- (3) The applicant must provide (either orally or in writing) such further information as the authorised officer requires concerning the grounds on which the warrant is being sought.
- (4) Nothing in this section requires an applicant for a warrant to disclose the identity of a person from whom information was obtained if the applicant is satisfied that to do so might jeopardise the safety of any person.

- (2) An authorised officer may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for the police officer's suspicion, issue a warrant authorising any police officer:
 - (a) to enter the dwelling, and
 - (b) to investigate whether a domestic violence offence has taken place or to take action to prevent the commission or further commission of a domestic violence offence, or both.

Note. For provisions relating to applications for warrants, and other related matters, see section 59.

- (3) A police officer who so enters a dwelling is to remain in the dwelling only as long as is necessary to take the actions required or permitted by this Part.

86 Police may enter and search for firearms (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 357I)

 - (a) a domestic violence offence is being, or may have been recently, committed, or is imminent, or is likely to be committed, otherwise than in a dwelling, and

- (b) any of the persons concerned may have a firearm in a dwelling, must apply to an authorised officer for the issue of a search warrant.
- (3) In addition to any other powers of an authorised officer under Part 5, an authorised officer who issues a search warrant that a police officer is required to apply for under this section may, in the warrant, authorise any police officer:
 - (a) to enter and search the dwelling concerned for firearms, and
 - (b) to seize and detain any firearms that may be found in the dwelling.
- (4) This section does not apply to a police officer if the circumstances are such that the police officer has power to search and seize a dangerous article under another provision of this Act or another law.

may search the dwelling for the dangerous article and seize and detain the dangerous article.

Part 7 Crime scenes

Note. Safeguards relating to the exercise of powers under this Part are set out in Part 15.

- (c) stay on the premises for those purposes.

89 Application of Part to premises

- (1) This Part applies to premises of any kind, whether or not a public place.

90 When crime scene may be established

- (1) A crime scene may be established on premises by a police officer if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that:
 - (a) an offence committed in connection with a traffic accident that has resulted in the death of or serious injury to a person is being, or was, or may have been, committed on the premises and that it is reasonably necessary to establish a crime scene in or on the premises to preserve, or search for and gather, evidence of the commission of that offence, or
 - (b) a serious indictable offence is being, or was, or may have been, committed on the premises and it is reasonably necessary to establish a crime scene in or on the premises to preserve, or search for and gather, evidence of the commission of that offence, or

- (c) there may be in or on the premises evidence of the commission of a serious indictable offence that may have been committed elsewhere and it is reasonably necessary to establish a crime scene in or on the premises to preserve, or search for and gather, evidence of the commission of that offence.
- (2) To avoid doubt, a crime scene may be established, crime scene powers may be exercised and a crime scene warrant applied for with respect to an act or omission that is a serious indictable offence even though the act or omission occurred outside New South Wales and was not an offence against the law of New South Wales, if the act or omission if done, or omitted to be done, in New South Wales would constitute a serious indictable offence.

91 Establishment of crime scene

- (1) A police officer may establish a crime scene on premises in any way that is reasonably appropriate in the circumstances.
- (2) A police officer who establishes a crime scene must, if reasonably appropriate in the circumstances, give the public notice that the premises are a crime scene.

- (1) A police officer who establishes a crime scene may exercise any of the crime scene powers set out in section 95 (1) (a)–(f) if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to do so to preserve evidence of the commission of an offence in relation to which the crime scene was established.
- (2) A police officer who establishes a crime scene may exercise any of the other powers set out in section 95 (1), but only if:
 - (a) the police officer or another police officer applies for a crime scene warrant in respect of the crime scene, or

- (3) A police officer may exercise crime scene powers for a period of not more than 3 hours, commencing when the crime scene is established (as determined in accordance with the regulations), unless the police officer obtains a crime scene warrant.

- (4) A crime scene may not be established in the same premises more than once in a 24 hour period (whether by the same or another police officer) unless a crime scene warrant is obtained in respect of the second and any subsequent occasion.

93 Notice to senior police officer where warrant not required

If a crime scene is established for a period of 3 hours or less, the police officer who establishes the crime scene must notify a senior police officer of that fact.

94 Crime scene warrants

- (1) A police officer may apply to an authorised officer for a crime scene warrant if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that it is necessary to exercise crime scene powers at a crime scene for the purpose of preserving, or searching for and gathering, evidence of the commission of:
- (a) a serious indictable offence, or
 - (b) an offence that is being, or was, or may have been, committed in connection with a traffic accident that has resulted in the death of or serious injury to a person.
- (2) The authorised officer may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so, issue a crime scene warrant authorising a police officer to enter premises and exercise all reasonably necessary crime scene powers at, or in relation to, a specified crime scene.
- (3) A police officer who obtains a crime scene warrant may, in accordance with the warrant and this Part, exercise all reasonably necessary crime scene powers.

Note. For provisions relating generally to applications for crime scene warrants and other matters, see section 59.

95 Crime scene powers

- (1) A police officer may, in accordance with this Part and any relevant crime scene warrant, exercise the following functions at, or in relation to, a crime scene established under this Part:

 - (b) a power to guard the thing in or on the crime scene.

- (3) Nothing in this Part prevents a police officer who is lawfully on premises from exercising a crime scene power or doing any other thing, if the occupier of the premises consents.

Note. Under section 99 a police officer may arrest and take before an authorised officer to be dealt with according to law any person found in or on the premises whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds of having committed an offence.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

97 Search warrants not affected

Nothing in this Part prevents a police officer from applying for a search warrant under Part 5, or exercising any other function under this Act at, or in relation to, a crime scene or affects the exercise of any such function.

98 Part does not confer additional entry powers

Nothing in this Part (other than the provisions relating to crime scene warrants) confers on a police officer any additional power to enter premises or limits any power that a police officer has to enter premises.

Part 8 Powers relating to arrest

Note.

- 1 A police officer also has the power, under section 50 of the Bail Act 1978, to arrest a person who breaches bail undertakings or agreements, or who the police officer believes on reasonable grounds is about to do so.
- 2 Safeguards relating to arrests by police officers, including the requirement to state the reason for an arrest, are set out in Part 15.

99 Power of police officers to arrest without warrant (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 352, Cth Act, s 3W)

 - (b) to prevent a repetition or continuation of the offence or the commission of another offence,
 - (c) to prevent the concealment, loss or destruction of evidence relating to the offence,
 - (d) to prevent harassment of, or interference with, a person who may be required to give evidence in proceedings in respect of the offence,

- (4) A police officer who arrests a person under this section must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, take the person, and any property found on the person, before an authorised officer to be dealt with according to law.

100 Power of other persons to arrest without warrant (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 352)

- (1) A person (other than a police officer) may, without a warrant, arrest a person if:
- (a) the person is in the act of committing an offence under any Act or statutory instrument, or
 - (b) the person has just committed any such offence, or
 - (c) the person has committed a serious indictable offence for which the person has not been tried.
- (2) A person who arrests another person under this section must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, take the person, and any property found on the person, before an authorised officer to be dealt with according to law.

101 Power to arrest with warrant (cf common law)

- (1) A police officer acting in accordance with a warrant issued under any Act or law may arrest or deal with the person named in the warrant in accordance with the warrant.
- (2) The police officer may take action whether or not the warrant is in his or her possession.

102 Power to arrest persons who are unlawfully at large (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 352AA)

- (1) A police officer may, with or without a warrant, arrest a person if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the person is a person who is unlawfully at large.
- (2) A police officer who arrests a person under this section must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, take the person, and any property found on the person, before an authorised officer to be dealt with according to law.
- (3) The authorised officer may, by warrant, commit the person to a correctional centre, to be kept in custody under the same authority, and subject to the same conditions and with the benefit of the same privileges and entitlements, as would have applied to the person if the person had not been unlawfully at large.

- (4) In this section, a reference to a person unlawfully at large is a reference to a person who is at large (otherwise than because of escaping from lawful custody) at a time when the person is required by law to be in custody in a correctional centre.

Note. Inmates of correctional centres who are unlawfully at large may also be arrested under section 39 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

103 Warrant for arrest of person unlawfully at large (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 352AA)

- (1) A police officer may apply to an authorised officer for a warrant for the arrest of a person if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the person is a person who is unlawfully at large.
- (2) The authorised officer may issue the warrant if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so.
- (3) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the form of, and other requirements relating to, a warrant issued under this section.

104 Power to arrest for interstate offences (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 352A)

- (1) This section applies to an offence (an interstate offence):
 - (a) that is an offence against the law of a State (other than New South Wales) or a Territory, and
 - (b) that consists of an act or omission that, if it occurred in New South Wales, would constitute an indictable offence or an offence punishable by imprisonment for 2 years or more.
- (2) A police officer may, at any hour of the day or night and without a warrant, arrest a person if the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds that the person has committed an interstate offence.
- (3) A court:
 - (a) may discharge the person, or
 - (b) may:
 - (i) commit the person to custody, or
 - (ii) grant bail,

pending the execution under a law of the Commonwealth of a warrant for the person's arrest or the person's earlier release from bail, or discharge from custody, under this section.

- (4) Except as provided by this section, a person arrested under this section for an interstate offence has the same rights, and is to be dealt with in the same way, as a person arrested for a similar offence committed in New South Wales. In particular:
 - (a) Parts 4, 9, 10 and 15 apply in respect of the person, and
 - (b) the Bail Act 1978, and the Justices Act 1902, with all necessary modifications, apply in relation to the granting of bail to the person and in relation to court proceedings under this section.
- (5) If a person has been committed to custody under subsection (3) and a warrant for the person's arrest is subsequently presented for execution, the person must be delivered in accordance with the terms of the warrant to the custody of the person executing it.
- (6) If a person arrested under this section has been granted bail, and subsequently, but before the person has complied with his or her bail undertaking, a warrant for the person's arrest is executed under a law of the Commonwealth, the person is taken at the time the warrant is executed to be released from that bail and to have complied with any condition or undertaking in relation to that bail at that time outstanding, not being a condition or undertaking with which the person has by that time failed, without lawful excuse, to comply.
- (7) If a person arrested under this section has been granted bail or is in custody, the person may be released from bail or discharged from custody if a warrant for the person's arrest is not executed within a reasonable time (not exceeding 7 days) after the arrest.
- (8) In this section:
court means:
 - (a) the Court of Criminal Appeal, the Supreme Court, the Land and Environment Court, the Industrial Relations Commission, the District Court or a Local Court, or
 - (b) any other court that, or person who, exercises criminal jurisdiction.

105 Arrest may be discontinued

- (1) A police officer may discontinue an arrest at any time.

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a police officer may discontinue an arrest in any of the following circumstances:
- (a) if the arrested person is no longer a suspect or the reason for the arrest no longer exists for any other reason,
 - (b) if it is more appropriate to deal with the matter in some other manner, including, for example, by issuing a warning or caution or a penalty notice or court attendance notice or, in the case of a child, dealing with the matter under the Young Offenders Act 1997.

106 Person helping in covert operations not under arrest

- (1) This section applies to covert investigations conducted by a police officer into whether a person other than a person who is in custody following an arrest has been involved in the commission of an offence or suspected offence.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, if the person in custody following an arrest agrees voluntarily to take part in the covert investigation, the person ceases to be under arrest for the offence.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not prevent the person from being rearrested for the offence.

107 Part does not affect alternatives to arrest

- (1) Nothing in this Part affects the power of a police officer to commence proceedings for an offence against a person otherwise than by arresting the person.
- (2) Nothing in this Part affects the power of a police officer to issue a warning or a caution or a penalty notice to a person.

108 Part does not affect Young Offenders Act 1997

Nothing in this Part requires a police officer to arrest a person under the age of 18 years if it is more appropriate to deal with the matter under the Young Offenders Act 1997.

Part 9 Investigations and questioning

Division 1 Preliminary

109 Objects of Part (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 354)

The objects of this Part are:

- (a) to provide for the period of time that a person who is under arrest may be detained by a police officer to enable the investigation of the person's involvement in the commission of an offence, and
- (b) to authorise the detention of a person who is under arrest for such a period despite any requirement imposed by law to bring the person before a Magistrate or other authorised officer or court without delay or within a specified period, and
- (c) to provide for the rights of a person so detained.

110 Definitions (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 355)

- (1) In this Part:

detention warrant means a warrant issued under section 118.

investigation period means the period provided for by section 115.

permanent Australian resident means a person resident in Australia whose continued presence in Australia is not subject to any limitation as to time imposed by or in accordance with law.

- (2) A reference in this Part to a person who is under arrest or a person who is arrested includes a reference to a person who is in the company of a police officer for the purpose of participating in an investigative procedure, if:
- (a) the police officer believes that there is sufficient evidence to establish that the person has committed an offence that is or is to be the subject of the investigation, or
 - (b) the police officer would arrest the person if the person attempted to leave, or
 - (c) the police officer has given the person reasonable grounds for believing that the person would not be allowed to leave if the person wished to do so.

- (3) A person is not taken to be under arrest because of subsection (2) merely because the police officer is exercising a power under a law to detain and search the person or to require the person to provide information or to answer questions.
- (4) For the purposes of this Part, a person ceases to be under arrest for an offence if the person is remanded in respect of the offence.

111 Persons to whom Part applies (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356)

- (1) This Part applies to a person, including a person under the age of 18 years, who is under arrest by a police officer for an offence. It is immaterial whether the offence concerned was committed before or after the commencement of this Part or within or outside the State.
- (2) This Part does not apply to a person who is detained under Part 16.

112 Modification of application of Part to certain persons (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356A)

- (1) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the modification of the application of this Part to:
 - (a) persons under the age of 18 years, or
 - (b) Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders, or
 - (c) persons of non-English speaking background, or
 - (d) persons who have a disability (whether physical, intellectual or otherwise).
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may provide for an investigation period for a person or class of persons referred to in that subsection that is shorter than the period provided for by section 115.

113 Effect of Part on other powers and duties (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356B)

- (1) Existing powers relating to arrest and other matters
This Part does not:
 - (a) confer any power to arrest a person, or to detain a person who has not been lawfully arrested, or
 - (b) prevent a police officer from asking or causing a person to do a particular thing that the police officer is authorised by law to ask or cause the person to do (for example, the power to require a person to submit to a breath analysis under Division 3 of Part 2 of the Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, or

- (c) independently confer power to carry out an investigative procedure.

(2) Certain evidentiary matters and rights not affected

Nothing in this Part affects:

- (a) the operation of:
 - (i) the following provisions of the Evidence Act 1995:
section 84 (Exclusion of admissions influenced by violence and certain other conduct) section 85 (Criminal proceedings: reliability of admissions by defendants) section 90 (Discretion to exclude admissions) section 138 (Exclusion of improperly or illegally obtained evidence) section 139 (Cautioning of persons), or
 - (ii) any other provision of that Act, or
- (b) any law that permits or requires a person to be present at the questioning of another person who is under arrest (for example, the presence of a parent at the questioning by a police officer of the parent's child), or
- (c) the right of a person to refuse to participate in any questioning of the person or any other investigative procedure unless the person is required by law to do so, or
- (d) the right of a person to leave police custody if the person is not under arrest, or
- (e) the rights of a person under the Bail Act 1978.

Division 2 Investigation and questioning powers

114 Detention after arrest for purposes of investigation (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356C)

- (1) A police officer may in accordance with this section detain a person, who is under arrest, for the investigation period provided for by section 115.

- (2) A police officer may so detain a person for the purpose of investigating whether the person committed the offence for which the person is arrested.
- (3) If, while a person is so detained, the police officer forms a reasonable suspicion as to the person's involvement in the commission of any other offence, the police officer may also investigate the person's involvement in that other offence during the investigation period for the arrest. It is immaterial whether that other offence was committed before or after the commencement of this Part or within or outside the State.
- (4) The person must be:
 - (a) released (whether unconditionally or on bail) within the investigation period, or
 - (b) brought before an authorised officer or court within that period, or, if it is not practicable to do so within that period, as soon as practicable after the end of that period.
- (5) A requirement in another Part of this Act, the Bail Act 1978 or any other relevant law that a person who is under arrest be taken before a Magistrate or other authorised officer or court, without delay, or within a specified period, is affected by this Part only to the extent that the extension of the period within which the person is to be brought before such a Magistrate or officer or court is authorised by this Part.
- (6) If a person is arrested more than once within any period of 48 hours, the investigation period for each arrest, other than the first, is reduced by so much of any earlier investigation period or periods as occurred within that 48 hour period.
- (7) The investigation period for an arrest (the earlier arrest) is not to reduce the investigation period for a later arrest if the later arrest relates to an offence that the person is suspected of having committed after the person was released, or taken before a Magistrate or other authorised officer or court, in respect of the earlier arrest.

115 Investigation period (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356D)

- (1) The investigation period is a period that begins when the person is arrested and ends at a time that is reasonable having regard to all the circumstances, but does not exceed the maximum investigation period.

- (2) The maximum investigation period is 4 hours or such longer period as the maximum investigation period may be extended to by a detention warrant.

116 Determining reasonable time (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356E)

- (1) In determining what is a reasonable time for the purposes of section 115 (1), all the relevant circumstances of the particular case must be taken into account.
- (2) Without limiting the relevant circumstances that must be taken into account, the following circumstances (if relevant) are to be taken into account:
- (a) the person's age, physical capacity and condition and mental capacity and condition,
 - (b) whether the presence of the person is necessary for the investigation,
 - (c) the number, seriousness and complexity of the offences under investigation,
 - (d) whether the person has indicated a willingness to make a statement or to answer any questions,
 - (e) the time taken for police officers connected with the investigation (other than police officers whose particular knowledge of the investigation, or whose particular skills, are necessary to the investigation) to attend at the place where the person is being detained,
 - (f) whether a police officer reasonably requires time to prepare for any questioning of the person,
 - (g) the time required for facilities for conducting investigative procedures in which the person is to participate (other than facilities for complying with section 108 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986) to become available,
 - (h) the number and availability of other persons who need to be questioned or from whom statements need to be obtained,
 - (i) the need to visit the place where any offence concerned is believed to have been committed or any other place reasonably connected with the investigation of any such offence,
 - (j) the time during which the person is in the company of a police officer before and after the person is arrested,

- (k) the time taken to complete any searches or other investigative procedures that are reasonably necessary to the investigation (including any search of the person or any other investigative procedure in which the person is to participate),
 - (l) the time required to carry out any other activity that is reasonably necessary for the proper conduct of the investigation.
- (3) In any criminal proceedings in which the reasonableness of any period of time that a person was detained under this Part is at issue, the burden lies on the prosecution to prove on the balance of probabilities that the period of time was reasonable.

117 Certain times to be disregarded in calculating investigation period
(cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356F)

- (1) The following times (to the extent that those times are times during which any investigative procedure in which a person who is detained under this Part is to participate is reasonably suspended or deferred) are not to be taken into account in determining how much of an investigation period has elapsed:
- (a) any time that is reasonably required to convey the person from the place where the person is arrested to the nearest premises where facilities are available for conducting investigative procedures in which the person is to participate,
 - (b) any time that is reasonably spent waiting for the arrival at the place where the person is being detained of police officers, or any other persons prescribed by the regulations, whose particular knowledge of the investigation, or whose particular skills, are necessary to the investigation,
 - (c) any time that is reasonably spent waiting for facilities for complying with section 108 of the Criminal Procedure Act 1986 to become available,
 - (d) any time that is required to allow the person (or someone else on the person's behalf) to communicate with a friend, relative, guardian, independent person, legal practitioner or consular official,
 - (e) any time that is required to allow such a friend, relative, guardian, independent person, legal practitioner or consular official to arrive at the place where the person is being detained,

- (f) any time that is required to allow the person to consult at the place where the person is being detained with such a friend, relative, guardian, independent person, legal practitioner or consular official,
 - (g) any time that is required to arrange for and to allow the person to receive medical attention,
 - (h) any time that is required to arrange for the services of an interpreter for the person and to allow the interpreter to arrive at the place where the person is being detained or become available by telephone for the person,
 - (i) any time that is reasonably required to allow for an identification parade to be arranged and conducted,
 - (j) any time that is required to allow the person to rest or receive refreshments or to give the person access to toilet and other facilities as referred to in section 130,
 - (k) any time that is required to allow the person to recover from the effects of intoxication due to alcohol or another drug or a combination of drugs,
 - (l) any time that is reasonably required to prepare, make and dispose of any application for a detention warrant or any application for a search warrant that relates to the investigation,
 - (m) any time that is reasonably required to carry out charging procedures in respect of the person.
- (2) In any criminal proceedings in which the question of whether any particular time was a time that was not to be taken into account because of this section is at issue, the burden lies on the prosecution to prove on the balance of probabilities that the particular time was a time that was not to be taken into account.

 - (c) hindering the recovery of any person or property concerned in the offence under investigation, or

- (2) Further, in the case of a requirement that relates to the deferral of an investigative procedure, a requirement imposed on a custody manager under section 123 relating to a friend, relative, guardian or independent person need not be complied with if the custody manager believes on reasonable grounds that the investigation is so urgent, having regard to the safety of other persons, that the investigative procedure should not be deferred.

126 Provision of information to friend, relative or guardian (cf Crimes Act 1900, s 356Q)

- (1) The custody manager for a detained person must inform the person orally of any request for information as to the whereabouts of the person made by a person who claims to be a friend, relative or guardian of the detained person.

- (4) If an interpreter is not available to be present for the person in connection with any investigative procedure in which the person is to participate, the custody manager must instead arrange for a telephone interpreter for the person.

180 Medical practitioners and appropriately qualified persons not obliged to carry out internal searches (cf Police Powers (Internally Concealed Drugs) Act 2001, s 36)

Nothing in this Division requires a medical practitioner or appropriately qualified person to carry out an internal search.

181 Relationship to Part 9 (cf Police Powers (Internally Concealed Drugs) Act 2001, s 37)

- (1) Nothing in this Division is intended to limit the rights and protections provided by Part 9 to the extent that the provisions of that Part can operate in circumstances covered by this Division.
- (2) The rights and protections conferred by this Division are in addition to those conferred by Part 9 but, to the extent (if any) that compliance with this Division results in compliance with that Part, the requirements of that Part are satisfied.
- (3) Except as provided by subsection (4), this Division does not authorise keeping a suspect in custody, in order to carry out an internal search, for more than 24 hours (or such longer period as may be extended by a detention order under section 182) after the suspect consents to, or an eligible judicial officer authorises, the carrying out of the internal search.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), a suspect may be kept in custody for up to 48 hours (or such longer period as may be extended by a detention order under section 182) after an internal search carried out on the suspect reveals the presence of matter that could be drugs in the suspect's body.
- (5) In working out any period of time for the purposes of subsection (3) or (4), time out is to be disregarded.
- (6) In working out whether the investigation period for the purposes of Part 9 has expired, any time that is reasonably required to carry out an internal search authorised by this Division is to be taken into account.

182 Detention orders (cf Police Powers (Internally Concealed Drugs) Act 2001, s 38)

- (1) A police officer may, before the end of a period referred to in section 158 or 181, apply to an eligible judicial officer to extend the maximum period for which a suspect may be detained under that section.
- (2) The eligible judicial officer may order that the maximum period be extended by a period (not exceeding 48 hours) specified in the order.
- (3) An eligible judicial officer must not extend the period unless satisfied that the further period is reasonably necessary to carry out an internal search or to confirm that matter present in the suspect's body that was revealed by an internal search is drugs.

- (4) The maximum period must not be extended a second time unless an eligible judicial officer is satisfied that there are exceptional circumstances that justify the extension.
 - (5) The maximum period cannot in any circumstances be extended more than twice.

183 Restrictions on publication (cf Police Powers (Internally Concealed Drugs) Act 2001, s 39)

- (1) A person must not intentionally or recklessly, in any report of a proceeding under this Division, publish:
 - (a) the name of the suspect on whom an internal search is carried out or proposed to be carried out under this Division in relation to an offence of supplying a prohibited drug, or
 - (b) any information likely to enable the identification of the suspect, unless the suspect has been charged with the offence or an eligible judicial officer, by order, has authorised such publication.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units or imprisonment for 12 months, or both

- (2) This section does not make it an offence to publish the name of a suspect or any information likely to enable the identification of a suspect if the publication is solely for the purposes of the internal management of NSW Police or the investigation of an offence by a law enforcement officer.

- (1) The Minister must, so far as is reasonably practicable, establish, and update at such intervals as the Minister thinks appropriate, a list, in relation to a part of the State where there are likely to be persons detained under this Division of the names of persons (not being police officers) who:
 - (a) are suitable to help Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders so detained, and
 - (b) are willing to give such help in that part of the State.
- (2) In establishing and maintaining a list in relation to a part of the State, the Minister must from time to time consult with any Aboriginal legal aid organisation providing legal assistance to Aboriginal persons or Torres Strait Islanders in that part of the State.
- (3) The Minister may, in writing, delegate to a person employed in the Attorney General's Department all or any of the functions of the Minister under this section.

A police officer may give reasonable directions for the safe and efficient regulation of traffic to any person driving a motor vehicle or riding a motorcycle on or near a road or road related area.

- (1) If a police officer is of the opinion that a person who is driving (or about to drive) a motor vehicle is under the influence of alcohol or any other drug, or a combination of drugs, the police officer may:

- (a) prohibit the person from driving the vehicle while the person is under the influence of alcohol or that other drug or a combination of drugs, and
 - (b) require the person to immediately hand over all ignition or other keys of the motor vehicle in the person's actual possession:
 - (i) to the police officer, or
 - (ii) to another person in the company of the person who the police officer is satisfied is responsible and capable of exercising proper control of the motor vehicle, and

 - (i) to immobilise the motor vehicle, or
 - (ii) to remove the motor vehicle to a place of safety and detain it at that place.
- (2) If the police officer is of the opinion that the person concerned is under the influence of alcohol, the person is entitled to request that the person undergo a breath test in order to determine whether or not the person is under the influence of alcohol. If such a request is made, the police officer may not take any action under subsection (1) until the person undergoes the breath test.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), a police officer may take action under subsection (1) if the police officer reasonably suspects that the person is likely to abscond before undergoing the breath test.
- (4) Subsection (1) does not authorise the confiscation of any keys, or the immobilisation, removal or detention of any motor vehicle, for any period that is longer than necessary in the circumstances and in the interest of the person driving (or about to drive) or of any other person or of the public.

190 Detention of keys or vehicles may be continued (cf Road Transport (Safety and Traffic Management) Act 1999, s 30)

- (1) It is lawful for a police officer to retain any keys that are confiscated under section 189, or for any motor vehicle to be immobilised or detained under that section, until such time as:

 - (ii) is informed by a medical practitioner (not being the person making the request) that the person making the request is not under the influence of alcohol or any other drug.
- (2) However, the person making the request is entitled to possession of the keys or motor vehicle concerned only if the police officer is satisfied that the person is entitled to lawful possession of the motor vehicle.
- (3) If the keys or motor vehicle are not returned within 24 hours after such a request is made, the person may apply to a Local Court for an order for the keys or motor vehicle to be returned to the person.

Any expenses incurred in connection with the immobilisation, removal or detention of a motor vehicle under this Division may be recovered from the person who was driving (or about to drive) the vehicle, or from the owner of the vehicle, as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

relevant firearms or explosives offence means an offence under the Firearms Act 1996 or any other Act involving the possession or use of a firearm or explosive.

194 Part does not confer power of entry or detention (cf Firearms Act 1996, s 72B)

Nothing in this Part confers on a police officer a power:

- (a) to enter any premises that the officer is not otherwise authorised to enter, or
- (b) to detain a person whom the officer is not otherwise authorised to detain.

195 General authority to use dogs for detecting firearms or explosives (cf Firearms Act 1996, s 72C)

- (1) If a police officer is authorised to search a person for the purpose of detecting a relevant firearms or explosives offence, the officer is entitled to use a dog for that purpose.
- (2) A police officer is, for the purpose of detecting a relevant firearms or explosives offence, entitled to be accompanied by a dog under the officer's control if the officer is entitled to enter, or be in or on, particular premises in the exercise of the officer's functions.
- (3) Neither the State nor a police officer is liable to any action, liability, claim or demand merely because a dog entered, or was in or on, premises as provided by subsection (2).

- (4) The provisions of this section do not affect the search of a person whom a police officer reasonably suspects is committing a relevant firearms or explosives offence.

Part 14 Powers to give directions

Note. Safeguards relating to the exercise of the power to give a direction are set out in Part 15.

197 Power to give reasonable directions in public places (cf Summary Offences Act 1988, s 28F)

- (1) A police officer may give a direction to a person in a public place if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that the person's behaviour or presence in the place (referred to in this Part as relevant conduct):
 - (a) is obstructing another person or persons in traffic, or
 - (b) constitutes harassment or intimidation of another person or persons, or
 - (c) is causing or likely to cause fear to another person or persons, so long as the relevant conduct would be such as to cause fear to a person of reasonable firmness, or
 - (d) is for the purpose of unlawfully supplying, or intending to unlawfully supply, or soliciting another person or persons to unlawfully supply, any prohibited drug, or
 - (e) is for the purpose of obtaining, procuring or purchasing any prohibited drug that it would be unlawful for the person to possess.

 - (b) stopping the supply, or soliciting to supply, of the prohibited drug, or

- (c) stopping the obtaining, procuring or purchasing of the prohibited drug.
- (2) If a police officer has complied with this section and section 201 in giving a direction to a person and the person refuses or fails to comply with the direction, the police officer may again give the direction and, in that case, must again warn the person that failure or refusal to comply with the direction may be an offence.
- (3) In the case of a direction given under this Part to a group of persons, the police officer is not required to repeat the direction, or to repeat the information and warning referred to in this section and section 201, to each person in the group.
- (4) However, just because the police officer is not required to repeat any such direction, information or warning does not in itself give rise to any presumption that each person in the group has received the direction, information or warning.

199 Failure to comply with direction (cf Summary Offences Act 1988, s 28F)

- (1) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with a direction given in accordance with this Part.

- (5) However, if a person asks another police officer present for information as to the name of the police officer and his or her place of duty, the police officer must give to the person the information requested.

202 When arrest safeguards not required

A police officer exercising a power to arrest a person is not required to comply with section 201 if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that it is not reasonably practicable to do so because of the seriousness and urgency of the circumstances.

203 When search safeguards not required

- (1) A police officer exercising a power to search premises is not required to comply with section 201 if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds that immediate entry is required to ensure the safety of any person or to ensure that the effective execution of a warrant is not frustrated.
- (2) Section 201 does not affect the operation of section 68 (2).
