Motor Accidents Compensation Further Amendment (Terrorism) Bill 2002

Explanatory note

This explanatory note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament.

Overview of Bill

The object of this Bill to extend for 12 months until 1 January 2004 the temporary exclusion of acts of terrorism from compulsory third-party insurance coverage provided under the Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999.

Outline of provisions

Clause 1 sets out the name (also called the short title) of the proposed Act.

Clause 2 provides that the proposed Act commences on the date of assent.

Clause 3 gives effect to the Overview above by omitting the references to “1 January 2003” from sections 15A (3) and 35A (3) of the Motor Accidents Compensation Act 1999 (being the current expiry date for the temporary exclusion of acts of terrorism from compulsory third-party insurance coverage provided under that Act) and replacing those references with “1 January 2004”.
