New South Wales

Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Bill (No 2) 2003

No , 2003

A Bill for

An Act to repeal certain Acts and provisions of Acts and to amend certain other Acts and instruments in various respects and for the purpose of effecting statute law revision; and to make certain savings.

The Legislature of New South Wales enacts:

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2003.

2 Commencement

- (1) This Act commences on the date of assent, except as provided by this section.
- (2) The amendments made by Schedules 1 and 2 commence on the day or days specified in those Schedules in relation to the amendments concerned. If a commencement day is not specified, the amendments commence on the date of assent.

3 Amendments

The Acts and instruments specified in Schedules 1 and 2 are amended as set out in those Schedules.

4 Repeals

Each Act specified in Schedule 3 is, to the extent indicated in that Schedule, repealed.

5 General savings, transitional and other provisions

Schedule 4 has effect.

6 Explanatory notes

The matter appearing under the heading “Explanatory note” in any of the Schedules does not form part of this Act.

Schedule 1 Minor amendments

(Section 3)

1.1 Ambulance Services Act 1990 No 16

[1] Schedule 1 Provisions relating to the directors and procedure of the Ambulance Service Board

Omit the heading to clause 6. Insert instead:

6 Vacancy in office of director

[2] Schedule 1, clause 6 (a1) and (a2)

Insert after clause 6 (a):

- (a1) completes a term of office and is not re-appointed or re-elected, or
- (a2) resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister, or

[3] Schedule 1, clause 6 (d)

Omit the paragraph. Insert instead:

- (d) becomes a mentally incapacitated person, or

Explanatory note

Legislation dealing with boards and similar bodies usually provides that a vacancy in the membership of the body occurs if (among other things) a member resigns the office or completes a term of office and is not re-appointed. (See, for example, Schedule 1 to the Nurses Act 1991, Schedule 5 to the Health Services Act 1997 and Schedule 2 to the Psychologists Act 2001.)

The relevant provision (clause 6 of Schedule 1) of the Ambulance Services Act 1990 (the Act) does not deal with those contingencies, although it does provide that certain other standard circumstances give rise to vacancies in the office of director of the Ambulance Service Board (the Board)—for example, the bankruptcy or death of a director.

Consequently, there is no mechanism in the Act to permit a director who wishes to resign from the Board to do so.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments inserts in the Act the standard provisions concerning completion of term of office as director of the Board and resignation from the Board. Item [1] makes a consequential amendment to the heading to clause 6.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments updates outdated terminology.

1.2 Animal Research Act 1985 No 123	1
Section 3 Definitions	2
Omit “swine” from paragraph (a) of the definition of exempt animal in section 3 (1).	3 4
Insert instead “pigs”.	5
Explanatory note	6
The proposed amendment replaces a term with its plain English equivalent. Similar amendments to certain other Acts are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	7 8 9
1.3 Annual Reports (Departments) Act 1985 No 156	10
Section 17 Land register	11
Omit “Department of Conservation and Land Management” wherever occurring.	12 13
Insert instead “Department of Lands”.	14
Explanatory note	15
Section 17 of the Annual Reports (Departments) Act 1985 provides for the keeping of a register of all land vested in or owned or occupied by, or subject to the control of, Ministers and Government Departments. The section provides that the register is to be kept by the “Director-General of the Department of Conservation and Land Management” and is to contain various details in relation to the land.	16 17 18 19 20
As the register is now kept by the Director-General of the Department of Lands, the proposed amendment updates the relevant references to the Department of Conservation and Land Management.	21 22 23
1.4 Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984 No 87	24
Section 14 Land register	25
Omit “Department of Conservation and Land Management” wherever occurring.	26 27
Insert instead “Department of Lands”.	28
Explanatory note	29
Section 14 of the Annual Reports (Statutory Bodies) Act 1984 provides for the keeping of a register of all land owned or occupied by statutory bodies. The section provides that the register is to be kept by the “Director-General of the Department of Conservation and Land Management” and is to contain various details in relation to the land.	30 31 32 33 34
As the register is now kept by the Director-General of the Department of Lands, the proposed amendment updates the relevant references to the Department of Conservation and Land Management.	35 36 37

1.5 Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 No 147Section 5 Prohibited persons

Omit “section 9” from section 5 (2). Insert instead “section 8A or 9”.

Explanatory note

Section 5 (1) of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 (the Act) defines prohibited person for the purposes of the Act to include a person convicted of a serious sex offence (as also defined in section 5). However, section 5 (2) provides that a person is not a prohibited person in respect of an offence if “an order in force under section 9” declares that the Act is not to apply to the person in respect of the offence.

Orders may be made under section 9 of the Act by the Industrial Relations Commission and the Administrative Decisions Tribunal, but only in the circumstances set out in that section.

The Child Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002 inserted section 8A in the Act. That section permits the Commission for Children and Young People to make an order of the same kind as an order under section 9, but only in the circumstances set out in section 8A (which include the Commission’s being satisfied that the person the subject of the proposed order does not pose a risk to the safety of children) and only after having taken into account the matters that must be taken into account under section 9.

However, the Child Protection Legislation Amendment Act 2002 omitted to insert the necessary cross-reference to the new section 8A in section 5 (2) of the Act.

The proposed amendment repairs that omission.

1.6 Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 No 157[1] Section 27 Mandatory reporting

Insert after section 27 (2):

- (3) A person to whom this section applies satisfies his or her obligations under subsection (2) in relation to two or more children that constitute a particular class of children if the person reports that class of children to the Director-General together with:

- (a) a description that is sufficient to identify all the children who constitute the class, and
- (b) the grounds for suspecting that the children of that class are at risk of harm.

[2] Section 122 Mandatory reporting of child who lives away from home without parental permission

Omit “the person believes, on reasonable grounds”.

Insert instead “the person has reasonable grounds to suspect”.

[3] Section 122	1
Omit “immediately”. Insert instead “, as soon as practicable,”.	2
[4] Section 135 What is “out-of-home care”?	3
Insert after section 135 (2):	4
(2A) However, a child or young person who is in out-of-home care does not cease to be in that care merely because the child or young person becomes subject to any care or control that is prescribed under subsection (2).	5 6 7 8
[5] Section 135 (4) (a)	9
Insert “, or subject to an order of the Supreme Court in its parens patriae jurisdiction,” after “a ward of the Supreme Court”.	10 11
[6] Section 226 Removal of child from place of unlawful employment	12
Omit “Director-General” from section 226 (b).	13
Insert instead “Children’s Guardian”.	14
[7] Schedule 2 Provisions relating to employers’ authorities	15
Omit “Director-General” from clause 3 (1) wherever occurring.	16
Insert instead “Children’s Guardian”.	17
Commencement	18
Items [6] and [7] of the amendments to the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of the Public Sector Employment and Management (Children’s Employment Unit) Order 2003 .	19 20 21 22
Explanatory note	23
Mandatory reporting	24
Sections 27 and 122 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 (the Act) both provide for mandatory reporting of children to the Director-General of the Department of Community Services (DOCS) in certain circumstances.	25 26 27
Section 27 places the obligation to report on certain persons (such as teachers) who have “reasonable grounds to suspect” that a child is at risk of harm (being grounds that arise during the course of or from the person’s work). The report must be made “as soon as practicable”.	28 29 30 31
Section 122 requires a report from a person who provides residential accommodation for another person who “the person believes, on reasonable grounds” to be a child who is living away from home without parental permission. That report must be made “immediately”.	32 33 34 35
Items [2] and [3] of the proposed amendments amend section 122 so as to make it consistent with section 27.	36 37

Item [1] of the proposed amendments ensures that a person who is obliged to report under section 27 is not obliged to name or describe each individual child who forms part of a class of children that the person considers to be at risk of harm, as long as the person's report enables each child in that class to be identified.

Out-of-home care

Section 135 of the Act defines out-of-home care (essentially, foster care) for the purposes of the Act. Among other things, the definition provides that out-of-home care does not include any care or control of a child or young person that is prescribed by the regulations not to be out-of-home care. Currently, the regulations exclude from the definition such types of care as (for example) those provided by boarding schools and holiday camps.

Item [4] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that a child or young person who is otherwise in out-of-home care does not cease to be in that care merely because the child or young person becomes subject to care or control of a kind that is excluded from the definition of that term.

Section 135 (4) defines protected person for the purposes of section 135. Item [5] of the proposed amendments extends that definition to include a child or young person who is subject to an order of the Supreme Court in its "parent of the country" jurisdiction (and of whom the Minister administering the Act or the Director-General of DOCS has the custody or care pursuant to an order of that Court).

Children's Employment Unit

The Public Sector Employment and Management (Children's Employment Unit) Order 2003 removes the Children's Employment Unit from DOCS and adds it to the Office of the Children's Guardian.

In consequence of that, items [6] and [7] of the proposed amendments replace references to the Director-General of DOCS with references to the Children's Guardian in provisions of the Act that are concerned with the employment of children.

1.7 Children (Care and Protection—Child Employment) Regulation 2001

[1] Clause 3 Definitions

Omit "Director-General" from paragraph (c) of the definition of babycare professional.

Insert instead "Children's Guardian".

[2] Clause 9 (1) (d) and Schedule 1, clause 2 (1)

Omit "Director-General" wherever occurring.

Insert instead "Children's Guardian".

Commencement

The amendments to the Children (Care and Protection—Child Employment) Regulation 2001 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of the Public Sector Employment and Management (Children's Employment Unit) Order 2003.

Explanatory note

The proposed amendments are consequential on the transfer of the Children's Employment Unit from the Department of Community Services to the Office of the Children's Guardian effected by the Public Sector Employment and Management (Children's Employment Unit) Order 2003.

1.8 Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 No 146

Section 15A

Insert after section 15:

15A Use of information for purposes of report under section 24 of Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998

Any information obtained by the Commission in the course of exercising its functions (other than its functions under section 11 (k)) may be used for the purposes of making a report to the Director-General of the Department of Community Services under section 24 (Report concerning child or young person at risk of harm) of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.

Explanatory note

Section 15 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 (the Act) permits the Commission for Children and Young People (the Commission) constituted by the Act to refer certain information obtained in the course of exercising its functions (other than a function under section 11 (k) of the Act) to various investigative agencies, including the Department of Community Services. The information concerned is information that relates to a possible criminal offence, or to grounds for possible disciplinary action, under any law. It may have been obtained, for example, in the course of employment screening in respect of child-related employment.

The proposed amendment extends this power so as to permit the Commission to use any information obtained in the course of exercising its functions (other than a function under section 11 (k) of the Act) for the purposes of making a report to the Director-General of the Department of Community Services under section 24 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998.

Section 24 of the Children and Young Persons (Care and Protection) Act 1998 provides as follows:

"A person who has reasonable grounds to suspect that a child or young person is, or that a class of children or young persons are, at risk of harm may make a report to the Director-General [of the Department of Community Services]".

Section 23 of that Act specifies the circumstances in which a child or young person is "at risk of harm" for the purposes of the relevant provisions of that Act.

The Commission's functions under section 11 (k) of the Act (the functions of supporting and assisting the Child Death Review Team in the exercise of its functions under Part 7A of the Act) are excluded from both section 15 and proposed section 15A because Part 7A (Child Death Review Team) contains provision for the release of information in certain circumstances—see section 45U of the Act.

1.9 Community Land Development Act 1989 No 201

Section 50 Notice of resumption

Omit section 50 (1). Insert instead:

(1) A notice of resumption must state whether or not the land resumed is excluded from any related scheme.

(1A) If action is taken in the Supreme Court to restructure a related scheme as a consequence of a resumption (whether because of a requirement of this Part or otherwise), the notice of resumption must include the plaint number for the action.

Explanatory note

At present, section 50 (1) of the Community Land Development Act 1989 (the Act), which is in Part 6 (Resumptions) of that Act, requires a notice of resumption of land to which Part 6 applies to include “the plaint number for the action instituted in the Supreme Court to restructure [any related community scheme, precinct scheme, neighbourhood scheme or strata scheme] as a consequence of the resumption”.

However, not all resumptions dealt with in Part 6 require the taking of such action.

The proposed amendment repeals and re-enacts section 50 (1) to reflect the fact that, in the case of some resumptions of land to which Part 6 applies, there may not be any action taken in the Supreme Court to restructure the relevant scheme.

1.10 Co-operatives Act 1992 No 18

Section 229 Application of Corporations Act provisions concerning officers of co-operatives

Omit “as if the reference to 23 June 1993 were omitted” from section 229 (c).

Insert instead “as if the reference to 23 June 1993 were a reference to 15 December 1995”.

Explanatory note

Section 229 of the Co-operatives Act 1992 (the Act) applies certain provisions (including section 592) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act) to co-operatives in New South Wales. Originally, section 229 provided (among other things) that section 592 applied in respect of debts incurred by an insolvent co-operative before 23 June 1993 (because the Commonwealth Act so provided and was not modified in that respect by section 229).

Section 592 was amended and substantially replaced by Part 5.7B of the Commonwealth Act. In consequence, the Co-operatives Amendment Act 1995 inserted section 343B in the Act to apply that new Part to co-operatives, and modified the reference in section 592 so as to apply that section in respect of debts incurred by an insolvent co-operative in New South Wales before 15 December 1995 (the date of the commencement of section 343B and, therefore, the application of Part 5.7B).

The Corporations (Consequential Amendments) Act 2001 repealed and re-enacted section 229 so as (among other things) to omit the reference in the Commonwealth Act to 23 June 1993 without replacing it with another date. The effect is that both section 592 and Part 5.7B of the Commonwealth Act apply in respect of all debts incurred by insolvent co-operatives in New South Wales.

The proposed amendment rectifies this situation by reinstating the reference to 15 December 1995 in section 592 as applied to co-operatives in New South Wales.

1.11 Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 No 120

[1] Section 11 Appeals as of right

Omit section 11 (1). Insert instead:

(1) Any person who has been convicted or sentenced by a Local Court may appeal to the District Court against the conviction or sentence.

(1A) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a conviction if the person was convicted in the person's absence or following the person's plea of guilty.

[2] Section 31 Appeals as of right

Omit section 31 (1). Insert instead:

(1) Any person who has been convicted or sentenced by a Local Court with respect to an environmental offence may appeal to the Land and Environment Court against the conviction or sentence.

(1A) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a conviction if the person was convicted in the person's absence or following the person's plea of guilty.

Commencement

The amendments to the Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 are taken to have commenced on 7 July 2003.

Explanatory note

The Crimes (Local Courts Appeal and Review) Act 2001 (the Act) was intended, among other things, to "restate the law with respect to appeals.....in relation to criminal proceedings in Local Courts" (long title to the Act).

In restating the provisions of sections 120 and 123 of the Justices Act 1902, the Act inadvertently included a provision requiring a person who was convicted in a Local Court in the person's absence, or after a plea of guilty, to obtain the leave of a higher Court (the District Court or the Land and Environment Court, depending on the nature of the offence of which the person was convicted) to appeal to the higher Court against the severity of the sentence imposed. Such a restriction did not apply under the relevant sections of the Justices Act 1902.

The proposed amendments reinstate, as from the commencement of the Act, the right of the person to appeal without first obtaining the leave of the higher Court.

1.12 Fair Trading Act 1987 No 68

[1] Section 40B Meaning of “direct commerce contract”

Insert after section 40B (2):

- (2A) The regulations may also exempt any direct commerce contract or class of direct commerce contracts from the operation of particular provisions of this Division.

[2] Section 40F Consequences of cancellation of direct commerce contract

Insert “and” at the end of section 40F (1) (a) (ii).

[3] Section 40J Other requirements in relation to dealers

Omit section 40J (4) (b). Insert instead:

- (b) produce to the person a document setting out:
- (i) the dealer’s full name, and
 - (ii) the supplier’s address (not being a post office box address) and, if the dealer is not the supplier, the supplier’s full name.

Commencement

Item [1] of the amendments to the Fair Trading Act 1987 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of so much of Schedule 1 [17] to the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2003 as inserts section 40B in the Fair Trading Act 1987.

Item [2] of the amendments to the Fair Trading Act 1987 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of so much of Schedule 1 [17] to the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2003 as inserts section 40F in the Fair Trading Act 1987.

Item [3] of the amendments to the Fair Trading Act 1987 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of so much of Schedule 1 [17] to the Fair Trading Amendment Act 2003 as inserts section 40J in the Fair Trading Act 1987.

Explanatory note

Direct commerce

The Fair Trading Amendment Act 2003 inserts, among other things, Division 3 of Part 4 (Direct commerce) in the Fair Trading Act 1987 (the Act). Generally speaking, direct commerce is the practice under which persons (dealers) make unsolicited calls (either in person or by telephone) on other persons for the purpose of entering into negotiations for the making of contracts (direct commerce contracts) for the supply of goods or services to those other persons. Division 3 of Part 4 of the Act consists of sections 40A–40K.

Meaning of “direct commerce contract”

Section 40B defines direct commerce contract for the purposes of Division 3 of Part 4 of the Act. Section 40B (2) provides that a direct commerce contract “does not include any contract of a kind that is excluded from the operation of this Division by the regulations”.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments inserts a new subsection in section 40B of the Act so as to permit the regulations to exclude any direct commerce contract (or class of direct commerce contracts) from some only of the provisions of Division 3 of Part 4 while leaving them subject to the operation of the remainder of those provisions.

Identity cards of dealers

Among other things, section 40J (4) of the Act requires a dealer who calls in person on any person for the purpose of negotiating a direct commerce contract to produce to the other person an "identity card" setting out the dealer's full name and address and, if the dealer is not the supplier of the goods or services under the proposed contract, the full name and address of the supplier.

Item [3] of the proposed amendments alters this requirement in two respects. Firstly, it omits the requirement for an identity card, as dealers often write or rubber-stamp the requisite details on their brochures. Secondly, as most dealers operate from their homes rather than from a business address, the proposed amendment requires the dealer to disclose the address of the supplier only. However, the dealer's address must be disclosed if the dealer is also the supplier.

Statute law revision

Item [2] of the proposed amendments inserts missing matter.

1.13 First State Superannuation Act 1992 No 100

Schedule 1 Employers

Omit "Resource NSW".

Explanatory note

The proposed amendment is consequential on the dissolution of the statutory body Resource NSW proposed to be effected by the amendments to the Waste Avoidance and Resource Recovery Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule.

1.14 Fisheries Management Act 1994 No 38

Schedule 7 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Omit "1 January 2004" from clause 19A (4).

Insert instead "1 January 2005".

Explanatory note

Section 230 of the Fisheries Management Act 1994 (the Act) provides for the establishment of Management Advisory Committees (MACs) for share management fisheries and restricted fisheries (and any such proposed fishery).

Section 230 (2) (c) provides that the person appointed as chairperson of such a Committee must be a person "who is neither engaged in the administration of [the Act] nor engaged in commercial fishing in the [relevant] fishery".

Clause 19A of Schedule 7 (Savings, transitional and other provisions) to the Act was inserted as a savings and transitional provision in relation to MACs in consequence of amendments made by the Fisheries Management and Environmental Assessment Legislation Amendment Act 2000. Among other things, clause 19A provides that, despite section 230 (2), the chairperson of the MAC for the lobster fishery may, until 1 January 2004, be engaged in commercial fishing in that fishery.

The proposed amendment extends the operation of that exemption for a period of 12 months.

1.15 Impounding Act 1993 No 31[1] Dictionary

Omit “in the case of an impounding officer appointed by the Water Board, any special area (as defined in the Water Board Act 1987)” from the definition of area of operations.

Insert instead “in the case of an impounding officer appointed by the Sydney Catchment Authority, any special area or controlled area (as defined in the Sydney Water Catchment Management Act 1998)”.

[2] Dictionary, definition of “impounding authority”

Omit “the Water Board”.

Insert instead “the Sydney Catchment Authority”.

Explanatory note

An authority defined as an impounding authority for the purposes of the Impounding Act 1993 may appoint impounding officers to exercise certain functions under that Act in the impounding officers’ areas of operations.

At present, area of operations is defined to include (among other things) “in the case of an impounding officer appointed by the Water Board, any special area (as defined in the Water Board Act 1987)”.

Effectively, the Sydney Catchment Authority constituted under the Sydney Water Catchment Management Act 1998 has replaced the now-dissolved Water Board in relation to those special areas (which are taken to be declared under the latter Act—see clause 5 (1) of Schedule 6 to that Act).

Accordingly, the proposed amendments replace references to the Water Board in the definitions of area of operations and impounding authority in the Impounding Act 1993 with references to the Sydney Catchment Authority. They also extend the area of operations of that Authority for the purposes of that Act so as to include controlled areas (within the meaning of the Sydney Water Catchment Management Act 1998).

1.16 Local Courts Act 1982 No 164[1] Section 4 Definitions

Insert after section 4 (3):

(4) Notes included in this Act do not form part of this Act.

[2] Section 24 Remuneration

Omit section 24 (1) (b).

Explanatory note

Statute law revision

Item [1] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that notes in the Local Courts Act 1982 (the Act) do not form part of that Act.

Remuneration and allowances of Magistrates

At present, section 24 (1) of the Act provides that a Magistrate (other than a Magistrate with limited tenure, who is dealt with by section 24 (2)) is entitled to be paid:

- (a) remuneration in accordance with the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 (the SOOR Act), and
- (b) such travelling and subsistence allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the Magistrate.

Until recently, travelling and subsistence allowances were specifically excluded from the definition of allowance in section 10A of the SOOR Act (which is in the part of that Act that is relevant to the remuneration of Magistrates, among other office holders). However, section 10A has been amended so as to be inclusive of travelling and subsistence allowances for travel within Australia by the holder of an office specified in Schedule 1 to the SOOR Act (which includes Magistrates, other than Magistrates with limited tenure) who is:

- (a) a Judge or Acting Judge of a court, or
- (b) any other judicial officer (within the meaning of the Judicial Officers Act 1986) nominated by the Minister by notice in writing to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal (the Tribunal) for the purposes of the definition.

Magistrates have been formally nominated to the Tribunal under section 10A (and the Tribunal has made a determination in respect of the allowances payable to those judicial officers).

In consequence of that nomination, item [2] of the proposed amendments repeals the now-redundant section 24 (1) (b) of the Local Courts Act 1982.

1.17 Local Government Act 1993 No 30

[1] Section 358 Restrictions on formation of corporations

Insert “and subject to such conditions, if any, as the Minister may specify” after “with the consent of the Minister” in section 358 (1) (a).

[2] Section 440 Code of conduct

Omit “prepare or adopt a code of conduct” from section 440 (1).

Insert instead “adopt a code of conduct (whether prepared by the council or by another person)”.

Commencement

Item [1] of the amendments to the Local Government Act 1993 is taken to have commenced on 1 July 1993.

Explanatory noteRestrictions on formation of corporations

Section 358 (1) of the Local Government Act 1993 (the Act) provides that a council must not form or participate in the formation of a corporation, or acquire a controlling interest in a corporation, except with the consent of the Minister or as otherwise provided by the Act.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments makes it explicit that any consent of the Minister under section 358 (1) may be given subject to conditions.

Code of conduct

At present, section 440 (1) of the Act requires every council to “prepare or adopt a code of conduct to be observed by councillors, members of staff of the council and delegates of the council”. The subsection is couched in these terms to give councils the option of preparing their own codes of conduct or adopting a code prepared by another person (such as the Minister, under section 440 (2), or another council). However, some councils are unclear as to whether they are required to “adopt” such a code formally.

As it is intended to resolve that confusion by requiring councils to adopt a code of conduct formally, item [2] of the proposed amendments recasts part of section 440 (1) so as to impose that obligation.

1.18 Marine Pilotage Licensing Regulations[1] Regulation 25 Physical fitness of pilots

Omit “a Government Medical Officer” wherever occurring in Regulation 25 (2) (a) and (3) (a).

Insert instead “HealthQuest”.

[2] Regulation 25 (9)

Insert after Regulation 25 (8):

- (9) In this Regulation, HealthQuest means the statutory health corporation of that name constituted by the Health Services Act 1997.

Explanatory note

The functions of a Government Medical Officer under various Acts and Regulations are to be exercised by the statutory health corporation “HealthQuest”.

The proposed amendments replace references to “Government Medical Officer” with direct references to HealthQuest.

Similar amendments are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule to the other Acts and Regulations concerned.

(4) The report of each further review is to be tabled in each House of the Parliament of New South Wales within 12 months after the end of the period to which it relates.Commencement

The amendments to the National Environment Protection Council (New South Wales) Act 1995 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of Schedule 1 to the National Environment Protection Council Amendment Act 2002 of the Commonwealth.

Explanatory note

Acts in each Australian jurisdiction mirror the National Environment Protection Council Act 1994 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth Act). The Acts make joint legislative provision for the establishment of a body (the National Environment Protection Council (NEPC)) to determine national environment protection measures. In New South Wales, the relevant Act is the National Environment Protection Council (New South Wales) Act 1995 (the State Act).

In consequence of a statutory review of the Commonwealth Act, the Commonwealth enacted the National Environment Protection Council Amendment Act 2002 (the 2002 Act). The proposed amendments to the State Act amend that Act so as to reflect the amendments made to the Commonwealth Act by the 2002 Act.

The proposed amendments:

- (a) enable the NEPC to direct the NEPC Service Corporation (effectively, the NEPC's secretariat) to provide support and assistance to other environment-related ministerial councils, and
- (b) provide a simplified process for making minor variations to national environment protection measures, and
- (c) require five-yearly reviews of the State Act.

1.21 Nurses and Midwives Act 1991 No 9[1] Section 19 Qualifications for registration as a midwife

Insert “, and authorised to practise midwifery,” after “registered as a nurse” in section 19 (1) (d).

[2] Section 19 (1) (d)

Insert “and authorisation” after “registration” wherever occurring.

[3] Section 28 Qualifications for enrolment—List “B” of the Roll

Insert “in List “B” of the Roll” after “enrolled as a nurse” in section 28 (e).

Commencement

Items [1] and [2] of the amendments to the Nurses and Midwives Act 1991 commence, or are taken to have commenced, on the commencement of Schedule 1 [41] to the Nurses Amendment Act 2003.

Item [3] of the amendments to the Nurses and Midwives Act 1991 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of Schedule 1 [73] to the Nurses Amendment Act 2003.

Explanatory note

The Nurses and Midwives Act 1991 (the Act) provides for a Register of Nurses and a Roll of Nurses. The Roll is divided into List “A” (containing particulars of enrolled nurses) and List “B” (containing particulars of enrolled nurses (mothercraft)).

The Nurses Amendment Act 2003 (the amending Act) made substantial changes to the Act (including changing the name of the Act from the Nurses Act 1991).

Previously, any person who was registered (or entitled to be registered) under the Act could apply for authorisation to practise midwifery. Among other things, the amending Act abolished authorisation to practise midwifery and provided, instead, for registration as a midwife. It also created a Register of Midwives.

Certain amendments made by the amending Act have the unintended consequences of allowing any person previously registered under the Act or the repealed Nurses Registration Act 1953 to obtain registration as a midwife, and any person previously enrolled under either of those Acts to obtain enrolment as an enrolled nurse (mothercraft).

The proposed amendments rectify that situation by:

- (a) limiting the previously-registered persons who will automatically qualify for registration as a midwife to such of those previously-registered persons as were also authorised under the Act to practise midwifery (items [1] and [2] of the proposed amendments), and
- (b) limiting the previously-enrolled persons who will automatically qualify for enrolment as an enrolled nurse (mothercraft) to such of those previously-enrolled persons as were enrolled in List “B” of the Roll (item [3] of the proposed amendments).

1.22 Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 No 41

Section 81A Death of candidate

Insert “6 pm on” before “polling day”.

Explanatory note

At present, section 81A of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912 (the Act) provides that the death of a candidate for election to the Legislative Assembly after the declaration of nominations for a district and before polling day causes the election for the district concerned to fail. In that case, a new writ for an election for that district must issue.

Other provisions of the Act deal with the death of an elected candidate.

However, the Act is silent as to the position if a candidate dies on polling day.

The proposed amendment amends section 81A so as to provide that the election for the district concerned also fails if a candidate dies before 6 pm on polling day.

1.23 Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1996 No 13

[1] Section 20 Inspection of goods

Insert after section 20 (2):

- (2A) For the purpose of inspecting goods kept at any premises referred to in subsection (1) or (2), an authorised officer may open any unlocked cupboard, drawer, container or other form of storage found at the premises, and may require a person apparently in charge of the premises to open any form of storage (including a safe) that is locked.

[2] Section 32F Notice of entitlement to goods

Omit “to an authorised officer” from section 32F (4) (a).

Insert instead “to a police officer”.

Commencement

The amendment to section 32F of the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1996 commences, or is taken to have commenced, on the commencement of so much of Schedule 1 [31] to the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Amendment Act 2002 as inserts section 32F in the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1996.

Explanatory note

Inspection of goods

Section 20 (1) of the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1996 (the Act) permits an authorised officer (defined in section 3 of the Act) to enter, at any reasonable time, any premises where a licensed business (that is, a business authorised by a licence under the Act—a business of a licensed pawnbroker or licensed second-hand dealer) is conducted, and inspect goods kept at the premises.

Section 20 (2) is a similar provision, empowering an authorised officer to enter storage premises used in connection with a licensed business and inspect any goods there. For the latter purpose, an authorised inspector may require a person apparently in charge of the storage premises to open them.

Section 20 does not expressly permit an authorised officer to open any form of storage in which goods on the premises concerned may be held. Item [1] of the proposed amendments inserts a new subsection in section 20 to make it clear that the power to inspect goods conferred by the section extends to a power to open (and require the opening of) any storage container in which the goods might be held.

Delivery of certain goods held by licensed pawnbroker or second-hand dealer

The Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Amendment Act 2002 (the amending Act) inserts (among other things) Part 4A (Disputes as to ownership of goods and restoration of goods) in the Act. Part 4A consists of sections 32E–32M.

Section 32F establishes a process in relation to certain goods in the possession of a licensed pawnbroker or second-hand dealer (a licensee). A person (a claimant) may allege that the goods are the property of the claimant and have been unlawfully obtained from the claimant (or pawned or sold to the licensee without the claimant's authority). Such an allegation may give rise to a restoration notice, which requires the licensee to deliver the goods to the claimant within a required period (unless certain proceedings are commenced within that period). If the licensee cannot locate the claimant, or is prevented for some other reason from delivering the goods to the claimant, the licensee must, instead, deliver them within the required period to “an authorised officer”.

Section 3 of the Act defines authorised officer as:

- (a) a police officer, or
- (b) the Director-General of the Department of Fair Trading [now the Commissioner for Fair Trading], or
- (c) an investigator appointed under section 18 of the Fair Trading Act 1987, or
- (d) a person authorised in writing by the Director-General of the Department of Fair Trading.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments amends section 32F so as to require a licensee to deliver goods under a restoration notice to a police officer (rather than to any authorised officer) if the licensee is unable to deliver the goods to the claimant.

1.24 Police Act 1990 No 47

[1] Section 216AA Special risk benefit where student of policing hurt while undergoing police education

Omit “the Government Medical Officer” from section 216AA (1) (b).

Insert instead “HealthQuest”.

[2] Section 216AA (6)

Omit the definition of Government Medical Officer.

Insert in alphabetical order:

HealthQuest means the statutory health corporation of that name constituted by the Health Services Act 1997.

Explanatory note

The functions of a Government Medical Officer under various Acts and Regulations are to be exercised by the statutory health corporation “HealthQuest”.

The proposed amendments replace references to “Government Medical Officer” with direct references to HealthQuest.

Similar amendments are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule to the other Acts and Regulations concerned.

1.25 Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 No 66

[1] Section 11 Registered salespersons and managers required to be employed and supervised by licensee

Insert after section 11 (2) (before the penalty provision):

- (3) The holder of a certificate of registration must not act as an auctioneer.

- (4) Despite subsection (3), the holder of a certificate of registration as a stock and station salesperson may auction livestock if the holder conducts the auction as an employee, and under the immediate and direct supervision, of the holder of the appropriate licence (as referred to in subsections (1) and (2)).

[2] Section 55 No entitlement to commission or expenses without agency agreement

Omit section 55 (1) (a). Insert instead:

- (a) the services were performed pursuant to an agreement in writing (an agency agreement) signed by or on behalf of:
- (i) the person, and
 - (ii) the licensee, and

[3] Section 55 (1) (c)

Insert “or on behalf of” after “signed by” where firstly occurring.

Explanatory note

Persons who may conduct auctions

Among other things, the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 (the Act) permits certain defined salespersons (for example, real estate salespersons) who hold certificates of registration under the Act to exercise the functions of the relevant defined agents (real estate agents in the example given above) in certain circumstances. The salesperson may exercise the functions only as an employee, and under the supervision, of an agent:

- (a) who is licensed under the Act to exercise the functions without contravening the Act, and
- (b) who is the licensee in charge of the place of business at which the employee is employed.

The Act defines real estate agent and stock and station agent as persons who, among other things, carry on business as an auctioneer (of land other than rural land (usually) in the case of the former, and of rural land and livestock, in the case of the latter). Section 21 of the Act provides that it is a condition of every real estate agent's licence, and every stock and station agent's licence, that the licensee must not act as an auctioneer unless the licensee is accredited as an auctioneer under that section.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that a salesperson's authority to exercise the functions of the relevant agent in accordance with the Act does not extend to acting as an auctioneer. However, the proposed amendment permits stock and station salespersons to conduct auctions of livestock under the immediate and direct supervision of a licensed stock and station agent who is accredited under the Act as an auctioneer.

Agency agreements	1
Item [2] of the proposed amendments makes it clear that an agency agreement (as defined in the Act) need not be signed by the relevant agent personally but may be signed by someone else on the agent's behalf (just as the other party to the agreement is not required to sign personally). The proposed amendment is to the same effect as the relevant part of section 42AA of the repealed Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 1941 .	2 3 4 5 6 7
Item [3] of the proposed amendments makes a consequential amendment.	8
1.26 Property, Stock and Business Agents Regulation 2003	9

Insert “(or under whose immediate and direct supervision the auction was conducted)” after “who conducted the auction” in clause 18 (3).	11 12

Insert “, or a stock and station salesperson conducts an auction sale of livestock comprising more than one lot,” after “comprising more than one lot” in clause 19 (2).	14 15 16
[3] Clause 19 (2)	17
Insert “or salesperson concerned” after “the agent”.	18
[4] Clause 33 Signing of cheques or effecting electronic funds transfers—trust account	19 20

[5] Schedule 6, clause 6 (1) (d) and Schedule 14, clause 1 (d)	22
Omit “tradespersons do” wherever occurring.	23
Insert instead “tradespersons to do”.	24
Explanatory note	25
Items [1]–[3] of the proposed amendments are consequential on the amendment proposed to be made to the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 elsewhere in this Schedule in relation to the auctioning of livestock by stock and station salespersons.	26 27 28 29
Item [4] of the proposed amendments corrects a typographical error.	30
Item [5] of the proposed amendments inserts missing words.	31

1.27 Protection of the Environment Administration Act 1991	1
No 60	2
Section 16 Functions of Board	3
Omit section 16 (b).	4
Explanatory note	5
The Public Sector Employment and Management (Environment and Conservation) Order 2003 (the Order) abolished, as Departments of the Public Service, the bodies known as the Environment Protection Authority (EPA), the National Parks and Wildlife Service, Resource NSW and the Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain Trust. The Order created the Department of Environment and Conservation (the new Department) and transferred all the staff of the abolished Departments to that Department.	6
In view of the integration of the EPA with the new Department, it is no longer appropriate for the Board of the EPA to exercise the function currently set out in section 16 (b) of the Protection of the Environment Administration Act 1991 ("to oversee the effective, efficient and economical management of the [EPA]"). Accordingly, the proposed amendment repeals section 16 (b).	7
Other amendments consequential on the creation of the new Department and the transfer of staff are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	8
1.28 Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 No 152	9

1.32 Road Transport (General) Act 1999 No 18

[1] Schedule 1 Impounded and forfeited vehicles

Omit clause 5 (2). Insert instead:

(2) The Commissioner may release the vehicle to the applicant if:

- (a) the period for which the vehicle would be liable to be impounded under section 40 as a result of a conviction for the offence that gave rise to its impounding has expired and the prescribed fees for storage of the vehicle by the Commissioner have (except to the extent that the Commissioner has waived payment of those fees) been paid, or
- (b) although that period has not expired, the Commissioner is satisfied, on such evidence as the Commissioner may reasonably require, that:
 - (i) the offence concerned was not committed with the consent of the applicant, and
 - (ii) the applicant did not know, and could not reasonably be expected to have known, that the vehicle would be used for the commission of the offence, and if the Commissioner is satisfied, on such evidence as the Commissioner may reasonably require, that the applicant is lawfully entitled to possession of the vehicle.

[2] Schedule 2 Savings, transitional and other provisions

Omit “of the Authority” from clause 24 (1) (a) and (4) (a) wherever occurring.

[3] Schedule 2, clause 24 (2) (c) (i)

Omit “of the Authority under this Act or the regulations”.

Insert instead “under the road transport legislation”.

Explanatory note

Ranging of matter

Item [1] of the proposed amendments repeals and re-enacts clause 5 (2) of Schedule 1 to the Road Transport (General) Act 1999 (the Act) so as to correct the incorrect placement of certain matter in that subclause.

The matter following clause 5 (2) (b) (ii) of Schedule 1 to the Act is currently located in a position (“ranged”) that has the effect of applying that paragraph to paragraph (b) only of clause 5 (2). It should apply to both paragraphs (a) and (b). The proposed amendment ensures that it does.

Provision for certain appeals to Local Court

Section 48 of the Act provides for applications to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal (the ADT) for reviews of certain decisions made under the road transport legislation (as defined in the Act). The decisions include certain decisions of police officers and others.

Clause 24 of Schedule 2 to the Act deals with interim appeals rights to the Local Court pending the exercise of jurisdiction by the ADT. The clause permits the making of regulations for or with respect to appeals against decisions of the Roads and Traffic Authority (the Authority) under the road transport legislation (instead of reviews by the ADT). In particular, clause 24 (2) (c) (i) enables the regulations to confer jurisdiction on a Local Court to hear and determine appeals against "specified decisions, or classes of decisions, of the Authority under this Act or the regulations".

For consistency with section 48 of the Act, items [2] and [3] of the proposed amendments amend clause 24 by:

- (a) removing the references to decisions of the Authority (so as to extend the provision to all decisions under the road transport legislation that may be reviewed by the ADT), and
- (b) replacing the reference to "this Act or the regulations" in clause 24 (2) (c) (i) with a reference to the road transport legislation.

[7] Schedule 3 Transitional and other provisions	5
Insert after clause 13:	6
14 References to Director	7
On and from the commencement of Schedule 1.33 to the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2003 , a reference in any document (other than this Act) to the Director of the Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain is taken to be a reference to the Executive Director.	8 9 10 11 12
Explanatory note	13
The Public Sector Employment and Management (Environment and Conservation) Order 2003 (the Order) abolished, as Departments of the Public Service, the bodies known as the Environment Protection Authority (EPA), the National Parks and Wildlife Service, Resource NSW and the Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain Trust. The Order created the Department of Environment and Conservation (the new Department) and transferred all the staff of the abolished Departments to that Department.	14 15 16 17 18 19
The Director of the Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain (the Director) had adopted the title “Director and Chief Executive” to distinguish the Director’s position from those of the Directors of the various branches of the Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain. As the Director now reports to the Director-General of the new Department, the proposed amendments alter the title of the Director’s position to “Executive Director”.	20 21 22 23 24
Other amendments consequential on the creation of the new Department and the transfer of staff are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.	25 26
1.34 Royal Botanic Gardens and Domain Trust Regulation 2002	27

1.37 State Development and Industries Assistance Act 1966 No 10	16 17
Section 34E Ministerial Corporation to be Constructing Authority for purposes of section 81 of Public Works Act 1912	18 19
Omit the section.	20
Explanatory note	21
Section 34E of the State Development and Industries Assistance Act 1966 provides that the Ministerial Corporation for Industry constituted under that Act is taken to be a Constructing Authority “[f]or the purposes of section 81 of the Public Works Act 1912 ”.	22 23 24
As section 81 has been repealed, section 34E no longer has any effect. Accordingly, the proposed amendment repeals section 34E.	25 26
1.38 Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 (1976 No 4)	27 28
Schedule 1 Public offices	29
Omit “or is the holder of a prescribed office” from the matter relating to “Magistrate”.	30 31
Explanatory note	32
Schedule 1 to the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 refers to a Magistrate who is the holder of a prescribed office “within the meaning of” the Local Courts Act 1982 . However, the term “prescribed office” is no longer defined in that Act. Accordingly, the proposed amendment omits the outdated reference from Schedule 1.	33 34 35 36

1.39 Stock (Chemical Residues) Act 1975 No 26Section 3 Definitions

Omit paragraph (a) from the definition of stock. Insert instead:

- (a) cattle, sheep, goats and pigs, and

Explanatory note

At present, paragraph (a) of the definition of stock in section 3 of the Stock (Chemical Residues) Act 1975 provides that the term means “bulls, oxen, steers, cows, heifers, calves, rams, ewes, wethers, lambs, goats, kids and swine”.

The proposed amendment recasts paragraph (a) in the interests of plain English. The new terminology is consistent with that of the Stock Diseases Act 1923.

Omit “swine” from the definition of Stock in section 3 (1).

Omit the definition.

Explanatory note

At present, section 3 of the Stock Diseases Act 1923 (the Act) defines Swine as including “boar, sow, barrow and pig of any age, sex or breed”. As the animals mentioned in the definition are all pigs, the proposed amendments, in the interests of plain English:

- (a) omit that definition, and
(b) amend another definition so as to refer to “pigs” rather than “swine”.

Consequential amendments to the Stock Diseases (General) Regulation 1997 are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule.

1.41 Stock Diseases (General) Regulation 1997[1] Clauses 15 (b), 16 (4) (d) (i), (e) (i) and (j), 16C, 16E (2), 20B (1), 20G (1) (a) and 31 (1)

Omit “swine” wherever occurring. Insert instead “pigs”.

Item [1] of the proposed amendments omits the definition of Government Medical Officer from the Superannuation Act 1916 (the Act) and inserts a definition of HealthQuest for the purposes of the Act.

Item [2] of the proposed amendments replaces references to “Government Medical Officer” in the Act with direct references to HealthQuest.

Similar amendments are proposed to be made elsewhere in this Schedule to the other Acts and Regulations concerned.

Public Trust Office and Resource NSW

Item [3] and part of item [4] of the proposed amendments are consequential on the dissolution of the statutory body Resource NSW proposed to be effected by the amendments to the Waste Avoidance and Resource Recovery Act 2001 elsewhere in this Schedule. The other part of item [4] is consequential on recent administrative changes made under Chapter 4 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 in relation to the Public Trust Office. Those changes abolished the Public Trust Office as a separate Department and transferred the public service staff to the Attorney General’s Department.

- (a) to provide that the ex-officio position on the Board of the Sydney Catchment Authority (the Authority) currently held by the Chief Executive of the Authority is to be held, instead, by the Managing Director of the Authority (item [2]), and
- (b) to make consequential amendments to a Schedule to the Act that deals with the constitution and procedure of the Board (items [3] and [4]), and

	In view of that amalgamation, it is not necessary to retain Resource NSW as a statutory corporation. | | | 10 |

Explanatory note

The repeals are explained in detail in the Explanatory note relating to this Act. In relation to the repeal of amending Acts, it should be noted that the Acts are repealed simply to rationalise the legislation in force and that the repeals have no substantive effect on the amendments made by the Acts or any associated provisions. The Acts that were amended by the Acts or provisions being repealed are up-to-date on the Legislation Database maintained by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and are available electronically.

Section 30 (2) of the Interpretation Act 1987 ensures that, when an Act is amended or repealed, no amendment made by the Act is affected. Section 30 (2) also ensures that the following matters are not affected:

- | | | |
|-----|--|----|
| (a) | the proof of any past act or thing, | 20 |
| (b) | any right, privilege, obligation or liability saved by the operation of the Act, | 21 |
| (c) | any amendment or validation made by the Act, | 22 |
| (d) | the operation of any savings or transitional provision contained in the Act. | 23 |

Schedule 4 General savings, transitional and other provisions

(Section 5)

1 Effect of amendment of amending provisions

- (1) An amendment made by Schedule 1 or 2 to an amending provision contained in an Act is, if the amending provision has commenced before the date of assent to this Act, taken to have effect as from the commencement of the amending provision.

- (2) In this clause:

amending provision means a provision of an Act that makes a direct amendment to an Act by:

- (a) the repeal or omission of matter contained in the amended Act without the insertion of any matter instead of the repealed or omitted matter, or
- (b) the omission of matter contained in the amended Act and the insertion of matter instead of the omitted matter, or
- (c) the insertion into the amended Act of matter, not being matter inserted instead of matter omitted from the Act, whether the provision was enacted before or after the commencement of the Reprints Act 1972.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that certain amendments, including amendments correcting errors in technical provisions (for example, headings indicating the section to be amended or directions as to where a new section is to be inserted) and rectifying minor drafting errors (for example, corrections in numbering of provisions, correction or insertion of cross-references, omission of unnecessary matter or insertion of omitted matter), will commence on the date the amendments to which they relate commenced.

2 Effect of amendment or repeal on acts done or decisions made

Except where it is expressly provided to the contrary, if this Act:

- (a) amends a provision of an Act or an instrument, or
- (b) repeals and re-enacts (with or without modification) a provision of an Act or an instrument, any act done or decision made under the provision amended or repealed has effect after the amendment or repeal as if it had been done or made under the provision as so amended or repealed.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment or repeal of a provision will not, unless expressly provided, vitiate any act done or decision made under the provision as in force before the amendment or repeal.

3 Application of Interpretation Act 1987 to amendments to statutory rules

Sections 39, 40 and 41 of the Interpretation Act 1987 do not apply to any amendments to statutory rules made by this Act.

Explanatory note

This clause makes it clear that certain provisions concerning the making, tabling and disallowance of statutory rules do not apply to amendments to statutory rules made by the proposed Act.

4 Effect of amendment on regulations

Except where expressly provided to the contrary, any regulation made under an Act amended by this Act, that is in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, is taken to have been made under the Act as amended.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that, unless expressly provided, any regulation made under an Act amended by the proposed Act, and in force immediately before the commencement of the amendment, will be taken to have been made under the amended Act.

5 Effect of amendment on environmental planning instruments

The amendment of an environmental planning instrument by this Act does not prevent its later amendment or repeal by another environmental planning instrument.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the amendment of a local environmental plan or other environmental planning instrument does not prevent its amendment or repeal by an environmental planning instrument.

6 Effect of repeal of Small Businesses' Loans Guarantee Act 1977

The repeal of the Small Businesses' Loans Guarantee Act 1977 does not affect any guarantee given pursuant to that Act.

Explanatory note

This clause ensures that the guarantees given pursuant to the Small Businesses' Loans Guarantee Act 1977 are not affected by the repeal of that Act by Schedule 3.

7 Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations containing provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment of this Act.
- (2) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect from the date of assent to this Act or a later date.
- (3) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:
- (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.

Explanatory note

This clause enables the making of regulations of a savings or transitional nature having a short term effect and relating to incidental matters arising out of the proposed Act with regard to which no specific, or sufficient, provision has been made in the Act.
