[2] Section 14A

Insert after section 14:

14A Proceedings for offences commenced by officers of ICAC or PIC

- (1) An officer of ICAC or PIC does not have the power to commence proceedings for an offence unless the Director of Public Prosecutions has advised the Independent Commission Against Corruption or the Police Integrity Commission (as the case requires) in writing that the proceedings may be commenced by an officer of ICAC or PIC.
- (2) For that purpose, the Director of Public Prosecutions may liaise with the Independent Commission Against Corruption or the Police Integrity Commission, but is to act independently in deciding to advise that proceedings for the offence may be commenced.
- (3) In this section:
officer of ICAC or PIC means a person acting in the capacity of the Commissioner, an Assistant Commissioner or officer of the Independent Commission Against Corruption or of the Police Integrity Commission.
