no authority to make such promise, which had been repudiated by the Agent of the Railroad, and further informing me that the British Consul had written to me upon the subject.

2. I have not as yet received any such letter from the British Consul; at the same time, I understand that the facts of the case have been known in Sydney for some time past.

3. I will now take steps for having the substance of your Grace's communication made known to the public in an official form.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 4th April, 1868, respecting a number of British subjects who had been induced to emigrate from New South Wales to San Francisco, by an advertisement, published by the American Consul in this Colony, of the departure of a ship for that port, with a notice that passengers could obtain a guarantee of twelve months' employment on the Central Pacific Railroad, and which had been repudiated by the Superintendent of the Railroad.

In reply, I beg to inform you that I have received a despatch from the Secretary of State on this subject, and in consequence have directed a notice to be issued in the Government Gazette, with a view of warning emigrants against these documents; but I believe the real state of the case is already well known.

HIS Excellency the Governor, under instructions from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, desires to invite the attention of persons intending to proceed to San Francisco, in expectation or under promise of employment on the Central Pacific Railroad, to the fact that, some time since, a number of British subjects, who were induced to emigrate to the above place from this Colony, in consequence of an advertisement which had been inserted in a local newspaper by the American Consul, with a notice to the effect that passengers could obtain a guarantee of twelve months' employment on the railroad, found, on their arrival, that the Agent of the Railway repudiated the promises made to them—no authority having been given for the issue of the notice in question.

My Lord,

With reference to your Lordship's commercial despatch, No. 10, of the 1st instant, I have the honor to inform you that, on the receipt, on the 17th of April last, of a report from Her Majesty's Consul at San Francisco, relative to the arrival of emigrants there from New South Wales, I addressed a note to Mr. Seward, copy of which I have the honor to enclose, calling his attention to the encouragement given by the United States Consul, at Sydney, to the above-mentioned emigrants to proceed to San Francisco, where on their arrival they were unable to find a livelihood.

I received an answer from Mr. Seward, copy of which is also enclosed, in which he informed me that the Consul would be instructed to refrain from any further proceedings of the character complained of.

Mr.

Mr. Thornton to The Hon. W. H. Seward.

Washington,
18 April, 1868.

Sir,

I have the honor to enclose for your information, copies of a despatch and of its enclosures, which I have received from Her Majesty's Consul at San Francisco, and by which you will perceive that Mr. H. H. Hall, Consul of the United States, at Sydney, in Australia, has been lately encouraging the inhabitants of that country to proceed to San Francisco, with the hopes, and indeed certainty, that they would on their arrival there obtain immediate employment on the Central Pacific Railway.

From 250 to 300 persons had arrived at San Francisco with that object, but had found that their only chance of obtaining labour was to cross the Sierra Nevada Mountains to the eastern end of the line; and some few who had done so had been told that no employment could be given them until the winter was over.

The natural consequence is, that most of these emigrants are in a destitute condition; and I would submit to you whether, under these circumstances, you might not think it expedient to instruct Mr. Hall to refrain from endeavouring to induce such persons from going to San Francisco, where they may be exposed to destitution, though I cannot imagine that it would be more than temporary.

I have, &c.,

Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your note of the 15th instant, enclosing a copy of a despatch and of its accompaniments, addressed to you by Her Majesty's Consul at San Francisco, from which it appears that the Consul of the United States, at Sydney, Australia, has for some time been engaged in inducing the inhabitants of that country to proceed to San Francisco, under a promise of obtaining employment on the Central Pacific Railway; and that upon their arrival at that city, they were informed that no work could be given them until the winter had passed, thereby entailing upon many of these immigrants great inconvenience.

In reply, I have the honor to inform you that the Consul will be instructed to refrain from any further proceedings of the character complained of.

THE UNITED STATES CONSUL, SYDNEY, to GOVERNOR THE EARL OF BELMORE.

U.S. Consulate, Sydney,
18 December, 1868.

MY LORD,

In this day's publication of the Sydney Morning Herald, I notice several letters under the head of "Emigration to San Francisco." As the whole of the correspondence between me and Mr. Crocker has not been published, which gives the affair rather a one-sided view, and as I am prohibited by my Government in corresponding through the Press, I have taken the liberty of sending you a few particulars, trusting they will remove the stigma against me which must now naturally rest with you.

When I arrived here, in February, 1867, from the United States, and took my present position, I was waited on by a deputation from the labouring classes, requesting me to use my influence in obtaining them employment on the Pacific Railroad. In March of the same year, a petition was presented me, signed by more than 500 labourers and mechanics. This I forwarded to Mr. Crocker, and received his reply, dated June 26, as published in this day's Herald. As you will observe, he there states that men "are sure of getting work as soon as they arrive." Upon the faith of this letter, I issued the tickets now complained of. The following is a copy of my letter to Mr. Crocker, on the first issue of these tickets:—

30 November, 1867.

E. B. Crocker, Esq.,
Genl. Agent, Central Pacific Railroad Company.

SIR,

Your favor of June 26, in which you state that you would be glad to employ men for your railway acknowledged, since which time I have issued about eighty of the enclosed agreements to induce men to work on the line. You will find them all good able-bodied men, and well up to that kind of work. They will leave here for San Francisco about the 5th December, in the "Ethan Allen"; and I have no doubt, if you have an agent to meet the ship on arrival, that the whole of them would be induced to proceed at once to your works. I find great numbers could be engaged here by allowing them about £10 towards their passage, to be worked out on the railway.

The "Silas Fish" will leave here about middle of December; she will also have a number on board, of which I will advise.

I remain, &amp;c.,

H. H. HALL.

To this, and the subsequent ones on the same subject, I have not received any reply or denial of my authority to issue the said tickets; thereby tacitly agreeing.

Prior to their issue, the emigration to California was quite as great as at any time during it, which can be easily proved by reference at the Custom House. I do not think 1 in 10 of those who left here for California asked for or received them, thereby shewing that the inducement to emigrate could not be attributed to the ticket.

For some years past there has been a constant emigration to California. This can be accounted for by the facts that Government land can be purchased at (6s.) six shillings the acre, and families, under the "Homestead Act," by holding and improving land for four years to the extent of 160 acres each family, become the legal owners without purchase; also the prolific nature of the country, and the high rate of wages given to all labourers and mechanics.

EMIGRATION TO SAN FRANCISCO.

Your Excellency, I trust, will not hold that the fact of keeping up constant communication between this Colony and California can be considered in any sense as "endeavouring to induce the class referred to" to go to San Francisco, provided that I desist (as I shall henceforth) from holding out to any emigrants the special inducements in question; though otherwise it would be tantamount to declaring it to be the policy of the two Governments to discountenance all intercourse between the two countries, a position which I respectfully suggest is utterly opposed to the genius and interests of both nations.

I have, &c.,

U. S. Consul.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PARIS EXHIBITION OF 1867.

(JURY REPORTS ON NEW SOUTH WALES PRODUCTS AT.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be Printed, 28 January, 1869.

E. L. MONTEFIORE, Esq., to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Paris, 1 September, 1868.

SIR,

I have duly received your letter of July 2nd, and beg to tender you my sincere thanks for the very kind expressions therein contained.

It has been a great satisfaction to me to be able to be of some small service to the interests of the Colony with which my family has been connected for so many years.

I have also had great pleasure in having as my fellow-worker Captain Mayne, whose kind assistance has considerably lightened my task.

I shall be most happy to place my services at your disposal, if they can, at any time, be useful to your Government, in this country.

I have sent to Captain Mayne translations of the parts of the Jury Reports on Natural History Specimens, and on Woods, in which our Exhibition is mentioned. I enclose extracts from the same Reports on Wool, Minerals, &c.

I remain, &amp;c.,

E. L. MONTEFIORE.

EXTRACTS FROM THE JURY REPORTS.

GROUP 5—CLASS 41.

Tanning Materials.

The Report merely mentions that, in the New South Wales Exhibition, the most remarkable of these substances are the bark of urtica gigas; of brachydryton luridum, or sycamore; and, melaleuca uncinata, or tea-tree.

GROUP 5—CLASS 43.

Wool.

Captain John Macarthur imported the first merino sheep to Australia, in the year 1797. The small flock consisted of five rams and four ewes. They increased at first very slowly. The first bale of wool was not exported to England till the year 1807. The production increased somewhat more rapidly till 1820; but it is only after that date that it augmented with prodigious rapidity, as colonization in New South Wales became more extended, and the squatters occupied successively Southern and Western Australia, Victoria, Queensland, and New Zealand, finding everywhere the most favourable conditions for the cultivation of the finer sorts of wool. The small flock of eight sheep was thus the parent stock of the enormous flocks now existing, and which are computed to number 38 million head of sheep. Seventy years—a very small space of time in the history of a nation—have sufficed for this immense increase.

* 195—

That

That the flocks of Australia should have multiplied in such an extraordinary manner, is explained by the fact that, meat being but of small value, sheep are not killed so long as they remain vigorous and productive. This system has a hurtful influence on the quality of the wool; for a special quality can only be sustained in a flock on the condition of strictly eliminating every individual not possessed in a sufficiently high degree of the desired qualities.

We find here the reason why these Colonies, which rank among the first of wool-producing countries, have obtained so very small a number of awards.

The Colony of New Zealand is of but recent growth, and the squatter has had, literally, to fight his way sword in hand. Notwithstanding such difficulties, the export of wool amounts to ten millions of kilogrammes. The climate is yet more favourable than that of Australia, as the long and intense droughts which, from time to time, menace the very existence of the flocks on the Australian continent, are never experienced. On the other hand, the moist and mild temperature appears to us more favourable for the production of smooth than of merino wools. The samples exhibited confirm this opinion, showing that the characteristics of merino wools can only be maintained by frequently refreshing the blood.

Note by Mr. Lanseigne, on Australian Wools.

The general characteristics of Australian wools are, their natural whiteness and elasticity, their strength and regularity. They are generally ductile, readily twisted, and equally suitable for carding and combing; but, when long of fibre and sufficiently strong, they are preferred for combing, a milky whiteness being of great value in this branch of manufacture.

The considerable increase of production, which has nearly doubled within the last six or seven years, has proved most detrimental to the quality. Instead of there being two-thirds of combing wool, there is now scarcely one-half of that quality; and this has not the same relative value as the two-thirds previously obtained. The ratio of increase has been 11 to 12 per cent. per annum, since 1862. Great care should be taken to prevent degeneration. Growers aim at quantity rather than quality. In 1867, Australia possessed thirty-five millions of sheep.

The quantity produced in 1866 amounted to 348,000 bales, in grease, washed on the sheep's back, or washed in hot water after shearing—it is difficult to say in what relative proportion.

A bale of wool in grease weighs on an average 170 to 175 kilogrammes. The loss by complete washing is about 62 per cent.

A bale of wool washed before shearing weighs about 140 to 150 kilogrammes; and the loss by complete washing (lavage à fonds) is 33 per cent.

The weight of wool washed separately is about the same, and the final loss is only about 16 per cent.

The total production may be classed as follows:—

82,000	bales	Sydney, $\frac{1}{4}$	combing wool
142,000	"	Port Phillip, $\frac{2}{3}$	do.
41,000	"	Adelaide, $\frac{1}{2}$	do.
16,000	"	Van D. Land, $\frac{3}{4}$	do.
3,000	"	Swan River	(a common hard wool, of inferior quality).

348,000 bales.

Of this quantity—

203,000	bales	were employed in England.
118,000	"	bought for French consumption.
27,000	"	for other countries.

Total ... 348,000 bales, official figure given by the English Customs returns.

The average price in 1866 was, according to English statistics, 18d. per lb., washed and unwashed wools taken together. 18d. per lb. corresponds to frs. 4.20 per ko. in London; but we are enabled to give, from our own personal experience, the following figures as more exact:—In 1866, we purchased in London, during the months of March, May, June, August, and September, 3,500 bales of choice wool. The price per kilogramme, of completely washed wool, was 8 francs 40 centimes. 8 francs may be taken as an average for 1866.

These wools are principally adapted for combing, the manufacture of smooth fabrics for male and female wearing apparel, for shawls, and particularly for merinos and similar tissues. In England, they are used in Bradford, Leeds, &c.; in France, at Roubaix, Fournises, Reims, and Le Cateau. The weaker wools, for carding, are used in France at Elbeuf, Louviers, Reims, &c., principally for articles of "haute nouveauté"; in Belgium, for cloth manufacture; in England, for cloths and fancy goods.

We observe, with regret, that almost the entire quantity comes to the French manufacturer, not direct from the producing countries, but indirectly through England and Belgium, and this to an amount of nearly one hundred millions of francs in value. Must we attribute this fact to a want of the spirit of enterprise in our merchants, or to the numerous formalities which fill the rules and regulations of our administration, and whose sole end appears to be the stoppage of all life and movement? We will not take upon ourselves to answer this question.

GROUP 5.—CLASS 40.

MINERAL SUBSTANCES.

M. DAUBRÉE, REPORTER.

Coal.

Very important beds of coal have been found in New South Wales, where they are worked on an extensive scale. At least eleven distinct beds are known, some of them above nine metres in thickness. Mr. W. Keene, the Government Inspector, has collected for the Exhibition sections of the entire thickness of some of these beds, thus demonstrating their importance. These are accompanied by an exceedingly interesting collection of minerals. The value of this coal basin is very, considerable, the more so that the mines, easily worked, are the only ones known to exist in the vast region of the globe of which Australia is the principal country.

The coal production of New South Wales was 382,968 tons in 1865, the value of which is estimated at 5,283,000 francs. It supersedes, at least in these regions, the use of English coal.

The layers of schist and sandstone, which accompany the New South Wales coal, are in discordant stratification, overlying the auriferous schists. They are considered by Mr. Keene as belonging to the true coal formation.

Notwithstanding, however, the researches of several geologists, their age has not been determined with certainty; and though presenting many analogies with European coal strata, they differ from them in certain characteristics.

Kerosene Shale.

New South Wales, so rich in coal, has also naphtha schists in the upper portions of the coal basin. These schists are marked with impressions of leaves of the species glossopteris; they very closely resemble Scotch boghead, both in appearance and in physical qualities.

The names of cannel coal, black cannel, brown cannel, and shaly cannel, are improperly applied to different varieties. Kerosene shale is distilled in the vicinity of the coal mines. In 1865, 700 tons had already been worked; and the treatment of this mineral appears likely to become more extended.

Iron.

Very abundant beds of iron ore have been discovered in New South Wales. They exist in the more ancient stratified beds with schist and quartzite. They are more particularly developed in Narara Creek, and are found in close proximity with extensive coal beds. This hematite, which yields 60 per cent., is worked in furnaces of New Sheffield, near Nattai. Pig and bar iron here produced were exhibited.

Gold.

Although producing far less gold than Victoria, New South Wales has exhibited a much more considerable series of specimens of auriferous earth and gravel, and the metal produced from the washings. Here, as in Victoria, are numerous veins of auriferous quartz, either in schistose or granitic rocks.

The largest quantity of the gold is obtained by washing.

The alluvial gold-bearing strata of New South Wales are perfectly shown in their entire thickness, and from the principal localities, by a series of thirty-two sections, which show the varied composition of the beds at different depths.

From 1851, when the working of gold commenced in this province, to 1865—during fifteen years—the quantity produced in New South Wales has amounted to 19,315 kilogrammes, of the value of 66,191,600 francs.

Mineral Collections.

Accompanying the large blocks of coal shale and metallic ores from New South Wales, Mr. William Keene has exhibited his own private collection, which is very instructive, and which is rendered exceedingly interesting by the valuable notes by which it is accompanied.

MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS IN THE COLONIES.

(DESPATCH RESPECTING.)

Presented to both Houses of Parliament, by Command.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to GOVERNOR THE EARL OF BELMORE.

(Circular.)

Downing-street,
9 September, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to transmit to you a copy of an Act passed in the last <sup>31</sup> Session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to amend the Law relating to Medical Practitioners in the Colonies."

It is clearly desirable that those who require medical aid in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions should be enabled to distinguish qualified from unqualified Practitioners, and, with that view, that Colonial Legislatures should have the power to make laws to enforce the registration of all those who desire to practice in the several Colonies.

In more than one instance Colonial Legislatures have passed laws to that effect; but hitherto, those laws, so far as they applied to persons who had registered themselves under the Medical Act 21 and 22 Vict., c. 90, were void, as being repugnant to the provisions of the 31st section of that Act, by which persons registered under the Act were entitled to practise and recover their fees, in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions, without any condition being attached to such practice.

The restriction thus imposed upon colonial legislation has now been removed.

It appeared to me, however, upon a careful consideration of the subject, that while, on the one hand, it is quite reasonable that a person who has registered under the Imperial Medical Act should be required to register in any Colony where he may desire to practise, and where registration is enforced by law, on the other hand, it is only just and equitable that he should be entitled to be so registered, upon payment of fees, and proof of his registration under the Imperial Medical Act, without being compelled to undergo any fresh professional examination. This view is, as you will observe, embodied in the proviso at the end of section 3 of this Act.

I have to desire that you will take such steps as may be necessary to procure the repeal of any law which has in terms enforced the registration in the Colony of persons registered under the Imperial Medical Act, and the passing of a fresh law in respect of such persons, in accordance with the provisions of the recent Act.

I have, &amp;c.,

BUCKINGHAM &amp; CHANDOS.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Medical Practitioners in the Colonies. [29th May, 1868.]

WHEREAS by the thirty-first section of "The Medical Act" passed in the session holden in the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty chapter ninety it is enacted as follows "Every person registered under this Act shall be entitled according to his qualification or qualifications to practise medicine or surgery or medicine and surgery as the case may be in any part of Her Majesty's Dominions and to demand and recover in any Court of Law with full costs of suit reasonable charges for professional aid advice and visits and the cost of any medicines or other medical or surgical appliances rendered or supplied by him to his patients" And whereas it is expedient to amend the said enactment Be it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Short title.

Interpretation of Act.

Power to Colonial Legislatures to enforce registration of persons registered under "The Medical Act."

1. This Act may be cited as "The Medical Act Amendment Act 1868."

2. The term "Colony" shall in this Act include all of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad in which there shall exist a Legislature as hereinafter defined except the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

The term "Colonial Legislature" shall signify the authority other than the Imperial Parliament or Her Majesty in Council competent to make laws for any Colony.

3. Every Colonial Legislature shall have full power from time to time to make laws for the purpose of enforcing the registration within its jurisdiction of persons who have been registered under "The Medical Act" anything in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding Provided however that any person who has been duly registered under "The Medical Act" shall be entitled to be registered in any Colony upon payment of the fees (if any) required for such registration and upon proof in such manner as the said Colonial Legislature shall direct of his registration under the said Act.

Downing-street, 3 September, 1867.

SIR,

I transmit, for the consideration of yourself and your Responsible Advisers, copies of an Act passed in this Session of the Imperial Parliament, to amend and consolidate the Laws relating to Vaccination.

It may perhaps seem desirable to your Advisers that a like measure should be enacted in the Colony under your Government, with such modifications as local circumstances may seem to dictate.

CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to Vaccination. [12th August, 1867.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the Statutes relating to Vaccination in England: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. From and after the day when this Act shall come into operation as hereinafter provided, the Statute of the third and fourth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-nine,—that of the fourth and fifth years of the same reign, chapter thirty-two,—that of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the same reign, chapter one hundred,—the seventh section of the Statute of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of the same reign, chapter twenty-five,—the second section of the Statute of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of the same reign, chapter ninety-seven,—and the Statute of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the same reign, chapter fifty-nine,—shall be repealed,—

Acts and parts of Acts herein named repealed on and after January 1, 1868.

Except in regard to the divisions and districts of unions and parishes previously made, and to all contracts under the said Statutes then in force, and to all acts and proceedings duly commenced under the same, and not then completed, and except in regard to all liabilities and responsibilities incurred under the same; all which shall remain in as full force as if the same Statutes had not been repealed, unless they be in any respect inconsistent with the provisions herein contained.

Exceptions.

2. The Guardians of every union or parish where the same shall not have been divided into districts for the purpose of vaccination shall, unless such union or parish respectively shall be of so limited an area as not to require subdivision—in which case the same shall be treated as a vaccination district within the meaning hereof—forthwith divide the union or parish for which they act into districts for the performance of vaccination; and when the Poor Law Board shall, by their order, require any districts for the time being being to be consolidated or otherwise altered, the Guardians shall proceed to consolidate or alter the same; and they shall, in every such case of division, consolidation, or alteration, report their proposal to the Poor Law Board for their approval, which Board shall approve or disapprove of the same as they see fit; and the Guardians of every union or parish may, with like approval, from time to time as they shall find it requisite, alter the districts heretofore formed, or hereafter to be formed for the purpose of vaccination.

Guardians to divide unions and parishes into vaccination districts, or to consolidate or alter them, subject to approval of the Poor Law Board.

If the Board do not approve, another scheme to be prepared; when approved, Guardians to contract for performance of vaccination.

3. If the said Board disapprove of the proposal, the Guardians shall forthwith proceed to prepare another, and submit the same to the said Board for approval, and so on from time to time as shall be requisite until their proposal shall be approved; and when the said Board shall have approved of the same, the Guardians shall enter into a contract with some duly registered Medical Practitioner for the performance of vaccination of all persons resident within each district; and every such Medical Practitioner shall be termed the Public Vaccinator of the district; and as and when the contracts now existing shall determine, the Guardians shall enter into others, with such modifications as the circumstances shall render necessary, subject to the like approval of the Poor Law Board as aforesaid.

Qualification of Vaccinator to be prescribed by Lords of the Privy Council, and other regulations to be prescribed by them.

4. No person shall be appointed a Public Vaccinator, or act as deputy for a Public Vaccinator, who shall not possess the qualification heretofore prescribed by the Lords of Her Majesty's Council, or such as shall be from time to time hereafter prescribed by them, except when such Lords shall upon sufficient cause, sanction any departure from their directions. And all such regulations as the said Lords have heretofore made, or shall hereafter make, which they are hereby authorized to make, to secure the efficient performance of vaccination, or the provision and supply of vaccine lymph by the Public Vaccinator, and all such directions or regulations as the said Lords, acting under any Act for the prevention of diseases, may issue in relation to small-pox, shall be duly observed by the several persons to whom they apply; and the said Lords may, from time to time, cause such inquiries to be made relating to the observance of such regulations, and to the execution of this Act, as to them shall seem fit, and shall direct how any money hereafter to be provided by Parliament for or towards defraying the expenses of the National Vaccine Establishment, or otherwise providing for the supply of vaccine lymph, shall be applied.

As to allowances to Public Vaccinators.

5. On reports made to the Lords of Her Majesty's Council with regard to the number and quality of the vaccinations performed in the several vaccination districts of England, or any of them, the said Lords may from time to time, out of moneys provided by Parliament, and under regulations to be approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, authorize to be paid to any Public Vaccinators, in addition to the payments received by them from Guardians or Overseers, further payments not exceeding in any case the rate of one shilling for each child whom the Vaccinator has successfully vaccinated during the time to which the award of the said Lords of the Council relates.

As to fees payable for vaccination.

6. Every such contract for vaccination shall provide for payment in respect only of the successful vaccination of persons, and so that the rate of payment for primary vaccinations shall be not less than the following; that is to say, for every such vaccination done at an appointed station situated at or within one mile from the residence of the Vaccinator, or in the workhouse of the union or parish, not less than one shilling and sixpence; and for every such vaccination done at any station over one mile and under two miles distant from his residence, not less than two shillings; and for every such vaccination done at any station over two miles distant from his residence, not less than three shillings, such distance being measured according to the nearest public carriage road; but in respect of successful vaccinations performed elsewhere than at a station or in the workhouse as aforesaid, the payment shall be according to the terms specified in the contract as approved of by the Poor Law Board.

Conditions may be imposed in the contracts to secure due vaccination of persons.

7. The Guardians shall, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, make stipulations and conditions in their contracts to secure the due vaccination of persons, the observance of the provisions of this Act with regard to the transmission of the certificate of successful vaccination, and the fulfilment of all other provisions of this Act on the part of the Public Vaccinator, and shall provide all stations at which the vaccination shall be appointed to be performed other than the surgery or residence of the Public Vaccinator.

Provision for revaccination.

8. The provisions of the contracts entered into before this Act comes into operation shall not, after the thirty-first day of December next, apply to the cases of persons who, having been previously successfully vaccinated, shall be revaccinated; but if the Lords of Her Majesty's Council shall have issued or shall hereafter issue regulations in respect of the revaccination of persons who may apply to be revaccinated, which such Lords are hereby authorized to do, the Guardians shall pay, in respect of every case of successful revaccination performed in conformity with such regulations under such contracts, or under new contracts entered into after the date hereof, a sum amounting to two-thirds of the fee payable upon each case of successful primary vaccination.

Contract not valid unless approved of by the Poor Law Board, who may determine the same at any time.

9. No contract for vaccination entered into under the provisions of this Act shall be valid until the same shall have been approved of by the Poor Law Board; and such Board may, at their discretion, upon the application of the Lords of Her Majesty's Council or otherwise, at any time after the same shall have been approved of by them, determine it either forthwith or at a future day.

No payment to be made out of the poor rate, or any other public fund, unless the

10. No payment in respect of vaccination shall be made out of the common fund of any union, or out of the poor rate of any parish, or out of any other public or parochial fund, where the Poor Law Board shall not have approved of a contract for the performance thereof, or after they shall have determined any such contract; and every payment payment made contrary hereto shall be disallowed by the Auditor in the accounts of every Board of Guardians, or of the Overseers, or of any officer who shall have made the same. Poor Law Board have approved of the contract.

11. Where a district shall have been or shall be assigned to a Vaccinator, he shall not be entitled to be paid a fee in respect of the vaccination or revaccination of any child or other person resident out of his district, except in case of a vacancy in the office of Vaccinator in any adjoining district, or of the default of the Vaccinator therein, of which default notice shall have been given to him in writing by the Guardians, or when a Relieving Officer of his union or parish shall in writing refer any child to him for vaccination. No Public Vaccinator to be paid for vaccination out of his district.

12. The Guardians may, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, provide, in districts where the population is scanty or much scattered, or where some peculiar circumstances may render it expedient for them to do so, for the attendance of the Public Vaccinator at the appointed places, after intervals exceeding three months; and if by reason of such intervals the vaccination of any child cannot be performed within the respective periods herein prescribed, no parent or other person who would otherwise be liable, shall be liable to any penalty in respect of a neglect to procure the vaccination during any such period; but every such parent or other person shall be bound to procure such vaccination to be performed at the time and place so appointed before the commencement of the next interval, unless it be otherwise performed by a Medical Practitioner as herein provided, or unless the child shall be certified to be then in an unfit state for or insusceptible of vaccination. Provision for districts in particular places of scanty population.

13. When the Guardians make any alteration in a vaccination district, or otherwise in the local arrangements for vaccination, they shall give public notice of such alteration, by printed papers to be affixed in the districts affected by such alteration, for one month prior to the alteration taking effect. Guardians to give notice of alteration in districts.

14. The Registrar General for England and Wales shall, when he shall deem it necessary, from time to time as occasion shall require, after the passing of this Act, frame and provide appropriate books, forms, and regulations, for the use and guidance of the Registrars, in the exercise of their duties therein prescribed, and also such forms as shall be required for the use of the Public Vaccinators and the signature of the Medical Practitioners under the provisions of this Act, and shall transmit the same to all Registrars of Births and Deaths, who shall retain such as relate to themselves, and distribute among the Vaccinators within their respective districts, such as relate to them, without any fee or reward. The Registrar General to provide forms.

15. The Registrar of Births shall, on or within seven days after the registration with him of the birth of any child not already vaccinated, give a notice, according to the form in the Schedule hereto annexed marked A, or to the like effect, to the parent, or, in the event of the death, illness, absence, or inability of the parent, to the person having the custody of such child, if known to him, requiring such child to be duly vaccinated according to the provisions of this Act, and specifying the days, hours, and places where the Public Vaccinator of the vaccination district wherein such child resides, or the Vaccinator of any station duly authorized by the Lords of Her Majesty's Council, will attend for the purpose of performing the operation, to which notice forms according to those in the said Schedule marked B, C, and D, and also the address of the Registrar giving the notice, shall be attached, in such form as the Registrar General shall deem most convenient. Registrar of Births to deliver notice of vaccination to parent or other person registering birth.

16. The parent of every child born in England shall, within three months after the birth of such child, or where, by reason of the death, illness, absence, or inability of the parent, or other cause, any other person shall have the custody of such child, such person shall, within three months after receiving the custody of such child, take it or cause it to be taken to the Public Vaccinator of the vaccination district in which it shall be then resident, according to the provisions of this or any other Act, to be vaccinated, or shall, within such period as aforesaid, cause it to be vaccinated by some Medical Practitioner; and the Public Vaccinator to whom such child shall be so brought is hereby required, with all reasonable despatch, subject to the conditions hereinafter mentioned, to vaccinate such child. Parent or other person to procure the vaccination of child within three months.

17. Upon the same day in the following week when the operation shall have been performed by the Public Vaccinator, such parent or other person, as the case may be, shall again take the child, or cause it to be taken to him or to his deputy, that he may inspect it, and ascertain the result of the operation, and, if he see fit, take from such child lymph for the performance of other vaccinations; and in the event of the vaccination being unsuccessful, such parent or other person shall, if the Vaccinator so direct, cause the child to be forthwith again vaccinated, and inspected as on the previous occasion. Provision for inspection of vaccination.

18. ## VACCINATION.

(REPORT FROM MEDICAL ADVISER TO THE GOVERNMENT, FOR THE YEAR 1868.)

Presented to both Houses of Parliament, by Command.

THE MEDICAL ADVISER TO THE GOVERNMENT to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY.

Medical Adviser's Office,

23 February, 1869.

SIR,

In forwarding the Annual Report of Vaccinations performed by Public, Vaccinators in Sydney, its suburbs, and in the country districts of New South Wales during the year 1868, I have the honor to inform you, that 1,424 children under one year; 2,023, above one and under five years; 409, under ten years—making a total of 3,851 cases, were reported successfully vaccinated in the city of Sydney and its suburbs

If we assume that the same number were vaccinated by private practitioners, it still leaves a large number unprotected against small-pox.

The most important period for vaccinating, the age for the performance that saves most lives (when small-pox exists at all), is the period of infancy, and it is necessary to ascertain what is the practice in this respect.

Calculating that the births are not more numerous than they were in 1866, we find 4,529 born in Sydney and its suburbs. There have been vaccinated of these, 2,848, one-half by private practitioners, thus leaving 1,641 unprotected at a most important period of life.

If we refer to the returns from the country districts, the result is less favorable.

The total number reported by returns as vaccinated gives 6,386; of these, 1,608 were vaccinated in their first year. Now, assuming that a similar number have been vaccinated by private practitioners, we find 3,216. But, in many places in the interior, all vaccinated are vaccinated by the public officers.

There were 12,694 births registered in 1866 in the country districts; taking 3,216 as the number vaccinated, it still leaves 9,478 unprotected.

But notwithstanding, this year reports 11,237—in a great measure due latterly no doubt to the fear of small-pox.

There are, I consider, two circumstances that have caused so few to be vaccinated—first, the absence of a Compulsory Vaccination Act; and, secondly, the small fee paid to Public Vaccinators.

The necessity for a Compulsory Vaccination Act has been repeatedly urged upon the Government by my predecessors, and I cannot too strongly assure you of its great necessity. I am glad to find a measure now before Parliament, and that it will soon be the law of the land.

The

The small fee paid for vaccination is of importance, not merely as an act of injustice to most of the Public Vaccinators, but as it checks the progress of vaccination.

In the numerous letters I have received from the Public Vaccinators, most complain of the rate of remuneration; one gentleman states that to vaccinate less than one hundred cases he had to travel 300 miles. And in other instances many miles have been travelled to perform the duty; and the fee paid by Government is no proper recompense for services of such a nature to some practitioners, and the effectual performance of which is of great importance to the public.

In England short distances even are paid for, and the principle of such payments there recognized; but there no distances could be undertaken as are constantly travelled by Colonial Public Vaccinators; and, surely the more laborious duty should receive a proportionate payment.

The power of a Compulsory Act, and a higher rate of payment in certain cases, will no doubt cause the vaccination of much greater numbers; but it is necessary to ensure what is most important of all, the efficient vaccination of individual cases.

It is my opinion that it will be necessary to re-arrange the vaccination in the city and suburbs.

It is clearly shown by the best recent authorities, that to keep up a good supply of vaccine virus, it is necessary that vaccine districts should not be too small; that a population of not less than 25,000 should form a vaccination district; and that one of nearly double that number would work much better.

In such a district, with a Compulsory Act, it would be easy to keep up a full arm-to-arm vaccination. The number of cases would enable the best to be alone selected from which to vaccinate, and from which to store virus for transmission to practitioners, and to supply the outlying and more thinly peopled districts, where a supply by arm-to-arm vaccination could only at times be kept up, and they should always be able to obtain a supply of vaccine virus from Sydney.

The vaccination in this city has not been conducted to carry out this principle. Several Vaccinators, without limitation of districts, and many vaccinating several days in the week, and each independently, have carried out the work. Such an arrangement does not ensure a constant supply of virus to private practitioners and those parts of the Colony that must depend frequently on such supply.

There is no doubt of this fact, that, several times, the supply of virus was deficient, and that sometimes that supplied by the Vaccine Institution and Public Vaccinators have both alike failed in the hands of practitioners to whom it has been transmitted.

When there was small-pox in Melbourne, I addressed a circular to the Public Vaccinators, on the 16th of December last, informing them of the fact, and urging the necessity for vaccinating the children in their districts. At the same time I inquired as to the opportunities they had for seeing the cases vaccinated, so as to ascertain if the cases had gone on regularly.

In the numerous replies I was furnished with, I was assured of the children being inspected on the eighth day, but rarely on the fourth on account of the distance. To see them on the eighth day was in many cases a great trouble, and in one or two cases the duty had to be deputed.

The expenses of this Branch of the Public Service will, no doubt, be much increased by the increased numbers vaccinated now from fear of the small-pox, and in future from the action of law.

I have, &c.,

E. S. P. BEDFORD,

Medical Adviser to the Government.

(REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT, IN REFERENCE TO CERTAIN COMPLAINTS RESPECTING.)

Ordered by the Legislative Assembly to be Printed, 12 January, 1869.

THE HEALTH OFFICER to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Sydney, 12 January, 1869.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to enclose herewith a Report from the Superintendent at the Quarantine Station, Spring Cove, in reference to complaints made in the letter from Mr. Henry Selby which appears in the Sydney Morning Herald newspaper of the 9th instant.

I have, &c.,

H. G. ALLEYNE, M.D.,
Health Officer.

THE SUPERINTENDENT, QUARANTINE STATION, SYDNEY, to THE HEALTH OFFICER.

Quarantine Station,
Spring Cove, 11 January, 1869.

SIR,

I beg leave to state, for the information of the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, that I clearly understood, from the first day the Steamship "Kaikoura" came into Quarantine, that the passengers and others from on board of her were to be allowed to come on shore, according to the Quarantine Regulations, for recreation, &c., at such times as they wished to do so; and, as a matter of fact, they have been on shore—being of course kept within the boundaries.

The buildings at the Station have been at all times at the disposal of the passengers and crew; but it has never been signified to me that there was any desire, on the part of the passengers, to occupy them, or that the Captain wished for the use of any of them for his crew.

I further certify that the Quarantine Regulations have been strictly carried out with regard to the fumigating of the Mail, on arrival, and all letters sent through me.

As for Mr. Selby's letter to Mr. Eagar, stating that he is not allowed to land—this I distinctly deny, as he has, with all the other passengers, been on shore, having permission to land, at any time from sunrise to sunset, by keeping within the boundaries. And if the Captain complains, he has no person to blame for it unless himself, as the vessel was in Quarantine eleven (11) days before he took any steps to have the clothing, &c., of the officers, crew, and passengers washed, although being repeatedly told by me that he would not be released from Quarantine until all the clothing, &c., of every description was thoroughly washed, aired, or destroyed; and now I am informed that there is a large quantity of linen remaining on board which has never been washed or destroyed.

I further beg leave to state, that unless these clothes are landed and washed under my direction, I cannot be answerable that the Quarantine Regulations have been carried out.

QUARANTINE.

After you left here yesterday I sent for the Captain and told him what he had to do before the vessel could be released from Quarantine, and he has promised me that all the linen remaining on board will be washed and sent on shore this day to be dried and aired, &c. He expected that his agent would send down some women to wash the ladies' clothing.

I further beg leave to state, that every facility has been afforded by me to the passengers of this vessel to communicate with their friends at all times, as I have been at the landing place from 7 o'clock in the morning to 7 o'clock in the evening for the purpose of attending to them.

Respecting the forwarding of letters. All letters received by me have been forwarded by the boatman who brings the provisions to the vessel, and I have daily sent to Manly Beach Post Office for all letters that may be sent for the passengers, and had them delivered at once.

No passengers could have received more indulgence than was granted to those persons, keeping the Quarantine Regulations in view.

I have, &c.,

JOHN CARROLL,
Superintendent.

Sydney, 6th October, 1868.

SIR,

As it is reported that small-pox is at present epidemic in San Francisco,—I do myself the honor to suggest to the Honorable the Minister for Finance and Trade, that it may be advisable that San Francisco and other ports on the Coast of the State of California should be proclaimed infected places, and that all vessels arriving from thence should, in every case, perform a quarantine of not less than seven days.

PROCLAMATION.

BY His Excellency the Right Honorable SOMERSET RICHARD, Earl of Belmore, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council in Ireland, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony of New South Wales, and Vice-Admiral of the same.

Colony, all ships or vessels arriving in this Colony from the State of California, and all boats belonging to the said ships or vessels, and all boats having received any person or thing from such ships or vessels, and all persons, goods, wares, merchandise, and other articles whatsoever, coming, or brought in, or being on board such ships, vessels, or boats, shall in every case perform quarantine for a period of not less than seven days,—such period to be extended as may be found necessary in any particular case, by any order to be made by the Governor-in-Chief, with the advice of the Executive Council.

4 DETENTION IN QUARANTINE OF THE S.S. "KAIKOURA."

MEMO.—As only six days have elapsed since the last case of small-pox was removed from among the healthy people now on board the "Kaikoura," I have refused to allow her pratique, and have directed the master of her to take the vessel to the Quarantine Station. I recommend that the vessel, with her crew and passengers, be detained in quarantine, until such a time shall have elapsed since the last case of small-pox was removed from on board of her, as will justify an opinion that no new case will occur among the people on board of her.

H. G. ALLEYNE, M.D.,
Health Officer.

28 Dec., /68.

P.S.—I have arranged with the Agents of the Company in Sydney, for the regular and daily supply of fresh provisions for the use of the inmates of the "Kaikoura," during her detention in quarantine.

The Treasury, New South Wales,
31 December, 1868.

THE arrival of the steam-ship "Kaikoura," from Panama, via New Zealand, on the 28th instant, having been reported; and, inasmuch as it appears from the report of the Health Officer, that cases of small-pox occurred on the passage of the said vessel to this port, the last of which was only removed from the vessel on the 23rd instant:—the Colonial Treasurer now recommends, in terms of Dr. Alleyne's report, that the "Kaikoura," with her crew, passengers, and contents, be detained in quarantine,—until such time shall have elapsed as will, in the opinion of the Health Officer, justify a belief that no reappearance of the disease referred to is to be dreaded.

MINUTE OF EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

UNDER the report of the Health Officer, Sydney, the Executive Council advise that authority be granted for the placing in quarantine the steam-ship "Kaikoura," together with her crew, passengers, and cargo; and for her detention there, until such time as, in the opinion of the Health Officer, will justify her release, without fear of infection, or danger to the public health.

THE SECRETARY, ROYAL MAIL STEAM PACKET COMPANY, to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Royal Mail Steam Packet Co.,
Sydney, 2nd January, 1869.

SIR,

I have the honor, on behalf of the Manager of this Company, of inquiring when it is probable the R. M. steamship "Kaikoura" will be released from quarantine.

The ship contains a considerable quantity of valuable cargo, with periodicals, &c., which are anxiously waited for, and this Company wishes to make various arrangements in reference to the ship; hence this inquiry.

I have, &c.,
JOHN HILL,
Secretary.

Health Officer.—S.S.—5/1/69.

The usual period of quarantine, in cases of quarantine on account of small-pox, is twenty-five days from the date on which the last case of small-pox was removed from among the healthy people.

As, according to the statement of the master of the "Kaikoura," the cases of small-pox were removed from his ship on the 22nd December, 1868, the term of quarantine for the "Kaikoura" will not have expired until the 17th instant, and then only provided that, in the meantime, nothing occur to render a longer detention of the vessel desirable, and that the crew and passengers have thoroughly washed and cleansed their clothing and bedding, &c.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 2nd instant, requesting to be informed of the probable date of the release of the s.s. "Kaikoura" from quarantine.

Upon reference to the Health Officer, I have to state, in reply, that the "Kaikoura" will, probably, be released on the 17th instant:—provided that nothing occur to render a further detention of the vessel advisable; and, that, the crew and passengers have thoroughly washed and cleansed their clothing, bedding, &c.

MESSRS. PRINCE, OGG & Co. to THE COLONIAL TREASURER.

Sydney, 4th January, 1869.

SIR,

We beg permission to point out the serious loss and inconvenience we are suffering from the detention of our goods on board the "Kaikoura," now in quarantine. The whole number of packages for all consignees amount only to one hundred and twenty, a large proportion consisting of samples of heavy shipments to arrive by sailing vessels.

May we be pardoned in suggesting, for the opinion of your Medical Adviser, whether, if he considers any infection to have reached the hold of the vessel, that the landing of the goods on the Quarantine Grounds, and submitting them to fumigation, would not meet the requirements.

We may add, that all the cases are lined with tin or zinc.

We are, &c.,
PRINCE, OGG & CO.

The Health Officer will please say if he sees any objection to the packages referred to being landed and sent up to Sydney.—S.S.—5/1/69.

I do not think that the public health will be imperilled by permission being granted to land the packages referred to—under the usual quarantine regulations and restrictions.

I concur in this opinion of Dr. Alleyne.

MINUTE FOR THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

The Treasury, New South Wales,
6th January, 1869.

Upon the recommendation of Treasury Minute of the 31st ultimo, His Excellency, in Council, was pleased to order the performance of quarantine by the steam-ship "Kaikoura," together with her crew, passengers, and cargo.

It has since been represented to the Colonial Treasurer, that serious loss and inconvenience are being suffered, by reason of the detention, in quarantine, of the said vessel's cargo,—consisting for the most part of periodicals, samples, and merchandise of a special character.

The Health Officer, and, the Medical Adviser to the Government, concur in reporting that, should permission to land the said cargo from the "Kaikoura," under the usual quarantine rules and restrictions be given, the public health would not be thereby imperilled.

The Treasurer is of opinion that, in view of this report, the convenience of consignees, in this, a special case, may be consulted; and accordingly, recommends that His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council sanction the discharge of the "Kaikoura's" cargo, subject to the Quarantine Regulations, and any further restriction which the Health Officer may deem advisable.

No. 14.

S. S. "Kaikoura," Spring Cove,
5th January, 1869.

To the Hon. the Treasurer of N. S. Wales.

SIR,

We take the liberty of addressing you with reference to our detention on board the "Kaikoura," which was placed in quarantine now eight days ago, on account of three cases of small-pox having occurred on board during the passage from Panama to New Zealand. It is now twenty-six days since the last case occurred, and fourteen days since all three were landed at Wellington, one only not convalescent; the ship was then thoroughly fumigated, and the clothing and bedding destroyed. We thus left Wellington a clean ship.

Medical men are generally agreed that small-pox develops in from nine to twelve days; and, as all on board are perfectly free from symptoms of the dreaded disorder, we respectfully submit that all has now been done which can be deemed necessary for the public safety, and request that you will be pleased to order our immediate release, for the following reasons:—

1. The Harbour Regulations direct that, had we been fourteen days at sea, after we landed the sick, there would have been no necessity for taking any notice of the matter, we being, in so far as this Colony is concerned, an intercolonial ship.
2. We infer (for no notice has been served in terms of the Regulations) that we come under the second grade (if any) of the Quarantine Regulations, which provide that ships under that clause may be detained for a period not exceeding twenty-one days. Surely, in view of the fact that no disease has appeared, it would be a grievous stretch of authority to detain a vessel of this class for the full term; the passengers being few, the accommodation ample, and every means available for the suppression of disease.
3. We submit that, as men of business, our case deserves special consideration. To a large proportion of us, our detention up to this period has been attended with great inconvenience and pecuniary loss, and any further detention is likely to result in still further heavy losses to ourselves and others.
4. We all feel strongly that we can now enter our respective families without the slightest risk.

5. We beg that, should you not grant our request, we may be at once informed of the probable period of detention, in order that we may make our business arrangements, and be relieved from the withering suspense to which we have been already subjected.

SIR,

As Commander of the s.s. "Kaikoura," now in quarantine, I take the liberty of addressing you on the subject of our detention.

Although I am not in receipt of any official intimation of the probable duration of our quarantine, I have heard indirectly that it has been decided not to release the ship until the maximum period fixed by the Act (which is variously stated by my informants, at twenty-one, twenty-three, or twenty-six days) has expired. Under these circumstances, I beg most respectfully to point out to you the injustice and unnecessary length of this prolonged delay.

The ships of the Panama Company sailing from this port have always been treated as intercolonial ships clearing out for and entering in from New Zealand, and have only been charged port and light dues, pilotage, &c., as such. This being the case, I submit that, by the Harbour Regulations of Port Jackson, I should have been fully justified in proceeding to our usual moorings, and landing the passengers at once, as customary, providing that no contagious disease had existed on board within fourteen days of the date of our arrival.

This period being deemed sufficient by the Act, I beg to suggest that, fifteen days having now elapsed since the last case of small-pox was landed in Wellington, we are entitled to our release—no contagious disease of any kind having existed on board during that period.

The

8 DETENTION IN QUARANTINE OF THE S.S. "KAIKOURA."

The "Kaikoura" received her passengers on board at Panama, on the 22nd November. There was then no sickness of any kind apparent; the number of people on board being 131.

On the 25th November, one of the passengers (a lady) shewed symptoms of small-pox, which she had, no doubt, contracted during the passage from England. She was immediately removed to a berth as remote as possible from the rest of the passengers and crew; an attendant, who had had small-pox, specially appointed to wait on her; and every precaution in the way of disinfectants, fumigation, &c., taken.

Only two other persons out of the whole number took the disease, shewing that our precautions, which were also taken in their cases, had been successful in arresting its spread.

Two out of the three were convalescent before reaching New Zealand, on the 20th ultimo, and were landed, with the only remaining invalid (who was rapidly progressing towards recovery), at Wellington, on the 22nd ultimo.

All bedding, clothing, &c., which had in the most remote way come into contact with the sick, was destroyed, and the ship fumigated throughout, in the most approved manner, with chlorine gas.

We sailed from Wellington on the 22nd, and arrived in this port on the evening of the 28th ultimo, were immediately ordered into quarantine by the Health Officer; and apparently no notice has been taken of us since the 29th ultimo, although the ship has been perfectly healthy since landing the invalid in New Zealand.

The Surgeon of the ship (a duly qualified medical man, of considerable experience both ashore and afloat) informs me that the cases which occurred on board were of a most modified character (probably in consequence of their having been vaccinated previously); the primary fever in all was very slight, the pustules were not confluent, but perfectly distinct, and in neither of the cases did any secondary fever supervene.

A period of one month has elapsed since the appearance of the disease in the last case, and the Surgeon is of opinion that the ship is now perfectly free from infection: for an epidemic of the kind occurring at sea, in a large ship, with not one-third of her full complement of souls on board, is not aggravated by circumstances frequently existing on shore, such as a deficiency of ozone in a densely populated district, effluvia arising from defective drainage, or want of personal cleanliness.

For these reasons, I most respectfully and earnestly beg you to reconsider your decision to inflict a longer delay on us, thereby causing great loss and enormous expense in keeping a large crew on pay, to the Company, who are not in a position to afford it, having already lost large sums in the service of the Colony, and to the passengers generally, some of whom are from New Zealand, and most of whom are men of business from the neighbouring Colonies of Victoria and Queensland, to whom further loss of time cannot but be ruinous.

I have, &c.,
J. W. B. DARKE.

Health Officer.—S.S.—8/1/69.

I can see no reason whatever for recommending that the period of quarantine should be less in the case of the "Kaikoura" than in the case of other vessels placed in quarantine on account of small-pox; and the term decided on is, in my opinion, not longer than ordinary prudence should suggest.—H.G.A.—9/1/69.

STEAM-SHIP "KAIKOURA."

The Treasury, New South Wales,
Sydney, 11th January, 1869.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, relative to the detention of the steam-ship "Kaikoura" in quarantine; and, representing the injustice, and unnecessary length of that vessel's durance therein.

I am directed to inform you, in reply, that your letter was referred to the Health Officer, who has reported upon the same, that he can see no reason whatever for recommending that the period of quarantine should be less in the case of the "Kaikoura," than in the case of other vessels placed in quarantine on account of small-pox; and adds, that, the time of detention decided on is not, in his opinion, "longer than ordinary prudence should suggest."

The Colonial Treasurer cannot,—I am to regret—in view of Dr. Alleyne's report, assume the responsibility of releasing your vessel from quarantine, as requested.

No. 18.

THE MANAGER, ROYAL MAIL STEAM PACKET COMPANY, to THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL TREASURER.

Union Club, Sydney,
7th January, 1869.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit, for your favourable consideration, the following circumstances connected with the steam-ship "Kaikoura," at present lying in quarantine, and to beg that you will do me the favour to give the subject your early consideration.

1. The steam-ship "Mataura," belonging to the same Company, and about to sail for England, is detained to receive from on board the "Kaikoura," a large "Trotman's" anchor, lost by the "Mataura," during her last Panama voyage, in Panama Bay; and the Board of Trade Surveyor will not sanction her proceeding to sea without it, and I understand there are none of the proper size to be had here.

2. Being about to proceed to New Zealand myself in the "Mataura," on very urgent business of this unfortunate Company, it is of essential importance that I should be accompanied by a gentleman now on board the "Kaikoura" (Mr. Francis J. Ivory), who has come passenger all the way from England; and it humbly appears to me, that this gentleman might be transferred from the "Kaikoura" to the "Mataura," as the latter ship proceeds out of the harbour on her voyage, and without any risk to the health of Sydney.

The departure of the "Mataura" for England has already been postponed from the 10th to the 14th instant, in order to effect these transfers, but it now appears that the "Kaikoura" is to be kept in quarantine till the 17th instant, being twenty-six days from the date of landing the last case of small-pox at Wellington, N.Z.

I should be sorry to impute blame to any one for what appears to be unnecessary detention of this ship in quarantine; but, having had much to do with the ships of the West India Royal Mail Company, where outbreaks of yellow fever occur, I would respectfully point out that the medical authorities of the Privy Council in England have always considered sixteen days' quarantine, from the date of the last case, quite sufficient to exhaust the contagious effect of that virulent disease; and surely twenty-one days ought to be considered sufficient to destroy the lurking poison of small-pox.

Allow me to add, that, by giving this matter your early attention, I shall feel extremely obliged.

I have, &c.,

Health Officer. S.S.—8/1/69.

I see no objection to permission being granted to land and send to Sydney, under the usual quarantine precautions, the "Trotman's" anchor now on board the "Kaikoura."

The public health of Sydney would not be injuriously affected by granting permission that Mr. Francis Ivory should be taken from the jetty at the Quarantine Station, by a boat sent from the "Mataura" as that vessel is leaving the port, and placed on board of her, provided that Mr. Ivory continues in good health, and free from small-pox, and is quite well on the day on which it is proposed that he should be released.

But there may be legal and other objections to the measure.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th instant, representing that the s.s. "Mataura" is detained in port until a "Trotman's" anchor, belonging to that vessel, but now on board the "Kaikoura," in quarantine, can be landed; and requesting the necessary permission: as also, authority for the transference of Mr. Francis J. Ivory, a passenger on board the "Kaikoura," from that vessel to the "Mataura," as the latter is proceeding out of the harbour upon her projected voyage.

10      DETENTION IN QUARANTINE OF THE S.S. "KAIKOURA."

I have to inform you, in reply, that the Colonial Treasurer has authorized the release from quarantine, under the usual precautions, of the anchor adverted to in your letter; and that, permission has been given for Mr. Ivory's departure per "Mataura"; provided that, that gentleman continue in good health, and is quite well on the day on which it is proposed that he be released; and that Mr. Ivory be taken from the jetty at the Quarantine Station, by a boat sent from the "Mataura," and placed on board that vessel as she is leaving Port Jackson.

I am to add, however, that this latter permission is conditional upon the report of the Law Officers of the Crown, that there are no legal difficulties in the way of Mr. Ivory's release, under the circumstances stated. Their opinion will be at once obtained, when a further communication will be addressed to you.

SIR,

Adverting to my letter to you of yesterday's date, in which I returned to you a letter, of date the 7th instant, addressed to the Honorable the Colonial Treasurer, by Mr. Marshall, the Manager of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, relative to the "Kaikoura,"—I have the honor to inform you that I have taken the opinion of the Honorable the Attorney General, as to whether the Honorable the Treasurer might consent to the anchor required for the out-going steamer, "Mataura," being shipped from the "Kaikoura," and a passenger allowed to proceed from one vessel to another, provided the consent of the Governor and Council were obtained, under the 9th section of the Act 3rd Wm. IV, No. 1; and that I send to you a copy of such Opinion, on the annexed half-sheet.

I have, &c.,

MINUTE FOR THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL.

Transference of an Officer of the s.s. "Kaikoura," in quarantine, to the s.s. "Matoura," bound for New Zealand.

The Treasury, New South Wales,
Sydney, 14th January, 1869.

THE Colonial Treasurer has received an application from the Manager of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, requesting permission for the transference of the Fourth Engineer of the s.s. "Kaikoura," from that vessel, now in quarantine, to the s.s. "Mataura," bound hence to New Zealand.

The Health Officer reports upon the same,—that the public health would not be injuriously affected by the permission sought being granted: provided that, the person in question be taken from the jetty at the Quarantine Station, by a boat sent from the "Mataura," and placed on board that vessel as she is leaving the port; provided also, that the person to be so released continue in good health, and free from small-pox, and is quite well on the day of his proposed release.

Upon this report, the Colonial Treasurer recommends that the sanction of the His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council be given to the transference, as aforesaid, of the Fourth Engineer of the "Kaikoura," in the manner, and subject to the precautions, indicated in the Health Officer's report.

SIR,

As, on the 17th instant, twenty-five days will have elapsed since all of the persons who had been affected with small-pox on board the steam-ship "Kaikoura," during the late voyage of that vessel from Panama to this port, were removed from on board of her, together with the whole of their bedding and baggage, and landed at Wellington, New Zealand, and as no symptoms of the disease have since appeared among the people which remained on board the ship,—I beg to recommend that the ship, with passengers and crew, may be released from quarantine on that date, provided that, in the meantime, no new cases of small-pox should occur among them, and that all of the clothing, bedding, linen, &c., belonging to the passengers, crew, and ship, shall have been thoroughly washed, aired, and otherwise cleansed, or destroyed by having been burned.

No. 1.

THE AGENT FOR IMMIGRATION to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.
[Very urgent.] Government Immigration Office,
Sydney, 1st October, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith, for the information of the Honorable the Secretary for Finance and Trade, copies of correspondence which has passed between Mr. John Carroll, the Overseer of Stores at the Quarantine Station, and this Department, respecting the quantity of beds, pillows, &c., at present under his charge at the station.

Original inventory herewith.

2. In submitting these documents, I beg to state that, on the 22nd ultimo, I called upon Mr. Carroll to furnish me with an inventory of the whole of the stores under his charge at the station; and that in reply, he forwarded a statement shewing that there were only 20 filled beds, 24 bed-ticks, and 18 blankets, either in store or in use.

Copy herewith,
25 September,
1868.

3. Having my suspicions that a large quantity of ships' bedding, which should have been destroyed, in accordance with the usual instructions of the Health Officer, on the release of each vessel from quarantine, was deposited in one of the buildings at the station, I communicated in the meantime with the Inspector General of Police, for the purpose of ascertaining, through the police, whether such was the fact; and having received from that officer a report from Sergeant Harris, in charge of the Police Guard at the Quarantine Station, confirming my suspicions, simultaneously with Mr. Carroll's inventory, I was enabled to compare the two statements; and finding such a great discrepancy between them, I requested Mr. Carroll to furnish me with an immediate explanation on the subject. He accordingly did so; but as his answer to my communication contains a direct contradiction of the report of the Police Sergeant, and I do not consider it satisfactory, I think it my duty to bring the whole circumstances under the notice of the Secretary for Finance and Trade, in order that the matter may be fully investigated.

Sir,

I beg to request that you will furnish, for the information of this Department, not later than Saturday next, the 26th instant, a complete inventory of the whole of the stores in your charge at the Quarantine Station.

2. To enable you to forward the required information in a clear and concise form, I enclose herewith a form of requisition which has been adopted for the purpose, by the alteration of some of the headings and the erasure of others; and in case the one form should not be sufficient, you may include the articles in a continuation of the inventory on the forms which accompany it. The list is, of course, to embrace such articles as earthenware, tinware, ironmongery, stationery, bed-ticks, filled beds, pillow-slips, tables, chairs, and other furniture, coal, candles, soap, but not medical comforts.

The information is principally required for the purpose of ascertaining what is "serviceable" or "unserviceable," and determining whether any additions should be made to the stock at present on hand; so it is desirable that you should be very particular in correctly filling up the column in the accompanying form headed "Quantities of each article actually in possession."

Sir,

Adverting to my letter to you of the 22nd instant, requesting that you would forward to this Department, a complete inventory of the whole of the stores under your charge at the Quarantine Station, and to your reply thereto of the 26th idem, in which you enclose an inventory purporting to contain the required information,—I beg to inform you that, from the document in question, it would appear only twenty filled beds, twenty-four bed-ticks, and eighteen blankets, are in store or in use at the station, whereas I am fully aware that a large quantity of beds, pillows, &c., are deposited in one of the buildings; and as the statement made by you in the inventory transmitted to this office is therefore incorrect, I have to request that you will furnish me immediately with such explanation as you may deem necessary to offer on the subject, to enable me to decide whether the matter should not be brought under the notice of the Honorable the Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Sir,

In answer to your letter of the 29th instant, I beg leave to state distinctly that the inventory furnished by me to you on the 26th instant was correct in every respect, with the exception of twelve blankets which the six policemen have, and which I forgot to mention at the time, and also thirteen pillow slips which I forgot in the hurry.

As to my having a larger quantity of beds, pillows, &c., deposited in one of the buildings, I defy any person to prove it, as I only use one building for the purpose of holding the bedding, &c., and you can have access to and inspect the whole of the buildings at any time you choose. I most respectfully beg to state that I think it very hard that I should be accused of anything of the kind, after nearly twenty-nine years' faithful service, without having any accusers, which I most respectfully request you will inform me.

No. 3.

THE AGENT FOR IMMIGRATION to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

[Very urgent.]

Government Immigration Office,
Sydney, 3rd October, 1868.

SIR,

Having, in accordance with the instructions of the Honorable the Secretary for Finance and Trade, as conveyed to me under your blank cover of the 2nd instant, immediately communicated with the Inspector General of Police, I proceeded yesterday with Mr. Fosbery, for the purpose of making inquiry relative to the statements made by Mr. John Carroll, the Overseer of Stores, and Sergeant Harris, in charge of the Police Guard at the Quarantine Station, as to a large quantity of bedding alleged to be deposited in one of the buildings at the station, in addition to that reported by the former officer to be actually on hand. The Health Officer being absent on duty, was unable to accompany us; and as the matter to be inquired into was one of such importance, we deemed it advisable to go to the Quarantine Station without him.

2. Before reaching Spring Cove, I received a letter from Mr. Carroll, forwarded as a further reply to my communication to him of the 29th instant, respecting the bedding stated to be deposited in one of the buildings at the station, and of which no account had been hitherto received from him. Upon arriving at the Quarantine Station, I directed Mr. Carroll to shew us the building in which the bedding alluded to in his last letter was placed; and having visited it, we were at once satisfied that the statement of Sergeant Harris was substantially correct, as we saw there a large number of beds filled with flock, pillows, and rugs—evidently just as they had been landed from the ship.

October 1st, 1868.
(Enclosure No. 1.)

3. We then took down in writing the statements of Mr. Carroll, and of Alfred Sly and John Dunkeur, the boatmen—the two latter being examined in the presence of Mr. Carroll; and as those statements speak for themselves, I have the honor to forward copies of them without any comment, for the information of the Secretary for Finance and Trade.

Herewith—(Enclosures Nos. 2, and 4.)

I have, &c.,
GEORGE F. WISE,
Agent for Immigration.

[First enclosure to No. 3.]

The Superintendent, Quarantine Station, to The Agent for Immigration.

Quarantine Station,
Spring Cove, 1st October, 1868.

Sir,

In answer to your letter of the 29th ultimo, where you refer to a large quantity of beds and pillows, &c., being deposited in one of the buildings, I beg to inform you that the beds, pillows, &c., belonging to the single women are in one of the buildings, as I had not time to see them burnt; and not considering them as stores, I did not return them in my inventory of stores on the 26th ultimo, as they are to be burnt.

I did not think of those beds and pillows, &c., at the time, or I should have mentioned them in my letter of yesterday (the 30th ultimo). I would recommend that what is good and clean of those beds, &c., might be selected and kept in store, as it would save the Government some expense.

I hope that this explanation will satisfy you, as I assure you that there was no intention on my part to conceal anything from you.

I have, &c.,
JOHN CARROLL,
Superintendent.

[Second enclosure to No. 3.]

Mr. John Carroll, producing certain bedding (about 200 beds complete) from the "Devonport," which he retained in the building it now is, for the purpose of selecting any of the most serviceable for future use of persons placed in quarantine. The "Devonport" was released from quarantine early in August; he believes that Dr. Sanger gave a certificate that the bedding had actually been destroyed, and that the certificate was forwarded to the Health Officer; considers he has a discretion as to reserving portion of the bedding for subsequent use—the Health Officer has frequently given authority verbally to do this; no portion of this bedding, or any of a similar description, has ever been otherwise disposed of; it is either destroyed or retained for Government use; did not consider the ship's bedding as stores, and therefore omitted it from the inventory, dated the 26th September; the bedding was not destroyed, from want of time for the purpose; about twenty beds, used by immigrants detained longer in quarantine from "Devonport," were destroyed when they left, and so certified by Dr. Smithwick, his certificate being forwarded to the Health Officer; does not record when bedding is destroyed or the quantities retained.

JOHN CARROLL.

Taken before us, this 2nd day of October, 1868,—

GEORGE F. WISE.
EDMUND FOSBERY.

[Third enclosure to No. 3.]

Alfred Sly, Government boatman: Has seen Government immigrants' bedding burnt; knew some single women's bedding from the "Devonport" was placed in a building on the station; have known such bedding taken for use in the hospital, but not any of that referred to from the "Devonport"; have known bedding taken from the Quarantine Station, in a boat, in charge of a man named Warrington, a Manly Beach waterman; think it was some time this year; it was ship's bedding so sent away; it was handed over to Warrington by Mr. Carroll; I helped to put it in the boat; have known such a thing to take place more than once; cannot say how often; John Dunkeur assisted to put the bedding in the boat; he is in attendance here.

ALFRED SLY.

Taken before us, this 2nd day of October, 1868,—

GEORGE F. WISE.
EDMUND FOSBERY.

Alfred Sly, recalled, states: When the bedding went up to Sydney one time in Warrington's boat, I went with it and Wm. Mildwater to Woolloomooloo; cannot say what was done with bedding conveyed; this was near day-break; at other times, after Warrington's boat left, Mr. Carroll and I followed in the Government boat with Dunkeur.

ALFRED SLY.

Taken before us, this 2nd October, 1868,—

GEORGE F. WISE.
EDMUND FOSBERY.

[Fourth enclosure to No. 3.]

John Dunckeur, watchman and boatman in Government employ: Have never seen immigrants' bedding burnt, except once; one or two beds belonging to patients from "Devonport"; helped to take some bedding to the single women's quarters; have known bedding to be sent away from the Station; have helped to put such bedding on a boat from Manly, belonging to a man named Warrington; was acting under Mr. Carroll's directions, who was present at the wharf; this has been done more than once—perhaps two or three times; this was early in the morning, before daylight; have been in employment about twenty months; this has occurred whenever ships came into quarantine; believes four ships have been in during the twenty months; Warrington's boat took bedding each time; Warrington was in the boat every time but once; Mr. Carroll sent me twice to help to pull the boat to Sydney—once to Woolloomooloo Wharf, once to Erskine-street; the bedding was taken away from the wharves in vehicles; I saw no names on them; arrived about break of day—6 o'clock or earlier; sometimes van was waiting.

JOHN DUNCKEUR.

TREASURER'S MINUTE ON NO. 3.

As I have not yet had the opinion of Dr. Alleyne, the immediate head of the Department, in this matter, I now desire to be furnished with it, before taking final action. G. E.—5/10/68.

No. 5.

THE HEALTH OFFICER'S REPLY.

Mr. Carroll's verbal explanation to me yesterday, in reference to the beds which have been disposed of by him, is, that in cases where the bedding has not been ordered to be destroyed, he thought that he had a right to accept it as a gift from the immigrants, and to dispose of it for his own benefit. I think that there are obvious reasons why such a practice should not be permitted. H.G.A.—6/10/68.

THE TREASURER'S DECISION.

There are sufficient grounds here for the suspension of Mr. Carroll, pending further inquiry. I direct the Health Officer to notify the fact of such suspension to Carroll; and to make immediate arrangements for the temporary performance of his duty. G.E.—6/10/68.

SIR,

Documents herewith enclosed.

In returning to you the documents having reference to charges against the Overseer of Stores at the Quarantine Station, I do myself the honor to report that, on the receipt of the Minute of the Honorable the Treasurer, I immediately proceeded to the Quarantine Station, and notified to Mr. Carroll his suspension from office.

I, at the same time, placed Mr. Walsh in temporary charge, and I enclose here-with a copy of the letter that I addressed to him on the subject.

The Health Officer to The Surgeon Superintendent, Quarantine Station.

Sydney, 6th October, 1868.

Sir,

Having been directed by the Honorable the Minister for Finance and Trade to make arrangements for the temporary discharge of the duties of Overseer of Stores and Superintendent at the Quarantine Station, Spring Cove, I do myself the honor to request that you will undertake those duties during the suspension of Mr. Carroll from his office.

I have instructed Mr. Carroll to hand over to you all of the Government stores, books, &c., in his charge.

I enclose you a memorandum which adverts to all the points to which I think it necessary at present to direct your attention, and which will be a guide to you in the performance of your duties.

No. 8.

THE SUPERINTENDENT, QUARANTINE STATION, to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Quarantine Station,
Spring Cove, 8th October, 1868.

SIR,

I beg to inform you that I considered the immigrants' bedding as private property, and I did not think that I was doing anything wrong in accepting the beds from the immigrants when there was no sickness on board of the ship, as my orders from the Health Officer were to burn only beds from ships that had sickness on board, as vessels are repeatedly placed in quarantine for the period of three days, merely to wash their clothes, &c.; and I also had permission from Captain Brown, late Immigration Agent, to dispose of such beds as I pleased.

I beg most distinctly to state, that I never sent any beds to Sydney from an infected ship; and as to my sending the beds up to Sydney by night, I beg to state that I never did so before 5 o'clock in the morning; and my reason for doing so, was, that I wished to get back as quickly as possible, for fear of any ship being placed in quarantine.

As to my denial of having sent any beds to Sydney, I stated to Messrs. Fosbery and Wise, in the confusion, that I did not do so, and having a wish to correct myself, I requested Mr. Fosbery to allow me to do so; when he advised me to reserve whatever I had to say until called upon by the Government.

With regard to the return of stores, which I forwarded to the Immigration Agent, in omitting the bedding found by him in one of the buildings, I never considered them as Government Stores.

I had given orders to the men that same morning to burn them.

The Quarantine Laws have always been strictly complied with, and in no case whatever infringed upon.

I request that you will have the goodness to lay this letter before the Honorable the Secretary for Finance and Trade, as I consider it very hard that I should be deprived of the means of supporting my large family of (12) twelve children, after nearly (27) twenty-seven years' faithful service to the Government.

I have, &c.,

JOHN CARROLL.

TREASURER'S MINUTE.

FROM what ships were these beds landed, and are they Government property?

No. 10.

THE AGENT FOR IMMIGRATION to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Government Immigration Office,
Sydney, 13th October, 1868.

SIR,

In accordance with the instructions of the Honorable the Secretary for Finance and Trade, as communicated to me under your blank cover of the 9th instant,—I have the honor to state that the ship's bedding, retained by Mr. Carroll in one of the buildings at the Quarantine Station, consisted of about two hundred immigrants' beds, complete, which had been landed from the ship "Devonport," and was the property of the Government.

2. In his letter to me of the 30th ultimo, in reply to mine of the 29th idem, pointing out the incorrectness of an inventory of stores forwarded by him to this Department, Mr. Carroll states as follows:—"As to my having a larger quantity of beds, pillows, &c., deposited in one of the buildings, I defy any person to prove it, as I only use one building for the purpose of holding the bedding, &c., and you can have access to and inspect the whole of the buildings at any time you choose." And in a further letter, on the following day, with reference to the same communication, he says:—"I beg to inform you that the beds, pillows, &c., belonging to the single women, are in one of the buildings, as I had not time to see them burnt, and not considering them as stores, I did not return them in my inventory of stores on the 26th ultimo, as they are to be burnt." In the evidence given by Mr. Carroll before Mr. Fosbery and myself on the 2nd instant, he stated that "no portion of this bedding, or any of a similar description, has ever been otherwise disposed of—it is either destroyed, or retained for Government use," and that "he did not consider the ship's bedding as stores, and therefore omitted it from the inventory dated the 26th September."

3. From the several statements above alluded to, it will be seen that Mr. Carroll, in the first place, when informed of the omission in his inventory, distinctly denied that he had any bedding in his possession beyond the quantity already reported, with the exception exception of a few blankets, &c., in use at the Station, while in his second letter he admitted having in one of the buildings a large quantity of single women's bedding from the "Devonport," and endeavoured to excuse himself by saying that he had not included it in his inventory, as he did not consider it as coming under the denomination of stores, and as it was intended to be burned, thereby admitting that his duty was to have it destroyed; and this is further shewn by his subsequent statement to the effect that no bedding of a similar description had ever been otherwise disposed of, it being either destroyed, or retained for Government use.

4. The evidence of the two boat and watch men employed at the Quarantine Station is, however, directly contrary to these statements, as their testimony clearly proves that on several occasions bedding landed from immigrant ships in a similar manner has been surreptitiously removed from the Station, and would appear to have been disposed of by Mr. Carroll, without the authority of this Department.

5. In making this report, I may observe that I regret it has become my duty to bring this unpleasant matter under the notice of the Honorable the Treasurer, in the case of an officer of Mr. Carroll's long standing in the Public Service; but under the circumstances, I feel that no other course could have been adopted.

I have, &c.,
GEORGE F. WISE,
 Agent for Immigration.

TREASURER'S MINUTE.

In enclosure No. 2, to Paper, Treasury 6,041, of 5 Oct., 1868, Mr. Carroll states,—“The 'Devonport' was released from quarantine early in August; he believes that Dr. Sangar gave a certificate that the bedding had actually been destroyed, and that the certificate was forwarded to the Health Officer.”

Would Dr. Alleyne be good enough to say if the above statements are correct?

HEALTH OFFICER'S REPLY.

Mr. Carroll is in error. The bedding referred to in his statement was that used by the single women, and when it was sent on shore at the Quarantine Station, on the day of the arrival of the ship, or on the following day, it passed from the charge of Dr. Sangar to the charge of Mr. Carroll. Dr. Sangar's certificate refers only to the bedding of the married people and single men, who remained on board of the ship, under his care.—H. G. ALLEYNE.—14/10/68.

No. 14.

THE HEALTH OFFICER to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Sydney, 16th November, 1868.

SIR,

Having perused the papers relating to the suspension of Mr. Carroll, which were referred to me for "further inquiry and report," I do myself the honor to inform you that I called on Mr. Carroll for any further explanation or communication he might have to make on the subject, and I enclose herewith the letter I received from him.

The fact of the disposal of the beds in the manner charged against him having been admitted by Mr. Carroll, it appears to me that the only point for further consideration is, the justification he offers by the permission to do so, which he alleges was granted to him by Mr. Browne and Mr. Shadforth, when those gentlemen held the office of Immigration Agent.

I have no means of ascertaining the fact of any such permission having been granted; but if the Honorable the Minister for Finance and Trade sees no reason to doubt Mr. Carroll's statement that such was the case, Mr. Carroll would be to a certain extent relieved from the charge of having surreptitiously disposed of property placed in his care, and may be excused in some degree for having indulged in a practice which should not be permitted on any grounds whatever.

I believe, however, that in the cases referred to, Mr. Carroll acted up to the instructions he received in the matters regarding the quarantine of the vessels, and that in all the cases in which beds or other articles were ordered to be destroyed on account of cases of contagious sickness having been on board of the vessels from which they were landed, they were burned; and that Mr. Carroll did, as he affirms, effectually carry out the directions that he received for the due performance of the Quarantine Laws.

I have, &c.,
H. G. ALLEYNE, M.D.,
Health Officer.

[Enclosure to No. 14.]

Mr. Jno. Carroll to The Health Officer, Sydney.

Quarantine Station, Spring Cove,
9th November, 1868.

Sir,

Having omitted, in my letter of the 7th ultimo, to the Under Secretary for Finance and Trade, to say that I had permission from Mr. Shadforth, who succeeded Mr. Browne as Immigration Agent, to dispose of the bedding as I pleased, when there was no sickness on board of the ship, and as I have now been suspended for nearly five weeks, without any salary or means of support for my family, after my long service, I hope the Government will take a favourable view of my case; and as I have been under your orders for a number of years, and I believe at all times gave you satisfaction, I hope you will use your interest on my behalf, and forward this letter to the Under Secretary for Finance and Trade.

I have, &c.,
JNO. CARROLL.

No. 15.

A. G. SHADFORTH, Esq., to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Sydney, 18 November, 1868.

MY DEAR SIR,

Carroll, the Superintendent at the Quarantine Station, has been with me in reference to certain charges of having improperly disposed of some bedding which came into his hands, from immigrant vessels, and states that Capt. Browne and I authorized his so doing in cases of ships arriving here with "clean bills of health."

At this distance of time I have no distinct recollection of giving express sanction to this course; but as, under the Immigration Regulations, this bedding became the property of the immigrants (except in cases of misconduct) upon arrival here, there is great probability of his statement being so far correct, as that I may not have objected to his having at his disposal such articles of the immigrants as they did not consider it worth their while to remove from the vessels.

I write this to you at Carroll's request.

I am, &c.,
A. G. SHADFORTH.

No. 16.

TREASURER'S DECISION.

The Treasury, New South Wales,
20th November, 1868.

HAVING carefully considered this matter, I am of opinion that Mr. Carroll's suspension ought to be removed, and I therefore direct that he return to his duties. I am inclined to believe his statement that he had leave from former Immigration Agents to sell the bedding, &c., of immigrants released from quarantine, from ships not infected by disease, as I find by the Commissioner's Instructions to Surgeons Superintendent of Emigrant Ships, "that the bedding, &c., provided for emigrants, are to be given to them, if they behave well on the voyage." These articles, therefore, can hardly be considered Government stores.

I cannot, however, acquit Mr. Carroll from blame, as he ought to have had the sanction of his present superior Officer before accepting the bedding as a gift from the immigrants, and selling it for his own profit. I agree with the Health Officer that it is a practice that ought not to be permitted, and I forbid that it be followed for the future.

S. S.

Health Officer—who will carry out the Minister's instructions in this matter—

*Extract from Instructions to Surgeons Superintendent of Government Emigrant Ships,
No. 8, page 40.*

"THE emigrants are provided by the Commissioners with new mattresses, bolsters, blankets, and counterpanes, and with canvas bags to contain one month's linen, &c.; also, with a knife and fork, two spoons, a metal plate, and a drinking mug; the whole of which articles, including the bedding, are to be given to the emigrants after arrival in the Colony, provided they behave well on the voyage."

No. 18.

THE HEALTH OFFICER to THE UNDER SECRETARY FOR FINANCE AND TRADE.

Sydney, 9 February, 1869.

SIR,

Adverting to that portion of the Resolution of the Legislative Assembly, calling for the papers in the case of Mr. Carroll, Overseer of the Quarantine Station, Spring Cove, which requires the production of copies of all certificates given in reference to the "infected (?) bedding" of the immigrant ship "Devonport:" I beg to enclose, herewith, copies (1) of the statement of the Surgeon of the vessel, as to the health of those on board; and (2) my report and recommendation thereon.

I may add that, on the immigrants being landed from the "Devonport," I found that there were three of them dangerously ill, and that the greater number of the single women were in a very feeble and unsatisfactory state of health. The illness, however, was not of an infectious or contagious kind, but entirely the result of a very long voyage in a wet and damp ship, which had encountered much bad weather during the passage from Plymouth to this port.

I have, &c.,

H. G. ALLEYNE, M.D.,
Health Officer.

[First enclosure to No. 18.]

The Surgeon of the "Devonport's," statement.

"There have not been any cases of small-pox, or of any other kind of contagious or infectious disease, on board, during the voyage. There have been five deaths: four from pulmonary affections; one from constipation of the bowels; and there are two cases of chronic disease on board."

[Second enclosure to No. 18.]

The Health Officer's report.

"The 'Devonport' is detained in quarantine, under the usual regulations respecting Government immigration ships; but I recommend that she may be released as soon as the people have finished washing their clothes, &c.

"As the Surgeon of the ship has been confined to his bed for the last thirty days, and is quite disqualified for performing his duties, I immediately engaged Doctor Smithwick, and sent him down to the Quarantine Station, to take charge of the people until they have been disposed of; and I hope that the Honorable the Treasurer will approve of this measure, as, in consequence of the number of children on board, and of several of the women being near their accouchement, the constant presence of a Surgeon on board would have been necessary, even if the ship had not been detained in quarantine. Doctor Smithwick has been engaged on the usual terms.

"If the Treasurer approves, the pilot may be permitted to leave the ship, and return to his duties at Watson's Bay, without detriment to the public health."

July 31, /68.

H. G. ALLEYNE,
Health Officer.

Two valuable institutions appear in the return, for the first time this year—the Nautical School Ship “Vernon,” and the Industrial School for Girls at Newcastle. These schools have been established with a view to impart to those depraved and evil-disposed children who have no fixed place of abode, but wander about the streets and thoroughfares of the Colony, such an instruction as may render them eventually useful members of society, instead of placing them, as heretofore, amongst the lowest of criminals who infest our gaols, which only tended still further to lead them into evil doings.

The Nautical School Ship “Vernon” received on board 62 boys, and the Industrial School at Newcastle received 45 girls, making in all 107 children.

The cost of the “Vernon,” including payment for vessel and fittings, amounted to £13,422 9s. 2d., and the expenditure for the Girls’ School amounted to £2,704 19s. 7d.; in all, £16,127 8s. 9d.

Pages 34 and 36.

The Commitments for Trial fell from 1,255 in 1866 to 1,180 in 1867, the difference being 75 committals, or 0·304 per 1,000 of the population in favour of the latter period.

STATISTICAL REGISTER, 1867—REPORT.

218 cases were tried in the Supreme and Circuit Courts, and 484 cases in the Courts of Quarter Sessions.

SUMMARY JURISDICTION.

The Police brought to justice during the year 12,423 males Page 39. and 3,698 females, in all 16,121, or 117 in excess of the year 1866.

The charges brought against them were—

	1866.		1867.
	M.	F.	M.	F.
Offences against the Person...	4,990	2,242	4,785	1,879

Totals.....	12,194	3,810	12,423	3,698
Together .....	16,004		16,121

Both Offences against the Person and Property shew a remarkable decrease, but Drunkenness shews an unmistakeable increase of 1,586 cases. This increase, must be attributed, however, to the fact, that previous to the passing of the Drunkard's Punishment Act of 1866 (30 Victoria, No. 5, assented to 24th September), these offenders escaped conviction and punishment, unless the Police were able to bring home to them charges such as riotous conduct, vagrancy, &c.

The apprehensions bore the following ratio to the population since 1860 :—

1860 .....	1	in	17
1861 .....	1	„	21

These returns do not include the Overland traffic, as directions Cause of discontinuance of Returns of Imports and Exports Overland. were given to the Customs Officers to discontinue keeping an account of the Imports and Exports via the River Murray, from the date of the Border Treaty—namely, 12th January, 1867. Were the returns furnished as heretofore the gross results of the year's transactions, above indicated, would be considerably augmented.

SHIPPING.

As with the returns of Imports and Exports, so with the shipping, a corresponding decrease will be observed. Page 100.

The Arrivals decreased from 2,099 vessels, of a burden of 730,354 tons in 1866, to 1,868 vessels, of 646,970 tons measurement in 1867; of these there came from—

MILLS AND MANUFACTORIES.

MILLS.

Manufactories, Works, &c., shew a decrease of 115. The number in 1867 was 2,274, and 2,389 in 1866. Six years ago the Colony numbered 859 only.

Woollens.

Woollens.—Of late years there appears to have been a greater demand for Colonial Tweed, which for durability is scarcely equalled. 175,348 yards of Woollens were manufactured in 1867, against 172,720 yards in 1866 and 145,707 yards in 1865. The three year's manufactures amounted to 493,775 yards, or 208,605 yards more than the previous triennial period.

Soap

Soap and Candles.—The quantity of Soap manufactured was 77,773 cwt. in 1867, and 68,456 cwt. in 1866—the increase being 9,317 cwt. 26,206 cwt. of Candles were manufactured in 1867, or 2,866 cwt. in excess of 1866. Soap and Candles. Page 110.

30 establishments were in operation or 1 less than the former year.

Tobacco.—But slow progress appears to be made in the manufacture of this article. Tobacco. Page 111.

Tallow and Lard.—36,154 cwt. of Tallow was produced against 39,416 cwt. in 1866. Tallow and Lard. Page 112.

The quantity of Lard produced was 2,352 lbs., or 3,932 lbs less than the produce of the year 1866.

54,862 sheep and 3,842 cattle were slaughtered in 1867 for boiling-down purposes, and in 1866, 2,868 horned cattle only; 358 pigs were killed, against 1,026 in 1866.

A large quantity of the tallow produced is from the refuse from butchers' shops in the Metropolitan District.

There were 40 boiling-down establishments, or 5 less than the number stated in the return for 1866. Boiling-down Establishments.

PRODUCTION.

The Branch Royal Mint received by escort from our Gold Fields 222,715 ozs., of the value of £863,797, apportioned as follows:— GOLD RECEIVED BY ESCORT. Page 116.

Western .....	134,448	521,963
Southern .....	68,941	267,858

The receipts, compared with 1866, shew a falling off of 18,774 ozs., of the value of £64,478.

The gold averaged £3 17s. 6d. per oz.

The number of Miner's Rights issued was 13,534, and in 1866, 13,905. Miner's Rights. page 227.

YIELD OF GOLD.

The quantity of Gold received into the Mint for coinage, and the raw material which has passed through the Customs for exportation, together, will give a pretty fair idea of the state of our Gold Fields; with this view I append the following table, embracing three years—from which it will be observed that the yield of the precious ore has considerably fallen off:—

Average wages of Miners.

If the productions of the Gold Fields, as above stated, were equally distributed amongst the Miners, their wages would average, in 1865, £86 12s. 4d. per annum; in 1866, £72 7s. 1d. per annum; and in 1867, £67 4s. 5d. per annum.

COAL MINES.

Coal.

770,012 tons were raised at the Mines, or 4,226 tons less than the operations of last year.

The value of the Coal raised amounted to £342,655, or £18,606 in excess of 1866, the price placed thereon being at a higher rate.

Coal Exported.

The Potato crop covered 15,440 acres against 18,809 $\frac{3}{4}$  acres the year previous; the falling off is 3,369 $\frac{3}{4}$  acres, or 17·91 per cent. Potatoes.

The produce was 33,482 $\frac{1}{2}$  tons against 43,869 $\frac{1}{2}$  tons the year before; this shews a decrease of 10,387 tons, or 23·68 per cent.

In the year 1862–3, an important addition was made to the returns by the cultivation of Cotton; the following year another valuable addition was made to the Colony's productions by the growing of Sugar Cane; and this year the novel feature of Rice-growing has introduced itself. On the Paterson, in the County of Durham, 7 acres were planted, and produced 7,000 lbs., or an average of 1,000 lbs. to the acre. Half an acre also was planted in the District of Wellingrove, but no produce was given in the returns furnished by the Collectors. Rice.

626 $\frac{3}{4}$  acres were planted with Tobacco, and in 1866–7, 1,326 $\frac{1}{4}$  acres; although a decrease of 699 $\frac{1}{2}$  acres is to be observed in the acreage under crop, it is satisfactory to find a large increase of 3,557 $\frac{1}{4}$  cwt. in the produce, viz., 6,035 cwt., against 2,477 $\frac{3}{4}$  cwt. the year previous. Tobacco.

Hay covered 74,346 acres, or 396 $\frac{3}{4}$  acres less than the previous period; the produce weighed 91,869 $\frac{3}{4}$  tons, or 26,140 $\frac{1}{4}$  tons less than 1866–7. Hay.

From the returns at hand it appears that Horses, Sheep,* and Pigs shew an increase, whilst the number of Horned Cattle depasturing in the Colony has fallen off, viz. :—

Having now waded through a mass of figures contained in the Statistical Register, which the public are at all times loath to undertake, with a view of assisting those inquirers who have at heart an interest in the Colony's welfare, it is to be hoped that nothing of importance has escaped my notice ; if so, I have only to direct attention to the tables themselves, which have been so carefully prepared as to afford in a concise form the results of the year's labours.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

VITAL STATISTICS.

THE REGISTRAR GENERAL to THE HONORABLE THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,

TRANSMITTING ABSTRACTS OF

MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, AND DEATHS,

FOR THE YEAR 1867, WITH PREFATORY REPORT.

Registrar General's Office,
Sydney, 25 August, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit to you my Report on the results of Registration in the year 1867.

33,800 additional names were inscribed on the registers of the Colony during the period referred to. At the termination of the year, the Registration Act, 19 Vic., No. 34, had been in operation nearly thirteen years; and the aggregate number of names entered on the records of persons who had been married, of those who had died, and of children born, then represented the accumulated product of 329,184. Progress of registration.

The success of the working of the Registration Act, like that of any other measure, must of course rest, to an extent that it would be difficult to overestimate, upon the facilities afforded to the public for complying with its provisions, the character and qualifications of the officers to whom it is intrusted, and upon the desire of the Legislature to give effect to such amendments in the law as experience may suggest.

In my Report covering the Tables for the year 1866, I endeavoured concisely to point out the necessity of divisional changes in the Registration Districts, and of further, as well as more direct supervision over the large number of offices established under the Act throughout the Colony. A high appreciation of the advantages of the system prompts me to refer to those recommendations, in the hope that they may be considered worthy of attention on the part of the Government, and that their recognition may eventuate in the introduction of an amended Registration Bill during the next Session of Parliament. In reference to this subject, I may perhaps be permitted to remark, that it has been found requisite to appoint Inspecting Officers over the Branch Post Offices and Educational Establishments scattered over the country, to enforce the regulations of those Departments, and to act as a check upon irregularities, how much more important does it appear that the strictest scrutiny should be exercised, by properly constituted officers over the District Registry Offices—the depositories of those proofs which bear upon Necessity for further supervision.

the right of legal succession to property, in which every individual in the community is more or less interested. The perfecting of the registration system, by every means within the power of the Government, viewed from whatever point it may be, is calculated to achieve results of the highest importance to the Colony, and, as a consequence, to all those bound up in its welfare.

Results of year's registrations.

The Statistical Abstracts shew that, during the year, 6,852 persons were married, that 18,317 births were recorded, and that 8,631 deaths were registered.

Population.

The natural increase of population for the year ended 31st December last, calculated upon the excess of births over deaths, was 9,686, which added to the number of arrivals over departures seaward (6,522), shews the estimated population of the Colony, upon the date referred to, to have been 447,622, or 248,517 males to 199,105 females; the net increase to the numbers of the people for the twelve months being 16,208.

Census.

These figures, however, as I have on other occasions observed, are but an approximation, and can only be rectified upon the results of a Census being known. When, therefore, it is considered that a correct enumeration of the population forms the basis of administrative measures, as well as of almost every statistical comparison, whether as relating to the affairs of State, commercial enterprise, or, the social condition of the people, the value of a periodical Census cannot be overestimated.

Marriage, birth, and death rates.

The marriages in 1867 were 36 less than those recorded in 1866, and 152 below the number registered in 1865.

The births were 1,367 in excess of those entered on the registers in 1866.

The deaths exhibited an increase of 1,270 over those which occurred in the previous year.

The rate of marriages on estimated population was therefore 0·76 to every hundred persons living; of births, 4·09; and of deaths, 1·93.

Probable cause of decline in marriage rate.

It might, perhaps, be hazardous to assign a specific cause for this decline in the marriage rate. There are many influences, no doubt, bearing upon the social structure of the community which might, with substantial reasoning, be advanced to account for this retrogressive feature. It may be that the laws of habit and convenience operate as the controlling power, more than that frequently accepted criterion—the prosperity or depression of trade. Disproportion in the sexes is another element which should not be overlooked—the males largely predominating. A reference to the Census of 1861 will shew that there were 105,398 males at marriageable ages, to 77,014 females of the same class, leaving 28,384 of the former, or at least a very large proportion of them, we assume, “involuntary bachelors.”

The birth-rate, it is satisfactory to state, is progressive.

Increase in the number of deaths.

As regards the comparatively large increase in the number of deaths in 1867, it may principally be attributed to the measles epidemic, which passed through the Colony in the early part of the year, and was particularly fatal among children resident in the metropolitan division.

Suggested amendment of Marriage Act, 19 Vict., No. 30.

The necessity of an amended Marriage Law has on several occasions been brought under notice in the Annual Reports from this Department; and in view of the urgency of the measure to check clandestine marriages, as well as for statistical purposes, I have appended a Draft Bill for the consideration of the Government, with such provisions as appear to me to be required to cure the evils complained of.

Registration Act, 19 Vic., No. 34.

In reference to the Registration Act, 19 Vict., No. 34, so many amendments are found to be necessary, that I am compelled to suggest its repeal during the next Session of the Legislature, and the introduction of a Bill in its stead, framed upon the experience acquired in working out the registration system.

Table A exhibits the numbers of Marriages, Births, and Deaths registered in each quarter of the year, in Sydney, the Suburbs, and Country Districts.

MARRIAGES.

The number of marriages celebrated during the year 1867 was 3,426, being, as Comparison with previous year. previously stated, 36 less than those registered in 1866.

Of these marriages, there were performed—

A comparison of the number of marriages solemnized by each denomination, in the years 1866 and 1867, and by the District Registrars without the religious ceremony, is shewn in the following tabular statement :—

In proportion to the estimated population, the marriages in Sydney were in the ratio of 15·70 per 1,000 living; in the Suburbs, 5·42; in the Country Districts, 6·47; and in the Colony, 7·80,—with the exception of the Suburbs, a less rate than in any year during the past decennial period.

The Church of England solemnized fewer marriages in 1867 (832) than in any year since 1857. The Roman Catholics shewed the highest number during the past year. The Congregationalist, German Evangelical, Unitarian, and Free Church of England, an increase on the previous year. The marriages by District Registrars were 22 less than in 1866.

Educational test of persons
marrying.

The efforts which are now being made to extend the benefits of elementary education will in due time bear an abundant harvest of good results, and should stimulate us to increased exertion to rescue the rising generation from the ignorance in which so many thousands are steeped, so that the intelligence of the population may manifest itself by the extinction of the mark-signature which now disfigures the marriage registers. In the year 1858, 2,992 marriages were recorded, to which 1,240 persons affixed their marks; in 1867, with 3,426 marriages, 1,291 persons exhibited their deficiency in the rudimentary art of writing,—an appreciable improvement, however, which it is satisfactory to note.

Double
marriages.

There were four double marriages during the year 1867—three between Church of England and Roman Catholic, and one Church of England with Free Church of England.

Decennial table of marriages by each sect.

The usual decennial return of the number of marriages celebrated in the Colony by each denomination is appended, for comparative purposes.

BIRTHS.

The names of 18,317 children were inscribed on the registers of births during the year 1867—a number exceeding by 4,515 those recorded in 1858. The ratio of increase was 41·73 to every 1,000 of the estimated population.

Proportion of each sex.

Of the births registered, 9,357 were male, and 8,960 were female children, being in the proportion of 104·43 males to every 100 females.

Arranged according to sexes, in the three principal divisions of the Colony, the following figures are brought out:—

	Males.	Females.	Total.
Sydney .....	1,309	1,299	2,608
Suburbs .....	1,168	1,121	2,289

Total .....	9,357	8,960	18,317

Number of births compared with 1866.

Compared with the year 1866, the registrations were, in—

	1866.	1867.	Increase.	Per cent.
Sydney .....	2,478	2,608	130	5·33
Suburbs .....	2,079	2,289	210	10·10

Total .....	16,950	18,317	1,367	8·07

The records shew no exception to the rule that the births registered in the second six months of the year exceed those in the first six months. In the March quarter, 4,204 births were entered on the registers; in the June quarter, 4,268; in the September, 5,034, always the most prolific; and in December quarter, 4,811.

Natural increase to population by births since 1858.

If there had been no influx of population from parts beyond the limits of the Colony, from the year 1858 to 1867, its natural growth within that period, derived from the excess of births over deaths, would have added 92,035 to its numerical strength—a population almost equal to that of the sister Colony of Tasmania, or of Queensland.

Ratio of births, 1858 to 1867.

The ratio of births to every 1,000 living, at the middle of each of the last ten years, was as follows, viz.:—

1858 .....	44·55
1859 .....	43·56
1860 .....	43·62
1861 .....	41·55
1862 .....	42·19
1863 .....	42·24
1864 .....	43·74
1865 .....	42·97
1866 .....	40·38
1867 .....	41·73

The past year's rate, therefore, was 1·35 per 1,000 higher than that of 1866, but 2·37 below the average of the nine years preceding it.

In 1867, the birth-rate of the City was 38·02 per 1,000; in the Suburbs, 48·26; and in the Country, 41·55.

Table

VITAL STATISTICS.

Table D, at foot, exhibits the number of births registered quarterly in the three divisions before mentioned, for the decennial period ended 31st December last.

The number of children born out of wedlock in 1867 was 670, viz.:—In Sydney, <sup>Illegitimates.</sup> 142, in the Suburbs, 65, and in the Country Districts, 463. This class of births was therefore, in the aggregate, 3·6 per cent. of the whole number born. As compared with England, where the average rate is 6·3, the result is favourable to the Colony. The proportion of illegitimates has, however, outstepped the growth of population during the last decade; for while the population in 1858, which was estimated at 309,790, with 13,802 births, gave 330 as the total number of children the offspring of illicit intercourse, the returns for 1867, with an approximate population of 438,943, and 18,317 births, shewed, as before stated, that 670 children were in the same category.

DEATHS.

Increase in the number of deaths.

The number of deaths recorded in the year 1867 was 8,631, viz. :—5,122 males, and 3,509 females; equal to 19·66 per 1,000 of the estimated population at the middle of the year; and, with the exception of 1860, when the influenza and measles were so fatal in the City and Suburbs, the highest death-rate since the organization of this department, in 1856: the average annual rate for the nine previous years being 17·49 per 1,000, or 2·17 below that for the year under review.

Mortality in City, Suburbs, and Country, compared with 1866.

The deaths in the City of Sydney, in 1867, exceeded by 549, or 6·94 per 1,000 living, those of 1866, affording painful evidence of the ravages of the measles epidemic which visited the Colony in the early part of last year.

In the Suburbs the mortality was higher than that of 1866, by 420, or 7·91 per 1,000 living, the death-rate being 29·22 per 1,000—the heaviest during the past ten years.

The number of deaths which occurred in the Country Districts was 301 above that in the previous year, or 0·25 per 1,000 living; but, as observed in the epidemics of 1860, the influence of the disease was trifling when compared with its virulence among the urban population.

Excessive number of deaths in March and June quarters.

In Sydney the proportion per cent. of deaths to the aggregate number recorded in 1867 was 24·92; in the Suburbs, 16·06; and in the Country Districts, 59·02.

Of the 1,380 deaths reported to have taken place in the City during the first half of 1867, 437 are attributed to measles; and, out of this number, 378 were children under five years of age, or 27·39 per cent. of the total number of deaths for the six months referred to; and in the Suburbs, out of 843 deaths, 603, or 71·53 per cent., were children.

Table G gives the number of Deaths registered quarterly in the City, Suburbs, and Country, for the past ten years.

The

Measles epidemic.

The measles first appeared at Balmain in the month of February, 1867; from thence it crossed the harbour, and attacked the residents in the thickly-populated parts along the water-side, where its intensity was greatest. It, however, quickly spread over other parts of the city, and extended to the suburbs during the month of March, in which 120 deaths were recorded in Sydney alone from this cause, besides twenty-seven in the environs. In April the disease had reached its height, 266 having succumbed to its deadly presence. Continuing its ravages in the following month, although with diminished fatality, it rapidly subsided in the months of June and July, and almost wholly disappeared in the month of August.

It is somewhat remarkable that, although the epidemic made Balmain the starting-point of its career, but three deaths are registered there as having resulted from measles either as a primary or secondary cause. Concord was wholly exempt. In the district of Newtown, but three deaths were attributed to the disease during the four or five months of its continuance; and in the district of St. George, which adjoins Newtown, twelve deaths were recorded. In the Glebe, thirty-five fatal cases occurred. Redfern and Botany numbered eighty-one deaths—the next highest to Sydney. In the district of Paddington, forty-nine deaths from the prevailing epidemic were entered on the register—the greater proportion of the mortality having taken place in the Destitute Children's Asylum at Randwick. St. Leonard's, on the North Shore, had fifteen deaths from the same cause.

During this visitation—that is, from the month of February to the end of June—the meteorological registrations at the Observatory gave the following results:—

	No. of Deaths.	Mn. Temp.	Mn. H. Barom.	Rain.		Ozone.
				Depth.	Days.
February .....	145	70·8	29·942	3·69 in.	13	4·0
March... ..	279	68·5	30·099	12·04 „	14	4·7
April .....	373	66·4	30·051	17·48 „	23	5·4
May .....	278	61·0	30·141	3·90 „	12	5·4
June .....	146	56·2	30·174	12·64 „	12	5·7

It is not within my province to advance an opinion, or to assign a probable cause as to the origin of this visitation during 1867—to add another, perhaps, to the many theories on the subject. I submit merely realities as to the mortality and atmospheric phenomena during the rigour of the disease; it is open to every medical practitioner or scientific inquirer to draw, from the data I have furnished, those conclusions which he may feel warranted by his own experience.

Measles most prevalent in certain localities.

Upon a careful examination of the death returns for the city, the following facts have been elicited:—From the month of February to the end of June, when the epidemic may be said to have prevailed, 437 deaths, as previously stated, occurred from that cause alone, 378 being children under five years, and 59 above that age; distributed through the several wards in the proportions given below:—

	Under 5 years.	Over 5 years.	Total.
Denisen Ward .....	71	12	83
Phillip „ .....	68	15	83
Gipps „ .....	64	8	72

Bourke „ .....	26	2	28
Macquarie „ .....	18	5	23
Total .....	378	59	437

Clearly

Clearly demonstrating that the disease was most virulent in its effects in those localities where the accumulations from the higher and other parts of the city were allowed to remain. The apparent equality in the numbers of deaths in Denison and Phillip Wards may be accounted for, as regards the latter, by the fatal cases of measles registered from the Benevolent Asylum having been included. Gipps Ward, also bordering on the harbour, and contiguous to Denison Ward, shews the next highest death-rate, and is a further proof that much of the excessive sickness in those portions of Sydney may unquestionably be set down to the bad drainage, and the want of a proper and efficient system of flushing the streets, and removing those nuisances which in themselves are a prolific source of disease and death. Fitzroy Ward, although much has been done in its sanitary arrangements during the last few years, is still open to much improvement. These opinions are borne out by the fact that Bourke and Macquarie Wards, situated on the ridge of the City site, were but mildly visited during the epidemic, and that, here at least, diseases of the zymotic class have no resting-place.

The foregoing remarks apply only to the City of Sydney and Suburbs. In the Country Districts the measles carried off a large number of children.

The proportion which the infantile mortality bore to the total deaths of the year is illustrated in the following statement, which exhibits also the comparative percentages of deaths in the three great divisions of the Colony:—

	Under 5 years.	Total Deaths.	Rate per cent. of deaths under 5 years.

Percentage of deaths in City
Wards and Suburbs.

Tables I and J, at foot, shew the percentages of deaths in the City Wards and in the Suburban Districts respectively, for the years 1864 to 1867 inclusive, with the proportion of deaths to population in each Ward or District.

Classification of diseases.

The uniform arrangement which has been observed during the past five years, in classifying the causes of death, is annually becoming invested with greater interest, and will no doubt eventually be regarded as a valuable reference in any professional inquiry which may be instituted. The following table shews the results of the investigations into the causes of mortality during the period specified. Miasmatic diseases, embracing scarlatina, measles, diarrhoea, dysentery, diphtheria, fevers, &c., were the most fatal, and exhibit a proportion of 33·19 per cent. on the aggregate deaths of the year. Diseases of the nervous system the next highest death-rate, 11·88 per cent. In this class, however, it should be remarked, is included the deaths of infants from convulsions.

December, notwithstanding the heavy mortality in the second quarter of the year, from the measles epidemic, shews the largest number of deaths, although the atmospheric phenomena present no unusual feature. March, April, and May contribute their full proportions to the aggregate deaths; June retains its character for insalubrity; while August and September still maintain their low averages. With one or two exceptions, the highest number of deaths occurred during those months when the greatest rain-fall was registered.

Safe custody of records in Country Districts.

The records of many of the District Registry Offices having accumulated to such an extent that some provision was rendered necessary for their preservation and safe custody, I have been enabled, through the liberality of Parliament, to make arrangements by which the requirements of the principal offices throughout the Colony will be met.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

THEO. JAS. JAQUES,

Registrar General.

TREASURY MINUTE.

THE sum of £4,000 having been voted by Parliament "for procuring from England a supply of copper coins for general circulation in the Colony," the Treasurer recommends that the authority of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council may be given for transmitting to London, by the ensuing mail, the sum of £3,500, estimated to be sufficient for the purpose, by the acting Deputy Master of the Royal Mint, Sydney, who has furnished a design for the coinage, of which the following is a description, viz. :—

For the obverse, Her Majesty's effigy, with the inscription "Victoria D.G. Brit: Reg: F.D." and the date of the year.

For the reverse, the word "Australia" placed in the centre of a piece, encircled by a laurel wreath, and surmounted by the Royal Crown, with the inscription, "Sydney, One Penny."

The design for the half-penny being in every respect similar to that of the penny, with the exception of the words "One Half-penny" substituted on the reverse, for the words "One Penny."

No. 2.

GOVERNOR SIR JOHN YOUNG, BART., to THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES
(No. 85.)

Government House,
Sydney, 21st December, 1866.

MY LORD,

I have the honor to transmit a letter, with enclosures, from the Finance Minister of New South Wales, which gives effect to a Minute of the Executive Council authorizing an application to the Imperial Government, with a view of obtaining a supply of copper coin for the Colony.

2. Accordingly, I request Your Lordship will obtain the sanction of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for a private coinage at the Royal Mint, of twenty tons of copper coin—a proportion of about three-fourths to consist of pennies, and the remainder of half-pennies—the alloy and numerary, or number of pieces to the ton, to be the same as in that of the Imperial coin, and the design in accordance with a specimen herewith enclosed, which, with the description, has been furnished by the acting Deputy Master of the Branch of the Royal Mint in Sydney.

3. The Colonial Agent in London has been duly communicated with, and the sum of £3,500 will be remitted by the ensuing mail to him to meet the expense involved, that being the amount estimated by the acting Deputy Master, to be sufficient for the quantity of coin specified, the circulating value of which would be £8,960.

4. As the dies will be preserved in the Royal Mint, additional supplies of the copper coin, it is presumed, can always be obtained, if necessary.

5. I enclose a report from the acting Deputy Master, on which the Legislative Assembly have voted the funds; and I beg leave to add the request, that the coinage may be proceeded with at the earliest possible date, as much inconvenience is felt in the Colony, in consequence of the deficiency of copper coins, whose absence is ill supplied by bulky tokens of inferior value and of private issue.

I have, &c.,
JOHN YOUNG.

No. 3.

THE COLONIAL TREASURER, to HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

(No. 334.)

The Treasury, New South Wales,
19th December, 1866.

SIR,

I do myself the honor to inform your Excellency that, some time ago, a deputation from the Chamber of Commerce had an interview with me, on the subject of a copper coinage for the Colony of New South Wales.

The gentlemen, forming the deputation, strongly represented the great inconvenience occasioned, in commercial circles, by the present scarcity of genuine copper money in Sydney, and, admitting that there are objections and difficulties in the way of a copper coinage at the Sydney Branch of the Royal Mint, urged the necessity for some arrangement being made for introducing and maintaining regular supplies of copper coins from England.

Concurring in the views expressed by the deputation on this subject, I recommended, for the consideration of the Executive Council, that "a special copper coinage be executed in England for the Colony,"—and Your Excellency, with the advice of the Council, having been pleased to approve of my recommendation, I have now the honor to request that application may be made to the Imperial Government for a "Private Coinage" at the Royal Mint, of twenty (20) tons of copper coin—a proportion of about three-fourths to consist of pennies, and the remainder of half-pennies—the alloy, and numerary or number of pieces to the ton, to be the same as in the Imperial coin; and the design in accordance with a specimen, herewith enclosed, which has been furnished to me by the acting Deputy Master, accompanied by the following description, viz. :—

For the Obverse :—Her Majesty's effigy, with the inscription, "Victoria D.G. Brit. : Reg. : F.D.," and the date of the year.

For the Reverse :—The word "Australia," placed in the centre of the piece, encircled by a laurel wreath, and surmounted by the Royal Crown, with the inscription, "Sydney : One Penny."

The design for the half-penny to be, in every respect, similar to that of the penny, with the exception of the words "One Half-penny" substituted on the reverse, for the words "One Penny."

The sum of £3,500 will be remitted by the ensuing mail, to the Colonial Agent in London, to meet the expense involved in carrying out the above suggestion, that being the amount estimated by the acting Deputy Master to be sufficient for the quantity of coin specified, the circulating value of which would be £8,960.

As the dies will be preserved in the Royal Mint, additional supplies of the copper coin can always be obtained, if necessary.

I have the honor to enclose a report from the acting Deputy Master, on which the Legislative Assembly have voted the funds for the object in view; and I have, further, to request that the Coinage may be proceeded with, at the earliest possible date, as the Colony is much in want of a copper currency.

I have, &c.,

No. 4.

MEMORANDUM of suggestions for providing a Copper Currency for New South Wales, submitted to the Honorable G. Eagar, at his request, and in accordance with the condition laid down by him, that this Colony should receive the seignorage.

In providing a copper currency for this Colony, one of two methods may be pursued—

1. To import a sufficient supply of the Imperial coin.
2. To have a special copper coinage executed in England, on account of the Colony.

The first method would be expensive and unsatisfactory; because this Government could only obtain the Imperial coin at its nominal value.

It is provided by law that the whole of the seignorage, or difference between the actual cost of the copper coin and its nominal or circulating value, shall be paid into Her Majesty's Exchequer, for the use of the Consolidated Fund. A sum of £4,000 would, therefore, exchange for only the same realizable value in copper coin, from which value, must be deducted, loss of interest, packing, freight, insurance, &c.; and, after all the trouble and expense, there would be nothing to prevent the coin, thus imported, being gradually absorbed by the neighbouring colonies, which would thus renovate their circulation at the expense of this Government, and leave the currency of New South Wales as bad as at first.

The second method would avoid these disadvantages, and moreover, it would bring a considerable gain to the Colony.

The Royal Mint undertakes, with the sanction of the Lords of the Treasury, coinages for the use of the British Colonies, technically called "Private coinages." In such coinages, the actual expenses only are charged, and the seignorage goes to the Government on whose behalf the coinage is executed.

I beg to suggest that application be made to the Imperial Government for a coinage of (say) 20 tons of copper coin, of which a proportion of about three-fourths should be in pence and the remainder in half-pence—that the alloy and numerary, or number of pieces to the ton, should be the same as in the Imperial coin—that the design of the obverse should be identical with that of the Imperial coin, but that the reverse, with the exception of the words "One Penny" or "One Half-penny" (as the case might be), should have a distinctive device artistically executed.

I estimate that 20 tons of such coin would be laid down in Sydney at considerably less than £4,000; and, as its circulating value would be  $£448 \times 20 = £8,960$ , the profit on the transaction would be, at least, £5,000.

I consider that £10,000 in copper coin is the utmost amount this Colony could require, having regard to its population; but, considering how that population is distributed, a somewhat less quantity would suffice, and, at any rate, as the dies would be preserved in the Royal Mint, additional supplies of the copper coin could always be obtained, if necessary.

Mr. Hunt to The Under Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Treasury Chambers,
3rd May, 1867.

8 March.

Sir,

I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, with reference to your letter of the 28th February last, copy of a report from the Master of the Mint, respecting the requisition from the Government of New South Wales, for copper coin, bearing the word "Australia" on the reverse.

I am to request that this report may be communicated to the Governor of New South Wales, and that his attention may be called to the observations made by the Master of the Mint, and that he should be informed that my Lords fully concur with that officer, as to the inexpediency of permitting the circulation of the coins proposed.

My Lords will, however, be prepared to issue instructions for the supply of Imperial copper coin, to the extent mentioned by the Master of the Mint, for the use of the Colony, on receiving an intimation from the Colonial Government of their acquiescence in that arrangement, and that they are prepared to incur the necessary cost.

I am, &c.,
GEORGE WARD HUNT.

Mr. Graham to Mr. Cole.

Royal Mint,
8th March, 1867.

Sir,

The papers returned include—(1.) The despatch (No. 85) from the Governor of New South Wales, dated 21st December, 1866, requesting the Secretary of State for the Colonies to obtain the sanction of the Lords of Her Majesty's Treasury for a private coinage at the Royal Mint, of twenty tons of copper coin, the pieces to be equal in weight and similar in composition to the Imperial copper currency; to bear the designs of the Imperial coin on the obverse, with the words "Australia, Sydney: One Penny," on the reverse. (2.) Letter from the Colonial Treasurer (No. 334) to the Governor, recommending the private coinage in question, and reporting that a deputation of the Chamber of Commerce, at an interview with himself, had "strongly represented the great inconvenience occasioned in commercial circles by the present scarcity of genuine copper money in Sydney," and had urged "the necessity of some arrangement being made for introducing and maintaining regular supplies of copper coins from England." (3.) A memorandum, dated 10th November, 1866, from Mr. Elouis, acting Deputy Master of the Sydney Branch of the Royal Mint, specifying the quantities of copper coin required by the Colony, and proposing the designs which are recommended for adoption.

The private coinage proposed, appears to be objectionable on several grounds:—

- (1.) At the present time, special copper coinages are only issued from the Royal Mint, when the coins are refined to a different standard from the Imperial, as in the copper cents of the dollar standard, coined for the American Provinces; or, where, being refined to the pound sterling, the special coins differ in nominal value from any existing Imperial coin, as with the penny of the Channel Islands, which is one-thirteenth of a shilling. The Sydney coins, if granted, would be the only special coins equivalent in value to actual Imperial coins, and calculated to supplant the latter.
- (2.) The designs suggested for the Sydney coins too closely resemble the Imperial coins, one side being identical, and the other exhibiting the values in the words "Penny" and "Half-penny." The risk would be too great of such coins being circulated in contiguous Colonies, or even being brought to Great Britain. The circumstance of the Australian sovereign being a legal tender here would naturally lead to the idea that the Australian penny was so also.
- (3.) In estimating the profit to be made by the Colony, upon the supply of the new coinage required, Mr. Elouis overlooks the circumstance that the issue of the new coin would entail upon the Colonial Government, the cost of withdrawing the old coin at present circulating, which would become in its hands only so much old metal.
- (4.) The unnecessary introduction of any new coin is to be deprecated, and is opposed to the now prevailing desire for simplicity and general uniformity of coinage.

It appears that the object of the requisition may be attained by the distribution and issue, by the agency of the Sydney Mint, of copper coin of the Realm, sent from London, under proper regulations.

A sufficient supply of Imperial copper coin (say £10,000) might be sent immediately to the Sydney Mint, on account of the Royal Mint, which would bear the expenses of the freight by sea, and of the carriage of the new coin in the Colony. The Deputy Master would undertake the distribution of the new coin and collection of the old, disposing to the public of—

- (1.) A certain amount of the new coin in exchange for the old Imperial copper coin now in circulation.
- (2.) A certain amount for cash, at the nominal value of the coin; and he might be further authorized
- (3.) To apply new coin to an amount equal to the last, to redeem the private tokens with which the country is at present inundated, at their nominal value, provided they have been in circulation, are of good copper and proper weight, during a limited period, such as three months.

By proceeding in this way, the copper coinage of New South Wales would be rapidly renovated and purified without the risk of loss, although with little or no profit to the Royal Mint.

The subsequent annual absorption of copper coin would be found to be moderate in amount, and would continue to be provided for through the Sydney Mint, a part of the Royal Mint stock being deposited there, with that view.

I have, &c.,
THOS. GRAHAM.

MINUTE OF THE GOVERNOR.

I shall be glad to be informed, as early as possible, of the views of the Government, in respect to the proposition made in his report by the Master of the Mint, to supply Imperial copper coin. J.Y.—13 July, /67.

No. 6.

THE COLONIAL TREASURER, to GOVERNOR SIR JOHN YOUNG, BART.

(No. 325.)

The Treasury, New South Wales,
Sydney, 17th December, 1867.

SIR,

I have the honor to convey to your Excellency the views of the Cabinet, in relation to the supply of Imperial copper coin, for the present and future requirements of the Colony.

The papers which we have had before us in considering this question, comprehend—

- 1st. Despatch No. 17, from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, addressed to your Excellency, under date 11th May, 1867.
- 2nd. Enclosures in the above despatch, being—
  - 1st. Copy of letter from Mr. George Ward Hunt, to the Under Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 3rd May, 1867.
  - 2nd. Copy of letter from Mr. Graham, Master of the Mint, to Mr. T. H. Cole, dated 8th March, 1867.

The proposals of Mr. Graham appear to be,—that the Royal Mint would be prepared to transmit on its own account, to the Sydney Branch of the Royal Mint, a supply of Imperial copper coin, of the nominal value of £10,000—paying freight for the same, and the carriage of the new coin in the Colony; that the Deputy Master here would undertake the distribution of the new coin and the collection of the old, in the several modes pointed out in Mr. Graham's letter—and that the subsequent annual absorption of copper coin would be provided for through the Sydney Mint—part of the Royal Mint stock being deposited there with that view.

As we understand from these proposals, that no part of the original cost of the copper coin, or of its distribution and subsequent management, or of the replenishing and keeping up of the circulation, would fall upon the Colony, we cannot but regard the suggested arrangement as of a liberal and satisfactory character; and I am to request that your Excellency will be pleased to convey to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the ready acquiescence of this Government therein, and that effect may be given to the arrangement, as speedily as convenient.

I have, &c.,
G. EAGAR.

MY LORD DUKE,

I have the honor to transmit a communication from the Finance Minister of this Colony, agreeing to the terms proposed by Her Majesty's Government, for placing the copper coinage on a sound footing.

2. Your Grace will observe that Mr. Eagar states, on behalf of himself and his colleagues, that "they regard the suggested arrangement as of a liberal and satisfactory character," and requests that effect may be given to it, as speedily as convenient.

I have, &c.,

No. 8.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES, to GOVERNOR, THE EARL OF BELMORE.

(No. 30.)

Downing-street,
1st May, 1868.

MY LORD,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your predecessor's despatch, No. 115, of 19th December last, enclosing a letter from the Finance Minister of New South Wales, in which he agrees, on behalf of himself and his colleagues, in the terms proposed by Her Majesty's Government, for placing the copper coinage in the Colony, on a sound footing.

3 April, 1868.

I communicated Sir John Young's despatch to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, and I transmit to you, for your information and guidance, and for that of the Deputy Master of the Mint at Sydney, the copy of a letter upon the subject from the Secretary of the Treasury, enclosing one from the Master of the Mint.

The Crown agents have been instructed to take measures for forwarding the bronze coin to the Mint at Sydney.

I have, &c.,
BUCKINGHAM & CHANDOS.

[Enclosure in No. 8.]

Mr. Graham to Mr. Hamilton.

Royal Mint,
8th April, 1868.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 26th ultimo, enclosing a correspondence relating to the copper coinage of New South Wales, and directing a report to be made to the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury as to the period when the coin will be ready to be sent out to the Colony, with any instructions that may be considered advisable, in order that the same may be forwarded to the Colonial Office for transmission to the Governor, I have to acquaint you, for the information of their Lordships, that the quantity of bronze coin, £10,000 in nominal value, required for transmission, is now ready to be forwarded to the Colonial Office. It has been selected in the proportion of £8,000 pence, £2,000 half-pence, the proportion of half-pence being made small, as it is understood that the demand in Australia is chiefly for large copper coin.

It is proposed that the copper coin should be issued in the Colony from the Branch Mint at Sydney, on the same terms as it has been issued in England from the Royal Mint.

On receipt at the Sydney Mint, of an order for payment of the nominal value of one or more £10 or £20 boxes of bronze coin, the carriage of the boxes by a public conveyance will be paid by the Deputy Master of the Mint, and the coin forwarded to its destination.

Permission to send in old copper coin to the Sydney Mint will be granted by the Deputy Master, to persons with whom he has communicated, or to others on application, the old coin to be conveyed at the expense and risk of the consigner. If the old copper coin is approved by the Deputy Master, its full nominal value will be paid either in money or in bronze coin as desired by the sender. It is convenient to record the purchase of the old copper coin and the sale of the new bronze, always as two separate transactions, although the latter may appear to be given in exchange for the former. In addition to the full nominal value of the old coin, 2 per cent. on the amount will fall to be paid to the sender, to cover his expenses in collecting the old coin, and in packing and transmitting the same to the Sydney Mint. This extra payment should be made separately, either in money, and a receipt to be obtained for the amount, or by means of a Post Office Order. In the latter case, the receipt of the Postmaster for the payment of the money to him, for transmission to the person to whom it is due, will be a sufficient discharge for the Deputy Master. A form of receipt from the Postmaster, such as has been used at the Royal Mint, will be forwarded, directed to the Deputy Master at Sydney. This form will be accompanied by copies of several circulars and other printed papers, which were found useful here, including a hand-bill to be supplied to persons willing to distribute the new bronze coin to the public, which was found an effective method of advertising the issue.

It is an important peculiarity in the exchange of the old coin in New South Wales, that private copper tokens in circulation in the Colony will be accepted by the Mint, to a certain amount, at their nominal value, in addition to old copper coins of the Realm. Certain conditions on which such tokens should be received are stated in my Report of 8 March, 1867. It is probable that further restrictions will be found advisable. It will be convenient if old copper coin of the Realm and private tokens be sent in to the Mint in separate parcels, and also that the quantity of the latter received at any one time shall not exceed the former. No restriction should be imposed upon the sale of the bronze coin for cash; such transactions at the beginning of the issues have the effect of setting the old coin free, and cause it to flow more readily into the Mint. Finally, any minor regulation must not be enforced too rigidly where the transaction appears to the Deputy Master to be bona fide, and no fraud is apprehended.

I have, &c.,

THOS. GRAHAM.

MINUTE OF THE GOVERNOR.

For the information of my Responsible Advisers. As the coin appeared to be ready at the date of this despatch, and was to be sent to me, some arrangement ought to be made before I leave Sydney for handing it over to the Mint, in the event of its arrival during my absence. B.—1/7/68.

No. 9.

Royal Mint, Sydney,
22nd September, 1868.

A LARGE quantity of new bronze coin having arrived, to replace the old copper coin of the Realm and the copper tokens now in circulation in the Colony of New South Wales, His Excellency the Governor directs the publication of the following regulations for the issue and distribution of the new Imperial bronze coinage:—

1. The new bronze coin, in boxes, each of £10 and £20 value, will be issued at the Sydney Branch of the Royal Mint, on payment of the value, every day, Saturdays and holidays excepted, between the hours of 10 and 2.

2. The old copper coin of the Realm, in quantities of £1 and upwards, will be exchanged at its full nominal value; and in addition to the full nominal value of the coin, a premium of two per cent. on the amount will be paid, to cover all expenses of collection, packing, and delivery at the Mint.

3. For a period of one month from this date, copper tokens in circulation in this Colony will be exchanged in the following manner, that is to say, for every eight pounds, avoirdupois, of such tokens, there will be exchanged two hundred and forty bronze pence.

4. The total amount of tokens exchangeable at the Mint, under this notice, is not to exceed the total amount of old Imperial copper coin which shall have been received at the Mint during the term of this notice.

5. Tokens of the following descriptions will not be exchanged:—

1. Anonymous tokens, roughly cast, and only recently circulated.
2. Evident counterfeits, made of brass, &c.

6. In the country districts, the new coin will be issued, and the old copper coin of the Realm and copper tokens will be exchanged, at every branch of the Bank of New South Wales throughout the Colony.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL to HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR, TRANSMITTING THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT ON THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT, BEING THAT FOR THE YEAR 1867.

General Post Office,
Sydney, 18 August, 1868.

MY LORD,

I have the honor to transmit to your Lordship the Thirteenth Annual Report on the Post Office Department, being that for the year 1867.

The principal postal features of that year were—the passing of the new Postal Act, 31 Victoria, No. 4 (which, however, only took effect on the 1st January, 1868), and the Meeting at Melbourne, in the month of March, of the Delegates sent to represent the various Australasian Colonies at a Conference relative to Steam Postal Communication with Great Britain.

As I have, in previous Reports, alluded to the advantages sought to be obtained by means of a revision of the Postal Acts, I shall not on this occasion say more than that every endeavour was made, during the latter part of 1867, to render these advantages available to the public as early as possible. The improvements which have been brought into operation through the agency of the new Bill properly belong to the year 1868, and will, therefore, be referred to in the next Annual Report on the Postal Department.

The sitting of the Postal Conference, held at Melbourne (at which the Australasian Colonies were represented by Delegates from New South Wales, South Australia, Queensland, and New Zealand, in addition to the Representatives of the Colony of Victoria), extended over a period from the 4th March to the 21st March, during which, the whole subject of Steam Postal Communication was most carefully and minutely considered.

The Delegates agreed that, in order to meet the requirements of all the Colonies concerned, it would be necessary to establish postal communication by three routes, viz., via Torres Straits, via King George's Sound, and via Panama, as the only means of affording a regular fortnightly communication between each Colony and the Mother Country. It was estimated that the cost of these services would not exceed £400,000 per annum; and, as it was concluded that the Mother Country—having an equal share of the advantages—would bear half the expense, it was agreed that the Colonies should contribute their moiety in the following proportions, viz. :—

New South Wales...	...	...	...	...	...	One-fourth.
Victoria	...	...	...	...	...	One-fourth.
New Zealand	...	...	...	...	...	One-fourth.
Queensland...	...	...	...	...	...	One-seventh.
South Australia	...	...	...	...	...	One-twelfth.
Tasmania	...	...	...	...	...	One-fiftieth.

The

The result of the Conference was communicated in due course to the Imperial authorities, but it is to be regretted that the proposals made by the Colonies were not met in the same liberal spirit with which they were framed, the Home Government having, in reply, intimated its disinclination to enter into the scheme proposed by the Colonies. As Minutes of the Proceedings of this Conference have been laid before Parliament and printed, and as the Circular Despatch of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 14th October, 1867, communicating this disinclination of Her Majesty's Government to accede to the proposal, has been fully dwelt upon in the papers which will be laid before Parliament and published coincidentally with this Report, it is not necessary for me to make any further observations relative thereto.

INLAND SERVICE.

Increase .....	372	131,700	.....	.....	22
Decrease .....	.....	.....	574 6 9	¼	.....

The actual increase in the extent of postal route in the Colony, on the 31st December, 1867, is 372 miles.

Appendix, A and B.

In the Appendix will be found returns shewing the extent of new lines established to be 481 miles, and the extent of postal route it was deemed expedient to abolish to be 109 miles.

It will be seen, by reference to the returns just mentioned, that the Grenfell Gold Fields were afforded speedy communication with Bathurst and the metropolis, by the establishment, in 1867, of a line from Cowra to Grenfell three times a week.

This communication is in addition to that previously afforded, by an arrangement made with the mail contractor between Young and Forbes, to travel viâ Grenfell. It will also be seen that lengthy postal lines were established between Grafton and Glen Innes, and between Casino and Wollomben.

Some changes and deviations from the postal route hitherto followed were sanctioned during 1867, amongst which may be mentioned the provision made for the mail between Hay, Maude, and Balranald (twice a week), to travel once a week viâ Oxley; also for the mail between Armidale and Inverell, to travel viâ Eversleigh. The mail line from Coonamble to Pilliga, viâ Wangan, Kienby, Baradine, and Denajoey, was substituted for that between Coonamble and Wee Waa.

During 1867, in consequence of the extension of the railway to Mittagong on the southern line, and to Weatherboard on the western line, the mails were conveyed by train a distance 51 miles further than in the previous year.

Appendix, C and D.

Returns of the increased and decreased communication on existing lines are given in the Appendix.

The most important item mentioned in the return of increased postal facilities is, the additional communication afforded between Wagga Wagga and Deniliquin.

The number of miles travelled in 1867, as stated in the above return, shews an increase of 131,700 miles on the number travelled in 1866.

The extent of postal lines, by stage, horse, and rail, may be stated as follows :—

Stage	...	...	...	Miles.	2,596
Horse	...	...	...		9,459
Rail	...	...	...		200
					12,255

In the above tabular statement the average cost per mile is given at about 4½d.—a slight decrease upon the cost of conveyance during the previous year.

The number of post offices established during 1867 was 29, the number re-established 1, and the number discontinued 8; making an actual increase of 22 in the number of post offices in the Colony.

Twelve licenses for the sale of postage stamps were granted to persons residing in Sydney, and eighteen to persons residing in the country.

A return of the licensed vendors of postage stamps (exclusive of Postmasters) will be found in the Appendix, which shews the number of such licensed persons to be 256.

The year 1867 may be characterized by the great change in the conduct of the service by the steamers of the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company.

It will be seen from the above return that for seven months the steamers arrived before the specified time, once to time, and the remaining portion of the year only a short period after they were due. It is very apparent that greater exertions have been made by the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, to render this service more effective, since the action which it was deemed expedient to take on the part of this Colony, with reference to the prescribed notice of withdrawal from the contract.

The rivalry created by the establishment of the Panama line of packets has, no doubt, also had its effect in causing the time to be more regularly kept by the steamers of the Peninsular and Oriental Company.

Supplementary mails were despatched in the months of January, February, March, May, June, and September, all of which were placed on board the English mail packet at Melbourne.

Subsidies were only paid, however, on two occasions, viz., in March, £150, and in June, £50, for the conveyance of these supplementary mails by the steamers of the Australasian Steam Navigation Company to Melbourne.

Although the Panama steam-packets have not arrived to time on a single occasion during the year, the delays have arisen in most cases on the Atlantic side of the Isthmus, and are not, therefore, attributable to any laxity on the part of the Steam Company controlling the packets between Sydney and Panama.

The average time occupied, between Panama and Sydney, during the year, has only been 36 days, which goes to prove that the class of steamers employed are quite equal to the service required, and that, with more effective arrangements right through to England, the service would be of greater advantage to the Colony.

The Mail Service between Sydney and Panama was maintained during 1867 solely by the Colony of New Zealand and this Colony—the other Australian Colonies having declined to contribute any direct subsidies to this Contract.

Had the proposal of the Conference, previously alluded to in this Report, been adopted, the burthen of this service would have been distributed amongst the Colonies, instead of pressing heavily, as it now does, upon the finances of this Colony and New Zealand.

In order, in some measure, to be remunerated for the conveyance of the letters, &c., of the non-contributing Colonies which are forwarded by the Panama mail-packets, an arrangement was entered into with them, which took effect from the 1st June, 1867, by which a sum of 20s. per lb. was charged on the gross weight of the mails forwarded from or to these Colonies. In making this arrangement, the transmission of newspapers was to some extent calculated upon, but in the case of Victoria, the authorities appear desirous to avail themselves of the advantages offered for the transmission of letters only, and with this view communicated with Great Britain to prevent the transmission of newspapers and packets by the Panama route.

This proceeding seems scarcely just on their part, and tends to throw impediments in the way of the small benefit which would be likely to accrue to this Colony and New Zealand by the transmission of newspapers and packets.

LETTERS.

LETTERS, NEWSPAPERS, AND PARCELS POSTED THROUGHOUT THE COLONY.

For the reasons stated in my last Report, I am still unable to give what may be deemed reliable information as regards the number of letters, newspapers, and parcels posted throughout the Colony. The figures, however, which have resulted from the average returns, furnished to the Head Office by the several Country Postmasters, and from average calculations made upon the number posted in Sydney, such as they are, are given below ; but I prefer referring this year also to the increase in the Revenue as the index of the progress made by the department during 1867, than to drawing any comparative conclusions from the following figures, viz. :—

DEAD LETTER BRANCH.

In 1867, 46,396 letters were returned to the writers as unclaimed, being an increase of 6,923 on the number returned during 1866. Of the letters returned during 1867, 40,388 were originally addressed to places within the Colony, 3,958 to the neighbouring Colonies, 1,838 to the United Kingdom, and 212 to other places.

The number of registered letters returned as unclaimed was 520, being 124 less than in 1866 ; and the number unregistered, but containing articles of value, was 380, being 11 more than in 1866.

The letters originally received from the following places, and returned thereto, as being unclaimed, were as follows :—

To the neighbouring Colonies ... ..	4,422
To the United Kingdom ... ..	5,027
To other places ... ..	363
	9,812

In 1866, the numbers were respectively 3,878, 4,922, and 324.

The number of letters returned as unstamped, insufficiently stamped, and irregularly posted, was 13,944 ; being 1,305 more than were returned in 1866, under similar circumstances.

REGISTRATION BRANCH.

97,485 registered letters passed through the General Post Office during the past year, the number in 1866 being 80,336.

1,110½ ounces of gold were received through the Post Office in 1867, against 963½ ounces in 1866.

The large increase in the number of registered letters is mainly owing to the number of letters which were received from and addressed to the Registrar General relative to the registration of “ Brands.”

The

The registration of letters, &c., especially those containing money, is not sufficiently appreciated by the public. This is apparent in almost all cases where money has been alleged to have been enclosed in letters reported to be missing, and it seems astonishing what little care or attention is bestowed by the senders, considering the means of security which is afforded by the department, both as regards the registration of letters, and the money order system for the transmission of remittances.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

During 1867, to meet the requirements and convenience of the public, postage stamps representing in value respectively 10d. and 4d. were issued.

The postage stamps in use during 1867 were as follows, viz. :—

- One penny newspaper stamped wrapper.
- One penny stamp.
- Two-pence     "
- Three     "
- Four     "     (New issue.)
- Five     "
- Six     "
- Eight     "
- Ten     "     (New issue.)
- One shilling stamp.
- Five     "
- Registration stamp, representing in value 6d.

As it may be of some interest to postage stamp collectors and others, I attach a description (compiled by Thos. Richards, Esq., the Inspector of Stamps) of all the postage stamps which have been issued in this Colony up to the present time.

NUMBER OF MAILS RECEIVED AND DESPATCHED.

The following return shews the number of Mails received at and despatched from the General Post Office, during the years 1866 and 1867 :—

Year.	Received.		Despatched.		Total Number which passed through the Office.
	Inland.	Foreign.	Inland.	Foreign.

MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

Appendix G. It is gratifying to notice the yearly increase in the business of the Money Order Office, as will be seen from the Report of the Superintendent to be found in the Appendix.

Considering that the money order system has only been in operation since the year 1863, that the transactions already amount to upwards of £450,000 per annum, and that the expenses of the department are already more than covered by its revenue, there is ample reason to believe that, in a very few years, this department will assume immense proportions. I have, however, to remark that, notwithstanding the large increase in the business of the Money Order Office, the system is not made use of by the public to the extent it should be, and I cannot too strongly urge upon the notice of remitters of money by post, the security which the money order system affords.

SAVINGS BANKS.

In my last Report I mentioned that the establishment of Savings Banks, throughout the Colony, in connection with the Post Office Department, had not escaped attention.

I may now state that, the matter having been fully considered, it was not deemed expedient to incur the large expenditure necessary for the introduction of the system during 1867.

It is also considered that the low rate of remuneration to which the majority of Country Postmasters are necessarily restricted, would not justify imposing upon them the increased responsibility which the introduction of such a system would entail.

As I shall elsewhere in this Report have occasion more forcibly to remark, were the numerical staff at my disposal of greater strength, many improvements in various branches could be accomplished; and this has, no doubt, been the reason why New South Wales, as the oldest Australian Colony, has not taken the lead in the introduction of all postal improvements.

REVENUE

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE.

The following return shews the Revenue of the Post Office Department, collected during the year 1867, compared with the Revenue of 1866 :—

Year.	Sale of Stamps.	Fees for Private Boxes.	Postage on Unpaid Letters.	Total.
1866 .....	75,367 2 6	350 3 0	3,365 5 11	79,082 11 5
1867 .....	79,995 0 9	337 2 0	2,899 16 8	83,231 19 5
Increase .....	4,627 18 3	.....	.....	4,149 8 0
Decrease .....	.....	13 1 0	465 9 3	.....

The revenue derived from the sale of postage stamps has increased about 6 per cent., while the fees collected for the use of private boxes have decreased  $3\frac{3}{4}$  per cent., and the postage on unpaid letters has decreased 14 per cent.

It is gratifying to state that the total revenue shews an increase of about  $5\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. on the previous year.

This fact can be pointed to with a degree of certainty, as a sufficient proof of the steady progress of the business of the department generally.

The expenditure of the department during 1867, compared with that for the year 1866, may be stated as follows :—

Year.	Salaries.	Contingencies.	Conveyance of Mails.	Total.
1866 .....	28,044 4 11	1,947 4 2	56,514 0 10	86,505 9 11
1867 .....	30,210 14 2	3,099 11 11	56,539 0 9	89,849 6 10
Increase .....	2,166 9 3	1,152 7 9	24 19 11	3,343 16 11
Decrease .....	.....	.....	.....	.....

The total expenditure shews an increase of about 4 per cent. It will be observed that, while the expenditure of the department has been augmented by £3,343 16s. 11d., the additional revenue collected, viz., £4,149 8s., was more than sufficient to meet the cost of the increased postal facilities afforded during the year 1867.

The increase under the head of salaries is chiefly owing to the establishment of new post offices, to increases in the pay of Country Postmasters, to the appointment of two Postal Inspectors, and to the appointment of extra letter carriers.

The increase under the head of contingencies has principally arisen from the cost of the new iron letter receivers erected in 1867, from the additional expense attending the clearing of the same, and from the amount it was found necessary to expend in travelling purposes of postal inspection.

With reference to the last-mentioned item, I may mention that the department having for some considerable period been without the services of Postal Inspectors, it was deemed expedient that, as early as possible after their re-appointment, a general inspection of the inland service should be instituted.

The increased amount expended for mail conveyance during 1867 is only £24 19s. 11d., notwithstanding the additional advantages gained by the establishment of new postal lines, and of increased postal communication on existing lines. In another portion of this Report it has been shewn that the cost per mile travelled is about  $4\frac{1}{4}$ d., being  $\frac{1}{4}$ d. less in 1867 than during the previous year.

I may, perhaps, here mention that the cost of mail conveyance in this Colony is found to be considerably less than the price paid for mail conveyance in Victoria, in which Colony the cost per mile travelled in 1867 is estimated at  $5\frac{3}{4}$ d.

The

The item conveyance of mails may be particularized as follows:—

	£	s.	d.
Mail conveyance by horse and stage ... ..	50,134	4	7
Do. rail ... ..	1,990	11	1
Do. steam and sailing vessels ...	3,579	1	1
Do. to and from railway stations, and porterage ... ..	715	4	0
Gratuities for sorting Hunter River and other mails ... ..	120	0	0
	56,539	0	9

The amount voted for mail conveyance during 1867 was £58,420, irrespective of the subsidies paid to the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, and to the Panama and New Zealand Royal Mail Company, towards the English mail contracts, which are not included in the above returns.

Appendix H.

In 1867 there were 259 distinct mail contracts, of which ten were transferred at the request of the original contractors, and five were cancelled during the year.

I may remark that, considering the numerous difficulties contractors have to contend against, their contracts have, for the most part, been faithfully performed, in some instances, I fear, to the prejudice of the contractor's pecuniary interest.

STAFF OF OFFICERS.

The number of officers and servants of the department on the 31st December, 1867 (exclusive of mail contractors), was as follows:—

Postmaster General ... ..	1
Secretary ... ..	1
Accountant ... ..	1
Superintendent, Mail Branch ... ..	1
Cashier ... ..	1
Clerks ... ..	34
Postal Inspectors ... ..	2
Mail Guards ... ..	2
Stampers, Letter Carriers, Messengers, &c. ... ..	60
Country Postmasters ... ..	477
Assistant Clerks to Postmasters ... ..	2
	582

I have on previous occasions alluded to the requirements of the Postal Department as regards an efficient staff of officers, in order to render it of increased usefulness to the public generally. I shall on this occasion endeavour to shew how the clerical efficiency of the department has been impaired during the past ten years, by the efforts which have been made with the view of retrenchment.

I shall first direct attention to the following comparative return of the relative numerical strength of the General Post Office, Melbourne, and of the General Post Office Sydney, during the year 1867, viz. :—

Office.	Officers and Clerks.	Sorters, Letter-carriers, &c.	Total.	Remarks.
Melbourne ... ..	83	124	207	Also 40 Supernumeraries employed on arrival of English Mail.
Sydney ... ..	41	47	88	No extra assistance of this kind employed.
Difference ... ..	42	77	119

The

The strength of the Melbourne Post Office, it will be seen from the above figures (which have been taken from the annual Report of the Deputy Postmaster General, Melbourne, for 1867), is more than double that of this office, while the relative amount of work performed in the two offices does not bear anything like that proportion.

It has frequently been remarked, that the Postal Department of Victoria affords greater facilities to the public than this Colony, and that the postal business is more expeditiously and satisfactorily transacted; but it will be apparent, from the inequality in the resources at the disposal of the two departments, that this Colony cannot be expected to afford the superior advantages which a smaller Colony with a larger and more efficient staff of officers is enabled to confer.

In a large and growing department like the Post Office, it is both inexpedient and dangerous to impair its efficiency by curtailing the number of its officers, or by reducing the salaries at the disposal of the department for the retention of the services of efficient and experienced officers, and for the encouragement and promotion of those by whose endeavours the postal service is rendered effective.

That the efficiency of the Sydney office has been impaired by disappointment in the prospects of the employés, caused by curtailments of the higher salaries which they naturally looked forward to as the reward of meritorious service, will be clearly shewn by the following comparative return of the nine principal salaries paid during the years 1859 and 1867 respectively, viz. :—

1859.				1867.
1	officer at	...	...	530	1	officer at	...	...	*600
1	"	...	...	530	1	"	...	...	450
1	"	...	...	530	1	"	...	...	400
1	"	...	...	375	1	"	...	...	350
1	"	...	...	375	1	"	...	...	300
1	"	...	...	375	1	"	...	...	300
1	"	...	...	375	1	"	...	...	300
1	"	...	...	315	1	"	...	...	250
1	"	...	...	300	1	"	...	...	250

* Special Increase.—When the Office of Postmaster General was made political, it of course became necessary to place the Secretary in the same position as the Under Secretaries of other Ministerial Departments. This has been done in all respects except salary.

In proof of the injurious effect the withdrawal of the larger salaries from the estimate of the Post Office has had, I may mention that no less than nine of the most useful and efficient officers have during a very few years left the department, in order to secure better remuneration.

I cannot but remark that the salaries at present at the disposal of the Post Office are not sufficient fairly to remunerate officers possessing the requisite qualifications for the higher positions; nor is the number of officers at present on the staff sufficient to meet the requirements of the Colony, as regards increased postal facilities, or even satisfactorily to fulfil the duties which are now incumbent upon the department.

In a public department such as the Post Office, in which the number of persons employed (exclusive of mail contractors and mailmen) is 582, there should be every possible encouragement, in the shape of promotion, held out to deserving officers; but it is evident from the fact, that there being only three salaries worthy of competition in the whole department (and those three salaries only very moderate in comparison with the responsibilities of the officers who receive them, and with the pay of officials holding positions of similar responsibility in other departments), that unless some radical change is effected, this encouragement and incentive to a zealous performance of duty cannot exist in the Post Office.

The clerical staff of the Head Office consists of thirty-four persons, including those who are charged with the immediate management of the several branches. The average salary paid to these clerks during 1867 was about £170; and with such slight prospects of increased pay, it is not surprising that the more intelligent of the officials should be constantly watching for opportunities with the desire of bettering their positions by seeking employment in other services.

I have said thus much on this subject in the hope that, when measures are taken to place the staff of the Post Office upon a better footing, no obstacles may be thrown in the way of the adoption of such proposals as have this object in view; and I am persuaded that the interest of the public will be best served when the officers connected with the Post Office have held out to them the inducements to energy and zeal I have just alluded to, as being so essential to the successful transaction of the business of any public department.

Since the appointment of two Postal Inspectors, on the 1st January, 1867, several portions of the Colony have been visited, and no doubt improvement may be already observed in the conduct of the postal business in those parts of the Colony.

Appendix, I and J.

In the Appendix will be found a report of the proceedings of each of the Inspectors, giving a list of the Post Offices which have been inspected.

I may here observe, that regular and systematic inspection is undoubtedly absolutely necessary for the proper conduct of the postal service; but this regular inspection cannot possibly be afforded by two Inspectors only in so large a Colony as New South Wales; and not until the department is in a position to adopt some such scheme as that suggested in my Annual Report for 1865, i.e., of making the Official Postmasters, Inspectors in their respective districts, can the full benefit of postal inspection be realized.

In order to render the service more efficient, in some instances the duties of Postmasters have been conferred upon the Electric Telegraph Station-masters; and it is my intention, in all cases, as opportunities occur and the circumstances of the case will permit, to amalgamate the offices of Postmaster and Electric Telegraph Station-master.

The principal advantage in the combination of these offices is, that a person who is solely under the control of the Government is entrusted with both duties, conducted, in most instances, in buildings erected by the Government.

Appendix K.

It may not be out of place here to state, as a matter of record, that the Electric Telegraph Department, hitherto under the ministerial control of the Honorable the Minister for Public Works, was transferred to the Postmaster General on the 1st July, 1867, and the Report of the Superintendent of that Branch will be found in the Appendix.

OFFICE ACCOMMODATION.

The building at present used as a temporary office is found, through increased business of each succeeding year, to be worse adapted for the proper and efficient conduct of the postal business; and therefore, the completion of the new building, now in course of erection, is looked forward to as a means of rectifying many of the inconveniences which the officers of the department and the public are at present subjected to.

I have the honor to be

Your Lordship's most obedient Servant,

J. DOCKER,

Postmaster General.

1. I am happy in being able to shew that the confidence expressed by me in reporting upon the Money Order Department for the year 1866, as to the prospect of continued and progressive increase in its transactions and revenue, has been fully borne out.

2. The number of Country Agencies existing in the Colony at the present time amount to 119, against 109 for the preceding year, whilst the total transactions for the year 1867, viz., £450,383 5s. 9d., shew an increase on the year 1866 (when they amounted to £364,312 18s. 8d.) of £86,070 7s. 1d.—an increase to be accounted for, not so much by the number of offices as in the extension of the money order system more largely amongst the people of the Colony, the great benefits and convenience arising therefrom having been strikingly evidenced during the past year by the large amount remitted from the Country Districts, in connection with the Brands Registration Act—a sum exceeding £1,800 having been paid in small sums in one day.

3. A large addition to the number of Agencies is anticipated in the year 1868.

4. The usual statistical tables are annexed, from which the transactions of the year will be seen in detail.

5. The revenue of the department has exceeded the expenditure, as in the preceding year, but in a larger proportion.

6. I do not consider that my Report for the year 1867 would be complete without reference to an inquiry, which was instituted into the working of the department generally, with special reference to the system of accounts. This inquiry took place in the month of October last, and the result is to be found in the report of the Treasury Accountant, attached hereto, which contains much valuable information.

Money Order Office,
Sydney, 1st June, 1868.

F. W. HILL,
Superintendent.

Account Branch,
Treasury, New South Wales,
28 October, 1867.

Sir,

In accordance with the Honorable the Treasurer's memorandum of the 16th instant, which I received on the 21st, I proceeded to the Money Order Office on the following day, and, after having shewn my authority to the Superintendent, I at once commenced to inquire generally into the working of the department, with special reference to the system of accounts.

I now beg to submit, for the information of the Honorable the Treasurer, the result of this inquiry, upon which I was engaged during the greater part of three days. The system of accounts in the Money Order Office of New South Wales is the same as that prescribed by the English Code of Regulations; and the several cheques now in operation are precisely similar to those adopted in the London office, which have been found from experience to be in every respect suited to the nature of the business. As the English system has been adopted by all the British Colonies, any material departure from it, so long as they draw upon each other and upon the United Kingdom, would, it is believed, only lead to confusion in the accounts.

Great improvements have been effected by the present Superintendent, since I visited the office in July, 1865, as a member of a Board appointed by the late Treasurer, Mr. Smart, to examine the accounts of the office, and to suggest improvements for its better management. Mr. Hill had only been appointed to the office of Superintendent a few weeks previous to the appointment of this Board, and could not, therefore, be held responsible for the state of the office at the date of our visit. We then found that the examination of the country agents' accounts was more than six months in arrear, and that several important books required by the Imperial Code of Regulations were not in use.

I am glad to say that all arrears have now been worked up, and the books which were wanting in 1865 have been in use for a considerable period, and contain a record of the transactions of the department from the 1st July, 1864.

The present arrangements of the office are, in my opinion, highly satisfactory; and great credit is due to Mr. Hill for the efficient manner in which the business of the department generally is now conducted. The more commodious building which he now occupies has, no doubt, enabled him to carry out improvements which could not be effected so long as the business was conducted in those lately occupied small and inconvenient premises in George-street.

The staff of the head office consists at present of—1 Superintendent, 1 Chief Clerk, 1 Accountant, 1 Teller, 3 Clerks, and 1 Messenger.

The following is a list of books in use:—Ledger, Journal, Intercolonial and United Kingdom Account Current Book, Monthly Abstract of Ledger, Quarterly Abstract of Ledger, Intercolonial and United Kingdom Paid Order Book, Intercolonial Issue Book, United Kingdom Issue Book, Postmaster's Ledger, Final and Divided Account Book, Paid Order Record Book, Postmaster's Commission Memorandum, Forfeited Order Book, Teller's Cash Book, Teller's Issue Journal, Teller's Paid Journal, Abstract of List of Intercolonial Issue, Remittance Book, Superintendent's Cash Book, Duplicates and Transfer Register, Commission Account Book, Register of Remittances to Postmasters.

The duties of the Superintendent and his staff are of a very onerous and responsible nature, as the closest application and vigilance are requisite to prevent errors creeping into the accounts, as well as to keep arrears from accumulating. In addition to having to keep a full and clear record of own issues and payments, the head office records the transactions of every agency in the Colony.

The Teller's Cash Book is examined daily by the Chief Clerk, and the cash balance therein shewn at the close of every day's business is counted by that officer, who locks it up in the office safe until the following morning, when it is handed back to the Teller to enable him to commence the business of the day. As the amount of orders paid at the head office largely exceeds the amount of orders issued (see statement marked A), the Teller's cash account has frequently to be replenished by drafts on the Superintendent's account in the Bank of New South Wales, the balance on which on the 21st instant was £5,974 3s. 4d. This balance is verified, as also the cash balance of £223 14s. 4d., shewn by the Teller's Cash Book on the same date.

Letters containing remittances from country agents are opened by the Chief Clerk, who also keeps what is styled the "Superintendent's Cash Book." These letters are entered in a register for the purpose, and as remittances are frequently made in half-notes, orders, and cheques, particulars are recorded (although not so fully as I think might be), until the second halves of the notes are received, and the cheques and orders have been converted into cash, when the necessary cash book entries are made. Although the Accountant has the means of checking at a subsequent stage of the accounts the several remittances which thus come into the hands of the Chief Clerk, yet, in my opinion, it would be preferable that letters containing remittances in any form should be opened, as in the Treasury, in the presence of a second clerk, both of whom should record in separate books full particulars of every sum received.

Perhaps

Perhaps the most important duties of the head office are those connected with the country agents accounts, which I will now proceed to describe, having fully examined the system upon which they are kept, and which, as I have already stated, is precisely similar to the system in operation in the United Kingdom.

There are at present about 120 money order offices throughout the Colony, all of which draw upon each other, as well as upon the head office, the several Australian Colonies, and the United Kingdom. The agents furnish to the head office daily returns of their receipts and payments, together with all paid orders and advices in support of the same. These are at once examined, and where errors are found to exist they are corrected, the agents being informed in every case, and instructed to make similar corrections in their books.

After examination and correction, the transactions exhibited by these daily returns are duly recorded in the ledger, which is so arranged as to shew the balance in the hand of agents at the close of each day's business. As a general rule, agents should remit to the head office any balance in hand in excess of a fixed sum varying from £10 to £80, allowed as a reserve fund for the business of their office.

When an agent does not do so, he is written to, in a certain form prescribed by the English Code of Regulations; and should no attention be paid to this, he is written to again in the second prescribed form, which is of a more urgent character; and if this also fail to produce a reply, a third letter is despatched, informing him that, in the event of an immediate explanation and remittance not being received, his conduct would be brought under the serious notice of the Honorable the Postmaster General. Should no notice be taken of this third and last communication, a full report of the case, accompanied by a statement of account to the latest date, is at once laid before the political head of the department, who directs all further proceedings which may be necessary.

A weekly statement of the balances in the hands of the several agents in the Colony is prepared for the information of the Superintendent, who, after a careful examination of the same, and due inquiry into the general state of the accounts of those who appear to have a larger sum in hand than that allowed as a reserve, draws the attention of such agents as he considers to be falling too much behind to the state of their accounts, by addressing them in the first form prescribed by the regulations referred to.

In addition to the daily return, each agent is required to furnish a monthly statement, in order that it may be seen whether the errors discovered in the former have been duly corrected. If on examination with the ledger the monthly statement is found to differ, it is corrected in red ink, and returned to the agent, in order that he may examine the corrections, initial the statement, and return it to the head office. By this means the agent's balances at the end of every month are made to agree with the books of the Superintendent's Office.

I found on inquiry, that an average of more than one-third of the monthly statements had to be returned to the agents, although many of the errors are of a trifling nature, yet if allowed to remain uncorrected would in a short time lead to great confusion in the agent's accounts and serious inconvenience to the head office.

As the agents have not, I believe, had the advantage of being verbally instructed in their duties, it is not surprising that many of them should fail to render their returns in a correct form. Should the Legislative Assembly consent to vote the amount on the 1868 Estimates for an Inspector of Public Revenue Collector's Accounts, that officer could, I imagine, without inconvenience, undertake the duty of visiting all the money order offices, for the purpose of instructing the agents in the proper method of keeping their accounts and preparing returns for the head office.

The accounts between this Colony and the United Kingdom, and the other Colonies, are kept upon a different principle to those between the head office and the country agents. In the latter case, the agents are debited with the amounts of orders issued and credited, with the amount of orders paid; while in the former, the United Kingdom and the several Colonies are debited with the amount of their orders paid in this Colony, and credited with the amount of New South Wales orders paid by them. By every opportunity, statements of orders drawn in this Colony on the United Kingdom and the Colonies, and statements of their orders paid in New South Wales, are transmitted, accompanied by the necessary advices and paid orders. In addition to these statements, quarterly accounts are made out by the Superintendent, and forwarded to the chief office of each country for verification. When the balance of an account is in favour of the Colony, a remittance is requested, if against it, a remittance is made, so soon as the quarterly accounts is returned approved. The accounts for the September quarter have been made out and despatched, with the exception of the New Zealand one, which will be transmitted by the Panama mail of the 1st proximo. The rule with regard to these quarterly accounts is, that they should be prepared by the remitting office, that is, the office which draws more orders than it pays. For example—as between this Colony and the United Kingdom—this is the remitting country, because the amount of orders drawn by the United Kingdom on New South Wales is small compared with the amount of orders drawn by the latter on the former.

The following Statement for the quarter ended the 30th June last will more fully illustrate this, namely:—

A balance sheet shewing the liabilities and assets of the department is prepared quarterly, and submitted to the Honorable the Postmaster General.

The last statement of this kind that has been prepared is that for the quarter ended 30th June last, which I examined and compared with several accounts in the ledger. The following is a copy of it:—

LIABILITIES.
Unpaid orders, 30 June, 1867 .....		£12,359	1 5
Balance due to Tasmania .....		274	11 1
Do. Victoria .....		953	11 9
Commission due to Treasury .....		47	17 7
Total Liabilities .....		£13,635	1 10
ASSETS.

Balance on hands of M.O. Agents .....		£7,659	19 0
" due by New Zealand .....		310	17 2

" " South Australia .....		13	5 0
" " Western Australia .....		14	4 4
" " United Kingdom .....		1,577	0 1
Amount of robbed remittance, to be recovered from
Treasury .....		92	0 0
Cash in Bank New South Wales .....		3,223	6 7
Total Assets .....		£13,635	1 10

In the above statement of Assets, it will be observed that the United Kingdom appears indebted to this Colony to the amount of £1,577 Os. 1d. This arises from remittances having been made in May and June to meet orders drawn during these months, which orders could not of course be paid in England before July and August, the amount of which is included in the £12,359 1s. 5d. unpaid orders under the head of liabilities.

No better proof of the correctness of the system of accounts in the Money Order Office can be furnished than this statement of liabilities and assets, which was prepared and transmitted to the Honorable the Postmaster General on the 26th September last—nearly a month prior to my visit of inspection.

The commission received for orders issued at the head office is paid into the Treasury weekly, and that received by the country agents monthly. A monthly attested account of the sums thus received is furnished by the Superintendent to the Auditor General, who checks the same with the amounts found credited in the books of the Treasury.

In the Report of the Board appointed by Mr. Smart in 1865, it was recommended that the bank balance on the General Money Order Account be tested by the Auditor General, or such officer of his department as he may depute, at uncertain periods, and not less than four times a year. This recommendation has not, I find, been approved—at all events, it has not been carried out. I annex several statements illustrative of the money order business in this Colony, which may be found interesting as well as useful. I cannot close this Report without acknowledging the ready assistance rendered by the Superintendent and his assistants whilst I was engaged in the prosecution of this inquiry, notwithstanding it took place during the busiest part of the month.

The Under Secretary
For Finance and Trade.

I have, &c.,
JAMES THOMSON.

I

The Postal Inspector, Northern District, to The Secretary, General Post Office, Sydney.

Sydney, 8 April, 1868.

Sir,

I do myself the honor to furnish you, for the information of the Honorable the Postmaster General, with the Report on the work performed by me as Postal Inspector, during the year 1867.

I was appointed on the 1st of January of that year, and was engaged at the General Post Office, Sydney, until the beginning of April, in revising time-tables, reporting on different postal matters, and making myself thoroughly acquainted with the practical working of the department. I then started on my first tour, and inspected the post offices at Newcastle, The Junction, Stockton, and Raymond Terrace, I then returned to Sydney, having travelled 189 miles.

On the 3rd of April, I again started from Sydney on a visit to the north-western portion of the Colony; and on this journey I inspected the following post offices, viz.:—Newcastle, Singleton, Darling-ton, Warkwork, Jerry's Plains, Denman, Merriwa, Cassilis, Turee, Denison Town, Cobbora, Munderoran, Coolah, Turee, Cassilis, and Mudgee. I arrived in Mudgee on the 27th of April, having travelled 448 miles.

I left Mudgee for Munderoran the 11th of June, for the purpose of inquiring about certain postal matters at that place; visited on my way the post office at Denison Town, and came back to Mudgee on the 18th of the same month, having travelled 162 miles.

On

On the 9th of July, I started on a tour of inspection, and visited Cassilis, Merriwa, Thornthwaite, Scone, Murrurundi, Quirindi, Wallabadah, Breeza, Gunnedah, Carroll, Gulligal, Narrabri, Wee Waa, Pilliga, Wallgett, Collarenebri, Mugindi, Kunopia, Moree, Warialda, Bingera, Upper Bingera, Barraba, Wood's Reef, Manilla, Tamworth, Moonbi, Goonoo Goonoo, Currabubula, Bowling Alley Point, Nundle, Hanging Rocks, Moonan Brook, Scone, Aberdeen, Muswellbrook, Camberwell, Darlington, Singleton, Belford, Branxton, Lochinvar, West Maitland, East Maitland, Woodville, Hinton, Morpeth, Hexham, Waratah, Lambton, Borehole, and Newcastle post offices, having travelled 1,480 miles. I then returned to Sydney, and remained at the head office until the 10th of November, attending to several urgent matters connected with my office.

I started on the 11th of November, for the purpose of inspecting the post offices, and reporting on different postal matters in the Northern Districts. From that date to the 31st of December, I visited the following post offices, viz.:—Raymond Terrace, Tomago, Limeburner's Creek, Stroud, Myall River, Langworthy, Gloucester, Woodside, Wingham, Dingo Creek, Tinonee, Taree, Cundletown, Redbank, Jones' Island, Port Macquarie, Hursley, Huntingdon, Ellenborough, Rolland's Plains, Kempsey, Warneton, Frederickton, Darkwater, Summer Island, Grafton, South Grafton, Brush Grove, Ulmarra, Palmer's Island, Rocky Mouth, and Lawrence, having travelled 863 miles. The total distance I travelled is 3,137 miles.

This report is only to shew the number of miles I have travelled, and the number of post offices I have inspected. It would not be possible to enumerate, in a report like this, the requirements or different improvements which could be made in this department; but as I have in my different reports pointed out, from time to time, the irregularities in the country offices, I think it is only necessary now to say, that a more frequent inspection ought to be made, and the system of fine under the 14th clause of the Postage Act of 1867 ought to be rigidly enforced.

I also beg to be allowed to dwell slightly on a few important topics:—1st. The construction of the mail coaches are not all that could be desired, as far as the safety of the mail bags is concerned. It would be perhaps advisable to bind persons taking fresh contracts, or contractors that when they built new coaches, they should be built according to specification furnished by the department. 2nd. The mode of carrying the mails on horseback is, in my opinion, an objectionable one. Certainly, in many cases it cannot be avoided; but when practicable, it ought to be done away with, and coaches run instead. 3rd. It is also my duty to notice, which I do with pleasure, that I found that the few offices I had inspected on my first tour, had on my second inspection, a few months later, very much improved in the working of the postal business. On the whole, I have found that the country postmasters are willing to do their duty, but unfortunately are very often thoroughly ignorant of it. 4th. The great majority of postmasters are dissatisfied with their low salary, and very eager for an increase. This is not perhaps practicable now, but a little improvement in their situation is advisable when possible.

I have reason to think that the public at large are satisfied with the working of the department in general. Applications for new post offices, although often sent in, are in many cases not necessary, considering the large number already in existence.

I have, &c.,
GABRIEL DE MILHAU,
Postal Inspector.

J.

The Postal Inspector, Southern District, to The Secretary, General Post Office, Sydney.

Wagga Wagga,
15 July, 1868.

Sir,

In compliance with your instructions, I have the honor to furnish, for the information of the Honorable the Postmaster General, my Report for 1867.

I was appointed Postal Inspector for the Southern District of New South Wales, on the 1st January of that year, and during the months of January, February, and March, I was engaged in Sydney, revising the time-tables, and acquiring a practical knowledge of the working of the various branches of the department.

During the year I visited and inspected the following post offices, viz.:—Newtown, Menangle, Campbelltown, Berrima, Murrumbah, Marulan, Goulburn, Mutt Billy, Gunning, Gap Range, Yass, Bookham, Jugiong, Gundagai, South Gundagai, Adelong Crossing-place, Tarcutta, Wagga Wagga, Urama, Jerilderie, Conargo, Deniliquin, Moama, Tarago, Boro, Junee, Coramundra, Wombat, Young, Ten-mile Creek, Albury, Murrumburrah, Burrowa, Dalton, Nattai, Bathurst, Guyong, Orange, Molong, Mitchell's Creek, Yetholme, Spring Valley, Kenny's Point, Currawang, Narrandera, Hay, Booligal, Condobolin, Forbes, Grenfell, Cowra, Carcoar, King's Plains, Evans' Plains, Oberon, Fish River Creek, Mutton's Falls, O'Connell, Botany, Waterloo, Redfern, Bourke-street, St. Leonards, St. Peter's, Norwood, Marrickville, Camperdown, Petersham, Glebe, Balmain, Pyrmont, St. Mark's, Manly Beach, Watson's Bay, and Blaney.

It will be seen that I have inspected seventy-six post offices, besides the various mail services by which the offices are connected; travelled 4,023 miles, 1,390 miles by mail, 642 miles by rail, 1,991 miles by buggy. Much reliable information has been gained by me of distances, roads, creeks, and crossings, that will be of great value to the department.

The time on nearly all the mail lines in the southern and western parts of my district has been accelerated. Some towns have received considerable benefit. The Sydney mail arrives in Goulburn one hour earlier than formerly, in Albury six hours, Wagga Wagga six hours, Deniliquin nineteen hours, and Hay thirty hours. All districts near the above towns receive a similar advantage, as also do the residents of that part of the Colony south and west of Hay to the Darling.

The weather during the year 1867 was of unusual severity, the southern and western districts being visited by heavy floods, which in many instances stopped all traffic. The mail service was in consequence performed under great difficulties.

The new bridge at Gundagai, and the proposed bridge across the Fish River, near Gunning, will prevent detentions at those places in future.

The system of amalgamating the post office with the telegraph office, has been attended with the most beneficial results where adopted. I have found the postal duties more correctly performed, and the public seem better satisfied.

I consider in all small towns where there is a telegraph office, the amalgamation ought to take place, provided the telegraph station master is in a position to undertake both duties.

It is almost impossible to have the postal duties attended to in a correct manner in a store. The public consider that where the postmaster is a storekeeper, he has advantages not enjoyed by others of the same trade in the same town.

I have, &c.,
V. MOYSE,
Postal Inspector.

The foregoing statement shows a decrease of revenue amounting to £2,272 2s. 2d. for the year 1867. This small decrease is accounted for through the stagnation of trade, and the extraordinary depression in all branches of business, in consequence of the English panic in 1866.

I am of opinion that there are strong reasons for congratulation that the falling off was not greater, when we compare—with the decrease for the same year—the Telegraph Revenue in the Colony of Victoria, which shews a loss on private messages of no less than £7,030 5s. 2d.; and on Government Telegrams, £6,810 18s.; or a total decrease of £13,341 3s. 2d. on the year.

Telegrams received at Country Post Offices.

I have lately noticed that the system adopted in Belgium, of receiving telegrams at post offices, in places where there are no telegraph stations, has been extended to New Zealand. The plan is a very simple one, and might easily be adopted in this Colony. Each country postmaster should be provided with books of telegram forms and scales of charges; and an extra fee of 6d. on each message might be collected as a gratuity for the extra duty. The despatch to be placed in an envelope marked "telegram," and forwarded per mail to the nearest telegraph office. The charges collected to be sent with the telegram, in stamps or money order. This system will partially extend the advantages of telegraphic communication to about 300 additional places within the Colony.

Stamps for Telegrams.

The Indian Government have lately adopted stamps as franks for telegrams, on the same principle as postage stamps for letters. I would recommend for the consideration of the Government that the same system be tried in this Colony, as I have every reason to believe that it would prove a great public convenience, and simplify the collection of the revenue.

Amalgamation of Offices.

This might be done to a considerable extent by appointing the wives of the telegraph station-masters nominally as post-mistresses. The office of District Registrar might also be performed by the telegraph officers, with the understanding that the telegraph duties are to take precedence.

In minor towns where there are branch lines, alphabetical instruments might be employed, and placed in charge of the postmasters, as at Raymond Terrace and Scone.

Telegraph Communication with England.

I think little need be said, in this Report, on the extension of the Indian system of telegraphs to Australia, as the Home Government have refused any assistance to the scheme, either by a grant of public money or by guaranteeing interest on the necessary amount for the undertaking. In fact, until the new line to India, via Berlin, Warsaw, Odessa, Kertch, Tiflis, Teheran, Ispahan, and Bushire, is completed, communication by telegraph through the present Indo-European Line would be too expensive and unsatisfactory to be very largely availed of by the mercantile community of these Colonies. When the new line above referred to is in working order, I have no doubt that proposals will be made to construct the line by a public Company.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

E. C. CRACKNELL,
Superintendent of Telegraphs.

No. 1.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to GOVERNOR SIR JOHN YOUNG, BART.

(Circular.)

Downing-street,
20 November, 1866.

SIR,

14th November, 1866. With reference to my circular despatch of the 22nd September last, I have the honor to transmit to you, for your information, the accompanying copy of a further letter from the Board of Treasury, respecting the Postal Communications between this Country and the East Indies, China, Japan, and the Australian Colonies.

I have, &c.,
CARNARVON.

Mr. G. W. Hunt to Sir F. Rogers.

Treasury Chambers,
14 November, 1866.

SIR,

With reference to the Minute of this Board, dated 4th September last, upon the subject of the Postal Communications between this Country and the East Indies, China, Japan, and the Australian Colonies, I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you, for the information of the Earl of Carnarvon, that, after communication with the Postmaster General, my Lords have authorized His Grace to defer giving the notices to the Peninsular and Oriental Company for the termination of their contracts, until the result of the communication is known, which His Grace will at once open with the Italian Government, through the Foreign Office, as to the establishment of the proposed new route via Brindisi.

I am, however, to add, that they have reason to believe that the statements contained in Captain Tyler's report will meet with the cordial adherence of that Government.

As regards the Australian Service, I am to state that my Lords have also authorized the postponement of the notice for the cessation of the service between Galle and Sydney, until the replies shall have been received from the Colonies to their Lordships' recent Minute, in order that the notice may be given simultaneously with the invitation for tenders for the new service, thereby affording to the competing contractors more time for maturing their arrangements than they would otherwise have, if the notice were given at once, and the invitation for tenders delayed, as was at first contemplated.

I am, &c.,
GEORGE WARD HUNT.

No. 2.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to THE OFFICER ADMINISTERING THE GOVERNMENT OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

(Circular.)

Downing-street,
19 October, 1867.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your predecessor's despatches of the numbers and dates given in the margin, and to inform you that the Memorial signed by the Representatives of the several Australian Colonies who met in conference at Melbourne in March last, to consider the question of Postal Communication between Australia and this Country, has been duly laid before the Queen.

Her

Her Majesty's Government have given a careful consideration to the proposals contained in this Memorial. I transmit to you, for the information of yourself and of your Responsible Advisers, a copy of a letter from the Board of Treasury, enclosing, with other papers, an extract of a Report by the Postmaster General upon the subject.

You will perceive that Her Majesty's Government are unable to adopt the views expressed by the Delegates; and it will therefore remain for the Governments of the Colonies concerned to consider whether they will undertake to provide, in future, for the Postal Service between Ceylon and Sydney on the terms mentioned in the Treasury letter.

If this course should be decided on, it will be necessary that I should be informed without delay whether it is desired that notice should be given to the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company for the termination of the present contract.

In the event of new tenders being called for, I beg to call attention to the form prescribed by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury in the concluding paragraph of their letter.

I have, &c.,

BUCKINGHAM & CHANDOS.

---

Mr. Hamilton to Sir F. Rogers.

Treasury Chambers,
2 October, 1867.

Sir,

With reference to the several communications received from the Colonial Office on the subject of the Memorial addressed to Her Majesty from the Colonies of Victoria, New South Wales, New Zealand, South Australia, Queensland, and Tasmania, in which they propose that there should be maintained, at the joint expense of the Mother Country and of the Colonies, "three ocean postal lines, one by way of King George's Sound, one by way of Torres Straits, and one by way of New Zealand and Panama," I am commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to transmit to you an extract from the Report of the Postmaster General, dated the 24th ultimo; and I am to request that, in laying the same before the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, you will move His Grace to inform the Governors of the respective Colonies that the Memorial in question having been referred to this Board, my Lords have, in communication with the Postmaster General, given the whole subject their most attentive consideration, and it is with much regret that my Lords are compelled to take a view of the matter differing from the views expressed by the Delegates of the Australian Colonies; but my Lords are bound to state that they entirely concur in the opinions expressed by the Duke of Montrose, and that they, therefore, would not feel themselves justified in proposing to Parliament to contribute towards the expense of a packet service viâ Torres Straits, or to do more than is at present done by the British Post Office in support of the packet service viâ Panama.

In making this communication to the Governors of the respective Colonies, my Lords would suggest that His Grace should again inquire whether the Colonial Government will be prepared to make the future necessary arrangements for the service between Ceylon and Sydney (on the understanding that the Mother Country will pay one-half of the reasonable expense; and if so, whether it be their wish that notice be given to the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company to terminate the existing contract.

In the latter case, in order to prevent any part of the time over which the notice would run (two years) from being lost, seeing that the whole will be necessary to secure an effective competition, my Lords would suggest that the Colonial Governments should be requested to send over a form of tender, so that, if this form be approved of, tenders may at once be called for in this Country and also in Australia, on the arrival of the then following outward packet; and to guard against a form being transmitted in which my Lords could not concur, they request that the respective Governments be informed that, in any forms of tender which they may prepare, insertion must be given in such forms to the conditions numbered 1, 3, 29, and 30, and to the first and third paragraphs of the printed letter preceding the conditions as appears in the enclosed forms of tender.

I am, &c.,

GEO. A. HAMILTON.

EXTRACT from the Report of the Postmaster General, dated 24th August, 1867.

" I HAVE the honor to return to your Lordships the copies of the various despatches and the other communications which have been received from the different Australian Colonies and New Zealand, in reply to the request which you made to the different Colonial Governments there to concert an arrangement for conducting, under their own supervision, the Packet Service between Ceylon and Sydney; so that the responsibility for the satisfactory performance of that service should no longer rest with the Home Government, but with the Governments of the Australian Colonies, which are much nearer to the place of performance: all which documents you referred to me for my report.

" In order, I presume, to give effect to your Lordships' wishes, the Colonial Governments, except that of Western Australia, appointed Delegates to meet in conference at Melbourne; but these Delegates, instead of addressing themselves solely to the specific object that had been named, entered into a consideration of the general question of postal communication with the Mother Country.

" Had your Lordships thought it likely that such a course would be adopted, you would probably have deemed it proper to send out some person well acquainted with the facts of the case, to act as your representative; but I have little doubt that you will agree with me in thinking that there was no necessity for this enlarged inquiry, the chief matter into which it diverged—namely, the expediency of establishing postal services by way of Panama and Torres Straits, having within the last few years been fully discussed, and so far at least as the Home Government was concerned, decided upon.

" As it was, there was no one at the meeting to represent British interests as distinguished from those of different Colonies, and British interests appear, to a great extent, to have been lost sight of.

" The result of the conference is set forth in a series of resolutions, the most important of which are that, in the opinion of the Delegates there ought to be three postal routes between this Country and Australia, viz.,—first, via Suez and King George's Sound; secondly, via Suez and Torres Straits; and thirdly, via Panama; and that the cost of the services by these three routes ought to be defrayed—one-half by the Mother Country, and one-half by the Colonies. These resolutions, having been reported to the Governments of the different Colonies (except that of Western Australia, which has expressed its willingness to abide by any arrangements which the Mother Country may think proper) appear to have received the sanction of the Executive of each Government; but in the case of the very important Colony of Victoria, the Legislature was divided on the subject; for while about three-fifths of the Legislative Assembly supported the resolutions, the remaining two-fifths and the whole of the Legislative Council opposed them.

" Thus in Victoria, the balance of legislative opinion is shown to be decidedly against the resolutions of the Delegates; and this would probably have been yet more manifest, had not the question in the Lower House been treated as one of confidence in the Ministers.

" After giving the subject the full consideration which its importance demands, I am unable to recommend your Lordships to consent to what is asked. In fact, that which is demanded is but a repetition of what you have already refused, viz., to impose on the British community, in addition to the present payment, a share of the cost of a postal service via Panama, and of the cost of another postal service, via Torres Straits; except that, so far as regarded the service via Panama, you agreed to convey the letters a large part of the distance, viz., across the Atlantic, without claiming any part of the sea postage; and although you expressly stated that this arrangement must be regarded as only temporary, you have not brought it to an end, nor do I advise that this should be done. But more assistance than this I cannot recommend your Lordships to give. No new circumstances of importance have arisen since the questions relating to these two routes were settled, and I see no reason why the matter should be re-opened. Whether the services to Australia be one or two per month, it is clear to my mind that the general interests, both of the Mother Country and of the Colonies, require that these services should be by way of Suez and King George's Sound; and it is manifest by the report of the debate on the subject in the Legislative Assembly of Victoria, and by other evidence, that this opinion is largely held in Australia; indeed, it was expressed in the debate, even by Mr. Verdon, the Victorian Colonial Treasurer, who was one of the Delegates, and who supported the Delegates' resolutions. He said—' We, sir, think so well of the Suez route, that we should have been very glad to have adhered to that route entirely, but we are not disposed to pay £120,000 a year for it.' Even if this estimate were correct, I am surprised that it did not occur to Mr. Verdon that, in all likelihood, your Lordships would be still more indisposed to pay a yet larger sum for a route far worse than that via Suez.

" But on what Mr. Verdon bases his calculation of £120,000 as the share that Victoria might have to pay of the cost of the Suez line, I am at a loss to conceive, even if South Australia should withdraw from the contract, which is very improbable, seeing that the Suez route is incomparably the best for that Colony (indeed, her Delegates expressed their belief that it is the best for the Australian Colonies generally); and if Tasmania also should withdraw, the Victorian payment, which would then be confined to half the cost of the main line, minus the contribution from Western Australia, would (as may be computed from a table inserted hereafter) be about £80,000, or only two-thirds of the sum named by Mr. Verdon; and practically the payment by Victoria would be much less, since a postage of not less than eighteen-pence would probably be immediately levied levied on any letters sent by the Suez route to Colonies not contributing to its cost; and by the simple expedient of requiring a high packet rate to be paid on any letters posted during the time that the packet remains in any port in Australia before sailing for another port, attempts to make what may be termed a fraudulent use of the packets for letters to a non-contributing Colony would to a great extent be frustrated.

“ Mr. Verdon's opinion of the superiority of the Suez route is fully shared in by the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce, which, in a petition to the Legislative Assembly against the adoption of the recommendations of the Delegates, states ‘ That the establishment of a fortnightly service by way of Suez and Galle, while it would be far less costly to the Colonies, would afford superior advantages to almost all of them.’

“ There can be no doubt that, by means of the route viâ Suez and King George's Sound, the great bulk of the letters for the Australian Colonies can be carried to their destination more swiftly and cheaply than by any other route, as is shewn by the accompanying tables, giving the time during the seven months since the beginning of the present year, taken by the mail packets in arriving at each of the Australian Colonies by the three different routes.

“ In these tables, the time by the Suez and King George's Sound route is that occupied in the conveyance of such letters as go viâ Marseilles, which your Lordships, I am sure, will agree with me in regarding as the true time for comparison. Letters by the slower route, viâ Southampton, are so forwarded at the choice of the writers, who, for mere sake of greater speed (of the worth of which each, in his particular case, must be the best judge), are not willing to pay the additional charge of four-pence for the transit of their letters through France, and to expect the State to add largely to the cost of a service (already entailing a heavy loss) in order that those who are not willing to pay a few pence for more speed should nevertheless have this speed, seems to me most unreasonable.

“ I therefore wholly dissent from those persons who maintain that, in comparing the length of the voyage, the time should be taken, not by the Marseilles route, but by that viâ Southampton.

“ The tables to which I have referred shew that, since the beginning of the present year (the period to which they relate), the time occupied in the conveyance of the homeward mail from every one of the Colonies in Australia proper, was longer when sent viâ Panama than viâ Suez; the excess varying from an average of nine days to one of twenty-three, and being on a general average fifteen days, the average in the case of Victoria being as high as seventeen days.

“ The only Colony which appears to have been benefited by the Panama route is New Zealand; but even in this case the gain on the average was little more than half a day, and it would appear from the debate in the Victorian Legislative Assembly (14th May, 1867), that to some places even in New Zealand the letters arrive quickest by the Suez route.

“ The number of letters received from the Australian Colonies is at present about 90,000 per month, while from New Zealand it is little more than 28,000, so that as between the two routes (if the choice lay between them) for every letter which would be accelerated by the use of the Panama route to the extent (say) of three-quarters of a day, three other letters would be delayed about fifteen days.

“ Thus the Suez and Marseilles route, as compared with the Panama route, is superior in the ratio of about fifty to one.

“ The tables are confined to the homeward mails, because, as respects those viâ Panama, we have no record of the arrivals of the outward mails, and therefore no comparison with respect to these mails can be made, but I have no reason to suppose that the result would be different.

“ By no possibility could the ‘ regularly fortnightly communication’ spoken of by the Delegates in their tenth resolution be established in the way they propose, inasmuch as the time required by the Panama and Torres Straits lines being for the bulk of the letters much greater than that occupied by the viâ Suez and King George's Sound, it would be beyond human power (except by a vast expenditure on the Panama line in coals, and in the construction of larger ships) by the aid of the two former lines, to divide the month equally.

“ To agree to what is asked would probably necessitate an increase in the gross expense to this country of the Australian Packet Service from less than £86,000 a year to £200,000, or by about £114,000; and although the postage were raised from 6d. to 1s., our loss on this service even now amounting to more than £45,000 per annum, would probably increase to about £120,000.

“ When the Australian Colonies were lately asked whether they would like to have a fortnightly instead of a monthly service, on the understanding that if a fortnightly service were established, the postage would be raised to a shilling, almost all of them replied in the negative; and now, strange as it may appear, most of them in effect apply for this very fortnightly service, but to be performed in an inferior way, and at a much greater cost. The explanation cannot be that, on the latter plan, it is expected that there would be no increase of postage, since by our joining in an arrangement for taking over the contract for the Panama service, and agreeing to contribute towards the cost of a service viâ Torres Straits, the reason for such increase of postage would be greatly strengthened.

“ In truth, however, it is clearly not for the improvement of the service that the resolutions of the Delegates are framed. If these resolutions were adopted in toto, the services, so far at least as relates to those viâ Suez and Panama, would remain the same, but that which would be greatly altered is the incidence of payment.

“ Leaving

“Leaving Western Australia out of the account, it is found that, as compared with what the different Colonies now pay, or expect to pay, each of them, except Tasmania, would, under the proposed arrangement, pay less, while all the burden thus shifted from them would be thrown on the Mother Country. This is made evident by the following tables, which show, as nearly as can be estimated, first, the present payments by the different Colonies and the Mother Country for the existing services, now that New Zealand has all her letters (unless specially addressed otherwise), sent viâ Panama; secondly, the payments, if New South Wales and Queensland should also withdraw from a participation in the contract for the Suez and King George's Sound Service (as New South Wales has given notice of her intention to do); thirdly, the payments if there were no services viâ Panama or Torres Straits, but, on the other hand, two services per month viâ Suez and King George's Sound; and showing, fourthly, what would be the respective payments if the recommendations of the Delegates were adopted.”

TABLE shewing the present Cost of the Australian Mail Packet Service, as divided between the Imperial Post Office and the Colonies; the same supposing the New South Wales and Queensland correspondence, in addition to that of New Zealand, were conveyed viâ Panama; thirdly, the cost of a Service twice a month viâ Suez; and, fourthly, the division of the expense of three lines of Packets proposed by the Committee of Delegates of the Colonies.

¶ This includes £10,000 for conveyance across the Isthmus of Panama.

¶ Estimated cost of a Monthly Service.

£16,431

From these tables it will be seen that, if the recommendations of the Delegates were adopted, while the large additional expense that I have mentioned (£114,000) would be cast on the Mother Country, the following reductions, if matters took the shape they seem expected to take, and which, in fact, they have already taken in part, would (in round numbers) be made in the payments of the different Colonies:—

South Australia .....	6,900
New South Wales .....	7,300
Victoria .....	14,000
New Zealand .....	12,700
Queensland .....	66,000

As respects the greater cheapness of the route viâ Suez and King George's Sound, it is fair to remark that its cost will probably soon be enhanced by the withdrawal of most of the Indian letters from the packets conveying the Australian mails between Suez and Ceylon; but, with full allowance for this augmentation, I have no doubt that this route, especially as regards a bi-monthly service, will still be much the more economical.

With a view, probably, of obtaining the adhesion of South Australia to their scheme, the Delegates propose that the packet on the main route from King George's Sound to Sydney shall touch at Kangaroo Island; but unless, in any future contract, the terms upon which this alteration can be accomplished (an alteration in which your Lordships have already refused to concur) be more favourable than those demanded by the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company (and I have no reason to suppose that they will), the call at Kangaroo Island, which the present contractors regard regard as entailing some danger to their ships, can only be obtained, as the Government of Australia is fully aware, by an additional annual payment of £15,000, and with an increase in the stipulated time of the round voyage of two days; the effect of the latter change being to delay the great bulk of the Australian letters, with the further probable result of occasionally depriving New South Wales of her return post—a result, which, in the case of Queensland, would be yet more frequent.

But whatever would inflict postal injury on any of the Colonies, would likewise injure the Mother Country; and in this way also, therefore, we should be sufferers from the proposed alterations.

With regard to the estimated cost of the plan recommended by the Delegates, it may be right to mention that it appears by the debate before referred to, that Mr. Verdon thinks that a much less sum than £400,000 a year would suffice, but he gives no reason for his belief, and in my opinion the real cost, instead of being less than this sum, would prove to be greater.

As no estimate has been sent of the proposed plan under its different heads, I am driven to some extent to conjecture; but as far as I can prognosticate (and of some of the items there is little or no doubt) the subjoined may be taken as a tolerably correct estimate of the cost:—

Present cost of the Suez route (including transit rate and incidental expenses) .....		179,100
Add for stoppage at Kangaroo Island .....		15,000
Probable cost of the Panama route.
Main line to Wellington and Sydney.....	110,000
Transit rate over the Isthmus of Panama.....	10,000
Branch Lines.
Sydney to Brisbane .....	2,000
Wellington to Melbourne .....	13,000
Melbourne to Adelaide .....	5,000
Melbourne to Tasmania .....	1,800
	141,800
Probable cost of Torres Straits route (between Queensland and Singapore only).....		90,000
		£425,900

This is exclusive of all share of expense (as regards the Panama route) of conveying the mails across the Atlantic, and as regards the Torres Straits route, of the service between London and Singapore; and is moreover exclusive, as regards both these latter routes, of all incidental expenses.

Although by one of the resolutions of the Delegates, it is declared that the route via Torres Straits does not present any considerable postal advantage to any Colony except Queensland, a claim has been raised in favour of this route in relation to telegraphic communication; but I would observe that at present the advantages under this head are on the side of the route via Ceylon and King George's Sound, and that when the telegraphic wires shall have been carried to Singapore, the time must be at hand for their extension to some point of Australia, and that as soon as this is accomplished, all questions relating to the joint action of the packets and telegraph will come to an end.

In some of the despatches from the Governors of the Australian Colonies, and in the report of the proceedings of the Delegates, great stress is laid on the magnitude of the commerce now existing between the United Kingdom and Australia. I rejoice to think that this commerce should so largely have expanded; but to the question now under consideration, the fact does not seem to me to have any application. That question is not whether there ought to be much or little postal communication between the two countries, but how this communication can best be effected.

As I have already mentioned, the request for the alteration under consideration is but a repetition in a new form of the application formerly made to your Lordships, and which was positively refused—a refusal that was clearly notified before any contract for the service via Panama was entered into; and as respects the Torres Straits Service, there appears as yet to be no contract.

Even if your Lordships were disposed to yield to this renewed demand, the question of the Australian Mail Packet Service would not thereby be settled. I feel certain, and the state of public opinion in the Colony of Victoria confirms me in the belief, that at no distant time application would be made to establish, in addition to the services now called for, a second monthly service via Suez and King George's Sound; for, without a second service, by this route Australia will soon be almost the only part not merely of Her Majesty's dominions, but of the whole civilized world, which has not a good post with this country at least twice a month.

Considering the circumstances I have enumerated, and having regard to all the interests concerned to those of the Mother Country and to the general benefit, as distinguished from matters arising from rivalry and local considerations of the Australian Colonies and New Zealand, I feel bound, in the discharge of my public duty, to recommend your Lordships not to comply with the present application.

TENDER

TENDER FOR CONVEYING HER MAJESTY'S MAILS BETWEEN POINT DE GALLE AND SYDNEY.*

SIR,

We hereby offer to convey Her Majesty's Mails by steam-vessels between Point de Galle (Ceylon) and Sydney (New South Wales), and on the conditions marked A., once each way in each calendar month, for the sum of _____ per annum; or in each month of four weeks for £ _____ per annum; or to convey them twice each way in each calendar month for the sum of £ _____ per annum; or once in each fortnight for £ _____ per annum.

Provided the time allowed be increased to _____ hours, instead of 516 hours, for the voyage from Point de Galle to Sydney, and to _____ hours, instead of 564 hours, for the voyage from Sydney to Point de Galle, we will perform the service once each way in each calendar month for the sum of £ _____ per annum; or in each month of four weeks for £ _____ per annum; or to perform it twice each way in each calendar month for the sum of £ _____ per annum; or once in each fortnight for £ _____ per annum. Or, if the time from Point de Galle to Sydney be reduced to _____ hours, and from Sydney to Point de Galle to _____ hours, we will perform the service once each way in each calendar month for the sum of £ _____ per annum; or in each month of four weeks for £ _____ per annum; or to perform it twice each way in each calendar month for the sum of £ _____ per annum; or once in each fortnight for £ _____ per annum.

Provided we be allowed the further annual sum of £ _____ if the service be per calendar month; of £ _____ if it be per month of four weeks; of £ _____ if it be per half calendar month; or of £ _____ if it be once each fortnight; and provided also that an addition of _____ hours be made to the time for the voyage in each direction, we will agree that the packets to be employed in this service shall call off Kangaroo Island, to land and embark mails, on every voyage, whether outward or homeward.

If the 15th condition be dispensed with at any time, we will agree to an abatement of £ _____ per annum if the service be monthly, whether the month be calendar or one of four weeks, and to an abatement of £ _____ per annum if it be bi-monthly.

We will agree to an abatement of £† _____ in the amount of the subsidy, on condition that the penalties for delay on the voyage, instead of being absolute, shall not be payable when it is proved to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General that the delay has arisen from causes beyond our control.

We will further agree to an abatement of £† _____ in the amount of the subsidy, if conditions 7, 8, 9, and 10 be omitted.

We propose as our sureties, in the penalty of £25,000, Mr. _____ of _____ and Mr. _____ of _____ and we refer you to _____ as persons of whom inquiry can be made as to the responsibility of such sureties.

We engage that the vessels shall be complete and ready for sea on the _____ in failure of which we agree to pay to Her Majesty the sum of ten pounds for every day's delay beyond that time. And, should the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th conditions be retained, we further engage that the hulls of the vessels shall be ready for survey on the _____, and that the vessels shall be complete and ready for final survey on the _____; in failure at either of which times we agree to pay to Her Majesty a like sum of ten pounds for every day's delay, but so that these penalties shall not in the aggregate exceed the sum of £25,000.

We agree to commence the service on the _____ ‡, and in the event of such service not being commenced on such day, or on the first day thereafter which the Postmaster General may fix as the day of sailing, we agree to pay to Her Majesty the sum of one hundred pounds for every day from that time until the said service shall be begun by us, but so that the whole amount of penalties for such failure shall not exceed £25,000.

And we agree to execute a contract for the performance of the said service, according to the said conditions marked A.

We are, Sir,
Your obedient servants,

(Signature.)

(Address.)

The Secretary of the Post Office.

* All tenders must be addressed to the Secretary of the Post Office, with the words "Tender for the conveyance of Mails between Point de Galle and Sydney," in the left-hand corner of the envelope. Other things equal, a preference will be given to a tender made upon this printed form and in exact accordance therewith. Even, however, when this form is used, the parties tendering may, in a separate letter, to be forwarded with the tender, suggest, for consideration, any alteration in the conditions, or otherwise. The Postmaster General does not engage, irrespective of other considerations, to accept the lowest tender, or even to accept any tender.

† It is not compulsory to fill up these blanks.

‡ It is desirable that the service should commence in February, 1866, but the parties tendering are at liberty to name a later day for the commencement, should they be unable to begin the service at the time named.

CONDITIONS,

CONDITIONS,

Referred to as marked A.

1. Every vessel employed in this service must call on the voyage, in both directions, at King George's Sound and at Melbourne.
2. The mails must be conveyed from Point de Galle to Sydney in 516 hours, and from Sydney to Point de Galle in 564 hours, exclusive of stoppages, the duration of which will be fixed by the Postmaster General.
3. Under the term "Her Majesty's Mails," are comprehended all boxes, bags, or packets of letters, newspapers, books, or printed papers, and all other articles transmissible by the post, without regard either to the place to which they may be addressed, or to that in which they may have originated; also all empty bags, empty boxes, and other stores and articles used or to be used in carrying on the Post Office service, which shall be sent by or to or from the Post Office.
4. A premium of fifty pounds to be given for every complete period of twenty-four hours by which the time occupied in any voyage from Point de Galle to Sydney may be less than that allowed under the contract.
5. A penalty of five hundred pounds to be incurred on each occasion when the contractors fail in providing a vessel, in accordance with their contract, ready to put to sea at the appointed time, and a further penalty of one hundred pounds for every day's failure in providing such a vessel after such appointed time; but so that these penalties shall not in the aggregate exceed the part of the subsidy applicable to a single voyage, plus a sum of two thousand pounds. The contractors also to be subject to a penalty of two hundred pounds for every complete period of twenty-hours consumed on any voyage, from whatever cause arising, beyond the number of hours allowed for the voyage; but so that the total amount of the last-named penalty for delay on any one voyage shall never exceed the part of the subsidy applicable to such voyage.
6. The payment by the contractors of any penalties shall in no way prejudice the right of the Postmaster General to treat the failure to provide a proper vessel at the appointed time, or to perform a voyage at or within the appointed period, as a breach of the contract.
7. The contractors to supply, during the continuance of the contract, and to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, a sufficient number of steam-vessels of adequate power, and in all respects suited for the performance of the service within the time stipulated in the tender.
8. The Postmaster General to have power to require that the vessels to be used for the purposes of the contract shall be built on plans previously approved of by the Lords of the Admiralty.
9. The vessels to be always supplied with all necessary and proper machinery, engines, apparel, furniture, stores, tackle, boats, fuel, lamps, oil, tallow, provisions, anchors, cables, fire-pumps, and other proper means for extinguishing fire, lightning conductors, charts, chronometers, proper nautical instruments, and whatsoever else may be necessary for equipping the said vessels and rendering them constantly efficient for the service to be performed. The vessels to be manned by legally qualified and competent officers, and a sufficient crew of engineers, able seamen, and other men.
10. The vessels to be subject at all times to survey by officers in the employment of the Admiralty or Post Office, and any defect discovered on such survey to be immediately made good by the contractors; failing which, the vessel to be considered unfit for use, and the contractors to become liable to the penalties named in the 5th condition. The survey to extend not only to the vessels themselves, but also to the officers, engineers, crew, machinery, and everything which the contractors are bound to provide.
11. The days and hours of departure and arrival at each port to be fixed by the Postmaster General, and to be subject to alteration, from time to time, by him or a notice to the contractors of three months. The Postmaster General also to have power, by an order to the Commander, to delay the departure of any vessel, from any port, for a period not exceeding twenty-four hours, and to delegate this power to any person to whom he may think fit to entrust it.
12. On giving reasonable notice to the contractors, the Postmaster General to be at liberty otherwise to modify the service to be performed, as, for example, to increase or decrease the frequency of the conveyance of mails between any of the ports, or to extend the conveyance of mails to other ports, or to discontinue the conveyance of mails to any port. The amount to be paid or deducted for any alteration to be settled by agreement, or failing that, by arbitration in the usual manner.
13. The contractors to provide, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, a separate and convenient place of deposit for the mails on board each vessel.
14. Should the Postmaster General require it, a room for the purpose of sorting and making up the mails to be also provided to the satisfaction of the Postmaster General, on board each vessel. The actual cost of erecting this sorting room, and of providing the necessary furniture, lamps, &c., to be defrayed by the Postmaster General, but the furniture and lamps to be cleansed and kept in repair, and oil for the lamps to be supplied, at the cost of the contractors. The services of the crew to be given in the conveyance of the mails between the mail-room and the sorting-room.
15. Proper accommodation and mess to be provided for an officer of the Royal Navy in charge of the mails, and also, if required, for his servant. The Postmaster General to have power to substitute for a naval officer and his servant, a civil officer of the Post Office

Office to take charge of the mails and to be employed in sorting them, together with an assistant or servant. The naval or civil officers to be victualled and otherwise treated as chief cabin passengers, and assistants and servants as fore cabin passengers; and, whilst the packet stays at any port to or from which the mails are conveyed, to be all allowed to remain on board.

16. At each port where the mails are to be delivered or received, the officer having charge of them shall, whenever he may deem it necessary, be conveyed to and from the shore, with or without the mails, (as he may desire), in a suitable boat, of not less than four oars, to be furnished with effectual covering for the mails, and to be properly manned and equipped.

17. The contractors and all commanding and other officers of the vessels which may be employed in the performance of the contract, and all agents, seamen, and servants of the contractors, shall, at all times during the continuance of the contract, punctually attend to the orders of the Postmaster General, or of any of his officers or agents, as to the mode, time, and place of embarking and disembarking mails.

18. Should the Postmaster General at any time deem it expedient to place the mails, or any part thereof, in the care of the Commander of any vessel, such Commander shall take charge of them, and be responsible for their due receipt and delivery. The Commander shall also make the usual Post Office declaration, and furnish such journal, returns, and other information, and perform such other services, as the Postmaster General or his officers may from time to time require.

19. Except such letters as are not required by law to pass through the Post Office, the contractors not to receive, or permit to be received, for conveyance on board any of the vessels employed under the contract, any letters other than those contained in Her Majesty's mails. No mails must be conveyed on behalf of any colony or foreign country without permission of Her Majesty's Postmaster General; and the whole postage of every mail shall, under all circumstances, be at his disposal.

20. Every vessel which may have started, or which should have started before the termination of the contract must complete its voyage in like manner as if the contract remained in force.

21. The contractors, when so required, to be bound to convey from any one port of departure or call, to any other such port, any number of Government passengers, not exceeding four of the first class, two of the second, and ten of the third class, together, if so required, with their wives and children; such passengers with their families to be treated in no respect, whether as regards food, cabin or other accommodation, or aught else, in an inferior way to ordinary passengers of the same class, or than is required by the Regulations of Her Majesty's Transport Service. The messing of the first and second class Government passengers to include each day an imperial pint of good sound bottled or draught ale or beer, and that of the first class, in addition, an imperial pint of good Foreign wine, either port or white. The several classes of passengers to mess in separate places. Medical attendance, medicine and medical comforts to be provided, as also mess utensils and fittings, cooking utensils, articles for table use and mess places, fuel, lights, requisite articles of bedding, and all other necessaries. Third class passengers to have hammocks or bunks (subject to the approval of the Naval Authorities) placed between decks.

22. The passage-money for Government passengers or their families to be the same as that charged by the contractors for ordinary passengers of a similar kind, and to include all the requisites specified in the 21st condition, and the freight of baggage according to Government scale. Whenever any alterations of rates for ordinary passengers may be made, the Postmaster General and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to be immediately apprised of such alterations.

23. Returns of the embarkation and disembarkation of all Government passengers to be furnished immediately after the departure and arrival of each vessel.

24. Payments for passage-money of Government passengers to be applied for by invoices according to a form to be obtained from the office of the Director of Transport Services, and to be made upon the production, to the Director, of the orders for the passages, together with a certificate, under the hand of the Commanding Officer, specifying the number of the third class passengers (men, women, and children) conveyed, with the ages and sexes of the latter, and stating the periods during which these have been regularly supplied, while on board, with provisions; and also of a certificate under the hand of each first and second class passenger, of his or her having been landed at the place of destination, and of having been properly accommodated and messed during the voyage, and specifying the dates from and to which they were so messed, computed from the first to the last dinner meal.

25. The passage money for the wives and families of commissioned and civil officers, when not ordered to be conveyed at the public expense, to be paid to the contractors by the officers themselves.

26. The contractors to receive on board each of the vessels employed in the performance of the contract, and to convey, on behalf of the Admiralty, without charge, any small packages which may be ordered for conveyance, containing astronomical instruments, charts, wearing apparel, medicines, or other articles; and also (on receiving from the Postmaster General, or his officers or agents, or from the British Naval Officer in command of the station, two days' previous notice) to receive on board any naval or other stores, not exceeding ten tons weight, or fifteen tons of 40 cubic feet each in measurement, at any one time, in any one vessel; and to convey and deliver such stores at the lowest rate of freight charged by the contractors for private goods, immediate notice notice being given to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty of any alteration in such rate of freight. The contractors to be in all cases responsible for the custody and safe delivery of the packages and stores.

27. Except where otherwise specified, none of the duties enumerated in the foregoing conditions to give the contractors any claim to remuneration beyond the general subsidy.

28. Every sum of money forfeited by the contractors to be considered as stipulated or ascertained or liquidated damages, and to be payable whether any damage shall or shall not have been sustained by reason of the breach for which the penalty may be levied. The amount to be deducted by the Postmaster General out of any moneys then payable or which may thereafter become payable to the contractors; or, at his discretion, the payment thereof may be enforced, with full costs of suit.

29. The contract to continue in force until the expiration of a twenty-four calendar months' notice, to be given in writing at any time by either party.

30. The contract will not be binding until it has lain upon the Table of the House of Commons for one month, without disapproval, unless, previous to the lapse of that period, it has been approved of by a Resolution of the House.

31. Subject to deductions for penalties or otherwise, payments to be made quarterly at the General Post Office, out of moneys to be provided by Parliament.

32. All notices which the Postmaster General or any of his officers or agents are authorized to give, either to be delivered to the commander of any vessel of the contractors or to any officer or agent of the contractors in charge of any of such vessels, or to be left at the office or last known place of business of the contractors.

33. In case of great public emergency, the Government to have power, at any time during the continuance of the contract, to purchase, at a valuation, any of the vessels employed under the contract, or to charter the same exclusively for Her Majesty's service; the amount of the valuation or rate of hire to be agreed on by the Admiralty and the contractors, or failing such agreement, by arbitration in the usual manner.

34. In case of any such purchase or hire, the contractors to be at liberty either to terminate the contract, or, if they can provide other vessels in proper time, to continue it, or, with the consent of the Postmaster General, and on such terms as may be agreed upon, to continue to perform part only of the contract.

35. The contractors not to assign, underlet, or dispose of the contract, or any part thereof, without the consent, in writing, of the Postmaster General.

36. In case of the breach of the 35th condition, or in case of a great or habitual breach of the contract of any other kind, the Postmaster General to have power, and that without previous notice, to terminate the contract; such termination not to give the contractors any claim to compensation.

37. In pursuance of the provisions of the Act 22 Geo. 3, c. 45, no Member of the House of Commons to be admitted to any share of the contract, or to any benefit arising therefrom.

38. For the due fulfilment of the contract, the contractors to enter into a bond, with two responsible sureties, to be named in their tenders, in the penalty of £25,000. Such penalty to be considered and recoverable as liquidated damages.

39. Should any dispute arise respecting the interpretation of any part of the contract to be framed on the basis of these Conditions, the same to be settled by arbitration in the usual manner; and a submission to arbitration may be made a rule of Court.

No. 4.

THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES to THE OFFICER ADMINISTERING THE GOVERNMENT OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

(Circular.)

Downing-street,
7 February, 1868.

Sir,

21st Jan., 1868.

With reference to my circular despatch of 17th December, forwarding copies of the new Contract with the Peninsular and Oriental Company, for the conveyance of the India and China mails, I transmit to you, for your information, the copy of a letter from the Board of Treasury, with one from the Postmaster General respecting the increased postal subsidy payable by the Australian Colonies, in consequence of the additional payment to be made to the Company, for an increased service between Point de Galle and Sydney.

I have, &c.,
BUCKINGHAM & CHANDOS.

Mr. Hunt to Sir F. Rogers.

Treasury Chambers,
21 January, 1868.

Sir,

In transmitting to you copies of a letter dated the 5th ultimo, from the Postmaster General, relative to an additional payment to be made to the Peninsular and Oriental Company, for an increased Mail Service between Point de Galle and Sydney, together with the Minute of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury thereupon, and also of a further letter respecting the consequent increased amount of subsidy payable by the Australian Colonies,—I am directed by my Lords to request that you will move His Grace the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos to cause the communications suggested by the Duke of Montrose to be made to the Governors of the Australian Colonies and of New Zealand.

I am, &c.,
GEORGE WARD HUNT.

The Duke of Montrose to The Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

General Post Office,
5 December, 1867.

My Lords,

The question of the Indian and China Mail Services having now been disposed of, and a service as far as Point de Galle once in every alternate week, instead of twice in a calendar month, having been established, to take effect in February next, it becomes necessary to adapt the arrangements for despatching the Australian mails from Point de Galle to Sydney, and the return mails from Sydney to Point de Galle, to the altered times at which the English mails will, after February next, arrive at and depart from Point de Galle.

Under the contract with the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company for the Australian Packet Service, this Department has the power to require the Company to perform a voyage between Point de Galle and Sydney, once each way in every lunar month of four weeks, on paying to the Company an additional sum of £10,000 per annum, or £130,000 per annum in all, and I request to be furnished with the authority of your Lordships for making this increased payment.

I have, &c.,
MONTROSE.

Mr. Hamilton to The Postmaster General.

Treasury Chambers,
13 December, 1867.

My Lord Duke,

I am directed by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that my Lords have had before them your Grace's letter of the 5th instant, stating that it has become necessary to adapt the arrangements for despatching the Australian mails from Point de Galle to Sydney, and the return mails from Sydney to Point de Galle, to the altered times at which the English mails will, after February next, arrive at and depart from Point de Galle; and I am desired to state that my Lords are pleased to authorize your Grace to call upon the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company to perform a voyage between Point de Galle and Sydney once each way in every lunar month of four weeks, in accordance with the terms of their contract for the Australian Packet Service, and also to pay to the said Company an additional sum of £10,000 per annum, or £130,000 in all, in consideration of their performing such additional service.

I have, &c.,
GEO. A. HAMILTON.

The

The Duke of Montrose to The Lords Commissioners of the Treasury.

General Post Office,
9 January, 1868.

My Lords,

In consequence of my representing to your Lordships that it will be necessary to take steps for adapting the Australian Mail Packet Service to the altered service between this Country and Point de Galle, which will come into force in February next, under the new contract with the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company, you have been pleased to authorize me to call upon the said Company to perform a voyage between Point de Galle and Sydney once each way in every lunar month of four weeks, in accordance with the terms of their contract, and also to pay to the Company an additional sum of £10,000 per annum, or £130,000 in all, in consideration of their performing such additional service.

Inasmuch as a moiety of the additional payment will have to be defrayed by the Australian Colonies and New Zealand—raising their joint contribution towards the Peninsular and Oriental Company's subsidy from £60,000 to £65,000 per annum—your Lordships will, no doubt, think it right to cause the Secretary of State for the Colonies to be acquainted with the increased payment about to be made, and requested to inform the Governors of the Colonies concerned accordingly.

I have to add, that the Peninsular and Oriental Company have been duly called upon to perform the additional service required.

I have, &c.,
MONTROSE.

THE SECRETARY, GENERAL POST OFFICE, SYDNEY, to THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY.

General Post Office,
Sydney, 27 March, 1868.

SIR,

With reference to the despatch transmitted in May, 1866, by His Excellency the Governor to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, notifying the intention of this Colony to withdraw from the arrangement under which the subsidy paid to the Peninsular and Oriental Company is apportioned between the Imperial Government and the several Australian Colonies, I am directed by the Honorable the Postmaster General to request that you will be so good as to mention to the Honorable the Colonial Secretary, that no official intimation of the receipt of such despatch in England has been forwarded to this office.

As such withdrawal was to take effect at the expiration of two years and three months from the date of the arrival of the notice in England, the interest of this Colony in the contract of the Peninsular and Oriental Company will probably terminate on the 13th September next; and it will therefore be necessary to make some provision for mail communication with the United Kingdom via Suez from that date.

If any reply from the Imperial Authorities has been received, Mr. Docker would feel obliged by the Honorable the Colonial Secretary causing the same to be officially communicated to him.

I have, &c.,
S. H. LAMBTON,
Secretary.

THE PRINCIPAL UNDER SECRETARY to THE SECRETARY, GENERAL POST OFFICE, SYDNEY.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, 3 April, 1868.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 27th March last, inquiring whether any reply has been received to the despatch transmitted in May, 1866, by His Excellency the Governor, to the Right Honorable the Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, notifying the intention of this Colony to withdraw from the arrangement under which the subsidy paid to the Peninsular and Oriental Company is apportioned between the Imperial Government and the several Australian Colonies.

2. In reply, I have received instructions to state that Sir John Young's despatch on the above subject was dated 23rd May, 1866 and numbered 34, and that no reply appears to have been received to it.

MINUTE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

General Post Office,
Sydney, 19 May, 1868.

THE Postmaster General is desirous of submitting to His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council the following remarks upon the present position of the Postal arrangements of the Colony, as affected by the recent changes in the Contract with the Peninsular and Oriental Company for the conveyance of the mails viâ Suez.

Copy enclosed in Mr. Cardwell's despatch, dated 14th Dec., 1865, No. 84.

By a contract entered into by the Imperial Government with the Peninsular and Oriental Company on the 17th November, 1865, twelve monthly mails passed between London and Sydney every year. The mail leaving Sydney on the 24th of each month travelling viâ Marseilles reached London on the 13th or 14th of the second month following, and the bulk of the mail viâ Southampton generally on the 19th of the same month.

The return mail from London viâ Southampton left on the 20th of each month, and the Marseilles portion on the 26th, arriving in Sydney on the 16th or 17th of the second month following, the return mail being again despatched on the 24th. The interval for replies in London was therefore, for correspondence viâ Marseilles about twelve days, and for the bulk of the mail viâ Southampton generally one day.

The interval for replies in Sydney was eight days; allowing ample time, when the mail boats were regular in their arrival, for reply from the larger portion of the Colony. The course of post was thus complete for twelve mails yearly each way.

This service was performed for a subsidy of £120,000 per annum, of which the proportion charged against this Colony in the year 1867, when it reached its maximum, was £16,004 5s. 9d.

Vide despatch from the Duke of Newcastle to Sir J. Young, dated 26th Feb., 1862.

But the Australian Colonies have also been charged since the year 1862 with the proportion of the subsidy allowed to the same Company for the carriage of the Indian mails, such subsidy amounting to the sum of £230,125 of which the proportion charged against this Colony in 1867 was £3,448 4s. 4d., irrespective of the amount charged for the transit through Egypt, &c., of which the share of the Colony in that year was £1,043 1s. 8d.

Vide Postmaster General's letter to Colonial Secretary, dated 19th Dec., 1865, and Minute of Executive Council, confirmed 22nd Dec., 1865.

The irregularities in the performances of this service were so great in the year 1865, that, after repeated remonstrances and the passing of a resolution in the Legislative Assembly on the 21st December, 1865, to the effect that if these irregularities were continued it would be expedient for this Colony to give the required notice of its intention to withdraw from its share in the contract, notice in the form laid down by the instructions named in the margin* was formally given to the Imperial Government in May, 1866.

*Letters of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, dated 16 Nov., 1864. See enclosure in Mr. Cardwell's despatch, dated 25 Nov., 1864.

† It is but fair to state that, since the giving of this notice and the alteration in the Time-table, the service has been performed by the Peninsular and Oriental Company with remarkable regularity, only one case of late arrival having occurred.

† Vide Minute of Executive Council confirmed 30 May, 1866, and Sir J. Young's despatch, dated

The Imperial Government in the present year, in pursuance of the powers vested in it by the terms of the contract between Galle and Sydney (to the exercise of which this Colony had given its assent without stipulation), has changed the provision in the contract for a monthly mail, to that of a four-weekly one, ‡ increasing the subsidy for the service to £130,000. It has at the same time entered into a new contract with this Company for the conveyance of the Indian mails, under which the mails for the Australian Colonies will be conveyed to Galle; by which the subsidy for the service is raised from £230,125 to £400,000, with a provision for increase to £500,000. The payments from the Australian Colonies will consequently be proportionally increased. §

† See Treasurer's (Mr. Smart's) letter to Sir J. Young, dated 10 Feb., 1865.

But while the expense of the Postal Service is thus increased, the advantage gained by this Colony is by no means commensurate; in fact, the change will be a disadvantage. For instance, the mail leaving the Colony for England viâ Marseilles and Southampton respectively, say on the 28th March, will arrive in London—the Marseilles portion on the 17th May, and the Southampton on the 23rd of the same month.

But the outward mail from London viâ Southampton will have left on the 16th May, and the Marseilles portion on the 22nd. It will thus be seen that a correspondent writing from Sydney viâ Marseilles may receive a reply by the same route (five days affording this opportunity); but a correspondent viâ Southampton is absolutely precluded from reply by both routes, the mail having left viâ Southampton seven days, and the Marseilles portion one day before the arrival of his letter.

This alteration has materially changed the course of post. A letter leaving Sydney by the March mail, although it arrives in London in May, cannot be replied to, viâ Suez, before the departure of the June mail. The course of post is thus increased from four to five months.

At the Sydney end of the line the period ostensibly allowed for reply is four days, the mail arriving on the 17th May, and the outgoing mail leaving on the 21st; but as the arrival in Sydney for the greater portion (nine months) of the year will be on a Sunday, no delivery can take place till Monday morning. As the outgoing mail leaves her moorings at 9 a.m. on the Thursday following, the mail must close on the previous evening. The period for reply is thus limited to three days, or rather two and a half days.

This will completely exclude all parts of this Colony excepting Sydney and the immediate neighbourhood from the opportunity of reply, and the course of post will in this instance also be extended to five months.

If

If the Imperial Government exercise the further powers they hold under the contract, by requiring the Peninsular and Oriental Company to provide for the service of a fortnightly mail, increasing the subsidy to £184,166, the increased service would only restore to New South Wales the course of post she enjoyed under the monthly system.

It will now be necessary briefly to advert to the proceedings of the Postal Conference held in Melbourne, in March, 1867.

In consequence of the repeated complaints of the various Australian Colonies, of the irregularities in the performance of the service, the Imperial Government expressed a desire that the Colonies should confer, and if possible, take the conduct of this service upon themselves. The Colonies accordingly, by their Representatives from the whole of the Australasian Group, including New Zealand, met in Melbourne, and after protracted discussions, agreed unanimously to a postal scheme, which would have provided a fortnightly service to each Colony, at a cost not exceeding £400,000 per annum, the cost to be equally divided between Great Britain and the Australasian Colonies. This proposition was submitted to the Imperial Government, accompanied by a Memorial to Her Majesty from the United Colonies, shewing the importance of the individual Colonies to Great Britain, from their material resources and the amount of their commercial intercourse with the Mother Country.

Unfortunately a proposal so calculated to advance the interests of the Colonies and their commercial intercourse with Great Britain has not met with the approval of the Imperial Government, as appears by the Treasury Minute enclosed in the Despatch of the Duke of Buckingham, dated 19th October, 1867, the ground of disapproval being, as may be gathered from the Minute of the Postmaster General of England enclosed therein, that economic views should be the sole principle to be considered in entering into engagements of the nature of a postal contract.

Without dwelling upon the feelings of regret which such a communication is calculated to excite, completely ignoring, as it does, those higher considerations which influenced the views of the Representatives, at a Conference which certainly succeeded in embodying in a practicable shape the germ of a Federal Union of the Australian Colonies, the position of the Imperial Authorities is open to comment on the sole ground upon which it is based.

The expense of conveyance of the Indian Mails, including the portion chargeable upon the Australian Colonies for the carriage of their mails from England to Galle and the separate contracts for the carriage of their mails from Galle to Sydney and the Inter-colonial branches, amounted under the monthly system in round numbers to £396,000. Of this amount the sum of about £175,000 was the estimated cost of carriage of Australian mails, of which a moiety was charged against the Colonies. The Colonies, however, pay £109,948 annually, subsidies for Intercolonial branches connected with this service amounting to £20,050 having to be met; to which Great Britain does not appear to contribute. Under the new Indian Contract, and the new arrangement under the Australian Contracts, by calculation based upon the apparent principle which has governed previous charges, the cost of the Australian Service will be increased to at least £220,000; and if the power of changing the four-weekly service into a fortnightly one (the only arrangement which can confer any advantage at all upon the Colonies north of Melbourne) be exercised, it will amount to about £304,000.

Minute of the Lords of the Treasury, 4 Sept., 1866.

But a fortnightly mail via Suez will only confer upon these last-named Colonies the advantage of a monthly mail.

The proposition of the Postal Conference would have conferred a fortnightly mail on each Colony, at an estimated cost based upon existing contracts of £340,000 for the three Trunk Lines.

The table accompanying the Report of the Imperial Postmaster General enclosed in this despatch, which shews the comparative time occupied by the homeward mails by the respective routes via Suez, Panama, and Torres Straits, cannot be considered of any value for practical purposes.

The delay in the arrival of the mails in London via Panama has arisen, with one exception, upon the Atlantic side of the Isthmus, and might have been obviated had the whole service been under the control of the contracting parties.

Before these irregularities commenced, the mails via Panama had at least on one occasion been delivered in less time than the Southampton mail via Suez of the corresponding period, the time occupied in its transmission being sixty days, the Suez time being sixty-one days; and the last mail from England to Sydney by this route was delivered in fifty-seven days.

Mail of the 24th June, 1866, from Sydney.

In the whole of these comparative voyages, the period requisite for the transmission of the mail via Marseilles has been assumed as that required for the carriage between the two points of arrival and departure; an assumption evidently unfair, inasmuch as the increased rate renders this accelerated portion of the route unattainable by the bulk of the correspondents.

But the remarkable feature in the Report of the Postmaster General is that, with the exception of Victoria, the interests of the Australian Colonies have been ignored. The whole question has been argued as if the interests of Melbourne alone were to be consulted.

The opinions of Victoria, including a quotation from a speech of the late Treasurer of that Colony, the debate in the two Chambers of the Victorian Legislature, and an extract from a Petition of the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce, are alluded to, and partly combated, but no allusion whatever is made to the interests or the opinions of the other Colonies; although if the opinions of the public bodies alluded to are considered as entitled to consideration in the one instance, equal weight should be attached to

to the views expressed in both Chambers of the Legislature in New South Wales, and by the Sydney Chamber of Commerce, all of which were unequivocally in approval of the scheme unanimously adopted by the Members of the Postal Conference.

Seeing, therefore, that such a postal arrangement alone can meet the requirements and harmonize the conflicting interests of the respective Australian Colonies,—that the difficulty in the arrangement of the regular fortnightly communication proposed in the tenth resolution of the Postal Conference (but pronounced by the Postmaster General of England to be impossible), would be capable of accomplishment, provided the Imperial Authorities afforded their assistance in regulating the despatch of the respective mails,—the Postmaster General is of opinion that the interests of the Colony will be best consulted by requesting Her Majesty's Government to reconsider its decision upon the propositions of the Memorial adopted by the Conference held at Melbourne.

The Postmaster General is also of opinion, that the attention of the Imperial Government should be called to the Minute of the Executive Council of New South Wales, conveying the determination of this Colony to withdraw from the arrangement under which the subsidy for the Mail Packet Service via Suez is apportioned between the Mother Country and the several Australian Colonies, transmitted in the despatch of His Excellency Sir John Young, of May, 1866. If this notice has been accepted, the interest of this Colony in this arrangement will determine in October next; but the receipt of this notice has never been formally acknowledged.

Uncertainty, therefore, exists as to the actual position of the Colony with regard to its liability in relation to this subsidy.

J. DOCKER,
Postmaster General.

Abstract of Minute 68/23, 20th May, 1868.—Confirmed, 2nd June, 1868.

AFTER careful consideration of the subject so fully explained and set forth in the accompanying Minute Paper, the Executive Council concur in the opinions expressed by the Honorable the Postmaster General, as therein stated; and accordingly advise that His Excellency the Governor be invited to communicate the same to the Home Government.

MINUTE OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

29 June, 1868.

THE Postmaster General submits, for the consideration of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive Council, a Minute dated the 29th June, 1868, which he has prepared in reply to an extract from the Report of the Postmaster General, England (to be found amongst the enclosures in the despatch of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 19th October, 1867, copy herewith), and recommends that a copy thereof be transmitted to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, as the reply of the Government of this Colony to the question submitted in the despatch above quoted.

The Postmaster General further proposes that copies of this minute be transmitted to the Administrations of the several Australian Colonies, as embodying the views of the Government of New South Wales upon the subject of increased postal facilities with Great Britain.

J. DOCKER,
Postmaster General.

MINUTE

MINUTE of the Postmaster General upon an "Extract from the Report of the Postmaster General (England) upon the Proposals of the Postal Conference held at Melbourne."

By a circular despatch of His Grace the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated the 19th October, 1867, and covering a letter from the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and an extract from a Report of the Postmaster General, the Governments of the respective Australian Colonies are informed that "the Memorial signed by the Representatives of the several Australian Colonies, who met in Conference at Melbourne in March, 1867, to consider the question of Postal Communication between Australia and this country (Great Britain), has been duly laid before Her Majesty."

This circular despatch further intimates "that Her Majesty's Government are unable to adopt the views expressed by the Delegates; and it will therefore further remain for the Governments of the Colonies concerned, to consider whether they will undertake to provide in future for the Postal Service between Ceylon and Sydney on the terms mentioned in the Treasury letter."

His Grace also states that, "if this course should be decided on, it will be necessary he should be informed, without delay, whether it is desired that notice should be given to the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company for the termination of the present Contract."

Despatches have been received from the Governments of South Australia and New Zealand, dated respectively the 2nd January, and the 16th March, 1868, requesting to be informed what steps the Government of this Colony intended to take in reference to the subject matter of this circular despatch; but no official communication of a similar nature has been received from the other Colonies.

I have, however, been informed of a movement which has commenced in Melbourne, and some steps have also been taken by the Chamber of Commerce in Sydney, to bring the subject under the consideration of their respective Governments.

I therefore conceive it to be expedient that the Government should be prepared to adopt some course of action, either singly or in conjunction with the other Australian Colonies.

As a preliminary step, I propose to ascertain the grounds upon which Her Majesty's Government have based their non-acquiescence in the proposals of the Representatives of the Postal Conference at Melbourne.

These are to be found in the letter of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, 2nd Oct., 1867, and are founded upon the Report of the Postmaster General, dated the 24th August, 1867, their Lordships stating that they "are compelled to take a view of the matter differing from the views expressed by the Delegates of the Australian Colonies," and "that they entirely concur in the opinions expressed by the Duke of Montrose."

It will, therefore, be necessary to examine this Report analytically, to ascertain the views upon the subject entertained by Her Majesty's Government, and which they judged to possess such weight as to compel them to decline complying with the request of the United Colonies, embodied in the Memorial to Her Majesty adopted by their Representatives at Melbourne, and endorsed by their respective Legislatures and Governments; and to present the question more clearly, I shall place the objection and the reply in juxtaposition:—

Objection.

1. That the Representatives of the Colonies exceeded their powers, which were intended merely to apply to concerting "an arrangement for conducting, under their own supervision, the Packet Service between Ceylon and Sydney"; but "these Delegates, instead of addressing themselves solely to the specific object which had been named, entered into a consideration of the general question of Postal Communication with the Mother Country."

Answer.

It is true that by a strict limitation to the letter of the recommendation of the Imperial Authorities, some ground may exist for this objection. The words are to be found in the Treasury Minute of the 4th September, 1866, upon the Report of the Select Committee of the House of Commons, 20th July, 1866, enclosed in a circular despatch of Lord Carnarvon, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 22nd September, 1866. The words of the Minute are these:—(After suggesting that an arrangement might possibly be made for the conveyance of the Australian Mails from Galle by the vessels of the Messageries Imperiales.) "It now becomes necessary to consider in what manner the Service between Point de Galle and the Australian Colonies is to be provided for, on the discontinuance of the present contract with the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company. My Lords would be glad if the Australian Colonies would themselves, in combination, undertake to provide this Service, in which case they would, as at present, be prepared, on behalf of the Imperial Government, to defray one-half of the reasonable cost of such service; and they would suggest that the Secretary of State for the Colonies should communicate with the different Colonial Governments with the view to such an arrangement being carried out."

Objection.Answer.

But the expressions used in the despatch of the Secretary of State, covering this minute, do not confine the question to the narrow view indicated in this objection. They are as follows:—

"I request that you will lay these papers before your responsible advisers, in order that they may make known their wishes and views on the several questions raised in their Lordship's minute, so far as they affect the arrangements to be made for the conduct and maintenance of the Postal Service between this Country and the Australian Colonies."

That the more extended view of the subject was also entertained in the Colonies, is evident from the correspondence, inviting the Conference convened in compliance with the suggestion contained in this minute of the Lords of the Treasury.

In the despatch of the Chief Secretary of Victoria to the Government of New South Wales of the 10th October, 1866, he says:—
"Adverting to the correspondence which has taken place respecting Steam Postal Communication by the Suez and Panama routes,—this Government having attentively considered the subject, are most desirous that such arrangements should be entered into by the Colonies interested in the question, as will place the services on a permanent and equitable footing."

Upon the 26th November he again writes, with reference to the desire expressed in the Treasury minute that the Colonies should undertake the joint control of the contract, that this "appears to the Government of Victoria to afford an additional reason to those already urged," for "the full discussion of all matters connected with Steam Postal Communication, in order that the whole question may be settled on equitable grounds for the common good."

Similar communications were addressed by him to the Governors of New Zealand, South Australia, Tasmania, Queensland, and Western Australia, in which he more explicitly states "that such a meeting should take place with the view to the whole question of Steam Postal Communication with the United Kingdom being fully considered." In reply, the Colonial Secretary of New South Wales, in a despatch on the 10th December, 1866, states,—
"On the importance of maintaining the through service, now that it has been successfully established, and the expediency of settling the whole question of Ocean Mail Communication in equitable regard to the interests of all the Colonies, and on a basis that shall afford some prospect of satisfaction and

2nd. That "had their Lordships thought it likely that such a course would have been adopted, they would probably have deemed it proper to send out some person well acquainted with the facts of the case to act as their representative" (that is, as the representative of Great Britain); but as it was, there was no one at the meeting to represent British interests, as distinguished from those of the different Colonies, and British interests appear to a great extent to have been lost sight of.

3rd. That although "these resolutions, having been reported to the Governments of the different Colonies, * * * appear to have received the sanction of the Executive of each Government," yet that "in the case of the very important Colony of Victoria," the "balance of legislative opinion is shewn to be decidedly against the resolutions of the Delegates."

4th. That the request, as far as relates to the payment of a share of Postal Services via Panama and Torres Straits, is "but a repetition of what has already been refused," and that "no new circumstances of importance have arisen since the questions permanence, this Government cordially concur in your views as now communicated, and it reciprocates the desire you express for the promotion of friendly relations in all matters of inter-colonial interest * * * For these reasons, it appears the more desirable that the whole group of British communities in this part of the world should be represented at any such Postal Conference as you suggest and invite, in order that the remoter as well as the more immediate advantages to be derived from each separate line of communication, both singly and forming a part of a system, may be considered thoroughly and from opposite stand-points."

Any attempt, therefore, to consider the question limited to the narrow view indicated by His Grace in this Report, would have been utterly futile; as by this limitation, the question is not open as to the conveyance of the mail from Galle, but is narrowed to its conveyance via King George's Sound—the objectionable feature in the scheme.

2nd. It is difficult to imagine in what manner British interests were disregarded in consequence of the absence of a British delegate at the proceedings of the Conference. His Grace does not point this out, and it must therefore be left to conjecture. An attentive perusal of the Memorial adopted by the Delegates will shew that British interests occupied as large a share of their attention as Colonial ones; and indeed it scarcely admits of a doubt that any measure which would advance Colonial interests, and at the same time unite them more intimately with Great Britain, must produce a corresponding advantage to the latter.

3rd. The proceedings and resolutions of the Conference having been unanimously endorsed by the Legislatures of all the other Australian Colonies, it is matter of surprise that no importance whatever has been attached to their views; while the opinions entertained by "two-fifths of the Legislative Assembly and the whole of the Legislative Council of Victoria" are considered of sufficient weight to induce the Imperial Government to refuse the proposition of the United Colonies. The Victorian Government, which it is humbly conceived was the sole authority which should have possessed weight with Her Majesty's Government, faithfully discharged the obligations which they had undertaken in concert with the Governments of the other Colonies, and pressed the adoption of the resolutions of the Conference, even at the risk of a vote of want of confidence. His Grace considers that the question was only carried by its assuming a political aspect, and that the opinion of opposition would have been more manifest, had not the question been treated as one of confidence in the Ministers. Might it not also have been assumed that the opposition to the proposal of the Conference was itself a political move?

4th. The refusal of the Imperial Government to contribute a subsidy to the Mail routes via Panama and Torres Straits, was made under very different circumstances. The former applications to the Imperial Government for assistance to these ocean relating to these two routes were settled, and that no reason exists "why the matter should be reopened." And His Grace further states—"It is clear to my mind that the general interests, both of the Mother Country and of the Colonies, require that the services should be by the way of Suez and King George's Sound" mail routes were made by individual Colonies acting under the non-concurrence of the others. But even under these unfavourable circumstances, the proposals for the establishment of one (if not of both) of these lines received the favourable consideration of Her Majesty's Government; and the Government of this Colony could not conceive that they were exceeding the bounds of their public duty by resubmitting the question to the Colonial Conference. For the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury informed Sir E. B. Lytton, on the 16th October, 1858, that, "with regard to the question of establishing a second monthly service, and the advisability of adopting the Panama route as the alternative line, my Lords are carefully considering this question, in order to see how the wishes and interests of the Colonies may best be met." On the 15th November, 1858, my Lords again write—"In reference to the establishment of the second route via Panama, my Lords have observed with satisfaction that the subject is now engaging the attention of the Colonies, as their desire to see this line of communication opened up, in conformity with the intimation conveyed in the notice appended to the advertisement for the service via Suez continues unabated."

On the 19th April, 1859, by a Treasury minute of that date, their Lordships write—"Considering the vast importance to the Australian Colonies, especially to New South Wales and New Zealand, of a communication which, amongst other advantages, will afford them facilities of intercourse with the whole Continent of America, from which they are at present comparatively excluded, and looking to the very liberal manner in which the Government of New South Wales have come forward in support of this scheme, my Lords are of opinion, that they ought no longer to delay fulfilling the intention which they formerly announced of inviting tenders for this service." Their Lordships annexed certain conditions, which were—1st, that the amount is reasonable (estimated at £160,000); 2nd, that the service should harmonize and alternate with the Suez service; and 3rd, that the Governments of the Australian Colonies would undertake one entire half of the cost of both the services via Suez as well as via Panama, whatever that may be. These tenders appear to have been called for on the 20th May, 1859, and copies of the tenders sent in (six in number) were forwarded to this Government. Before these were decided upon a change of Ministry took place; and the question, in common with the whole subject of Ocean Postal Contracts, was referred to a Select Committee of the House of Commons. This was the position of a question, which His Grace designates as refused, and finally settled. But Her Majesty's Government subsequently, upon the route being established by the conjoint action of the Governments of New South Wales and New Zealand, agreed to carry the mails to Colon, free of cost, as the contribution of the Imperial Government, an arrangement which is still in force. No request made by this Colony for the establishment of a second Mail Service via Torres' Straits has been refused, the various minutes and despatches upon the subject having simply remained unanswered, with the single exception of a request of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, 14 October, 1864, to the Governor of New South Wales, that he would convey the thanks of Her Majesty's Government to Captain Van Rees of the Dutch corvette "D'Jambé," for his valuable information on the subject.

Why His Grace should differ from the conclusions arrived at by previous Administrations, and why it is so "clear that the general interests both of the Mother Country and of the Colonies require that the services should be by the way of Suez and King George's Sound" is not pointed out; unless it is to be inferred that His Grace has relied alone upon the opinions expressed by the minority in the Victorian Legislative Assembly and the statements of the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce (both avowedly interested in an adverse view of the question) to the exclusion of those entertained and expressed by the other Colonies, and recommended by the respective Governments, including that of Victoria.

5th. It is so manifestly unfair to compute the comparative time occupied by the respective routes, by the period required via Marseilles, that it scarcely requires an answer. This route is not available to the great bulk of correspondents, by reason of its cost, which also operates upon the transmission of important documents, such as Government despatches, which from their bulk and weight are necessarily forwarded via Southampton.

If important matters require an acceleration in the time of transit, the still more rapid method of the telegraphic line is available, and has been applied; but this, like the shorter period via Marseilles, is entirely a question of cost, to be estimated and decided upon by the degree of emergency. But this objection would have no weight at all in regard to a line via Torres Straits; the Marseilles route being equally available for a mail delivered by that line, as for the one via King George's Sound. For all practical purposes therefore, as far as this Colony is concerned, the comparative time must be computed via Southampton.

As the tables relied upon by His Grace Appendix. do not furnish the materials for this computation, recourse must be had to such materials as can be furnished by the records of this Office.

6th. As the contract time for the respective services is, Southampton via Suez 57 days, and Southampton via Panama, 59 days, it certainly does not appear impossible or "beyond human power" to establish a fortnightly service by alternating the despatch of mails by the respective lines, say the 1st and the 15th of the month. Under the old arrangement of the monthly mail, which was despatched from London via Suez on the 20th of every month, this arrangement could have been easily effected by despatching the mail via Panama on the 4th. It is true that, under the present arrangement, by which the despatch of Australian Mails is made entirely subservient to the Indian and West Indian Service, some difficulty might present itself;

7th. That, in truth, it is clearly not for the improvement of the service that the resolutions of the Delegates are framed, "but that which is sought to be greatly altered is the incidence of payment."

8th. That, although, "in some of the despatches from the Governors of the Australian Colonies, and in the report of the proceedings of the Delegates, great stress is laid upon the magnitude of the commerce now existing between the United Kingdom and Australia," such fact (however much the subject for rejoicing) does not appear to have any application to the question now under consideration; this question being not whether there should be much or little postal communication between the two Countries, but how this communication can best be effected, and on the most economical terms.

9th. That if this renewed demand for assistance in the Postal Services viâ Torres Straits and Panama was yielded to, the question would not be settled, because in addition to the services now called for, application would soon be made for a second monthly service viâ Suez and King George's Sound; and finally, His Grace states,—

10th. "That having regard to all the interests concerned, to those of the Mother Country, and to the general benefit as distinguished from matters arising from rivalry and local considerations of the Australian Colonies and New Zealand, I feel bound, in the discharge of my public duty, to recommend your Lordships not to comply" with the present application.

Answer.

but even this would not apply to the route viâ Torres Straits, as the Australian Mail would then be forwarded to Singapore by the alternate fortnightly China Mail, and the Service, if not the month, would be divided equally.

7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th. As the objections urged in these paragraphs are those which most concern this Colony, as being calculated to excite feelings of dissatisfaction in the minds of its residents, I propose to make any observations I may suggest applicable to them collectively.

The effect of His Grace's remarks is this,—that the Colonies, moved by feelings of rivalry, and influenced alone by local considerations, have endeavoured to introduce a change in existing postal arrangements, not with a view to improvement in the service, but solely with a view of relieving themselves from the burthen now imposed upon them, by removing the incidence of the same to Great Britain; and that, moved by considerations of economy (which is the only question to be considered in the matter), Her Majesty's Government is advised to resist.

It is much to be regretted that such sentiments should have been expressed, especially when the facts of the case present the subject in a totally different light.

The feelings of rivalry which have been exhibited during the discussion of this question have been displayed in a single Colony only; certainly not without result, as His Grace appears to attach the greatest weight to the opinion there entertained, to the total exclusion of all others. When the cause of this rivalry is examined into, it will be seen to arise from the selfish desire manifested (not by the majority or by the governing powers) but by a minority to obtain exclusive advantages for themselves, and at the expense of the other Colonies.

With regard to local considerations directing the action of the Colonies, it is difficult to imagine what other motives could be supposed to influence them, when the sole question was that of service in return for expenditure. Confining the question to this Colony,—from its geographical position it is evident that, whatever route was adopted, in one and all Sydney must be the last port of arrival and the first of departure, while the period occupied by the voyage would be the same in all. The only possible exclusive advantage this Colony could derive from any service would be the benefit conferred upon the port by the refitting of the vessels employed.

Now, did the line of conduct pursued by this Colony, during the deliberations which preceded the adoption of the Memorial to Her Majesty, show that such motives of action could with any truth or justice be imputed to it?

On the contrary, waiving all local considerations, and looking only to the very great benefits which united action on the part of the Australian Colonies would confer upon all, and looking also to the fact, as expressed by His Grace, that "whatever would inflict postal injury on any of the Colonies, would likewise injure the Mother Country," this Colony at once proposed to take upon herself a much larger share of the common burthen, than the advantages she would receive under the proposed scheme could have rendered her liable to.

The Colonies thought, and still think, that the magnitude of the commerce now existing between the United Kingdom and Australia did form a very important element in the question under discussion; and as, in the various discussions with Her Majesty's Government on the various postal schemes from time to time submitted for consideration, the Imperial Authorities had always laid peculiar stress upon the point that the Colonies should pay a moiety of the cost whatever that might be, they did not anticipate an objection of this nature arising on the part of Her Majesty's Government.

Each Colony felt that, in making any individual arrangement for Postal Communication with Great Britain, the advantages of which (whatever they might be), would be equally enjoyed by the Colony and the Mother Country, the cost of such service should be equally borne by the parties interested, and that Her Majesty's Government would not confine such a measure of justice to a single Colony, but would place others on a similar footing. If individual Colonies had entered into the separate arrangements necessary to meet exclusively their individual interests, the assistance they would have been entitled to expect from the Imperial Treasury (if the principle of assistance had been admitted in the case of any one of them) would, in the aggregate, have exceeded the amount which the Postal Conference had fixed as the limit.

By concurrence in this proposal, the question as affecting the interests of all the Colonies would have been finally settled, and no room could have been left for "the renewed application" for the exclusive benefit of one Colony, which His Grace appears to consider would have been inevitable.

Whatever may be the effect upon the interest of the Mother Country, it is very evident that no other plan than one similar to that proposed by the Melbourne Conference can satisfy the requirements of either Queensland or New Zealand; the service or services via King George's Sound can never confer upon these Colonies the advantages of a once in four weeks post.

The establishment of a fortnightly mail by this route would restore to New South Wales the Postal Service she enjoyed under the old system of a monthly service; but at an enormous increase of expenditure, caused by the cessation of the shares of Queensland and New Zealand to the subsidy. I apprehend that even the measures of coercion indicated in His Grace's report, viz., the levying of a postage not less than eighteen-pence (treble the postage to be paid by Victoria) upon all letters addressed to Colonies not contributing to the cost of the service, and the "simple" (but unprecedented) "expedient of increasing inter-colonial postage to a high rate during the time any packet remains for Suez, in any Australian port," would fail in inducing these Colonies to contribute to a service from which they could not possibly derive any advantage.

Objection.Answer.

It is impossible to avoid contrasting these coercive suggestions with the very different conduct pursued by the Colonies of New South Wales and New Zealand towards the non-contributing Colonies to the Panama line ; letters from which are carried by this line at a charge of 20/- per pound weight, being an average rate of eighteen-pence the half-ounce letter, but by the weights of the majority of the letters reduced to a rate of 6d.

His Grace further says, "that without a second service by this route" (viz., King George's Sound) "Australia will soon be almost the only part, not merely of Her Majesty's dominions, but of the whole civilized world, which has not a good post with this country, at least twice a month.

The Government of this Colony are fully aware of the truth of this remark, and have for many years made the most strenuous exertions to remedy the evil ; but they cannot admit that a second service via King George's Sound would confer this necessary benefit. By the present arrangement, the important and daily increasing Colony of Queensland is entirely deprived of the advantage of even a monthly post, and the same disadvantage extends to the greater portion of this Colony. The establishment of a fortnightly mail, either via King George's Sound or alternately by Torres Straits, would restore to this Colony and Queensland this monthly post ; but neither of them would confer the advantages of a fortnightly communication, unless some scheme similar to the one subsequently laid down is adopted.

The second route via King George's Sound would confer upon Melbourne, and Melbourne only, a fortnightly post—the alternative of a second mail coming by Torres Straits would place Melbourne in the same position as the other Colonies. But it is at this point that the "incidence of payment" steps in. The Northern Colonies are asked to contribute to the establishment of this fortnightly mail via King George's Sound, at a greatly increased expense ; and in the same proportion as if they also received a corresponding benefit ; and to ensure their compliance with this request, it is recommended that they shall be subjected to a little "gentle pressure" in the shape of increased postage.

His Grace lays great stress upon the necessity of considering this question from an economical point of view only.

This creates some little surprise in the minds of the colonists, when they recall the very liberal provision the Imperial Government has hitherto made for mail contracts to Foreign Countries, and to other British Colonies ; the exclusive burthen of which has been borne by herself. The colonists do not complain at being required to bear a portion of this burthen, even to the extent of so large a share as a moiety ; although such a payment constitutes a very heavy pressure upon their slender resources. His Grace relies upon the table of relative expenditure attached to his report, which, although not assumed to be strictly accurate, is yet presumed to present a fair statement of the probable expenditure required to carry out the various proposals. This document appears to have been drawn up to contravene a statement of Mr. Verdon, the late Treasurer of Victoria, that the expense of a fortnightly mail via Suez would cost Victoria £120,000 if she was left to pay the whole of the Australian subsidy. Drawn up for a special purpose, it may be expected to contain errors, which indeed abound to an extent which will convey quite erroneous impressions. This table estimates the cost of a service twice a month via Suez (King George's Sound) at £277,388, of which the amount supposed to be contributed by this Colony is set down at £17,384, and by Queensland, £12,956. Now as, under the arrangement at present in force for a four-weekly mail at an expense of £179,114, the amounts allotted respectively are, to this Colony, £21,360, and to Queensland, £12,425, it is difficult to imagine that these figures can be relied upon, because if correct, Sydney is supposed to receive a double service at a diminution of charge of £3,976, while Queensland receives the same advantage for the slight increase of £531. In the same document the expense of a service from Singapore to Brisbane is estimated at £90,000.

We are left to conjecture from what data this estimate is derived, but that it is considerably overrated is evident, from the fact that tenders for the performance of the service had been sent in to the Government of Queensland. The first of these undertakes to perform a monthly service between Sydney and Singapore, at the mileage rate of 10s. 6d. per nautical mile, at an average speed of eleven knots an hour to the measured mile.

The second tender is to perform the monthly service between Singapore and Brisbane at an average speed of nine knots, for the sum of £43,000, or if extended to Sydney, £45,000 per annum.

The third tender is to perform the monthly service between Batavia and Sydney, calling both ways at Brisbane, Macassar, Cape York, and Port Denison, for the sum of £30,000 per annum, the average speed to be ten knots, and the voyage to be performed in seventeen days.

It is true these latter tenderers only tender to perform the service from Batavia, and expected to receive a subsidy of £25,000 in addition from the Batavian Government; but as the expense of the conveyance of mails from Batavia to Singapore was estimated by previous parties at £1,000 per annum, this would not add much to the expense.

The only additional "incidence of expense" to Great Britain for a fortnightly communication would be the increased share she would be called upon to pay for the transit of the mail from Galle or Singapore (as the case may be) to Australia, and a moiety of the expense of the double branch lines. The conveyance of the mails to Galle or Singapore would not add an additional sixpence to the expense incurred by Great Britain, as the contracts for the India and China Mails would remain the same if the Australian mails were not conveyed by them. In fact, the burthen of the Mother Country would be diminished in proportion to the amount imposed upon the Australian Colonies for the performance of this service, because the China subsidy is entirely borne by Great Britain.

Objection.Answer.

The same remarks apply to the Panama route. If Great Britain contributed to the expense of the line from Panama, she was invited to estimate the expense of conveying the mails to Colon; the moiety of which then imposed upon the Colonies would have been a direct diminution of the subsidy paid to the Royal West Indian Mail Company, at present sustained entirely by Great Britain.

But His Grace intimates—"It is fair to remark that the cost (of the route via Suez and King George's Sound) will probably soon, be enhanced by the withdrawal of most of the Indian letters from the packets conveying the Australian Mails between Suez and Ceylon."

It is this uncertainty with regard to the "incidence of payment" to which they might be subjected, that creates alarm in the Colonies. They find the contract for conveying the Indian Mails, a portion of which is charged against the Australian Colonies, suddenly raised from £230,125 to £400,000. They find also a provision in the contract by which the same may be further increased to £500,000, in the event of a certain amount of interest on the capital of the Peninsular and Oriental Company not being realized; and as that Company, in its last report, stated its losses during the previous year at £177,000 (which certainly would not leave any margin for the payment of this dividend), they do not entertain much doubt that the larger sum will be required. The colonists, therefore, hesitate in regard to committing themselves to any indefinite expenditure, over which they have no control, or even possess the power of examining into.

With regard to the reply which is to be given, in concert with the other Australian Colonies, to the question proposed for their consideration, "whether they will undertake to provide in future for the Postal Service between Ceylon and Sydney, on the understanding that the Mother Country will pay one-half of the reasonable expense,"—it will be evident from the foregoing remarks, that neither the Service via King George's Sound, or via Torres Straits, would afford to this Colony the advantage of a regular fortnightly mail; that in fact, this is only to be obtained by such a modification of the Services via Suez and Panama as will make them harmonize. This Colony, therefore, occupying as it were a neutral position in the question of the respective routes from Ceylon, can only afford its aid to either of these routes, with a view of harmonizing the interests of Colonies more directly affected by them. It was this view of the question which influenced the Delegates of New South Wales at the Melbourne Conference, when they voluntarily proposed, on behalf of this Colony, to take a larger share of the common burthen than any advantage conferred upon the Colony would have warranted. But they felt that the benefit and weight to be derived by uniting the Colonies in a Federal Bond in furtherance of any subject, should be the paramount object—far transcending any question of mere economy. It is to be regretted that His Grace should have taken a different view, evidently moved by the opinions of a section of one Colony only; and those opinions called forth, not upon the general features of the scheme, but by a collateral question not even mooted in the Conference.

The object of the opposition was solely to deprive this Colony of the only advantage she could derive from the postal scheme, with a view of accumulating in favour of Melbourne, every possible advantage which it could confer, in addition to those which must unavoidably have fallen to her share. The rejection of this proposition by Her Majesty's Government, advised by His Grace, will reintroduce the elements of discord into communities which had arrived at a common bond of union.

Moved by these considerations, the Government of New South Wales have already earnestly requested Her Majesty's Government to reconsider their decision. Pending the reply, I submit the only scheme which appears to me to afford a possibility of working the arrangements for the Indian and China mails in such a manner as will confer upon the Australian Colonies the advantages of a fortnightly mail, distributed as equitably as possible to meet the various geographical positions and conflicting requirements of the various Colonies.

This Minute, I propose, should be submitted to Her Majesty's Government and to the Administrations of the respective Colonies, with an intimation that the Colony will be prepared to concur with them in a request for the establishment of a fortnightly mail, and to unite in calling for tenders for the same, upon the scheme proposed or some similar basis.

As the document is framed in the shape of a Time-table, the various authorities will be enabled to judge if it would in any manner meet their respective requirements, and could also form some estimate of the expenditure required to carry it out. It would also in some measure solve the vexed question of the terminus, as by this arrangement the terminus of one line of ocean steamers would be at Melbourne. The only disadvantage would be that it is purely Australian; excluding from the federal bond the very important Colony of New Zealand, destined in all probability, in the course of the future, to become the most important commonwealth in the Southern Hemisphere.

To show that some change is necessary, and that the arrangements at present in force have introduced a disturbing element in the transit of correspondence to and from Europe, I append a table which shows that the receipt of letters in this Colony by the Suez route has fallen off by about one-third during the period the new arrangement has been in force. Appendix C.

A corresponding diminution will also be observed in the numbers despatched from the Colony, and I understand that a similar result has occurred in Victoria.

I append a copy of a letter upon the subject, addressed to me by the Chamber of Commerce in Sydney, and the copy of a similar letter addressed to the Chief Secretary of Victoria by the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce, in which the views of the respective bodies are enunciated. Appendix D.

D.

Sydney Chamber of Commerce,
Sydney, 12 June, 1868.

Sir,

Viewing the active steps that are being taken in the Mother Country and the neighbouring Colony of Victoria, for the establishment of a Fortnightly Mail Service, we beg respectfully to bring under your notice the reasons why, in our opinion, such fortnightly service, if established, should alternate via Torres Straits and Singapore, and the existing service via King George's Sound and Point de Galle; but in doing so, we are desirous of reaffirming to you the minute of the Chamber on the 16th April, 1867, namely:—

“That this Meeting expresses its entire satisfaction at the result of the late Postal Conference, and therefore hopes that its recommendations will be carried out in their integrity.”

1st. We would point out to you that the inequality of the advantages shared by each Colony of the Australian Group, that existed under the former monthly service, has been greatly augmented in the four-weekly service as at present carried on. The Colonies of New South Wales and Queensland are now called upon to contribute, in exactly the same ratio with the Colony of Victoria, for advantages which are manifestly unequal, inasmuch as the course of post for Southampton letters to this Colony, and for all letters to Queensland, is now a twenty weeks course of post instead of seventeen, only three days being allowed for the despatch of replies to letters; whilst in Victoria a margin of ten to eleven days is allowed for the receipt and despatch of correspondence, thus affording postal advantages to the entire Colony; and this inequality must necessarily exist if postal communication is carried on by a single route to Colonies that possess a total sea-board of fifteen hundred miles from the first point of arrival to the last of departure.

2ndly.—That we are called upon, to suit the convenience of the English Government, to pay an increased subsidy for an inferior accommodation; for, seeing the difference of time afforded for the reply to correspondence, it is quite certain that this Colony would have preferred to pay the increased subsidy for the monthly service, rather than, as at present called upon to do, for the four-weekly service.

3rdly.—It must be borne in mind that a subsidy payable to the Colony at large is intended for the advantage of all its inhabitants, and not for the benefit of a particular few. Now the correspondence of this Colony, to (say) at least five-sixths, is despatched by way of Southampton, and arrives in England seven days after the despatch of the Southampton mail from the London Post Office; and the advantage of a Steam Postal Service to such correspondents becomes more than doubtful while the ordinary clipper sailing-vessels are making average passages of seventy-five days. Nor can it be considered that the usual course of post should be reckoned as via Marseilles, since for the extra accommodation an extra price is paid by the writer of a letter; and if at some future time a railway to Constantinople were to shorten the course of post by five days at an extra cost of a shilling to the sender of such letter, it could hardly be held that this could be reckoned as a course of post to the Colony at large.

4thly.—That all the advantages of the present four-weekly service accrue to the Mother Country and the Colony of Victoria, while the wants and requirements of all the other Colonies have been either disregarded or forgotten.

5thly.—That the establishment of a fortnightly mail via King George's Sound and Point de Galle would aggravate and intensify the existing inequality, and render the steam Postal Contract entered into by Great Britain still more unsatisfactory to the Colonies of New South Wales and Queensland.

6thly.—That since the Postal Conference was held at Melbourne, the population, wealth, and importance of the Colony of Queensland have greatly increased; the trade via Torres Straits has largely augmented; the telegraphic communication in and towards that Colony has considerably extended; and its claims to an equal consideration in any postal arrangements are infinitely more imperative.

7thly.—That for all these reasons we are decidedly of opinion that, in the event of any fortnightly postal service being established between Great Britain and the Australian Colonies, such service should be carried on via Torres Straits and Singapore, alternating at regular intervals with the existing four-weekly service via King George's Sound and Point de Galle, and making a port in the Colony of Queensland the first point of arrival and the last of departure.

And

And lastly.—We would urge that, in a money point of view, this Colony would not suffer by such contemplated arrangement; since the amount of its share of subsidy to a Torres Straits route would scarcely, if at all, exceed the amount of contribution it now pays to the Galle route. Thus, by a withdrawal from the latter, the duplicate service would be created, and a reciprocation of postal advantages with the Southern Colonies would doubtless be established.

JACOB L. MONTEFIORE,
 Chairman of the Sydney Chamber of Commerce.

E.

Chamber of Commerce,
 Melbourne, 26 May, 1868.

To the Honorable the Chief Secretary.

Sir,

I have the honor, by direction of the Committee of the Melbourne Chamber of Commerce, to submit to you and your honorable colleagues the expediency of giving your early attention to the question of a Fortnightly Mail Communication with England.

It has been long admitted that the interests of the whole community would be subserved by a more frequent mail communication with Europe, and recent circumstances have more forcibly impressed the necessity for it upon the public mind.

I may be permitted to state that this Chamber has, on several occasions, recorded its opinion in favour of a fortnightly service. In November, 1862, a Special General Meeting of the Members was called to discuss it; and although on that occasion the scheme of Messrs. Burstall and Campbell for a line of mail steamers via the Cape of Good Hope, and another of the Union Steam Navigation Company, to furnish a mail service by the same route, were before them, the Meeting almost unanimously affirmed the desirability of a fortnightly communication by the present route.

In September, 1866, I had the honor, by desire of the then Committee of the Chamber, to bring the question under the notice of your honorable predecessor, and the Committee were informed that the Government of Victoria had already expressed their willingness to contribute (to the full amount authorized by law if necessary) their proper proportion towards a fortnightly service, provided that no additional postage rate should be imposed. The honorable gentleman, however, stated circumstances from which he inferred that the Imperial Government were not at that time favourable to the proposal for a fortnightly mail between Ceylon and Australia.

In the early part of last year, this subject again forced itself upon the consideration of the Chamber, in consequence of the agitation which arose out of the publication of the proposals of the Intercolonial Postal Conference. In a petition to Parliament which was presented at the end of March, 1867, and signed by about 750 merchants and other persons engaged in business in Melbourne, the establishment of a fortnightly service by way of Suez and Galle was urged, in preference to the scheme of the Conference, as being far less costly, and yet affording superior advantages to the Colonies.

In promoting that petition, the then Committee of the Chamber published some calculations and comparative statements of the probable cost, to this Colony, of the monthly and semi-monthly services via Galle, including all the branch services. That statement showed that, if the total cost were distributed amongst the Colonies in the proportion recommended by the Conference, Victoria would have to pay an annual contribution of about £31,250 for twenty-four mails each way.

The information which has since come to hand upon this subject enables the Chamber to form a still more reliable estimate of the total cost of a bi-weekly service via Suez and Galle, and I have therefore to ask your indulgence in submitting to you the following figures:—

The four-weekly service appears to cost, as near as can be estimated, as follows:—

P. and O. subsidy .....	£130,000
Extra charges for mail agents, mail boxes, special packets, Egyptian transit, &c. ....	12,385
Expenses, Southampton to Galle .....	17,810
Total cost .....	£160,195
Contribution by the Home Government.....	70,972
Annual charge to the Colonies .....	£89,223

The following will be the probable cost of the proposed bi-weekly service:—

Four-weekly service as above .....	£160,195
P. and O. additional subsidy .....	54,166
The extras as above would not be increased in the same proportion, but putting them at nearly double they would be .....	30,000
Total charge for fortnightly mail.....	£244,351
Imperial contribution pro rata .....	104,027

Leaving the total annual cost to the whole of the Colonies £140,324

(This, however, is exclusive of the branch services.) Assuming that this amount were divided in the proportions proposed by the Postal Conference, the annual cost to this Colony of the twenty-six mails each way would be about £35,270, which is only between four and five thousand more than the amount now being paid for the four-weekly service (something over £31,000). If, however, the bi-weekly service were divided according to the present scale, it would cost this Colony about £49,000; but this has been admitted to be an inequitable arrangement, and it can scarcely be doubted that the other Colonies would agree to a new apportionment.

The Chamber do not ignore the fact that the respective Governments of New South Wales and South Australia had given notice of their intention to withdraw from the late contract, but there is, it is presumed, little probability that under existing circumstances they will give effect to such notice.

The Committee believe that the time has now arrived for the Colony to avail itself of the provisions of the contract with the P. and O. Company, which enable the Australian Governments, through the Postmaster General, to give notice to the Company to provide for the conveyance of the mails to and from these Colonies fortnightly, and they respectfully suggest that the preliminary steps should at once be taken for effecting that object.

I have, &c.,
B. COWDEROY,
 Secretary.

SIR,

I am desired by His Excellency Sir Dominick Daly, to acknowledge receipt of your two letters, dated, respectively, 12th and 31st August last, to which I deferred making any reply until I should be able to transmit to you a copy of our Federal Council Act, which I have now the honor to enclose.

3. Under these circumstances, I am to request you to be good enough to inform me what the Government of New South Wales proposes to do in the matter of the Mail Service generally.

SIR,

With reference to the circular despatch, dated 19 October, 1867, from His Grace the Secretary of State for the Colonies, transmitting copy of a letter from the Board of Treasury, and enclosing, with other papers, an extract from a Report by the Postmaster General upon the subject of Postal Communication between Australia and the United Kingdom (which despatch and enclosures were, it is presumed, also received by your Government),—I have the honor to invite your attention to the third paragraph of the despatch referred to, wherein it is intimated that "it will remain for the Government of the Colonies concerned to consider whether they will undertake to provide in future for the postal services between Ceylon and Sydney, on the terms mentioned in the Treasury letter."

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, NEW SOUTH WALES, to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, NEW ZEALAND.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, New South Wales,
2 July, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to invite your attention to the circular despatch of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 19th October, 1867, and its enclosures, with reference to the system of Ocean Mail Services recommended in the Memorial to Her Majesty from the Representatives of the Australian Colonies and New Zealand, assembled at the Melbourne Conference. It will be observed from the "Extract from the Report of the Postmaster General," enclosed in the despatch of His Grace the Duke of Buckingham, that the interests of the whole of Australia and of New Zealand were considered on the inexplicable supposition that those interests were represented by a part of the inhabitants of Melbourne, who, in their opposition to the recommendations of the Conference of March, 1867, acted avowedly from a desire to secure certain local advantages to their own city and port. In the argument of His Grace the Duke of Montrose, little or no weight is given to the circumstance that all the six Colonies under Responsible Government were represented at the Conference by Members of their respective Executive Councils, and that these Representatives having an intimate acquaintance with the conflicting interests that must be made to harmonize in any general agreement, arrived at an unanimous approval of the postal scheme submitted in their Memorial. At the same time, the views of the merchants and traders of Melbourne, who, it is well known, mainly objected to the conclusions of the Conference because the port of Melbourne was not made the terminus of the line of steamers viâ King George's Sound, are dwelt upon as shewing a want of unanimity on the part of the Colonies, notwithstanding that the proceedings of the Conference were in each case ratified by Executive and Parliamentary authority.

2. In this position of the postal question, I am directed by His Excellency the Earl of Belmore to transmit, for your information, the accompanying copy of Minute of the Postmaster General of this Colony, which has been agreed to by the Executive Council, and will be transmitted by the next mail to the Secretary of State, as containing the views of this Government on the various points raised by the Duke of Montrose. The Government of this Colony cannot modify its opinion that it is now impossible for any Ocean Mail Service, by a single route, whether monthly or fortnightly, to satisfy the separate communities, which are rapidly growing in social and commercial importance, along an Australian seaboard of more than two thousand miles, and over an island territory a thousand miles distant from the Australian coast. The service by way of Suez and King George's Sound would give the Colony of Victoria a pre-eminence in its relations with Europe, at the cost of the rest of Her Majesty's Australasian possessions, and not without inflicting on those most distant from the favoured port of Melbourne an intolerable grievance. While the inhabitants of Victoria, from Melbourne being the first port of arrival and the last of departure, as well as from the comparative compactness of the territory, would be enabled at leisure to reply to their correspondence by each mail, the residents in the distant parts of the interior of this Colony would seldom or never enjoy the same means of communication, and even the mercantile community of Sydney would be placed at a manifest disadvantage. The Colonies of Queensland and New Zealand could not possibly be brought within the course of post by this route.

3. I am induced to hope, from the connection of this Colony with New Zealand in supporting the Mail Service viâ Panama, and from the commercial intercourse of the two Colonies, that your Government will be disposed to consider favourably any change that may have the effect of shortening the through passage between Sydney and Southampton. Now that the Atlantic passage is direct to and from Colon, the two subsidising Colonies have a more urgent interest in improving the Pacific route, in order that the Panama mails may fairly compete with the mails viâ Suez. It has been represented to this Government, that the time occupied by the passage between Sydney and Panama would be reduced by at least two days, if the New Zealand mails were delivered at the Bay of Islands, instead of Wellington. The saving of time is an element so essential to the establishment of the Panama line, if the service is to be made available for the Australian Colonies, that it is not supposed that its importance will not be fully realized by you in considering the suggestion I have made.

4. I shall be glad to be informed of the views of the New Zealand Government on the subjects to which I have invited your attention.

I have, &amp;c.,

HENRY PARKES.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, NEW SOUTH WALES, to THE CHIEF SECRETARY, SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

(98.)

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Sydney, New South Wales,
3 July, 1868.

SIR,

Referring to your letter of the 9th January, requesting to be informed of the steps which this Government intended to take, in consequence of the unfavourable answer given by the Imperial Government to the Memorial from the Postal Conference held at Melbourne in March, 1867, I am now directed by His Excellency the Earl of Belmore to transmit, for your information, copies of a Minute by the Postmaster General of this Colony, and of a despatch from myself to the Colonial Secretary of New Zealand on this subject.

Vide Minute on
3 July, 1868.
Vide page 37.

2. After careful consideration, this Government cannot see any reason to modify its opinion that the interests of all the Colonies can never be satisfactorily served by a single line of mail steamers arriving regularly at one port 600 miles and 1,000 miles from the capitals of the other Colonies. The grievance arising from the inability to answer correspondence in the more distant communities, is naturally increased by being called upon to contribute to giving a superior position to the favoured Colony. Neither Queensland nor New Zealand can be expected to accede to the pretensions of Victoria in this respect; and, though this Colony is so situated that it might advantageously unite with Victoria on a common basis of mutual interests, still it does not appear to my colleagues and myself that we should consult the public good by yielding to the views of supremacy which have, in various forms, been put forth on her behalf, or in assenting to any arrangement in which the just demands of the other Colonies were not fully recognized.

3. The Postmaster General's Minute has received the assent of the Executive Council, and will be transmitted by His Excellency the Governor to the Duke of Buckingham, as embodying the views of this Government.

4. I shall be glad to be informed of the views of your Government on this important subject.

SIR,

I am directed by His Excellency the Earl of Belmore to bring under your notice the circular despatch and enclosures from His Grace the Duke of Buckingham, under date the 19th October, 1867, in which the decision of the Imperial Government on the proposals of the Postal Conference, held at Melbourne, is communicated to the Colonies; and at the same time, to transmit, for your information, the accompanying copy of a Minute by the Postmaster General of this Colony, which has received the assent of the Executive Council, and will be transmitted to the Secretary of State, as embodying the views of this Government on the Report of the Postmaster General of England.

2. The Governments of South Australia and New Zealand have requested to be informed of the course which this Colony intends to pursue in consequence of the adverse decision of the Imperial Government, and I have transmitted to them copies of the enclosed Minute in reply.

3. This Government dissents entirely from the late proceedings in London in favour of a fortnightly service performed by the Peninsular and Oriental Company via Suez and King George's Sound, believing that the carriage of the Australian mails by a single route could never give satisfaction to the whole of the Colonies. The Conference of March, 1867, submitted, in their Memorial to Her Majesty, a complete postal system, which was assented to after a careful consideration of opposing interests, and which, it is believed, would have been acceptable to all the Colonies, with slight modifications in the detail arrangements. The objections to this system advanced by His Grace the Duke of Montrose, evidently proceed from a very imperfect knowledge of the actual circumstances of these Colonies, and are supported by arguments which, for the most part, are obviously untenable. The city of Melbourne is not Australia, and an English mail arriving every seven days in Hobson's Bay would not remove the causes of delay and disappointment of which the other Colonies complain.

4. I should be glad to be informed of the views of the Government of Queensland on this important subject.

SIR,

I have the honor, by desire of His Excellency Lieutenant-Colonel Hamley, to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 2nd instant, with regard to Steam Postal Communication with Great Britain, and especially with reference to the circular despatch from His Grace the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated 19th October, 1867.

In reply, I beg to convey to you, as requested, the views of this Government on the subject, and must first point out that the community of South Australia derive very little benefit from the Panama Service as at present arranged, inasmuch as the duplicates of letters posted by that route invariably arrive at Adelaide, via Galle and King George's Sound, before the originals are received.

However, if the Panama Service can be so modified as to form a fortnightly mail to harmonize with the four-weekly Galle and King George's Sound route, some slight advantage will be gained, and perhaps sufficient to induce South Australia to contribute towards its maintenance, provided the Government of New South Wales will assist this Government in the arrangements it is desirous of making for the embarkation and disembarkation of the South Australian Mail in Gulf St. Vincent or at Kangaroo Island, or at some port on the mainland, in which latter case Victor Harbour will probably be most convenient.

With regard to a four-weekly service, alternating with the Galle and Sydney communication, via King George's Sound, by Singapore and Melbourne, via Brisbane and Sydney, which would be of still less advantage to this community, I fear this Government cannot hold out any immediate expectation of South Australia contributing to its support.

Although considering the present four-weekly communication sufficient to meet the requirements of South Australia, this Government will not object to a fortnightly service if the Government of Victoria desire it, and the above-mentioned stipulation as to the place of embarkation and disembarkation of South Australian mails be complied with.

EXTRACT from the Minutes of Proceedings of the Executive Council of Queensland.

At the Government House, Brisbane, 22nd July, 1868.

Present:—

His Excellency the Acting Governor, in Council.

His Excellency the Acting Governor, at the instance of the Colonial Secretary, lays before the Council communications addressed to that Minister by the Colonial Secretary of New South Wales, and the Chief Secretary of Victoria, on the subject of Ocean Mail Services between Great Britain and the Australian Colonies. His Excellency, at the same time, directs the attention of the Council to a Circular Despatch from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, under date the 19th October, 1867, upon the same subject, and covering a letter from the Board of Treasury, based upon, and accompanied by, the Report of the Postmaster General of England upon the Memorial addressed to Her Majesty, by the Members of the Postal Conference held in Melbourne, in March, 1867. To this Report His Excellency especially invites the attention of the Council, as, under the views therein expressed touching the recommendations of the Conference, the Imperial Government has been led to give a decision not in accordance with those recommendations, but, on the contrary, opposed to the views entertained by a majority of the Delegates. The action of the Council is sought, both in reference to the tenor of the Report of the Duke of Montrose, as Postmaster General, and to the proposition thereon based for the extended mail communication with the Colonies.

The Council having severally made themselves fully acquainted with the subjects now formally brought under their consideration by His Excellency, have no hesitation in expressing their opinion that the Memorial forwarded at the instance of the Postal Conference Delegates has either been greatly misunderstood, or subjected to a very biassed consideration. The objections raised by the Postmaster General of England appear to be generally based upon incorrect data, leading to equally incorrect conclusions, and are evidently the result of an insufficient acquaintance with the real merits of the case. These have been ably controverted by the Postmaster General of New South Wales, in a Minute appended to the communication of the Colonial Secretary of that Colony; and the Council desire to express their full concurrence in the views therein set forth.

From the tenor of the documents enclosed in the despatch of the Secretary of State, it is ascertained that the several recommendations submitted in the Memorial alluded to, and endorsed by the Legislatures and Governments of the several Colonies represented at the Conference, will not be carried out, and that in lieu, it is proposed simply to call upon all the Colonies to contribute to an extra mail service at monthly intervals, so as to ensure, conjointly with the existing four-weekly service, a fortnightly communication with England. But, as this service is to be conducted by the Peninsular and Oriental Company, in vessels following the route adopted under existing contract (from Galle to King George's Sound), the Council fail to perceive in what manner the Colony of Queensland would be benefited in a ratio commensurate with the increased subsidy that would be required. The present system of mails, at intervals of four weeks instead of stated monthly periods, has had the effect of depriving all but the inhabitants of Brisbane and its vicinity of even the chance of replying to letters by return mail. Indeed it is, and can be, but of rare occurrence for this advantage to accrue, even to residents in the metropolis, as, by the time-tables of arrival and departure from Sydney, time is not given for the transmission of mails to and from Brisbane. The establishment of an intervening service, or, as it is termed, of a fortnightly mail by the same route, while it would throw upon the Colony a largely increased burthen, would do little to meet the requirements of the people, beyond affording to those resident in the distant interior the opportunity of forwarding their communications once during some period of the month. The Council cannot, therefore, conceive upon what grounds the Colony of Queensland can be expected to give its adhesion to the system proposed, and they decline to advise co-operation.

The monthly service via Panama, advocated by New Zealand and New South Wales, is as little productive of benefit to Queensland as would be the second mail by way of King George's Sound; but as this is a service for which the Colony is not specially taxed, the Council deem it unnecessary to say more concerning it than that they are not much interested in its continuance, and decline to share in its cost.

Nothing

Nothing has transpired to cause any alteration in the views expressed at the Conference by the Queensland Delegates, and adopted by the Members generally, and, with the concurrence of the several Legislatures, embodied in the Address to Her Majesty, that a Postal Service via Torres Straits would be of material advantage to this Colony, while it would, at the same time, secure to the other Colonies all the benefits assumed to be derivable from the double service via King George's Sound. It would, indeed, afford a far more equitable distribution of those advantages, giving to each Colony its fair share, instead of as at present, and as would result from the recent Imperial proposition, entirely throwing this Colony beyond the pale. The mere portage of letters would represent but a small part of the benefits derivable from regular communication by way of the Eastern Archipelago; but as this is foreign to the question more immediately under notice, the Council will content themselves with observing that there are considerations beyond that of postal convenience which bind them to an adherence to the proposition urged upon Her Majesty for the establishment of a service by the northern and eastern seaboard of Queensland. These considerations have been deemed of sufficient weight to induce the Netherlands Government to consent to bear a considerable share of the expense of a regular mail communication by way of Batavia and Singapore, and to give it a cordial support if established. The assistance thus rendered would materially lessen the charge, pro rata, upon such of the Colonies as might co-operate for the establishment of such a service. The Council, in the interests of the Colony, are constrained to press this matter; and from documents before them, feel assured the Government of New South Wales will not withhold its support.

While specially interested in the establishment of postal communication by the northern route, the Council are alive to the fact that the Colony, unaided, could not maintain such a service. Though it might be impolitic on the part of the Government of Queensland to take the initiative in bringing about the cancellation of the contract now possessed by the Peninsular and Oriental Company, it appears to the Council expedient to acquiesce in any action the Government of New South Wales may take in reference thereto. Unable to act quite independently, it would be well that the Colony should co-operate with New South Wales, in urging upon the Imperial Government the desirability of withholding the action proposed, and of affording to the Australian Colonies such an alteration of postal service as set out in Schedule B of the Minute of the Postmaster General of New South Wales (monthly, each, by way of King George's Sound and Torres Straits), thereby to secure the desideratum of a fortnightly communication by such routes as will be of mutual benefit.

The Council advise that His Excellency the Governor reply to the Secretary of State in such terms as shall convey the views expressed in this Minute, and that the Colonial Secretary be requested to reply in similar terms to the communications addressed to him on behalf of the Governments of New South Wales and Victoria.

SIR,

I have the honor to transmit to you, for your information, the enclosed copies of a correspondence with the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, arising out of a Resolution of the House of Assembly of that Colony, suggesting the advantages that would attend the establishment of telegraphic communication with the Australian Colonies by way of Gibraltar, Sierra Leone, St. Helena, and the Cape of Good Hope.

I have, &c., BUCKINGHAM & CHANDOS.

Sir P. Wodehouse. No. 63, 15 July, 1867. Colnl. Office to Treasury. 4 Sept., 1867. Treasury to Colnl. Office. 13 Sept., 1867. Sec. State to Sir P. Wodehouse. No. 93, 15 Jan., 1868. Treasury Minute. 10 Jan., 1867.

GOVERNOR SIR P. E. WODEHOUSE to THE DUKE OF BUCKINGHAM & CHANDOS. [Cape of Good Hope.]

Government House, Cape Town, 15 July, 1867.

MY LORD DUKE,

At the request of the House of Assembly of this Colony, I beg leave to submit, for your Grace's consideration, a Resolution drawing the attention of Her Majesty's Government to the expediency of establishing telegraphic communication between Great Britain and the Australian Colonies, by way of Gibraltar, St. Helena, and the Cape of Good Hope.

Enclosure—Resolution.

I have, &c., P. E. WODEHOUSE.

[Enclosure in Despatch No. 63, 15 July, 1867.]

THAT the necessity for telegraphic communication between England and the Australian Colonies having been admitted, and the route suggested being via India, Rangoon, Singapore, and across the several straits between, to the Bay of Carpentaria in the north of New Holland, and thence by land-line, via Moreton Bay, to Sydney and Melbourne, it is the opinion of this House that His Excellency the Governor be requested, by respectful address, to draw the attention of the Home Government and the Colonial Governments interested, to the manifold superiority of the Oceanic Route, by way of Gibraltar, Sierra Leone, St. Helena, the Cape of Good Hope, the Island of St. Paul, thence to Melbourne, Sydney, and New Zealand, in order to ascertain whether, by concerted action with the Home Government and the several Colonies alluded to, it may not be possible to carry out such a work, which would be of incalculable advantage to the British Government, especially in the event of a war, to all interest concerned, and at the same time be re-asserting the important geographical position of the Cape of Good Hope.

TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION.

MR. ELLIOT to MR. HAMILTON.

Downing-street,
4 September, 1867.

SIR,

No. 63, 15 July, 1867.

I am directed by the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos to transmit to you, for the consideration of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, a copy of a Despatch from the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, forwarding a Resolution passed by the House of Assembly drawing the attention of Her Majesty's Government to the expediency of establishing telegraphic communication between Great Britain and the Australian Colonies, by way of Gibraltar, St. Helena, and the Cape of Good Hope.

I am to request that you will move their Lordships to inform His Grace whether the project of any Company for establishing telegraphic communication by the route here proposed by the Assembly has been before their Lordships, and what answer they would consider advisable to this representation from the Assembly.

I am, &c.,
T. F. ELLIOT.

MR. HAMILTON to SIR F. ROGERS.

Treasury Chambers,
13 September, 1867.

SIR,

I am commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to request that you will state to the Duke of Buckingham, in reply to Mr. Elliot's letter of the 4th instant, enclosing a copy of a Resolution passed by the House of Assembly at the Cape of Good Hope, as to the expediency of establishing telegraphic communication between Great Britain and the Australian Colonies by way of Gibraltar, St. Helena, and the Cape of Good Hope, that the only proposal my Lords have had before them for the establishment of telegraphic communication with the Cape of Good Hope was one brought under their notice by a Mr. Overend, in the year 1862, which they did not think it advisable to entertain.

With regard to the resolution passed by the House of Assembly at the Cape, drawing the attention of Her Majesty's Government to the expediency of establishing telegraphic communication with Australia viâ the Cape, &c., I am desired to state that my Lords would not consider themselves justified in proposing to Parliament to incur the very considerable expenditure which the carrying out of so great a project as that submitted would involve; nor, looking to the principles laid down in their Minute of the 10th January last, on the subject of the extension of telegraphic communication in the East (copy of which was laid before Parliament), would they be prepared to guarantee the interest on any capital which might be raised by any Company or Companies for the purpose in question.

I am, &c.,
G. A. HAMILTON.

THE DUKE OF BUCKINGHAM to GOVERNOR SIR P. WODEHOUSE, K.C.B.

Downing-street,
15 January, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Despatch, No. 63, of the 15th July last, forwarding a copy of a Resolution passed by the House of Assembly at the Cape of Good Hope, drawing the attention of Her Majesty's Government to the expediency of establishing telegraphic communication between Great Britain and the Australian Colonies, by way of Gibraltar, St. Helena, and the Cape of Good Hope.

I caused a copy of your Despatch and the Resolution of the Assembly to be communicated to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury; and I have the honor to transmit to you, for your information, a copy of the reply which has been returned by their Lordships, together with a copy of the Treasury Minute of the 10th of January, 1867, alluded to in their letter.

I have communicated copies of this correspondence to the Governors of the several Colonies named in the Resolution of the House of Assembly.

I have, &c.,
BUCKINGHAM & CHANDOS.13 September, 1867.
Treasury Minute, 10 Jan.,
1867—Parl. Paper.

TREASURY

TREASURY MINUTE, DATED 10 JANUARY, 1867.

THE First Lord of the Treasury and the Chancellor of the Exchequer call the attention of the Board to the important question in regard to the extension of Telegraphic Communication which is likely to arise in consequence of the success which has attended the submerging of the Atlantic Cable of 1866, and the recovery and completion of that attempted to be laid in 1865.

It has already been intimated to Her Majesty's Government, that it is in contemplation to form a Company for the purpose of laying a line of telegraph between this country and Gibraltar, and from thence to Malta. Between Malta and Alexandria there is already telegraphic communication by means of the Malta and Alexandria Telegraph Cable belonging to Her Majesty's Government, which is at present agreed to be leased for a term of forty-two years to the Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Company. The lease it is intended should be transferred to the new Company, as well as the land-line between Alexandria and Suez, originally belonging to the Red Sea Line, but now the property of the Telegraph to India Company. From some point on the Red Sea to which a land-line will be laid, it is stated that the new Company will lay a telegraph cable to Aden, and from thence to Kurrachee, where the telegraph will become connected with the land-lines of the Indian Government, which extend as far as Rangoon. From Rangoon it is proposed to carry a cable to Singapore, and from that place cables to China and Japan viâ Saigon, and Australia viâ Java and Copang.

Two other schemes for the extension of telegraphic communication beyond Rangoon have also been brought under the notice of Her Majesty's Government, namely, one by Mr. F. Gisborne, which involves, however, financial assistance on the part of the Government; and another by Mr. Seymour Clarke, for "a line of telegraph from Rangoon, through the kingdom of Siam to Singapore, from Malacca through Sumatra, Java, &c., to Australia, with a branch from Tavoy through Bangkok to Saigon, and thence, on the approval of France, through Cochin China to China Proper."

As, in the opinion of the Earl of Derby and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the establishment between this country and India of an alternative line of telegraphic communication with that viâ the Persian Gulf, and the extension of such line to China and Japan on the one hand, and to the Australian Colonies on the other, is of great importance, they submit to the Board whether some encouragement may not be given for the formation of a Company or Companies able and willing to carry out so desirable an object. They are, however, decidedly of opinion that, looking to the great advance that has, within the last few years, been made in the art of manufacturing, laying, and repairing submarine cables, thereby increasing the confidence of the public in the permanence of such undertakings, they would not be justified in proposing that any assistance, either by way of subsidy or guarantee, should be given to any Company which may at the present time be formed for the purpose of establishing lines of telegraphic communication. They would, however, submit whether encouragement may not be afforded to Companies willing to lay lines of which the Government approve, by the Government causing surveys, where none now exist, to be made of the route along which it may be proposed cables should be laid; by rendering assistance to such Companies when laying the cables, by means of any of Her Majesty's vessels, in the same manner as was recently afforded by Her Majesty's ship "Terrible," in the case of the Atlantic Cable; and by using the good offices of the British Government with any foreign Government upon whose territories it may be requisite to land cables or to lay land-lines.

In any arrangement to be entered into with a Company, it should be distinctly stipulated, that while Her Majesty's Government claim no advantage as regards the rate of charge for Government messages, all messages transmitted by Her Majesty's Government shall have priority; and that in certain contingencies Her Majesty's Government should have the power of assuming possession of any telegraphic line, upon payment of proper compensation.

My Lords entirely coincide in the opinions expressed by the Earl of Derby and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and they will have them in view in the event of any arrangements being made with any Company or Companies for the purpose of laying telegraphic cables, or erecting land-lines of telegraph. In the meanwhile, it appears to my Lords that it will be advisable to designate those lines of communication which they consider are most called for by Imperial and commercial interests, and towards the formation of which they are of opinion that the countenance and encouragement of Her Majesty's Government may properly be afforded in the manner indicated, viz. :—

- |            |                                     |   |
|------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| Section A. | Falmouth to Gibraltar.              | 1. A direct line between Falmouth, or some other point on the coast of England, and Gibraltar, without touching anywhere between those two points.  |
| Section B. | Gibraltar to Malta.                 | 2. A line between Gibraltar and Malta, without touching at any intermediate point.  |
| Section D. | Suabin to Aden.                     | 3. A line between some point on the Egyptian territories, to be hereafter decided, and Aden, and from thence to Kurrachee, touching at the various points which may be thought requisite. |
|            | " E. Aden to Kooria Mooraa Islands. |   |
|            | " F. Kooria to Muscat.              |   |
|            | " G. Muscat to Rass Jaub.           |   |
|            | " H. Rass Jaub to Kurrachee.        |   |
| Section K. | Rangoon to Pulo Penang.             | 4. A line from Rangoon to Singapore, touching at Penang and other points if deemed necessary.   |
|            | " L. Pulo Penang to Singapore.      |   |
| Section M. | Singapore to Batavia.               | 5. A line from either Singapore or Malacca, whichever point may be found most suitable, viâ Java, to some point on the coast of Australia to be hereafter decided.                 |
|            | " N. Java to Australia.             | 6.  |

Section O. Singapore to Saigon River.
 „ P. Saigon to Hong Kong.
 „ Q. Hong Kong to Amoy.
 „ R. Amoy to Shanghai.

6. A line from Singapore to Shanghai, touching at Hong Kong and other points, if deemed advisable, including Saigon, if the French Government concur in such a proceeding.

Section S. Shanghai to Yokohama.

7. A line from Shanghai to Japan.

With regard to the several proposed lines of telegraphic communication, my Lords are glad to find that, with some slight exceptions, the whole of the routes along which the lines in question would be laid have been examined, and the soundings completed sufficiently for telegraphic purposes, by the Admiralty, and marked in charts, the incomplete portions of the lines being between Java and Australia, of which about one-half has been sounded; between Saigon and Hong Kong, of which about one-half has been sounded, and the remainder is in progress; between China and Japan, of which about one-third has been sounded.

My Lords have now only to add that (whilst acting on the principles laid down for their guidance in the foregoing Minute), they will be prepared to give their attentive consideration to any proposals which may be submitted to them for carrying out any of the schemes of telegraphic communication above adverted to, by parties who can adduce satisfactory proof of their possessing the necessary pecuniary means for carrying such undertaking into effect, whether by submarine cables, or, when circumstances will admit, by alternative land-lines; and my Lords will make arrangements with the Admiralty so as to afford such parties the opportunity of inspecting the surveys referred to.

Transmit copy of this Minute to Sir F. Rogers, and request that, in laying the same before the Earl of Carnarvon, he will state to His Lordship, that my Lords, in laying down principles for their own governance in regard to the amount of encouragement which it may be deemed expedient on the part of the Imperial Government to afford towards the extension of telegraphic communication, have no wish to interfere with any arrangements, whether pecuniary or otherwise, which the Governments of any of the Australian Colonies may be inclined to enter into with any Company or Companies formed for the furtherance of the object in question.

Transmit copy of this Minute to Mr. Hammond, for the information of Lord Stanley; to Mr. Romaine, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty; to Mr. Merivale, for the information of the Secretary of State for India in Council; and to Mr. Farrer, for the information of the Board of Trade.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL to HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.

General Post Office,
 Sydney, 15 January, 1869.

MY LORD,

I do myself the honor to enclose the Despatch of the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, dated the 27th January, 1868, relative to the supposed advantages that would accrue to the Australian Colonies by the establishment of telegraphic communication with Great Britain, by way of the Cape of Good Hope, St. Helena, Sierra Leone, and Gibraltar; and beg to state that the subject has received the careful consideration of the Cabinet, and it has been decided that it is not expedient for this Government to fall into the suggestion.

I have, &c.,
 DANIEL EGAN.

NEW SOUTH WALES.

PROPOSED ERECTION OF LIGHT-HOUSE ON THE SNARES, FOVEAUX STRAITS.
 (CORRESPONDENCE RESPECTING.)

Presented to both Houses of Parliament, by Command.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, NEW ZEALAND, to THE COLONIAL SECRETARY, NEW SOUTH WALES.

[Circular.]

Colonial Secretary's Office,
 Wellington, 29 October, 1868.

SIR,

I have the honor to enclose, for the consideration of the Government of New South Wales, a copy of a report, dated the 2nd instant, from Mr. James Balfour, the Colonial Marine Engineer, on the proposal of erecting a light-house on the Snares, at the entrance of Foveaux Straits, as a guide to the numerous vessels sailing from Australia to South America and to Europe, via Cape Horn.

The establishment of a light-house in that locality would, besides indicating the position of the Snares, thereby preventing damage to vessels passing near to them, constitute a fixed point of departure for vessels bound on these voyages, and diminish the risk of shipwrecks on the Auckland Islands, the occurrence of which has been of late so frequent.

As this is a subject in which all the Australasian Colonies are jointly interested, it would most fitly be dealt with at a Conference of Delegates; and I have accordingly, in my letter, No. 169, of even date herewith, suggested it as one of the questions to be submitted to the Conference proposed therein.

I have, &c.,
 E. W. STAFFORD.

THE COLONIAL MARINE ENGINEER, NEW ZEALAND, to THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

Marine Department,
 Wellington, 2 October, 1868.

SIR,

With reference to a proposal to erect a light-house on the Snares, I have the honor to report as follows:—

1. I was examined by the Select Committee of the Honorable Legislative Council, with reference to the propriety of erecting a light-house on the Auckland Islands or elsewhere, with a view to the prevention of the recurrence of such terrible disasters as the wreck of the "General Grant."

2. I then expressed the opinion that a light-house on the Snares would be of more general service than any single light on the Auckland Islands; and, should it be found moderately easy to effect a landing on any of the group (the Snares), that it would not probably be more costly.

3. I was influenced, in forming this opinion, by the consideration of the great length of the Auckland Group (over 30 nautic miles), which would render it difficult to cover them effectually by one light; whereas the most outlying of the Snares is not more than  $3\frac{1}{2}$  nautic miles from the centre of the principal island; thus, a good light on the main island would very efficiently cover the whole danger.

4. Another argument in favour of the Snares is, that a light there would be of great service to the shipping bound for any of the southern portions of this Colony from ports eastward of Australia, as such vessels usually go to the southward of Stewart Island, and very generally make the Snares as their landfall. A light on the Auckland Islands, on the other hand, would be of very little service to the trade of this Colony.

2 PROPOSED ERECTION OF LIGHT-HOUSE ON THE SNARES, FOVEAUX STRAITS.

5. A light on the Snares would be of great service to the homeward-bound fleet from Sydney (right on their track), Brisbane, Melbourne (for a considerable part of the year at least, though it would be somewhat to the north of the most usual track), and, probably to a less extent, of South Australia and Tasmania.

6. A light or lights on the Auckland Islands would be more generally useful to homeward-bound vessels from Victoria, South Australia, and Tasmania, but it would be of little or no use to the shipping trade of Queensland, New South Wales, or New Zealand.

7. But little is known of the Snares. The New Zealand Pilot, p. 228, says: "The Snares are a bold and moderately high group of islands, destitute of vegetation, and covered by myriads of the pintado or Cape pigeon; they lie 62 miles S.S.W. of the S.W. end of Stewart Island, and extend  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles in a N.E. by E. and S.W. by W. direction; they are an excellent landmark from the westward, and are recommended to be made as a point of departure in passing south of Stewart Island, whereas the name they bear would deter vessels from approaching them.

"The N.E. or largest island is little more than one mile in length by half a mile in breadth, rising on the south side perpendicularly to the height of 470 feet; the N.E. side is less precipitous, and probably accessible under very favourable circumstances; the western portion of the group consists of four islets, separated from the large island by a channel of two miles in width."

8. This account must be modified by more recent statements. In the official report of the cruise of the brig "Amherst" (Southland Gazette, No. 9 of vol. 6, published Saturday, 11th April, 1868) the following passage occurs:—"At noon on the 28th, when as yet the brig was 8 miles distant from the Snares, the wind headed us, so a boat was lowered, into which I stepped, and we pulled away for the north-east side of the island, where is a small gulch or cove—the only boat harbour on it, I believe. Thousands of mutton-birds, nellies, penguins, &c., heralded our approach, and to some extent, prepared us for what we saw on landing. Once on shore, our party was divided, and we commenced our search. I and two others made for the west side, where we climbed a high bluff, some 500 feet high, commanding a good view of the whole island. Our progress was painfully slow, the entire surface being literally honeycombed with mutton-bird holes, into which the foot sank deeply at every step, the inmates thereof betokening their dissatisfaction at our presence by giving vent to a half-choked querulous cry. The penguins (ludicrous birds), in hundreds, drawn up in rank and file, stood to oppose our march, and it required not a little vigorous kicking to force our way through them. We fired the grass on the open, and made a considerable smoke, but during our stay of four hours we had no evidence whatever to shew that any one was or had been living on the island. * * * Taking a last look round, we recognized the necessity for our immediate departure, the mutton-birds darkening the sky in their flight, banging down on the ground in thousands in a most absurd and reckless manner, inflicting severe buffets on the heads of several of us.

"The Snares are lat.  $48^{\circ} 3' S.$ , long.  $166^{\circ} 45' E.$ , and under this name comprise two islands, a large reef to the N.W. of the main,  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles distant, and several outlying rocks. The small island ( $\frac{1}{2}$  a mile long) is separated from the main on its east side by very a narrow passage. The larger island I take to be about 4 miles in circumference; greatest elevation, 600 feet; coast line, very bold. It is almost entirely covered with scrub and trees of stunted growth, the tupari, ake-ake, and kokamuka. Of Macquarie cabbage there is abundance, and of fine growth, some of the leaves measuring 2 feet in diameter. Patches clear of scrub are clothed with the lutaki tussock. The soil is peaty, and well mingled with guano, and very moist. What rocks I saw were of the felspathic group. We found no water at all palatable, some I drank being quite brackish, but the birds would render the best undrinkable."

9. Thus it appears that, instead of being "destitute of vegetation," these islands, or rather the main island, is "almost entirely covered with scrub and trees of stunted growth." There is also a landing-place, but it remains to be seen how often it would be possible to effect a landing, and whether bulky articles could be landed in safety. The only objection that I can at present see to the erection of a small and comparatively inexpensive light-house on the summit of the main island, is its height, (500 to 600 feet). As a light at such an elevation would, I fear, be liable to be frequently obscured by fogs, it may be possible, on visiting the island, to select a site at an elevation not exceeding 200 feet, which will permit the light to be visible in all necessary directions. An elevation of 200 feet would give a range of visibility of about 22 nautic miles in clear weather, which is ample for all practical purposes; and it would make the light much less liable to be obscured by fogs—a matter of the utmost importance.

10. From the foregoing extracts, it will be obvious that it is quite possible to erect a light-house on the Snares: the cost will depend almost entirely upon the landing facilities. It should be a light of the most powerful description procurable, and I should estimate the cost of the lantern and apparatus in England at from £4,000 to £5,000. With a view to procuring a very powerful flash, a revolving white light, attaining its greatest brilliancy every minute, would probably be the most suitable arrangement.

The cost of the buildings can only be guessed in the meantime; but, unless the difficulties are more formidable than I anticipate, I consider that a sum not exceeding £15,000 in all would suffice for everything; i. e., apparatus £5,000, buildings £10,000.

The cost of maintenance would be considerable. Considering the inaccessibility of the site, it would be proper to have at least four keepers, and these should either be better better paid than at other light-houses, or should receive rations in addition to their pay. The annual cost of maintaining the station should not be estimated lower than £1,200 to £1,500.

In addition to this, however, it would be necessary to charter a vessel to visit the station at least four times a year; and on one, if not two of her trips, she ought to go on to the Auckland Islands, to renew the depôt of provisions, and examine the islands for possible castaways. This service would probably cost not less than £500; consequently, the annual cost of maintaining such a light should not be estimated under about £2,000 sterling.

11. Thus, in considering the propriety of erecting a light-house on the Snares, it would be proper to contemplate an original expenditure of not less than £15,000, and an annual outlay, little, if at all, under £2,000.

12. Should the Government decide to take further steps in the matter, I should propose to visit the Snares in the "St. Kilda," in the course of the coming summer, after which, I should be able to make a more minute report, and to furnish more detailed estimates of the probable cost of the work.

I have, &c.,

JAMES M. BALFOUR,
Colonial Marine Engineer.

SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th of October last, enclosing, for the information of this Government, a copy of a report, dated the 2nd of the same month, from Mr. James Balfour, the Colonial Marine Engineer, on the proposal of erecting a light-house on the Snares, at the entrance of Foveaux Straits, as a guide to the numerous vessels sailing from Australia to South America and to Europe, via Cape Horn; and, in reference to my letter of this date, to say that I concur in the view which you have expressed of the question, as one in which all the Australasian Colonies are jointly interested, being most fitly submitted to the proposed Conference.
