Clause 6 is a formal provision that gives effect to the amendment to the First State Superannuation Trust Deed set out in Schedule 4.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Acts to convert FTC into proprietary company

Schedule 1.1 replaces the definition of FTC in the First State Superannuation Act 1992 with a new definition that will reflect the new status of FTC as a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth (the Corporations Act) on its registration as such.

Schedule 1.2 [1] inserts section 128C in the Superannuation Administration Act 1996, which gives effect to Schedule 2A.

Schedule 1.2 [2] inserts Schedule 2A in the Superannuation Administration Act 1996, which makes provision for the conversion of FTC into a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act. The Schedule contains the following provisions:

Part 1 General

Clause 1 defines certain words and expressions used in the Schedule. In particular, it defines the following words and expressions:

Corporations legislation is defined to mean the Corporations legislation to which Part 1.1A of the Corporations Act applies. Section 5D of the Corporations Act provides that Part 1.1A of that Act applies to the following Commonwealth legislation:

- (a) the Corporations Act (including regulations made under that Act),
- (b) Part 3 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 of the Commonwealth (and regulations made under that Act for the purposes of that Part).

FTC is defined to mean the FSS Trustee Corporation as originally established by the Superannuation Administration Act 1996.

transition period is defined to mean the period commencing at the beginning of the day on which FTC is registered as a proprietary company under the Corporations Act and ending at the end of the day that is the third anniversary of that day.

Part 2 Overview of corporate conversion of FTC

Clause 2 contains a summary of the steps involved under the Schedule to convert FTC into a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act.

Part 3 Registration of FTC as proprietary company under Corporations Act

Division 1 Corporate conversion of FTC

Clause 3 provides that FTC is a deemed registration company for the purposes of section 5H of the Corporations Act and that, for the purposes of that section:

- (a) the day on which FTC is to be taken to be registered as a company is the day specified in a registration order made under clause 4 (the registration day), and
- (b) the type of company that FTC is to be registered as is a proprietary company limited by shares, and
- (c) the company's proposed name is "FSS Trustee Corporation".

Section 5H of the Corporations Act provides that a body is taken to be registered under that Act as a company of a particular type under section 118 of that Act if a law of a State or Territory to which that Act applies provides that the body is a deemed registration company for the purposes of the section and specifies the registration day, the type of company the body is to be registered as under the Act and the company's proposed name.

Clause 4 enables the Minister, by order published in the Gazette, to specify a registration day (being the day on which FTC is taken to be registered as a proprietary company limited by shares for the purposes of section 5H of the Corporations Act). The Minister may make such an order only if the Minister is satisfied that:

- (a) the FTC Board has approved a constitution for registered FTC in accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of Schedule 2A, and
- (b) the FTC Board has approved persons to be members of registered FTC and the shares to be issued to those persons in accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of Schedule 2A, and
- (c) FTC has complied with section 5H (2) of the Corporations Act.

Division 2 Procedural preconditions to corporate conversion of FTC

Clause 5 enables the FTC Board to approve, by resolution of the Board, a constitution for FTC to take effect on its registration as a proprietary company (registered FTC).

Clause 6 enables the FTC Board to approve, by resolutions of the Board:

- (a) the number and classes of shares that are to be issued in respect of registered FTC on its registration as a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act, and
- (b) the persons to whom the shares are to be issued, and
- (c) the amounts that are payable for shares to be issued in registered FTC and whether or not the amounts must be paid in full by the registration day.

Clause 7 authorises the FTC Board to cause a notice referred to in section 5H (2) of the Corporations Act to be lodged with ASIC before the registration day if:

- (a) the Board has approved a constitution for registered FTC in accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of Schedule 2A, and
- (b) the Board has approved the issue of shares in registered FTC in accordance with the provisions of Part 3 of Schedule 2A, and
- (c) the Minister has consented in writing to the lodgment of the notice.

Part 4 Provisions consequent on corporate conversion of FTC

Clause 8 provides that registered FTC is taken for all purposes, including the rules of private international law, to be a continuation of, and the same legal entity, as FTC. In particular, it provides that the registration of FTC as a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act does not:

- (a) create a new legal entity, or
- (b) affect FTC's existing assets, rights or liabilities (except as against the members of FTC in their capacity as members), or
- (c) render defective any legal proceedings by or against FTC or its members, or
- (d) affect the employment, or entitlements as an employee, of a person who was a member of staff of FTC immediately before the registration day.

The provisions of this clause are declared to be Corporations legislation displacement provisions for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of the Corporations legislation generally. Section 5G of the Corporations Act provides that if a State law declares a provision of a State law to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision, any provision of the Corporations legislation with which the State provision would otherwise be inconsistent does not apply to the extent necessary to avoid the inconsistency.

Clause 9 authorises registered FTC to use the name “FSS Trustee Corporation” as its corporate name without the words “Pty Limited” being included in that name.

The provisions of the clause are declared to be Corporations legislation displacement provisions for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of Part 2B.6 of that Act, which would otherwise require registered FTC to use the words “Pty Limited” as part of its name. Section 5G (6) of the Corporations Act provides that the provisions of Part 2B.6 and Part 5B.3 of that Act (which relate to the use of names) do not:

- (a) prohibit a company or other body from using a name if the use of the name is expressly provided for, or authorised by, a provision of a law of a State or Territory, or
- (b) require a company or other body to use a word as part of its name if the company or body is expressly authorised not to use that word by a provision of a law of a State or Territory.

Clause 10 provides that any alteration to the constitution of registered FTC during the transition period with respect to the number, manner of appointment or manner of removal of directors of the company does not have effect unless the Minister consents in writing to the alteration.

The provisions of the clause are declared to be Corporations legislation displacement provisions for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of the Corporations legislation generally. Section 5G (10) of the Corporations Act provides that if a provision of a law of a State or Territory provides that additional requirements must be met for an alteration of a company’s constitution to take effect, the alteration does not take effect unless those requirements are met.

Clause 11 provides that the provisions of the Public Finance and Audit Act 1983 (the Audit Act) cease to apply in relation to registered FTC on the registration day, except as provided by the clause. The clause continues to apply certain provisions of the Audit Act so as to enable the Auditor-General to conduct performance audits and particular audits under that Act on the First State Superannuation Fund during the financial years in which the transition period occurs. The clause also enables the Auditor-General to carry out auditing functions for FTC, if engaged to do so at any time.

The provisions of this clause are declared to be Corporations legislation displacement provisions for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of the Corporations legislation generally. Section 5G of the Corporations Act provides that if a State law declares a provision of a State law to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision, any provision of the Corporations legislation with which the State provision would otherwise be inconsistent does not apply to the extent necessary to avoid the inconsistency.

Clause 12 provides that immediately before the registration day:

- (a) FTC ceases to be a statutory body representing the Crown, and

- (b) the FTC Board is dissolved and each member (including any acting member) of the Board ceases to hold office as such, and
- (c) the chief executive officer (or an acting chief executive officer) of FTC ceases to hold office and the provisions of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 cease to apply to his or her employment.

The clause also provides that the provisions of Part 2 of the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 (with certain exceptions) cease to apply in relation to registered FTC on the registration day. These provisions will be repealed on the commencement of Schedule 2 to the proposed Act.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Acts relating to conversion of First State Superannuation Scheme

Effect of Schedule

The amendments made by Schedule 2 are consequent on the conversion of the First State Superannuation Scheme from an exempt public sector superannuation scheme under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth (the Commonwealth superannuation Act) to a regulated superannuation fund under that Act. The First State Superannuation Scheme is currently constituted under the First State Superannuation Act 1992, which regulates the persons who may be members of the scheme (public sector employees and some associated persons) and provides for the constitution and administration of the First State Superannuation Fund and other matters relating to benefits under the scheme. The scheme is currently exempted from the requirement to comply with the regulatory regime under the Commonwealth superannuation Act, although the scheme generally complies with its requirements (as required under an agreement between the State and the Commonwealth). The trustee of the scheme is the FSS Trustee Corporation, a statutory corporation established under the Superannuation Administration Act 1996. As discussed above, Schedule 1 provides for the conversion of the trustee to a proprietary company under the Corporations Act. Schedule 2 amends the First State Superannuation Act 1992 to remove provisions regulating the First State Superannuation Scheme and the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 to remove provisions relating to the constitution, functions and duties of the FSS Trustee Corporation.

The amendments to Schedule 2 will commence when the FSS Trustee Corporation is registered as a proprietary company limited by shares and the First State Superannuation Fund becomes a regulated superannuation fund under the Commonwealth superannuation Act. From that time the First State Superannuation Fund will be regulated by Commonwealth law rather than State law and will be subject to the same requirements and regulation as non-public sector superannuation funds.

The provisions in the First State Superannuation Act 1992 which require payment by public sector employers of a mandatory superannuation contribution (currently 9% of salary or wages within the meaning of that Act) are to be retained, with the First State Superannuation Fund being the default scheme for payment of the contribution (if no other complying superannuation fund, complying approved deposit fund or retirement savings account is nominated).

Amendment of First State Superannuation Act 1992

Schedule 2.1 [1] amends the long title to the First State Superannuation Act 1992 (the Principal Act) to reflect the fact that the Act will no longer establish a public sector superannuation scheme.

Schedule 2.1 [2] removes a note that is no longer relevant.

Schedule 2.1 [3]–[9] amend section 3A of the Principal Act, which defines salary or wages, to reflect that the Principal Act will now apply to specified employees rather than members of the First State Superannuation Scheme.

Schedule 2.1 [11] omits Parts 2–5A of the Principal Act (these Parts relate to membership of the First State Superannuation Scheme, contributions to the Scheme, the trust deed for the Scheme, death and incapacity benefits for firefighters and the transfer of certain members and benefits to the Scheme). All of these provisions, to the extent that they are still relevant and are not re-enacted, will be dealt with by the trust deed and rules of the Scheme after its conversion to a regulated superannuation fund.

Proposed Part 2 is inserted, containing provisions setting out the obligation of employers to whom the Principal Act applies to make compulsory employer superannuation contributions for their employees.

Proposed section 6 specifies the employers to whom the obligation will apply (these are the employers who are currently also employers under the First State Superannuation Scheme).

Proposed section 7 enables the list of employers in Schedule 1 to the Principal Act to be changed by order of the Governor published in the Gazette.

Proposed section 8 sets out the obligation of employers to contribute an amount equal to 9% of the salary or wages of employees as a superannuation contribution.

Proposed section 9 requires the contribution to be paid to the First State Superannuation Fund or another complying superannuation fund, complying approved deposit fund or retirement savings account nominated by an employee.

Proposed section 10 sets out the employees for whom contributions are not required to be paid under the Principal Act, including employees who are contributors to or members of other public sector superannuation schemes. Schedule 2.1 [20] makes a consequential amendment.

Proposed section 11 enables employees to elect to have contributions cease where the reasonable benefit limit relating to pensions may be exceeded.

Proposed section 12 provides that employees who fund their own superannuation may base contributions on an amount of salary or wages that does not exceed the maximum contribution base.

Schedule 2.1 [12] amends section 63 of the Principal Act to omit a reference to the trust deed.

Schedule 2.1 [13] omits section 64 of the Principal Act which relates to the treatment of benefits under the First State Superannuation Scheme.

Schedule 2.1 [14] inserts proposed section 65 (later renumbered as section 14) which provides for the trust deed of the First State Superannuation Fund to continue to make provision with respect to the payment of death or incapacity benefits to firefighters in accordance with the current award.

Schedule 2.1 [15] omits sections 73 and 74 of the Principal Act which relate to the recovery of money owing to the First State Superannuation Fund and the restoration of rights, privileges and benefits under the Principal Act or the trust deed.

Schedule 2.1 [16] amends section 76 of the Principal Act to enable regulations to be made providing for the manner in which notices under the Act are to be given.

Schedule 2.1 [10], [17] and [18] renumber a heading and provisions of the Principal Act. Schedule 2.1 [19] and [21] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 2.1 [23] enables savings and transitional regulations to be made consequent on the enactment of the proposed Act.

Schedule 2.1 [25] inserts savings and transitional provisions in Schedule 3 to the Principal Act as a consequence of the enactment of the proposed Act. Schedule 2.1 [22] and [24] make consequential amendments.

Schedule 2.1 [26] substitutes the Dictionary to the Principal Act to revise current defined words and expressions to reflect the amendments made by the proposed Act.

Amendment of Superannuation Administration Act 1996

Schedule 2.2 [1] amends the long title to the Superannuation Administration Act 1996 (the Principal Act) to remove the reference to the constitution of the FSS Trustee Corporation (FTC).

Schedule 2.2 [2] amends section 3 of the Principal Act to remove the object relating to FTC.

Schedule 2.2 [3] amends section 4 of the Principal Act to remove definitions relating to FTC.

Schedule 2.2 [4] omits section 5 of the Principal Act to remove a provision relating to the declaration of further superannuation schemes to be administered by FTC.

Schedule 2.2 [5] omits Part 2 of the Principal Act which provides for the constitution and functions of FTC. Schedule 2.2 [19] makes a consequential amendment.

Schedule 2.2 [6]–[17] replace references to a superannuation authority in various provisions (which refer to both FTC and the SAS Trustee Corporation) with references to the SAS Trustee Corporation.

Schedule 2.2 [18] and [20] omit references to FTC.

Schedule 2.2 [21] and [22] amend section 128 of the Principal Act to remove the First State Superannuation Fund from the public sector funds that may be subject to provisions dealing with the creation of new superannuation schemes for members of public sector superannuation schemes.

Schedule 2.2 [23] amends section 128B of the Principal Act to remove the First State Superannuation Fund from the public sector funds that may be subject to provisions dealing with the extension of new superannuation schemes to members of existing public sector superannuation schemes.

Schedule 2.2 [24] and [25] amend section 129 of the Principal Act to remove the power to make regulations relating to the administration of FTC funds and the accounts and procedure of the FTC board.

Schedule 2.2 [26] omits Schedule 1 to the Principal Act, which relates to the FTC board.

Schedule 2.2 [27] enables regulations to be made consequent on the enactment of the amendments to the Principal Act.

Schedule 3 Consequential amendment of other Acts and regulations

(2)	A constitution for registered FTC approved by the FTC Board may contain only such matter that could be included in the constitution of a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act.	8 9 10 11
(3)	The FTC Board may, by a further resolution that is duly passed at a meeting of the Board, revoke a resolution approving a constitution for registered FTC at any time before the registration day.	12 13 14 15
(4)	However, nothing in subclause (3) prevents the FTC Board from subsequently approving the same or another constitution under subclause (1).	16 17 18
6	Approval of members of and shareholdings in registered FTC	19
(1)	The FTC Board may, by one or more resolutions that are duly passed at a meeting of the Board, approve:	20 21

7	Lodgment of notice under section 5H of Corporations Act	35
	The FTC Board may cause the notice referred to in section 5H (2) of the Corporations Act to be lodged with ASIC before the registration day if:	36 37 38

Part 4 Provisions consequent on corporate conversion of FTC 14 15

8 Registered FTC is continuation of FTC 16

- (1) Registered FTC is taken for all purposes (including the rules of private international law) to be a continuation of, and the same legal entity, as FTC. 17
19
 - (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the registration of FTC as a proprietary company limited by shares under the Corporations Act does not: 20 21
22
 - (a) create a new legal entity, or 23
 - (b) affect FTC's existing assets, rights or liabilities (except as against the members of FTC in their capacity as members), or 24
25
26
 - (c) render defective any legal proceedings by or against FTC or its members, or 27 28
 - (d) affect the employment, or entitlements as an employee, of a person who was a member of staff of FTC immediately before the registration day. 29
30
31
 - (3) Subclauses (1) and (2) are declared to be Corporations legislation displacement provisions for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of the Corporations legislation generally. 32
33
35
- Note. Section 5G (11) of the Corporations Act provides that if a State law declares a provision of a State law to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision, any provision of the Corporations legislation with which the State provision would otherwise be inconsistent does not apply to the extent necessary to avoid the inconsistency. 36

38
40

(4)	A reference in any instrument to FTC is to be read on and after the registration day as including a reference to registered FTC.	1 2
9	Registered FTC is authorised to use existing name	3
(1)	Registered FTC is authorised to use the name “FSS Trustee Corporation” as its corporate name without the words “Pty Limited” being included in that name.	4 5 6
(2)	Nothing in subclause (1) prevents registered FTC from changing its name in accordance with the provisions of the Corporations Act to include the words “Pty Limited” in its name.	7 8 9
(3)	Subclause (1) has effect only for so long as registered FTC retains the name “FSS Trustee Corporation”.	10 11
(4)	Subclause (1) is declared to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of Part 2B.6 of that Act.	12 13 14 15
	Note. Section 5G (6) of the Corporations Act provides that the provisions of Part 2B.6 and Part 5B.3 of that Act (which relate to the use of names) do not:	16 17 18
(a)	prohibit a company or other body from using a name if the use of the name is expressly provided for, or authorised by, a provision of a law of a State or Territory, or	19 20 21
(b)	require a company or other body to use a word as part of its name if the company or body is expressly authorised not to use that word by a provision of a law of a State or Territory.	22 23 24
	However, section 5G (3) of that Act provides that section 5G will only apply to a provision of a law of a State or Territory enacted after the commencement of that Act if a law of the State or Territory declares the provision to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of that section.	25 26 27 28 29
10	Alterations to constitution of registered FTC concerning directors	30
(1)	Any alteration to the constitution of registered FTC during the transition period with respect to the number, manner of appointment or manner of removal of directors of the company does not have effect unless the Minister consents in writing to the alteration.	31 32 33 34 35
(2)	The Minister:	36
(a)	must consent to any alteration to the constitution required for compliance with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 of the Commonwealth or any regulations or other instruments made under that Act, and	37 38 39 40

- (b) may not consent to any alteration that would be inconsistent with that Act, those regulations or any such instrument. 1
- (3) Subclause (1) is declared to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of the Corporations legislation generally. 4
 - Note. Section 5G (10) of the Corporations Act provides that if a provision of a law of a State or Territory provides that additional requirements must be met for an alteration of a company's constitution to take effect, the alteration does not take effect unless those requirements are met. 8

- 11 Role of Auditor-General during transition period 12

28
 - (i) a reference in that Division to a statutory body included a reference to registered FTC, and 29

 - (iii) the Minister administering this clause had requested that the Auditor-General carry out functions under that Division in respect of the First State Superannuation Fund for each of those financial years, 35
36
37
38
39

(c)	Division 2 (Audit—generally) applies to an inspection or audit conducted under a provision of the Audit Act applied by paragraph (a) or (b) in the same way as it applies to any other inspection or audit to which that Division applies under that Act.	1 2 3 4 5
(3)	To avoid doubt, section 43A of the Audit Act does not apply in respect of the removal of registered FTC from the application of the Audit Act as a consequence of the operation of any provision of the First State Superannuation Legislation Amendment (Conversion) Act 2005 .	6 7 8 9 10
(4)	The Auditor-General may, if engaged to do so by registered FTC, carry out auditing functions for FTC (including in respect of the First State Superannuation Fund) at any time during or after the financial years in which the transition period occurs.	11 12 13 14
(5)	Subclauses (1) and (2) are declared to be Corporations legislation displacement provisions for the purposes of section 5G of the Corporations Act in relation to the provisions of the Corporations legislation generally. Note. Section 5G (11) of the Corporations Act provides that if a State law declares a provision of a State law to be a Corporations legislation displacement provision, any provision of the Corporations legislation with which the State provision would otherwise be inconsistent does not apply to the extent necessary to avoid the inconsistency.	15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23
(6)	In this clause: modification includes addition, exception, omission or substitution.	24 25 26
12	Application of State law to registered FTC and its officers and employees	27 28
(1)	Immediately before the registration day:	29
(a)	FTC ceases to be a statutory body representing the Crown, and	30 31
(b)	the FTC Board is dissolved and each member (including any acting member) of the Board ceases to hold office as such, and	32 33 34
(c)	the chief executive officer (or an acting chief executive officer) of FTC ceases to hold office and the provisions of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 2002 cease to apply to his or her employment.	35 36 37 38
