Crimes Legislation Amendment (Sentencing) Bill 1999

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

This Bill is cognate with the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Bill 1999.

Overview of Bill

This Bill, the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Bill 1999 and the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Bill 1999 comprise a package of cognate Bills that:

- (a) repeal and re-enact (in the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999) the provisions of various Acts dealing with the sentencing of offenders and the administration of sentences imposed on offenders, and
- (b) transfer to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 the provisions of various Acts dealing with criminal procedure, and
- (c) transfer to the Crimes Act 1900 and the Summary Offences Act 1988 various offences created by the provisions of other Acts, and

- (d) abolish the distinction between offences that are felonies and offences that are misdemeanours, and
- (e) abolish the punishment of penal servitude and the punishment of imprisonment with hard or light labour.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Criminal Procedure Act 1986, the Crimes Act 1900 and certain other Acts so as to rationalise provisions relating to criminal procedure, to abolish the penalty of penal servitude and the distinction between felonies and misdemeanours, and to make consequential amendments in connection with the enactment of the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Clause 3 is a formal provision giving effect to the repeals set out in Schedule 1.

Clause 4 is a formal provision giving effect to the amendments to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 set out in Schedule 2.

Clause 5 is a formal provision giving effect to the amendments to the Crimes Act 1900 set out in Schedule 3.

Clause 6 is a formal provision giving effect to the amendments to other Acts and instruments set out in Schedule 4.

Clause 7 is a formal provision giving effect to the further amendments to other Acts and instruments set out in Schedule 5.

Schedule 1 Repeals

It is proposed to repeal the Acts and instruments listed in Schedule 1. The Acts and instruments to be repealed are all to be superseded by the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999, the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 and by regulations under those proposed Acts.

Schedule 2 Amendment of Criminal Procedure Act 1986

Criminal procedure

It is proposed to transfer to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 certain provisions of the Crimes Act 1900 (Schedule 2 [10], [19], [26], [29], [30], [31] and [36])—proposed sections 13, 34, 48, 49 and 57–132) and certain provisions of the Correctional Centres Act 1952 (Schedule 2 [44])—proposed sections 147–151). These provisions deal with criminal procedure. In substance they remain basically unchanged.

Felonies and misdemeanours

It is proposed to insert certain provisions into the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 consequent on the abolition of the distinction between felonies and misdemeanours (Schedule 2 [8])—proposed sections 7, 8 and 9). These provisions will determine which offences are to be dealt with on indictment and which are to be dealt with summarily.

Miscellaneous

The remaining provisions of Schedule 2 insert appropriate definitions into section 3 (Schedule 2 [1]), enact savings and transitional provisions (Schedule 2 [62] and [63]), make consequential amendments in relation to certain uncommenced Acts (Schedule 2 [30]–[33]) and amend the remaining provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 to accommodate the proposed insertions and deletions (Schedule 2 [2]–[7], [9], [11]–[18], [20]–[25], [27], [28], [37]–[43] and [45]–[63]).

Schedule 3 Amendment of Crimes Act 1900

Part 1 Amendments consequent on enactment of Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999

It is proposed to transfer to the Crimes Act 1900 certain provisions of the Correctional Centres Act 1952 (Schedule 3 [1])—proposed sections 310A–310H). These provisions deal with offences relating to places of detention. In substance they remain basically unchanged. It is further proposed to repeal provisions of the Crimes Act 1900 that are to be superseded by the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 (Schedule 3 [2]–[7]).

Part 2 Amendments consequent on transfer of provisions from Crimes Act 1900 to Criminal Procedure Act 1986

It is proposed to repeal the provisions of the Crimes Act 1900 that are to be superseded by the provisions to be inserted into the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 in relation to criminal procedure (Schedule 3 [8]–[18]). It is also proposed to make consequential amendments to the Second Schedule to the Crimes Act 1900 (Schedule 3 [19]).

Part 3 Amendments abolishing penal servitude and distinction between felony and misdemeanour

It is proposed to abolish the distinction between felonies and misdemeanours (Schedule 3 [68]—proposed section 580E), and (where necessary) to replace references to felonies with references to serious indictable offences (meaning indictable offences punishable by imprisonment for 5 years or more) and to replace references to misdemeanours with references to minor indictable offences (meaning any other indictable offence).

It is further proposed to amend the Crimes Act 1900 to abolish the punishment of penal servitude (Schedule 3 [68]—proposed section 580F), and (where necessary) to replace references to penal servitude with references to imprisonment.

It is further proposed to abolish the punishments of imprisonment with light or hard labour (Schedule 3 [68]—proposed section 580G).

The remaining amendments (Schedule 3 [20]–[67], [69] and [70]) are consequential on the abolition of the above matters.

Schedule 4 Amendment of other Acts and instruments

Part 1 Amendments consequent on enactment of Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999

It is proposed to amend various Acts and instruments consequent on the enactment of the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999. Significant amendments are those made by the following provisions:

- (a) Schedule 4.4 [6], which applies certain provisions of the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 to proceedings before the Children's Court under the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987 (corresponding to part of section 43 of the Sentencing Act 1989).
- (b) Schedule 4.5 [11], which applies certain provisions of the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 to detainees under the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987 (corresponding to part of section 43 of the Sentencing Act 1989).
- (c) Schedule 4.12 [1], which substitutes the definition of Sentence in section 2 (1) of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912.
- (d) Schedule 4.23 [1], which applies provisions of the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 to community service orders made under section 79 of the Fines Act 1996.
- (e) Schedule 4.23 [8], which applies provisions of the proposed Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 and the proposed Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 to periodic detention orders made under section 89 of the Fines Act 1996.
- (f) Schedule 4.29, which amends the Imperial Acts Application Act 1969 so as to abolish the power of a justice of the peace "to restrain offenders and to take of them or of persons not of good fame surety for their good behaviour".
- (g) Schedule 4.55 [5], which amends the Summary Offences Act 1988 so as to re-enact certain offences currently contained in the Correctional Centres Act 1952.

The remaining amendments are basically mechanical in nature.

Part 2 Amendments consequent on transfer of provisions from Crimes Act 1900 to Criminal Procedure Act 1986

It is proposed to amend various Acts and instruments consequent on the transfer of provisions from the Crimes Act 1900 to the Criminal Procedure Act 1986. Significant amendments are those made by the following provisions:

- (a) Schedule 4.66 [1] and [2], which amend the Children (Criminal Proceedings) Act 1987 so as to enable a court to authorise the publication or broadcasting of the name of a child who has been convicted of a serious indictable offence.
- (b) Schedule 4.68, which amends the Coroners Act 1980 so as to apply to coroners certain provisions of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 and the Justices Act 1902 with respect to documentary evidence (being new provisions that replace provisions in the Crimes Act 1900 currently applying to coroners).
- (c) Schedule 4.69 [1]–[8], which amend the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 (in anticipation of the amendments referred to in Schedule 2) so as to allow the Director of Public Prosecutions to intervene in proceedings relating to sentencing guidelines.
- (d) Schedule 4.71 [1], which amends the Justices Act 1902 so as to re-enact what is currently section 409A (depositions in committal proceedings) of the Crimes Act 1900.
- (e) Schedule 4.71 [2], which amends the Justices Act 1902 so as to re-enact what is currently part of section 360A (with respect to proceedings against corporations) of the Crimes Act 1900.
- (f) Schedule 4.72, which amends the Victims Compensation Act 1996 so as to enhance the powers of a court to make directions for compensation with respect to losses that do not involve an injury within the meaning of that Act.

Part 3 Amendments abolishing penal servitude and distinction between felony and misdemeanour

It is proposed to amend various Acts and instruments to give effect to the abolition of penal servitude and the abolition of the distinction between felonies and misdemeanours arising from proposed sections 580E, 580F and 580G to be inserted in the Crimes Act 1900 by Schedule 3 [68]. Significant amendments are those made by the following provisions:

- (a) Schedule 4.90, which amends section 13A (e) of the Constitution Act 1902 so as to replace the words “is attainted of treason or convicted of felony or any infamous crime” (in a provision establishing the grounds on which the seat of a Member of Parliament becomes vacant) with the words “is convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment for life or for a term of 5 years or more”.
- (b) Schedule 4.122, which amends the Interpretation Act 1987 so as to include definitions of serious indictable offence (meaning an indictable offence that is punishable by imprisonment for life or for a term of 5 years or more) and minor indictable offence (meaning an indictable offence that is not a serious indictable offence).

The remaining amendments are basically mechanical in nature.

Schedule 5 Further amendment of other Acts and instruments with respect to abolition of penal servitude

It is proposed to amend various Act and instruments listed in Schedule 5 so as to remove all references to penal servitude in provisions dealing with vacation of office. Those Acts and instruments are to be amended in accordance with section 7 of the proposed Act. The amendments are basically mechanical in nature.

A list of the various Acts and instruments amended by Schedules 2–5 appears as a note at the end of the proposed Act.

48 Notice of alibi	17
(1) This section applies only to trials on indictment.	18
(2) An accused person may not, without the leave of the court, adduce evidence in support of an alibi unless, before the end of the prescribed period, he or she gives notice of particulars of the alibi.	19 20 21 22
(3) Without limiting subsection (2), the accused person may not, without the leave of the court, call any other person to give evidence in support of an alibi unless:	23 24 25

- (a) the notice under that subsection includes the other person's name and address or, if the other person's name or address is not known to the accused person at the time he or she gives notice, any information in his or her possession that might be of material assistance in finding the other person, and
- (b) if the other person's name or address is not included in the notice, the court is satisfied that the accused person before giving notice took, and thereafter continued to take, all reasonable steps to ensure that the other person's name or address would be ascertained, and
- (c) if the other person's name or address is not included in the notice, but the accused person subsequently discovers the other person's name or address or receives other information that might be of material assistance in finding the other person, he or she immediately gives notice of the name, address or other information, and
- (d) if the accused person is notified by or on behalf of the Crown that the other person has not been traced by the name or address given by the accused person, he or she immediately gives notice of any information that might be of material assistance in finding the other person and that is then in his or her possession or, on subsequently receiving any such information, immediately gives notice of it.
- (4) The court may not refuse leave under this section if it appears to the court that, on the committal for trial of the accused person, he or she was not informed by the committing justice of the requirements of subsections (2), (3) and (7) and, for that purpose, a statement in writing by the committing justice that the accused person was informed of those requirements is evidence that the accused person was so informed.
- (5) Any evidence tendered to disprove an alibi may, subject to any direction by the court, be given before or after evidence is given in support of the alibi.
- (6) Any notice purporting to be given under this section on behalf of the accused person by his or her legal practitioner is, unless the contrary is proved, to be taken to have been given with the authority of the accused person.

- (7) A notice under this section must be given in writing to the Director of Public Prosecutions, and may be given by delivering it to the Director, by leaving it at the Director's office or by sending it in a letter addressed to the Director at the Director's office. 1
3
4
5
- (8) In this section: 6
- evidence in support of an alibi* means evidence tending to show that, by reason of the presence of the accused person at a particular place or in a particular area at a particular time, the accused person was not, or was unlikely to have been, at the place where the offence is alleged to have been committed at the time of its alleged commission. 7
9
10
11
12
- prescribed period* means the period of 10 days commencing at the time of the accused person's committal for trial. 13
14
- 49 Notice of intention to adduce evidence of substantial mental impairment 15 16
- (1) On a trial for murder, the accused person must not, without the leave of the court, adduce evidence tending to prove a contention of substantial mental impairment unless the accused person gives notice, as prescribed by the regulations, of his or her intention to raise that contention. 17
18
19
20
21
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the accused person must not, without the leave of the court, call any other person to give evidence tending to prove a contention of substantial mental impairment unless the notice under this section includes: 22
23
25
- (a) the name and address of the other person, and 26
- (b) particulars of the evidence to be given by the other person. 27
28
- (3) Any evidence tendered to disprove a contention of substantial mental impairment may, subject to any direction of the court, be given before or after evidence is given to prove that contention. 29
30
31
32
- (4) Any notice purporting to be given under this section on behalf of the accused person by his or her legal practitioner is taken, unless the contrary is proved, to have been given with the authority of the accused person. 33

(5)	A notice under this section is to be given in writing to the Director of Public Prosecutions, and may be given by delivering it to the Director, by leaving it at the Director's office or by sending it in a letter addressed to the Director at the Director's office.	1 2 3 4 5
(6)	In this section, contention of substantial mental impairment means a contention by the accused person that the accused person is not liable to be convicted of murder by virtue of section 23A of the Crimes Act 1900 .	6 7 8 9
[27]	New Part 3, Division 4, heading	10
	Insert the following heading after new section 49:	11
	Division 4 Institution of proceedings	12
[28]	New sections 50–56	13
	Renumber existing sections 15–19 as sections 50–56 and transfer them to new Division 4 of Part 3.	14 15
[29]	New Part 3, Division 5	16
	Insert after new section 56:	17
	Division 5 Form of indictments	18
	57 Application of Division	19
	This Division applies, to the extent that it is capable of being applied, to all offences, however arising (whether under an Act or at common law), whenever committed and in whatever court dealt with.	20 21 22 23
	58 Certain defects do not affect indictment	24
	An indictment is not bad, insufficient, void, erroneous or defective on any of the following grounds:	25 26
	(a) for the improper insertion or omission of the words “as appears by the record”, “with force and arms”, “against the peace”, “against the form of the statute” or “feloniously”,	27 28 29 30

- (b) for want of an averment of any matter unnecessary to be proved or necessarily implied, 1
2
 - (c) for want of a proper or perfect venue or a proper or formal conclusion, 3 4
 - (d) for want of any additional accused person or for any imperfection relating to any additional accused person, 5 6
8
9
10
 - (f) for designating any person by the name of his or her office, or other descriptive appellation, instead of by his or her proper name, 11
12
13
 - (g) except where time is an essential ingredient, for omitting to state the time at which an offence was committed, for stating the time wrongly or for stating the time imperfectly, 14
15
16
17
 - (h) for stating an offence to have been committed on a day subsequent to the finding of the indictment, on an impossible day or on a day that never happened. 18 19
20
- 59 Indictment of bodies corporate 21
- (1) Unless a contrary intention appears, a provision of an Act relating to an offence applies to bodies corporate as well as to individuals. 22
23
24
 - (2) On arraignment, a body corporate may enter a plea of “guilty” or “not guilty” by means of writing signed by its representative. 25
26
27
29
30
 - (4) A representative of a body corporate need not be appointed under the body’s seal. 31
32
 - (5) A written statement that: 33
 - (a) purports to be signed by one of the persons having the management of the affairs of the body corporate, and 34
35

(b)	contains a statement to the effect that a named person is the body's representative,	1
	is admissible as evidence that the named person has been so appointed.	2
		3
		4
60	Venue in indictment	5
(1)	New South Wales is a sufficient venue for all places, whether the indictment is in the Supreme Court or any other court having criminal jurisdiction.	6
		8
(2)	However, some district or place within, at or near which the offence is charged to have been committed must be mentioned in the body of the indictment.	9
		10
		11
(3)	Any such district or place is to be taken to be in New South Wales, and within the jurisdiction of the court, unless the contrary is shown.	12
		13
		14
61	When formal objections to be taken	15
(1)	An objection to an indictment for a formal defect apparent on its face must be taken, by demurrer or motion to quash the indictment, before the jury is sworn.	16
		18
		20
		21
62	Judgment on demurrer to indictment	22
	The judgment against the accused person on demurrer is to be that the person "answer over" to the charge.	23
		24
63	Traversing indictment	25
(1)	No traverse is to be allowed, or trial postponed, or time to plead to the indictment given, unless the court so orders.	26
		27
(2)	However, if the court is of the opinion that the accused person ought to be allowed time, either to prepare for his or her defence or for any other reason, the court is to postpone the trial on such terms as it considers fit.	28
		29
		30
		31

64 Orders for amendment of indictment, separate trial and postponement of trial	1
	2
(1) If of the opinion that an indictment is defective but, having regard to the merits of the case, can be amended without injustice, the court may make such order for the amendment of the indictment as it thinks necessary to meet the circumstances of the case.	3 4 5 6 7
(2) If of the opinion:	8
(a) that an accused person may be prejudiced or embarrassed in his or her defence by reason of being charged with more than one offence in the same indictment, or	9 10 11 12
the court may order a separate trial of any count or counts of the indictment.	16 17
(3) If of the opinion that the postponement of an accused person's trial is expedient as a consequence of it having amended an indictment or ordered a separate trial of a count, the court may make such order as appears necessary.	18 19 20 21
(4) An order under this section may be made either before trial or at any stage during the trial.	22 23
(5) The following provisions apply if an order is made under this section for a separate trial or for the postponement of a trial:	24 25
(a) if the order is made during the trial, the court may order that the jury be discharged from giving a verdict:	26 27
(i) on the count or counts in respect of which the trial is postponed, or	28 29
(ii) on the indictment,	30
as the case may be,	31
(b) the procedure on the separate trial of a count, and the procedure on the postponed trial, are to be the same in all respects (if the jury has been discharged) as if the trial had not commenced,	32 33 34 35
(c) subject to the Bail Act 1978 , the court may commit the accused person to a correctional centre.	36 37

(6)	Any power of the court under this section is in addition to and not in derogation of any other power of the court for the same or similar purposes.	1 2 3
65	Amended indictment	4
(1)	If any indictment is amended, a note of the order for amendment is to be endorsed on the indictment, and the indictment in its amended form is to be treated as the indictment for the purposes of the trial and all proceedings in connection with or consequent on the trial.	5 6 7 8 9
(2)	Any verdict or judgment given after the amendment of an indictment is to have the same force and effect as if the indictment had originally been in its amended form.	10 11 12
(3)	If it is necessary at any time to draw up a formal record of an indictment, the record may be drawn up in the words and form of the amended indictment, without notice of the fact of the amendment.	13 14 15 16
66	Indictment may contain up to 3 similar counts	17
(1)	Up to 3 counts may be inserted in the same indictment, against the same person, for distinct offences of the same kind committed against the same person.	18 19 20
(2)	This section does not apply if more than 6 months have elapsed between the first and last of the offences.	21 22
(3)	Nothing in this section affects the right of the Crown to insert alternative counts in any indictment.	23 24
67	Accessories may be charged together in one indictment	25
	Any number of accessories (whether before or after the fact) may be charged with substantive serious indictable offences in the same indictment, and may be tried together, even though the principal offender is not included in the indictment, not in custody or not amenable to justice.	26 27 28 29 30
68	Indictment charging previous offence also	31
	In an indictment against a person for an offence committed after the person was convicted of some previous offence (whether indictable or otherwise) it is sufficient, after charging	32 33 34

the subsequent offence, to state that the accused person was (at a specified time and place) convicted of the previous offence, without particularly describing the previous offence.	1 2 3
69 Description of written instruments	4
If:	5
(a) an indictment relates to an instrument that is written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, or	6 7
(b) it is necessary to make an averment in an indictment with respect to an instrument that is written or printed, or partly written and partly printed,	8 9 10
it is sufficient to describe the instrument by any name or designation by which it is usually known, or by its purport, without setting out a copy of the instrument, or otherwise describing the instrument, and without stating the value of the instrument.	11 12 13 14 15
70 General averment of intent to defraud or injure	16
(1) It is sufficient to allege that the accused person did an act with intent to defraud or injure without alleging an intent to defraud or injure any particular person.	17 18 19
(2) In an indictment for doing an act fraudulently, or for a fraudulent purpose, it is not necessary to state the fraudulent intent or purpose.	20 21 22
71 Indecent assault	23
In an indictment for an indecent assault, it is sufficient to state that the accused person (at a specified time and place) committed an indecent assault on the person alleged to have been assaulted, without stating the mode of assault.	24 25 26 27
72 Partners and partnership property	28
(1) In an indictment:	29
(a) it is sufficient to describe partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common by naming one of them and referring to the others as “another” or “others”, as the case requires, and	30 31 32 33

(b)	it is sufficient to state the ownership of property belonging to partners, joint tenants, parceners or tenants in common by naming one of them and alleging the property to belong to the person so named and “another” or “others”, as the case requires.	1 2 3 4 5
(2)	This section extends to all joint stock companies, executors, administrators and trustees.	6 7
73	Where not necessary to allege particular ownership	8
	In any indictment in respect of any of the following matters:	9
(a)	stealing, destroying or injuring any testamentary instrument, any document issued by a court or anything fixed or growing in any place set aside for public use,	10 11 12
(b)	any offence committed in or in relation to a place of divine worship,	13 14
(c)	any offence committed in relation to property in any public library or other public building,	15 16
(d)	anything mentioned in section 202 or 210 of the Crimes Act 1900 ,	17 18
	it is not necessary to allege that the thing in respect of which the offence was committed is the property of any person.	19 20
74	Stealing and receiving in one indictment	21
(1)	In an indictment containing a charge of stealing property, a further charge may be added against the same person for unlawfully receiving the property, or any part of the property, knowing it to have been stolen.	22 23 24 25
(2)	The prosecuting authority is not to be put to election as to those charges.	26 27
75	Separate receivers may be charged in one indictment	28
	If property has been stolen, taken, embezzled, obtained, fraudulently applied or disposed of in such a manner as to amount to a serious indictable offence:	29 30 31
(a)	any number of receivers at different times of the property, and	32 33

(b)	any number of receivers of different parts of the property,	1 2
	may be charged with substantive serious indictable offences in the same indictment, and be tried together, even if the principal offender is not included in the indictment, not in custody or not amenable to justice.	3 4 5 6
76	Allegations in indictment as to money or securities stolen	7
(1)	In an indictment:	8
(a)	for stealing, taking, receiving, or embezzling any money or valuable security, or	9 10
(b)	for misappropriating, or fraudulently applying or disposing of, any money or valuable security, or	11 12
(c)	for obtaining any money or valuable security by any threat or false pretence, or partly by a false pretence and partly by a wilfully false promise,	13 14 15
	it is sufficient to describe the property as a “certain amount of money” or a “certain valuable security”, without specifying any particular kind of money or security.	16 17 18
(2)	Such a description may be sustained by proof of the stealing, taking, receiving, embezzling, appropriating, disposal or obtaining of any money or valuable security:	19 20 21
(a)	even if some part of its value was agreed to be, or was in fact, returned, and	22 23
(b)	even if, as regards money, the particular kind of money is not proved or provable.	24 25
77	Indictment for stealing by tenants	26
	An indictment against a person for stealing property let to be used by the person as a tenant or lodger in relation to premises is sufficient:	27 28 29
(a)	in the case of a chattel, if it is in the common form for larceny, and	30 31

(b)	in the case of a fixture, if it is in the same form as if the person were not a tenant or lodger,	1
		2
	and in either case the property may be described as being owned by the owner of the premises or by the person letting the premises.	3
		4
		5
78	Indictment for stealing deeds	6
(1)	In an indictment for stealing, embezzling, destroying, cancelling, obliterating or concealing any document of title to land, or any part of land, it is sufficient:	7
		9
(a)	to allege that the document contains evidence of the title to the land, and	10
		11
(b)	to mention the person, or one of the persons, having an interest in the land or any part of the land.	12
		13
(2)	In this section:	14
	document of title to land includes any deed, certificate of title, map, paper or parchment (whether written or printed, or partly written and partly printed) that is or contains evidence of the title, or part of the title, to any real estate or any interest in or out of real estate.	15
		16
		18
		19
79	Indictment for larceny by public servant, property to be described as property of the State	20
		21
	In an indictment for larceny or embezzlement as a public servant, the property may be described as the property of the State, from which it is taken to have been stolen.	22
		23
		24
80	Description in indictment for engraving	25
	In an indictment:	26
(a)	for engraving or making the whole or any part of any instrument or thing, or	27
		28
		30
		31

(c)	for having possession of paper on which the whole or any part of any instrument or thing is made or printed,	1 2
	it is sufficient to describe any such instrument or thing by any name or designation by which it is usually known, without setting out a copy of it or any part of it.	3 4 5
81	Indictment for sale of counterfeit coin	6
	In an indictment with respect to the unlawful buying, selling, paying, putting off or receiving of counterfeit coin, it is not necessary to allege at what rate, or for what price, the coin was bought or sold or offered to be bought, sold, paid, put off or received.	7 8 9 10 11
82	Indictment for perjury	12
(1)	In an indictment for perjury, it is sufficient:	13
(a)	to allege that, on a certain day, at a certain place and before a named person, the accused person falsely swore, declared or affirmed the matter charged as false:	14 15 16
(i)	stating only the substance of the matter, and	17
(ii)	averring that the matter was falsely sworn, declared or affirmed on an occasion when the truth of the matter was material, and	18 19 20
(b)	to state generally that the matter charged as false was false in fact without negating each or any aspect of the matter.	21 22 23
(2)	Consequently, it is not necessary:	24
(a)	to specify the occasion on which the matter charged as false was falsely sworn, declared or affirmed, or	25 26
(b)	to show how the matter charged as false was material, or	27 28
(c)	to specify the proceedings in or in relation to which the matter charged as false was falsely sworn, declared or affirmed, or	29 30 31
(d)	to specify the judicial or official character of the person administering the oath, or taking the declaration or affirmation, charged as false.	32 33 34

83	Indictment for conspiracy	1
(1)	This section applies to an indictment for conspiracy.	2
(2)	It is not necessary to state any overt act of conspiracy.	3
(3)	Each accused person, whether 2 or more are included in the same indictment or not:	4
	(a) may be charged separately, in any count:	5
	(i) as having conspired with other persons, of whom it is sufficient to name one only, or	6
	(ii) as having conspired with one other named person only, and	7
	(b) may be convicted on any such count on proof of having unlawfully conspired, for the purpose alleged in the indictment, with any one of the named persons.	8
(4)	No more than 3 counts against the same accused person may be inserted in one indictment.	9
(5)	In any case before a plea is entered, the court may order such particulars to be given as the court considers appropriate.	10
(6)	If substantially different conspiracies are charged in the same indictment, the prosecuting authority may be put to election as to the one on which to proceed.	11

		18
		19
		20
84	Procedures regarding obscene or blasphemous libel	21
(1)	In any indictment against the publisher of an obscene or blasphemous libel, it is not necessary to set out the obscene or blasphemous passages.	22
		24
(2)	It is sufficient to tender the book, newspaper or other document containing the alleged libel with the indictment, together with particulars showing precisely, by reference to pages, columns and lines, in what part of the book, newspaper or other document the alleged libel is to be found.	25
		26
		27
		28
		29
(3)	The particulars referred to in subsection (2) are taken to form part of the record of the proceedings.	30
		31
(4)	All proceedings may be taken as though the passages complained of had been set out in the indictment.	32
		33

85	Supreme Court rules may prescribe forms of indictments	1
(1)	Without limiting the rule-making powers conferred by the Supreme Court Act 1970 , rules may from time to time be made under that Act prescribing forms of indictments, records, informations, depositions, convictions, warrants and processes in all courts for any offence.	2 3 4 5 6
(2)	Any form prescribed by those rules is taken to be sufficient for the purpose, and to sufficiently state the offence, for which it is prescribed.	7 8 9
[30]	New Part 3, Division 6	10
	Insert after new section 85:	11
Division 6	Pleadings	12
86	Arraignment on charge of previous conviction	13
(1)	An accused person is not to be arraigned for any previous conviction charged in an indictment unless he or she is convicted of a subsequent offence charged in the indictment.	14 15 16
(2)	On the accused person's conviction of the subsequent offence:	17
(a)	the accused person is to be arraigned, and	18
(b)	the jury is to be charged, and	19
(c)	the trial is to proceed,	20
	in relation to the previous conviction.	21
(3)	In the trial for the subsequent offence, evidence of the previous conviction may not be admitted, except in reply to evidence of character, unless the accused person is convicted of the subsequent offence.	22 23 24 25
87	Guilty plea to offence not charged	26
(1)	If an accused person:	27
(a)	is arraigned on an indictment for an offence, and	28
(b)	can lawfully be convicted on the indictment of some other offence not charged in the indictment,	29 30
	he or she may plead "not guilty" of the offence charged in the indictment, but "guilty" of the other offence.	31 32

(2) The Crown may elect to accept the plea of “guilty” or may require the trial to proceed on the charge on which the accused person is arraigned.	1 2 3
88 Plea of “not guilty”	4
If an accused person arraigned on an indictment pleads “not guilty”, the accused person is taken to have put himself or herself on the country for trial, and the court is to order a jury for trial accordingly.	5 6 7 8
89 Refusal to plead	9
If an accused person who is arraigned stands mute, or will not answer directly to the indictment, the court may order a plea of “not guilty” to be entered on behalf of the accused person, and the plea so entered has the same effect as if the accused person had actually pleaded “not guilty”.	10 11 12 13 14
90 Plea of autrefois convict	15
(1) In any plea of autrefois convict, or of autrefois acquit, it is sufficient for the accused person to allege that he or she has been lawfully convicted or acquitted, as the case may be, of the offence charged in the indictment, without specifying the time or place of the previous conviction or acquittal.	16 17 18 19 20
(2) The issue of autrefois convict or autrefois acquit is to be determined by the court without the presence of a jury.	21 22
91 Change to guilty plea during trial	23
(1) If an accused person pleads “guilty” to an offence at any time after having been given into the charge of a jury, and the court accepts the plea, the court is to discharge the jury from giving a verdict in the matter and to find the accused person guilty of the offence.	24 25 26 27 28

[31] New Part 4	1
Insert after new section 91:	2
Part 4 Criminal procedure generally	3
Division 1 Application of Part	4
92 Application of Part	5
(1) This Part applies, to the extent that it is capable of being applied, to all offences, however arising (whether under an Act or at common law), whenever committed and in whatever court dealt with.	6 7 8 9
(2) This Part does not limit section 154 of the Justices Act 1902 with respect to the fees chargeable under that Act.	10 11
Division 2 General trial procedure	12
93 Practice as to entering the dock	13
The Judge may order the accused person to enter the dock or other place of arraignment or may allow him or her to remain on the floor of the court, and in either case to sit down, as the Judge considers appropriate.	14 15 16 17
94 Right to inspect depositions on trial	18
An accused person is entitled on his or her trial to inspect, without fee, all depositions taken against the person and returned to, or held by, the court before which he or she is on trial.	19 20 21 22
95 Abolition of an accused person's right to make unsworn statement or to give unsworn evidence	23 24
Any rule of law, procedure or practice that permits a person who is charged with the commission of a criminal offence to make an unsworn statement or to give unsworn evidence in answer to the charge is abolished.	25 26 27 28

96	Accused person may be defended by counsel	1
	An accused person is entitled to make full answer and defence by counsel.	2 3
97	Opening address to jury by accused person	4
(1)	An accused person or his or her counsel may address the jury immediately after the opening address of the prosecuting authority.	5 6 7
(2)	Any such opening address is to be limited generally to an address on:	8 9
(a)	the matters disclosed in the prosecuting authority's opening address, including those that are in dispute and those that are not in dispute, and	10 11 12
(b)	the matters to be raised by the accused person.	13
(3)	If the accused person intends to give evidence or to call any witness in support of the defence, the accused person or his or her counsel is entitled to open the case for the defence before calling evidence, whether or not an address has been made to the jury.	14 15 16 17 18
98	Closing address to jury by accused person	19
(1)	An accused person or his or her counsel may address the jury after the close of the evidence for the defence and any evidence in reply by the Crown and after the prosecuting authority has made a closing address to the jury or declined to make a closing address to the jury.	20 21 22 23 24
(2)	If, in the accused person's closing address, relevant facts are asserted that are not supported by any evidence that is before the jury, the court may grant leave for the Crown to make a supplementary address to the jury replying to any such assertion.	25 26 27 28 29
99	Summary by Judge	30
(1)	At the end of a criminal trial before a jury, a Judge need not summarise the evidence given in the trial if of the opinion that, in all the circumstances of the trial, a summary is not necessary.	31 32 33
(2)	This section applies despite any rule of law or practice to the contrary.	34 35

(3) Nothing in this section affects any aspect of a Judge's summing up function other than the summary of evidence in a trial.	1 2
100 Witnesses in mitigation	3
(1) After convicting an accused person of an offence, and before passing sentence, the court may summon witnesses and examine them on oath in respect of any matter in mitigation of the offence.	4 5 6 7
(2) The court may do so on application made by or on behalf of the Crown or by or on behalf of the accused person.	8 9
Division 3 Evidentiary provisions	10
101 Proof of service of notice to produce	11
An affidavit by:	12
(a) the Director of Public Prosecutions or the Solicitor for Public Prosecutions, or	13 14
(b) a member of the staff of the Director of Public Prosecutions, or	15 16
(c) a legal practitioner or legal practitioner's clerk, or	17
(d) the accused person, or	18
(e) a police officer,	19
as to the service of any notice to produce and of the time when it was served, with a copy of the notice annexed to the affidavit, is sufficient evidence of the service of the original of the notice and of the time when it was served.	20 21 22 23
102 Stealing goods from vessel or wharf	24
(1) This section applies to the following offences:	25
(a) any offence involving the stealing of property:	26
(i) from any vessel, barge, boat or train, or	27
(ii) from any dock, wharf, quay, railway yard or other railway premises, or	28 29
(iii) from any store or shed used in connection with and adjoining any such dock, wharf, quay, railway yard or other railway premises, or	30 31 32

(iv)	in the course of transit from any vessel, barge, boat or train, or from any store or shed used in connection with and adjoining such wharf, dock, quay, railway yard or other railway premises, or	1 2 3 4
(b)	any offence involving the receiving of property so stolen knowing it to have been stolen.	5 6
(2)	On the prosecution of any person for an offence to which this section applies:	7 8
(a)	evidence may be given of any writing, printing, or marks on any property alleged to have been stolen or received, or on any package containing such property, without producing or giving notice to produce the original writing, printing or marks, and	9 10 11 12 13
(b)	any document purporting to be a document of title to any property alleged to have been stolen or received:	14 15
(i)	is admissible in evidence on production and without further proof, and	16 17
(ii)	is evidence of the particulars contained in the document, and that the ownership of the property is in the consignee referred to in the document or his or her assignee.	18 19 20 21
(3)	In this section:	22
	document of title to property includes:	23
(a)	any bill of lading, India warrant, dock warrant, warehouse keeper's certificate, warrant, or order for the delivery or transfer of any goods or valuable thing, and	24 25 26
(b)	any bought and sold note or other document:	27
(i)	used in the ordinary course of business as proof of the possession or control of goods, or	28 29
(ii)	purporting to authorise, by endorsement or delivery, the possessor of such document to transfer or receive any goods thereby represented or therein mentioned or referred to.	30 31 32 33
	train includes any railway carriage, railway truck or other railway vehicle that is on any railway.	34 35

103	Incriminating statements admissible though on oath	1
	An incriminating statement made voluntarily by an accused person before any charge has been preferred against the accused person in respect of an indictable offence is not to be rejected merely because the statement was made on oath.	2 3 4 5
104	Compellability of spouses to give evidence in certain proceedings	6 7
	(1) In this section:	8
	(a) a reference to the husband or wife of an accused person includes a reference to a person living with the accused person as the husband or wife of the accused person on a bona fide domestic basis although not married to the accused person, and	9 10 11 12 13
	(b) a reference to a domestic violence offence is a reference to a domestic violence offence within the meaning of the Crimes Act 1900 , and	14 15 16
	(c) a reference to a domestic violence offence committed on the husband or wife of an accused person includes a reference to an offence of contravening a prohibition or restriction specified in an apprehended violence order that was made against the accused person and in respect of which the husband or wife was the protected person, and	17 18 19 20 21 22 23
	(d) a reference to a child assault offence is a reference to:	24
	(i) a prescribed sexual offence committed on a child under the age of 18 years, or	25 26
	(ii) an offence under, or mentioned in, section 24, 27, 28, 29, 30, 33, 33A, 35, 39, 41, 42, 43, 44, 46, 47, 48, 49, 58, 59 or 61 of the Crimes Act 1900 committed on a child under the age of 18 years, or	27 28 29 30 31
	(iii) an offence that, at the time it was committed, was a child assault offence for the purposes of this section or section 407AA of the Crimes Act 1900 , or	32 33 34 35
	(iv) an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in subparagraph (i), (ii) or (iii), and	36 37 38

- (e) a reference to a child assault offence committed on a child includes a reference to an offence of contravening a prohibition or restriction specified in an apprehended violence order that was made against the accused person and in respect of which that child was the protected person. 1

3
5
6
- (2) The husband or wife of an accused person in proceedings in any court: 7 8
- (a) for a domestic violence offence (other than an offence arising from a negligent act or omission) committed on the husband or wife, or 9 10
11
- (b) for a child assault offence (other than an offence arising from a negligent act or omission) committed on: 12
13
- (i) a child living in the household of the accused person, or 14
15
- (ii) a child who, although not living in the household of the accused person, is a child of the accused person and the husband or wife, 16
17
18
- is compellable to give evidence in the proceedings, either for the prosecution or for the defence, without the consent of the accused person. 19 20
21
- (3) The husband or wife of an accused person is not compellable to give evidence for the prosecution as referred to in subsection (2) if the husband or wife has applied to, and been excused by, the court. 22
23
25
- (4) A court may excuse the husband or wife of an accused person from giving evidence for the prosecution as referred to in subsection (2) if satisfied: 26
27
28
30
31
- (b) that it is relatively unimportant to the case to establish the facts in relation to which it appears that the husband or wife is to be asked to give evidence, or there is other evidence available to establish those facts, and 32
33
34
35
- (c) that the offence with which the accused person is charged is of a minor nature. 36
37

(5) When excusing the husband or wife of an accused person from giving evidence under subsection (4), the court:	1
(a) must state the reasons for doing so, and	2
(b) must cause those reasons to be recorded in writing in a form prescribed by the regulations.	3
(6) An application under this section by the husband or wife of an accused person to be excused from giving evidence is to be made and determined in the absence of the jury (if any) and the accused person, but in the presence of the accused person's counsel.	4
(7) A court may conduct the hearing of an application under this section in any manner it thinks fit, and is not bound to observe rules of law governing the admission of evidence but may obtain information on any matter in any manner it thinks fit.	5
(8) The fact that the husband or wife of an accused person in proceedings for an offence has applied to be excused, or has been excused, from giving evidence in the proceedings is not to be made the subject of any comment by the court or by any party in the proceedings.	6
105 Admissibility of evidence relating to sexual experience	7
(1) This section applies to prescribed sexual offence proceedings.	8
(2) Evidence relating to the sexual reputation of the complainant is inadmissible.	9
(3) Evidence that discloses or implies:	10
(a) that the complainant has or may have had sexual experience or a lack of sexual experience, or	11
(b) has or may have taken part or not taken part in any sexual activity,	12
is inadmissible.	13
(4) Subsection (3) does not apply:	14
(a) if the evidence:	15
(i) is of the complainant's sexual experience or lack of sexual experience, or of sexual activity or lack of sexual activity taken part in by the	16

	offence, and	3
(ii)	is of events that are alleged to form part of a	4
	connected set of circumstances in which the	5
	alleged prescribed sexual offence was	6
	committed,	7
(b)	if the evidence relates to a relationship that was existing	8
	or recent at the time of the commission of the alleged	9
	prescribed sexual offence, being a relationship between	10
	the accused person and the complainant,	11
(c)	if:	12
(i)	the accused person is alleged to have had sexual	13
	intercourse (as defined in section 61H (1) of the	14
	Crimes Act 1900) with the complainant, and the	15
	accused person does not concede the sexual	16
	intercourse so alleged, and	17
(ii)	the evidence is relevant to whether the presence	18
	of semen, pregnancy, disease or injury is	19
	attributable to the sexual intercourse alleged to	20
	have been had by the accused person,	21
(d)	if the evidence is relevant to:	22
(i)	whether at the time of the commission of the	23
	alleged prescribed sexual offence there was	24
	present in the complainant a disease that, at any	25
	relevant time, was absent in the accused person,	26
	or	27
(ii)	whether at any relevant time there was absent in	28
	the complainant a disease that, at the time of the	29 commission of the alleged prescribed sexual	30
	offence, was present in the accused person,	31
(e)	if the evidence is relevant to whether the allegation that	32
	the prescribed sexual offence was committed by the	33
	accused person was first made following a realisation or	34
	discovery of the presence of pregnancy or disease in the	35 complainant (being a realisation or discovery that took	36
	place after the commission of the alleged prescribed	37
	sexual offence),	38

- (f) if the evidence has been given by the complainant in cross-examination by or on behalf of the accused person, being evidence given in answer to a question that may, pursuant to subsection (6), be asked, and if the probative value of the evidence outweighs any distress, humiliation or embarrassment that the complainant might suffer as a result of its admission.
- (5) A witness must not be asked:
- (a) to give evidence that is inadmissible under subsection (2) or (3), or
- (b) by or on behalf of the accused person, to give evidence that is or may be admissible under subsection (4) unless the court has previously decided that the evidence would, if given, be admissible.
- (6) If the court is satisfied:
- (a) that it has been disclosed or implied in the case for the prosecution against the accused person that the complainant has or may have, during a specified period or without reference to any period:
- (i) had sexual experience, or a lack of sexual experience, of a general or specified nature, or
- (ii) had taken part in, or not taken part in, sexual activity of a general or specified nature, and
- (b) the accused person might be unfairly prejudiced if the complainant could not be cross-examined by or on behalf of the accused person in relation to the disclosure or implication,
- the complainant may be so cross-examined, but only in relation to the experience or activity of the nature (if any) so specified during the period (if any) so specified.
- (7) On the trial of a person, any question as to the admissibility of evidence under subsection (2) or (3) or the right to cross-examine under subsection (6) is to be decided by the court in the absence of the jury.

- (8) If the court decides that evidence is admissible under subsection (4), the court must, before the evidence is given, record or cause to be recorded in writing the nature and scope of the evidence that is so admissible and the reasons for that decision.
- (9) In this section:
- accused person*, in relation to any proceedings, means the person who stands, or any of the persons who stand, charged in those proceedings with a prescribed sexual offence.
- complainant*, in relation to any proceedings, means the person, or any of the persons, on whom a prescribed sexual offence with which the accused person stands charged in those proceedings is alleged to have been committed.
- prescribed sexual offence proceedings* means proceedings in which a person stands charged with a prescribed sexual offence, whether the person stands charged with that offence alone or together with any other offence (as an additional or alternative count) and whether or not the person is liable, on the charge, to be found guilty of any other offence.
- 106 Disclosure of address or telephone number of witness
- (1) A witness in proceedings for an offence, or a person who makes a written statement that is likely to be produced in proceedings for an offence, is not required to disclose his or her address or telephone number, unless:
- (a) the address or telephone number is a materially relevant part of the evidence, or
- (b) the court makes an order requiring the disclosure.
- (2) An application for such an order may be made by the prosecution or the defence.
- (3) The court may make such an order only if it is satisfied that disclosure is not likely to present a reasonably ascertainable risk to the welfare or protection of any person or that the interests of justice outweigh any such risk.

(4)	An address or telephone number that is not required to be disclosed and that is contained in a written statement may, without reference to the person who made the written statement, be deleted from the statement, or rendered illegible, before the statement is produced in court or given to the accused person.	1 2 3 4 5 6
(5)	A written statement is not inadmissible as evidence on the ground that it either does or does not disclose any such address or telephone number as referred to in this section.	7 8 9
(6)	This section does not prevent the disclosure of an address in a written statement if the statement does not identify it as a particular person's address.	10 11 12
(7)	This section does not affect the operation of section 48BA of the Justices Act 1902 .	13 14
(8)	In this section: address includes a private, business or official address. telephone number includes a private, business or official telephone number.	15 16 17 18
107	Warning to be given by Judge in relation to lack of complaint in certain sexual offence proceedings	19 20
(1)	This section applies if, on the trial of a person for a prescribed sexual offence, evidence is given or a question is asked of a witness that tends to suggest:	21 22 23
(a)	an absence of complaint in respect of the commission of the alleged offence by the person on whom the offence is alleged to have been committed, or	24 25 26
(b)	delay by that person in making any such complaint.	27
(2)	In circumstances to which this section applies, the Judge:	28
(a)	must warn the jury that absence of complaint or delay in complaining does not necessarily indicate that the allegation that the offence was committed is false, and	29 30 31

108 Admissions by suspects	1
(1) This section applies to an admission:	2
(a) that was made by an accused person who, at the time when the admission was made, was or could reasonably have been suspected by an investigating official of having committed an offence, and	3 4 5 6
(b) that was made in the course of official questioning, and	7
(c) that relates to an indictable offence, other than an indictable offence that can be dealt with summarily without the consent of the accused person.	8 9 10
(2) Evidence of an admission to which this section applies is not admissible unless:	11 12
(a) there is available to the court:	13
(i) a tape recording made by an investigating official of the interview in the course of which the admission was made, or	14 15 16
(ii) if the prosecution establishes that there was a reasonable excuse as to why a tape recording referred to in subparagraph (i) could not be made, a tape recording of an interview with the person who made the admission, being an interview about the making and terms of the admission in the course of which the person states that he or she made an admission in those terms, or	17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
(b) the prosecution establishes that there was a reasonable excuse as to why a tape recording referred to in paragraph (a) could not be made.	26 27 28
(3) The hearsay rule and the opinion rule (within the meaning of the Evidence Act 1995) do not prevent a tape recording from being admitted and used in proceedings before the court as mentioned in subsection (2).	29 30 31 32
(4) In this section:	33
investigating official means:	34
(a) a police officer (other than a police officer who is engaged in covert investigations under the orders of a superior), or	35 36 37

(b)	a person appointed by or under an Act (other than a person who is engaged in covert investigations under the orders of a superior) whose functions include functions in respect of the prevention or investigation of offences prescribed by the regulations.	1 2 3 4 5
	official questioning means questioning by an investigating official in connection with the investigation of the commission or possible commission of an offence.	6 7 8
	reasonable excuse includes:	9
(a)	a mechanical failure, or	10
(b)	the refusal of a person being questioned to have the questioning electronically recorded, or	11 12
(c)	the lack of availability of recording equipment within a period in which it would be reasonable to detain the person being questioned.	13 14 15
	tape recording includes:	16
(a)	audio recording, or	17
(b)	video recording, or	18
(c)	a video recording accompanied by a separately but contemporaneously recorded audio recording.	19 20
Division 4	Medical examinations and law enforcement devices	21 22
109	Medical examinations	23
(1)	Unless otherwise directed by the court, it is not necessary for a person who has made a scientific examination of any article or living person or dead body to give evidence of the result of the examination.	24 25 26 27
(2)	A certificate under the hand of any such person stating:	28
(a)	that he or she has made the examination, and	29
(b)	the nature of his or her scientific qualifications, and	30
(c)	the facts and conclusions he or she has arrived at,	31
	is admissible as evidence of the matters stated in the certificate.	32

- (3) If such a certificate is tendered by the prosecuting authority, a court may not dispose of the case summarily except with the consent of the accused person. 1
2
3
- 110 Law enforcement devices 4
- (1) A certificate: 5
- (a) that would, by virtue of section 4AB, 4AC, 4DA, 4E, 4G or 5AB of the Traffic Act 1909, be admissible in proceedings for an offence under that Act as evidence of the particulars certified in and by the certificate, or 6 7
9
- (b) that would, by virtue of section 24, 25 or 26 of the Marine (Boating Safety—Alcohol and Drugs) Act 1991, be admissible in proceedings for an offence under that Act as evidence of the particulars certified in and by the certificate, 10
11
12
13
14
- is admissible in all criminal proceedings as evidence of those particulars. 15 16
- (2) Despite subsection (1), such a certificate is not admissible in proceedings under the Drug Misuse and Trafficking Act 1985 as evidence of the use or administration, by the person to whom the certificate relates, of any prohibited drug within the meaning of that Act. 17
18
19
20
21
- (3) Evidence is not required in any criminal proceedings: 22
- (a) as to the accuracy or reliability of any approved camera detection device, approved camera recording device, approved speed measuring device or breath analysing instrument to which such a certificate relates, or 23
26
- (b) as to the manner in which any approved camera detection device, approved camera recording device, approved speed measuring device or breath analysing instrument to which such a certificate relates was operated, 27
28
29
30
31
- unless evidence is adduced that the device or instrument was not accurate, was not reliable or was not properly operated. 32
33

- (4) A photograph that would, by virtue of section 4AC or 4DA of the Traffic Act 1900, be admissible in proceedings under that Act as evidence of the matters shown or recorded on the photograph is admissible in all criminal proceedings as evidence of those matters. 1
2
3
5
- (5) In this section, approved camera detection device, approved camera recording device, approved speed measuring device and breath analysing instrument have the same meanings as they have in the Traffic Act 1909. 6

Division 5 Depositions and written statements 10

111 Depositions by persons dangerously ill 11

- (1) If it appears to a justice that: 12
- (a) a person who is able to give material information about an indictable offence is dangerously ill, and 13
14
- (b) the person's evidence will probably be lost if not immediately taken, 15
16
- the justice may take the deposition of the person in connection with the offence in the same way as if a prosecution for the offence were then pending before the court. 17
18
19
- (2) The deposition must be in the form prescribed by the regulations and must be signed by the justice. 20 21
- (3) As soon as practicable after the deposition is taken, a copy of the deposition must be delivered to the Attorney General, to the Director of Public Prosecutions and to each person whom the deposition tends to incriminate. 22
23
25
- (4) If practicable, each person whom the deposition tends to incriminate is entitled, before being committed or placed on trial, to be given full opportunity to cross-examine the deponent. 26
27
28
29
- (5) If in proceedings against an accused person: 30
- (a) for the offence to which the deposition relates, or 31

- (b) for the murder or manslaughter of the deponent, in the case of his or her death or alleged death by reason of the offence,
- it is proved to the satisfaction of the court that the deponent is dead, or so ill as not to be able to travel or to give evidence without a risk of endangering the deponent's life, the deposition may be admitted as evidence for or against the accused person, whether or not it was taken in the presence or hearing of the prosecuting authority or the accused person.
- 112 Depositions tendered by prosecution
- (1) A deposition may be admitted as evidence for the prosecution at the trial of an accused person on proof on oath of each of the following matters:
- (a) that the deponent:
- (i) is dead, or so ill as not to be able to travel or to give evidence without a risk of endangering the deponent's life, or
- (ii) is absent from Australia,
- (b) that the deposition was recorded:
- (i) by or in the presence of the justice before whom it was taken, and
- (ii) in the presence of the accused person or during any period when the accused person (having been excused under section 41 (1B) of the Justices Act 1902) was absent,
- (c) that the accused person, or his or her counsel, had full opportunity to cross-examine the witness, or that the accused person (having been excused under section 41 (1B) of the Justices Act 1902) was absent when the deposition was taken and was not represented by counsel.
- (2) The deposition:
- (a) must be in writing, signed by the justice by or before whom the deposition was taken, or
- (b) must be in the form of a written transcript of matter recorded by means, other than writing, authorised by law for the recording of depositions.

- (3) If the deposition is in the form of a written transcript referred to in subsection (2) (b), it must be proved on oath: 1
2
- (a) that the record so made is a true record of the matter so 3 deposed, and 4
- (b) that the transcript of the record is a correct transcript of 5 that record. 6
- (4) If it appears from the deposition: 7
- (a) that it was made in the presence of the accused person, 8 and 9
- (b) that the accused person, or his or her counsel, had full 10
opportunity to cross-examine the witness, 11
- the deposition is taken to have been so made and the accused 12
person, or his or her counsel, is taken to have had such an 13 opportunity, unless proved to the contrary. 14
- (5) If it appears from the deposition: 15
- (a) that it was made while the accused person (having been 16 excused under section 41 (1B) of the Justices Act 1902) 17 was absent, and 18
- (b) that the accused person was not represented by counsel 19
at that time, 20
- the deposition is taken to have been so made and the accused 21
person is taken to have not been represented by counsel, unless 22 proved to the contrary. 23
- (6) In this section, justice includes a coroner holding office under 24
the Coroners Act 1980. 25

113 Depositions tendered by accused person 26

- (1) The deposition of any witness called and examined before a 27 justice by and on behalf of the accused person may, if the 28 accused person so requires, be admitted as evidence in his or 29 her defence at the trial: 30
- (a) if the witness: 31
- (i) is dead, or so ill as not to be able to travel or to 32
give evidence without a risk of endangering the 33
witness's life, or 34
- (ii) is absent from Australia, or 35

- (b) if the committing justice has certified, before committing the accused person for trial, that in the opinion of the justice:
- (i) the evidence of the witness is material, and
 - (ii) the witness is willing to attend the trial, but is unable to bear the expense of attendance.
- (2) A deposition may not be admitted as evidence on the ground referred to in subsection (1) (b) if the witness has, in due time before the trial, been subpoenaed by the Crown.
- (3) In this section, justice includes a coroner holding office under the Coroners Act 1980.
- 114 Evidentiary effect of certain transcripts
- (1) If a deposition referred to in section 112 or 113 is in the form of a written transcript of matter recorded by means, other than writing, authorised by law for the recording of depositions:
- (a) the record so made is taken to be a true record of the matter so deposed, and
 - (b) the transcript of the record is taken to be a correct transcript of that record,
- unless proved to the contrary.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only to:
- (a) a transcript made in the form of shorthand notes, being a transcript identified by, and signed in the handwriting of, the person purporting to have made those notes, or
 - (b) a transcript made by other means (other than writing) authorised by law for the recording of depositions, being a transcript certified in the manner prescribed by the regulations made under the Justices Act 1902.
- 115 Depositions taken during pre-trial investigations
- A deposition taken on the preliminary or other investigation of an indictable offence:
- (a) may be admitted as evidence on the trial of the accused person for any other offence, whether of the same or of a different kind, if it would be admissible on his or her trial for the offence in respect of which it was taken, and

(b)	may be proved in the same manner as if the accused person were on trial for that offence.	1 2
116	Written statements admitted in committal proceedings	3
(1)	This section applies to:	4
(a)	a written statement the whole or any part of which has been admitted as evidence under section 48A of the Justices Act 1902 , including any part of the statement that has been rejected under section 48F of that Act,	5 6 7 8
(b)	a written statement the whole or any part of which has been tendered as evidence under section 51A of the Justices Act 1902 ,	9 10 11
	referred to in this section as a prescribed written statement .	12
(2)	Except in so far as the court otherwise orders, a prescribed written statement may be admitted as evidence for the prosecution at the trial of the accused person on proof on oath that the person who made the statement:	13 14 15 16
(a)	is dead, or so ill as not to be able to travel or to give evidence without a risk of endangering the person's life, or	17 18 19
(b)	is absent from Australia.	20
(3)	If the accused person so requires, a prescribed written statement may be admitted as evidence in the accused person's defence at the trial of the accused person whenever:	21 22 23
(a)	the person who made the statement:	24
(i)	is dead, or so ill as not to be able to travel or to give evidence without a risk of endangering the person's life, or	25 26 27
(ii)	is absent from Australia, or	28
(b)	the committing justice has certified, before committing the person for trial, that in the opinion of the justice:	29 30
(i)	the evidence of the person who made the statement is material, and	31 32
(ii)	the person is willing to attend the trial, but is unable to bear the expense of attendance.	33 34

(4)	A statement may not be admitted as evidence on the ground referred to in subsection (3) (b) if the person who made the statement has, in due time before the trial, been subpoenaed by the Crown.	1 2 3 4
(5)	A prescribed written statement made in respect of an indictable offence may be admitted as evidence on the trial of the accused person for any other offence, whether of the same or of a different kind, if it would be admissible on his or her trial for the offence in respect of which it was made.	5 6 7 8 9
(6)	If at a trial it appears to the court that the whole or any part of a prescribed written statement is inadmissible, the court may reject the statement or that part, as the case may be, as evidence.	10 11 12 13
Division 6	Restrictions on disclosure of evidence in certain sexual offence proceedings	14 15
117	Application of Division	16
	This Division applies to and in respect of the following offences:	17 18
(a)	a prescribed sexual offence, or	19
(b)	an offence under section 66, 73, 74, 78A, 78B, 78N, 78O, 78Q, 79, 80, 86, 87, 89, 90, 91A, 91B, 91D, 91E, 91F or 91G of the Crimes Act 1900 , or	20 21 22
(c)	an offence that, at the time it was committed, was an offence to which this Division, or section 77A or 578 of the Crimes Act 1900 , applied, or	23 24 25
(d)	an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).	26 27 28
118	Proceedings in camera in certain cases	29
(1)	Any proceeding, or any part of any proceeding, in respect of an offence to which this Division applies is, if the court so directs, to be held in camera.	30 31 32

- (2) If the court makes a direction under this section, it may (either absolutely or subject to conditions) exempt any person from that direction to the extent necessary to allow that person to be present as a support for a person giving evidence or for any other purpose that the court thinks fit. 1
4
5
- (3) The court may make a direction under this section on its own motion or at the request of any party to the proceedings. 6
7
- (4) In determining whether to make a direction under this section the court is to consider the following matters: 8 9
- (a) the need of the complainant to have any person excluded from those proceedings, 10 11
- (b) the need of the complainant to have any person present in those proceedings, 12
13
- (c) the interests of justice, 14
- (d) any other matter that the court thinks relevant. 15
- (5) In this section: 16
- complainant, in relation to any proceedings for an offence, means the person, or any of the persons, on whom the offence is alleged to have been committed and includes: 17
19
- (a) in relation to an offence under section 91D, 91E or 91F of the Crimes Act 1900, the person under the age of 18 years who is alleged to have participated in an act of child prostitution, and 20 21
22
23
- (b) in relation to an offence under section 91G of the Crimes Act 1900, the person under the age of 18 years who is alleged to have been used for pornographic purposes. 24
25
26
27
- 119 Publication of evidence may be forbidden in certain cases 28
- (1) In any proceedings against a person for an offence to which this Division applies, the court may from time to time make an order forbidding publication of the whole or any part of the evidence tendered in the proceedings or of any report or account of that evidence. 29
30
31
32
33

(2) If the prosecuting authority or the accused person indicates to the court that it is desired that any particular matter given in evidence should be available for publication, no such order is to be made in respect of that matter.	1 2 3 4
(3) Any person who contravenes an order under this section is guilty of a summary offence and liable to a maximum penalty of 20 penalty units.	5 6 7
(4) This section is subject to any Act or law under which evidence relating to a child under the age of 18 years, or a report or account of that evidence, may not be published.	8 9 10
Division 7 Miscellaneous	11
120 No court fees to be taken in criminal cases	12
It is unlawful to receive any court fee for the issuing of process on behalf of a person charged with an indictable offence in any court, or to receive a fee from any such person issuing any writ or recording any appearance or plea to an indictment.	13 14 15 16
121 Witnesses neglecting to attend trial captured under warrant may be admitted to bail	17 18
If a person bound by a bail undertaking, or served with a subpoena, to attend as a witness in any court at a trial:	19 20
(a) fails to appear when called in open court, either at such trial, or on the day appointed for such trial, and	21 22
(b) is arrested under a warrant issued by the court,	23
bail may be taken before any justice for his or her appearance at the trial.	24 25
122 On trial for perjury: presumption of authority to administer oath	26
On a trial for perjury, the person before whom the perjury is alleged to have been committed is presumed to have had authority to administer the oath, or take the declaration, or affirmation, unless the contrary is shown.	27 28 29 30

123	Joint trial in case of perjury	1
	If:	2
	(a) a number of persons are severally indicted for perjury or false swearing, and	3 4
	(b) the statements alleged to be false:	5
	(i) are alleged to have been made on the same occasion, before the same court or tribunal and in respect of the same subject-matter, and	6 7 8
	(ii) are in each case to the same effect, whether in identical terms or not,	9 10
	all of those persons may be tried together, at the same time and before the same jury, provided that each person is to have his or her full right of challenge.	11 12 13
124	Alternative verdict of attempt on trial for any indictable offence	14
	If, on the trial of a person for any indictable offence, the jury is not satisfied that the person is guilty of the offence, but is satisfied that he or she is guilty of:	15 16 17
	(a) an attempt to commit the offence, or	18
	(b) an assault with intent to commit the offence,	19
	it may acquit the person of the offence charged and find the person guilty of the attempt or assault, and the person is liable to punishment accordingly.	20 21 22
125	No further prosecution after trial for serious indictable offence where alternative verdict possible	23 24
	If under any Act a person who is tried for a serious indictable offence may be acquitted of that offence but found guilty of some other offence, the person is not liable to further prosecution on the same facts for that other offence.	25 26 27 28
126	Restitution of property	29
	(1) In any criminal proceedings in which it is alleged that the accused person has unlawfully acquired or disposed of property, the court may order that the property be restored to such person as appears to the court to be lawfully entitled to its possession.	30 31 32 33 34

(2) Such an order may be made whether or not the court finds the person guilty of any offence with respect to the acquisition or disposal of the property.	1 2 3
(3) Such an order may not be made in respect of:	4
(a) any valuable security given by the accused person in payment of a liability to which the person was subject when the payment was made, or	5 6 7
(b) any negotiable instrument accepted by the accused person as valuable consideration in circumstances in which the person had no notice, or cause to suspect, that the instrument had been dishonestly come by.	8 9 10 11
127 When case not to be proceeded with: accused person to be released from custody	12 13
(1) On deciding that no further proceedings are to be taken with respect to a person who is in custody on remand, whether or not the person has been committed for trial, the Attorney General or Director of Public Prosecutions may cause a certificate to that effect, in the form prescribed by the regulations, to be delivered to the Supreme Court.	14 15 16 17 18 19
(2) On receipt of such a certificate, the Supreme Court may, by order, direct that the person to whom the certificate relates be released from custody.	20 21 22

	77A Definitions	20
	In this Division:	21
	aggrieved person , in relation to an offence, means a person	22
	who has sustained loss through or by reason of:	23
	(a) an offence for which the offender has been convicted, or	24
		25

(b)	a further offence that a court has taken into account under Division 3 of Part 3 in imposing a penalty for an offence for which the offender has been convicted.	1 2 3
	court means the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeal, the District Court or a Local Court.	4 5
	direction for compensation means a direction for compensation under section 77B.	6 7
77B	Directions for compensation	8
(1)	If a person is convicted by a court of an offence, the court may (on the conviction or at any time afterwards) on notice given to the offender direct that a specified sum be paid out of the property of the offender:	9 10 11 12
(a)	to any aggrieved person, or	13
(b)	to any aggrieved persons in such proportions as may be specified in the direction,	14 15
	by way of compensation for any loss sustained through, or by reason of, the offence or, if applicable, any further offence that the court has taken into account under Division 3 of Part 3 in imposing a penalty for an offence for which the offender has been convicted.	16 17 18 19 20
77C	Restrictions on court's power to give directions for compensation	24 25
	A court may not give a direction for compensation:	26
(a)	for any loss for which compensation is payable under Part 2 or under Division 1 of this Part, or	27 28
(b)	for an amount in excess of the maximum amount that, in its civil jurisdiction, the court is empowered to award in proceedings for the recovery of a debt.	29 30 31
77D	Factors to be taken into consideration	32
	In determining whether or not to give a direction for compensation, and in determining the sum to be paid under such a direction, the court must have regard to:	33 34 35

(a)	any behaviour (including past criminal activity), condition, attitude or disposition of the aggrieved person that directly or indirectly contributed to the loss sustained by the aggrieved person, and	1 2 3 4
(b)	any amount that has been paid to the aggrieved person or which the aggrieved person is entitled to be paid by way of damages awarded in civil proceedings in respect of substantially the same facts as those on which the offender was convicted, and	5 6 7 8 9
(c)	such other matters as it considers relevant.	10
77E	Payment of sum directed	11
	Subject to section 9 of the Criminal Appeal Act 1912 and to the provisions of the Justices Act 1902 , any sum that a court directs to be paid by an offender to an aggrieved person under a direction for compensation must be paid immediately, or within such period (if any) as is specified in the direction, to the registrar or clerk of the court for payment to the aggrieved person.	12 13 14 15 16 17 18
77F	Enforcement of directions for compensation	19
(1)	If a court gives a direction for compensation and the whole or any part of the amount specified in the direction is not paid in accordance with the direction, the registrar or clerk of the court must, on the application of the aggrieved person, issue to the aggrieved person a certificate:	20 21 22 23 24
(a)	that identifies the direction, and	25
(b)	that specifies the offender, and	26
(c)	that specifies the amount required by the direction to be paid that has not, as at the date of the certificate, been paid to the registrar or clerk.	27 28 29
(2)	If a certificate is issued under this section, the registrar or clerk must not subsequently accept any payment from the offender in respect of the direction for compensation identified in the certificate.	30 31 32 33

- (3) An aggrieved person may file such a certificate in the office or registry of a court having jurisdiction to order payment of the amount specified in the certificate, and the registrar or clerk of that court must immediately enter judgment in favour of the aggrieved person against the offender specified in the certificate for:
- (a) the amount specified in the certificate as having not been paid, and
 - (b) any fees payable to the registrar or clerk in respect of the filing of the certificate.
- (4) A direction for compensation may only be enforced in accordance with this section and any amount not paid is not payable from any public money.
- 77G Effect of directions for compensation on subsequent civil proceedings
- (1) This section applies to civil proceedings commenced or maintained in respect of a loss sustained by a person in respect of whom a direction for compensation has been given on the basis of the same facts as those on which the civil proceedings are based.
- (2) A direction for compensation does not affect a person's right to commence or maintain civil proceedings, and damages in the civil proceedings must be assessed without regard to the direction.
- (3) The judgment of the court in which the civil proceedings are determined:
- (a) must not be entered in respect of so much of the amount of damages assessed by the court as is equivalent to the sum of the amounts that have been paid under the direction for compensation, and
 - (b) must not be enforced, except with the leave of the court, in respect of so much of the amount of damages assessed by the court as is equivalent to the sum of the amounts that have not been paid under the direction for compensation.

77H Directions for compensation not appealable on certain grounds

An appeal does not lie against a direction for compensation merely because, in civil proceedings arising from substantially the same facts as those on which the offender was convicted, the aggrieved person is awarded a lesser amount in damages than the amount of compensation required to be paid by the direction.
