New South Wales

Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Amendment Bill 2009

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

In the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2009, the Parliament of New South Wales referred certain matters relating to security interests in personal property to the Commonwealth Parliament so as to enable the Commonwealth Parliament to make laws about those matters. The proposed Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth (the proposed PPS Act) currently before the Commonwealth Parliament will enact provisions based on the referral of matters made by the Parliament of New South Wales and other State Parliaments.

The objects of this Bill are:

- (a) to amend the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2009 to enact savings and transitional provisions that are consequent on the enactment of the proposed PPS Act, and
- (b) to provide for the repeal of the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 and the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005, and
- (c) to make certain consequential amendments to other Acts.

b2009-145-94.d09

Explanatory note

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides for the commencement of the proposed Act on the date of assent to the proposed Act, except for proposed sections 3 and 4 and Schedule 2.1–2.3 and 2.5. Proposed sections 3 and 4 and Schedule 2.1–2.3 and 2.5 will commence on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

Clause 3 repeals the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 and any regulation made under that Act.

Clause 4 repeals the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005.

Schedule 1 Amendment of Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2009 No 35

Schedule 1 inserts a Schedule in the Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2009 that contains savings and transitional provisions consequent on the enactment of the proposed PPS Act.

In particular, the proposed Schedule includes provisions that deal with the following matters:

- (a) the provision of data and other information held for the purposes of the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 and the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 to the Commonwealth and its officers for use in establishing the Personal Property Securities Register under the proposed PPS Act,
- (b) savings and transitional arrangements in connection with the transfer of registration functions to the Commonwealth concerning security interests in personal property to which the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 and the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 currently apply,
- (c) the conferral of regulation-making powers on the Governor to make regulations consequent on the enactment of the proposed PPS Act and the transfer of registration functions to the Commonwealth,
- (d) the protection of the State, State officers and State agencies from compensation claims in connection with the transfer of registration functions to the Commonwealth.

Schedule 2 Amendment of other Acts

Prohibition on transfers of certain licences and certificates

A right, entitlement or authority that is granted by or under a law of the State (such as a licence or certificate) can in some circumstances be personal property for the purposes of the proposed PPS Act, but only if it is transferable under the law of the State.

Explanatory note

Schedule 2.1 amends the Conveyancers Licensing Act 2003 to confirm that a licence granted under that Act is not transferable.

Schedule 2.2 inserts proposed section 27A in the Motor Vehicle Repairs Act 1980 to make it an offence for the holder of a tradesperson's certificate under that Act to transfer, attempt to transfer, lend or allow another person to use his or her certificate. The proposed section also makes it an offence for a person to attempt to obtain such a transfer or to attempt to borrow, or borrow or use, such a certificate. The maximum penalty for any such offence will be 20 penalty units (currently, $2,200).

Schedule 2.3 amends the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002 to make it an offence for a person to transfer a licence or certificate of registration granted under that Act. The maximum penalty for any such offence will be 100 penalty units (currently, $11,000).

Schedule 2.5 amends the Valuers Act 2003 to confirm that registration under that Act is not transferable.

Account customers under Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986

Schedule 2.4 amends section 16A of the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 to enable the Director-General (within the meaning of that Act) to withdraw the approval of a person as an account customer if the person has not paid an amount owing under arrangements made under that section within the period of 60 days after it was required to be paid or such other period as may be prescribed by the regulations under that Act. Currently, the Act provides for a fixed period of 60 days.

Part 2 Savings and transitional provisions relating to transfer of functions to Commonwealth

Division 1 General

2 Provision of information to the Commonwealth

- (1) The Director-General is specifically authorised to provide the Commonwealth, the PPS Registrar or any other officer of the Commonwealth with such information recorded in, or concerning the use of, REVS as the Director-General considers appropriate in order to assist the Commonwealth in establishing the PPS Register.
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1), information recorded in REVS on behalf of another State or a Territory pursuant to an agreement under section 15A of the Registration of Interests in Goods Act 1986 may be provided to the Commonwealth, the PPS Registrar or any other officer of the Commonwealth only if the Director-General has been requested to do so by or on behalf of the State or Territory concerned.
- (3) The Registrar-General is specifically authorised to provide the Commonwealth, the PPS Registrar or any other officer of the Commonwealth with such information recorded in, or concerning the use of, the General Register of Deeds for the purposes of the Security Interests in Goods Act 2005 as the Registrar-General considers appropriate in order to assist the Commonwealth in establishing the PPS Register.
- (4) The Director-General and Registrar-General may provide the information that they are authorised to provide under this clause in whatever form (including by means of electronic data or in a form approved for the purposes of the PPS Act) as they consider appropriate.
- (5) Subject to subclause (6), the provisions of this clause prevail to the extent of any inconsistency with the provisions of any other Act or statutory rule.

(4) This Division has effect:

- (a) despite anything to the contrary in the existing Act, and
- (b) in relation to provisions of the existing Act that this Division continues in effect after the registration commencement time even after the existing Act is repealed by the 2009 amending Act.

Note. Section 3 of the 2009 amending Act provides for the repeal of the existing Act on a day appointed by proclamation (being a day that is not earlier than the day on which the registration commencement time occurs).

5 Director-General may refuse to exercise registration functions

- (1) Subject to clause 6, the Director-General may refuse to exercise a registration function during the pre-PPS transitional period.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), the Director-General may refuse to exercise a registration function during the pre-PPS transitional period in relation to a matter that was not finally determined or concluded immediately before the commencement of that period.

In this clause: registration function means any function conferred or imposed on the Director-General by or under:

- (a) section 5, 6, 7 or 16A of the existing Act, or
- (b) any other provision of the existing Act concerning registration or REVS as may be prescribed by the regulations.

6 Show cause proceedings under section 7 of existing Act

- (1) This clause applies to the following matters:
 - (a) a notice given to a person by the Director-General under section 7 (3) of the existing Act that is in force immediately before the registration commencement time if the period specified in the notice had not yet expired by that time (an existing show cause notice),
 - (b) the cancellation of the registration of an interest by the Director-General following the giving of a notice to a person under section 7 (3) of the existing Act if the person has a right to apply to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for a review of the cancellation immediately before the registration commencement time (an existing reviewable cancellation decision),

Amendment of Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act Schedule 1 2009 No 35

- (c) an application to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal for the review of a decision of the Director-General following the giving of a notice under section 7 (3) of the existing Act to cancel the registration of an interest if the application is pending, but not finally determined, immediately before the registration commencement time (an existing review application).
- (2) An existing show cause notice may be dealt with under the existing Act as if the power of the Director-General under section 7 (4) of that Act to decide whether to cancel the registration of the interest were a power to decide whether the registration should have been cancelled had the Act continued in effect.
- (3) An existing reviewable cancellation decision may be the subject of an application for review to the Administrative Decisions Tribunal, and may be dealt with by the Tribunal, under the existing Act as if the right to seek the review of the decision of the Director-General to cancel the registration of the interest were a right to seek a review of a decision of the Director-General that the registration should have been cancelled had the Act continued in effect.
- (4) An existing review application may be determined by the Administrative Decisions Tribunal under the existing Act as if the jurisdiction of the Tribunal to review the decision of the Director-General to cancel the registration of the interest were jurisdiction to review a decision of the Director-General that the registration should have been cancelled had the Act continued in effect.
- (5) The Director-General may, if satisfied that a matter to which this clause applies has been finalised, provide the PPS Registrar with a written notice (based on the results of the finalisation of the matter) stating the following:
 - (a) the nature of the matter that has been finalised,
 - (b) whether or not the interest to which the matter related should have been registered in REVS,
 - (c) whether or not the interest should be treated as a migrated security interest for the purposes of the PPS Act.

Note. The PPS Registrar has power under the PPS Act to remove migrated data that has mistakenly been included in the PPS Register.

7 Search certificates and notices

(1) The provisions of section 8 of the existing Act continue to apply after the registration commencement time in relation to any certificate issued under that section before that time.

- (2) The Director-General may continue to issue certificates under section 8 (5) of the existing Act during the post-PPS transitional period as to the state of REVS in relation to goods at any time in the 7 years before the registration commencement time.
- (3) The provisions of section 8 (6)–(9) of the existing Act, in their application to certificates under section 8 (5), continue to apply to certificates issued as provided by subclause (2).
- (4) The regulations may make provision for or with respect to the issue of certificates under section 8 (1) of the existing Act during the pre-PPS transitional period.
- (5) Regulations made for the purposes of subclause (4) prevail to the extent of any inconsistency with the provisions of the existing Act.

8 Enforcement of interests in prescribed goods

Subject to Chapter 9 (Transitional provisions) of the PPS Act:

- (a) sections 9 and 10 of the existing Act continue to apply to purchases that occurred before the registration commencement time, and
- (b) sections 3B, 10A and 11 of the existing Act continue to apply in relation to:
 - (i) transitional security interests in prescribed goods, and
 - (ii) any other interests in prescribed goods that arose before the registration commencement time.

Note. Chapter 9 of the PPS Act makes provision for matters of a transitional nature in relation to the commencement of the provisions of that Act. The PPS Act will start to apply to security interests in personal property (including transitional security interests) at the registration commencement time.

Section 308 of the PPS Act defines a transitional security interest to be a security interest provided for by a transitional security agreement if:

(a) in the case of a security interest arising before the registration commencement time—the PPS Act would have applied in relation to the security interest immediately before the registration commencement time, but for section 310 (which provides for the Act to start to apply at that time), or

- (b) in the case of a security interest arising at or after the registration commencement time:
 - the transitional security agreement as in force immediately before the registration commencement time provides for the granting of the security interest, and EDE A the time is the first term in the first term.
 - (ii) the PPS Act applies in relation to the security interest.

A transitional security agreement is an agreement or act by which a security interest of a kind to which the PPS Act applies is created, arises or is provided for and that was in force immediately before the registration commencement time.

9 Compensation provisions under existing Act

- (1) The provisions of sections 13 and 14 of the existing Act continue to apply after the registration commencement time in relation to the determination of compensation for loss sustained in connection with an application for registration of a registrable interest (within the meaning of that Act) that was made before that time.
- (2) The provisions of section 15 of the existing Act continue to apply in relation to decisions of the Director-General made before the registration commencement time.

10 Offences under existing Act

The provisions of the existing Act continue to apply after the registration commencement time in relation to offences committed, or alleged to have been committed, before that time.

11 Fees and charges payable under existing Act

- (1) The following fees and charges remain recoverable by the Director-General in a court of competent jurisdiction after the registration commencement time:
 - (a) any fees or charges that were payable under the existing Act immediately before that time,
 - (b) any fees or charges for which the Director-General may require payment under subclause (2).
- (2) After the registration commencement time, the Director-General may require payment by an account customer (within the meaning of section 16A of the existing Act) of any fees and charges that would have been payable under arrangements made under the existing Act for a matter arising before that time had the Act continued in effect.

Amendment of Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act Schedule 1 2009 No 35

- (3) Without limiting subclauses (1) and (2), the regulations may contain provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the enactment or making of the following Acts and instruments:
 - (a) this Act,
 - (b) the 2009 amending Act,
 - (c) the PPS Act or any Act or instrument of the Commonwealth that amends the PPS Act.
- (4) If the regulations so provide, any provision referred to in subclause (3) may:
 - (a) have effect despite any specified provision of this Schedule, and
 - (b) take effect from the date of assent to the Act or the making of the instrument concerned or a later date.
- (5) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect from a date that is earlier than the date of its publication on the NSW legislation website, the provision does not operate so as:
 - (a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or
 - (b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.
- (6) Any matter for which a regulation made under this Act makes provision is taken to be a matter for which a regulatory impact statement is not required for the purposes of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

25 Updating of references to Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth

- (1) This clause applies to any reference to the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth in this Act (other than this clause) or in the 2009 amending Act.
- (2) Any reference to which this clause applies is to be read as a reference to the Personal Property Securities Act 2010 of the Commonwealth if the Personal Property Securities Bill 2009 that was introduced in the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth Parliament on 24 June 2009 is enacted in the calendar year of 2010 rather than in the calendar year of 2009.

- Schedule 1 Amendment of Personal Property Securities (Commonwealth Powers) Act 2009 No 35
 - (3) If subclause (2) operates to update references to which this clause applies, the regulations may amend this Act (other than this clause) and the 2009 amending Act to replace references to the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 of the Commonwealth with references to the Personal Property Securities Act 2010 of the Commonwealth.
