The Author

Antony Green is the Election Analyst for ABC-Television, and has worked for the ABC on every state and federal election coverage since 1989. He also writes regularly on electoral matters for the Sydney Morning Herald.

Antony studied at Sydney University, obtaining a Bachelor of Science in mathematics and computing, and a Bachelor of Economics with Honours in politics.

In the last parliament, Antony produced three publications for the Parliamentary Library, "NSW Elections 1984 to 1991: A Comparative Analysis", "1991 Legislative Assembly Election: Estimated Two-Candidate Preferred Results by Polling Place", and "Electing the NSW Legislative Council 1978 to 1995: Past Results and Future Prospects".

Acknowledgments

I would like to thank NSW Electoral Commissioner, Mr Ian Dickson, and the staff of the Electoral Office, for their assistance throughout the election campaign, and in providing access to the statistical returns for the election ahead of their official publication. I must also express my appreciation for the continuing assistance of Mr David Clune from the Parliamentary Library.

While figures have been provided by the Electoral Office, all calculation of percentages, flows of preferences, totalling of votes and analysis of regional votes and trends is the responsibility of the author.

INTRODUCTION

This paper contains a summary of the results of the 1995 elections for the New South Wales Parliament. It contains details of voting for all Legislative Assembly districts, as well as summaries of the Legislative Council, and the two referendums conducted with the election.

Full detail of district results for the Legislative Assembly are given on pages 9 to 26. Primary and two-party preferred counts are given for each division. The following paragraphs explain the format for the results.

First Count: The votes shown for each candidate are the total primary votes received. Percentage votes are calculated as a percentage of the formal vote for each electorate. Swing is calculated by subtracting the percentage vote received by a party at the 1991 election from the percentage received in 1995. Where the parties contesting the district differ from 1991, ghost candidates indicated by "...." have been included representing candidates not contesting the 1995 election. As a result, all primary swings add to zero, subject to rounding errors.

Final Count: Represents the two-candidate preferred count after the final distribution of preferences in an electorate. All votes which did not indicate a preference to the two remaining candidate are included in the total listed as Exhausted. Two-candidate preferred percentages are calculated by dividing the two-candidate preferred vote by the votes remaining in the count, that is the formal votes minus the total exhausted votes. Two-candidate preferred swings are shown compared to the 1991 election. Where the party composition of the final two candidates differs from 1991 (eg South Coast), a ghost candidate appears, and three swing figures are shown.

Note that in the detailed results, all swing figures are compared to the 1991 election. By-elections have been ignored. Details of by-elections can found on pages 37 to 39.

Results of the election for the Legislative Council are provided in the same format as in Current Issues Background Paper No 1995/2, "Electing the New South Wales Legislative Council 1978 to 1995: Past Results and Future Prospects". Details of the distribution of preferences are provided in the same format as used Section 2.8 (pp10-16) of that publication. At this stage, Council results are only preliminary. When full details of the count are available, a publication with more detailed information will be prepared.

All figures are based on information provided by the NSW State Electoral Office. However, responsibility for all calculations and omissions is taken by the author.

NOTES

Seats with a margin less than 6% classified as Marginal. Seats with margins between 6% and 12% classified as Safe. Seats with margins greater than 12% classified as Very Safe. All seats classified by their margin based on 1991 election result, though 2PP results shown above are the results of the 1995 election. By-elections results have not been used. The four electorates held by independents have been excluded from the above analysis.
