Breathing Land: landscapes of Canowindra on show at NSW Parliament

Breathing Land, a stunning new exhibition by artist Christine Choi, is now showing at NSW Parliament House.

The exhibition presents a series of landscape paintings inspired by the sweeping beauty of Canowindra, NSW. For Choi, who migrated to Australia, the natural environment has offered comfort, belonging and peace that words alone cannot capture.

Through rich colour and textured brushwork, Choi's works evoke the rolling fields, open skies and quiet expanses of the region, expressing the beauty of the land and the emotions it inspires — calm, wonder and connection.

Ms Choi said: "Australia's landscapes have given me a sense of peace and belonging that I struggled to put into words. Through painting, I hope to share that feeling of connection and gratitude with others."

Breathing Land is hosted at NSW Parliament by the Member for Ryde, Jordan Lane MP. Mr Lane said, "It is a pleasure to host Christine Choi's exhibition in Parliament House. Her works reflect the profound ways that nature can inspire a sense of belonging and peace, and I encourage visitors to experience the exhibition for themselves."

See Breathing Land between 9am and 5pm at the Parliament of New South Wales (6 Macquarie Street, Sydney) until 30 October 2025. Entry is free.
