[13A] Part 5A

Insert after Part 5—

Part 5A Parliamentary Joint Committee

28A Constitution of Joint Committee

- (1) A joint committee of members of Parliament, to be known as the Committee on Ageing and Disability, must be appointed.
- (2) A joint committee must be appointed as soon as practicable after—
 - (a) the commencement of this part, and
 - (b) the first session of each Parliament.
- (3) The Parliamentary Joint Committee has the functions conferred or imposed on the Committee by or under this Act or another Act.

28B Functions

- (1) The Parliamentary Joint Committee has the following functions under this Act—
 - (a) to monitor and review the exercise by the Commissioner of the Commission's functions,
 - (b) to report to both Houses of Parliament, with the comments the Joint Committee thinks appropriate, on any matter relevant to the Commissioner or connected with the exercise of the Commissioner's functions to which, in the Joint Committee's opinion, the attention of Parliament should be directed,
 - (c) to examine each annual report and other report made under Part 5 by the Commission, and presented to Parliament, under this Act or another Act and to report to both Houses of Parliament on matters appearing in, or arising out of, the reports,
 - (d) to examine trends and changes in services and issues affecting adults with disability and older adults and report to both Houses of Parliament about any changes the Joint Committee thinks desirable to the functions and procedures of the Commissioner,

- (e) to inquire into any question in connection with the Commissioner's functions which is referred to the Joint Committee by both Houses of Parliament and to report to both Houses on the question.
- (2) Nothing in this part authorises the Parliamentary Joint Committee to investigate a matter relating to particular conduct.
- (3) The Commissioner may, as soon as practicable after a report of the Parliamentary Joint Committee has been tabled in a House of Parliament, make and give to the Presiding Officer of that House a report in response to the report of the Committee.
- (4) Section 28 applies to a report of the Commissioner referred to in subsection (3).

28C Membership

- (1) The Parliamentary Joint Committee consists of 7 members as follows—
 - (a) 3 members who are members of, and appointed by, the Legislative Council,
 - (b) 4 members who are members of, and appointed by, the Legislative Assembly.
- (2) The appointment of members of the Parliamentary Joint Committee must, as far as practicable, be in accordance with the practice of Parliament with reference to the appointment of members to serve on joint committees of both Houses of Parliament.
- (3) A person is not eligible for appointment as a member of the Parliamentary Joint Committee if the person is a Minister of the Crown or a Parliamentary Secretary.

28D Vacancies

- (1) A member of the Parliamentary Joint Committee ceases to hold office—
 - (a) when the Legislative Assembly is dissolved or expires, or
 - (b) if the member becomes a Minister of the Crown or a Parliamentary Secretary, or
 - (c) if the member ceases to be a member of the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly, or
 - (d) for a member who is a member of the Legislative Council—if the member resigns the office by instrument in writing addressed to the President of the Legislative Council, or
 - (e) for a member who is a member of the Legislative Assembly—if the member resigns the office by written instrument addressed to the Speaker of the Legislative Assembly, or
 - (f) if the member is discharged from office by the House of Parliament to which the member belongs.
- (2) Either House of Parliament may appoint one of its members to fill a vacancy among the members of the Parliamentary Joint Committee appointed by that House.

28E Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson

- (1) There must be a Chairperson and a Deputy Chairperson of the Parliamentary Joint Committee, who must be elected by and from the members of the Joint Committee.

- (2) A member of the Parliamentary Joint Committee ceases to hold office as Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson of the Joint Committee if the member—
 - (a) ceases to be a member of the Committee, or
 - (b) resigns the office by written instrument presented to a meeting of the Committee, or
 - (c) is discharged from office by the Committee.
 - (3) If there is a vacancy in the office of Chairperson or the Chairperson is absent from New South Wales or is for any other reason unable to perform the duties of Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson may exercise the functions of the Chairperson under this Act or the Parliamentary Evidence Act 1901.

28F Procedure

- (1) The procedure for the calling of meetings of the Parliamentary Joint Committee and for the conduct of business at the meetings is, subject to this Act, to be determined by the Committee.
- (2) The Clerk of the Legislative Assembly must call the first meeting of the Parliamentary Joint Committee in each Parliament in the way the Clerk thinks appropriate.
- (3) At a meeting of the Parliamentary Joint Committee, 4 members constitute a quorum, but the Committee must meet as a joint committee at all times.
- (4) The following person is to preside at a meeting of the Parliamentary Joint Committee—
 - (a) the Chairperson,
 - (b) in the absence of the Chairperson, the Deputy Chairperson,
 - (c) in the absence of the Chairperson and Deputy Chairperson, a member of the Joint Committee elected to chair the meeting by the members present.
- (5) The Deputy Chairperson or other member presiding at a meeting of the Parliamentary Joint Committee has, in relation to the meeting, all the functions of the Chairperson.
- (6) The Chairperson, Deputy Chairperson or other member presiding at a meeting of the Parliamentary Joint Committee has a deliberative vote and, in the event of an equality of votes, also has a casting vote.
- (7) A question arising at a meeting of the Parliamentary Joint Committee must be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.
- (8) The Parliamentary Joint Committee may sit and transact business despite—
 - (a) any prorogation of the Houses of Parliament, or
 - (b) any adjournment of either House of Parliament.
- (9) The Parliamentary Joint Committee may sit and transact business on a sitting day of a House of Parliament during the time of sitting.

28G Reporting when Parliament not in session

- (1) If a House of Parliament is not sitting when the Parliamentary Joint Committee seeks to furnish a report to the House, the Committee may present copies of the report to the Clerk of the House.
- (2) The report—
 - (a) on presentation and for all purposes is taken to have been laid before the House, and
 - (b) may be printed by authority of the Clerk, and

- (c) if printed by authority of the Clerk, is for all purposes taken to be a document published by or under the authority of the House, and
 - (d) must be recorded in the Minutes, or Votes and Proceedings, of the House on the first sitting day of the House after receipt of the report by the Clerk.

28H Evidence

- (1) The Parliamentary Joint Committee has power to send for persons, papers and records.
- (2) The Parliamentary Joint Committee must take all evidence in public subject to section 28I.
- (3) If the Parliamentary Joint Committee as constituted at any time has taken evidence in relation to a matter but the Committee as constituted in that way has ceased to exist before reporting on the matter, the Committee as constituted at any subsequent time, whether during the same or another Parliament, may consider the evidence as if it had taken the evidence.
- (4) The production of documents to the Parliamentary Joint Committee must be in accordance with the practice of the Legislative Assembly in relation to the production of documents to select committees of the Legislative Assembly.

28I Confidentiality

- (1) The joint committee must take evidence in private if—
 - (a) the evidence relates to a secret or confidential matter, and
 - (b) the witness giving the evidence requests that it be taken in private.
- (2) The joint committee must direct that a document be treated as confidential if—
 - (a) the document relates to a secret or confidential matter, and
 - (b) the person producing the document requests that it be treated as confidential.
- (3) For this clause, when the joint committee directs that a document be treated as confidential—
 - (a) the contents of the document are taken to be evidence—
 - (i) given by the person producing the document, and
 - (ii) taken by the joint committee in private, and
 - (b) the person producing the document is taken to be a witness.
- (4) If, at the request of a witness, evidence is taken by the joint committee in private—
 - (a) the joint committee must not, without the written consent of the witness, disclose the evidence, and
 - (b) a member of the joint committee or another person must not, without the written consent of the witness and the authority of the joint committee under subclause (6), disclose the evidence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

- (5) If evidence is taken by the joint committee in private other than at the request of a witness, a member of the joint committee or another person must not, without the authority of the joint committee under subclause (6), disclose the evidence.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or imprisonment for 3 months, or both.

- (6) Subject to subclause (4), the joint committee may disclose or, with the written permission of the chairperson, authorise the disclosure of evidence taken in private by the joint committee.

- (7) Nothing in this clause prohibits—
 - (a) the disclosure of evidence that has already been lawfully published, or
 - (b) the disclosure by a person of a matter of which the person has become aware other than because of the giving of evidence before the joint committee.
 - (8) This clause has effect despite the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975, section 4.
 - (9) If evidence taken by the joint committee in private is disclosed in accordance with this clause, the Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975, sections 5 and 6 apply in relation to the disclosure as if it were a publication of the evidence under the authority of that Act, section 4.
 - (10) A document produced to the joint committee in proceedings conducted in private is a public document for the purposes of the Defamation Act 2005, section 28 if the document is disclosed in accordance with this clause.
 - (11) Proceedings of the joint committee conducted in private are proceedings of public concern for the purposes of the Defamation Act 2005, section 29 if the proceedings relate to the taking of evidence that is disclosed in accordance with this clause.
 - (12) In this clause—

disclose includes publish.

document includes part of a document.

28J Application of certain Acts

For the Parliamentary Evidence Act 1901 and Parliamentary Papers (Supplementary Provisions) Act 1975 and for any other purposes—

- (a) the Parliamentary Joint Committee is to be regarded as a joint committee of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly, and
- (b) the proposal for the appointment of the Joint Committee is to be regarded as having originated in the Legislative Assembly.

28K Validity of certain acts or proceedings

- (1) This section applies if at the time the act or proceeding of the Parliamentary Joint Committee is done, taken or commenced there is—
 - (a) a vacancy in the office of a member of the Joint Committee, or
 - (b) a defect in the appointment, or a disqualification, of a member of the Joint Committee.
- (2) The act or proceeding of the Parliamentary Joint Committee is as valid as if the vacancy, defect or qualification did not exist and the Joint Committee were fully and properly constituted.
