

New South Wales

Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Bill 2008

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The objects of this Bill are as follows:

- (a) to amend the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 (the Principal Act) so as:
 - (i) to give effect to certain recommendations made as a consequence of a review carried out under section 147 of the Principal Act (the statutory review), and
 - (ii) to make other amendments in connection with the constitution, functions and procedure of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal (the Tribunal) and in the nature of statute law revision,
- (b) to make consequential and other amendments in the nature of law revision to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal (General) Regulation 2004 and Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998,
- (c) to repeal the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Legislation Further Amendment Act 1998 and Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998,

- (d) to amend the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977:
 - (i) to increase the maximum amount that the Tribunal may award under that Act as compensatory damages from $40,000 to $100,000, and
 - (ii) to enable the President of the Anti-Discrimination Board (instead of the Minister) to grant exemptions from the operation of that Act and to enable applications to be made to the Tribunal for reviews of such exemption decisions, and
 - (iii) to omit certain procedural provisions relating to the Tribunal that duplicate procedural provisions already contained in the Principal Act,
- (e) to amend the Building Professionals Act 2005 to remove any right to appeal certain decisions of the Tribunal to an Appeal Panel and to provide instead for such appeals to be made directly to the Supreme Court,
- (f) to amend the Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004 and the Explosives Act 2003 to make amendments that are consequential on the amendment of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 and the Principal Act,
- (g) to amend the Supreme Court Act 1970 to assign to the Court of Appeal any appeals from decisions of an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal and the referral of questions of law by the Tribunal for the Supreme Court's opinion.

The amendments made to the Principal Act by this Bill that arise from the statutory review deal with the following matters:

- (a) the joinder of persons who are not parties to proceedings in the Tribunal,
- (b) the continued participation of members or assessors of the Tribunal who preside over unsuccessful preliminary conferences for proceedings in the formal determination of the proceedings,
- (c) the powers of the Registrar of the Tribunal with respect to the issue of a summons to attend and give evidence or produce documents or other things and the granting of access to things produced pursuant to such a summons,
- (d) the expansion of the circumstances to which the Tribunal may have regard in awarding costs in proceedings before it,
- (e) the simplification of the process for the making of the rules of the Tribunal by its Rule Committee.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act.

Clause 3 is a formal provision that gives effect to the amendments to the Principal Act set out in Schedule 1.

Clause 4 is a formal provision that gives effect to the amendments made to other Acts and Regulations set out in Schedule 2.

Clause 5 repeals the following legislation:

- (a) the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Legislation Further Amendment Act 1998,
- (b) the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998.

Clause 6 provides for the repeal of the proposed Act after all the amendments and repeals effected by the proposed Act have commenced. Once these amendments and repeals have commenced, the proposed Act will be spent and section 30 of the Interpretation Act 1987 provides that the repeal of an amending Act does not affect the amendments or repeals made by that Act.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997

Decisions involving conduct

Section 6 (1) (a)–(f) of the Principal Act defines the term decision to include a number of specified kinds of conduct. Section 6 (1) (g) provides that the term also includes doing or refusing to do any other act or thing.

Schedule 1 [1] amends section 8 of the Principal Act to confirm that a reviewable decision may involve an administrator engaging, or refusing to engage, in conduct if an enactment confers jurisdiction on the Tribunal to review the conduct or refusal. For example, the Tribunal currently has jurisdiction to review certain conduct of a public sector agency under section 55 of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998.

Constitution of Tribunal for interlocutory functions

Schedule 1 [3] and [4] amend section 24A of the Principal Act to enable the Tribunal to be constituted by a single presidential or judicial member (as appropriate) in relation to the exercise of interlocutory functions without the need for the President or Divisional Head to formally assign the member for that purpose in each case.

Schedule 1 [5] amends section 24A to confer a power on the President, or relevant Divisional Head (subject to any direction of the President), to give directions as to the members who are to constitute the Tribunal for interlocutory matters. The power to be conferred is comparable to the power conferred in relation to non-interlocutory matters by section 22 of the Principal Act.

Tabling of annual reports

Schedule 1 [6] amends section 26 of the Principal Act to enable the Minister to table an annual report of the Tribunal in a House of Parliament even when the House is not sitting.

Dispensing with certain requirements for written applications

Schedule 1 [9] and [10] amend section 44 of the Principal Act to enable the Tribunal to dispense with the requirement that late applications for original decisions be in writing.

Schedule 1 [14] and [15] amend section 57 of the Principal Act to enable the Tribunal to dispense with the requirement that late applications for the review of reviewable decisions be in writing.

Internal reviews

Schedule 1 [12] amends section 53 of the Principal Act to require an administrator to notify a person seeking an internal review under that section of the result of the review within 21 days after the application for internal review is lodged or such other period as may be agreed.

Schedule 1 [17] amends section 58 of the Principal Act to require an administrator to lodge with the Tribunal a copy of any statement of reasons for a decision in an internal review conducted under section 53 of that Act in respect of a reviewable decision that is the subject of an application for review to the Tribunal.

Applications for reviews of reviewable decisions

Schedule 1 [13] substitutes section 55 of the Principal Act to clarify the period within which an application for a review of a reviewable decision is to be made to the Tribunal having regard to whether or not an internal review is available in relation to the decision. Schedule 1 [16] makes a consequential amendment to section 57.

Joinder of parties

Schedule 1 [18] amends section 67 of the Principal Act to enable the Tribunal to join a person as a party to proceedings before it (other than proceedings for an internal appeal) if the Tribunal considers that the person ought to have been joined as a party or is a person whose joinder is necessary to the determination of all matters in dispute in the proceedings.

Representation of parties

Schedule 1 [19] and [20] amend section 71 of the Principal Act to require an agent of a party in proceedings before the Tribunal who is not an Australian legal practitioner to obtain leave from the Tribunal to represent the party in the proceedings. An Australian legal practitioner engaged to represent a party will be entitled to appear in proceedings before the Tribunal without the need to obtain leave. Schedule 1 [21] makes an amendment to section 71 that is consequential on the substitution of section 71 (2).

Dismissal of proceedings for failure to appear or prosecute proceedings

Schedule 1 [22] amends section 73 of the Principal Act to expand the circumstances in which the Tribunal may dismiss proceedings to include where an applicant fails to appear or where the Tribunal considers that there has been a want of prosecution of the proceedings. The amendment also enables the Tribunal to reinstate proceedings that have been dismissed because of an applicant's failure to appear if the Tribunal considers that there is a reasonable explanation for that failure.

Taking into account the interests of certain vulnerable persons in approved settlements

Currently, sections 74, 86 and 105 of the Principal Act provide that the Tribunal, a member or an assessor (as the case may be) may not exercise a power under those sections to approve or give effect to a settlement (a settlement power) unless satisfied that it is in the best interests of the person whose interests are considered by the Tribunal, member or assessor to be paramount.

Schedule 1 [32] inserts a section 86A in the Principal Act to enable (but not require) the Tribunal, member or assessor (as the case requires) to take into account, when exercising a settlement power, the interests of vulnerable persons who may be directly affected by the exercise of the power. The proposed section defines a vulnerable person to be:

- (a) a minor, or
- (b) a person who is totally or partially incapable of representing his or her interests in proceedings before the Tribunal because the person is intellectually, physically, psychologically or sensorily disabled, of advanced age, a mentally incapacitated person or otherwise disabled.

Schedule 1 [23], [29], [30], [31] and [40] make consequential amendments to sections 74, 86 and 105 in order to remove the current mandatory best interests test.

Further participation of members presiding over preliminary conferences

Schedule 1 [24] amends section 74 of the Principal Act to enable a member or assessor of the Tribunal who presides over an unsuccessful preliminary conference in respect of proceedings to continue to participate in the formal determination of the proceedings unless a party to the proceedings objects and can demonstrate that the further participation of the member or assessor is likely to prejudice the party's case. Currently, section 74 provides that a member or assessor presiding over such a preliminary conference is not eligible to be a member or assessor in the formal determination of the proceedings simply because a party has objected to his or her further participation.

References of questions of law to the Supreme Court by Tribunal at first instance Schedule 1 [25] inserts a new section 79A in the Principal Act to enable the Tribunal at first instance to refer a question of law to the Supreme Court for its opinion if the President of the Tribunal consents to the question being referred. Currently, questions of law may be referred to the Supreme Court only by an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal hearing an internal or external appeal.

Summons to attend to give evidence or produce things

Schedule 1 [26] and [27] amend section 84 of the Principal Act to confirm that the Registrar of the Tribunal has a discretion as to whether to issue a summons, on the application of a party to proceedings, for a person to attend and give evidence or to attend and produce documents or other things.

Schedule 1 [28] amends section 84 of the Principal Act to confirm that the Registrar may give directions as to access to documents or other things produced pursuant to a summons to which no objection has been made.

Costs

Schedule 1 [33] amends section 88 of the Principal Act:

- (a) to confirm that parties are to bear their own costs unless the Tribunal awards costs to a particular party, and
- (b) to enable the Tribunal to award costs in proceedings before it having regard to an expanded set of circumstances.

Currently, section 88 (1) provides that costs may be awarded only if the Tribunal is satisfied that there are special circumstances.

The new provisions are based largely on the provisions of section 109 of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal Act 1998 of Victoria.

Process for the making of rules of the Tribunal

The following amendments are made to the Principal Act in order to simplify the process by which the Rule Committee of the Tribunal may make rules of the Tribunal:

- (a) the removal of the requirement that the Rule Committee may make rules relating specially to a Division of the Tribunal only on the recommendation of the Subcommittee for the Division established under section 97 (see Schedule 1 [34]),
- (b) the removal of the exhibition and consultation procedure in section 98 so as to place the Tribunal in the same position as other tribunals with rule-making powers (see Schedule 1 [36]).

Proposed clause 44 to be inserted in Schedule 5 to the Principal Act by Schedule 1 [58] provides for the abolition of all of the Subcommittees of the Rule Committee established under section 97 when that section is repealed by Schedule 1 [35].

Proposed section 5 (2) of the proposed Act repeals the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998. Schedule 1 to that Regulation currently contains the interim rules of the Tribunal. Proposed clause 45 to be inserted in Schedule 5 to the Principal Act by Schedule 1 [58] provides for the interim rules to be treated as if they were rules made by the Rule Committee so they may be renamed, amended and repealed by the Rule Committee using the new simplified process for rule-making.

Rules of the Tribunal are statutory rules for the purposes of Part 6 of the Interpretation Act 1987. Accordingly, such rules will continue to be subject to the procedural requirements of that Part (including the tabling and disallowance provisions).

Selection of mediators and neutral evaluators

Schedule 1 [38] amends section 102 of the Principal Act to remove the requirement that the parties to proceedings must agree on who is to be the mediator or neutral evaluator in the proceedings before the Tribunal can refer the proceedings for mediation or neutral evaluation. However, the amendment does not affect the current requirement that the parties agree to their proceedings being referred to mediation or neutral evaluation. Schedule 1 [37] makes a consequential amendment to section 102.

Costs of mediations and neutral evaluations

Schedule 1 [39] amends section 104 of the Principal Act to enable the Tribunal to decide to bear the costs of a mediation or neutral evaluation instead of the parties to proceedings. Currently, such costs must be borne by the parties.

Time for lodging appeals

Schedule 1 [41] amends section 113 of the Principal Act to provide that a party may appeal an appealable decision of the Tribunal to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal within 28 days after the Tribunal gives the party oral reasons or written reasons for its decision (whichever is the later). The amendment recognises that reasons for decisions of the Tribunal that are appealable to an Appeal Panel are sometimes given orally instead of in writing.

Remittal of case on appeal to Appeal Panel

Schedule 1 [42] amends section 114 of the Principal Act to confirm that an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal hearing an internal appeal may remit part of a case for reconsideration by the Tribunal at first instance.

Schedule 1 [43] makes a comparable amendment to section 118C of the Principal Act in relation to external appeals made to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal.

Fees

Schedule 1 [44] amends section 145 of the Principal Act to expand the power of the Governor to make regulations that prescribe fees in relation to proceedings in, or the provision of certain services by or on behalf of, the Tribunal. The expanded regulation-making power is comparable to the power conferred on the Governor in relation to courts. The amendment also transfers to the Principal Act certain exclusions from the requirement to pay fees that are currently contained in the Administrative Decisions Tribunal (General) Regulation 2004.

Constitution of Legal Services Division

Schedule 1 [47] amends clause 1 of Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act to require:

- (a) at least one Deputy President (other than the Divisional Head) to be assigned to the Legal Services Division, but only after the Minister has consulted with the Bar Council and the Law Society Council concerning the assignment, and
- (b) at least one non-presidential judicial member who is a current, retired or acting eligible judicial officer to be assigned to the Division.

Schedule 1 [50] amends clause 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act to insert a definition of eligible judicial officer. The term is defined to mean any of the following:

- (a) a Judge of the Supreme Court,
- (b) a Judge of the District Court,
- (c) a judicial officer of any other court or tribunal having an equivalent status (for the purposes of Part 9 of the Constitution Act 1902) to the Supreme Court or District Court.

Schedule 1 [49] amends clause 4 of Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act to enable a senior judicial member of the Legal Services Division to participate in and preside over certain disciplinary proceedings allocated to the Division. Schedule 1 [50] amends clause 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 2 to the Principal Act to insert a definition of senior judicial member. The term is defined to mean any of the following members of the Division:

- (a) the Divisional Head,
- (b) a Deputy President assigned to the Division in accordance with new process mentioned above,
- (c) a non-presidential judicial member who is a current, retired or acting eligible judicial officer.

Completion of unfinished matters by former members and members ceasing to have certain qualifications

Schedule 1 [54] substitutes clause 8A of Schedule 3 to the Principal Act to enable a member or former member to complete unfinished matters even if he or she ceases to have a qualification (other than for certain disciplinary reasons) that is required by Schedule 2 in order to deal with the matter. The substituted clause will also continue to enable a former member whose period of appointment has expired to complete unfinished matters.

Statute law revision

The following amendments to the Principal Act are in the nature of statute law revision:

- (a) amendments relating to the omission of charts from the Act (see Schedule 1 [2], [8] and [11]),
- (b) amendments to update references to repealed or renamed Acts and to relocated provisions of Acts (see Schedule 1 [7], [45], [46], [52], [53], [55] and [56]),
- (c) amendments to omit certain spent provisions (see Schedule 1 [48] and [51]).

Savings and transitional provisions

Schedule 1 [57] amends clause 1 of Schedule 5 to the Principal Act to enable the Governor to make regulations of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.

Schedule 1 [58] inserts a new Part in Schedule 5 to the Principal Act containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.

Schedule 2 Amendment of other Acts and Regulations

Administrative Decisions Tribunal (General) Regulation 2004

Schedule 2.1 makes the following amendments to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal (General) Regulation 2004:

- (a) Part 4 (Rules of the Tribunal) of the Regulation is repealed as a consequence of the repeal of section 98 of the Principal Act by the proposed Act,
- (b) two spent provisions of the Regulation are repealed,
- (c) other amendments are made that are consequential on amendments made to the Principal Act by the proposed Act.

Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998

Schedule 2.2 makes amendments to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998 that are consequential on amendments made to the Principal Act by the proposed Act (including the amendments that require the rules in Schedule 1 to the Regulation to be treated as if they were rules made by the Rule Committee of the Tribunal).

Anti-Discrimination Act 1977 No 48 and Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004

Schedule 2.3 makes the following amendments to the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977:

- (a) section 98 (Rights of appearance and representation) of the Act is amended so as to enable section 71 of the Principal Act to apply in relation to the matter of the representation of parties,
- (b) section 107 (Dismissal of proceedings) of the Act is repealed so as to enable the Tribunal to rely on its general dismissal powers under section 73 (5) of the Principal Act,
- (c) section 108 (Order or other decision of Tribunal) of the Act is amended to increase the maximum amount that the Tribunal may award under that Act as compensatory damages from $40,000 to $100,000,
- (d) section 110 (Costs) of the Act is substituted so as to enable the Tribunal to rely on its general power to award costs under section 88 of the Principal Act,
- (e) section 126 of the Act is substituted so as to enable the President of the Anti-Discrimination Board (instead of the Minister) to grant exemptions from the operation of that Act and to enable applications to be made to the Tribunal for reviews of such exemption decisions,
- (f) Schedule 1 to the Act is amended to make provision for matters of a savings or transitional nature consequent on these amendments.

Schedule 2.4 makes amendments to the Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004 that are consequential on the substitution of section 126 of the Act.

Building Professionals Act 2005 No 115

Schedule 2.5 makes the following amendments to the Building Professionals Act 2005:

- (a) section 36 of the Act is repealed and a Part 3A is inserted so as to remove any right to appeal certain decisions of the Tribunal to an Appeal Panel and to provide instead for such appeals to be made directly to the Supreme Court,
- (b) Schedule 2 to the Act is amended to make provision for matters of a savings or transitional nature consequent on these amendments.

The amendments to be made will place appeal rights from decisions of the Tribunal in relation to building professionals on an equal footing with the appeal rights of other professionals such as architects and surveyors.

Explosives Act 2003 No 39

Schedule 2.6 makes an amendment to the Explosives Act 2003 that is consequential on the substitution of section 55 of the Principal Act by the proposed Act (see, in particular, the terms of the new section 55 (1) (d) of the Principal Act).

Supreme Court Act 1970 No 52

Schedule 2.7 makes the following amendments to the Supreme Court Act 1970:

- (a) section 48 of the Act is amended to assign to the Court of Appeal any appeals from decisions of an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal and the referral of questions of law by the Tribunal for the Supreme Court's opinion,
- (b) the Fourth Schedule to the Act is amended to make provision for matters of a savings or transitional nature consequent on these amendments.

	(Section 3)	3
[1] Section 8 What is a reviewable decision?		4
	Omit the note to the section. Insert at the end of the section:	5
	(2) For the avoidance of doubt (and without limiting subsection (1) or section 6):	6
	(a) the conduct of an administrator (or a refusal by an administrator to engage in conduct) is a reviewable decision if the Tribunal has jurisdiction under an enactment to review the conduct or refusal, and	8
		11
	(b) in its application to any such conduct or refusal by an administrator, any reference in this Act (however expressed) to an administrator making a reviewable decision includes a reference to an administrator engaging or refusing to engage in the conduct.	12
		13
		15
		16
	Note. Section 38 provides for the circumstances in which the Tribunal has jurisdiction to review a decision of an administrator.	17
		18
	The jurisdiction conferred on the Tribunal by section 55 of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 is an example of jurisdiction to review conduct.	19
		20
		21
[2] Section 10 Notes		22
	Omit “Charts and other notes”. Insert instead “Notes”.	23
[3] Section 24A Constitution of Tribunal for exercise of interlocutory functions		24
		25
	Omit “who is assigned by the President for the purpose of exercising the function” from section 24A (2) (a).	26
		27
[4] Section 24A (2) (b)		28
	Omit “who is assigned by the President or (subject to any direction of the President) the Divisional Head for the purpose of exercising the function”.	29
		30
[5] Section 24A (2A)		31
	Insert after section 24A (2):	32
	(2A) The President, or relevant Divisional Head (subject to any direction of the President), may give directions as to the members who are to constitute the Tribunal for the purposes of exercising any of its interlocutory functions.	33
		34
		36

[6] Section 26 Annual report	1
Insert after section 26 (2):	2
(3) If a House of Parliament is not sitting when the Minister seeks to lay the report before it, the Minister is to cause a copy of the report to be presented to the Clerk of that House of Parliament.	3 4 5
(4) The report:	6
(a) is, on presentation and for all purposes, taken to have been laid before the House, and	7 8
(b) may be printed by authority of the Clerk of the House, and	9
(c) if so printed, is taken to be a document published by or under the authority of the House, and	10 11
(d) is to be recorded:	12
(i) in the case of the Legislative Council—in the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Legislative Council, and	13 14 15
(ii) in the case of the Legislative Assembly—in the Votes and Proceedings of the Legislative Assembly, on the first sitting day of the House after receipt of the copy of the report by the Clerk.	16 17 18 19
[7] Section 27 Appointment of Registrar and staff	20
Omit “Part 2 of the Public Sector Management Act 1988 ”.	21
Insert instead “Chapter 1A of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 ”.	22 23
[8] Section 41 Summary of the original decision-making process	24
Omit the chart at the end of the section.	25
[9] Section 44 Late applications to Tribunal	26
Omit “in writing” from section 44 (1).	27
[10] Section 44 (1A)	28
Insert after section 44 (1):	29
(1A) An application by an interested person under subsection (1) must be in writing unless the Tribunal dispenses with the requirement.	30 31
[11] Section 47 Summary of the review process for reviewable decision	32
Omit the chart at the end of the section.	33

[12] Section 53 Internal reviews	1
Omit “As soon as practicable (or in any event within 21 days) after the completion of an internal review of a decision” from section 53 (6).	2 3
Insert instead “Within 21 days after the application for the internal review is lodged (or such other period as the administrator and person agree on)”.	4 5
[13] Section 55	6
Omit the section. Insert instead:	7
55 When can an application for a review be made?	8
(1) A person may apply to the Tribunal for a review of a reviewable decision only if:	9 10
(a) the application is made by an interested person, and	11
(b) where the person was entitled to seek an internal review of the decision—the person has duly applied for such a review and the review is taken to have been finalised under section 53 (9), and	12 13 14 15
(c) the application is made in the manner prescribed by the rules of the Tribunal, and	16 17
(d) the application is made within the period or by the time prescribed by or under the enactment under which the application is made or, if no such period or time is prescribed, the default application period for the decision.	18 19 20 21
Note.
1 Section 4 defines interested person to mean a person who is entitled under an enactment to make an application to the Tribunal for an original decision or a review of a reviewable decision (as the case may be).	22 23 24 25
2 Section 53 (9) provides that an internal review is taken to be finalised if:	26 27
(a) the applicant for the review is notified of the outcome of the review, or	28 29
(b) the applicant is not notified of the outcome of the review within 21 days after the application for the review is lodged (or such other period as the administrator and person agree on).	30 31 32 33
3 A person may not have an entitlement to seek an internal review because such an entitlement has been excluded by regulations made for the purposes of section 53 (11) or by an enactment.	34 35 36
(2) The default application period for a reviewable decision is:	37
(a) in the case where the applicant has duly applied for an internal review of the reviewable decision—the period of	38 39

28 days after the day on which the internal review is taken to have been finalised under section 53 (9), or	1
(b) in any other case—the period of 28 days after:	2
(i) if the applicant has requested reasons under section 49 for the reviewable decision—the day on which the applicant was provided with a statement of reasons under section 49 or notified under section 50 of a refusal to provide reasons, or	3
(ii) if the applicant has not requested reasons under section 49—the day on which the applicant was notified of the making of the reviewable decision.	4
(3) Despite subsections (1) (b) and (d) and (2), the Tribunal may deal with an application for the review of a reviewable decision even though the applicant has not duly applied for an internal review to which the applicant was entitled if the Tribunal is satisfied that:	5
(a) the applicant made a late application for the internal review in circumstances where the person dealing with the application unreasonably refused to consider the application and the application to the Tribunal was made within a reasonable time following the reviewable decision of the administrator concerned, or	6
(b) it is necessary for the Tribunal to deal with the application in order to protect the applicant’s interests and the application to the Tribunal was made within a reasonable time following the reviewable decision of the administrator concerned.	7
(4) In determining whether a late application for internal review was unreasonably refused or whether an application to the Tribunal was made within a reasonable time for the purposes of subsection (3), the Tribunal is to have regard to:	8
(a) the time when the applicant became aware of the making of the decision, and	9
(b) in a case to which subsection (3) (a) applies—the period prescribed by or under section 53 for the lodging of an application for an internal review, and	10
(c) such other matters as it considers relevant.	11
[14] Section 57 Late applications to Tribunal	12

(2) The Tribunal may dismiss the application that is the subject of the	20
proceedings if it is not satisfied that it would have the power to	21
make a decision in the terms of the agreed settlement or in terms	22
consistent with the terms of the agreed settlement.	23
[32] Section 86A	24
Insert after section 86:	25
86A Matters that may be taken into account when exercising	26
settlement powers	27
(1) This section applies to the exercise by the Tribunal, a member or	28
an assessor of any of the following powers (a settlement power)	29
conferred on the Tribunal or person:	30
(a) the power of the Tribunal, a member or an assessor to	31
make a determination under section 74 to which the parties	32
to the proceedings agree,	33

(b)	the power of the Tribunal to make an order under section 86 giving effect to any agreed settlement by the parties to the proceedings,	1 2 3
(c)	the power of the Tribunal to make an order under section 105 giving effect to any agreement or arrangement arising out of a mediation session under Part 4.	4 5 6
(2)	When deciding whether to exercise a settlement power, the Tribunal, member or assessor (as the case requires) may take into account the interests of any vulnerable person (whether or not a party to the proceedings) if the Tribunal, member or assessor considers that:	7 8 9 10 11
(a)	the person may be directly affected by the exercise of the power because the person is a party to, or the subject of, the proceedings concerned, and	12 13 14
(b)	it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances.	15
(3)	A vulnerable person is:	16
(a)	a minor, or	17
(b)	a person who is totally or partially incapable of representing his or her interests in proceedings before the Tribunal because the person is intellectually, physically, psychologically or sensorily disabled, of advanced age, a mentally incapacitated person or otherwise disabled.	18 19 20 21 22
(4)	Nothing in this section limits the matters to which the Tribunal, a member or an assessor may have regard when deciding whether to exercise a settlement power.	23 24 25
[33]	Section 88 Costs	26
	Omit section 88 (1). Insert instead:	27
(1)	Each party to proceedings before the Tribunal is to bear the party's own costs in the proceedings, except as provided by this section.	28 29 30
(1A)	Subject to the rules of the Tribunal and any other Act or law, the Tribunal may award costs in relation to proceedings before it, but only if it is satisfied that it is fair to do so having regard to the following:	31 32 33 34
(a)	whether a party has conducted the proceedings in a way that unnecessarily disadvantaged another party to the proceedings by conduct such as:	35 36 37
(i)	failing to comply with an order or direction of the Tribunal without reasonable excuse, or	38 39

(a)	extend to proceedings that were commenced, but not finally determined, before the amendments commenced (existing proceedings), but	30 31 32
(b)	do not affect any right or entitlement that an agent representing a party in existing proceedings had to represent the party immediately before the commencement of the amendments.	33 34 35 36

(4)	The substantive amendment made to section 74 (4):	1
(a)	extends to proceedings that were commenced, but not finally determined, before the commencement of the amendment, but	2 3 4
(b)	does not extend to proceedings where an objection has been made under section 74 (4) as in force before the commencement of the amendment.	5 6 7
(5)	The substantive amendment made to section 113 applies to appeals from appealable decisions of the Tribunal made on or after the day on which the amendment commences, but not to appealable decisions made before that day.	8 9 10 11
(6)	The substantive amendments made to clauses 4 and 5 of Part 3 of Schedule 2 extend to proceedings that were pending (but not yet heard) before the commencement of the amendments.	12 13 14
(7)	If a substantive amendment does not apply or extend to, or otherwise affect, an application, objection or proceedings, the application, objection or proceedings are to be determined or dealt with under this Act as if the substantive amendment had not been enacted.	15 16 17 18 19
44	Abolition of Subcommittees of Rule Committee	20
(1)	Each Subcommittee for a Division established by the Rule Committee under section 97 is abolished on the day on which that section is repealed by the amending Act (the abolition day).	21 22 23
(2)	Any person holding office as a member of any such Subcommittee immediately before the abolition day:	24 25
(a)	ceases to hold office as such on that day, and	26
(b)	is not entitled to any remuneration or compensation because of the loss of that office.	27 28
45	Interim rules of the Tribunal taken to be made by Rule Committee	29
(1)	On and from the repeal of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules (Transitional) Regulation 1998 by the amending Act, the provisions set out in Schedule 1 to that Regulation as in force immediately before that repeal:	30 31 32 33
(a)	are taken to be and have effect as if they were rules of the Tribunal that had been made by the Rule Committee under this Act, and	34 35 36
(b)	may be cited as the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Rules 1998 ,	37 38
	and may be renamed, amended and repealed accordingly.	39

(2)	Sections 39, 40 and 41 of the Interpretation Act 1987 do not apply to the rules taken to have been made by operation of this clause.	1 2 3
46	Existing regulations not affected	4
	The amendment made to section 145 by the amending Act does not affect the continued validity of any regulations that are in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment.	5 6 7

Part Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008	30 31
Definition	32
In this Part:	33

amending Act means the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008 .	1 2
Legal representation	3
Section 98, as in force immediately before its amendment by the amending Act, continues to apply to any proceedings in the Tribunal that were commenced before the commencement of that amendment.	4 5 6 7
Dismissal of proceedings	8
Section 107, as in force immediately before its repeal by the amending Act, continues to apply in relation to any proceedings in the Tribunal that were commenced before the repeal of that section.	9 10 11 12
Increase in maximum damages amount for section 108	13
(1) The amendment made to section 108 by the amending Act does not apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment.	14 15 16
(2) Accordingly, section 108 as in force immediately before its amendment by the amending Act continues to apply to or in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the commencement of the amendment.	17 18 19 20
Costs	21
Section 110, as substituted by the amending Act, extends to proceedings in the Tribunal that were commenced, but not finally determined, before that substitution.	22 23 24
Existing exemptions under section 126	25
(1) An exemption that is in force under section 126 immediately before the substitution of that section by the amending Act (a continued exemption) is taken to be an exemption granted under section 126 as substituted.	26 27 28 29
(2) A continued exemption ceases to be in force when the period for its duration specified in the order granting the exemption expires, unless it is sooner revoked.	30 31 32
(3) A continued exemption may be renewed, varied or revoked by the President under section 126 (as substituted by the amending Act).	33 34 35

(4)	Nothing in this clause authorises or permits any person to apply to the Tribunal for the review of any decision of the Minister or the Board made in relation to a continued exemption before the substitution of section 126.	1 2 3 4

44A	Definition	18
	In this Part:	19
	accreditation decision means any decision or finding made, or action taken, by the Tribunal in proceedings commenced by an application made under this Act (whether made in exercise of its review jurisdiction or original jurisdiction under the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997).	20 21 22 23 24
44B	Application of Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997	25
	The provisions of Part 1 of Chapter 7 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 do not apply to any accreditation decision.	26 27 28
	Note. Part 1 of Chapter 7 of the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 provides that certain decisions of the Tribunal may be appealed to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal.	29 30 31

44C	Right to appeal to Supreme Court	1
(1)	A party to any proceedings in which the Tribunal has made an accreditation decision may appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision of the Tribunal.	2 3 4
(2)	An appeal under this Part to the Supreme Court:	5
	(a) may be made on any question of law, and	6
	(b) with the leave of the Supreme Court, may extend to a review of the merits of the decision concerned.	7 8
(3)	Despite subsections (1) and (2), an appeal does not lie to the Supreme Court under this Part against any of the following decisions of the Tribunal except by leave of the Supreme Court:	9 10 11
	(a) an interlocutory decision,	12
	(b) a decision made with the consent of the parties,	13
	(c) a decision as to costs.	14
(4)	The Tribunal (or any of the members constituting the Tribunal) cannot be made a party to an appeal under this Part. Rules of court made under the Supreme Court Act 1970 may make provision for the parties to any such appeal (including the designation of a respondent where the only party in the proceedings from which the appeal is brought was the appellant).	15 16 17 18 19 20
(5)	An appeal to the Supreme Court under this Part must be made:	21
	(a) within such time and in such manner as is prescribed by rules of court made under the Supreme Court Act 1970 , or	22 23
	(b) within such further time as the Supreme Court may allow.	24
44D	Appeals on questions of law	25
(1)	If an appeal under this Part is restricted to questions of law, the Supreme Court is to determine the appeal and may make such orders as it thinks appropriate in light of its determination.	26 27 28
(2)	The orders that may be made by the Supreme Court on appeal include (but are not limited to):	29 30
	(a) an order affirming or setting aside the decision of the Tribunal, and	31 32
	(b) an order remitting the whole or any part of the case to be heard and decided again by the Tribunal (either with or without the hearing of further evidence) in accordance with the directions of the Supreme Court.	33 34 35 36

44E Appeals on the merits	1
(1) If an appeal under this Part extends to a review of the merits of an accreditation decision, the Supreme Court is to decide what the correct and preferable decision is having regard to the material then before it, including the following:	2
(a) any relevant factual material,	3
(b) any applicable written or unwritten law.	4
(2) The Supreme Court may exercise all the functions that are conferred or imposed by or under this Act or the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 on the Tribunal to make the decision concerned.	5
(3) In determining any such appeal, the Supreme Court may decide:	6
(a) to affirm the decision, or	7
(b) to vary the decision, or	8
(c) to set aside the decision and make a decision in substitution for the decision it set aside.	9
44F Appeal does not stay decision appealed against	10
Subject to any interlocutory order made by the Supreme Court, an appeal under this Part does not affect the operation of the accreditation decision appealed against or prevent the taking of action to implement the decision.	11

Part 4 Provisions consequent on enactment of Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008	17
11 Definitions	18
In this Part:	19
amending Act means the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Amendment Act 2008 .	20

appeal abolition date means the day on which Part 3A (as inserted by the amending Act) commences.

existing right to appeal means a right to appeal to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal against a decision, finding or action of the Tribunal that was in existence immediately before the appeal abolition date (whether or not that right was exercised before that date).

12 Pending proceedings before an Appeal Panel

- (1) This clause applies to proceedings before an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal that:
 - (a) were instituted in exercise of an existing right to appeal, and
 - (b) have not been finally determined by the Appeal Panel before the appeal abolition date for that appeal right.
- (2) Subject to clause 13, proceedings to which this clause applies are to be determined as if the amending Act had not been enacted.
- (3) Accordingly, any rules, regulations or other law that would have been applicable to the proceedings had the amending Act not been enacted continue to apply to the proceedings as if the amending Act had not been enacted.

13 Existing rights of appeal to Appeal Panel

- (1) This clause applies to an existing right to appeal that had not been exercised before the appeal abolition date.
- (2) No appeal lies to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal under an existing right to appeal to which this clause applies on or after the appeal abolition date, but lies instead to the Supreme Court under the new appeal provisions as if those provisions had been in force at the time the right to appeal first accrued.
- (3) For the purposes of this clause, the new appeal provisions are the provisions of Part 3A (as inserted by the amending Act).

(4)	Despite anything in the Supreme Court Act 1970 or the Civil Procedure Act 2005 or any rules of court made under either of those Acts, an appeal made to the Supreme Court pursuant to this clause must be made within the same period provided by or under this Act or the Administrative Decisions Tribunal Act 1997 for an appeal to an Appeal Panel of the Tribunal immediately before the appeal abolition date.	1 2 3 4 5 6 7
